“Spare-Time” Money for Key Men

Among the 15,000 Local Agents for Oliver Type-writers are hundreds who carry on the work while holding salaried positions in the railroad telegraph service.

You would be surprised to learn how many thousands of “spare-time” dollars we pay these men every year.

And these dollars are “velvet” to the man who is holding down a telegraph job.

Many agents declare that their Oliver earnings are the easiest money they make.

We Help You Sell

The

OLIVER

Typewriter

The Standard Visible Writer

You need not be a trained salesman to secure Local Agency or to make a success of the work.

The Oliver Typewriter is so manifestly superior that people sell it to themselves.

Each Oliver Local Agent is given a free correspondence course in The Oliver School of Practical Salesmanship, and assistance whenever needed.

Also the proper incentive in the form of a liberal share of the profits on all sales of new Oliver Typewriters in this territory.

We even permit the Local Agent to buy his Sample Outfit on the 17-Cents-a-Day Plan. If you want to capitalize your odd time, write for Local Agency Proposition.

NOW IS THE TIME FOR EVERY UNION MAN TO DO HIS DUTY

IN THE December number of The Telegrapher, under the caption “Get Busy,” was published a strong appeal from the Executive Council of the American Federation of Labor to all union men to urge their senators and representatives in Congress to support the Bartlett-Bacon Bill (H. R. 1873) and (S. 927), which are designed to amend the Sherman Anti-trust Law, so that no court can construe that law as applying to labor organizations. Since that article was written, the United States Court of Appeals has rendered its decision in the famous Hatters’ case, and that decision makes it imperative for every union man to bestir himself immediately and insist upon his representatives in the United States Senate and the House of Representatives not only supporting these two bills, but also to use every endeavor to secure their immediate passage.

President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, in an editorial in the January number of the Federationist, the official organ of the Federation, sets forth the situation very clearly and shows conclusively the necessity of immediate action on the part of every union man. His article follows:

Without further delay, the citizens of the United States must decide whether they wish to outlaw organized labor. Only a few months ago the officials of the United Mine Workers were indicted under the Sherman Anti-trust law because they helped the miners of West Virginia to break the shackles by which the mining companies held them helpless objects of exploitation. The mine operators forced the constituted authorities of the State to do their bidding. The miners could appeal to no one for justice. Their only defense lay in their ability to enforce their rights through their united organized power. To strip them of that defense is the purpose of the litigation begun by the indictment charging that organization with restraint of trade. These same officers of the United Mine Workers have again been indicted under the same "anti-trust" law because they are helping the miners of Colorado to resist the tyranny of the Standard Oil Company, which seeks to evade compliance with the labor laws of the State. The "indicted" officers of the miners are (call it "conspiring" if you please) engaged in an effort to rid the State of Colorado of government by mine guards in order to re-establish civil government, government by law.

The federal grand jury's indictment charges the officers of the miners' organization with establishing a monopoly of mine labor in the United States and Canada and with organizing a conspiracy to restrain interstate commerce.

The law of the land assures to workers the right to organize. All who have any knowledge of the world of industry concede that without organization the wage-workers are helpless victims of the industrial forces that are seeking their own self-interest. Practical men of business refuse to deal with a weak union, for its agreements would have neither advantage nor force; but as a matter of course they recognize and deal with strong unions, and adjust their business to conform to the new situation. It follows, then, that control of all the workers in a trade increases the success and the efficiency of the organization in securing better terms for a greater number of workers and in turn protects the fair employer from competition with producers who care not how they grind their employees so long as they also grind out profits.

The right to organize is a sham, a trick, a deceit, unless it carries with it the right to organize effectively and the right to use that organized power to further the interests of the workers. This implied right must be assured. If it is alleged that acts in themselves criminal or unlawful are committed in endeavors to effect organization or to secure the benefits of organization, let those acts be dealt with under due process of law. But in the name of free labor, in the name of free government and free society, let the right to organize never for one instant be menaced or withheld. That right is the foundation upon which all else is builded.

The indictments by the federal grand jury were accompanied by a report, a portion of which criticised the miners—this was given wide publicity by the daily press; another portion criticised in more moderate terms the mine operators—this was not given equal publicity. This criticism was in part as follows:

"The operators appear to have been somewhat remiss in endeavoring to secure and hold the good will of their employees, and the grand jury deduced from testimony that there existed reasonable grounds for many of the grievances complained of by the miners. We believe that many of these complaints are substantial and have merit.

"The grand jury found that the State laws have not been so enforced as to give all persons concerned the benefits which are derived therefrom. Many camp marshals, whose appointments and salaries are controlled by coal companies, have exercised a system of espionage and have resorted to arbitrary powers of police control, acting in capacity of judge and jury and passing sentence upon miners who had incurred the enmity of the superintendent or pit boss for having complained of real grievances or for other causes.

"Many of the coal companies maintain camp saloons and collect from the keepers of such saloons a per capita sum of 25 to 40 cents per month for each person whose name appears upon the company pay roll. Many camp saloons are open after midnight and on Sunday contrary to the State law.

"Over one saloon there has floated for years the red flag of anarchy with an open knife fastened to the flag. This saloon is a rendezvous for anarchists, and many crimes are chargeable to its influence."

Despite these statements of law-breaking no indictments were returned against the coal operators. Why?

Why is it that our laws may be perverted and interpreted to prevent those who toil from doing things necessary for their protection and betterment?

Why is it that men of wealth may with impunity break laws whose meaning is plain and unmistakable?

Can it be the influences that emanate from 26 Broadway have murdered justice, have usurped functions of the courts, have taken control of the police functions and have ordered the affairs of the people that dividends may be assured to the favored ones of the Standard Oil clan?

The workers of Colorado are making a fight for the right to organize, for wages that will permit of decent standards of living, for the right to order their own lives and to spend their earnings for their own betterment. They are fighting for the right to fair trial, for the right of protection by the laws of State and nation, and for government free and untrammeled by organized selfish interests.

The menace which threatens the mine workers is the common danger of the whole labor movement. Those workers happen to be the chosen victims. Others have already experienced the same injustice. Many others may be made victims at the whim or desire of any employer.

Union men of America, do you realize that at any time your home, your savings, may be levied upon if your organization has attained any degree of success? Do you realize that you and the officers of your organization may be imprisoned for daring to defend and to promote your welfare and for the exercise of normal activities to increase the power and efficiency of your union? Have you compared your condition with that of the unorganized so that you realize what will be the effect of depriving you of the right to organize?

When you have seriously considered these questions you will realize the imperative necessity that devolves upon all men and women who labor—the necessity of securing amendment to the Sherman Anti-trust law that clearly and specifically prevents the application of that law to the voluntary organization of the workers—the unions.

That law, as now interpreted and applied, constitutes the most serious menace to the labor movement. That law, which was intended to benefit human beings, to prevent or check monopoly and absolute control over the products of labor and of the soil, to assure to the people the necessities of life at reasonable prices, has proved useless in establishing control or regulation over the trusts and monopolies. In a spirit of ironic glee these same monopolies, trusts, and corporations, unharmed by the law which was to have regulated them, now turn this law against the human beings who were to have been protected.

Is the conscience of the American people so dead, is their sense of justice so dormant, that they will tolerate that horses, wheat, hay, sugar, hogs, shall be placed on equality before the law with human beings?

It has been announced by the administration that trust legislation is the next matter that will receive consideration. Plans, policies, methods are being considered. Now is the time for those who place human interests above all else to press their claims and demands upon the attention of those who shall shape and determine the nature of trust legislation. On December 16th we made before the House Judiciary Committee a presentation of the right to existence which must be accorded organizations of toilers. Every union man in the country owes to himself, his family, his conscience to use his influence to secure concerted action of his fellow-workers to arouse public demand and sentiment in behalf of human rights and recognition of these right in the trust legislation.

The party now in control of legislation has twice pledged itself to enact legislation granting to Labor the right of free organization and of all activity in furtherance of organization not in itself unlawful. Twice that party has made a presidential campaign upon a platform containing that pledge. The candidates who accepted places upon the Democratic ticket did not repudiate that pledge. As was the custom under the Taft régime, the present administration has permitted, under the provisions of the Sherman Anti-trust law, indictments against men helping their fellow-workers to secure higher wages, a shorter working day, conditions that will assure them a more just compensation for toil and freedom to order their own lives outside of working hours. Those of that party whom the people elected to office are in honor bound to redeem that pledge they gave to those who elected them. Labor of America expects such action. If the party in power is not in favor of outlawing organized labor, it must give substance to that conviction.

Organized labor must live to give tone, character, and purpose to the needs and demands for justice, rights, and a better life to the toilers.

The workers everywhere are urged not only to make their own views clear, but to persuade all friends of Labor and human justice to communicate at once with their respective senators and representatives in Congress.

Demand the early enactment of the Bartlett Bacon bills, S. 927 and H. R. 1873. In all justice the Sherman Anti-trust law must be amended.

* * * * * * * * *

Just as we are going to press comes another proof of the imperative necessity for the effective amendment of the Sherman Anti-trust law, which Labor demands. Three judges of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals on December 18th rendered a decision affirming the decision of the Connecticut Federal District Court that the United Hatters of North America shall pay D. E. Loewe and Company $252,130. And on what grounds? Because the hatters succeeded in establishing fair wages and conditions of work in nearly all hat shops of the country and were using their collective power to secure the same conditions from D. E. Loewe and Company. The degree of success which their organization had achieved in securing for working men and women a little shorter workday and a little more time for home, rest, and self-improvement, a few more dollars for the necessities and some of the pleasures of life, and less harmful conditions of work, was held by the court as evidence of "conspiracy and restraint of trade"—was made the grounds upon which their homes and their little earnings were attached and held for years, and again is made the grounds upon which these hatters are to pay three-fold damages and costs to D. E. Loewe and Company.

Have these unions the right to exist, or shall they be outlawed under the Sherman Anti-trust law at the will of any enemy of organized labor? That is the question.

This last decision, written by Judge Coxe and concurred in by Judges Ward and Rogers of the Federal Court of Appeals, contains the following:

"That the Anti-trust Act is applicable to such combinations as are alleged in the complaint is no longer debatable. The law makes no distinction between the classes, employers and employees, corporations or individuals. Rich and poor alike are included under its terms. The Supreme Court particularly points out that, although Congress was frequently importuned to exempt farmers' organizations and labor unions from its provisions, these efforts all failed and the act still remains.

"No one disputes the proposition that labor unions are lawful. All must admit that they are not only lawful but highly beneficial when legally and fairly conducted, but, like all other combinations, irrespective of their objects and purposes, they must obey the law."

Note the fact that the decision was unanimous. Note this statement: "That the Anti-trust Act is applicable to such combinations as are alleged in the complaint is no longer debatable."

Note this fact, too: The court declares that no one disputes that labor unions are not only "lawful but highly beneficial." Will the court or anyone else point out any instance, even in the record in this case, in which the aim and the purpose of the hatters were anything but tending to benefit the large mass of the hatters directly and all workers as a result? The court declares further that labor unions like all other combinations, irrespective of their objects and purposes, must obey the law. Law, as its essence is best understood, is justice, and when it is not justice it is not law.

Let us apply the same set of circumstances in this case to the activities of another form of voluntary organization. Take, for instance, the Consumers’ League, composed of a number of men and women of our country who aim to secure improved conditions for women and men clerks in our department stores and who aim to secure better sanitary conditions for the workers in the sweatied trades. Suppose, then, such an organization had decided that it would not patronize any store which had on sale the products of sweatshops or which refused fair conditions to the store clerks. Suppose that the leaders communicated with a kindred organization in California or elsewhere, where sweatshop products were on sale, and, as a result, that voluntary association in California declared that it would not patronize the store which kept on sale the products of sweatshops. Would the court hold that the Consumers’ League was a beneficial organization and yet that it had violated the provisions of the Sherman Anti-trust law? Suppose, further, that the churches engaged in the movement for the prohibition of the liquor traffic, in order to carry on a systematic boycott throughout the country, should injure the business of a brewery, a distillery, or a saloon-keeper. Would the court hold that the churches were lawful and highly beneficial organizations, that they were guilty of a conspiracy and restraint of trade and therefore subject to three-fold damages which any of these injured parties might claim? Would the court deem that the churches in this respect be admonished to “obey the law?”

The fact of the matter is that under the perversion rather than the interpretation of the Sherman Anti-trust law by the federal courts, that which is held to be law is founded upon neither justice nor common sense. The federal courts have fallen into the common error which places the voluntary associations of the working people, organized not for profit but for humanitarian purposes, in the same category with the greedy, conscienceless trusts, corporations, and monopolies which control the products of labor and which speculate in the necessities of the people; it is equal to placing human conscience, human endeavor, human souls in the same scale with pork or bushels of coal.

Under these decisions the very right of existence of the labor unions is not only questioned or threatened, but is imperiled. It might be interesting to know what the court had in mind when it said that the labor unions were not only lawful but highly beneficial when legally and fairly conducted. What, indeed, is the court’s conception of what a lawful labor union highly beneficial in its objects and purposes is and how it should carry out its beneficial objects and purposes legally and fairly? In a word, what is the court’s conception of the lawful union “legally and fairly conducted?”

There never was any intention on the part of the Congress of the United States to include the voluntary organizations of workers—that is, the labor unions—in the Sherman Anti-trust law. Then, again, though not in the same Congress, the United States Senate and the House of Representatives at different times have adopted amendments to the Sherman Anti-trust law specifically excluding these organizations from the provisions of that law. And now all that has transpired more clearly demonstrates the necessity for the enactment of the Bartlett-Bacon bill as a remedy for the wrongful position in which organized labor has been placed, not only by judicial interpretation but by judicial legislation.

And let those who value the liberty and the welfare of America’s toilers lose no time in demanding justice for them and in pressing these demands upon their representatives in Congress.

The need is great. The existence of organized labor is in jeopardy. The right to organize is necessary for the freedom of the workers. The freedom of the workers is necessary for the freedom of all the people, the perpetuation of our Republic itself.
GOOD NEWS.

As the readers of this journal are aware, it has been the custom of the Post Office Department to send this journal, as well as other publications, by "fast freight" instead of by passenger-train mail service from all of the large cities, and as a consequence it has been greatly delayed in being delivered to its readers.

The Second Assistant Postmaster General recently gave publications an opportunity to furnish any reason which they might have for the restoration of such publications to the mail service on passenger trains, and the Editor of The Telegrapher lost no time in furnishing that department with what he believed to be the valid reason why this journal should be restored to the mail service carried on passenger trains, and in due time was informed by the department that the request to have this journal placed in the excepted class and hereafter transported on passenger trains had been granted, and that such restoration would commence on January 26th, which means that The Telegrapher will, commencing with the February number, be carried in the mails on passenger trains, thereby insuring a much earlier delivery to its readers.

THE A. F. OF L. CONVENTION.

The Thirty-third Annual Convention of the American Federation of Labor convened in Seattle, Wash., on November 10th and continued in session up to and including the 22d, with the usual large attendance.

On the opening day, addresses of welcome were delivered by Hon. Ernest Lister, Governor of the State of Washington; Hon. Geo. F. Cotterill, Mayor of Seattle, and E. P. Marsh, President of the Washington State Federation of Labor, to which response was made by President Gompers in his usual eloquent and happy manner. The reports of the various officers to the convention, showed that the federation was in a most prosperous condition, with a larger membership than ever before in its history. Summarized, the reports show that there are 111 national and international unions, 42 State federations, 621 city central bodies and 659 local trade and federal labor unions affiliated with the American Federation of Labor; that these bodies comprise 20,046 local unions with a membership of 2,054,526.

The report of the Executive Council, which is composed of the officers of the federation, is a very voluminous as well as interesting document, in which the more important matters of the past year are carefully and thoroughly reviewed.

Of the organized labor movement in general and the American Federation of Labor in particular, the report says:

A third of a century ago a little group of men, thoroughly convinced that the trade union movement was the hope of the American workers, met in Pittsburg and effected the organization that has grown into its present splendid development. The trade union movement has justified the faith of those who founded it and devoted their lives to building it up. It has been the great power that has placed humanity above all else—it has forced humanity upon industry, into legislation, into social concepts and ideals. It has ever made protest against wrong, injustice, waste of human energy and life. It has been the greatest force for the uplift of the workers and all those that are weary and heavy laden—it has permeated their lives and made them freer, better, happier, more worth living.

The trade union movement has become the greatest factor in the lives of the masses of the American people because of its practical idealism. Those who have made the organization what it is have recognized that they were confronted with conditions rather than theories. They have recognized that in counseling those in need of more and better food, clothing and the necessities of life, they were dealing with the raw stuff of life, with human beings who live in the present and whose destinies depend upon present aid. Any organization that has in its keeping the welfare of human beings has assumed a tremendous responsibility. The welfare of the hosts of toilers is entrusted to the American trade union movement.
Industrial managements have been cruel and heartless in their self-interests; between the American working people and such cruelty and heartlessness there has stood but one unfailing defense—the labor movement. This labor movement has laid hold of the hearts of men and women; it is to them a symbol of those things which are the best of life. It is a real living thing which the toilers love and cherish. And the soul of the movement is the hearts and lives of those who have built themselves into it, by sacrifice and toil.

The delegates to this convention, you who are to transact the affairs of this movement, be fully conscious of the dignity and responsibility devolving upon you—the welfare of the human beings whom you represent. Where so much is at stake, fads, idealistic, but impracticable fancy, personal interests, must give way to the larger aspects of all problems. Differences of opinions there must be, for they are inseparable from a growing movement that must adjust to the changing conditions of industry and society. For the success of the cause does not depend upon the elimination of disputes, but upon the spirit in which they are treated. A practical, resourceful spirit has been characteristic of all former deliberations and is indispensable that the propositions and the issues coming before this convention shall be disposed of with discretion.

The matters which are to be considered by this convention are not only working class problems, but they concern and have a bearing upon the whole of society, in America and the whole world. The trade unionists have their group interests and work and their organizations by which these are promoted, yet they are an integral component of society and their welfare is not always in conflict with that of other members of society. Since the delegates to this convention will deal with problems affecting the welfare of those they represent and that of many others, the discussions and decisions will be studied by the earnest men and women, the thinkers of this country and of the whole world. The men in the labor movement are students of the world of men and affairs, who know conditions through personal experience and observation. The labor movement has produced and educated its economists, its statesmen, and its philosophers. Upon such, representing their fellow-workers at this Seattle convention, will rest the grave responsibility of earnestly striving to solve wisely and surely the many problems that will come before this body. Not one issue will be unimportant, for each will affect the development of the movement for better or for worse.

It is of the greatest importance that you, the delegates to this 1913 convention, come to its sessions fully aware of the great responsibility and duty which rests upon you, that you come ready to consider and decide all matters purely and wholly from the standpoint of human welfare. Let all things be done in the spirit that will make this a gathering that will inspire new courage and love for humanity and prepare for still more glorious success for the trade union movement.

The past year has been one of most gratifying progress and steady growth for the trade union movement of America. During the year the affiliated membership of the American Federation of Labor reached the two-million mark, passed beyond, and is surely and steadily advancing toward the new goal—the three-million mark. Not only has there been progress made in numbers, but for the increasing numbers there have been increase in wages, shortening of the workday, improvement in sanitary and general conditions under which the work is done, better protection for the life and health of the workers. These are fundamental factors in determining the standard of living prevailing among working people—the greater proportion of all the people. The test of the degree of civilization of any nation is the standard of living generally prevailing. There can be no question of the statement that the general standard of living among Americans has been raised year after year. The things which today are held to be necessities were deemed luxuries a decade ago. Furthermore, there can be no question of the statement that the organized labor movement of America has been the most potent force in bringing about this higher standard of living now prevailing among the American workingmen and women and those dependent upon them. It is the only effective defense that stands between the organized workers and oppression and injustice, the common lot of the burden-bearers of the world.

The trade union movement of America is a very real part of the lives of the workers, a living thing whose spirit has quickened the instincts of free manhood and womanhood and has been the persistent protestant against condition which oppressed the underpaid and undernourished, stunted souls and scarred bodies. In addition, it has been the means of freeing the minds and the souls of men—this is its greatest service to humanity. The spirit of the trade union movement has made straight the bent back; it has made of the one formerly a mere suppliant for favors, a free individual, unafraid, calmly and insistently demanding justice; it has freed the wills of men.

After all, it is not always the things that can be seen and touched that give life its deepest and highest purpose and value, but it is the determining, actuating spirit. The trade union movement has made men strong and able in their collective might, but has left them free to live their individual lives without let or hindrance. It is of the progress of this great movement that we, in our official capacity as members of the Executive Council, submit to you our report of the substance of what has been undertaken and accomplished during the past year.

The following excerpts, covering matters of interest to the railroad telegraphers, are taken from that report:

WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION.

In the report to the Toronto Convention of the American Federation of Labor we directed attention to the movement—then in its conception—to secure legislation providing compensation to workmen for injuries sustained in the course of their employment. The convention recommended "a continuation of the agitation set forth in the Executive Council's report on compensation and liability, to the end that necessary legislation may be enacted."

Pursuant to these instructions, your Executive Council has devoted much time and effort to the furtherance of this important and necessary work. From time to time we have collected and collated information for the use of the working people and have distributed throughout the land literature dealing with the subject. We have also associated ourselves with and have sought the co-operation of other organizations of men and women interested in securing the enactment of workmen's compensation laws and legislation for the prevention of industrial accidents.

During the midsummer session of your Executive Council we appointed Vice-Presidents Duncan and Mitchell to cooperate with other associations and persons interested in the subject of workmen's compensation and instructed them to institute an investigation as to the character and operation of the laws enacted on this subject in the various States. This investigation is progressing as expeditiously as circumstances and the importance of the subject will permit. The information which the investigating commission is securing should prove of great value to our movement and to all others interested in the enactment of compensation laws sufficiently comprehensive to protect and provide for the victims of the hazards of industrial pursuits. When this work is completed the Executive Council will be in possession of sufficient information to enable it to make a comprehensive report to the next convention.

At this time and in this preliminary report, however, we are able to announce that the movement inaugurated only a few years ago to secure the enactment of compensation laws has progressed to an extent that justifies the hope and the prediction that if the organized wage-earners take proper interest in the subject, compensation laws will be enacted in all the States within the not-distant future. In fact, largely as a result of the agitation carried on by the organized wage-earners of our country, all enlightened and humane citizens are coming to recognize the justice of Labor's claim that industry shall bear the burden of the losses caused to workmen by industrial accidents, and that the dependents of workmen who have been killed in the course of their employment should in some measure be compensated for the irreparable loss they have sustained.

Up to this time the following States, twenty-one in number, have enacted compensation laws: Arizona, California, Connecticut, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Ohio, Oregon, Rhode Island, Texas, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin.

The laws of some of these States provide rates of compensation wholly inadequate, and in other instances the payment of compensation is not guaranteed in such a manner as to justify the workmen in having confidence in the law. Some States, notably California, Illinois and Ohio, recognizing the defects and the inadequacy of the laws first enacted, have revised and remodeled their compensation acts in such a manner as to strengthen and improve them. Other States are considering amendments that will remove the defects in their compensation laws which experience has shown to exist.

However, notwithstanding the defects of the compensation laws of many of our States—which can and should be remedied—we have no hesitancy in saying that injured workmen and their dependent families are immeasurably better protected and provided for under compensation laws than they were under the antiquated, cruel and unjust common law as it related to an employer's liability.

While it is impossible, for constitutional reasons, to secure absolute uniformity in legislation among all the States, yet there are important features in respect to rates of compensation and to the creation of machinery for the administration of the law against which there are no constitutional inhibitions. In regard to these, effort should be made to secure uniformity. In our judgment, the laws in all States should provide that an injured workman shall receive during his incapacity 662/3 per cent of the wages he was earning at the time the accident occurred; furthermore, we believe that a workman who sustains an accident causing permanent partial disability should receive, in addition to the usual weekly compensation, a specific indemnity. We believe that every law should provide guarantees under which an injured workman or his dependents shall be certain of securing the compensation provided for in the law. In addition, we regard it of vital importance that our movement should insist that an industrial board be created in every State, with full power to direct and administer the law. To this board every accident should be reported and by it all settlements of claims should be approved. On such board the organized wage-earners should be represented by one or more of their best and most faithful members.

A large number of workmen's compensation bills have been introduced in Congress. The bills—S. 959, by Senator Sutherland, of Utah, and H. R. 6534, by Representative Davis, of West Virginia—are companion bills and similar in character to the one which passed both Houses in the last (Sixty-second) Congress, but which died in the closing hours of the Senate because of a filibuster by its opponents. The Sutherland-Davis bill is designed to cover the interests of employees engaged in interstate commerce by railroads. The bill, H. R. 2944, by Representative Sabath, of Illinois, is for a similar purpose.

Bills introduced for the purpose of extending the Federal Compensation Act to all employees of the Government and for the further purpose of increasing the benefits are: S. 412, by Senator Sutherland, of Utah; S. 738, by Senator Kern, of Indiana; S. 1296, by Senator Penrose, of Pennsylvania; H. R. 1679, by Representative Steenerson, of Minnesota; H. R. 1729, by Representative Griest, of Pennsylvania; H. R. 3335, by Representative Gillett, of Massachusetts; H. R. 5899, by Representative McGillicuddy, of Maine; H. R. 6145, by Representative Dupree, of Louisiana.

The Kern and McGillicuddy bills are the most comprehensive; they make provision for beneficial payments to Federal employes suffering from occupational diseases, and for the appointment of a Federal Commission to administer the act when passed. All of the above measures have been referred to the respective committees on labor, judiciary, and post office.

IMMIGRATION.

In the report submitted to the Rochester Convention (pages 39-40 printed proceedings) on the subject of immigration, the attention of the convention was called to the bill pending before Congress having for its object the better regulation and limitation of immigration to the United States. Attention was called to the bill then pending in the Sixty-second Congress which was the result of the combined work of the American Federation of Labor's declarations as well as those features recommended by the Federal Immigration Commission. The bill provided for an illiteracy test and an increase of the head tax, with many administrative features to render its enforcement effective.

The convention directed your officers and Legislative Committee to be insistent upon the enactment of that bill before the expiration of the Sixty-second Congress. The instructions were carried out, with the result that the bill passed the Senate and House of Representatives by overwhelming majorities, and reached President Taft, who gave hearings thereon. Owing to President Gompers' important engagement elsewhere, Secretary Morrison and our Legislative Committee appeared at the conference with the President and strongly presented the cause of immigration limitation and regulation. A few days later another conference was held with President Taft, in which President Gompers, former Representative Bennett, of New York (the representative of the shipping interests), and Commissioner of Immigration at the Port of New York, Mr. Williams, participated. The entire subject-matter was gone over thoroughly. Commissioner Williams strongly urged the President to sign the bill. He supported all the contentions which Mr. Gompers made, and insisted that if for no other reason than the advantageous administrative features contained in the bill, it ought to become a law. During the conference a heated colloquy occurred between Mr. Bennett and President Gompers, President Taft interjecting a remark to Mr. Bennett that he was "tread" by the statement. When the conference adjourned the impression was firmly made that the President would sign the bill. He, however, vetoed it. The bill having originated in the Senate, it was returned there by President Taft with his veto. The Senate passed the bill over the President's veto by a more than two-thirds vote. The bill then came to the House, and by four votes failed of passage by a two-thirds vote over the President's veto. Some of those upon whom we most confidently relied to vote for the bill in the House at all stages of its progress voted contrary to the interests of Labor and the American people, and thus the immigration bill failed of enactment in the last Congress.

In the special session of this (the Sixty-third) Congress, a large number of bills for the purpose of restricting immigration have been introduced, among them being the following: S. 50, by Senator Overman, of North Carolina; S. 2406, by Senator Dillingham, of Vermont; S. 2453, by Senator Smith, of South Carolina; H. R. 1958, by Representative Roddenbery, of Georgia; H. R. 102, by Representative Raker, of California; H. R. 2869, 2870, 2883, 2886, 2888, 2923, by Representative Hayes, of California; H. R. 2934, by Representative Gardner, of Massachusetts; H. R. 6060, by Representative Burnett, of Alabama; H. R. 5973, by Representative Sabath, of Illinois. The bills of Representatives Hayes and Raker deal principally with Asiatic exclusion, and the bills by Representative Gardner and Burnett and Senator Smith contain the literacy test as approved by the American Federation of Labor, which was passed by the last (Sixty-second) Congress and vetoed by President Taft. Mr. Burnett, chairman of the House Committee on Immigration, has made strenuous endeavors to secure a favorable report from the committee on H. R. 6060, and it is probable that it will be reported before this session of Congress closes.
In addition to the causes which prompt the American people, and particularly the American working people, to insist upon better regulation and greater limitation of immigration to the United States are the social, economic and labor problems which will develop and grow larger after the Panama Canal is completed and open to commerce. Transportation will be made easier and less expensive. Workers from foreign countries will be able to obtain quicker and cheaper access to the Pacific Coast States, and as a consequence will add to the immigration problems of that section of our country. The duty of the organized workers on the Pacific Coast to meet this new problem will be more imperative. In behalf of self-preservation these problems will require the utmost vigilance, not only by the general labor movement, but also by the people of the whole country. Steamships plying between foreign countries and the United States have laid their plans for the construction of more ships for the transportation of immigrant workers to the Far West, and undoubtedly the large employers will avail themselves to the utmost to take advantage of such an opportunity for their own immediate interests and against the interests of America’s workers.

AUTOMATIC STOP SYSTEMS FOR RAILROADS.

Resolution No. 101 of the Rochester Convention, by Delegates McNulty, Glyn, and Ford, of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, instructing the Legislative Committee to use every effort within its power to obtain the enactment of a bill requiring railroad companies to equip their roads with automatic stop systems, was given all of the attention that was possible to give it during the closing session of the last (Sixty-second) Congress. During the first session of the present Congress (the Sixty-third), several bills requiring railroads to install "automatic stop systems" have been introduced. All such bills have been referred to the appropriate Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce, where is evidently a growing sentiment in Congress in favor of the installation of some practical automatic stop system. As soon as such a system can be proven serviceable there is no doubt but that Congress will order "automatic stops" on all inter-state railroads. The Interstate Commerce Commission has very diligently examined most of the projects of this character that are worth the time and attention of practical railroad men.

THE CONTEMPT CASE.

Again the American Federation of Labor has succeeded in bringing its contempt proceedings test before the Supreme Court of the United States for decision. The long duration and the many vicissitudes of this case most forcefully illustrates how extremely difficult it is to obtain a judicial enunciation of principle or application of law under our present legalism.

In our report to the Rochester Convention we told of the initiation of the new contempt proceedings, Equity 30,180, in the court of Judge Wright, the hearing of the testimony, and that opinion and judgment of the court reaffirming the first decision handed down in 1908. We stated that an appeal had been taken to the District Court of Appeals. The case was argued before that court February 25-26, 1913. Judge Alton B. Parker and Jackson H. Ralston made the arguments for the representatives of the American Federation of Labor, President Gompers, Vice-President Mitchell, and Secretary Morrisson. J. J. Darlington, Clarence R. Wilson, and Daniel Davenport, committeemen appointed by Judge Wright after the Supreme Court decision of 1911 to investigate whether or not there were just grounds for contempt proceedings, constituted the counsel for the prosecution.

The briefs and memoranda filed by the counsel for the American Federation of Labor, as well as in their arguments before the court, dealt with the technical issues necessarily involved in asking for an appeal and the tremendous human interests not only of organized labor but of all advocates of liberty. It was contended that the charges constituted criminal contempt and would accordingly be governed by the rules of criminal procedure and barred by the Statute of Limitations. It was affirmed that the opinion and mental attitude of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia indicated that the men were found guilty of want of respect for judicial authority rather than contempt of court. The argument dealing with the human interests involved, adduced the fact that the injunction and contempt proceedings were not isolated litigation, but were part of a carefully prepared nation-wide attempt to disrupt and destroy labor organizations, in this instance by harassing workingmen with judicial orders restricting normal activities and absorbing their funds in expensive litigation. It was furthermore shown that the evidence produced to prove violation of the injunction included political speeches and writings indispensable to the pursuance of the avowed legislative purposes of the American Federation of Labor—the enactment of remedial legislation relieving workingmen of the abuses of the injunctive writ which hampered them in the exercise of rights guaranteed them by custom law, and Constitution.

The District Court of Appeals gave its decision May 5, 1913. The opinion of the court, written by Justice Van Orsdel and concurred in by Justice Robb, sustained the lower court in finding Messrs. Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison guilty of contempt of court, but declared the sentence imposed by Justice Wright a violation of judicial discretion. The court changed the sentences imposed from imprisonment for twelve, nine, and six months to imprisonment for thirty days for President Gompers, and $500 fines for Vice-President Mitchell and Secretary Morrison. In justifying this modification of sentences the court said:

"The differences which necessitated the injunction have been settled. The sole purposes of punishment, therefore, is to give reasonable assurance that respondents will in the future respect the authority of the courts. While the injunction was issued to restrain the most subtle and far-reaching conspiracy to boycott that has come to our attention the boycott has ceased and the necessity for the injunction no longer existed at the time this case was tried below. A penalty, therefore, which would have been justifiable to prevent further defiance of the order of the court but for the settlement, would now be needless and excessive. Had the court below imposed penalties not greatly in excess of those which we now deem adequate, we would not feel justified in holding that there had been an abuse of discretion. Since, however, the penalties imposed are so unreasonably excessive, and we are called upon to modify the judgment, we prefer to err, if at all, on the side of moderation. No one, however, can read this record without being convinced that respondent Gompers had been chief factor in this contempt; hence, a severer punishment is merited in his case than in the cases of the other respondents."

In this, as in the first contempt case, Chief Justice Shepard wrote a dissenting opinion. He held that the Statute of Limitations did apply to the particular offenses charged and would bar all specifications of the charges against John Mitchell and all except one against Frank Morrison. This was the one charging Mr. Morrison with the circulation of the American Federationist for September, 1908. The Chief Justice added: "As to this the charge is too general to put the party under notice."

As to the charges specified against President Gompers, within the three-year period Chief Justice Shepard did not consider that any of the evidence produced constituted a violation of the injunction. This opinion concludes with a consideration of the failure of the defendants to apologize, as was suggested by the report of the committee appointed by Justice Wright. The Chief Justice states:

"The failure or refusal to accept the suggestion has been considered as important in measuring the intent and temper of the defendants. I am unable to see how the refusal to apologize for an act, the commission of which had been expressly denied, shows a reprehensible intent or temper. On the contrary, it seems to me the natural conduct of a self-respecting man. Having sworn that he had neither disobeyed nor intended to disobey the mandate of the court, a confession that he had done so would be solemn admission of willful perjury. Moreover, the demand that the court be acquainted 'before these proceedings close with your conviction whether you ought and whether you hereafter expect to lend adherence to the decrees of judicial tribunals of the land in matters committed by law to their jurisdiction and power,' was entirely outside of the offense charged and beyond the power of any court."

The opinion by the District Court of Appeals did not give a decision to the fundamental issues upon which organized labor had been so long asking a judicial ruling. Labor wished to know what position the highest court of the land would take upon the matter involved—namely, when a court transcends the power delegated to it by law, and issues an order forbidding persons to do that which they have a lawful right to do, rights which are specifically guaranteed and protected by the written Constitution, is that order null and void? Organized labor had been prohibited the right of free speech and of free press—the rights essential to the presentation and discussion of grievances and abuses. Therefore, the counsel for the American Federation of Labor were instructed to file a petition in the Supreme Court of the United States for a writ of certiorari to obtain a review of the case by the highest tribunal of the land.

The modification of sentences made by the District Appeal Court was displeasing to Judge Wright, who filed a petition asking the Supreme Court to reverse that part of the decision which reduced the sentence. The petition, charging the appeal court with transgressing the bounds of its authority, is an incident unique in the history of jurisprudence. The Supreme Court of the United States, to cover any possible technical question, has granted a writ of error and an appeal. It has reserved the question of the granting of a writ of certiorari and in all probability will not pass upon that question until the case comes on to be heard.

UNEMPLOYED.

The unemployed men and women of our country are always a matter of concern to the organized labor movement. So long as there is a man or woman willing to work for whom there is no employment, society as a whole is failing to do justice. The changing seasons of the year decrease or increase the number of unemployed, and while the organized labor movement is battling for a greater degree of economic justice for those who are directly affiliated, its attention must be directed to that portion of our population who are idle through no fault of their own.

The tremendous responsibility resting upon our organized movement, first, to educate the non-union workers so that they may comprehend the rights to which they are entitled, and then to organize them into labor unions, does not constitute our full duty. Every question which has to do with the general welfare of the people comes within the scope of the organized labor movement. It is the only organized force that operates with directness and method. So long as there are unemployed who are willing to work it should be the aim of our movement to extend to them whatever assistance may be possible and to endeavor to implant in their hearts and minds the fact that the organized men and women of Labor are anxious to be of service to those who are less fortunately situated. The labor movement should be ever mindful of the fact that the future will demand that some specific plan be devised for meeting this duty to those without a chance to earn a living.

There are many way in which organized labor and the general public could mitigate the evils of unemployment without devising any elaborate program of social justice or economic reform. This labor might be utilized in the construction of public works—in road building—which new methods of travel are making of increasing importance—and by shortening the hours of those already employed so that no one shall be employed more than eight hours per day.

Not only should there be the humanitarian impulse to share with our less fortunate fellow-workers, the unemployed, but there must be an appreciation of the real menace which a body of unemployed workers constitutes to the standards of wages, working conditions, and living of those who are employed. Those who are unemployed, those who are perforce almost compelled to underbid fair rates, those who undermine standards of living, constitute an almost insurmountable obstacle to greater material progress and advancement. It is a problem that demands constructive treatment. Every method by which unemployment can be eliminated should be most carefully utilized by the organized labor movement.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Samuel Gompers; First Vice-President, James Duncan; Second Vice-President, James O’Connell; Third Vice-President, D. A. Hayes; Fourth Vice-President, Joseph F. Valentine; Fifth Vice-President, John R. Alpine; Sixth Vice-President, H. B. Perham; Seventh Vice-President, John P. White; Eighth Vice-President, Frank Duffy; Treasurer, John B. Lennon; Secretary, Frank Morrison.

Philadelphia, Pa., was chosen as the next meeting place.

NEW YORK'S COMPENSATION LAW.

STARTING with the first of this year the New York Workmen’s Compensation Act took effect, and this State is now in line with almost half the States of the country who are endeavoring to compel employers to insure in some manner the payment of moneys to workers injured in the course of their employment. The law provides three ways in which employers may insure themselves—either in a State-authorized casualty company, or in a mutual company composed of not less than forty employers having not less than 2,500 employs, or by payment of certain designated premiums into the State fund. Another method will affect only large corporations, such as railroads, telegraph and telephone concerns. It provides that these corporations, if they so elect, may deposit in banks an amount, to be decided upon by the commission, necessary to pay claims against it. The various industries are divided into groups, and each group will pay a rate decided upon by the commission. Payments start the first of July next. Failure to make payments after this date invokes a penalty of $1 a day for every employee for such neglect or refusal. To further make it possible for all workers to be compensated, the law provides that in case of a suit against an employer who has not complied with the law, all previous defenses are taken from him, and his only defenses are that the injury was caused by the willful intention of the injured employee or where the injury results solely from intoxication—both of which are questions for jury decision.

INTERESTING DOCUMENT.

THE Vice-President of the United States, Hon. Thomas R. Marshall, and also President of the United States Senate, recently presented to the Senate a letter from Hon. Henry W. Blair, former United States Senator from New Hampshire, and asked that this letter, together with an accompanying communication, be printed as a Senate document. The subject of the letter was school statistics. The document is No. 224, and can be secured by addressing any senator. The document contains a letter addressed to Mr. Blair by Alex. Summers, statistician of the Bureau of Education, and contains a table of actual expenses of all the States in the Union for primary mental training, this not including the high schools. It is stated that the educators of the country agree that $28 per capita is the least annual expenditure which will give the American child a good—not the best—common-school education. It is shown in the table of expenditures that the average amount of money expended by the States totals $446,726,929, while if $28 per capita had been expended, the least amount which the educators say will provide a common-school education, there should have been expended $692,875,664. It is a valuable document and should be in the possession of those who are interested in the expenditures made for education.

IMPORTANT.

By L. W. Quick, Grand Secretary and Treasurer.

During his 27 years of experience in the labor movement, the Editor has become accustomed to dodging “bricks” and other little “incidental” which are usually cast in the direction of one officially or actively connected with an organization, but his “education” in the art of dodging flatirons, rolling-pins, dishpans, etc., has not been brought up to that standard whereby he feels entirely equal to an emergency of this character, should one present itself, therefore, he has not heretofore presumed to appear in the Ladies’ Auxiliary Department of the journal (except through the medium of the much-maligned “blue pencil”), but with the advent of the New Year, accompanied presumably by many good resolutions, he has after summoning every ounce of courage at his command, “determined” to make a bold “dash” herein (and an equally hurried exit) for the purpose of calling the attention of the wives, and others interested, to a matter of more than ordinary interest to them, and be it forever understood that if he escapes unscathed this time, he will not (soon) again invade this sacred retreat, and most solemnly renounces any intention of attempting to have the “last word,” which prerogative is so often denied those of his sex.

Having “declared” himself, the Editor will first take advantage of the opportunity to extend his congratulations to the Ladies’ Auxiliary and its members on its splendid progress, and to wish each member a happy and prosperous New Year.

The particular reason for this “intrusion” follows:

During the last several years many letters have been received from the wives of deceased members, advising of the death of their husbands, and requesting that arrangements be made to pay the amount of the certificate held in the Mutual Benefit Department by him to them, but upon consulting the records of that department, it is found the certificate was taken out by the member prior to his marriage and was made payable to some other relative and the beneficiary had never been changed, consequently the department was powerless to pay the widow the proceeds of the certificate, as it had of necessity to be paid to the relative designated as beneficiary.

Many cases have arisen, where a member, apparently realizing that he was on his death bed, has written the department a “hurry-up” letter, requesting that the beneficiary in his certificate be changed to his wife, but he failed to send in the certificate which he held, as provided by the laws of the department, and therefore, the change could not be made until the member was communicated with and the certificate secured, and in several instances, the member died in the meantime.

For many years the Editor has repeatedly called attention to this matter in the editorial columns, but cases of a similar character continue to present themselves. During the last ten years the following paragraph has appeared in every circular gotten up and sent to members of this Department, the purpose of which circular was to acquaint the members with the workings of the Mutual Benefit Department: “Under the laws of the State of Missouri, the member has the absolute right to name the party or parties to whom certificate shall be paid, which, of course, must be within the provision of the laws of the Department. It is hoped, in order to avoid legal complications and other inconveniences, that all members of this Department will see to it that their certificate is payable to the person or persons whom they desire to receive the benefit therefrom in case of their death. Should the certificate you now hold be made payable to parents or other relatives, and you have since the issuance of the certificate been married, the certificate would, under the laws, be paid to your parents or relatives named as beneficiary, in case of your death, and your wife could be paid nothing by us, unless your certificate is returned to this office and the beneficiary changed prior to your death, in accordance with Article XX."

Article 20 of the laws governing the Mutual Benefit Department, provides that any member, desiring to make a change in the beneficiary named in his certificate, may do so by making a written request to that effect, and accompanying the request by the certificate he now holds. The Editor is calling attention to this matter through this department in an effort to avoid in future the very embarrassing situations which have occurred in the past.

A word to the wise should be sufficient.

THE YULE TIDE.

By Mrs. E. L. Mathis, President.

The happy Yule tide has come and gone, bringing with it much joy and happiness to humanity. Aside from its sacred origin and significance Christmas is worth a great deal for the pleasure it brings. Since that memorable night nearly two thousand years ago when the angels came out of heaven, announcing "tidings of great joy" and sang in the hearing of the Judean shepherds, "Peace on earth, good will to men," the event has meant only good to the world. I hope all the members and friends of our splendid Order, caught afresh the teachings of Christmas, the real spirit of Him who was its origin, the Fatherhood of God and the Brotherhood of Man. Let us this gladsome new year resolve to do more than we have heretofore, to teach and to live the principles of unionism, which means in its highest sense the brotherhood of humanity. Shall not every member of our Auxiliary stand as an example of the altruistic teachings of our organization for 1914. I feel that you will, and hereby pledge our Order to a year of activity for growth and usefulness. The year 1913 was a very successful one and the reports which come are most encouraging. We are hoping for and shall expect to do greater things this year. Take this as a clarion call to rededicate ourselves to the success of our loved Auxiliary, the great cause of organization and unionism for the coming twelve months.

Notes from the Grand Secretary and Treasurer.

Beginning January 1, 1914, the Ladies' Auxiliary will offer a set of prizes to the members who by their energy and interest secure new members for the term ending June 30, 1914.

This list of prizes has been decided upon by the members of the Executive Board, and ratified by the Grand President.

Members securing five new members will be given one of the official L. A. emblem pins.

Members securing ten new members will be given a solid-silver teaspoon.

Members securing fifty new members will be given six of the solid-silver teaspooes.

Members securing sixty new members will be given a gold-filled watch with your monogram engraved upon the back.

This watch is made by one of the the best and most reliable jewelry houses in the South. They give one of the best movements and guarantee this watch to last as long as any 14-karat gold watch.

The silver spoons are made by the same firm and are the heaviest of their kind, with a raised-rose design upon the handle, and are called the rose design. They can be duplicated at any time, as they are their own design and make.

The contest is open to all, and as the conditions surrounding our work are different from the O. R. T., we wish to allow the O. R. T. brothers to help their wives to secure these prizes.
Many have written that they wish to enter this contest, and wished to know if their husbands could help them to secure members.

Send applications to me direct with a statement that you have secured these members and you will be given credit for the same. I will then return the application to the local if the new members belong to a local division.

Give your name in full, certificate number and whether located in the Grand or local territory.

Mutual Benefit Department.

Many requests for information and M. B. D. blanks have been received, and our membership is growing, with the prospect of new ones from all over the country.

The rates are as follows:

Series A, limited to $150.00 (18 to 50 years), 80 cents each six months, $1.60 per year.

Series B, limited to $300.00 (18 to 40 years), $1.60 each six months, $3.20 per year.

Initiation fee in Series A and B is fifty cents (50c) until further notice.

Initiation fee into the Ladies' Auxiliary is fifty cents (50c), and dues ten cents (10c) per month, payable in advance, same as the O. R. T.

Applications for membership both in the Auxiliary and Mutual Benefit Department can be obtained from any Grand officer, local officers, whose addresses can be found in the L. A. Directory in the back of The Telegrapher, or from the Grand Secretary and Treasurer, Mrs. Florence P. Pierce, at her address, 2021 Longwood street (Walbrook), Baltimore, Md.

Local Prize Contest.

The Grand Secretary and Treasurer will offer a prize to the local securing the largest number of new members for the next term. This can be offered next term to the member securing the largest number of prizes by any local, and in this way the local need not spend any extra money for a prize which will cost much.

Many of the locals are offering one of the new L. A. emblem pins as a prize to the member getting the largest number of new members. This departure of the L. A. is along the line of our progress, as we not only wish to follow the policy of the O. R. T. wherever we can, but we agree with them that any effort, and energy, and interest taken by the members should receive recognition and appreciation. Many of our members would have earned a prize long ago had they been offered, and now they can be rewarded for their efforts.

The silk-necktie quilt, which is being made in Local No. 10 by its members, will be given as a prize, and we believe this will be more of an incentive to both our O. R. T. brothers and their wives than buying a ticket. Again, we are not quite sure of the laws governing this in the different States, and we think this the better plan, and all can take a hand in the contest.

Our “correspondence fair” can be conducted, and the details will be given when we are ready to open it for business.

It gives me much pleasure to announce that we will have a new local recorded in our directory by the next issue. This local is to be located upon Division 146, Atlanta, Birmingham and Atlanta System, and the charter fee will be donated by this division. Bro. O. D. Gorman, general chairman, and Bro. C. A. Pye, general secretary and treasurer, have given their support and helped these sisters to get their local started, and if all the divisions had both of their head officers as much in sympathy with the Auxiliary as those on this division, we would soon have a local on all the O. R. T. divisions. They believe in us and that we can be a help and assistance to the O. R. T.

Many members have sent in dues promptly as I requested, and I hope that I may receive as many as possible this month, so that time may be given to the many other things we wish to do. As I suggested before, let every member put away her ten cents every month and she will then be in position to have it ready when it is again due. The dues are so small that it should be no trouble to pay them.

Sister W. E. Blume, of Local No. 18, Cameron, Cal., writes that they held a meeting at Bealville, Cal., and had a fine time, and they expect many new members from that division of the Southern Pacific—Division 53.

More letters were received during the month of December endorsing the L. A. than any month since I have been Grand Secretary and Treasurer. The O. R. T. brothers are finding that we can be as much use to them in this part of their lives as in many others in which they need us.

I wish to take this occasion to thank the many members who remembered me by sending such beautiful Christmas and New Year’s cards, expressing their personal feelings and wishing all success to the Auxiliary.

The Ladies’ Auxiliary wish to thank the O. R. T. brothers for their help and assistance during the year 1913, and to wish that this mutual help shall be continued much greater the coming new year, and to extend our best wishes for a most prosperous year during 1914. Yours fraternally,

Mrs. Florence P. Pierce,
Grand Secretary and Treasurer,
2021 Longwood St. (Walbrook),
Baltimore, Md.

WHAT DOES THE L. A. MEAN TO YOU?

The greatest handicap of the L. A., as I see it, is the indifference of those who should be most vitally interested in the upbuilding of the organization. Of course, I have found a few, both men and women, who were opposed to the movement for some reason or other, but that kind do not hurt a cause nearly so much as those who don’t care, one way or another. Usually those definitely opposed to anything have some reason they can give for their opposition, and are amenable to argument, and when once convinced of the error of their views, make valuable allies. Some, of course, are never convinced, but those, like the poor, we expect to have with us always.

The most common cause for this indifference, I believe, is a lack of understanding of what we stand for. I do not think there are many women of O. R. T. families who would fail to respond if they knew what they were missing and what they were making others miss, by withholding their support.

I would like to hold what we Methodists might call an “experience meeting,” through these columns, and hear some of you other sisters say what the L. A. means to you. We want to make those outside see that the L. A. is eminently worth while.

Probably there are a number of you who don’t know that I am a member of the O. R. T. and am actively (very actively, I might say) engaged in telegraphing. As such and knowing what the O. R. T. stands for, I feel that the L. A. offers an opportunity to the women of identifying themselves with this great organization, and that their support is a duty that they owe to their families, to the O. R. T., which has done so much for them, and to the cause of Organized Labor.

If any of you are too timid to write your views for this department, I will be glad to have you write me personally.

Dita May West,
Chairman Board of Directors.

Long Island Ry., Local No. 16.

Pierson, of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, who, with a few well-chosen and timely remarks, complimented us upon the progress we were making.

Your secretary and treasurer has received acknowledgments (from sisters who received aid from the Division), which will be read at the January meeting. These letters of appreciation should encourage us in our work and make us feel that our time has not been misspent and that during the holiday season we were able to bring even in a small way some happiness into the homes of those dear ones who were in great distress.

I also wish to acknowledge receipt of tokens of remembrance received from members and friends during the holiday season, and on behalf of the officers of the division and myself thank those who have devoted their time and talents towards making the year 1913 such a splendid success from every point of view, and I take this opportunity to extend fraternal greetings and wish all officers and members of the O. R. T. and the Ladies' Auxiliary a happy and prosperous New Year.

Fraternally,

Mrs. J. E. Shields,
Secretary and Treasurer.

C. R. I. & P. Ry., Local No. 22.

Sister Deves spent Christmas with her parents in Goodland, she also visited in Colby.

Sister Moore, of Ruleton, moved to Brewster, her husband having bid in that agency.

Mrs. Manion, of Goodland, spent a few days visiting in Montrose and Norton, Kan.

Mrs. Martin, of Gem, is visiting her folks in Monte Vista, Colo.

Sister Tracy and daughter Fern visited in Missouri during the holidays.

Northern Pacific Ry., Local No. 24.

With the dawning of a new year and the holiday festivities over, the time seems most propitious for increasing the membership of our local. Although it is not quite a year since we received our charter, we have had sufficient time to greatly enlarge our membership, yet we have done little better than to hold our own. This condition may be ascribed to different reasons, among which are the unfortunate illness of our dear Sister Sherwood, our first general secretary and treasurer, and the absence of Sister Graham and myself from the system practically all of the summer. The above causes precluded the possibility of a concerted campaign for new members, but I am pleased to say that our local chairmen have in most cases shown a disposition to do good individual work, Sister Wilcoxon, of the Idaho Division, having written more than fifty personal letters soliciting members.

Most of our members have paid dues for the current term, but I regret to note that a few are still delinquent and trust that they will make the necessary remittance at once, to Sister Maude M. Graham, General Secretary and Treasurer, Woodland, Wash., to bring them up to date.

In order to stimulate interest in our campaign for new members, it has been decided that Local No. 24 will give a prize of a beautiful gold enameled L. A. pin to the sister who secures the most new members for this local during the year of 1914. While the intrinsic value of this prize will not be great, the knowledge that the winner has done the most effective work for the local during the year should be a great incentive to all of our sisters to attempt to win it.

The general chairman and general secretary and treasurer will not compete in this contest. Be sure and notify Sister Graham of each new member you secure, so that the name may be placed to your credit. Let us all endeavor to make Local 24 the best in the Auxiliary, during the next year.

We are pleased to state that Sister Sherwood, who was compelled to resign the office of general secretary and treasurer on account of illness, is greatly improved in health.

Sister Wilcoxon, local chairman of the Idaho Division, has returned from a pleasant sixty-day visit with relatives in Searcy, Ark., and other southern points.

A baby girl arrived on December 9th, to gladden the home of Brother and Sister Sam Johnson of North Branch, Minn.

Our membership has been increased through the addition of Sister Mamie B. Foulkes of St. Paul, Minn., transferred from Local 15. We extend to Sister Foulkes a hearty welcome to our ranks.

Sister Maude Graham is doing very effective work as general secretary and treasurer and handling the business of the office in a thorough and efficient manner. All sisters should give her their assistance in the work of increasing the membership.

We have the promise of several new members in Spokane, in the near future, Brothers Lee and Dobson of Spokane relay office having promised their assistance in bringing this about.

Mrs. B. E. Nason,
General Chairman.

THE PUSHER ENGINEER.

MANNING had for seven years handled the throttle of the big machine that "nosed" the long freight trains up the two-mile hill into Divide City, where the grade was level. The crest reached, the pusher engine would swing loose and drift back into the valley, there to wait in the desolation for the next heavy train needing a lift.

Bob Manning had been a youngster of twenty when they changed him from the left to the right hand side of the pusher. He supposed that in the fullness of time they'd give him a run on the road and let him be a real engineer. But once having fixed him on the hill job, they seemed to have forgotten all about it. It was the penalty of modesty. Had he gone into headquarters and demanded promotion, in all likelihood they would have remembered him and given him something better. But Bob was a shy sort of chap, and he was afraid if he suggested the change he might be told they had a superintendent to look after the road.

Much as Bob disliked his job as an "also ran" in the railroad game, the greatest happiness of his life came out of it, for one morning he had gone up the valley a short way to beg a bucket of drinking water from a cottager, and there met Daisy Dartwell, a blue-eyed, flaxen-haired young woman, who greeted him kindly, and pumped the water with her round white arm while he held the bucket. Daisy being a permanent resident of the wide and lonesome valley, and Bob an enforced sojourner there under the schedules of the road for about half his time, it was but in accord with nature that their great common woe should draw them together. Gingham-clad Daisy would often go over to the engine in the forenoon, and sit with the lonely engineer and his fireman, and talk about the weather and the chances for a flood coming down and ruining the crops, and how many little chickens she had, and other matters of thrilling interest in the valley. She was much better company than the owls and the frogs, and the boys missed her badly when inclement weather prevented her coming. They fixed up a little bench for her near the track, and some days she would come and sit with them until a big train came along and took them away. In a very short time Bob and the cottager's daughter had matters arranged for the time when the pusher engineer should get a run and be somebody. As for Daisy, she thought the job he had was a wonderful thing, and he was as much a hero in her eyes as if his daily duty had been to make a big superheater S-2 thunder along at sixty miles an hour with ten coaches in its wake. She knew Bob could run that sort of an engine if he had to, and with that knowledge was perfectly satisfied. As far as Daisy was concerned, she didn't see any use in waiting.

Bob told her to be patient; something would turn up by and by and then—

"But I've lived here nineteen years," she pouted, "and nothing ever has happened."

"Wouldn't you rather have me an engineer on one of those big trains that go by?" Bob asked.

"Your engine is just as big as theirs," Daisy informed him; "and besides, I could see more of you than if you were out on the road so much. And here I—I wouldn't have any reason to get jealous."

Bob laughed, and kissed her. On all such settlements of differences, Tom Jones, the brawny fireman, was discreet enough to look up or down the track.
One snowy night, just after the pusher had helped the second section of 73, westbound freight, over the hill, the operator at Divide City notified Bob that the Limited, which was an hour late because of the storm, would cross the valley in about ten minutes, and would need help up the grade. Paralleling the main track at the foot of the hill, and running half way across the valley, was a side track on which the pusher waited the arrival of trains needing its assistance. In the center of the valley was the Minerva River, a small stream in dry times, but as wide as the valley itself when the floods came down. On either side of the stream were long trestles.

The pusher engine backed down under steam, and when it was stopped for Tom to throw the switch to get in on the side track, Bob looked across the valley, and saw the star-like glow of the Limited's electric headlight through the sheen of snow. As Tom gave the signal to back, the engineer applied the steam; the big machine seemed to jump back, and the next second the forward end of the tank lurched queerly. In an instant the engineer realized the truck had gone off the track at the switch, probably caused by the packed snow and ice. To move the engine either way would not clear the main track, and as Bob looked toward the east, he saw the "star" was larger and brighter. There was a red light on the rear of the tank, but the engineer of the Limited would take it as a matter of course that it was on the sidetrack until too late to avert disaster. Bob sprang up on the coal and over the ice-coated tank, then reached to grasp the red lantern, intending to swing it across the track, but in his feverish haste his fingers pushed against the handle; the lamp slid off the rod, and fell to the track with a crash, instantly going out. The horror of the situation came to the pusher engineer with staggering force.

Bob jumped off the tank and ran down the track towards the approaching train, without the ghost of an idea as to what he intended to do. Brighter and brighter glowed the "star" in the east, as the Limited swept along like a blaze of fire from a cannon. Good old Davy Allison was "burning up the track" across the level to make the long hill. It was the place where the engineers crowded on a full head of steam. Suddenly Bob stumbled, and realized he was on the long trestle, and the ties were slippery with snow. Still he kept on and on, making for the approaching train, running his best right between the rails. The snow was driven against his face like fine shot. His hands were bare, and almost stiff. He never took time to think in what distance Davy might stop his train, or the allowance to be made for sliding wheels on a snow-covered track.

The electric light now flashed down the track broad and clear, and the heavy train roared on to the eastern end of the trestle.

Bob stopped, and realized the engine was almost upon him. He suddenly jerked off his coat and waved it wildly backwards and forwards. Then his feet slipped from under him, and he felt himself going down, down, down for miles and miles it seemed, but before he lost consciousness, he heard the fierce hiss of the air, and knew that Davy had seen and was putting on the emergency. The train thundered overhead and locked wheels, making a noise like the devil's charivari, there was a violent quivering of the trestle, and then came darkness.

"No, Bobbie dear, you're not dead," murmured a gentle voice at the bedside of the invalid; "I've been trying to tell you that for two days, but you won't believe me."

"Aren't you an angel?" he asked, as he tried to raise himself on his arm, but found himself too weak, and fell back on his pillows.

The girl smiled and ran her fingers through his hair.

"Not yet," she replied, as she sat on the bed beside him, "but you've been talking about angels and dead people so long you've made me shiver. There's nobody dead."

"Then the trains didn't hit?"

"Not by several hundred feet, thanks to you. Davy Allison saw you slip through the trestle, and as soon as he stopped, he and his fireman ran down and picked you out of the water. You just fell in the edge of the stream, but you were wet, Bob—terribly wet!"
"Where am I, Daisy, and whose picture is that over there?"

"That," replied Daisy, as she got up and brought the picture to him, "is the photograph of the man who's just been appointed engineer on a passenger run on the eastern division, and his name is Bobbie Manning. The room you're in is mine. When they fished you out of the river they brought you here. Now, have you anything to fuss about?"

She bent over and touched her lips to his.

"Not a thing on earth," he smiled up at her. Then he added, with mock regret:

"But I'm afraid on my new job I'll miss the music of the owls and the frogs and—"

"And me! No, sir! You're going to take me with you."—By EDGAR WHITE, in Baltimore & Ohio Employees' Magazine.

THE MAN WHO BLOCKED THE GAME.

STOPPED again!

"What's the matter now, conductor?"

"This road is the limit!"

It was No. 18, the Limited Express, and its 200 souls aboard were hungry, tired—all out of sorts, as we say sometimes, when we are disappointed.

The train had started late and became later and later, stopping at frequent intervals until some freight could be induced to turn out and allow it to pass.

It was scheduled on time tables and folders as one of the fastest, but of late the fast time advertised was confined to the folders of that road rather than to the time made by its trains.

There was little wonder that its passengers howled in derision when some faceless man reminded them that it was the "Limited."

The Bondsville & Atlantic Railroad had recently been acquired by the Great Eastern Consolidated, and the terms of the ninety-nine-year lease provided for the completion of all improvements begun and proposed by the plans shown on blue prints, the maintenance of equipment and right-of-way and the payment of a 10 per cent dividend to the stockholders. The failure at any time to meet any of the above requirements cancelled the tenure of the lease, and all improvements, together with the road, reverted to the original owners.

It was considered a good investment for the Great Eastern Consolidated, as it afforded an outlet at a seaboard town—to say nothing of good paying tributary branches and staid old manufacturing towns whose revenues amounted to enormous sums annually.

But there was one man who was worrying over conditions of this road. Numerous reports and complaints through patrons and the press as to "slow time" and "poor service" were becoming of daily occurrence.

That man was John W. Sylvester, its president.

He sat in his office in New York. In front of him were the figures of the Bondsville & Atlantic for the past year. There was a troubled look on his face as he gazed meditatively into space for a moment.

"That property is gilt-edged, and I know it!" he exclaimed aloud. "If Mr. Judson can't find the leak, I can," he exclaimed, decisively pushing a button.

The door opened and his private secretary entered.

"Joe," he said calmly, "wire John Dale, at Carrollton, to come to New York at once. Arrange to provide transportation in care of our agent at Grand Junction—tell Dale to call there."

In the office at Bondsville, another chapter in our story was being enacted at the same time.

Mr. Howard Judson, general manager of the Bondsville & Atlantic, had just completed the reading of the president's letter, in which he expressed his desire that a closer supervision over operation be exercised.

A cynical smile marked the effect of the letter upon him.

"One more year," he said musingly, "and I will put the Bondsville & Atlantic back in the stockholders' hands—if I can keep Mr. Sylvester's eye closed—and I think I can. That in itself means to me the title of president with a cool fifty thousand a year."

He sat at some length in deep study. An ominous frown was on his face.
At length he spoke.
"French is a mighty clever general superintendent, but I'm afraid of him. Turner is a clever fellow and would fill French's place in case French—resigned! ha, ha, ha. that's the idea exactly."

He seemed pleased with the plan he had evolved and pushed a button.

When his secretary had appeared he said:
"Frank, call a meeting of the officers of this road. Say to them that I desire their presence next Friday morning at 10 o'clock at this office to discuss plans for the betterment of the service."

* * *

The meeting between John Dale and President Sylvester showed them to be old acquaintances.

"John," he said, when greetings had been exchanged, "I had an inspiration that you could help me out when I sent for you. I know your tact along certain lines and I know your past loyalty to me, and I believe you are the right man for the work I want done."

There was a silence for a moment, then Mr. Sylvester continued:
"We have recently—within a year—leased the Bondsville & Atlantic Railroad. It is under the management of Mr. Howard Judson as general manager and Mr. William French as general superintendent—their offices are located in Bondsville.

"For a long time we have been receiving press and other complaints that the service is not what it should be and, in consequence, the earnings have fallen off so perceptibly as to make it impossible to meet the guaranteed dividends to the stockholders without borrowing money. It was my assurance to the Great Eastern Consolidated that it was girt-edged that made the deal."

"I see," was all that Dale said when the president paused.

"Mr. Judson's figures show that two million dollars have been expended for yards and terminal facilities alone. Another million for electric block signals and two and one-half millions for laying heavier steel, laying fourth track and extending sidings."

Dale remained silent as the president paused.

"All this the Great Eastern Consolidated loses in case we fail to meet the 10 percent dividend—and Mr. Judson says that it is impossible with the class of men he has to operate his trains."

Dale looked his surprise and asked:
"What sort of men has he, anyhow?"

"He calls them a bum element that soak themselves in liquor and defy dismissal. He says they are incompetent—reckless and insubordinate, and appeals to me to send him men to take their places.

"He is up against it—if he tells the truth," said Dale slowly, "but ——" Dale paused.

"I think I know what you have in mind," said the president. "I doubt also if all those men are bad."

The mental strain showed itself in the president's face as he continued:
"Dale, I want you to go to work for the Bondsville & Atlantic. I want you to see where the trouble is—get next to the boys, you know, and see what is necessary to line them up. You used to be a leader in our early days—the boys swore by you—do you think you could command them now?"

"I will do the biggest job of trying, Mr. Sylvester, that you ever saw," said Dale determinedly.

"And I know that if you do we'll turn the trick."

Then musing for a moment he continued:
"I guess you would better make a few observations on your own account for a week and then write me your impressions. If you see anything you can accomplish to improve the bad conditions, tell me, and I will arrange with Mr. Judson and Mr. French to have you appointed trainmaster or something of the sort, which will give you authority to act."

It was then settled, and Dale departed for Ravensdale, the junction terminal of the Bondsville & Atlantic, to begin his duties.

* * *

Friday brought together all the officials of the Bondsville & Atlantic: The general superintendent, Mr. French; Superintendent J. L. Turner; two trainmasters, two master mechanics and two road foremen of engines—all ready to do the bidding of their general manager, with the exception, perhaps, of Mr. French, of whom Mr. Judson entertained a doubt.

Mr. Judson smiled blandly as he entered the room and saw his official force lined up around a table in his office.

"Good morning, gentlemen," he said, with a slight accent upon the latter word.

Then, as he dropped into a seat at the head of the table, began at once to speak rapidly.

"The purpose of this meeting is to devise means for the betterment of the service of the Bondsville & Atlantic, and to receive from each of you an expression of opinion how best to treat conditions not in harmony with my policy."

"For a long time we have been running behind in our revenues, which our president says is due to not applying properly the means by which a railroad obtains," he said with a keen look into Mr. French's face.

"I regret that he should harbor the idea that any person connected with the management of this road lacks efficiency, and having such conviction nothing will satisfy him except a sacrifice," said Mr. Judson, with a sweeping look into the faces of those about the table.

He then reviewed the cost of operation and construction and ended by saying:

"In order to insure success every officer of a railroad must put his shoulder to the wheel of its general manager. Now, gentlemen, let me hear from you."

Mr. French arose.

"Mr. Judson and gentlemen: I don't believe that I am justified in giving my reasons at this meeting why the Bondsville & Atlantic Railroad has been operated at a loss for nearly a year. I expected that a sacrifice would be demanded long ago, and I felt that I was to be the sacrifice," he said with a forced smile.

"As the affairs of this road are in hard straits at present, it is imperative that some one take hold of the reins quickly, who is able to save it, and that I may not be in his way, Mr. Judson, I will ask you to accept my resignation at this meeting, to take effect as soon as you have appointed my successor."

Mr. French took his seat and silence prevailed for a full moment.

Then Mr. Judson spoke, sitting.

"In accepting Mr. French's resignation I believe I speak the sentiments of those present when I say we are losing a conscientious and efficient officer. Were conditions different I would not accept your resignation, Mr. French, but we have vital interests at stake which must be subverted even to the cost of sacrifices. I might say much more on this subject, but it would not help the cause of the Bondsville & Atlantic."

At this juncture Mr. French arose and said:

"I believe I have nothing to offer in connection with the purpose for which this meeting was called, and, if you have no objection, Mr. Judson, I will attend to a few matters in my office."

"None whatever, Mr. French; you may retire if you wish," said Mr. Judson pleasantly.

When Mr. French had retired Mr. Judson again addressed those present.

"Gentlemen, the sacrifice just made was necessary to provide for a more loyal supporter on my staff. I presume you all know that the Great Eastern Consolidated is hard pressed for money and is squeezing every penny possible out of the Bondsville & Atlantic. The control of this road by that company is limited and we are sooner or later going to be subjects of a reorganized road.

"The sooner the Great Eastern Consolidated forfeits its lease the greater the benefits for the Bondsville & Atlantic, and by our individual efforts directed to this end shall each of us be valued when the reorganization occurs."

He paused to note the effect of his words and was encouraged to see the many affirmative nods from those around the table.

"I believe," he continued, searching each face, "that all present are ready to follow my suggestions loyally?"

There was no dissenting voice.

"In that case let me reiterate my policy of one year ago. I do not wish any of you to enter into any drastic reforms among the men. Men who are reckless or indifferent are hard to curb. Men who drink are bound to get drunk. We need their services and must condone their indulgencies for the present. Our freights must be kept moving regardless of minor delays to our passenger trains, and you will instruct your dispatchers to this end."

Mr. Judson’s policy contained many other instructions, but the meeting adjourned with a full understanding on each man’s part what was his share to perform in ditching the Bondsville & Atlantic.

Dale’s first trip followed the meeting of the officers of the Bondsville & Atlantic, and he was also a passenger on the Limited in the opening of our story, and saw the conditions complained of by those on board.

The point where the train stopped was in a rocky cut, surmounted on either side by scrub pines, with no signs of human habitation.

"Where are we?" some one asked him, as Dale rose to go out of the rear door.

"I am sure I don’t know—I’m a stranger on this road myself," he said.

He stood looking back in the direction whence they had come for several moments. It was now quite dark, but he could see the glimmer of the red and white lanterns in the hands of the flagman about fifty yards distant. He descended to the ground, looking toward the engine from whence came the familiar sound of a locomotive working in the most labored fashion. Then as he saw the red markers of a train on the siding coming nearer, he said:

"Freight—backing in to let 18 by."

This was indeed the cause of the delay.

Suddenly, without any apparent reason, he ran swiftly toward the flagman. As he reached his side he said:

"I’ve got a hunch that something is following. Give me those lamps!"

The next moment he had secured them and was running as if his life depended upon each step.

"Well, of all the nerve—wonder who that Jay was?" Charlie Scott ejaculated. "He talked like a railroad man, but he acted like a bug-house convict. If I follow him they’ll go off and leave me, then he’s got my lamps—I’ll smash that—"

Charlie did not complete his sentence. Above the roar of the echoes his ear caught a sound—the shrill call for brakes.

When Dale started to run back with the lanterns he could not have told for his life why he did so, but a feeling seemed to prompt the action and he obeyed it. He was a good sprinter, and soon reached the big bluff where the tracks curved around its base for nearly half a mile. Even in the darkness he knew he was rounding a curve, and as he ran he realized that if he met a train his signals might not be seen in time to save the Limited.

One more minute of such effort would bring him to a point where he could see the track back to a distance of more than a mile, and where an approaching train might see his danger signal in time to avert an accident.

It was not to be.

Just as he reached the tangent spoken of the rays of a headlight shot around the curve. At the same moment he waved his red lantern. He heard no response, but as the train came closer he continued to signal. Then came a sound that chilled his blood.

It was the call of the engineer for help—one short blast of his whistle.

Dale’s long experience told him the trouble—there was not a sufficient number of air brakes in use to stop the train and the heavy freight was beyond control of the engineer.

As the ponderous engine passed him he glanced up at the engineman and saw him reverse the lever. Again Dale heard that whistle almost human in its cry—STOP. He calculated the speed of the train an instant, then nerving himself for a terrible undertaking, leaped for a handhold on the side of a car.

He missed it!

The sound of shattered glass of the lanterns followed as Dale was thrown heavily to the ground. The next moment, however, he was again on his feet, but now in darkness. A second attempt followed, and for an instant it seemed as if he must be dashed to death, but a kind Providence ruled, and he quickly climbed to the top of the cars.
No one but an athlete trained to railroad duties could have accomplished the task. Slower and slower grew the speed as Dale flew from brake to brake, exerting his tremendous strength on each one, until at last he realized that the train had stopped—they were standing still.

When Dale had somewhat recovered his strength after the struggle he had made, he went forward. He saw No. 18, the Limited, still standing, and as occasional sounds of a slipping engine came to his ears he knew that the freight which was trying to back on the siding had not yet been able to do so. Reaching the engine of the train he had tried so hard to stop, he heard Bobby Waters, who was down on the ground, saying:

"Closest shave I ever had—never saw that flag till I was right on top of him. I put the old girl in the britchin' right off, for I knowed it was 18."

Before Charlie McClaren, his fireman, could reply, Dale loomed up out of the darkness, hatless, out of breath and bruised from the severe fall he had sustained. He noted that the engine's pilot was in close proximity to the rear sleeper and asked:

"Did we hit them?"

Charlie held his torch up and surveyed Dale from head to foot before answering.

"Almost touched—if she'd made another revolution she would have." Then after a second thought added, "Was you the fellow that flagged us—how did you git here?"

"Heard you call for brakes—nailed the side and helped make the stop," replied Dale briefly.

Charlie was speechless for a moment and looked his amazement.

"Say, partner, you're a trump. Who are you and what's your name?"

"My name is John Dale. I expect to go to work for this road when I have learned it. I saw the flagman of this train standing a short distance away before the notion came to me to get his lanterns—hello, here is the man we were talking of right now," Dale said, looking up.

It was Scott, and he was visibly agitated.

"I just heard you say your name is Dale," he said, while his voice trembled and his whole frame shook. "I ran back, too, when I heard you call for brakes," he said, addressing Bobby.

In a moment he continued:

"I saw you catch the freight—I expected to see you killed. I saw you setting brakes—that was all, then you went round the curve out of sight and I sat down—I was all in—to listen to hear them hit. It was you, Mr. Dale, that saved the Limited."

Dale escaped the laudations of Bobby and Charlie by suddenly asserting his intention of going over to the "head end."

Arriving at the point where the blockade existed, he quickly took in the situation. The freight had been too heavily loaded and its engine, unable to back its train upon the siding, had stalled. The crews of both trains were discussing a way out of the dilemma when Dale reached them. In a tone which commanded action he said:

"Cut off enough cars to hold the Limited in the siding, then put the Limited in and back by," he said to the conductor of the freight.

The words he employed to secure the desired movement were perfectly clear to those who stood about him, and all wondered why they had not thought to do this before. It secured for him their appreciation of his quick grasp of situations and tact to meet them.

Dale remained behind when the Limited pulled out. When the freight had reunited its train he stepped to the gangway where Ed Collins was talking with Harry Bodman, the engineer.

Introducing himself merely as John Dale, he said:

"How is it that you picked out such a bad place to back in to let the Limited by you?"

"Well, I'll tell you, partner. We've got a bunch in the office that don't know any more about railroading than a Hottentot nigger or else they don't care much for their jobs. They tell us to keep goin' right ahead of these passenger trains when they are late and never tell us how much late they are, then what happens? You see how it was—they said get clear at R—s, and you see how we stuck the Limited."
Dale did not reply to this, but said:
"If you are ready to go I'll close the switch—I'm going to follow on the freight behind you."

As Dale climbed up in the cab, Bobby greeted him and said:
"Guess we'll be able to stop now—only had ten out of thirty-five cars cut in. That's the way they send us out of the yards—nobody ever tests the brakes—you see for yourself what almost happened. And for flaggin'—well, they never get out more than two or three hundred feet."

Dale made notes of the failures as they went along and drew much information from Bobby, who assumed that Dale was learning the road with the intention of running a train as conductor.

The entire week was spent almost wholly on the rail. In the bunkrooms, the boarding houses, the hotels and the cabooses the inquiry was general:
"Have you seen the man they call John Dale?"

A few could answer the question that they had, but there were many who had heard of him.
"Is he a spotter?" some one asked Charlie Scott.

"No, or he would have had my goat for not flagging extra 2509 a week ago when they nearly went through the Limited."

"I don't know who he is, but I know what he is," Ed Collins said decisively. "He is a railroad man and has been a conductor, for he told me to be proud of that title, and I'm tellin' you fellows, I'm goin' to hit the ball from now on."

While the various opinions were being expressed in Dale's favor, he was making his first report to President Sylvester. It may be imagined that Dale's prestige did not stop with the men. In the office at Bondsville, as well as at Barrington, the headquarters of Superintendent Turner, Dale's contact and influence had been noted.

A little note from President Sylvester, which had been filed a week before as of little moment was looked up, as it was now wanted to know the man he had said he was sending to help line the boys up a week before. Mr. Judson was probably more interested in Dale this moment than in any other living man.

He did not summon his secretary, but grasped a pen and wrote an autograph letter to Superintendent Turner.

"General Manager's Office,
Bondsville, Nov. 1.
Mr. J. L. Turner, Gen'l Supt.:
Arrange to meet John Dale, now riding our trains. Learn his assignments if possible, and report to me personally.
Howard Judson."

Dale now became a subject of speculation from all quarters. The men who asked Superintendent Turner who he was found out nothing. Superintendent Turner grew inquisitive and questioned the men.

"Who is carrying this man—what does his pass read?" he asked Ed Bradley, one of the passenger conductors on whose train he had been over part of the road.

"He has a Great Eastern Consolidated annual, No. 1001," said Bradley, referring to his book. "It reads, John Dale, supervisor of train operation, and signed by the president's secretary."

While Superintendent Turner was yet wondering and while Mr. Judson was reading the report received that morning from Superintendent Turner, he was handed a message dated at New York. It was brief, and read:

Mr. Howard Judson, Bondsville:
Arrange to meet me at Terminal Junction tomorrow in my car, which is attached to No. 53.
John W. Sylvester."

When he had concluded the reading he called his secretary and said:
"Frank, see that my car is put on No. 49 tonight. You will go with me to Terminal Junction."

Dale also received a communication from the president, asking him to meet him at the same time and place indicated in his letter to Mr. Judson.

Dale was already seated and talking with the president when Mr. Judson arrived. An introduction followed which was calculated to bring Dale and Mr. Judson together on a friendly basis.
"Howard," said the president beaming, "this is John Dale—one of the most loyal men I ever had. He is a resourceful fellow and will never lie down until the work is done, and done right."

"That is a pretty big compliment," laughed Dale.

Mr. Judson frowned slightly and looked Dale over without replying.

"You have been tried out, Dale," President Sylvester continued, "and I have no hesitation in recommending you to Mr. Judson."

Then turning to Mr. Judson, he said:

"I wish you would find some position for this man—trainmaster or something of the sort—give him authority to discipline the men and let us see what can be accomplished by teaching them how we used to do business when I was his division superintendent."

"What can you do?" Mr. Judson asked Dale, eyeing him narrowly.

"That's a question," replied Dale, meeting his gaze squarely. "I would first have to learn what my duties are, then time would tell what I would be able to do."

The president excused himself to Mr. Judson and Dale at this moment, and told them to talk the matter over between themselves.

Mr. Judson spoke again.

"I believe you are the fellow who has been making reports of conditions as you found them on the Bondsville & Atlantic for the past week."

Dale was about to reply when Mr. Judson went on.

"Now, in event you accept service with the Bondsville & Atlantic I suppose you know that it would be disloyal to me, as the general manager of that road, for you to communicate to the president anything in connection with its management? Such reports must be made by you to your superintendent."

"I believe I understand you, sir," replied Dale.

After the matter of salary had been agreed upon Mr. Judson said:

"You will accompany me to Barrington and there meet Superintendent Turner, to whom you will report."

When Mr. Sylvester bade Dale goodbye, he said:

"Now, Dale, do all you can for Mr. Judson. You're working for me also—make good—that's all."

Dale promised him he would as they shook hands at parting.

During the trip Mr. Judson's attitude was one which puzzled Dale not a little. One moment he was telling Dale to secure the co-operation of the men, and the next he seemed to be testing his ideas of consistency when he required his subordinates to condone errors in mismanagement.

Only when he had time to think the matter all over after having met Superintendent Turner did he come to himself ready for action. Speaking aloud, he said:

"As sure as I am John Dale I'll do it—I promised Mr. Sylvester and I'll keep my promise, if I don't stay here a week."

Dale was astonished on his first visit to the roundhouse and shops as well as the yards where trains are made up. An air of indolence prevailed in both places. The work was being carried on without any apparent degree of push that characterized other shops and yards Dale had seen. He stopped at Stall No. 13 in the house where workmen were gathered together about the 2905. As the foreman was seen approaching several men attempted to get busy.

"They have ordered this engine for 11 o'clock—how much is there to do to it yet?" he asked.

"We're waiting for the tire setting machine," said one of the men. "They're using it on Johnson's gang now."

"How are you fixed?" the foreman asked one of the flue setters.

"Seventeen flues to cork—can't do that before 2 o'clock with only one helper," he replied.

"Well, hurry up, but take your time," he said laughing as he turned to go. "I've OK'd the engine for 11 o'clock and have called the crew."

Dale mentally calculated the time the crew which was to take out the train would have to wait.

"At least three hours," he mused. "That's time paid which is out of the pocket of the company and not one cent of benefit in return. That's the kind of business that makes men indifferent when they show up."

He wheeled and went straight for the yardmaster's office. When he reached that place known as the "shanty" he found a group of men sitting on the benches inside busily engaged in discussing their prospects for getting trains. None seemed to know Dale when he stepped inside and his appearance among them did not interrupt the trend of the talk.

"I'll tell you fellows, this thing is getting fierce. We was called for 6 o'clock this morning and ever since then we've been hangin' around this joint waitin' for an engine," one of the number exclaimed.

"Yes, and when we do git out we get it in the neck—we're on the road so long we git starved and then a fellow's got to have something to brace him up—I never went into a saloon till I went to work for this pike," chimed in a sturdy built fellow.

Dale felt a pity for the fellow, but remained a silent listener. Just then another brakeman came in. His eyes were blinking and his step irregular.

"What's the matter, Baldy?" laughed one of the number.

"Better set out five cars—you've got more than your tonnage," suggested another.

Baldy straightened up a moment, then looking in the faces of those about him said:

"You guys think a fellow's drunk when he's all in for sleep. I've been tryin' to sleep on the floor of the caboose with a paper under my head—this company's too poor," he said sarcastically "to give us a cushion."

When Dale introduced himself to Paddy Shane, the yardmaster, that afternoon, he had plenty to say to him. The door of his private office was closed for two hours and as the little knot of men peeped through the window from time to time they saw Dale's fist come down emphatically while talking and could see Paddy looking at the floor.

"Who's the guy inside?" Baldy asked.

No one seemed to know.

"Bet I can call the turn," he said. "That's the new trainmaster, John Dale."

"He took in all we was sayin' all right—he was standing in here all morning. Well," he added after a moment, "we gave it to him straight anyhow; maybe he'll iron out some of these yaps and start something."

"I've heard about him," Baldy said, "and if he's the hustler they say he is he's a crackerjack."

Just then Dale was seen to arise and Paddy opened the door for him.

"I'll do what ye say, Mister Dale. Send over the new delay form and we'll begin to check back on the roundhouse."

The new delay report mentioned was Dale's invention. It put each delay on record for every train which departed late and gave the specific cause.

"Until we all understand this report and its purpose we will have some delays," said Dale as they paused outside the door, "but within ten days it will be clear to all and then we will put the detentions right up to the man who is responsible. Whether he is in one position or another he will have to answer for them."

Dale possessed tact. If he condoned an error he was sure to ask the transgressor to do some sort of missionary work to atone for his share of it. If he stepped in and performed a meritorious service he always attributed his quick perception and grasp of situations to the practice of judgment without which, he said, no man could be a success in railroading. If he discovered a dangerous condition about a train he attributed it to training received and taught the men that eternal vigilance is the price of safety, and that according to their vigilance their lives depended.

It was little wonder that Dale's name became the watchword of perfection among them. What Dale said was right was accepted and acted upon as right. His democracy won friends and admirers while his untiring efforts secured hosts of followers. He kept his promises and no one knew how he accomplished the promise he had made to have bunk houses built and cushions for the cabooses, yet they came. He brought them together in his office at Barrington and defined the application of train rules and pointed out the errors of the dispatchers that were the cause of so many detentions to passenger trains and which kept them from their homes in consequence. His was a magnetic nature which drew to himself the best there is in men. He instructed them contrary to practices that had obtained in the past and pointed out a way in harmony with the ethics of good railroad ing.

"It's just like an old fashioned Methodist revival," shouted Baldy as the meeting closed.

"Hallelujah then," shouted Bobby Waters with a laugh. "We wanted just such a man here long ago."

Dale issued invitations to his dispatchers and to his superintendent to join the meeting. Not only his arguments were good but his manner of putting the rules in practice while working with them on the road proved his ability and won their admiration. He waited for clashes arising out of his instructions which conflicted with established methods adopted in harmony with Mr. Judson’s policy. A few did arise, but the men won in each case.

A crucial point was gradually nearing.

The appointment of Mr. Turner was approved and Mr. French was mentioned as having resigned to accept service with the Great Eastern Consolidated. Immediately Mr. Judson had a conference with his new lieutenant.

When they were alone in the general manager’s office Mr. Judson said:

"It is time that drastic action is taken to rid ourselves of this man Dale. Have you any grounds to make a charge that will stand in case the president inquires into the cause of dismissal?" Mr. Judson asked.

"I think I can find one," replied Mr. Turner with a confidential nod of his head.

"Then, fire him—if you can not get his resignation."

Whether it was the calm that precedes the storm that made Dale feel there was an impending crisis or whether it was the persistence on the part of his superior officers to ignore his efforts and offer no interference to his active work, he could not tell; at any rate he was not surprised when he received the summons to report in the superintendent’s office—that the general superintendent wished to speak to him.

"Dale," he said briefly without deigning to acknowledge his salutation, "Mr. Judson sent me down here to demand your resignation or, in case you refuse to give it—to fire you."

"On the grounds of unsatisfactory service I suppose?" replied Dale with a rising inflection.

"No, sir; for insubordination."

"Would you mind making one specific charge?"

"One of the men wrote a letter to the president lauding your services. You caused that letter to be written," he said sternly.

"Out of deference to your position I withhold calling you a liar," said Dale hotly. "To anyone else I say it is a lie—I have no need to write to that man what I am doing—he knows."

"I suppose so," Mr. Turner said with a sneer. "But how about the resignation?"

"You can have it," replied Dale. "I will have it ready in a few moments so that you can take it back to Mr. Judson."

When Dale handed Mr. Turner his resignation he attempted to express his regrets that he was compelled to do so unpleasant a duty, but Dale stopped him.

"I don’t know how much of that is sincere, for while I have been your trainmaster you have never showed the least interest in what I did—rather it appeared that my efforts were a handicap of some sort."

Mr. Turner frowned and said:

"It doesn’t make any difference now, Dale. I suppose the president will take care of you, only I do not want you to go from here feeling that I had anything to do with your leaving—it was entirely up to Mr. Judson."

As Dale was about to take his leave Mr. Turner added:

"When you see the president I wish you would speak a favorable word for me—you know the Barrington division boomed the past year while I was superintendent."

Dale’s lip curled scornfully as he turned away, but he did not reply. He was now without a position. Notwithstanding his innocence he regretted that charges of so gross a nature as insubordination should be laid at his door.

"I was just beginning to accomplish something," he murmured as he entered his office. He stopped suddenly as if confronted by a ghost.

"I wonder if this is the beginning of the end?" he exclaimed.

As if in answer to his query he found a letter on his desk which had been delivered during his absence. Hastily opening it he read:

"Bondsville 5-1—
Mr. John Dale, Trainmaster, Barrington:

Dear Sir—Your resignation will be demanded tomorrow on penalty of dismissal. Mr. Turner to make charges to get rid of you on account of your activity which opposes the policy of the management.

(Confidential) Signed: Frank."

Dale's face showed no signs of surprise. He folded the letter and placed it in his pocket.

"A friend in the camp of the enemy," he said aloud.

The following morning as Dale was leaving for New York he received a copy of the notice mentioning the abolishment of his office. This also he placed in his pocket.

His heart was filled with regrets of a tender nature as the train carried him past the faithful fellows he saw in the yards, for they had endeared themselves to him. Not until he had arrived in the big city did he begin to think what report he should make to Mr. Sylvester.

The following morning found him an early caller. Shaking hands with Joe he asked to see the president and was told to go in.

"Hello, Dale; what's up?" the president said anxiously.

Dale handed the president the notice of the abolishment of the office he had held for two years and the letter from the private secretary of the general manager of the Bondsville & Atlantic.

"Who is this Frank who signs this letter?" asked the president, with a slight frown.

"He is secretary to the general manager."

"What does he mean by 'your activity which opposes the policy of the general manager'?"

"My interest in the welfare of the road—the education of the men and the betterment of the service generally, explains what I have been actively engaged in; you can draw your own conclusions if such be opposed to the policy of a general manager, what his intentions are. It is my opinion," Dale added, "that the same cause was back of Mr. French's resignation—he was too active. You did not understand and demanded his resignation."

"I demanded," said the president, straightening himself in his chair, "did you say I demanded Mr. French's resignation?"

"I believe that was what I heard Mr. Judson gave to the official family as a reason," replied Dale.

"What was the specific reason suggested in your case?"

"I was charged with insubordination—being the instigator of a letter to yourself lauding my efforts."

"Dale, there is something back of this. I expect Mr. French within a few minutes and I shall see what he knows of the conditions that are existing relative to the policy of Mr. Judson."

He had scarcely spoken when Joe entered saying:

"Mr. French is waiting."

"Tell him to come in. Dale, you remain."

Mr. French was delighted to see Dale and after greetings had been exchanged with the president he was offered a seat.

"Mr. French," said the president in a business-like way, "what do you know about Mr. Judson's policy—in what way were you not in harmony with it?"

Mr. French was taken so by surprise that he could hardly frame an answer.

"I have nothing conclusive to offer you. I can tell you, however, that certain suggestions which came from Mr. Judson did not appeal to me."

"What were they?" asked the president.

"He suggested that all trains of whatsoever class be kept in motion one after the other notwithstanding consequent delays to our passenger traffic."

"Did that meet your concurrence?"

"It did not."

"What next?"

"That we refrain from exerting drastic discipline in cases of intoxication and serious accidents, or from negligence threatening the safety of trains."

"What was your attitude?"

"I opposed it, but was overruled and cases of such nature were held back in the office of Mr. Turner and were never allowed to come to my attention."

"What led up to your resignation as general superintendent?"

"The complaint alleged to have come from your office that the road was not properly supervised and made to pay what it was able to pay, consequently calling for better supervision."

The president was silent a full moment, then turning to Dale said:

"What sort of men have we on the Bondsville & Atlantic?"

"Of the very best," replied Dale heartily. "They were worse treated than slaves when I went there. Every effort of mine to better their conditions was rewarded a dozen times by their work and loyalty to me."

"I think the intention is clear to me," said the president, musing, "and I will show them yet that the Bondsville & Atlantic is gilt edged," he said, pushing a button.

"Joe, wire Mr. Judson and Mr. Turner to meet Mr. French, Mr. Dale and myself at Ravensdale tomorrow at noon. Tell Mr. Judson I am waiting for his reply."

The president then spoke of other matters a few moments in connection with the Bondsville & Atlantic's prospects when Joe reappeared with a message.

The president was evidently greatly surprised, for as he laid aside the message he exclaimed:

"Well!"

Dale and Mr. French looked at each other, then at the president.

Again he took up the message, then smiled as he looked at the inquisitive faces before him.

"I have Mr. Judson's reply as follows:"

"Bondsville 5-3d—"

John W. Sylvester,
President, G. E. C. R. R.:

Sorry we can not arrange to meet the gentlemen as requested. Please accept our resignations to take effect on receipt of this message.

Signed: Howard Judson, Gen'l Mgr.
J. L. Turner, Gen'l Supt.

There was a silence for a moment, then the president turned to his little audience saying:

"Gentlemen I am indebted to you. The Bondsville & Atlantic had two traitors who were trying to ruin me. They have both resigned. We are without officers for those places this moment, but I feel that we will come out all right."

Then turning to Mr. French he said:

"I shall wire my acceptance of their resignations at once and, if you will reconsider your resignation I will also reappoint you to your old position."

Mr. French thanked the president and said he would do so.

"I will assume the management of that road personally," he replied, "for the present."

"I almost forgot about you, Dale—you want a job, too, don't you?"

Before Dale could reply he continued:

"I am going to let Mr. French take care of you."

"Well, if you put it that way," said Mr. French, "I believe Dale would make a first-class superintendent and as soon as it can be arranged he may consider himself located at Barrington."

"So be it," said the president swinging around in his chair, pressing the button.

"Here's where we start the wheels of a new administration with integrity and honesty for our policy, giving preference to merit and the benefit of the doubt to every erring man."

It was all accomplished so quietly that the public and the men lost their breath so to speak, when the word came that Mr. French again had control of the reins.
Nor yet did surprises stop, for the next day John Dale stepped into the superintendent's position.

While the world at large did not get a reason for the radical changes that came to pass within a few days there was a suspicion that Dale was at the bottom of it, and being pleased they shouted:

"Hurrah for the man that does things—"DALE!"—By WILLIAM D'KEITH ANDERSON, in The Railroad Trainman.

HIS START.

At a meeting of the Booneton Medical Society, there not being a quorum, half a dozen doctors sat around chatting. The conversation fell upon the new science of medicine, which practically had its beginning in the investigations of Mr. Pasteur, and is making great headway in those experiments carried on by scientists who devote themselves to original research. Commenting on the great change scientific research has wrought in the medical profession, Dr. Elderkin, a retired physician, told the following story:

When I started to practice, though it was in the latter half of the nineteenth century, our profession had lagged far behind the progressive spirit of the times. Though we are still woefully ignorant, we know far more than we did then, and when we remember that we had at that time but recently advanced beyond the universal remedy of blood-letting, originally practiced by the barber who shaved our ancestors, we get some idea of the low condition of the science of medicine half a century ago.

Being naturally of a scientific mind, I realized this. Upon finishing my course at the medical college I was surprised that there was so little really known. Indeed, beyond the fact that vaccination will prevent smallpox, I don't remember a single certainty in medicine that I had learned in my college course. What a difference from the present, when we have antitoxins that work with absolute certainty; the X-ray, by which to look into the human body, and have proved that diseases are transmitted by the fly and the mosquito!

I settled in this very town and hung out my shingle. Experience was then the doctor's best card. A bald head, a pair of mutton chop gray whiskers, a presence that bespoke wisdom—these were sure to bring success to any practitioner. This impressive person of half a century ago did not know one-tenth as much as the poorest student in a class graduating in a medical school today. But since there was nothing but experience on which to base confidence, the old practitioner had it all his own way, and the young man had no show at all.

I looked like a boy and was treated as a boy, for never did a patient darken my doors. I was socially well received by the young people of town and formed the acquaintance of a number of young girls, who thought me "a nice little fellow" and snickered when they called me doctor, their idea of a physician being the elderly party I have mentioned. One of these young ladies I admired very much and thought that if I could marry her possibly I might inspire some confidence and make a beginning. But she was the daughter of the principal man in the place, John Parkinson, and there was an awful gap between her and a tow-headed, blue-eyed doctor who didn't look old enough to treat a cat. As to being called in to treat Mr. Parkinson or any member of her family, there was no more chance of that than being struck by lightning.

His family physician, Dr. Swinbourne, in his younger days had bled his patients for every disease, and so wedded was he to the treatment that he still carried a lancet in his medical case. The Parkinsons revered him as a man of great experience and he was supposed to have a wonderful advantage in knowing the constitution of every member of the family, including the last child born, who was but eight months old and sound as a nut. The chance of my supplanting this august person as physician in the household was as remote as being called upon to treat the President of the United States.

But no matter how firm one is settled on any soft spot let him beware of being undermined. His very greatness is liable to give his competitor a chance. Mr. Parkinson was fond of horses and owned some valuable stock. One of his animals was sired by a racer and had cost $3,000. One day this horse was taken sick. Would his owner insist the great Swinbourne by asking him to treat a horse? Never! A veterinary surgeon was called in. It is quite likely that he knew as much about what ailed the horse and how to cure him as the M. D.—he certainly knew as much as I did—but, despite his valuable efforts, the animal grew worse and the veterinary finally gave him up as a candidate for button and glue material.

Mr. Parkinson was one of those persistent men who never say die, and it occurred to him that I might not feel very much insulted at being called in to treat a horse. But he could afford to insult me, though he could not afford to insult his physician. For if any of the family were taken ill and the doctor refused to treat the patient there was likely to be a crape on the door. At any rate, I was called in to have a look at the horse.

Mr. Parkinson had sent the veterinary away and there was no one present at my visit to the patient but myself and his owner. The horse was lying on the stable floor to all appearance dead. My first impulse was—from force of habit—to feel his pulse, but I remembered that I might get nearer his heart than his fetlock, so I put my hand behind his fore leg. There was still a faint beat and I knew he was not yet quite dead.

My ignorance of what was the matter with him and what to do for him was such that I stood doubtless looking as ignorant as I felt. Mr. Parkinson had his eyes on me and turned away with a look of disgust. It was this that nerved me at the turning point of my life.

"Mr. Parkinson," I said, "your horse is dying of digitalis."

I was obliged to choose a word so suddenly that I hit upon the name of a drug and feared my man would know that it was a drug and not a disease.

"Well?" he said somewhat more confidentially.

I was tempted to make an excuse to go to the druggist, to get a dose for the brute, but seeing the effect of my first bluff I resolved on another.

"I don't like to leave him," I said. "Would you mind getting me a messenger? I wish to send for a remedy."

"Not a bit. I'll call Tom. I don't know why he is not here. This is his place, especially at such a time."

He went to the house, a few hundred yards distant. He was absent some time. Not being able to find his man and while he was gone I upset a peck measure used for carrying oats, but now filled with salt. Some of the contents fell on the horse's tongue, which was protruding from his mouth. I noticed that the member quivered. I picked up a little more salt from the floor and dropped it on the tongue. Slowly it was withdrawn into the horse's mouth. Taking up a handful I opened the jaws and thrust it in.

I stood there, or rather knelt, feeding the horse salt till Mr. Parkinson returned. The other had disappeared, doubtless thinking he would be blamed in the matter of the loss of the horse and the master was abusing him to me when he caught sight of the patient licking his chops with his eyes open.

"Why, he seems to be better."

"Certainly."

"Do you think you can pull him through?"

"I think I can."

"What's that you're giving him?"

"A saline remedy I've found beneficial in such cases."

He didn't ask where I got it, or I would have told him I had it in my medicine case.

Well, it happened that my knocking over the salt had given my patient just what he needed. I don't know even now what his trouble was, but I do know that animals must have salt. At any rate a few handfuls of it effected a change in his condition, and he improved rapidly. I followed up the treatment by giving him water to drink, and it was not long before he stood up on his feet.

"By Jove!" exclaimed Mr. Parkinson. "That was the most marvelous cure I ever met with. I must tell Swinbourne about that. What did you call the disease?"
Mr. Parkinson," I said, assuming an injured tone, "I have cured your horse, but I object to furnishing medical information to one of these old school doctors. I beg you not to mention the matter to Dr. Swinbourne."

"Why, it might lead him to take an interest in you."

"Not at all. You, as a layman, are not aware of the jealousies existing in our profession. Should you tell Dr. Swinbourne of this cure he would doubtless assert that your horse would have recovered just as well without my treatment as with it."

I shot a glance at him to see how the thrust struck him, expecting that he would deny that Swinbourne was any such man. I was agreeably disappointed.

"You're right, my boy," he said. "Never give anything you've got unless you've something to gain by it."

Gentlemen, if you ask me what gave me a start in a practice which became for half a century all I could have desired I reply blind luck, followed up with a dose of concentrated gall. Besides, the lesson I learned was of great benefit. I made it a rule the less I knew about a case the more to pretend. And why not? Does a doctor gain anything by losing the confidence of a patient? By no means. On the contrary, the patient loses heart, and that is the worst thing that can happen.

But to finish my story. Mr. Parkinson let it be known that he would have lost his valuable horse had it not been for my skill, and I was installed as physician to the family, to be called upon for slight indispositions. Dr. Swinbourne being summoned to treat troubles of importance. This led to some outside practice, and in time I assumed sufficient boldness to pay attention to Miss Parkinson. By this time I had become known not as the man who had cured a horse, but one who had cured human beings. I finally married Miss Parkinson, but this was not till Swinbourne had retired and I was installed not only in his place, but succeeded to the bulk of his practice. In fact, he retired because he found that I was forging ahead of him.

In claiming precedence in what we know now to what we knew then I am sorry to say that in the majority of cases it is still guesswork with us. We try a remedy and if the patient does not respond we try another and another, till either we have tried them all or the patient succumbs or recovers. But we have the satisfaction of knowing that both in America and Europe men are engaged in devoting their entire time to investigation, and every year we know more than we knew the year before.

My wife never knew how accidental was the success that gave me my start till we had been married many years.—By F. A. MITCHEL, in Journal of Industry.

THE LAST DRINK.

I

HAD worked third shift at Colfax less than three months, but during that time I had become a society man. I was invited out practically every night, and when I wasn't I had calls to make, which usually kept me up until nearly midnight, at which time I relieved Collins.

After the party or dance was over and we—I mean the young fellows of the little town—had accompanied our girls home, it was our habit to meet in Feland's saloon, where we would talk and drink until nearly midnight, with the result that I often went on duty pretty well jangled. I wouldn't be drunk, understand, but in that state where things looked queer and unnatural to me; the rough edges were filed off the corners of life, as it were, by the effects of the liquor.

One night, early in the winter, I took a girl home from a dance, and, on my way to the depot, stopped in, as usual, at Feland's, where the gang "set 'em up" around. There were seven of us. That meant that within half an hour I had taken seven drinks. No wonder strange things happened that night. I was the receptacle for enough alcohol to make a porterhouse steak disintegrate. Instead of cutting my stomach into pieces it went to my brain. After the seventh drink, the others left the saloon, but as it was not quite midnight, I stayed for another drink and a chat with the bartender.
"This one's on me," he said in a sudden fit of generosity, and as I nodded, he began to mix the cocktails. "I'm sure the road's got a good fellow on after midnight now," he continued. "The last good fellow here was Caskey. Brown, the man here before you came, was sure a self-centered guy. Why, he wasn't in our place once all the time he was here. Caskey was sure a good fellow, though."

"They promoted Brown, didn't they?" I asked as I dreamily watched him pour the cocktails into the tall-stemmed glasses.

"Yes; he went up to the headquarters office," said the bartender. "Here's how." And we drank.

"What became of Caskey?" I asked.

"Oh, he's out in Utah now. They canned him off this road for coming over here to get a drink and forgetting to stop a train he had orders for. The freight he let pass met a passenger train about five miles above here, but they saw each other in time to stop, and so nobody was hurt. But Caskey was a good fellow, all right."

I took my last drink for the night and walked over to the depot. Old Collins was putting on his coat and gathering up his lunch basket and coffee pot. He made his coffee on the office stove, for he was a sober old fellow and wouldn't drink anything stronger than the Java.

"Feel all right, sonny?" he asked, as I looked over the thirty-one clips to see if he had any orders on hand to sign for.

"Sure," I answered. "Why?"

"If I were you, my boy, I'd cut out Feland's. More than one good man has gone the boomer route by dabbling with the stuff he hands out."

I became angry. "Why you old home-guard," I exclaimed, "if you don't report me, no one will ever know whether I go there or not."

The old man made a grimace, as if controlling himself. "They knew all about Caskey, and I'm sure he was never reported from here."

"But Caskey let a train get by him. Catch me doing anything like that!" And I smiled in a very superior way as the old man turned and walked out.

The big, fat stove was red hot, and I soon became warm and sleepy. Nothing was doing on the wires except a car report from a station fifty miles down the line. I leaned back comfortably and listened to the report, but suddenly it stopped. The lights grew dim and I could see them only through a haze. The liquor had reached my brain. I was brought to my senses by the sound of my call coming impatiently on the wire. The operator at the other end was signing "DS" and I knew from that it was the dispatcher and by the way he handled the key, that he had been calling for some time.

"OS extra south," he said when I answered. Which meant that he wanted a report on when they had arrived and left my station.

"No OS," I answered. I figured that if a train had passed I surely would have heard it, even if I were taking a catnap.

Then he sent an order: "No. 98, engines 1240 and 1008 will meet extra '553' at Colfax."

"Sure the '553' hasn't passed?" he asked again.

"Sure," I answered.

"Should have passed thirty minutes ago," he said, and closed his key.

Until then I had not thought to look at the clock. I glanced up. The hands pointed to 2:30. I had been asleep more than two hours and perhaps, after all, the extra had passed. And if it had—well, they would need a wrecker, some doctors and nurses and a few coffins, that was all. I would probably follow Caskey, if they didn't soak me for murder.

I stepped out on the platform and glanced up at my semaphore in doing so. It was down, showing white! I was sure I had left it red when I took the office over from Collins. I had no recollection of turning it since that time. I looked down at the rails. A sheet of frost covered them. I made a mark on the nearest one with my thumb and watched to see how long it would take the frost to obliterate the imprint. By that means I wished to assure myself that a train couldn't have passed within the last thirty minutes without showing a mark on the rails. I watched that mark for some minutes and it appeared as plain as when I made it. My heart grew lighter. Then I glanced up in the direction of town and back at the rail. The mark was gone! As long as I kept my eyes on the spot the change had not been appreciable, but it disappeared the instant I had glanced away.

I heard another call from "DS" and went in and answered.

"Nothing from '553' yet?"

"Nothing," I answered. "What is it?"

"Theatrical special. Craig pulling it. Should have been there an hour ago."

My hair began to rise. I was perfectly sober now, and suffering. For Craig had been the man who found me, a disheartened kid, less than four months before, loafing around the dispatcher's office, waiting for something to turn up. My money was gone. I was hungry. The big fellow took pity on me and asked me to his home, where I stayed several weeks, during which time he had introduced me to the men in the general office, to the trainmaster, and had been instrumental in getting me the job I was holding. For he was a man the officials knew and valued and so a friend of his landed a job much easier than the unknown little tramp. His wife had treated me as she would have treated a son; I had played hours at a time with the baby; had made myself perfectly at home, in fact. And it was such a home as I appreciated, for I was but a boy. And now I was Craig's murderer! Above the anguish at the thought I remembered something I had forgotten for a long time—that when I was sent to Colfax, Craig loaned me $10.00, to "start on" as he had put it. I had neglected to repay it, for Feland's bill was rather large every payday and other expenses ran high in the social circle I was in. How small I felt myself at the recollection of the debt!

I knew what it would mean if he hit No. "98." That was the fast meat train starting each night from a great packing house center at the other end of the division. It made passenger time. From the starting point to my station the road followed the river, a course of cuts and curves. The men who pulled the "98" were not mollycoddles. A man who knew fear would have lasted about one run. They had to be men with good, red blood in their veins—and plenty of it—to rattle ahead of forty refrigerator cars around the bluffs and curves on that run. They made the time, but in doing so looked Death in the face and bluffed him every foot of the way. And I had put Craig and his big passenger engine against the two moguls on one of those curves. I had sent him to eternity and made his wife a widow and his baby an orphan.

I must have aged twenty years in ten minutes. I felt the hangman's noose around my neck; I heard the boys on the road mention my name with an oath and a sneer; I felt the sharp cut of the glances flashed at me from the eyes of the people who had been my friends—the rough, kind-hearted men who would burst noisily into the office when my signal stopped them and pass a joke while waiting to get "complete" on their orders. But, worst of all, I could see the horror of the look in the eyes of Craig's wife, when she learned that the man her husband had done so much for had sent him to a death among a lot of flying steel and scalding steam. For I knew that if the trains went together he would die on his seat. He was no quitter; the yellow streak had been left out when he was made. He would stay with the "553" as long as there was a chance of saving the passenges behind him. I did not give a thought to the people he was pulling. They were something intangible, unknown. I had not the fine sense of obligation due to patrons of the road that an engineer has.

I had no gun. I was sorry I had made it a practice never to carry one. Death by my own hand was preferable to the agony I was suffering. My mind went over the past hard, love-hungry life. Since the time I had left the orphan asylum I had known no home; enjoyed none of the inside pleasures of home life except those few weeks at Craig's. All the pent-up love of a homeless boy had gone out to Craig, his wife and the baby—and the baby had been very demonstrative in returning that love. I seemed to feel his soft little arms around my neck. Ugh! I spat in disgust.
I was a brute; an imbecile; a thing unclean. I was not fit to be eaten by buzzards. To have traded the love of even a dog for a bartender's appellation of "good fellow" would have been bad enough, but to trade the love of a child for such a name was a sacrilege. The baby would hate my name when he grew up to realize the enormity of the crime I had committed; when he grew to know that I had made him fatherless.

Ten minutes more of such thoughts would have driven me crazy. I have been told since that great mental anguish will cause brain lesion as surely as will a blow on the head with an iron bar. I believe it. But I saved my mind. I called up the dispatcher and confessed:

"Better order out the wrecker," I told him. "I've been asleep. They've met by this time somewhere up the river. I'll go for Collins or the day man and get one of them to work the remainder of my shift. And I'll be here when you send the officers of the law for me."

"'Bust' that order," came the reply. "There is no extra '553.' Craig is at home, I suppose. If you had been older we'd have fired you some time ago, but I wanted to give you a chance to straighten up, because I think you have good stuff in you. Cut out Feland's. Do that or get off the road. You can give '98' a clear board; there's nothing against her tonight."

"I asked Collins to stay around," he added, "and to turn your semaphore white in case you went to sleep. I think this scare will be a lesson to you."

Just then Collins stepped in. I had my head on the telegraph desk and was crying. The reaction had been too great for me. He said nothing and went out again, closing the door softly behind him.

After that night I did not stop at Feland's saloon on my way to work. I have seen the swinging doors of many a saloon since then, but always from the outside. I'll have to confess that I cried again that night. After the head end of "98" shot by that morning, the smokestacks of both engines spitting sparks into the frosty air, I thought of the cheery greeting I had heard yelled from both cabs, and how I might have sent those friends of mine to death. I forgot I was a "good fellow;" a cog in the wheel of a great railroad system; a man. I went into the office and cried as a two-year-old does after mashing his finger.

Some two years or more after that night I followed Brown up to a better position. But long before promotion came I had ceased to be a "good fellow" in the bartender's estimation.—By Frank Kavannah, Moberly, Mo.

A WRONG DECISION.

My uncle, Nathan Travers, was a rich man without children of his own, and I was to be his heir. He was a man who never forgave an injury. If any one tried to get an unwarranted advantage of him he would beat him, if possible, and in any event would never forgive him. He lived in a suburban town alone except for the servants, received no company and never went out socially. I went to see him at least once a week, often remaining all night.

One morning, after having dined with him the evening before and remained all night, intending to take an early train to the city, I went into his room to bid him goodbye and was shocked to find him dead in his bed. He had been stabbed in the heart. I was about to call the servants when it occurred to me that, being my uncle's heir, I was in a position to be suspected of his murder.

Would it be better for me to be before the world thediscoverer of my uncle's having been killed or to leave the house, pretending not to know anything about it? I had been asked the night before by a maid if I would have breakfast prepared for me and had said that I would breakfast in the city.

If I went out, as was to be expected, the servants would discover and announce the murder. I gave but a few seconds to deliberate whether I should leave the house thus or announce the murder, then decided on the former course.

On my way to the city I was much agitated and fearful that I had decided wrong. It turned out that I had. A maid had arisen and was descending from the story above when I was leaving my uncle's room. She saw me, and later, when she went to awaken her master and found him dead, remembered having seen me leaving his chamber. The result was that when I was told of the tragedy and looked surprised and shocked I was at once arrested and brought to trial.

The explanation I have given here was without any effect on the jury. My attorney only relied on it so far as it could be corroborated by other evidence. He introduced the statements of those who knew my uncle and who swore that he was a man having many enemies. During his long life several persons had said to him: "You shall pay for this," or "I'll have your heart's blood," or "Just you wait." My defender took the ground that some one of these persons had done the deed. But my unwise action on discovering my uncle's dead body had fixed his death irrevocably on me unless the real murderer could be discovered.

I was convicted. My lawyer resorted to the usual methods to secure delay, and my execution was put off from time to time. Finally, all these subterfuges having failed, a day was set for my death.

Books and newspapers were allowed me, but I could read only the latter. One day I was trying to keep my mind off my horror by reading a morning journal when I saw that a burglary had been committed and the robber had been arrested with the plunder on him.

His portrait was in the rogues' gallery and identified him as Peter Ritterhof, with several aliases. He had but recently left state prison, having been sent there for a robbery committed five years before.

Ritterhof! Where had I heard that name? Some Ritterhof had crossed my path at some time, but I could not remember when, the circumstances or the person. The memory does not always act instantly. There are cases wherein it requires time. Presently I recalled that the name was connected with a scene in court. Then the fact came to me that my uncle had once sent a workman to the penitentiary who had been engaged in his house and whom he accused of purloining certain valuables. Lastly, Ritterhof and this workman became identical in my mind.

I sent for my attorney at once and told him what I have given here. Not wishing to excite in me a hope that might be dashed, he went away, simply saying that he would make a thorough investigation. In time he returned, saying that he had examined the records and found that this Ritterhof had been "sent up" exactly ten years and ten days before the date of the murder for stealing articles from my uncle's house.

So affected was I by the announcement, which I considered tantamount to a reprieve, that I toppled over. When I came to myself again my attorney impressed upon me the importance of fixing the murder upon this man and told me he proposed to do it by the process called third degree.

I had another temporary breakdown when he came to my cell the next day and announced that he had secured the desired confession. He acquired it by assuring Ritterhof that he had three witnesses ready to swear that he had said he would kill the man who caused his imprisonment and had evidence of his having been seen leaving my uncle's house during the night of the murder.

Within a few days I walked out of jail into a fortune. But I never entirely recovered from the narrow escape I had had and never hear of the conviction of any one for a first crime without thinking he may be innocent.—By ARTHUR W. BREWSTER, in The Iowa Unionist.
The New Year.
Here's to the year we are leaving behind us!
Here's to the lessons that ought to remind us
Better to live in the year that's before us,
Less to bewail o'er the fates that ignore us!
Here's to the New Year, we hopefully meet him:
Warmly acclaim and fraternally greet him;
Born in a pause of the midnight he rises,
Over the clouds of our doubts and surmises,
Wrapt in the dawn of a new dispensation—
Here's to success in the home and the nation.
—H. D. Stringham.

Be What Mother Thinks You Are.
Whilst walking down a crowded city street the other day,
I heard a little urchin to a comrade turn and say:
"Say, Chimney, lemme tell youse, I'd be happy as a clam
If I only was de feller dat me mudder t'inks I am.
"She t'inks I am a wonder, an' she knows her little lad
Could never mix wit nuttin' dat was ugly, mean or bad.
Oh, lordy o' times I sit and t'ink how nice 'twould be—gee whiz!
If a feller was de feller dat his mudder t'inks he is."

My friend, be yours a life of toil or undiluted joy,
You still can learn a lesson from this small unlettered boy.
Don't aim to be an earthly saint with eyes fixed on the stars;
Just try to be the "fellow that your mother thinks you are."

Child Laborers.
"Let them not drop within the house of toil,
The little children! Make them to go free.
Give them their heritage of sun and soil,
Kinship with rain, wind and cloud and sea.
"They are too frail, too glad, to learn of pain,
Their eyes have not forgot, for all the gray
Of leaden hours, the sky's star-blossomed plain.
Give them again the wealth of idle days!"

So do we speak, wise in our years, yet slow,
As they, to lift the age-worn, bitter weight
We till beneath in heart and body throw,
Ourselves but children with a task too vast,
Help us, then, Father, shape the work aright,
Child laborers we, blind in the dawning night.

Ideal Union Member.
Don't bring into the union room
Anger and spite and pride,
Drop at the gate of the temple
The strife of the world outside.
Forget every foolish trouble,
Forget all your cares and sorrow,
And remember the cause you met for,
And haste you the glad tomorrow.
Bring your hearts into the union room,
But leave yourself outside—
That is, your personal feelings,
Ambition, vanity, pride.
Center each thought and power
On the cause for which you assemble,
Fetter the demon envy,
And make ye his cohorts tremble.
Aye, to fetter and to chain him
And to cast him under our feet,
That is the end to aim at—
An object for which we meet.
Then don't bring into the union room
Envy or strife or pride,
Or aught that will mar our union,
But leave them all outside.
—Ella Wheeler Wilcox.

The Ordinary Man.
He's an ordinary person
You can see on any day,
Who treads the path of life in just An ordinary way;
An unobtrusive unit
In an ordinary town,
Who's labeled at the office
As a Smith, perhaps, or Brown.

But follow him one evening,
As an undiscovered guest,
To a small suburban villa
That the fellow calls his "nest."
Then comes a metamorphosis—
Explain it if you can—
But Smith (or Brown) becomes a most Extraordinary man.

A little king whose presence makes
A little kingdom glad;
Was ever there, to those concerned,
A greater man than "Dad?"
So ye who hitherto despised Proceed to make amends,
For 'tis on people such as this
The very world depends.

The Garret of the Years.

I've packed my troubles out of sight—all idle hopes and fears,
High in the shadowy stillness of the garret of the years.
The ghosts of griefs of other days—old time-worn sorrows gray,
And the heart's doors are open wide and joy has come to stay.

I pass from all the shadows of the long-enduring night;
I meet the Morning on the hills—a brother to its light.
What gain have I for all the years where weeping Memory dwells?
The New Year day shall greet me with the song of all the bells?

The dreams that come a-sighing, with not one cheering gleam,
Within the dusty silence they shall dream out their dream;
Life is too sweet for sorrow—too wondrous-bright for tears;
I leave them to the shadows of the garret of the years.

Pipe Dreams.

He had a wondrous castle in some fairy realm of old;
Its marble halls of splendor hung with trophies rare of gold.
He revelled in the beauty of its changing tint and gleam,
Until he let his pipe go out and found it all a dream.

He owned a yacht and sailed the seas for islands of the West,
Where strains of silvery music lulled his weary soul to rest,
Upon a bed of roses fair that bloomed beside a stream;
And then he let his pipe go out and found it just a dream.

His board and room rent were paid up for ten years in advance,
His landlord passed him with a word of cheer and kindly glance;
But suddenly his blissful joys were quickly put to rout,
For when he tried to fill his pipe, his smoking had run out!

Ole's Reply.

Ole had been discharged by the foreman of the section gang, and when he was handed his pay envelope asked for a pass to Chicago. The railroad official thought to humiliate him and said:
"Now, supposing, Ole, that you were working for a farmer and he fired you, don't you think you would have a great deal of nerve to ask the farmer to hitch up a team and take you to town after you had been discharged?"
"Well," said Ole, "perhaps so; but if he had his team already hitched up and was going to town anyway, I would think he was pretty mean if he didn't let me ride."
Ole got the pass.

"What can you tell her? You can't tell her anything. She knows it all."

Printers Are Philosophers.

A story that has running through it a vein of humor is to the effect that in the old days of hand composition a printer from New York, known as Pilgrim Haslett, wandered into a Pennsylvania town and asked the editor of a weekly paper for a job.
"Well," said the editor, "I can put you to work, but I am afraid I can not pay you much money."
"Make me an offer," said Pilgrim.
"All right, I can give you two meals a day at my house, you can sleep in the office on this lounge, and I'll take care of your laundry. Then if you need tobacco, get it across the street at the grocery; they run an account with us, and up at the brewery you can get a can of beer whenever you like. Besides, I will pay you $4.00 a week."
"Gosh," said Pilgrim, after repeating the offer to get it straight in his mind, "if I get all that what do I want with the $4.00?"—American Federationist.
HONEST BRAIN WORK.

The recent figures for national expenses in the present economic or financial year, are as follows: One hundred and eighty million dollars for what we call the civil establishment. That covers all administration government expenses, besides usual internal improvements for harbors, rivers and public buildings. On top of that we expend about $520,000,000 for army, navy, pensions, interest on national debt and $21,000,000 for the Indian service. The last sum would not need to exist if we saw fit to give to the Indians the natural right to own land and be citizens like the rest of us. What now about the army and navy, which take over $300,000,000 per annum? And what about annual pensions, $175,000,000? And what about $22,000,000 for interest on national debt? A normal progress would not need any of those $520,000,000 destructive expenses per annum. To be sure, we can not have a fully normal nation as long as all the others are sickly, abnormal. All the same we could be much less abnormal than any other nation.

Several decades ago, when our pensions were about $30,000,000, two of our Presidents—Garfield and General Grant—asserted the rationale that pensions should commence to decrease. It follows that today the pensioners for a war fought about sixty years ago, should not be over, say, $12,000,000, in lieu of $175,000,000. We are then paying $163,000,000 more than we should. Is that very flattering to our national sense of justice to those who produce all wealth? Because all taxation comes from our plain people. We, the comfortable and wealthy, are but tax collectors from the working multitudes, in whichever form we may outwardly pay any taxes. If anybody has any doubts on the subject, we shall prove our assertion. It would take too much space for us to do it now. Then, we think that very few sensible men can entertain any doubts about the economic assertion we have proclaimed. All taxes, under past and present tax methods, come from the wealth producers.

Yes, it is the grand totality of the bottom and finished workers who furnish all pensions, all charities, all forms of taxation, national and local. On top of that, the same workers furnish all wealth, in the shape of private taxation, through which some of us manage to live in plenty.

The need of pensions, charities and the taxation which provides for all foolish expenses such as armies, navies, interest on public debts, national or local, etc.—they all prove that today more than ever we are submerged into a disgraceful progress, a progress of despair.

Under sensible social conditions each family group or isolated individual would find the opportunities needed for a sound, comfortable income, in relation to services rendered. Our beloved King Monopoly makes such opportunities limited. Hence that struggle for mere animal existence among the many. That evolves a clumsy mentality, unable to stand by the truth in the social order of every nation.

When we try to take in the whole status of modern life, we then find that the mere animal struggle for existence, with the bottom and finished workers as wealth producers, is but one of the wheels of our modern complications. The other wheel is the struggle for mental peace, or that of freedom from constant anxieties. That catches practically all of us on the top of the social ladder. And what is life when saturated with fears about the tomorrow, or next year, or next decade, for that matter? All generations have had some touches of that mental malaria, so to speak, but today that malaria seems to be intense with almost everybody. Life has no real, positive value, without mental peace. The fever heat of our days is deplorable. The tomorrow is a sword of Damocles for almost everybody who has any brains left. And in this nation, so blessed for healthy potentialities within reach of everybody in this nation, we are face to face with calamities such as many other nations don't seem to be exposed to or in danger of.

There is a science in real reform movements as there is in everything, and we still wish to reform ourselves in forms crooked and empirical. One of the most important facts we decline to properly consider is that of a constant rise in prices, more or less rapid, through all historical development. Occasional drops in some articles, for a while, have of course taken place. That has not materially interfered with the upward tendency taken as a whole. Nor have we tried to notice the two elements, in all prices, one representing labor cost, and the other embodying increased monopoly earnings. We have simply looked at the money price, regardless of qualities and quantities of the real wealth produced, that to be connected with increased needs of the sanitary kind. The artificial needs fail to represent "sound progress." They imply "retrogressive progress."

Taken as a whole, the rise in prices, century after century, has meant that a larger share of wealth produced has been taken from the labor fund into the monopoly fund.

The mere beginning of a sound progress would rapidly or slowly stop all rising prices. That would simply indicate the slow or rapid suppression of monopoly earnings. A slow drop in prices would soon follow. That would mean increased production, and hence increased comfort with the plain multitudes. Can you, ladies and gentlemen, logically disprove the preceding assertions? Opposite causes are bound to produce opposite results. Any additional drop in prices would simply mean that the workers, under industrial freedom, were constantly increasing production through greater efficiency and less labor per day. A healthy progress would soon suppress all the unsanitary and foolish production of today. That would increase all production of the sanitary kind. We can only see the logic of the preceding thoughts through brain work of the honest kind. But who has time for such work in our days of excitements, foolish ambitions and selfish ideals? Jose Gros.

All matter for this department must be in the hands of the Grand Secretary and Treasurer on or before the 28th day of the month in order to insure its use in the following issue.

New Haven, Conn., Div. No. 29.

The twelfth annual ball of this division will be held at Harmonie Hall, New Haven, Wednesday evening, January 28, 1914. Bro. Platt's orchestra of Clinton has been engaged to furnish music and the committee in charge will leave no stone unturned to make this affair even better than any yet, and that will be going some.

A souvenir booklet will be published containing a history of Div. 29 from its inception up to the present date. The tickets are 50 cents each and every brother should take at least one, and if possible 'be on hand and help to make the ball a success and at the same time do you a favor.

Many questions were argued pro and con at the December meeting. The brothers who do not attend are missing all these interesting arguments.

Hope to see you at the ball,
In Harmonie Hall.
Come on, come all.

Bro. Bigley, twelve-hour man Southbury, was called to his home in Pennsylvania on account of illness of his sister. Bro. Bigley is an expert photographer and as most of his subjects are young ladies, he was missed while away. Bro. "Jim" Walsh, agent Oxford, Bro. Bigley's keenest rival, who attended the last dance at Quaker Farms near Oxford, is an exponent of all the latest steps and is therefore very popular at all the dances.

One brother was very generous with notes this month and wish a few more would do likewise. These write-ups are looked for by many of the brothers and keenly missed when they do not appear. Little affairs of seemingly little consequence to us are interesting to some of the brothers who are scattered throughout the country and who are interested in their old love, the New Haven or C. N. Bro. John Mills, agent Derby, wears a glad smile these days; a dear friend whom he thought had forgotten him, gladdened his aching heart with a post card. Even a poor little post card can be a messenger of joy.

Bro. Bosvert, of Highland Junction, Waterbury, fell on the rail while lighting a signal lamp that bad blown out, and fractured a rib. We hope he will soon be able to be around again.

Bro. Ross, general chairman, and Bro. Dowd, local chairman, who were out on the east end a few days during December studying up matters pertaining to committee work, will by degrees cover the whole line.

Bro. Wolcott ("NE," "JC"), Waterbury, who was operated on at St. Mary's Hospital there for appendicitis, is fast recovering and desires to thank all those who so kindly remembered him during his trouble.

Freight business is slack for this time of year; many engineers have been set back and the outlook is not very bright for a brisk winter.

Derby station, erected in 1903, at a cost of $15,000, was almost totally destroyed by fire, origin unknown, early Wednesday morning, December 17th.

Mill Plain station has been located permanently a short distance west of the old site, and work is progressing rapidly in the abolition of the grade crossing at that point. A union station is also to be erected at Towners, between the C. N. E. and N. Y. C. tracks.

The New York Times of Sunday, December 21st, contained a very interesting article on the use of wireless on the D. L. & W.'s Lackawanna Limited. It would seem as if this would be adopted by all the roads in the future.

The Naugy and Highland Division wires have been consolidated by means of repeater at "JC," and one dispatcher there handles both divisions now, doing away with a dispatcher, but on account of the new position of assistant chief dispatcher, to which Dispatcher Fuller has been appointed, no one is out of employment. The split trick position, 2 p. m. to 10 p. m., has been abolished at "JC," and Bro. Besette is out of a job.

Bro. Brink has been on the sheet at "JC" all summer relieving the different dispatchers during their vacations and when they covered the road, and is next in line for a regular trick dispatching.

Bro. E. R. Wheaton was a recent Danbury visitor.

Mr. Doolin, at "JC," is covering the different tricks in that office. We should see that he gets into the fold again.

Bro. Bigely, Southbury, was relieved by Bro. Oldum for about a week, who later went to Brookfield agency pending bids.

Bro. Brewer, at "SY," has a large rabbit cat with kittens to help to keep the work up to date there. Any of the brothers who want to clear their freight house of rats, call on Bro. Brewer for a kitten.
Bro. Flynn, at Towantic, recently called in to Waterbury with a few of the brothers from the east end and examined on the book of rules, passed with honors. Brothers who have not been examined yet should brush up, as they will pass them all to a man.

Bro. Cranwell, Towantic second, was quite successful on a recent wild duck hunt in that territory.

Bro. Jones, at Allerton Farms, took out several of the brothers recently on a night hunt with his dog, and bagged several rabbits.

Bros. Gordon and Bessette, of Waterbury, enjoyed a good hunt with Bro. Tarbox during his vacation, securing a good variety of game. Bro. Tarbox has a thorough knowledge of the "Wilds of Sandy Hook," besides being a good shot.

Bro. Frank Wheaton bid in Ansonia second; this brings him near home.

Bro. Wells, at Bank St. Jct. tower, who was recently married, relieved Bro. Walsh, at Winsted, on vacation.

Bro. Dowd, who covered the car distributor's position while Bro. Fallon was on vacation, also relieved the crew dispatcher a few weeks, and is now back on his third "GY," slinging levers.

Bro. Flaherty and Fallon and Brink, of Naugatuck and Waterbury, respectively, have returned from an enjoyable trip "out west."

Bro. Mayer bid in Union City and is now with Bro. Harmon there. He relieved at "GY" while Bros. Dowd and Wells were away.

Mr. Leroux, a new man from the C. V. Ry., who relieved Bro. Shea, at Oxford, a few days, will soon be in the fold.

Bro. Van Dusen, New Milford, landed first in his home town.

Bro. Goulet, of Pittsfield freight house, "FH," who bid in the job "for the summer," has decided to winter there. We understand there's a reason.

New Haven Div. No. 29 wishes all of you a bright and prosperous New Year.

T. A. Allen, D. C.

N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R., Midland Division—

Let every one of us put our shoulder to the wheel of progress, and do our part towards making this division solid in the year 1914, and impress on its members the importance of always being active and up to date. Two or three telegraphers never get together but they always point out how much men in other branches of the service get in wages and conditions. If we will apply the same methods we can not fail to get the same results.

Bro. Bob Johnston, ticket agent Manchester, has returned from his Southern trip and resumed his former duties.

"The Axe-Train" is going over the road and there is a possibility that many of the offices will be closed one trick, or more, in order that the company may economize as much as possible during this present depression in business. Cheer up, brothers, it won't last long, for we are all convinced that "The New Haven" is the very best piece of railroad property in this country.

Rumor has it that telephones are to be installed from New Haven to Springfield. If they will be an improvement we will gladly welcome them and continue to give the best service to the dispatchers.

Donovan, Buckley, Green and Derosiers are to fill out their applications for the January meeting. That will fix up this end of the line in pretty good shape. Vermilyea, Emery and Curry might make a "mental note" of this and see if it means anything.

Sister Alice Johnston bid in second Jewett City.

The local chairman will be glad to hear from you at any time, and have any infractions of the schedule called to his attention.

Bro. Brown, first East Hartford Yard, has our sympathy. He was called to his home town in Pennsylvania on December 2d on account of the death of his mother.

How many of us are going to pay our dues before the sixty-day limit is up. If we would only realize our responsibility to our beneficiary there would not be a single one of us behind on March 1st. Pay up.

On Saturday, December 13th, Bro. O. H. Coomes, of East Longmeadow, passed on to his final reward. Bros. Beiden, Malstrom and Leete attended his funeral. Bro. Coomes and his father hold the peculiar honor of being the only agents at this station since the road was opened in 1877. Although a member only a little over three years he has been a faithful one and now his family will reap the benefit of his loyalty. His sterling character and sincerity of purpose should be a lesson to us all.

Mr. Keach, of Buckland, who has had a raise of over $2.50 a week, is not willing to contribute the small amount necessary to provide himself with the protection an up-to-date card would afford him.

We should see that the men on the Midland holding cards in other divisions not represented by our general committee, are transferred to this division in accordance with Section 29, page 54, of the statutes.

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, The Almighty God has called unto Himself Bro. O. H. Coomes, of East Longmeadow; let us extend to his wife and children our sincere sympathy and aid, as they have lost a devoted husband and father; so has Division 29 lost a loyal member; therefore, be it

Resolved, That our charter be draped for thirty days and copies of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family, to THE TELEGRAPHER and also be placed on our minutes.

M. Brown, W. Johnston, Joseph Leete, Committee.

Central New England Ry.—

Bro. Alex Smith was relieved for a few days by ex-Bro. "Sailor Boy" Anson while Smithey was seeing the sights in the metropolis. Bro. R. H. Yeager, on vacation, was relieved by Mr. Scully, and Bro. Tom Campbell, the "old-timer," off a week, was relieved by Mr. DeLong.

Geo. Teasdale was to get a card the first of the year, sure.

The boys at Maybrook, "BK," "XC" and "MK," have brand new sanctums. The boys in "BK" have a hard time to keep their new place in a respectable condition owing to the "bunch" of "boomers" hanging around.

Bro. House bid in Loyd Station and Bro. Franklin second "BO" tower.

The criticism in our notes is not intended to cause any hard feelings among the operators or agents, but we still maintain that it is an imposition for them to accept the benefits secured by the O. R. T. and allow the brother operators and agents to pay for them. Some of them seem to think the O. R. T. committee will continue to represent them as heretofore, but when the committee again goes before our officials for benefits the best thing to do will be to work for the interests of the O. R. T. members only and forget a lot of promises which never materialize. Brothers, these men are either with us or against us, and it is certainly hard enough to secure benefits for our own members without helping those who are injuring our cause by remaining on the outside and then kick because we don't do more for them.

We were very glad to get some news from Bro. Yeager and we hope to hear from other brothers so we can have a fair write-up each month.

E. L. C., Cert. 263.

Providence, R. I., Div. No. 35.

The following circular letter by Bro. R. S. Eaton, secretary-treasurer of our Beneficial Association, should be read by every member of our division, and result in a large increase in membership. Every one of our 350 division members should support it, thereby protecting themselves and prove their loyalty by upholding the hands of their officers, who are trying to do all they can to improve general conditions; new applications for 1914 are coming in rapidly.

The Beneficial Association of Division 35, O. R. T., is now nearing the end of its third year, and during this time we have succeeded in gaining a membership of nearly one-third of the members of the division.

In 1911 this association was founded for the purpose of doing away with the numerous papers that were previous to that time so often presented to secure all for some sick or distressed member, but since the founding of our association we are pleased to say that this practice has been entirely done away with. The association provides for a sick benefit of $5 for the first week and $10 for the next seven weeks, making a total of $75. The dues are 25 cents per week, payable in advance, a total of $13 per annum. At the end of the year all money on hand is equally divided pro rata among the members in good standing.

In 1911 we had forty-seven members, and at the end of the year we returned to each member $7.47, after disbursing $170 for sick claims, although we had only been in operation forty weeks, and in 1912 we had seventy-six members and made a refund of $10.75 per member, after disbursing $214.80. This year we have at the present ninety-seven members in good standing, and hope to equal, if not to exceed, the amount of refund made in 1912.

As a great number of the members of the division are not acquainted with the fact that we have been doing such good work for the past three years, it was decided to bring it to each member's attention by means of a circular letter, by which we hope to have a 100 per cent increase in membership over 1913 for 1914.

Any information regarding our work will be gladly furnished upon application to the secretary.

Having been thus duly informed of the splendid work this association is doing, all members are urged to avail themselves of its liberal provisions by making early application for membership, and sending the same to the secretary or president, including 50 cents initiation fee.

Fraternally yours,

R. S. Eaton, secretary-treasurer, 7 Potter Street, East Providence, R. I.; W. J. Brenner, president, 32 Earl Street, Providence, R. I.; J. D. Vanderbeck, vice-president, 284 Montgomery Avenue, Providence, R. I.

Bro. McKenna and family have gone to Los Angeles, Cal., for several months. Other members of family will remain until spring. We wish them a pleasant and beneficial trip.

Our November meeting was a rouser as usual, with a good attendance, but should have been better.

Telling addresses were made by General Chairman Ross, Local Chairman Joslin and others.

At the December meeting occurred the election of officers of our Beneficial Association.

The first meeting of the new year will be ushered in by a debate, in which all should participate, upon the subject of "Inter-divisional bidding." It is an important subject and will, no doubt, be ably handled in all its aspects.

Bro. Boler, third Midway, was off three days on account of sickness. Bro. Al. Conant was also off sick for three weeks.

Bro. Gillett, spare Mid. Division, bid in Sterling, Conn.

Local Chairman G. E. Joslin, relieved by Bro. E. Berryman, second Orms St. tower, on third Auburn tower, goes to first there, vice Bro. Jack Smith, who takes the new 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. telegraph trick in chief train dispatcher's office.

Bro. W. H. Young goes from second Wickford Jet. tower to spare towerman, vice Bro. Charles Weeks, who succeeds Mr. Jackson as third trick dispatcher on Shore Line end of Providence Division.

Bro. Torrelli, from spare to third trick Sharon Pit tower.

Bro. Tommy Roy (old reliable) from Dexter St. tower to new electric tower at South Worcester. Hope he won't forget his many friends about Providence.
The engagement of our esteemed and worthy Local Chairman George E. Joslin to Miss Ethel M. Potter is announced. We join most sincerely in extending our congratulations to both.

Bro. M. W. Buck, with his bride and bridal party, took an auto from Fisherville, Mass., after ceremony, to Woonsocket and Providence, taking the train at the latter place for Washington, D. C., where they spent their honeymoon. Friends met the party both at Woonsocket and Providence, where the bridal couple were showered with confection and good wishes. The auto reminded one of a boiler factory, from the noise made by the tin cans tied to it. The couple will reside in Millbury, Mass., where Bro. Buck is employed. We hope both will keep up their O. R. T. dues and at once apply for membership in our Beneficial Association, so that provision for the sick day will not be overlooked.

J. D. V., Div. Cor.

At our regular monthly meeting, December 12th, we had the pleasure of listening to Electrical Superintendent Gilliam and Chief Load Dispatcher Bro. Flanigan, who gave a descriptive address relative to the new lightning arresters, which some of the brothers are required to charge every morning. They consist of a series of aluminum plates filled with electrolyte, the plates being submerged in oil which is non-conductive, one side being connected to the negative or return circuit through a fuse, the other connected to the 10,000-volt line. When charged through a horn gap (which is closed when charging) it is important to note a condition that would mean a large loss of oil from the tanks, as the oil is designed to prevent arcing, and if the oil had leaked out of the tanks by any mishap the line might short circuit the inside of the tanks, which are grounded, if the lightning arrester was being charged. These arresters are designed to carry off excessive voltage, such as lightning and heavy line surges. To charge them contact is made by closing the horn gap, one side of which is connected to a rope, which is thoroughly insulated from the 11,000-volt line; pulling the rope closer the horn gap. If a bright arc is formed, the arrester is being properly charged; if a reddish or dull arc forms, then it is not being charged and should be reported to the local dispatcher. A contact of about 30 seconds is sufficient to charge the arrester. This is done by an electro-chemical change in the electrolyte, which causes an amalgam to form on the aluminum plates, which acts as an insulator until the voltage becomes excessive and pierces the amalgam and flows to ground. Each plate offers a certain amount of resistance and cuts down the voltage so there would be no violent discharge to ground.

We were very glad to see such a large number present at our meeting, notably Bro. Ross, our general chairman; Bro. Jocelyn, director; Bro. Tiger, local chairman; Bro. Reif, chief telegrapher; Bro. Seaman, secretary-treasurer; Bro. McCormack, local chairman, Division 29. In fact, we had a full house.

N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R.—

Bro. McMahon, who was on the sick list, is O. K. now, also Bro. Haig.

Bro. D. Kennedy, Division 29, working in Harlem River, is going away for his health. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Bro. "Bill" Bitters has a new auto. Classy, eh? Probably be some new temporary jobs on the Harlem River branch with the third trick staff operator from Bangay St. to Harlem River.

Now is the time to pay your dues, boys, and get your new card early for 1914.

Quite a few transfers from Division 29 to 37, probably on account of changes in division limits. New York Division is now between New York and New Hampshire.

December 15th men of the Electric Department together with some of the towermen presented the retiring chief load dispatcher, Mr. J. C. Preston, a handsome gold watch, E. Howard make, suitably inscribed. A light luncheon was served at the Congress Hotel, New Rochelle, and we all had a good time.

"Good Luck," J. C. P., Div. Cor., Cert. 123.

Albany Division, West End—

Up for bid, 4 p. m. to 12 m.: Second West Springfield Yard and Springfield Station third tricks; Tower 50, Chester, 12 m. to 8 a. m.; Russell station, 10 p. m. to 7 a. m. Mr. Mougin is qualifying for the former.

Bro. J. J. O'Rourke is on second Tower 38, Athol Junction, temporarily, relieved by W. Service, a new man, on third Niverville.

Bro. Wm.; H. Sweet is acting as chief signalman temporarily between Rensselaer and N. A. Jct., and Bro. H. D. Whitney on Eastern Division of west end between Springfield and N. A. Jct. until W. D. Brewer qualifies.

It is now Bro. M. L. Fleming, third Springfield station.

Bro. J. A. Bell, second Cadys, and Bro. J. Patterson, second Tower 60, State Line, were up to the city a few days ago buying supplies, top shoes and felt boots, getting ready for old winter.
Those who would like to see a write-up will have to send me some news.

Bro. E. J. La Pointe, chairman of O. R. T., Rutland Ry., Chatham-Bennington Division, from C. D. Chatham, attended a meeting of the officers in Rutland, Vt., recently.

Bro. Thompson and Cunningham, of Tower 66, are getting quite strong—both have broken a lever off by the roots while on duty.

"Doc."

New York, N. Y., Div. No. 44.

Regular meeting for the month of December was held on Saturday evening, the 13th, and was very well attended, there being about forty present, including our Second Vice, Bro. T. M. Pierson. Tom is always a welcome visitor, for the boys know when he is present that there is a great treat in store for them, as he always has a ready fund of sound advice to offer for our advancement and it is to such men that we owe our present standing today. May he come often in the future.

One of the interesting things at this meeting was the large number of applications handled, and it is with pride that we announce that we still cling to the title "Banner Division," as we have an O. R. T. man to every mile of track. Can the men on any other road boast of such a record? Now, brothers, that we have attained that point let us get together with all of our might and "ONWARD" be our watchword for the coming year. Practically thorough organization has put this within our grasp. Let us keep it.

The true meaning of organization is "a place for every man and every man in his place," each brother at all times looking out for the interest of the Order. If you come in contact with a non or know of one, do your best to line him up and if you can't, do not stop, but send his name to some other brother who will try and see what he can do with him. We have loyal and active members on the east end who can never attend the meetings on account of the train service, but these same brothers are with us to the man and with an united effort will bring good results.

After our meeting the boys were invited to a body to the lodge room of the Ladies' Auxiliary Local No. 16, where the sisters had prepared a tasteful lunch and asked the brothers to participate in for the benefit of two brothers who had made a recent appeal for assistance through The Telegraphian. The boys responded with a will to this worthy cause and these two brothers received a nice Christmas present from their efforts. First Vice Grand President Sister Hilley was elated over the success of the affair. Keep up the good work, sisters.

Bro. H. V. Bedell, agent Richmond Hill, bid in Huntington agency; relieved by relief agent, Bro. Walters.

Bro. Williams and Filby are the champion checker players of Great Neck and are out to meet all comers.

Bro. Clock, agent at Great Neck, has now only the freight to handle.

Bro. Ryan, from Glen St., Glen Cove, has been appointed telegrapher for Secretary of State Hon. Wm. J. Bryan. Div. 44 congratulates Bro. Ryan on his high percentage secured in the competitive examination.

Bro. Chas. Travis has the sympathy of Div. 44 in his present illness. Bro. Travis has lost a lot of time in the past year on account of sickness and it is hoped that he will soon recover and be able to resume duty. He is being relieved by Bro. Dan Powers.

Bro. Joe Argust has bid in Massapequa agency and is now close at home. Good luck to you, brother.

Bro. H. T. Jones has resigned the agency at Seauctet.

Bro. Jim Robinson, agent at King's Park, is enjoying a month's vacation, relieved by Bro. Bill Leahy.

Bro. J. B. Baldwin, agent at Amityville, has bid in the station master at Far Rockaway; relieved by P. J. Voss, of Massapequa, relieved by F. W. Bennecke; Bro. Dietz, relief agent Belmore, relieved by H. C. Moore.

Bro. Burrows, agent at Springfield, has resigned.

Bro. P. C. Clawson, extra, secured third "RC," Richmond Hill.

Bro. Tom Gaffeny, of Div. 44, and Sister Edith Burke, of Local No. 16, are on their honeymoon visiting several Southern cities. Div. 44 extends its congratulations to the happy couple.

Bro. Williams, first, and Bro. Corneely, second, at "G" cabin, Great Neck; two good boys in the right place.

Sister Sinnot, first at "PN," Port Washington, with Bro. Sam Kaljain, on second. Bro. Kaljain is getting to be a first-class railroad man since the absolute block rules went into effect on that division.

Bro. Jim O'Rourke and bride just returned from their honeymoon, visiting Washington, D. C., sending announcement to chief telegrapher, Bro. Van Nostrand. Jimmy has the hearty congratulations of No. 44.

Sister Lemaire, first at "WE," Whitestone Landing, and Bro. C. Hummel on second.

Chief telegrapher, Bro. Van, on a trip to Omaha. It is said that "Van" is looking for his better half. Good luck to you, "Van."

Wish you all a happy and prosperous New Year.

Boston, Mass., Div. No. 89.

It seemed like olden times to see so many brothers present at the night meeting which chief Bro. Kerns called to order December 6th, a feature of which was the general hand-clapping as Past Chief Bro. Jacobs assumed his chair, it being nearly two years since he last performed the functions of his office, owing to his being employed as train dispatcher at Hartford and New Haven. Bro. Jacobs said distance lends enchantment, so he took this, his first opportunity, to be present.

The post card notice of special interest to agents, while effective in a way, did not bring out those whom it mostly concerned.

A committee comprised of Bros. Mullen, De War and Drummond to confer with Div. 41 regarding beneficial State legislation and also a joint telegraphers' social club, no doubt will have something interesting to report.

General chairman Bro. Ross gave an interesting and lengthy report regarding grievances handled successfully and others in process.

Chief Bro. Kerns was the successful bidder, who with eight others took the examination for the position of operator in the dispatcher's office in Boston.

Representatives of the press in waiting for news shows we are some pumpkins when we get together.

It would be well for some of us to heed the good example set by big Bill Fenwick, he of the Abe Lincoln type both in temperament and spirit. He usually waits until called upon for an opinion, to which he at all times is equal.

That we need not go to the wild and woolly West for hair-raising incidents was recently demonstrated when Bro. J. W. Sawyer, third trick towerman at Attleboro Junction, who while in the serenity of his much-bewindowed cabin and dreaming of the good old summer time, was suddenly taken by surprise one early morning with "hands up and don't move," which of course Sawyer refused to do, at the same time remarking: "I know you, Hill. You can't fool me," and was about to step forward to disarm the masked desperado, when in steps another masked robber, grasps the gun from his pal and orders Sawyer to fork over his chink or be reduced to shredded meat. This looked more like business and Sawyer handed over his little all, "three cents." "Is that all you have, you blankety blank blank blank?" "That's all," replied Sawyer, "you know the Wall street gang was down here a short while ago and took everything but the rails and time card." "Got any watch?" "No; see that clock over there?" and as their heads were turned he slipped his time-piece into his jeans, which a moment before was dangling from his vest pocket in the closet, thanks to their overmasking which obscured from view so small an object. "What's that infernal machine?" Desperado No. 2, pointing to the closet. "Oh, that's a Yetman typewriter and belongs to the second trick man." "Haul her out; looks like good swag, hey, Bill?" Their curiosity having been satisfied, they took up the booty and commanded Sawyer to precede them up the turnpike, where they were met by another pal, who stood outside guard. After a hike of over a mile through the surrounding lonely woods Sawyer wondered what was to become of him, meantime his few hairs standing on end like a wireless aerial on the American Desert, when suddenly he was advised to retrace his steps and make no mention of the affair, which he was pleased to do only in part. He notified the police of his experience, who were loth to credit his story and roundly berated him and threatened arrest for the theft of the Yetman. However, several days later one of the desperadoes was taken into custody and confessed the whole affair as related here and implicating his two pals who are still at large with their white elephant. Bro. Sawyer was later exonerated and given credit for his heroism and can go "primitive man Joe Knowles" one better in that he has his bare skin minus the bullet holes.

_Boston Division Notes—_

Bro. McCue, from second to third, So. Bay tower.

Bro. J. W. McLaughlin, from third Neponset, to relief towerman's position.

_Chiicago, Ill., Div. No. 91._

_E. J. & E. Ry., East End—_

Bro. Andrews on first Waukegan, a new man from the East; is too busy to find much news, but will try and give us a line up as often as he is able. Bro. D. Doyle on second; between roundhouse and the telephone girl has his hands full. Mr. Worth is on third Waukegan.

Bro. Dockery is at the new tower at Barrington.
Bro. Delong is on first West Chicago, Mr. Richards on second and Mr. Cooper on third. The air line and the plant at "DA" tower, West Chicago, have been repaired and put in service December 16th. The operators have had a flagman all summer and will now have a few more levers to work.

I received a request for two application blanks from Mr. Scroggins on second trick at Walker; expect he and the third man will soon be with us. Keep it up, boys, when I run out of blanks, I know where to get more.

You boys along the line send me a few notes to Box 745, West Chicago, and we will try and have a write-up every month. It is not much trouble to jot down a few lines. W. H. D., Cert. 95.

Meridian, Miss., Div. No. 94.

Mobile & Ohio R. R. —

I missed the usual newsy letter from Bro. Morris at Eoline, Ala., but the Christmas rush was on and every man had his hands full. Bro. Holmes at Artesia, our assistant local chairman, and Bro. Gilmer, at Fruitdale, our local chairman pro tem, found time to give me a few dots.

Brothers, we certainly had a lovely meeting at Artesia in November, and all of you who failed to attend missed a treat.

Bro. C. J. King, of Reform, on the Montgomery Division, was accidentally killed while out bird hunting December 20th, both barrels of the gun being discharged, the contents entering his head, producing instant death.

Bro. Holmes has corralled all the boys at Muldon. Would that we had a Holmes at every job on this line, for he not only keeps Artesia lined up, but finds time to help line up the other places.

If any of you fellows happen to know of a new man coming in or make a change yourself, drop me a line. It is news to the balance of the bunch, and makes the write-up look better.

It is now Bro. Walters at Macon, Miss. He is in a good place to do some good missionary work lining up the balance of the bunch.

Boys, get busy and let's line up the nons. We have the very best Order there is. Let's all get together and push and give Bro. H. C. Gilmer, local chairman, R. M. Holmes and W. A. Peterson, assistants, all the assistance possible and while so doing don't forget your self-appointed scribe each month.

South of Meridian —

F. C. Casebeere was checked in as agent Hiwannee, Miss., December 10th.

Bro. A. H. Hinson, of Oak Grove, was off a few days, relieved by W. P. Gilmer and Bro. B. Haight, third Vinegarbend, by C. E. Brown.

Bro. C. C. Harris, of Enterprise, has moved into the new depot there.

Every brother ought to have his card by the first, as our secretary and treasurer sent out notices on the 15th of December.

Bro. H. C. Gilmer took in Mobile the 15th, relieved by W. P. Gilmer, who also relieved Stanley Wilson, agent Buckatunna, Miss., while off hunting. W. W. Wilkins, Cert. 247.

IN MEMORIAM.

Whereas, On the 19th day of December, 1913, while out bird hunting with his brother, our esteemed Bro. C. J. King was shot and instantly killed by his brother's gun accidently; and,

Whereas, Our hearts go out in love and fraternal sympathy to the grief-stricken loved ones in this their dark hour; be it

Resolved, That in the loss of Bro. King the Order of Railroad Telegraphers have lost a loyal and true member, the family a devoted, kind and true father and husband, and the country a loyal and upright citizen; be it further

Resolved, That to his sorrowing loved ones we tender our heartfelt sympathy and join in prayer to the heavenly Father in this their dark hour; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this division, a copy sent to The Railroad Telegrapher for publication, and a copy sent to the bereaved family.

IN MEMORIAM.

Whereas, It has pleased our heavenly Father to call to her reward the beloved mother of our esteemed Bro. B. D. Burke; and,

Whereas, In full realization of his great loss we sorely lack fitting words to express our consolation, but direct him to the ever-ready Comforter; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the members of Div. 94, Order of Railroad Telegraphers, extend to Bro. Burke our heartfelt sympathy in this his sad bereavement; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this division, a copy sent to The Railroad Telegrapher for publication, and a copy forwarded to the sorrowing brother.

C. E. Hendley, J. M. Elliott, R. M. Holmes, Committee.

Cobalt, Ont., Div. No. 99.

Temiskaming & Northern Ontario Ry. —

Brothers, Christmas has come and gone, with its messages of good cheer, love and friendship. Funny, ain't it, how we periodically or annually take a notion to try and be friendly with each other, and usually, too, in such an apparently silly way. The giving of a present, of say $1.00 or less, is supposed to be a token of-your everlasting esteem, and more than all it is usually a present to some one who can very well return a like value. Now why not look around for some one who is up against it and look after Christmas is gone (because at Christmas most folks have enough). After the Christmas spirit has gone try and keep the Christian spirit and help the man who is down. Through the year is the time; there are lots of merry Christmas greetings to spare at Christmas, but afterward, what? Usually every man for himself.

Well, so much for that. What about the next year's dues? Now is the time to think of that. Keep up your end and keep Div. 99 well to the front.

We are all glad to hear the grand work is coming to its own. Stick to it, boys.

CERT. 63.

Boston & Maine R. R., C. & P. (So.) Div.—

There seems to be some misunderstanding as to who are the assistant chairmen on this division. For the benefit of all concerned it should be understood that Bros. H. I. Woodward and J. H. Richards are the assistant chairmen.

M. J. Swan,
Local Chairman.

We have quite a few promises from the nons to begin the new year right and get an up-to-date card. Some of them are very anxious to find out what is going on and take an active interest in everything except to lay aside a little of that raise the O. R. T. gave them and get an up to date.

We are glad to note that through the efforts of the committee positions are being bulletined and filled much more promptly than they have been in the past.

Mr. Patterson bid in third at Brattleboro.

Mr. Wells, Dale Junction, bid in clerk and operator at Holyoke and still he don't know his own mind. What next? Bernardston third?

Clerk and operator at Ashuelot recently bulletined on account of Bro. Cyr going in spare list.

We hope none of our brothers holding regular positions will stay in spare list long enough to lose them. There had to be a limit made regarding this, or some of the nons would have owned all the jobs on the division.

Bro. Foley bid in Bernardston agency, thus abolishing the ham factory.

Bro. Woodward bid in Dummerston agency. We are glad to see him get it, as he has been a good, hard-working member, and we hope he will still use his efforts among the agents.

Deerfield Junction closed December 15th, and trains are operated over the East Deerfield branch by signals in charge of switchman at East Deerfield Yard.

Bro. W. H. Moody, South Deerfield, has gone to the N. Y., N. H. & H.

Bro. Beauleieu is on a six months' leave.

A new coal pocket is being put in at Springfield and No. Walpole Yard.

Brothers, pay up your dues just as soon as possible and be protected for the new year, and get after the non next station to you.

If all the brothers on the line would help like Bros. Swan and Richards we would have a fine write-up each month. All try just once and if you can, keep it up.

Grand Trunk Ry.

A bumper house greeted Bros. L. M. Eddy, general chairman, and D. L. Shaw, grand secretary and treasurer, upon the occasion of the O. R. T. rally held in the Y. M. C. A. assembly rooms at Stratford the evening of December 19th. Third Vice-President Bro. D. Campbell who was scheduled to address the meeting was unable to be present, which caused some disappointment to the boys, many of them having come long distances to attend.

Bro. Shaw as chairman opened the meeting with a short address. He appointed Bro. J. D. Craig, of Stratford, as secretary pro tem, and then introduced Bro. L. M. Eddy, of Marcellus, Mich.

Bro. Eddy explained fully the recent negotiations with the Grand Trunk for better pay and better working conditions, showing what the committee has been up against during the past year. He went over the rules of the new schedule clause by clause, explaining where improvements have been made. The eleven-hour day and two weeks' vacation appealed strongly to the boys.

At the close of Bro. Eddy's address an informal discussion took place among the members as to the ways and means of keeping up the interest in the Order among the boys along the line. Finally it was moved by Bro. H. P. Ward, of West Toronto, and seconded by Bro. G. S. Cline, of Thedford, that regular monthly meetings be held in Stratford commencing January, 1914. Carried unanimously. Also moved by Bro. Ward, seconded by Bro. Cline, that Bros. W. Middleton, of Breslau, and J. D. Craig, of Stratford, be appointed a committee of two to look after the renting of hall, etc., in connection with these meetings. It was also decided to hold meetings on the third Friday of each month. Moved by Bro. G. E. McTaggart, of Blyth, seconded by Bro. Case, of Hensall, that the meeting be adjourned until the third Friday in January. Carried.

As these meetings will be conducted in accordance with the ritual the members are hereby advised to familiarize themselves therewith in the meantime.

The following members were present: D. L. Shaw, London; L. M. Eddy, Marcellus, Mich.; Anguish, Atwood; G. S. Cline, Thedford; F. McCardie, Camlachie; Cusack, Blackwell; A. Weinert and W. Cober, New Hamburg; H. C. Elder, J. D. Hodgins and R. Sparling, Goderich; Angell, Elora; J. G. Heyd, Owen Sound; J. Downs, St. Mary's Junction; Routley, Clinton; C. E. Fleming, Ferguson, Ranney, Goldstone; Connel, Pinkerton; D. E. Jackson, Rockwood; W. Craig, Malton; S. E. Smith, Brussels; W. J. Masters, Bluevale; L. E. Dotzenroth, Alma; H. J. Dotzenroth, Waterloo; Fone was out of commission for twelve hours recently, during which time we used key again.

Our new schedule is completed and the ten-hour day is now a reality, making 730 less hours of labor a year, with two weeks' vacation and Sunday overtime. This makes us 73 days less a year to work, or if worked we get paid almost double. Don't forget to take a meal hour at midnight when you get it and clear out for exercise. We don't have to scrub stations any more, and it is a pleasure to work here now and feel that there's more coming to the company when we get more what we are worth, but we are not up quite to standard yet, so keep moving.

Toronto men want the Ontario O. R. T. Club of Port Hope, moved there. They waited for a club to be started, then want it in their vicinity. Plenty room for more clubs, boys. Ours goes to Belleville, first if it moves at all. This is for the entire Order, C. P. R.-C. N. R. and G. R., and especially for relaxation of the boys on the Sixth and Seventh Districts.

The December 20th meeting at Port Hope was a howling success from every standpoint. All the night men from Trenton to Port Union, inclusive, except one were present; also two day men and one extra. The boys expected a dispatcher to attend, as the chief had an invitation, but he failed to put in an appearance. The meeting was for the good of the service, and passes were extremely hard to get.

It was called to order at 10 a. m. by Bro. Snyder, assistant local chairman. Minutes of previous meeting read and approved; schedule discussed and all reported satisfied with the efforts of our committee. Next meeting January 20th.

No card, no favors.

One old non, who once held a card, says he started in on the Grand Trunk, but apparently he's not very much interested in his start or he would use the extra increase he received and buy another card. You fellows mostly know where he is, and act accordingly.

A Kicker, Cert. 1801.

Fifteenth District—

Bro. J. E. Horning, North Parkdale Jct., days, has lined up again.

Bro. Bill Rollings has returned from his honey-moon trip. Bro. Bob Knox, who relieved him at Weston, is now relieving Bro. W. A. Brent at Brampton nights, on vacation.

A certain agent on this district is wondering why the O. R. T. did not get him more than $5.00 raise. The rest of the boys know why. Certain other agents who got a substantial raise and were promoted to city agencies will shortly realize that they are no better than the dispatchers and other agents who are up-to-date members of the O. R. T. and that the company has no more respect for them than for us, if as much.

Bro. Wagner, who holds an up-to-date card in Grand Division since 1892, is relieving Harry Holmes at Acton West, who took some kind of a stroke and was ordered by the doctor tp take several weeks' rest.
Bro. R. W. Loftus, relief agent, relieved Bro. Bill Middleton while he was distributing the increases.

Glad to see Bro. W. Waugh, at Baden, land a $10.00 raise. He says the Sunday overtime alone is worth the price of the dues.

Bro. Bill Cober deserves his $13.00 raise. He has straightened up the accounts at New Hamburg agency to the satisfaction of all concerned since he went there as agent.

The telegraph staff at Stratford has been reduced and Bro. Bobbie Hyde is relieving Bro. Chase Leavitt, holidaying in St. Catharines.

Bro. Bill Rife, of St. Pauls, is holidaying in Detroit, relieved by Bro. T. G. Connell, and he at Pinkerton by Mr. Blythe, of Hepworth.

Bro. Jim Egan, the genial agent at St. Marys, will be a valuable acquisition to our monthly meetings.

Bro. W. J. Dore has lined up, making the west end solid.

Bro. Archie McKay, relieving agents all summer, is back at Parkhill days, vice Bro. Duffus, to Forest, his home town nights.

Bro. Cusack, at Blackwell, was raised from operator to agent by new schedule and given a $10.00 raise on January 1st.

Bro. W. Craig, agent Malton, attended the "pearl wedding" for his parents in Ailsa Craig on December 12th, relieved by Bro. Bobbie Hyde.

The new $40,000 depot at Stratford was formally opened on December 17th. A special train bearing officials from every department of the G. T. R. was run from Montreal to Stratford, and was the first train to stop at the new station. Upon its arrival the G. T. R. band from Stratford shops, the finest organization of its kind in the city, struck up "O Canada," after which the officials were met by the Mayor and City Council and Stratford Board of Trade and conveyed in automobiles to the city hall, where a magnificent banquet was tendered them, showing that the Stratford people appreciate what the G. T. R. has done for their city. The old station was torn down December 22d.

Bro. Neil Zinger, dispatcher C. P. R. at Regina, is visiting at Guelph and other points. Neil worked in "OD" before going West and it seems like old times to see him again.

London Division, Seventeenth District

Wish all the brothers a happy New Year. Most of us will have reason to be happy with that new schedule helping us to stand the "increased cost of living."

Would be very glad if some brother east of Hamilton would furnish us with a little of the doings down on that end each month by the 15th at the latest. Forward your items to Bro. Malcolm at Woodstock and he will turn them over to me.

Our first meeting held at London on December 3d was not very well attended, but hope for better things in the future. Bro. Eddy went into the workings of the new schedule, which you should now have a copy of. We also had some interesting addresses by several of the local members.

Bro. McAllister and Gilpin are now at Sarnia tunnel regular.

Bro. Burke has been appointed agent at Ingersoll, relieved there days by Bro. Davidson, of the C. N. R., with Mr. McLeod, a new man, on nights.

Bro. Campbell has been appointed agent at Hickson, relieved by Bro. Mowat at Paris Jct. days. Bro. Atkinson, "Z" nights, is doing the night stunt, and Bro. Swales is at "DS" nights.

Bro. Meredith, Harrsburg nights, on two weeks' vacation, was relieved by L. Kinder, from the Hamilton Division.

It is now Bro. McDonald at Copetown nights, and Mr. Vrooman, the agent, and Mr. Hodgins, agent "GN," promise to be with us first of the new year, also Mr. Barnes, Jct. Cut.

Relief dispatchers are Bros. Goodwin and Vail.

Chief Dispatcher Dunn, at Brantford, has resigned, succeeded by A. F. Sharpe, night chief at London, and he by W. M. Doherty.

A. H. King, for a number of years agent at Ingersoll, is now agent for the C. N. R. at Ottawa.

Cert. 1458.
The Railroad Telegrapher.

Twenty-second, Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Districts—

Bro. Dopfer, Shallow Lake, is on vacation, relieved by Mr. Dolphin.

Bro. Donald McBride, agent Hepworth, and Bro. C. L. King, of Kincardine, are among our latest Converts.

P. Quigley, of Wiarton, will be with us next month, which will clear up the last of the nons between Stratford and Wiarton, also Mr. Sutton, agent Holstein, which will clean up the Durham line: thanks to Bro. Towner.

Bro. G. Reid, of Tavistock, is now agent at Chesley, vice Bro. J. Rose, deceased.

Mr. Goodier, at Southampton, who got a $10 raise, the only non on the Southampton branch, will soon be on pension.

Jim Murray, of Ethel, who got a $20 raise on January 1st, has been unfortunate lately, having lost his youngest child. The boys extend their sympathy. When Jim lines up the Kincardine branch will be solid.

Bro. G. McCallum, of Galt, who got a $5.00 raise sent in at once for a card, although near pension age. His two operators, W. Weir and J. H. Bone, also participated in the increase and will soon join.

Bro. E. A. Pattison, of Brucefield, a non-telegraph station, received a $25 increase and immediately got a card, making the Twenty-fourth District solid.

Bro. McTaggart, local chairman, of Blyth, only has about eight nons left out of a total of eighty-two positions, and nearly all of these will be in by the end of January.

Twenty-first District—

C. W. Stebb, agent Pt. Dover, who got a $7.50 raise, promises for January, also D. Groat, Norwich Jct., which will make the Pt. Dover line solid.

Bro. R. J. Campbell, Paris Jct. days, is the new agent at Hickson, vice Bro. A. Clarke, transferred to Dublin agency.

Twentieth District—

Mr. Skelton, agent Onondaga, has reconsidered his resignation.

Mr. Ollenhittle, Caledonia nights, resigned, succeeded by Bro. Stone, a brother of Dispatcher Stone at Brantford.

Bro. W. Salkeld, agent Caledonia, and Bro. J. Robertson, days, are two of our latest converts.

Mr. Thompson, agent Canfield, has retired on pension, relieved by W. G. McCulla pending bulletin, and he by Bro. Holly, of Brantford freight office.

Bro. M. J. Byrne, agent Bright, and Bro. H. C. Elder, cashier Goderich freight office, have lined up again, and Mr. Loth, Tavistock Jct. days, who has been appointed agent, will line up in January.

Merriton dispatching office is solid. Bro. G. A. Brawley being the latest addition.

Bridgebury dispatching office is also solid, Bro. P. Ryan being the last to get in line. Bro. Ed. Weston, of "NA" Montreal, is another new member.

Grand Trunk Western Ry.—

We are now working under our new schedule, and should all endeavor to show our appreciation of it by being on the job, and also to be alive to the interest of our Order and not lose sight of a non. We all appreciate the way the boys are asking for application blanks. They have all to gain and nothing to lose.

The old depot at Imlay City, Mich., has been overhauled, and the boys now have a much better and larger office to work in.

We will soon be holding meetings regularly again at the main points along the line. All should attend and talk matters over and get a better understanding with each other. General Chairman Eddy has promised to be with us at as many meetings as possible.

Phones are being installed at the interlocking towers, whether telegraph offices or not, so that the men will know where the trains are, but will not be used by them for reporting trains.

Electric lights being put in at all available stations will make it a great deal better for the men at these points.

We are glad to note the interest the dispatchers are taking in the Order, and most of those who have not yet come in have promised to do so.

Bro. A. J. Spiess, agent Bad Axe, Mich., advises us of the opening of the D. & H. branch on November 29th, doing a good business with a nice new depot and a fine engine house and yards. The P. O. & N. trains now run through from Pontiac to Bad Axe with stub trains to Caseville. Bro. Spiess was relieved as agent at Cass City by Bro. Wager, former agent at Clifford. H. Livingston, the telegrapher at his station, will soon be with us. Bro. J. D. Hoffmaster, from Cass City, is now agent at Clifford.

It is now Bros. F. C. Lee, Schoolcraft; E. F. Cody, Battle Creek, and E. Coswell, Pigeon, Mich.

Bro. H. S. Harmon, agent Emmett, recently spent two days in Port Huron with Bro. O. M. Hilderbride, agent at Goodells.

Bro. Card, of Valparaiso, has the promise of seven new members on the west end, which leaves very few there without a card.

The meeting at South Bend, December 29th, was pretty well attended.

Bro. James Dewar is back on first Capac again. He was quarantined at his home some time on account of diptheria. The depot there was set on fire recently owing to the explosion of a lamp, putting the wires and phones out of commission for several hours.
Bro. Shea, first Inlay City, was off a few days recently, relieved by Mr. Swihart, who will soon be with us.

We hope that each member and also the nons will contribute their first month's increase in pay to the Order, and each member also pay his dues promptly, so as to put our division in a good financial standing.

All vacancies will now bebulletined by a "23" message over the wire. Any who do not receive it should notify the local chairman, so the boys will get this benefit that rightfully belongs to them.

Send in all the news you can, boys, so we can have a good write-up each month. "Stub."

Prairie Division, Districts One, Two and Three—

The Melfiave meeting on December 1st was called to order at 8 p. m., Bro. Harrop in the chair. Other brothers present were Thresher, McDonald and Armstrong, of Melfiave; Seshaye, Fenwood and Canton, of Birmingham; and Brewer, Atwater and Swar, of Lazare. The small turnout was owing to the grain rush and so many trains moving that operators and agents could not be spared.

Bro. Harrop's idea that we have a ball and supper was heartily endorsed by all present, and on motion of Bro. McDonald, seconded by Bro. Thresher, the following committee on arrangements was appointed: M. D. Thompson, chairman; J. W. Armstrong, P. G. Williams, J. S. McDonald, W. Thresher, E. W. Rattigan, R. Evans and P. M. Eplett.

The committee is to set the date, about January 23, 1914, and make all arrangements. Number of tickets not to exceed 150; admission, $2.00.

Night operator at Uno discharged for missing train order. Watch your orders, boys, and keep things moving straight during the rush. The dispatchers are very busy and we must help them all we can.

New night man at Lazare.

Mr. Henery got his blanks and will soon be Bro. His wife is some operator, too; he is lucky.

We are all glad to see Bro. and Mrs. Phillips back to Goodee again. He was operated on in Winnipeg successfully for appendicitis.

Bro. Nupert and wife are very comfortably settled at Uno.

Wish some of the boys on the west and east end would send me some items before the 20th of the month, so I can get them in before the 28th.

Wabash R. R.

Since our committee has had a conference with Mr. Miller, who couldn't, under financial conditions of the Wabash, grant us an increase, but has secured for us a meeting with the receivers as soon after Christmas as consistent, it behooves us to work together and show a solid front when we resume postponed negotiations.

Pay your dues up promptly at the 1st of 1914, and make good our slogan for 1914, "Wabash solid O. R. T."

You gain nothing by dropping your card over some imaginary grievance. Some are inclined to do this, if we are not successful at times. If we do not give our committee support, what can we expect? So pay your dues up-to-date; go about it in the right way and we will accomplish more than if we were divided.

There is a certain brother who is teaching a student without permission from our president or of the superintendent. If this practice is not discontinued or adjusted with the above named officials, charges will be preferred against him, as outlined in our constitution and by-laws.

As seniority lists have been mailed to all stations, will correct same to January 1st as soon as possible to do so. Look for notice in next issue of The Telegrapher.

Try to line-up all the nons around you, and see that they get an up-to-date card and help support the committee in its efforts to better their conditions as well as our own. Enforce the motto: "No card, no favors," and remember the slogan for 1914, "Wabash, Banner Route, Solid O. R. T."

R. D. Hamer, Peru Jct., went to No. 93's wreck at Woodburn, making $3 for the call. He was relieved, while on leave of absence, by H. Brooks, from Grabill.

H. O. Eviston relieved King on first "GS" tower one day.

F. O. Cole relieved C. H. Terry agent Blakesley, while he was in the superintendent's office at Peru, on statistics.

J. H. Dow resigned and went to Grand Rapids, Mich., relieved temporarily at C. & O. Jct. by R. H. James later relieved by Roy Randles, from State Line, when he relieved J. S. Rizar at West Peru, while on committee work in St. Louis, later relieving E. N. Drake, third Tilton. J. R. Miller, a new man, relieved James at West Peru, by taking second there; L. R. Cochran going back on third.

K. H. Herrold resigned and went to the P. M. at Grand Rapids, Mich.

L. T. Agnew relieved H. O. Eviston, at West Unity, who went on the extra list.

P. B. Lighty, on leave of absence in California returned and resumed second at Danville, reported that he had a fine trip. Operator White left second Danville and took ticket agency at LaFayette permanent; regular agent going to Chicago in general passenger agent's office.

The C. & E. I. have granted their men a 5 per cent increase, and they are in the hands of a receiver, so there is no reason why we shouldn't do as well or better, if we will keep up-to-date and get in the nons.

I wish to thank the boys who sent me notes for this issue, and wish you would come again, and help me to keep the news circulating. Address me at Danville, Station "C."

R. H. James, Div. Cor., Cert. 2457 at "Q."

Decatur Division—

Working on a railroad one meets a great number of "hobos." They are among all classes of people. Every hobo has an excuse for being a hobo, and every non will give you an excuse for being a non. Evidently neither of them are proud of being a hobo or a non, as it is not right for them to be in either of those classes. There is something wrong about a thing you are not proud of, and you don't have to make an excuse for being or doing right. I have been a union man all my life, have watched unionism for the last twenty years, and I am proud to say that I still believe in unionism. A great many do not understand that unionism means brotherly love; and the man or woman who holds an up-to-date card and ridicules a brother for his nationality or religion is not imbued with the proper union principles. This great American country would never have been free, had men refused to stand shoulder to shoulder, because one was a Catholic, another a Baptist, etc. We must forget our little personal differences, and show the nons by our actions towards each other that we are really brothers and sisters, and show by our loyalty to our employers what unionism really is, and they will soon learn they can not afford to be on the outside. They need education as badly as the man who goes to church without an honest purpose in his heart to do right. If a man goes to church with the same kind of a heart that some men go into the union with, the church won't reap any benefit from him, nor will he from the church, because his heart is wrong.

Let us have some meetings, and every brother get a non to attend just one of those meetings, their employers won't think any less of them for being union men, and the brothers will think more of them. I know several nons personally who tell me they have wives and mothers to support, and can not afford to join, but every time I see them they have a large cigar in their face. Now a union card means just one less cigar a day. Unionism means some sacrifice, brotherly love and loyalty, not strikes and disorder.

Don't be like the Irishman who as soon as he joined the union wanted to have a strike, and when the president told him they were not going to have a strike at all, wanted to know what was the union good for, if they couldn't have a strike.

Unionism means better conditions and more wages, but don't blame our committeemen if they don't get these things for us, when so many will remain on the outside and do nothing morally or financially to help secure these concessions. Brothers, thorough organization is what we need, so give the nons no rest until they come over on our side of the fence. If they don't do this, and are forgotten in the next schedule, they will have no one to blame but themselves, and all their kicking will amount to nothing.

Bro. C. E. Hulse, third Osman, on vacation, was relieved by Mr. Settles, a new man.

No. 11 lost her bell, December 11th, about a mile north of Osman. Lucky it dropped off between stations.

The preachers say a 'back slider' is worse than a man who has never been converted. Just the same in the O. R. T.

Brothers, if you did not read "Carrying the Mail," page 1879, November TELEGRAPHER, do so, and then write your protest to President Perham.

Let us all do our part to get this job off our shoulders, it certainly don't belong there.

Mr. Holmes, from Cornell, who visited his parents at Spencer, Sunday, December 14th, will soon get in line now.

C. L. Gamoll, from Chicago Ridge tower, is now agent at Steele and New Lenox, relieving Ex-Bro. Watrous, who has gone to the Michigan Central. Gamoll has no use for labor organizations; previous to securing the last schedule, his position paid $45 and now pays $65.

Brisbane is now solid.

Bro. Lynk, recently from the I. C. at Freeport, was relieved recently by Extra Hess, on third at Manhattan, pending bulletin.

Bro. Nichols relieved Mr. Nelson at Gibson City, who relieved Agent Walker at Forrest.

A change was made in Streator agency nearly two years ago, but no bulletin as provided in schedule. Why?

Bro. Steinheimer spent Thanksgiving day out in the country near Boody. R. Heerdt, agent Boody, while visiting friends in Kansas City recently, was relieved by Bro. Steinheimer, and he by Bro. Tryon, who later went to Staunton third. Bro. Skelson and Sister O'Neill have now resumed on second and third Staunton.

Assistant Superintendent Ocheltree has moved from Decatur to Forrest.

Bro. Wolf, agent Melmine, recently spent Sunday with his parents in Chicago.

Bro. Nash made a trip over the Ninth District recently and secured several applications.

Mr. Case, third Litchfield, bid in first Staunton, and Bro. Newlin bid in Stewardson agency.

Many thanks to those who assisted in this, and hope you will all be back next month.

R. VRECH, Cerro Gordo, Ill., Cert. 1613.

Springfield Division—

Your general committee desires the earnest support of every member, in order to obtain an increase for the Wabash telegraphers.

Items are very scarce this month, as I have not been at home to keep in touch with the different moves.

Bro. Abbott, agent Dawson, local chairman, was relieved by Extra Constant, while on general committee work.

Agent Pence, Hersman, off visiting, was relieved by Mr. Peacock, a new man.

Bro. Zimmerman, agent Mayville, off a few days recently, was relieved by Extra Bass, who also relieved Bro. Stead, third Griggsville, who relieved Bro. Driscoll, the agent there, while on a hunting trip.

Bro. Klinefelter, agent Alexander, on vacation, was relieved by Extra Fairnry, a new man.

The man who has been at Mt. Sterling agency has been relieved by former Bro. J. E. Conrey, ticket agent for the Illinois Traction System. We hope he will soon be with us again.

Bro. M. B. Stead has returned from his ten days' honeymoon trip to Kansas City and Oklahoma points.

Bro. Guinan, second Kinderhook, visited friends at Mt. Sterling recently.
Moberly Division—

Bro. Berthold, third Luther, was stricken sick while on duty, caused by eating sardines. After a trip to St. Mary’s Hospital, he is all right again.

Bittiker, third Brunswick, relieved Mr. Messick, while he relieved Night Chief Kelly at “GO” recently. Bro. Begole was also at “GO” a few days, while Mr. Kelly attended a Thanksgiving wedding. Later Bittiker returned to “NA,” relieving Mr. Pike, who returned to “NE.” Bro. Knappenberger bid in second Brunswick; Mr. Hofman is on third there.

Bro. R. Endicott, agent Dalton, was off a few days, relieved by Bro. Broadhurst, who relieved Bro. E. P. Marion, on second there, when he went to St. Peters agency. Bro. W. P. Marion relieved Bro. Broadhurst, on Dalton third while Broadhurst was doing relief agent’s work.

J. J. Clard bid in Silver City agency, putting first Stanberry on bulletin.

Mr. Bershaw, first Carrollton, got Benton City agency.

Bro. Egbert Thompson, off a few days, was relieved by Mr. Derby, from Silver City, a beginner.

Bro. Trimble, agent Cordovia, has returned to Page Ave.

Thanks to Bro. Davis for the write-up last month. Brothers on the High Line, please send Bro. Davis, at “BO,” all the news you can, and let’s have a good write-up.

E. P. M.

St. Louis Division—

Bro. Egbert, Thompson, is on thirty days’ vacation, with his family, up in the Dakotas.

Bro. Edgar Powell, Centralia, was off a few days, taking in St. Louis.

I wish to correct my mistake in adding two of our old and reliable sisters as the Misses Sadler.

Bro. Logan, agent Macon, has resigned, relieved by Bro. Pike. Sorry to lose Bro. Logan, and all wish him well.

Bro. Bittiker, second Luther, on vacation, visiting relatives in Brunswick, was relieved by Bro. Carter, from Huntsville.

R. G. Brotheren, agent Miami, is confined to his bed, relieved by M. J. Sears.

L. E. Wilkinson, of Shenandoah, spent a few days in Moberly recently, on company business.

V. R. Woods, first Carrollton, pending bulletin, relieved on second by Wm. McClanahan, a new man, formerly baggage master at Norborne.

H. R. Carter, second High Hill, while on the sick list was relieved by Bro. Williamson.

Mr. Woods, agent DeWitt, on vacation, visiting relatives in Orrick, was relieved by Bro. Knappenberger.

Our slogan, “Be an Active Member,” is not alone urged upon those who attend meetings, but upon every one to promote and retain a solid membership on each of the various divisions. We need but a few more new names, in addition to lining-up the few delinquents, to make us solid. If you are willing to help, then get busy at once. We have for a long time been talking about the “Banner Route,” and must make good now. Each one performs his part in his immediate vicinity and guide all nons and delinquents into the right path. Your influence and a personal interview may have even a greater effect than that of the local chairmen, who have interested themselves in each case, but are handicapped by reason of your silence and indigence, construed by the nons to mean that you are satisfied and willing to pay the freight.

Let us secure all the new members we possibly can, our reward will be greater if every member will help get in the nons, and render the company the best of service, and when it is time for the revising of the schedule, as well as that much needed raise in salaries, we can point out to our officials the good derived by their recognition of our membership.

Glad to see Bro. F. M. David, of “BO,” taking the interest he is by going over the line at his own expense, endeavoring to line-up the boys on the High Line. “Go as far as you like,” we are with you.

C. W. Layton, D. C.

Relay Division—

Bro. Ryan, from “JO,” Decatur, relieved Mr. Singleton, “XD,” Decatur, when he went to Forrest as car distributor.

Temporary Chief Dispatcher Slats, Forrest, has returned to Decatur to assume his former duties as car distributor, relieved at Forrest by Dispatcher E. L. Datsen, from Decatur.

Oscar Sindberg, working as extra dispatcher at Forrest, relieved at “JS,” Chicago, by Brennan, who later returned to look after his fruit farm in Michigan, relieved by J. C. Johnson, from Western Union, Chicago.

Mr. Hicklin is now chief clerk to Superintendent Milton, Kansas City, relieved as manager at “KN,” Kansas City, by Mr. Allen, and he on second “KN” by Bro. Jacobson, from Montgomery.

Bro. Nixon and Collins, “GM,” recently made a trip to Decatur. We will soon have the relay offices solid if this keeps up.

Car Distributor Eidson, Moberly, resumed work after a ten days’ vacation with his parents at Sturgeon.

Layton, Cert. 2147.

Western Division—

Our Western Division bunch are good stickers, but very slow coming up with items. Boys, if you want a good write-up in the journal, send items to your local chairman about the 20th, so the correspondent can get them in before the 28th.

Bro. V. M. Craig has returned from the N. P. to the “Only Way,” and been assigned to the new third trick at Pearl.

Bro. A. W. Pearson bid in third at Nebo, vice Read to third Pleasant Hill temporarily.

Strait third abolished, Bro. Burr going on extra.

Mr. Corbett issues bulletins on time, and his assignments have all been satisfactory.
I am indebted to Bro. Maupin for most of these items, some one else send some in also.

Did it ever occur to you, brothers, that the railroad officials had decided to put in phones, replacing the telegraph, perhaps for one reason that it is easier to awaken a man “in the bay” by “ringing a bell,” than for the dispatcher to call till his arm is tired on the former? You might think this over, and then decide that it would be well to answer your calls promptly. If you do not like the phone, then it seems you should try and give the very best service possible on the “old Morse.” This will at least make it easier for the dispatcher and may help to keep the old favorite in use; also see that you never violate General Rule “G.” Support your committee by getting after the nons who are wondering “why they don’t do something toward getting more money,” and show them that “they” are the only obstacle in the way of our doing so, and that we can secure all that “they” and we desire by coming into the Order at once. A committee is only a representative, and its success in conferring with the management depends wholly upon the backing the men on a road give it.

Bro. J. E. Sieger has returned to Armstrong from his vacation, relieved by Sister Hughes, of Corder, now at Odessa nights.

Mr. Preston, of LaFonda, bid in Yates, He should now show his appreciation of the O. R. T. making bidding on positions possible, by taking out a card at once.

It is now time to pay our M. B. D. assessments to Bro. Quick, and Order dues to Bro. McElhinney. Remit at once, boys. We have only had a committee up twice, and our schedule speaks for itself. With a solid membership we can get other concessions and lots better working conditions. We might have the committee ask for annual passes next time it goes up, for every agent and operator who has been in the service five years.

The article entitled “Carrying the Mail,” beginning on page 1879 of the November journal, signed “Parcel Post Packer,” is true to nature, and I hope every brother and sister does as he suggests and starts the ball rolling.

Bro. Ehrman, cashier of Marshall, has joined the “benefits.” Congratulations.

Mr. Griffith, relief agent, who bid in Fulton, should remember that it was the O. R. T. that made it possible for him to get this position, and come in and help us to get other good things in store for us, when we are thoroughly organized.

South End—

The regular quarterly meeting at Bloomington, December 20th, one of the most interesting we have ever held, was called to order at 8:30 p. m., with the following brothers present: E. E. Gantz, chairman; H. L. Major, secretary; Thos. Riley, doorkeeper; C. O. Larkin, W. E. Cook, G. C. Connel, R. W. Parent, J. L. DeVault, J. O. Robb, J. E. Winkler, H. J. Naham, A. V. Manskey, C. W. Wright, E. L. Deveson, J. F. Magee, W. B. Smith, E. R. LaSalle, E. E. Pfeifer, E. E. Edgar and F. Burkard.

Very interesting addresses were made by a number of the boys, several letters from brothers on the line that were unable to attend were read and various subjects of interest to the craft were discussed. It was expected that Bro. Newman would be with us, but being tied up in Cleveland with the Nickel Plate he was unable to attend.

Bro. Swanson is back on third at Joliet.

South End Notes—

Bro. Mooney bid in Wann third; Mr. Quimby, Wann second, vice Bro. Swanson, transferred, and Mr. Shamberg bid in Ashland third.

It is hoped that all will indorse the increase from $4 to $5 semi-annual dues, which goes into effect the first of the year, and pay up promptly. It takes money to keep a committee up and carry on its work.

With best wishes of the season to all, and hopes for even a more successful year in 1914.

E. E. Edgar, Div. Cor.

Minneapolis and Iowa Division—

Nearly the first of 1914 and no snow yet; beautiful California weather, mercury 10 above.

We extend our sympathy to Bro. J. N. Alvod and wife, owing to the death of Mrs. Alvod's mother at Minneapolis. Bro. Alvod was relieved at Mountain Lake, to attend the funeral, by C. D. Brooks, who later went to St. James side wire, relieved by I. J. Johnson, and he at Stone by J. L. Kelly.

Bro. A. F. Riedmiller had a little experience at Ottawa, and he is now taking a vacation at home in Hospers. Bro. Kleeman is at Ottawa nights, pending bulletin.

Bro. Wm. Richmond, of Lake Crystal, on vacation, was relieved by Bro. Peterson, relieved by Bro. O. S. Brown, from the Wisconsin Division. Bro. E. T. Brady is at St. City shops temporarily, vice J. L. Farmer.

Bro. O. A. Iverson, relieving Bro. Dewar at Wilder, is all swelled up over the new depot they recently moved into there.

Bro. and Mrs. Tornell have returned from their extended wedding trip to his new position at Hadley.

Bro. B. J. Funk, of Mankato, is again baching, while his wife is visiting relatives in the Twin Cities.

Bro. W. J. A. Maxfield, Colfax, Washington, sends his regards to the Omaha boys. Included a money order for an up-to-date. He writes that the W. O. R. N. boys are trying to secure a new schedule, and the company has offered them a blanket increase of $2.50 per job. If they are wise they will stand by their committee, as these voluntary increases generally cover a strong purpose.

Bro. Shonka bid in Minnesota agency, and Bro. Williams has bid on the night job there.

Bro. Frank Morris, of Westbrook, has resigned.

Bro. and Mrs. Shier, of Garden City, spent a few hours in Mankato, between trains, a few days ago, looking for "Santa." Bro. C. W. West, of Vernon Center, transacted business at Mankato, December 20th.

Bro. L. L. Frisby, of Luverne, telegraphers' committeeman, while attending the Safety First meeting at St. James, was relieved by I. J. Johnson.

General Secretary and Treasurer Tenney transacted business with Local Chairman James Mathews between trains at Worthington, Tuesday, midnight, December 16th, leaving on No. 1 and returning on No. 2.

Bro. O. L. Riedel, of Kasota, had the misfortune to slip while skating and sprained his arm. Bro. Frantz, who relieved him one night, went to Blue Earth third.

Bro. C. M. Butts has returned to Mitchell, after a few days' vacation.

I have appointed Bro. G. V. Cook, of Avoca, and Bro. L. L. Frisby, of Luverne, assistant local chairmen. They are well known to the boys on the M. & I. Division, and their past will be a far better introduction than anything I might say. They will help to keep the boys enthused, secure new members and assist in keeping up the organization. Any thing you may do to help these brothers with their new duties and cheer them on in their work, will be most thankfully received. They have been clothed with an organizer's power to solicit dues or applications, for which they will issue receipts.

D. O. Tenney, Local Chairman.

To many the following will come as a surprise, and also as a regret, as their acquaintance with the author of the letter has been very agreeable and pleasant.

TEKAMAH, NEB., December 16, 1913.

To the Officers of Division No. Four:

In view of the fact that my railroad duties continue to grow heavier, I feel that I can not give to them, and the work of local chairman, what they are entitled to without one being one or the other. As the former means my bread and butter and should therefore have my first consideration, I have concluded to resign as local chairman. If my work as local chairman has been of value to Division No. 4, I feel that I have been amply paid for my exertions. I will continue to keep up my membership in the Order and stand ready to do all I can to assist my successor in every way possible. Nothing but the best of feeling towards my associates and other officers of Division No. 4 exists. But I feel that it is hardly fair for one man to perform all this work on a particular division, when the others are equal beneficiaries in the results, therefore I am taking this step to allow some one else a chance as local chairman.

Yours fraternally,

JAMES MATHEWS, Local Chairman.

It is indeed gratifying to see the dues rolling in at such a rapid rate and strongly arguments the position that the officers of Division No. 4 have always taken, viz.: making the business of Division No. 4 a "home-rule" division. There should be no surprise attached to this, I presume, as the membership voted in the $6.00 semi-annual dues, instead of having them remain at $5.00. The great number of $6.00 money orders that reach us every mail goes to show how completely you are endorsing the plan laid before you at the various meetings and by letters to increase the dues yourselves. Had the officers of Division No. 4 increased the dues, which they had the privilege of doing with a majority vote of the general committee, without submitting it to a vote of the membership, it would probably not have met with the favor that the heavy remittances now being received indicate.

We are about to close up our year's work, and it is fitting that I take this time and opportunity of thanking you heartily one and all for the splendid support you have given me, making it a pleasure instead of a burden to handle your business. And in closing the year's work, I take pride in knowing that the efforts of the organization have brought sunshine and prosperity to the homes of its constituents, and truly trust that it may continue to increase this ten-fold.

I wish all a prosperous and happy New Year.

D. O. Tenney, Gen'l S. & T.

Northern District—

The "old wind-jammer" is back on the job. He was on vacation last month, got back too late to send in any items, and therefore we did not have a write-up in the December journal. But after camping in the woods for a couple of weeks and bringing back a big buck, we are ready for another year's duty.

We wish to take this opportunity of wishing all the boys a happy New Year, thanking all who have interested themselves in sending me items from time to time, and hoping we will get your hearty support in the future along this line.

Bro. Steiner, with one of those flashes of good judgment so common to him, has appointed "Ye' Scribe" assistant under him, with full authority to round up delinquents from January 1st to December 31st and no closed season on nons, territory extending from Spooner to Duluth and Ashland. We ask that you deal kindly with us.

Bro. A. B. Crowell, who relieved Bro. Stouffer, first Shell Lake, also relieved Bro. Ryan at Stantson for a week.

Block and Signal Inspector Nordquist was through recently on a tour of inspection.

P. Imisland, second Shell Lake, was relieved three nights by L. W. Crego.

Bill Kuhn is back again as agent at Chetek. Bro. Whittaker, day man there will see if he has an up-to-date in due time.

We are glad to hear that our old friend Bro. O. P. Ruide has been appointed assistant local chairman on the C. F. & N. Bro. Ruide has always been a wide-awake, conscientious member, and we don't believe Bro. Steiner could have made a better choice in selecting an assistant.

Bro. Crowell drew Mason on November bulletin, and has moved his family there. Matt Carey, who started for Chippewa Falls to work, was nabbed at Sporner and put on third there a few days, after which he went home for several days.

We understand Bro. Ryan went to Solon Springs during his vacation and brought back a deer.

Bro. J. Siron, first New Richmond, while off with malaria, was relieved by Bro. Swanson, who bid in Clear Lake first. Bro. Runkle, of New Richmond ticket office, while at St. Paul on a trial in connection with a recent accident there, was relieved by I. W. Morris, of "NR" freight office.

Bro. Bartosic is now on Spooner third pending bulletin. Mr. King, side wire man at Spooner, has returned from vacation down in Missouri.

L. E. Knight, Gordon agency, is on the D. & I. R., replaced by Mr. Nixon, erstwhile main line dispatcher.

Bro. Tinker, agent Holcombe, is on his first vacation this fall in seven years, was relieved by Bro. Crowell.

Bro. B. Bergin, of Shell Lake third, was with his folks in Minnesota at Christmas time, his first visit home in several years.

Bro. Steiner, at Deer Park, reports killing a deer in his yard. All that saves him from being branded as a big prevaricator is the name of his station.

We hope every loyal-spirited brother who reads this will try his best to get in every division in his immediate vicinity and help make this division solid, so we may be able to back up our committee for the next convention. Considering the great concessions our committee has secured every year, there is no reason why the membership on this division should not be at least 95 per cent.

DIV. COR.

Eastern District—

By the time this reaches you one more prosperous year shall have been checked from the calendar during which there was plenty of work for all; but at this writing the big ax has been descending on a lot of our brothers, making a clean sweep, something like forty positions having been abolished on the system, most of them on the Eastern Division, on account of the double track and automatics. Stowell nights was taken out; day man at Neillsville taken off, Bro. Campbell doing his own telegraphing; also three tricks at Augusta, Roberts and Baldwin, and two at Woodville, and numerous clerk jobs; also fourth "MS," Bro. Nordby taking Baldwin agency.

Business is very dull now. It takes four conductors to run the way freights and sometimes two engineers. We hope it will pick up after the holidays, or a few more will get their heads chopped off.

There is a bunch of surplus operators at rest on the east end, so it ought to be easy to get a vacation now.

Bro. G. D. Nelson, called home on account of the death of his uncle, was relieved on third Levis by Bro. Waldum. Bro. Johnson, second Levis, now baching in a box car there, was relieved at Neillsville by Mr. Gormely, returned from his claim in Dakota.

Bros. Allen and Zank have taken clerk jobs at Augusta until something better turns up. Mr. Balgord relieved.

Bro. Kuhn was relieved on Hudson third by Mr. Balgord for a few nights when he went to his new job at Minneapolis. Mr. Balgord better stick to his insurance business, where he can use his wind to advantage, as we do not care to hear him knock. Bro. Crossgrove is now on third Hudson pending bulletin.

We have the promise of Mr. Witt and Mr. Perry, on third Northline pending bids, this pay-day. They will be as "welcome as the flowers in May."

Eastern Division freight crews are now running through to Minneapolis instead of East St. Paul. The yards at Hazel Park are used entirely for outgoing cars and is a filling-out point for eastbound trains out of Minneapolis. The big Mikado engines now in use have combined with the re-trenchment to make very light picking for the train and engine crews.

Bro. and Mrs. E. J. Stanton and family spent a few days in St. Paul recently as guests of Bro. and Mrs. Liddane. Bro. Stanton succeeded Bro. Hurst on the "safety first" committee, and we couldn't have chosen a better man to fill that position.

Bro. Pope, at Woodville, was pretty badly hit by the reduction. Instead of three operators, he now has only one and a clerk.

The retirement of Mr. Lamb marks the passing of one of the veterans of the service. He has worked a trick in the dispatcher's office on this division nearly as long as the oldest inhabitant can remember. He leaves a host of friends behind, and the boys all wish him success wherever he may go.

Now, boys, remember to begin the new year with a new card in your pockets. In that way you can expect to look for something better before the close of the present year. There are so few of us left on the East End Division that we want every man to get in line and help line up those still out. The force has been cut to such an extent that there are but few new men left, and the old-timers ought to know what it is to be without a schedule. "Nuff said." Get busy.

The new cards will be $6 instead of $5 as heretofore. That will mean more money in our treasury and more money for our committee to work with.

I wish to extend every one of you a prosperous and happy New Year.

CZKT. 7.

Union Pacific R. R.

Nebraska Division, First and Second Districts—

The only news that seems of moment to me just now as I write, is the fact that I was called away on grievance matters and prevented from spending Christmas at home. But after working for the railroad a few years we lose track of Sundays and holidays, and I am comforting myself with the thought that a lot of the rest of the boys had about as little Christmas as I did.
THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER.

Although I was among strangers on that day, I could not but notice the good nature displayed by everyone. Trains were late, stations congested as well as cars, while hotels were deserted, but whether there was a crowd or only the clerk and myself and a porter in sight, every one was good natured; everyone greeted everyone else with a smile and a good word. I wondered why it could not be thus every day. Everyone gets up Christmas morning with a determination to be cheery to everyone they meet. They actually exude good will toward all with whom they come in contact, and it spreads until life is a joy for one day anyway. Can't we carry that spirit into every day of the year? Especially in our work, can't we resolve every morning that so far as we are concerned nothing but good-will shall radiate from us that day? Surely the Savior did not mean to have good-will toward men only one day out of 365. This one day gives a glimpse of the possibility of that kind of a situation, and, at any rate, I think we should cultivate this virtue as much as possible. It will not only mean much to others, but we ourselves will get much more pleasure out of life. And we surely know we need something in our work to make optimists out of us. We can at least make this a New Year resolution, and while it lasts as such will be a good thing.

We were surprised Christmas day to receive the resignation of Bro. L. G. Ging as local chairman in Nebraska, which carried with it also a vacancy in the office of secretary of the general committee. Bro. Ging has not made known to us his plans and we, therefore, are not prepared to give his reasons for this action, but judge that he has plans in view for work elsewhere, since we know his heart is in the work of the organization and the committee of which he has been a member, full of interest at all times in any plan that would be for the betterment of any of the men. Bro. Ging is a man of good education, rather broad experience for his years and with an insight into future almost ideal conditions for the man of the station, which I wish he could stay by us and help work to secure. I regret that the company—not only this but all the railroads in the country—do not offer more inducements for such men as he to stay with them. If they would put such men in their stations and give them adequate help instead of making slaves of them, they would have something like adequate service in those stations, and their cry—for "good agents" might be heard. But while Bro. Ging is a good worker for the future he does not neglect the present also, and as I was preparing to say in my year-end circular, has the only solid district on the division, unless at the last moment Bro. Horiskey may be able to render a similar report. The district from Sidney to Cheyenne, on which Bro. Ging works, being the only absolutely solid district on the system, with every man working with an up-to-date member, and if we secure one more application before the end of this week, in which I am writing, the same can be said of the Third District, bordering Bro. Ging from North Platte to Sidney. This is all by way of saying that Bro. Ging is of a type of man that the railroad could afford to cultivate for a position as agent, and that we regret to lose him off the committee, and should he resign from the service shall hate to lose him there.

For the present no appointment will be made as local chairman for the Nebraska Division, and I shall handle the grievances myself, although I shall probably appoint a man later to serve out the unexpired term, as I don't believe you care to go to the expense of an election just now. Bro. Z. R. Hook, of Manhattan, Kan., has been appointed secretary of the general committee.

Bro. Hans Jensen has accepted the position of cashier at Kearney, and Overton is again on bulletin. Bro. Jensen is a fully competent agent, and we hope this promotion is only the beginning of still better jobs further along. Under our new agreement he has every thing to gain and nothing to lose. If he goes ahead he does not need his rights; if he should be reduced for any reason he can assume his rights with us and still be taken care of. Here's hoping more of the boys now show a desire to forge ahead. Bro. Julius Hansen is relieving at Overton.

Bro. Mike Armstrong drew first at Kearney, and Lloyd Sampsøn third at that place. Mr. Wilson, a new man from the Q., doing the extra work, while the changes were being made. Bro. Stevens, on second there, laid off to celebrate Christmas, and was relieved by Mr. Flurry, a mercantile man with a good fist and no card, which is a poor combination. We hope to change it if he stays.

Bro. W. C. Stevenson, of Pleasanton, secured the agency at Arnold, which still keeps the K. B. H. solid. Bro. LeGate, of Yutan, gets Pleasanton, while Yutan is on bulletin.

Bro. D. I. Price, who has been in Denver all summer for his health, is returning to work, but to date hasn't bid in anything yet.

Bro. F. S. Mann, extra at Grand Island, spent a few days about Christmas time in Omaha. Odd to see an extra man laying off at Christmas, but there were very few old heads off this winter. Don't know whether they are hard up or what. Probably that isn't the cause, but this may be the year when all their relations came to visit them. I know that is the reason why I was trying to stay home for the holidays.

You boys who are not showing interest in the Omaha Club are losing out. Fine meetings are being held every month, and this month a social and dance was held, which was a signal success. It was not a money-making affair, was free to members, music was furnished by our own orchestra, which is as good as any we could hire; the ladies furnished the refreshments, and good fellowship abounded, so I am told. As I was working in the office, I was unable to attend this one, but I was at the meeting held last month, at which there were thirty-five present, and I got enough enthusiasm there to run me for another month. Come on along next meeting.
The Railroad Telegrapher.

Before you get this journal you will likely have received a circular with a resume of the situation January 1st, as regards Division 6 and a request for figures on express commission. We are receiving much correspondence about the express situation, and this note here is to remind you that if you haven’t already done so, kindly send to your committee at once the necessary figures asked for in that circular, so that they may have them at their annual meeting in February or March. You can not expect your committee to take intelligent action on these matters and give them proper consideration for you, unless you give them the necessary dope. If you haven’t complied with the request in the circular mentioned, this is a reminder to do it now.

Cert. 217.

Wyoming Division, Seventh District—
Bro. E. A. Curtis, third Bitter Creek, called to Paris, Mo., on account of illness of his father, was relieved by Mr. English, from the Wabash.
Bro. Wm. Horton, first Granger, assigned first Red Desert, relieving Mr. Denton, who went to Black Ears, relieving Bro. W. R. Stedman, who resigned and returned to Oklahoma on account of the illness of his father.
Mr. Moore, third Wamsutter, transferred to Colorado Division.
Mr. and Mrs. Brown, third and second Red Desert, will line-up soon.
Bro. Kabes, first Table Rock, has resigned and is going to San Francisco. Bro. Decker, second there, also resigned.
Bro. Greer, second Tipton, assigned agency Ft. Steele.

Wyoming Division, Eighth and Ninth Districts—
Bro. F. P. Rowell bid in managership Green River.

Bro. Kennedy is back at Carter, after a month’s work at Echo.
Mrs. Decker bid in Le Roy agency, relieved by Mr. Longstreth at Altamont.
Bro. John A. Johnson has left Evanston and gone East, relieved by Mr. Aldrich.
Bro. Jess Thomas spent Christmas at Evansville, Ind.
Bro. Grant Hix was a Salt Lake visitor recently.

Canadian Pacific Ry.
NOTICE.
Welland, Ont., December 22d, 1913.
Bro. A. D. Anderson, of LaRiviere, Man., has been regularly elected as local chairman for District 4, Manitoba Division, succeeding Bro. J. R. Baker, resigned.

Yours fracternally,
G. D. Robertson.

Saskatchewan Division, Districts Three and Four—
The second annual O. R. T. banquet for these two districts was held at the King George Hotel, at Saskatoon, on the night of November 27th. It was a big success, and General Chairman Robertson, who was returning from Seattle, characterized it as the largest banquet ever held in Canada, outside of conventions; there being over sixty telegraphers present.
The magnificent hotel was the mecca of every telegrapher who could possibly get away, and considering the train service it was a big credit to the telegraphers in Saskatchewan.
The dining room was decorated with Canadian Pacific mottoes, and at the end of the main isle a complete reproduction of a large Canadian Pacific railway passenger engine, weighing over a ton, equipped with electric head light and carrying green signals, was set up. The design was perfect, and the telegraphers were obliged to I. G. Trudel, general storekeeper of the C. P. R. at Moose Jaw for his kindness in having this made. The music was furnished by Miller’s Regimental Orchestra.
Many officials of the railways in Saskatchewan were present and made appropriate speeches, recalling incidents of their early days; among whom were: Messrs. DuVal and Boyd, superintendents C. P. R., Saskatoon; W. A. Brown, general superintendent, and Mr. Warren, assistant general manager of Canadian Northern Ry., Winnipeg; W. H. D’Arcy, general claim agent C. P. R., Winnipeg; C. D. Fisher, veteran member of O. R. T., Division 7 (the man who represented the Grand Trunk Pacific telegraphers on the board of Arbitration this year), and C. F. Travis, also an old-timer, who with Mr. Fisher was on the first general committee ever convened on the western lines of C. P. R. Reference is made later on to the tragic illness and death of Bro. Travis. Chief Dispatchers Chapman and Collins were also guests, as was Mr. Humphreys, car system agent, Moose Jaw.
It was a great pleasure to the telegraphers to have with them Bro. G. D. Robertson, general chairman of the O. R. T., Division 7, who was returning from the American Federation of Labor convention at Seattle, and all were sorry that Bros. Quick and Campbell were unable to be present, but we hope next year that this will be possible.
M. H. McGeough, assistant general chairman, was toastmaster, and with a few appropriate remarks opened the proceedings, after the excellent menu had been sampled. He thanked the various officials for their presence and for their co-operation in allowing so many telegraphers away to attend this banquet.
The programme was as follows:
The King and Empire (God Save the King)—Orchestra.
TOASTS:
“The City of Saskatoon”—Proposed by H. H. Boyd, superintendent, Saskatoon. Response—His Worship, Mayor Harrison (unable to be present) and C. F. Fisher, Saskatoon.

"Our Guests"—Proposed by G. M. Cordingley, dispatcher, Saskatoon. Response from A. E. St. Laurent. F. S. Cahill, president Industrial League (unable to be present).

"Toastmaster"—M. H. McGeough, Saskatoon.

"Auld Lang Syne."

Mr. Fisher was cheered to the echo when he rose to respond to the toast, "The City of Saskatchewan," which was ably proposed by Superintendent Boyd. Mr. Fisher is known from one end of Canada to the other, where an operator can be found, and he gave many incidents relating to the early days when Bro. T. Pierson, our grand vice-president, was up in the West.

In responding to the toast, "The Canadian Pacific Railway," Superintendent DuVal said it was a great pleasure for him to be present at the annual banquet of the telegraphers. He referred to the pleasure all must feel in having Mr. D'Arcy, general claims agent Western Lines, present. He regretted the absence of General Superintendent Taylor, of the C. P. R., and read a telegram from him, in which he said he hoped that a very successful evening would be enjoyed. He also read a telegram from Grant Hall, general manager, C. P. R., Western Lines at Winnipeg, regretting that business engagements prevented him from being present, sending his best wishes to the telegraphers of Saskatchewan, with the hope that the banquet would be both pleasant and profitable.

Mr. D'Arcy, in responding to the same toast, gave a brilliant and instructive address, which was thoroughly enjoyed. He commented on the youthfulness of those present, and referred in glowing terms to the opportunities of the present day to young men in Western Canada, and also touched on various subjects in which railway agents were concerned.

Bro. G. M. Cordingley in proposing the toast, "Our Guests," read a note from His Honor Mayor Harrison, who regretted that business prevented him from attending, and sent his best wishes. A. E. St. Laurent, of Saskatoon, an old-timer and a veteran telegrapher, responded to the toast in an able manner.

On account of the sudden illness of C. F. Travis, who was stricken down just as he was about to propose the toast, "The O. R. T.," his place was taken by Bro. McGeough, who called on Bro. Robertson to respond. Bro. Robertson, as usual, delivered a splendid address, complimenting the telegraphers on the arrangements made for such a banquet and hoped that it would spread over the whole system.

Bro. J. J. McGrath proposed the toast, "The Kindred Organizations," which was responded to by Conductor Spence.

H. J. Humphreys proposed a special toast, "The Canadian Northern Railway," and it was fittingly responded to by Assistant General Manager Warren (who is an old C. P. R. telegrapher, and also W. A. Brown). He referred to the time when he first worked on the C. P. R., when there were only fifteen agents in Western Canada. He also paid a great tribute to "Dave" Campbell, our worthy third vice-president, and said he was the most brilliant and fair labor official that he ever negotiated a schedule with, and closed by expressing his pleasure at being able to be present with the telegraphers.

The banquet closed by all singing "Auld Lang Syne."

Immediately after the banquet, which closed at midnight, the telegraphers held a meeting, called to order by Chairman McGeough, who called on Bro. G. D. Robertson to address us. Bro. Robertson dealt with the main features of the recent big American Federation of Labor convention in Seattle, and with the O. R. T. work that would be taken up, following the convening of the general committee in Ottawa in January.

Bro. J. A. Merkley then arose and called attention, in a few words of appreciation, to the work of Bro. McGeough as assistant general chairman of the Saskatchewan Division, and spoke of the improvement in conditions they enjoyed and the satisfactory way the work was performed by the committee. Then, on behalf of the telegraphers of District 3, he presented Bro. McGeough with a handsome leather club bag, suitably fitted for traveling, bearing a silver plate suitably engraved.

Bro. McGeough, in replying, thanked the members for their thoughtfulness, but disclaimed any credit for doing anything but simply his work, declaring that it was a pleasure to him to be in a position to help along the good work.

Bro. McGeough was taken completely by surprise, and is indeed grateful to the telegraphers for thus remembering him.

It was a great shock to the telegraphers on this district to learn that C. F. Travis, who was stricken with paralysis while attending the banquet at Saskatoon, had passed away on Sunday morning, without regaining consciousness, from hemorrhage of the brain. He fell to the floor unconscious, just as he was rising to propose as a toast, "The O. R. T.," was taken to the Saskatoon Hospital at once, and Mrs. Travis, who was in Winnipeg, wired for immediately. He had been agent of the C. P. R. at Elkhorn for a number of years, and was a member of the first general committee of the O. R. T. on western lines. He was later agent of the C. N. R. at Virden and Saskatoon, and a few years ago went into private business. The funeral took place in Elkhorn, Man., the following Wednesday. A funeral service, held in Saskatoon in Youngs undertaking chapel, was largely attended by the telegraphers there.

Alberta Division, Crow's Nest Subdivision—

A banner meeting was held in Cranbrook, B. C., Sunday afternoon, November 23rd.

The boys turned out from the extreme ends of the division and branches to see what our worthy general chairman, G. D. Robertson, looked like and hear what he had to say; and not one of them was disappointed in his tall, straight-forward and manly appearance nor in the message he brought us. He spoke in eloquent form for two solid hours, dealing principally with the circumstances leading up to the making of it necessary for us to take into our organization the clerks of the C. P. R., now on the agents' staff; the same as we took in years ago the train dispatchers and linemen.

Bro. Robertson showed clearly how dangerous it was, since the arrival of the telephone, to have a great number of unorganized men like the clerks sitting shoulder to shoulder with us in the same office, so closely allied to us in the same business; that the clerks today are the poorest-paid men on the road, and that the agents are held responsible for the work of such poorly paid assistance, it being almost impossible for an agent to keep a good assistant at the present wages. The meeting strongly endorsed Bro. Robertson's views.

Bro. Robertson also spoke in glowing terms of the work of the local chairmen and the members of Division 7 in bringing it to its present high standard, having had the most delegates at the Baltimore convention and the largest membership in America.

Several important decisions, pending for almost a year with Mr. McNicol at Montreal, Bro. Robertson announced closed in our favor, which was received with gratification. The schedule was discussed and a number of points cleared up, Bro. Robertson having everything right on the ends of his fingers.

The roll-call showed the following brothers present: Legault, Price, Murray, Wotgonoski, Wickwire, Brown (McGillwray); Brown (dispatcher), Fraser, Watson, Winters, Doner, Clark, Murphy, Bromley, Bourque, Bundy, Bancroft, Gitz, Whitehead, Howard, Sheldon, Spence, Thompson, McPhee, Burgess ("FW") and General Chairman Robertson.

Bro. Whitehead was the lone representative from MacLeod. Bro. McBride and a few other good men from that terminal being conspicuous by their absence.

At 18 o'clock the meeting adjourned to the Cranbrook Hotel dining-room, later to Ed Cline's private office, the meeting concluding about 2 o'clock in the smoking-room of the parlor car of No. 12.

Look out for the next meeting.

White River to Chapleau—

It is agreed by mutual agreement that Bro. Sullivan, the assistant correspondent, shall handle from Chapleau to Cartier, and that Bro. Bates, the regular correspondent, shall handle from Chapleau to White River. Under this arrangement there will be no chance of repetition of items.

We had a big meeting in Chapleau on the last Saturday in November. A great many of the members came in from far-away stations. Among them were: Bro. Soules, Metagama; Bro. Beatty, Grasett, and other brothers from far-off points. These men are a credit to the Order, and when they come from those distant points it is somewhat of a reflection on those living within thirty or forty miles who, when they pay their dues, "halloo" loudest for their rights and for protection, and, after voting on a regular monthly meeting, refuse to come to it, after the brothers in Chapleau and our local chairman, Bro. Hogg, especially, do so much to make the thing go right, the latter even going so far as to put his clubroom at our disposal, which, with its added comforts, certainly makes our meetings a whole lot better.

Brothers, try to come to the meetings, and you will go home with the satisfaction of feeling that you did your part anyway.

We want a progressive lodge in the progressive town of Chapleau, and your co-operation is asked to make it so. It was written a long time ago, "Those who are not with me are against me."

It will shortly be Bro. Brown at Grasett nights. Lochalsh nights closed.

Bro. Depew relieved Bro. Neshitt, Missanabie nights, all fall while he was back East ill.

It will soon be Bro. Joseph, Goldie nights.

Wayland, Nicholson and Pardee closed nights.

Bro. Byrne is relieving Bro. Freeborn, Chapleau first, cast on holidays.

All dispatchers are lined up but two new arrivals, who have their applications already made out. In another month there will not be a non on the district.

Bro. Leon Bolton is back East since Shumka closed.

Bro. Byrne, who left last summer and went to Ottawa, is back at his old haunts again.

Wayland agency has been cut out, putting Bro. Ruest temporarily out of a job. It is to be opened as a night office shortly.

Bro. Dickenson says the A. C. Railway at Franz is keeping them very busy.

Bro. Joe Bolton is going to Quebec to get married.

Bro. Dickenson is going East shortly. If they all chipped in like Dickenson we would have a better write-up every month.

Bro. Byrne's case—getting reinstated on the division with full seniority—was taken up at the last meeting, and every member present was in favor of giving Bro. Byrne back his rights on account of the delicate condition of Mrs. Byrne's health, which necessitated his coming back to this division. The boys all "came across" like true brothers and did all possible for Bro. Byrne in his present unfortunate position. We all hope Mrs. Byrne will soon be restored to health.

We are going to have a banquet in the new town hall as soon as the other dances are all over, and we're going to show them something. We'll be glad to see all the brothers and sisters on our district at this banquet, and it's going to make the ancient Bacchanalian ones we used to have in the "Y. M." look like a prayer meeting.

Boys, come to the meetings when you can.

Do not think because you are alone in a small town that you are the only O. R. T. union operator in the world. There are thousands who are always ready with the glad hand to do their share.

Get any stray lamb you know of lined up, and don't forget your obligation: "No card, no favors."

CERT. 1287.

Lake Superior Division, District 3, Superior Lodge of Schreiber—

On Sunday evening, November 23d, another of our successful meetings was held in the hall at Schreiber, with more members present than at any heretofore. We were glad to see so many from the west end present, as it shows that they are commencing to take an interest in our work. We were also very glad to have Sisters Syberg and Hamel with us, as the presence of ladies always brings cheer into the hearts of all men, and more especially in the hearts of a few there, who could under no circumstances be happy without ladies present.

Bro. Warner brought up a matter which I am sure will prove of great interest to all members, both ladies and gentlemen—that of organizing a Ladies' Auxiliary in connection with our lodge. I am sure that every member will be strongly in favor of this, especially the married brothers, as it will make it possible for them to bring their wives with them when coming in to attend the meetings. Sister Syberg, Bros. Warner and Hawke were appointed a committee to take up this matter and get all information possible in connection with it. I will ask every member, both brothers and sisters, to give this committee all possible assistance to make the auxiliary a success, and I am sure everyone will be greatly benefited by it.

At this meeting it was decided to continue holding our meetings every month instead of discontinuing them until the spring, as was at first decided. I hope the cold winter weather will not discourage any of the boys. Anyone who is taking an interest in the O. R. T. will not let such a small matter as a snowstorm keep them away from the meetings. Remember the Order has done a lot for you, and will continue to better your working conditions if you remain loyal, and give the officers of your district your help by attending the meetings. The boys on this district are taking great interest in the Order that has proved of such valuable assistance in helping to bring our schedule to where it is today—second to none in the United States or Canada.

At the close of the meeting Bro. Hawke invited all the members and their wives to attend a banquet in honor of our lodge at the King George restaurant. At 10 o'clock we took our places at tables that had been prepared especially for us, and were soon doing justice to the excellent repast prepared by Madam St. Jean. After we had made short work of the turkey, chicken, fruit and other good things the tables were cleared, and the following were called on to speak a few words before bidding each other "GN:" Bro. Hogg, local chairman district 2; Assistant Superintendent Wilson, Chief Dispatcher Moran and Bro. Skaling. It was a pleasure to have Bro. Hogg present, as he made the trip from Chapleau especially to attend. Like our chief telegrapher, he does all he can for the good of our Order.

Past Chief Bro. Nicol, of Jack Fish, is on his holidays, relieved by Bro. Bennett, whose position days there has been withdrawn, as the coal season has closed, which makes it unnecessary to have an operator on duty besides the agent during the winter.

First Vice-Chief Telegrapher Bro. Lindsay has taken his wife for treatment to Port Arthur Hospital, relieved by Bro. Depew. Bro. Lindsay has the sympathy of every member on the district, who all sincerely hope Mrs. Lindsay will soon recover and be able to return to Schreiber.

Day and nights—Blue Jay, Horn and Selim bulletin on account of putting operators at these points, due to staff system, and Hemlo nights on account of Bro. Curran resigning, assigned as follows: Horn days, T. Dooley; nights, Mr. Howell; Selim days, Mr. Lacombe; nights, Mr. Lake; Hemlo nights, Bro. McQuowan; Blue Jay days, Bro. Williams; nights, Bro. Walsh; Ruby days, Mr. Bourett.

Bro. Ross, on his holidays, has gone to England to visit his old home, relieved by Bro. Habicht. Anyone wishing application blanks or any information regarding membership fees, etc., will gladly be furnished by Bro. Hawke or myself.

Boys, the winter rush will soon be upon us in earnest. Be sure to give the dispatchers every attention for the safe handling of trains. Make our district one of the best on the system. The company appreciates good service.

The officers of this lodge take this opportunity to thank all the brothers and sisters for the kind assistance given them during the past year in making our lodge one of the best in the country, and wish all members and their families a bright and happy New Year.

Drv. Con.

Eastern Division, District Four—

Our regular monthly meeting at Ottawa, Ont., Friday, November 28th, proved to be one of the largest in our history, owing to the fact that a "safety first" meeting was held in our hall just previous to ours. We did not find it necessary to coax for leave, and hope the officials will find no more trouble in relieving when our meeting takes place.

After listening to several splendid speeches on "Safety First" by several renowned orators, including Mr. Miller, of Windsor, depot. Our meeting was called to order by our esteemed chairman, Bro. Rooney. Others present were: Bros. Ritchie, of Alcove; Leslie, of Wakefield; Joe Moore, of Maniwaki Jct.; Anderson, of Hull; Hickson, of Campbell's Bay; Howe, Lootis, Stewart and Smith, of the terminals; Bro. Johnston, of Manotick; Burget, of Navan; Jenson, of Hammond; Matte, of Bourget; Cowan, of Pendleton; Laroque, of Alfred; Gemmell, of McAlpine, and Dubois, of St. Eugene. We would like to have seen Plantagenet, Vankleek and Rigaud represented, and know of no reason why one of the boys from each of these places were not present.

Bro. Carley, Blanchfield and Barnwell disappeared after "safety first" adjourned. We are sorry the "safety first" kept "Blanche" away from her for so long. If he will bring her with him next time, we will all give her the glad hand. We have yet to learn what the attraction was that took the other two away from our meeting.

Several discussions of interest all took place, and we hope some benefit will be derived therefrom.

Get together, boys, and attend the meetings regularly. It means a lot to the Order and ourselves.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Bro. Byrne's wife, necessitating an extended leave of absence, and sincerely hope the holiday will do them both much good.

All the bachelors around the terminals are becoming entangled in the matrimonial web. First Bro. McPhail, then Bro. Park; and Bros. Wardrop, Howe, Ellis and Blanchfield are looming up on the horizon as benefactors. All we ask is that we are given more notice of future events than we had of the last two. We all join in wishing Bros. McPhail and Park and their bridges a long, happy and prosperous wedded life.

Bro. Gemmell, after a pleasant (?) sojourn at Low, has decided to winter at McAlpine, vice Mr. Deslauriers, indisposed.

Our popular "little" operator at "CD" is sure getting to be some "daisy."

"Bobs" Ritchie has settled down in his new quarters at Alcove, and seems to be quite content with country life.

Bro. Craft is now enjoying a few holidays visiting the scenes of his childhood in Yankee-land. Perhaps he may have intentions, too; you never can tell. It sure looked as if he was in for it awhile ago.

The chief still has the same old relief team at X. Y. & O. Jct., viz.: Bros. "Blanche" and Legage, and they are making good. Both are still single, but Sandy Hill is an attractive place.

Hope the government can replace a couple of the staff when called upon to do so, although we know it would be rather "Tuff" to lose them. We can do nothing better than to wish them "God-speed."

Electric staff system is now being installed between Hull and Central depot, with Maniwaki Jct. as a side line. We have decided an electrician is necessary at Hull. "Joe" says he will lose too much fat performing such "cranky" exercise. Herb and Keith should worry, wind their music box and sing "In the Good Old Days Gone By."

It would seem as if our regular division correspondent had gone on a prolonged vacation. Perhaps he is in search of a helpmate for his declining years. If so we will gladly forgive him for his seeming neglect, and wish him joy. Who is she? Don't all speak at once.

Save $6.50 of your next check, boys; it's due now.

B. C. Division, District One—

Bro. Martin, agent Ducks, on leave, was relieved by Mr. Tibbs.

Bro. Robitaille, agent Salmon Arm, has just finished moving into his new station, which is said to be one of the finest on the western lines.

Bro. Forbes bid in Cambie agency.

Bro. Ireland, agent Clunwilliam, on a six weeks' visit to the coast cities, was relieved by Bro. Foster.

Dispatcher Bunnell, off on account of sickness, was relieved by Bro. Young.

Bro. Anderson and Ketchum, of Leanchois, are making a tour of California and other southern States, relieved by Bros. Withler and Williams.

Taft and Pritchard were mentioned as not being solid in a recent write-up. We are very glad to say that Pritchard is now solid and Taft is up to date since Bro. Calaghan returned. Our list only shows three non's on this division now, but we will probably have to wait for some time to eliminate them before our division is solid, as they seem to be hopeless cases. All the brothers who have done their duty and kept up to date should always remember, "No card, no favors."

M. & O. Division—

On November 22d Bro. Z. Sansregret, of Point Fortune, Que., was stricken with a paralytic stroke. His left side is paralyzed and, as many of the brothers know, he has only one leg, his right leg being amputated above the knee, and he is very helpless. Brothers, read with me the 76th Psalm, and you will be comforted. Bro. Sansregret has the sympathy of the brothers on the M. & O. Division, and all wish him a speedy recovery, so we will see him at the meetings again.

A Brother.
New York Central R. R.

Mohawk Division—

I am very glad to see the interest the brothers on this division are taking in the Order. They certainly are a lot of live wires.

There hasn’t been a write-up of this division for nearly six months. When we worked twelve hours we had a very large attendance at meetings, and every month there was Mohawk news in THE TELEGRAPHER, but since we have been working eight hours less interest is shown in the meetings. The first and third trick brothers should be able to spare a few hours once a month to attend and keep up the interest, especially the brothers located in Schenectady.

Bro. Schenmyer, of S. S. 5, has bought a small farm on the turnpike and is in the chicken business. Bro. Smith, of “CJ” tower, Central Jct., seems to be making a success in that line.

Bro. Coyne seems to have considerable business at the freight office in West Albany. Wonder what the attraction is?

E. O. Teller, first S. S. 2, got a raise of $19.00 a month, along with the eight-hour day the Order secured for him. We should see that he gets a card as it will only cost him $1.00 a month of that raise to carry it.

W. R. Sweet, second S. S. 1, has returned from his honeymoon spent at Los Angeles, Cal. Congratulations.

The phone gives out every once in a while, and we have to fall back to the good old Morse. Understand a road in Texas has discontinued the use of the phone, and it may not be long before the roads in the East will follow suit.

Bro. H. A. S., second S. S. 4, bid in third at S. S. 3, and he and F. B. Smith have changed jobs until he moves to Albany.

Ex-Bro. L. B. Baker is on this division again. We hope he will soon be with us.

We notice on the bid sheet the name of E. C. S. If this is Bro. Ed., who worked at Vermont, we will be glad to welcome him again into the fold.

Since the installing of the dispatcher’s terminal circuits between Rensselaer and West Albany the work at all signal stations between these points has greatly increased. The levermen at S. S. 100 have our sympathy, and we hope they will soon be granted eight hours.

Bro. Cooney and Keiser, S. S. 99, Rensselaer, are contemplating a trip to Los Angeles, Cal.

Bro. Barrett, S. S. 98, is a busy man these days answering the terminal phone.

Bro. Jackson, S. S. “C,” also Bro. Hart, S. S. 1, have something on their minds these days. No more holding freight for the drawbridge, they go via the Air Line when the draw is open, or explain why?

Bro. Waters, S. S. 100, has his hands full these days. Understand the levermen at S. S. 100 have orders not to answer phone or bells on account of working twelve hours, but I wonder if the trains would move if they lived up to this order?

Bro. Fonsby, third S. S. 98, is not getting his usual six hours’ rest out of eight “now-a-nights.”

Bro. Hibsch returned home after a short vacation on third S. S. 101. Too much smoke—not from his pipe, but from the locomotive.

W. F. S.

Hudson Division—

Brothers, have you paid your semi-annual dues? If not, get busy.

What will make the O. R. T. solid? Answer— Every eligible man and woman joining and keep joined. Are you doing your part?

Some of the brothers have a narrow idea of what the O. R. T. insurance means to them. After twenty-five years’ service as a telegrapher, I am convinced that one of the best, if not the very best, rules of this organization is that every applicant must apply for insurance.

I have seen the time when we had no organization and no insurance on the railroad for telegraphers. Then the pay was so small we could not keep up a small weekly, industrial insurance.

What was the consequences? When an operator was called to the great beyond, and the family was left without the bread-winner, wives were compelled to take in washing or do scrubbing. Children of tender years taken out of school and compelled to work for a mere pittance, or perhaps placed in a home for the friendless.

Could that little woman, or those fatherless children, have very loving memories of the departed one? Although he was called a man, he was a man in name only—not being able to provide for the ones that he was responsible for bringing into the world and left destitute.

Brothers, the M. B. D. is a God-send to the operators, for I know if tomorrow or tonight the call came for me to go I could look in the tear-dimmed eyes of that little woman, whom I promised to provide for, and pass into the great beyond more peacefully, knowing that the O. R. T. would pay her one thousand dollars to tide her over, and perhaps save her from a life of drudgery and want after I had gone.

The meeting on December 16th was a very large as well as profitable one. A clam chowder supper was given by the chairman, and those who did not attend missed a great treat. Remarks were made by a number of the brothers and everyone went away feeling that the Hudson Division was in a very flourishing condition at the close of the year of 1913.

We extend our sympathy to Bro. L. Bauer in the loss of his brother.

Bro. Boucher bid in S. S. 42 and is now located there.

Bro. Ellison, at Stuyvesant station, and Bro. Sweeney, at Stockport station, have had their week’s vacation, relieved by Bro. Sutherland.

Bro. G. Smith, third S. S. 87, off for a few days on account of the sudden death of his mother, was relieved by Bro. Everett, from Hudson.

D. P. Shea, second S. S. 90, has been off some time, relieved by Mr. Klock.

Bro. Cannon, first S. S. 65, off for Christmas, was relieved by Mr. Jackson.

W. E. Smith bid in third S. S. 63 temporary.
Bro. Dedrick covered Poughkeepsie relief for ten days.
The two drawbridge directors have resumed at Peekskill.
Bro. L. B. Gaedeke, brother of the chief dispatcher, has passed the wire test.
Bro. Jackson, first S. S. 51, off a few days sick, was relieved by Mr. Carlson, extra from Germantown.
Bro. Bauer, third S. S. 74, off some time on account of the illness and death of his brother.
The correspondent wishes all a happy New Year.

Electric Division—

Bro. Ferris has been appointed freight agent at White Plains, N. Y., Mr. Mugler being appointed supervising agent.

Bro. Miles is on second "WM" until first is filled.

Bro. Bonin, back from the D. L. W., is now working extra.

Boys, keep right after the nons at your station until they are landed. Don't become weary in well-doing nor get discouraged. Remember our motto, "No card, no favors." By doing so we will show good results.

The nons at "KO" are still out, although we got them a raise in the last schedule.

Business is rushing, travel heavy, and lots of "boomer" operators floating around.

Bro. Donetz was awarded second "BV"; Bro. Heller, Fordham agency; Mr. Colihan, "CO," and Mr. Williams, third "MY."

Mr. Kirk has been appointed yardmaster at "XY," Mr. Fairman going back as night yardmaster, according to seniority. Mr. Williams is back in the tower service.
Mr. Hynes is at "KO" extra, and Mr. Smith at Michigan Central R. R.

East Toledo and Bay City Divisions—

D. S. Sutherland, for many years superintendent of the East Toledo and Bay City Divisions, died suddenly, December 18th, at his home in Detroit. He had occupied the honorary position of general agent for two years.

Our schedule negotiations are at the point where the local management announces that at present nothing can be done to increase expenses. It is therefore necessary for us to turn our negotiations over to the organization who, at the proper time, will advise us when to take the next step and what it will be. The membership should be advised that there is nothing to be discouraged about. There is a little temporary lull in business, caused by the readjustment of the business of the country to the changes consequent upon the new tariff and currency laws. When these have become operative and prices are adjusted to the new conditions, business will settle down to new and greater stunts than ever before.

The men represented by this organization are badly underpaid, and readjustments must come.
The firmer we stand up for them the quicker they will be ours. You may rest assured that nothing is being left undone, and that every man from local chairman to president is on the job, and the schedule will be revised at the earliest possible moment.

We are greatly rejoiced to hear of the splendid victory won by our brothers on the old Grand Trunk Division No. 1. They are now practically up to the Canadian Pacific and are beckoning the rest of us to greater heights.

This is but another example of what can be done through this organization by the employes of any road if they will stand together and put some "pep" into their actions. The writer would respectfully call this to the attention of some men on our own line who are prone to be too easily satisfied. We are only praying that the same lightning that has struck the Grand Trunk will fall upon a few others in this vicinity.

Our regular meeting on the third Monday in December brought some surprises. We had talent enough present, which, if spread out would have spiced up several meetings. The negotiations of the Pere Marquette telegraphers are being argued before the United States district court here at Detroit, necessitating the presence here of the Pere Marquette general committee, also Third Vice-President Campbell. It happened that General Chairman Robertson, of the Canadian Pacific, was also here, and we were blessed by visits from all of these brothers. General Chairman Knister, of the Pere Marquette, gave one of his characteristic talks, which are so much enjoyed by our members. General Secretary-Treasurer Adair, of the Pere Marquette, followed with some helpful remarks. At this juncture Bros. Campbell and Robertson entered, and, all being anxious to hear news from the field, Bro. Campbell was asked to speak. The writer has always found our third vice-president's talks interesting, but never so much so as in this instance. It was in reality "heart to heart." We were told of the happenings in the field that were pertinent to our interests, and given splendid counsel and advice upon our own particular situation. Some details of the recent Grand Trunk settlement were given, which, as may be imagined, were listened to with interest. It was with great regret that we heard Bro. Campbell is soon to retire from our ranks to enter law practice at Winnipeg; but he will not be separated from our counsel entirely, as in a private way he is to be a sort of counsel in general for Canadian Pacific Railroad employes. He will also be accessible to committees of this organization for help at any time. We wish for Bro. Campbell every success in his venture, which he richly deserves.

If we must lose Bro. Campbell, there is no other man known in our section whom we would rather have succeed him than the man who has been selected—Bro. G. D. Robertson, general chairman of the Canadian Pacific. Bro. Robertson is not only the most successful general chairman in the organization, but a splendid fellow in every way, and we believe that the great work of our retiring vice-president will continue unabated under the new. Bro. Robertson gave us a short and interesting talk.

General Chairman Culkins was with us and explained the situation as regards our negotiations at present. He spent the day in Detroit listening to the Pere Marquette proceedings before the district court.

There were a goodly number of members present, but had it been noticed around that we were to have the attractions the attendance would have been trebled. Let this be a warning to those who do not attend regularly. You never know when you may have a treat. At any rate, you will be well repaid any time for attendance.

Bro. George L. Foran and Josef Ferriott, of the Toweremen, cheered us with their presence.

I have a short supply of news from the field, so if you are disappointed, that is the reason.

Born, to Bro. and Mrs. Martin J. Carey, a daughter. Congratulations. W. H. C.

Saginaw and Machinaw Division—

Bro. G. H. Stokes, extra dispatcher, is back in "DI," Bay City, after relieving regular dispatchers. Bro. C. S. Lauber is at Swan Creek, pending bulletin, Mr. Gulledge resigned.

Bro. Wagoner, third Lansing, bid in day hours at Gaylord.

Bro. O. E. Gilbert, extra "DI," Bay City, for so long, landed third hours Bay City, W. S.; Bro. C. Poole relieving third Bay City W. S., while changes being made.

Bro. S. B. Cook relieving first Gaylord until the arrival of Bro. Wagner, later to Otter Lake relieving agent there.

The new seniority list shows 144 men on the three divisions, and about 98 per cent good O. R. T. mem. Mr. Hagerty, agent Cheboygan, heads the list, starting in 1875.

Bro. Gordon, agent Sterling, off three days, relieved by Mr. Anderson, relief agent.

Boys, send in a few news items so we can have a good write-up each month. We all enjoy reading the news items for our division; what you send in some one will get the benefit of and you will get the benefit of what some one else sends. It is more than one can do to take in the happenings of the whole division. Bro. Van is still on the trail each month and picks up his share, and we hope a few more of the boys will do the same.

Don't forget to pay up your dues and get that new card promptly; every little bit helps and we will need it before long now.

Don't forget about sending your remittance advice slip to the local chairman, so that he can keep you booked up-to-date.

Bro. Goldie, agent West Branch, has been laid up for the past two months, having been run over by an auto and had several ribs and his nose broken. The accident occurred at night, and the driver of the auto had no lights. If Bro. Goldie was not a total abstainer, we would not be wondering so much as to how it happened. Bob.

West Joliet and Benton Harbor Divisions—

Bro. Kingsley, dispatcher, has resumed after spending twenty days in Michigan and Chicago; Bro. Pfeifer, dispatcher, is back on first and Bro. Herron, dispatcher, relieved Bro. Green, dispatcher, on vacation.

Bro. Anderson, off ten days getting married, has again resumed duty at "SI," Kenington. He was relieved by Bro. Derflinger, and he at "TY" nights by Mr. Cole.

Bro. Bradford, who has been relieving Bro. Murphy at "DO" Chicago, is back on third Galien again. Operators at Galien are handling the head-in switch to eastbound siding since December 1st, which means $5 per month for each of them. From fifteen to thirty barrels of fish are being shipped from St. Joe to Chicago now every evening, which makes the transfer at Galien very heavy.

I want to thank the boys for their very liberal donation of items this month, and hope we will never lose sight of that necessary part we all should play, for every little bit helps.

Mr. Watson, relief agent, is relieving Bro. Hunt, at Baroda, on vacation. Div. Coa.

Michigan & Chicago Ry.

This is a new road, running from Battle Creek to Allegan and from Kalamazoo to Grand Rapids. The Grand Rapids-Kalamazoo Division is just being finished, with about fifteen miles to ballast yet.

The ballast trains haul dirt from Richland gravel pit to Montieth Jct., and switch off onto the new line from there.

The Allegan Division is being made ready for third railing in the spring, and the entire line will then be operated by electricity, although steam will be used for switch engines.

J. T. Northrop, formerly of the M. C. R. R., is now chief dispatcher for this line, located at Richland, Mich., the temporary dispatcher's office. Dispatcher's office will be built in a new junction depot, to be erected at Montieth Jct., the junction of the two divisions in the spring and both divisions will be dispatched from there.

Bro. Sam Helt remained with this company at Doster.

F. S. Sheen, an old M. C. man, landed Yorkville agency when Lathrop resigned to study dentistry at Ann Arbor.

W. H. Miller, formerly ticket agent at Lansing for the M. U. T. Co., is agent and operator at Richland. N. P. Piper, former agent for M. U. T. Co. at Battle Creek, is agent and operator at Gull Lake Jct.

John Hiscock is joint agent and towerman at Richland Jct. for this line and the C. K. & S. Ry.

Leonard Gilligan, from Kalamazoo, is operator at gravel pit. J. C. Daugherty, from the G. R. & I., is operator and pumper at Montieth Jct. He has been having trouble with pump there, and gravel trains have had to go to Gun River for water.

This division has no telegraph lines, but uses phones. There is no Sunday trains, and minimum for operators is $50 per month. Some of the agencies are better paid.

L. R. Young, formerly assistant traffic manager of the Michigan Buggy at Kalamazoo and at one time an operator on the L. S. & M. S., is agent at Allegan. He has a helper, as has Agent Piper at Gull Lake Jct.
The head of this company is F. W. Brown, traffic manager, an old M. C. ticket agent and telegrapher.

There is no organization on this line yet, although a few of the men are members, and perhaps it would not take long to line the thing up.

Pennsylvania Ry. Lines East.

Williamsport & Susquehanna Division—

Never before in the history of this division has the outlook been so bright as it is at present. We have built our membership up from almost nothing two years ago until today we have a membership that we may well be proud of, both as to numbers and life and enthusiasm. The membership in general are working more than they ever did. Everyone seems to think it is up to him to get busy and keep up the good work and try in a small way to keep up in the pace set for us by our ever-hustling local chairman, who seems to never tire, but just keeps on working almost day and night.

The brothers of this division, by contribution, purchased and gave to our worthy local chairman, Bro. A. C. Grieb, a handsome roll-top desk for a Christmas present, and at the same time as a very small token of their esteem, respect and love for him and appreciation of the work he has done for us; and we hope and trust that it will unite us all more closely in brotherhood. May the bonds of brotherhood and brotherly love never break nor even weaken, but instead ever grow stronger. Bro. Grieb was very much surprised when he received the gift, and he certainly appreciates it very much not alone for the usefulness of it, but as a memento of his relations with us in this work. At the same time it was "just what he needed." It was presented to him on Tuesday, December 23d, by a delegation consisting of Bros. C. S. Dieffenderfer, C. C. Fensterccher, C. R. Dugan, C. F. Wasper and J. C. O'Donnell. All brothers were invited, but on account of the very bad weather that day, no others came. It was a complete surprise to Bro. Grieb, and he says he can not see how we kept it so quiet. He was so delighted he could not make a speech, and desires to express his thanks in this way to every brother who contributed and wishes each and every member and family a happy, prosperous new year and many of them.

There are so many changes among the men on this division that it is hard to keep track of them all, so if we miss some, you will know why.

It is now Bro. H. J. Engle, second "RV," making that office solid. It is very gratifying when you count the numerous "solid" offices on this division, and before another month passes we will have several more of them.

Bro. L. E. Stewart, second "B," tower, and wife spent his December relief day in Philadelphia, taking in sights and doing Christmas shopping.

Local Chairman Bro. Grieb spent his December relief day around Sunbury and "Norry," looking after the few nons around there.

Bro. A. L. Grimm is on second "DR" during the prolonged absence of H. T. Mitten. There are some nons around there and at "OJ" for Lee and Bro. Shafer to work on.

Bro. L. W. Auchmuty working "BQ" while up for bids, and at first "RF" during the prolonged absence of I. F. Troutman.

Bro. I. C. Herritt, third "GD," spent his December relief day at his home at Jersey Shore.

Bro. S. B. Wilt, Relief No. 5, helped his father-in-law butcher recently, relieved by Bro. C. A. Fensterccher. Suppose he got some pork products and is now enjoying the delicious sausage and buckwheat cakes.

Bro. S. W. Reichenbach, third "HU," while out gunning recently had a narrow escape from being shot, the bullet giving him a hair-cut.

Bro. M. J. Snyder, third "RF," spent a day recently in Philadelphia, doing his Christmas shopping.

Bro. C. C. Spade, first "GD," off two days helping "Pap" butcher, relieved by E. D. Meckley. Another brother feasting on sausage and buckwheat cakes.

Bro. W. S. Minnier seems to be very attentive to that little blue-eyed lassie. Better watch out, "Muggsy;" dangerous shoals; been a number of our brothers married recently.

Now, brothers, I must appeal to you again in this matter of correspondence. I must have more news from you if you want a good write-up each month. One can not know what is going on all along the line unless some others help out by sending some news to him. Suppose you were all busy with Christmas this time, but remember the correspondent is just as busy as you are and likes to have a little time to enjoy the occasion, too, and it is a little too much for one brother to try to do this alone. Please send me what you know or can find out; even one item from each brother would make a very nice write-up; try it.

Bro. S. H. Young, second "AQ," is again confined to bed. He was better, was able to be around, but is now confined to bed again, having suffered a relapse. He has the sympathy of the brothers.

Allegheny Division—

It is certainly encouraging to receive a few items from the boys along the line, and I assure you that same is appreciated by me, as it is the hardest task for a man to make a write-up when you have nothing to do it with. I am sure if some of the brothers had to do it for a few times that they would soon get tired of their job and give it up for good, with a few complimentary remarks.
THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER.

added on the "Qt," but such is not the case here. I have always tried to have a write-up in the journal whether I received any help from the boys along the line or not, and I wish to take this opportunity to thank those who have helped me out in the past year with a few items each month, and earnestly hope that they will continue the good work the coming new year. and also hope that some of the others will also take an interest in this work and help out, for every little bit helps and is appreciated.

I also wish to take this opportunity to thank one and all for the assistance they have rendered me during the past year, which has been a very trying one indeed, and it is certainly gratifying to me to see so many good, loyal brothers paid up to date as we have on this division at the close of 1913. I earnestly hope that you will give me your support and assistance the coming year as you have in the past, and I assure you that by so doing we will have a better organization on the division at the close of 1914 than we ever had before in its history. While we have a few during the last term who did not pay up, some did not drop out intentionally, being compelled to do so on account of financial circumstances, and are coming back in again as soon as they can get the necessary cash to do so, but there are a few who are getting "cold feet."

We must build up our organization to a percentage strong enough so we can demand something like the other brotherhoods. It has been explained time and time again that those who drop out hurt themselves by dropping out more than the organization, and those who have no good reason for doing so should consider this.

I hope each brother on the division during the new year will appoint himself a committee of one and try and land one new member during the year, or as many more, if there are any nons left. Get the man working next to you. Be a real union man, and get out and hustle and boost the organization this new year, working for the interest of one another, for the common good of all.

The cost to join Division 17 is: January and July, $9.00; February and August, $8.25; March and September, $7.50; April and October, $6.75; May and November, $6.00; June and December, $5.25. The above includes initiation fee, $3.50, and dues for the balance of the term, which is 75 cents per month, and also includes $1.00 initiation fee into the M. B. D. or insurance department, but does not pay the assessments which accrue after your application has been approved by the insurance committee. All applicants must take out insurance when taking membership in the Order unless their age limit lets them out, or they are rejected by the insurance committee. Write me and I will gladly give you any further information necessary as well as supply you with application blanks upon request for same. Let's all get busy and make this division as near solid as possible by the end of 1914. I believe it would be well to start the new year by applying our motto, "No card, no favors," and by so doing perhaps we could convince some of these old hard-shelled nons that if they desire favors that they must get into the fold and help in the good work.

Bro. C. B. McCoy bid in third "NB."

Bro. C. O. Will is back on extra in "K" office.

Bro. George, second, off a few days rabbit hunting, was relieved by Bro. Frank McNamara, extra.

Bro. Watson, extra, on first Monterey a few days.

Bro. G. N. Shoup bid in second "FO" tower, vice Mr. Armfield, who went to the Salamanca branch and later bid in first Sandy.

Bro. F. P. Murray, our old reliable, bid in first trick "BO."

Bro. F. A. McNamara, extra, third Trunkeyville and Tidjoute, relieved Bro. H. M. Curran, third "WD," a few days.

Bro. W. W. Hall, of Vandalia, spent his relief day in Buffalo.

Bro. Persall transferred back to third Quaker, relieved on second there by Extra Flower.

Bro. Fringle was relieved a few days by L. L. Brown, extra.

J. M. Wells, first Salamanca, on vacation, was relieved by R. B. Caldwell, extra.

It is now Bro. Seits at West Hickory, Thompson at Trunkeyville third, and Crawford, first at Rockmere, and more to follow the first of the new year. Extend the hand of fraternity to above new brothers and make them feel welcome and at home in the Order, and show them that we appreciate their membership.

A great deal of interest is being displayed over the entire system at this time in the "get together move," and I hope all brothers will help to bring this matter before all the brotherhood men. I have been trying to get joint brotherhood meetings on this division with all the brotherhoods, but so far have been unable to do so. A large and enthusiastic joint meeting was held at Altoona on the twenty-first, with the attendance of 1,200 at the afternoon meeting and about 1,000 at the evening meeting, where the "get together move" was discussed thoroughly by Grand officers of the different brotherhoods. One of the special features of the meeting was to warn the men from joining this new so called Pennsylvania Railroad Employees' Mutual Benefit Association. Stay away from this association. It is another fake organization with the Pennsylvania Railroad behind it.

Your dues and M. B. D. assessments are now due. I hope you will send them in as soon as possible, and by so doing keep yourself in good standing as well as protect your loved ones, as death is most uncertain and comes unexpected, so in order to protect your beneficiaries pay your dues promptly.

I hope the brothers will let me have a few items for the next journal. Several of the extra or relief men promised to send me items for this write-up, but am sorry to say that I failed to get them. I hope they will make good for the next journal. Let me have the items about the 20th of every month, and help out in the good cause.

With best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year to all.

C. E. T. 18.

Allegheny Division, Low Grade Branch—

Bro. J. L. Crawley, extra on Shannon first, vacated by Bro. Steinbrook, who bid in third Bell.

Bro. Buzzard, second Shannon, on ten days' hunting trip, was relieved by Extra Stewart.

Bro. L. D. Segui, third "DA," is spending thirty days' vacation with his mother in Petersburg, Fla., relieved by Extra McWilliams.

Bro. Carey was off a few days recently on a business trip to Buffalo and other points.

Extra Dixon is on third Tyler, vacated by Sister Shannon, who became the wife of former-Bro. Joice, agent Reynoldsville, on Thanksgiving day. We extend hearty congratulations to the happy couple.

Bro. Hepler, extra, bid in second Rock Run, vacated by Bro. Keating, who bid in third "AW." Mr. Kissinger, first Rock Run, off sick, was relieved by McWilliams and McNairy.

Mr. Giddings, first west end, off a few days recently on account of serious illness of his wife, was relieved by Bro. C. W. Robertson.

Bro. Young, who had been relieving Agent Winslow at Oak Ridge for some time, has returned to second Mayport.

Bro. L. D. Cable, second Bell, is on third Rose, vice Bro. Carberry, appointed ticket clerk and operator at Ford City. Extra McCracken, star outfielder, Virginia State League, relieved Mr. Showalter, second Rose, who returned to Kimbrae.

Agent Williams, Rimersburg, transferred to Parker as agent.

Bro. McGrady, second "NA," attended the dance at Summerville given by the high school there, relieved by Bro. Crawley.

C. L. K.

We are making progress on this division toward solid organization. Each month we add one or two new members, and if all will just help a little we would soon gather in the rest.

Our meetings are well attended and are interesting, because we make them so. Each member present has something to say which is instructive and helpful. This is the way union men are made, by learning what labor unions do, and what they stand for.

Local Chairman Fidler and Bros. Farcht and Smith went non hunting recently with good results. Good work, boys, go again.

Bro. R. E. Lloyd has resumed work at "JA."

The pass question is troubling many of the boys who live in Pennsylvania.

General Chairman Miller has returned from the American Federation of Labor convention with much interesting news of the progress that organized labor was making throughout the country, and the boys all enjoyed his talk as usual, as he always has an interesting message. Bros. L. F. Kurz, N. G. Tracy and G. B. Snyder, at "V," and that bunch of O. R. T. Talbott at White Hall are some good union blood and are always right up to date.

Have you paid your dues yet? If not, tell your local chairman why.

A happy New Year to all.

"Tom."

Philadelphia Division—

Quite a few members have been added to our rolls recently, and the man outside of his fraternity on the P. R. R., Philadelphia Division, is something of a curiosity. We welcome the newcomers, and trust the sum total of fraternalism has been augmented by their accession.

For we must be fraternal, brothers. In the last analysis every action must be actuated by selfish motives; but let us be wisely selfish. And the most enlightened selfishness teaches the lesson that the masses of the people should do away with the body-killing and soul-killing competition among themselves.

Unions of workers are co-operative societies which in many ways increase the remuneration and lighten the burdens of its members, and that worker who spurns the organization and fails in the duty of being one of its units is truly a renegade to his kind.

The world is hungrying and thirsting for brotherhood. Let us live up to the opportunities, be brotherly and make our world brighter—a better place of habitation.

The joint co-operative meetings of the five railroad brotherhoods, held at White Hall, Harrisburg, and Trenton recently were well attended by a number of members from each organization, and were a decided success. Those who were so unfortunate as not to be there missed a rare treat. However, there will be similar meetings in the near future at different points, so that all may have an opportunity to attend and become interested in the co-operative movement which, without a doubt, is the only true solution of materially bettering the working conditions and promoting the fraternal and social spirit of these five organized bodies.

Bro. S. S. Christ is working extra in the superintendent's office at Harrisburg.

Bro. C. W. Melchor, local chairman, is doing extra work at the assistant trainmaster's office.

Bro. J. K. Leyder has just returned from a three weeks' hunting trip and reports game plentiful.

Bro. W. B. Maufair is doing extra work at "MQ."

IN MEMORIAM.

Whereas, The benign and gracious Father has seen fit to call to his everlasting home our beloved brother, H. M. Stevens; in memory of our departed co-worker and in sympathy with his relatives and friends, be it

Resolved, By the members of Division 17, Order of Railroad Telegraphers, that we extend to the members of the family of our deceased brother our heartfelt sympathy in their hour of bereavement; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the family of the deceased brother, a copy spread upon the minutes of the division, and a copy forwarded to THE TELEGRAPHER for publication.

C. S. Melchor, Local Chairman
G. M. Eshelman, Asst. L. C.

CARD OF THANKS.

Duftynn Mawr, Pa., Dec. 2, 1913.

To the Members of Division 17, O. R. T.:

We wish to express our great appreciation and sincere thanks to the members of Division 17, O. R. T., for the heartfelt sympathy in our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved father and husband.

MRS. LULU STEVENS AND FAMILY.

Buffalo Division—

Bro. C. S. Simmons is now local chairman for this division and ready to receive all applications and give information to all the nons as to the workings of the Order and initiation fees.

We hope to have a lot of new members in line by the next write-up. Brothers, don't wait for me to write to those nons next to you. Get after them and secure their applications, and it won't be long before we will have a strong division. Make yourself an organizer and send in your application. If you haven't the blanks write to C. S. Simmons, local chairman, Keating Summit, Pa., for blanks and any other information you may want.

Bro. H. R. Brown was off three days on account of sickness in his family, relieved by J. V. Slavin, extra.

Brothers, send a few notes from the north end or from any place to the local chairman before the 22d of the month. Every little bit will help to have a better write-up for this division.

CER. 2003.

Sunbury Division—

It is time to pay dues again. Let us all be prompt and thus help ourselves as well as the organization. I have tried to let the membership know all that I know. I understand our case is pending with the industrial commission, and it will probably soon be handling it. The outcome of the situation on the Pennsylvania Railroad means a future living wage, better treatment, etc. Taking away the passes through the new law means an outlay for local trips—another additional expense—and unless you help to keep up the organization you might get back to the days when you had to ask permission to go out of town for a few hours; so get busy and remit your dues promptly to Bro. G. E. Nightingale, Newfield, N. J.

Bro. Walter Robinholt was off a few days on account of sickness.

Quite a little excitement was stirred up over the report that the relief money was to be refunded.

I wish to thank all who have rendered me their support during the past year, and wish to say that I will stick if I am the only one left on the road.

I carried a card when there were only four on the road and can still carry it, regardless of what the outcome is.

CER. 11.

Trenton Division, North End—

Wilburtha second was bid in by Bro. Harry Black; Niece third by Bro. H. C. Wilson. "CA" third is now open for bids.

Assistant Division Operator W. H. Wilmot's office was moved from Trenton to Camden, N. J., his former office having been made into an up-to-date telephone exchange. While correspondence and telegrams are being signed by Division Operator G. A. Cross, Mr. Wilmot has his say, same as heretofore.

Lambersmith "FH" office is abolished as a train-order office; business moved from up stairs down, with Mr. C. Adams, agent-operator, in charge. See that he holds an up-to-date.

William Wilmot, Jr., received "RN" first; Mr. Kays, "FJ" second, and Mr. Yelland went to Hudson yard. It is said that the latter has the case on appeal per rule No. 5, regulations governing telegraph operators.

Belvidere and "NE" offices are now open daily.

It is now Bro. Chas. Hendricks at "MO," and three others also below Lambertville are now in line. There's a reason.

Although the day was stormy when the joint brotherhood meeting was held in Trenton, N. J., there were over two hundred present. Bro. Simanton, Bro. Aughenbaugh and others were present from this end.

We trust that the report in regard to a certain operator along the division having a student is untrue. Student teaching should be a thing of the past.

Newspapers in Trenton say that the Pennsylvania Railroad is to abolish telegraphy.

Before many moons two tracks instead of one will pass your offices, increasing your work. Labor is worthy of its hire.
We would thank Bro. Daniel Smith for a few inklings of what is taking place north of "PG."

Another milestone has passed. A happy New Year, brothers. See how many nons you can get during 1914.

We hope Bro. Harry Black, while in the "roaming field," will line them up at "WB."

In 1908 this division was 95 cent solid O. R. T. The first thing you were asked then was to show your card, and it will be the same way by the time 1914 goes by.

Don't forget to pay your dues for the coming six months. Remit the money to Bro. Nightingale, Newfield, N. J., and the M. B. D. part to Bro. Quick, secretary and treasurer, St. Louis, Mo. Send money order in each instance.

Bro. George Wharton, besides doing relief duty, is teaching the right "dope." Keep up the good work, brother.

Brothers, "bury the hatchet" and act like men by making your brotherhood all it stands for.

Brothers in Pennsylvania received notice that commencing January 1st free transportation for their families would be discontinued including points within the State.

The November journal stated, "A circular was sent over the road regarding an increase in wages." This was a typographical error. It was a petition, but no increase was received. Bro. Salters must have been misinformed in regard to the raise the first of the year.

If millionaires are kicking about the high cost of living, is there any reason why an operator should not on $60.95 or $57.70? No danger of the income tax affecting us at those figures.

Walter Maltland, formerly a member of the safety committee, has been put back to telegraph work. How about a card for a New Year's gift? You know where they can be secured. If not, ask Bro. Austin or some brother on the lower end.

Signalmen are still carried for the Pennsylvania on the north end. Petitions are worthless unless backed up by a solid membership.

Brothers, take a few minutes of your time to send the correspondent some items. They will be appreciated.

It will take only one more in many of the offices to make them solid. It is unnecessary to name them.

Your correspondent wishes to convey to the brothers and fellow telegraphers a happy New Year.

Trenton Division, Lower End—

It is noted with great interest that the boys are putting "No card, no favora" into effect, no matter what department a person is in. That is the way to make 'em all feel that it is worth while to have an up-to-date card.

New members are coming in so rapidly that we sometimes wonder where they are all coming from. Keep up the good work, brothers, and we will soon be solid.

The holding of the "joint brotherhood meetings" is having a good effect all along the line. It is a far-reaching master stroke that will eventually mean a schedule. Let us do our best to line up all the nons by January 1, 1915.

The morning and evening meetings held in Goff Building, Camden, December 17th, were a success and well attended. One new member joined at the morning session. The meetings were addressed by Bros. Miller, Weinrich, Rex and Hutton, and their addresses were thoroughly enjoyed. The prospects of a schedule never looked as bright as now. Get every non to join, and the good old O. R. T. will do the rest. All it needs is our undivided support.

"BJ" Mt. Holly second is becoming quite a student factory. The man there has always said he was going to join, and you see how he is doing.

N. S. Haines, second "BU" Burlington, has had a bad set-back with his ankle. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Howell Smith bid in first "MJ" East Burlington; Frank Hedrick, third "BU" Burlington, and Joe Sinner, first "FG" Trenton extra.

The concerts that Bros. Reeves and Steinmann, Edgewater Park, give us on the telephone Sundays beat all the pipe organ and brass bands you could put against them, and it doesn't cost us anything to enjoy them.

Trenton branch is nearly solid.

Bro. Chas. Kirchner, second Riverton, has gone South. We wish him success.

It is now Bro. Villinger at "UN" Labor street, Trenton.

One of the "GS" men has been taken from the committee and put back telegraphing. He was formerly a brother and local chairman of this division.

W. J. & S. Division—

On Wednesday, December 17th, we had two very interesting meetings—one in the morning, the other at night—with a pretty fair attendance. Boys, you should all try to get out now to the meetings and find out first-hand what is being done.

We had several brothers from the P. T. Division of the right kind of stuff—fair enough to acknowledge that they got "stung," and are now with us heart and soul.

On the New York, Baltimore, Central and Schuylkill Divisions, and in fact all over the whole system, the boys are beginning to realize that they must come in with us to protect their own interests.

We added a few more members in December, and if all come over in January who have promised we will make a very good showing on this division.

Keep after the men you are working with and get them to thoroughly understand that the only way to get what is due us is to carry an up-to-date card. We hope Bro. Hitchner can line up these fellows at Pitman after January 1st.
Every man should come out to the meetings and bring all the nons they can along. We can then show them that we are trying to benefit all concerned, and they may then realize what we are doing for them and do the right thing.

The alliance with the other four brotherhoods is another incentive for those not in the fold to come over and get a card.

It certainly was encouraging to have some of the gray-haired veterans give us the benefit of their own experience at the meetings and show us that the way to get what belongs to us is to join the Order and back up our officials. It was certainly inspiring to hear them and know that they will now turn on all their energy and help to make up for lost time. This getting together means success, and we will soon see the results.

Our delinquent list is the smallest we ever had, only two or three not yet paid up, and our prospects for new members early in the year is fine.

The industrial commission will no doubt soon have the hearings in our case well under way, and it is now absolutely necessary that we back it up with a solid membership. Get after those who have promised to come in, and we will surely win and get what we are entitled to.

The vacation season is over now, and all have settled down to business.

C. H. Vaughn, extra agent, relieved the agent at Woodstown for his vacation and found some work there.

Agent McDougall, off sick for some time, was relieved by Extra Agent Marks.

Bro. Mendenhall recently accepted South Vineland agency. The former agent there was not a member.

It is now Bro. Evans at Pitman, and Bro. Norcross at Vineland. We heartily welcome them.

A telegrapher on the Camden Terminal Division recently served time for allowing his leverman to answer the telephone. Brothers, answer the phone yourselves; it may save you suspension.

Mr. Sutton has returned from his furlough, and is now at "PR."

Campbell, of the Canada Terminal Division, is in Broad street, posting for a job there.

Bro. Geo. E. Nightingale, our general secretary and treasurer, has been in bed for over a week with a bad case of rheumatism. We know the brothers will bear with him until he is able to get out again. W. W. Carr is relieving him.

A misunderstanding in dates caused Bro. Miller to miss the morning meeting and he also missed the night meeting.

Joe Corsiglia bid in second Clayton, bringing him right home where he started many years ago. Don't fail to remind him of his promise to join in January.

Bro. D. R. Lee, of Berlin, spent December South with his folks.

Bro. W. P. Delaney is laid up with a bad case of blood poison in his hand, and is unable to work.

Cleveland Division—

The November meeting at Bellevue was well attended and was quite a lively one. Among other subjects that came up was the matter of train registers, that is, how the conductors should register their signals at different points along the line. New instructions have been issued upon this subject on the Fort Wayne Division, which it would be well for the brothers to familiarize themselves with, as they can often discover errors in train registering and possibly save the company the expense of an accident, to say nothing of possibly saving the limbs or the lives of the train and enginemen. I heard of an accident happening recently on a western road, near Salida, Colo. (I think), at a division point, where the passenger train carried signals into this terminal but had no signals out of the place. When the operator at the depot transmitted it to the yard office it seems that he said, "the train had no signals in and out." A freight train pulled out against the second section of the passenger train, which resulted in one of the worst accidents that the company ever had, killing a large number of passengers. Be careful, boys. Remember it is always the unexpected that happens on a railroad, and in helping the company you advance your own interests.

I heard the operator in the superintendent's office of the Cleveland Division recently call a non-agent-operator about thirty minutes in order to get a message to a train that should have been at his station. When he got him the train had gone. I am glad he was not a member of the Order. All the business going to this very busy office was held up for thirty minutes while the operator in the superintendent's office was calling this non to find out about the train.

Brothers, when you hear your call, answer it. Remember that to be prompt gives a chance for the wire to be used to its capacity at the same time giving your brother-operator a chance to clear up, and promotes a good feeling all around. Have in mind all the time that it means something to belong to the O. R. T., that it stands for good service, which incidentally means more respect for our Order.

Pay up your dues quick. If we all do this at once it will likely save some assessments.

W. A. Stover, Bellevue Yard,
Certi. 142.

Buffalo Division—

E. W. Hull, former clerk at Westfield, has been appointed agent at Brocton and given a clerk and operator, which was bid in by John Wanda, formerly messenger at Conneaut.

Ripley telegraph position temporarily closed, the agent handling his own messages. One trick at Eric passenger station also discontinued, the office being closed for six hours a day.

Business has been very heavy lately, as high as twenty-four east-bound through freights a day passing over this division. If the advertised depression is pronounced as published, the Nickel Plate is extremely fortunate in securing business.

Bro. "Shorty" Norber bid in third at his favorite city, North East. Bro. Morris, of North East, has returned from a trip to New Orleans. Being a real old Southerner, he was very much pleased with his sojourn in the Panama Gateway.

Bro. B. P. Cobb, relief agent, relieved Bro. G. B. Seeley, of Angola, while he was at Buffalo on jury duty.

Bro. R. J. Halliday relieved Bro. Misiner on second Angola a few days.

Sister Edna Chapman, of Moorhead, and Bro. A. J. Cobb, of Harbor Creek, have closed a large grape season, and are back on usual business again.

Bro. R. O. Waddell is back at "MX" Connex, from his old home in Pittsburg, where he was called by an accident to his mother, who is again in usual health. His wife, however, has not yet returned and "Wad" is running a bachelor's hall. He would be delighted if some of the boys would ask him out for a feed while the rabbit season is open.

Bro. A. B. Jackman, of Lakeview, has severed his railroad connections, and has gone into the grocery business at Buffalo.

Owing to negligence on the part of the members of this division, we have, for several months past, received very little publicity in our journal, and I would ask that each member co-operate with me in securing news for our monthly publication. Get busy and let the other fellow know that we are on the job. All communications must be in my hands not later than the 16th of each month.

New York, Ontario & Western R. R.

Southern Division—

To answer the many inquiries regarding seniority rights and that it will be better understood: You will note a great many are shown upon our lineal list that are not qualified as operators. It was intended that a star be printed before their names, indicating "not qualified as an operator," but through an error of the printers it was omitted. Therefore, only those qualified by taking the wire test and medical examination are entitled to bid upon the telegraphic positions and hold no rights as such until such qualifications are recorded in the superintendent's office.

This I thought well to mention, as in the future it may avoid disappointment of one that may bid on a position, not being qualified, are under the impression their rights are holding for such positions, as shown in the lineal list. The next revised list will indicate who are not qualified, and for the present if any desire this information, by sending their list to me I will mark those on the Southern Division.

Notices will soon be out for the next semi-annual payment of dues, also the insurance in the M. B. D. Let me again urge upon you, please do not neglect them beyond the limit, February 28th. Bear in mind that being delinquent in either forfeits your membership in both, therefore, to be on the safe side, pay your dues promptly. It is the best investment you can make. The committee, you must admit, can not work with the same energy for the nons that they do for the members. "In union there is strength." Do not get delinquent. It makes a lot of unnecessary work for your secretary and local chairman. I appeal for your co-operation.

The prospects are now good for a five per cent advance in freight rates next March. That means better times for the railroads and more encouragement for the employees.

Our wage schedule is something for Division 20 to rejoice over, comparing with the other roads and considering the time we have been organized. So get after the nons and make the O. & W. 100 per cent.

The two-day-a-month law is being tried in the courts, the matter is in the hands of district attorneys of different counties. Bro. Pierso will see that we are given a square deal, and I trust we will soon be enjoying its benefits.

How about a Ladies' Auxiliary for Division 20. Don't you think we should get one organized? Would like to hear from the members and local chairmen as to their ideas.

C. L. Cook, Local Chairman.

Bro. R. B. Wright is now on his new position, second Walton; Bro. Carswell, second Meadowbrook; Bro. Barnes, second Roscoe; Bro. Schadd, third Northfield, and Terwilliger, first Fallsburgh.

Bro. F. A. Wood spent a week before Christmas with his parents at Munnsville, relieved by Bro. B. F. Maybee, second Apex, and he by an extra.

Bro. Mulley was around posting on the towers in December, Bro. Carswell having landed a steady job.

Bros. Kerwin and de Graw, of Wheeler's tower, are working each other's tricks temporarily. Fish and de Graw, first and second at same place, celebrated the fifth anniversary of the installation of the electro pneumatic plant at that tower, December 20th, also the fifth anniversary of their entrance upon their present positions.

We hope you all had a merry Christmas, as we ourselves did, and that we all shall have a prosperous and happy New Year.

Now once more I want to say that if you want to see any news from this division it is up to you fellows to send in your news items before the twenty-second of the month, so I can get them together and mail them by the twenty-fifth.

Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Ry.

Second District South—

This district is gradually but surely growing in strength, as the few who have not carried an up-to-date card are coming in and lending a helping hand. Solid organization is our aim, and in due time we will be one of the strongest divisions in this section of the country, and the few dollars spent in obtaining a card, and keeping in line, will prove a good investment. The time is very fast approaching when the telegraphers of the country will be recognized as one of the most important links in the chain of railway progress, and when that time arrives the telegraph operators can hold their heads up and look any man in the face, knowing that the return glance will not be one of scorn or pity. It's coming to us, it's our just due, and we expect to see the time when the operators of this grand old U. S. A. will be on a par with the other leading railway organizations, especially in respect to wages received and concessions granted. But there is but one way to realize these predictions and hopes, and that is for everyone to lend a hand and make the Order of Railroad Telegraphers second to none. We have the ability, our services are required, and now all that remains to make our influence felt is numbers, and the present outlook in that direction is very bright.

The November bulletin issued by our newly appointed division operator, W. H. Brant, has created considerable comment, but would suggest that each brother read it carefully, word for word, note the suggestions which may appeal to you personally for betterment, and act accordingly.

It is now Bro. B. F. Ward, Tipp City second trick, and he can now join us in our bear dances or do anything that any other brother is allowed to do. We are all glad to have him with us.

On the evening of November 28th Robert Dunn, 64 years old, crossing watchman at St. Johns street, was struck and killed by some train, supposed to be No. 96, going into the yards at about 5:30 p. m. "Uncle Bob," as he was known by every employee on the division, left his flag shanty at about that time for Eureka street, where it was his duty to put up a switch lamp, and when within a block of his own shanty and about fifty feet north of Kibby street, either the engine pilot beam or something projecting from engine or car struck him, and when found by passers-by he was dead. He had been employed by the C. H. & D. for about fifteen years as watchman, was a faithful employee, well liked by everyone, and the news of his untimely death was sadly received by his many friends and acquaintances.

The new law in Ohio forcing railway companies to pay their employes semi-monthly has for some reason been violated, and as a result operators at Lima depot, "AK" tower and "BU" cabin were short their pay checks for the first half of November up to December 3d.

Considering the fact that we are required to pass a 634-question examination; that we are about to be initiated into the mysteries of the manual block system; that each day brings forth its bulletins, together with examination books and cars, and the double telephone and telegraph systems, we are surprised that we haven't become a bunch of raving maniacs instead of level-headed operators. Keep your nerve, boys. They say a fellow can learn to like "almost" anything.

During examinations on the car several amusing things took place. The different' interpretations of rules were quite unexpected, but in many instances were excusable inasmuch as most of the employes had never worked under a manual block system and several had not yet seen the new rule book. But with Examiner Coates on hand to explain those points not clear to the boys, all got by with credit, and a second examination would be a snap. Under the new ruling it's "one train at a time and that handled well," and there will be no trouble, but it's good policy to not try to put two trains where but one ought to be. The block works very well—if you do not have to account for delays.

The attendance at the examination car, where mostly second and third-trick men held forth, proves without any doubt that Lima could muster a goodly attendance for an O. R. T. meeting, and I would suggest that as soon as our general chairman returns from the East that we give this a trial. Such gatherings are the organizers of friendship and acquaintance that otherwise would not be brought about for years. Personal encounter is always more productive of such things than the long-distance gab that, without these meetings, is our only mode of acquaintance. Of course, should there be a meeting at Lima, someone would have to chaperone Bro. Nichols, of Cridersville, for he got lost and missed the examination car entirely, and when found was wandering around a motorcycle shop trying to find out who it was that put "gas" in gasoline.

Two tricks at Anna, Ottawa first and Leipsic Jct., on north end, are on bulletin.

It is now time for the payment of dues for the term January to June, inclusive, and I hope the boys on Division 21 will be right in line and secure their cards early and get after the non-members and see that they get in the wagon and help make music. Their non-membership not only hurts those who are striving to better conditions, but the greatest injury is to themselves. "Safety first" applies to more things than the B. & O. and C. H. & D. Railways. If a boat were to sink with yourself on board, a life preserver would be your most urgent need, and if the operators of the country would realize that an up-to-date card was a "real life preserver" for the operators, that card would be your first thought. Dues, including $1.00 to M. B. D., January 1st to June 30th, inclusive, $9.50. Blanks are all ready to mail. Let's have your requests.

Mr. Jones is the new man on Anna third, and Mr. Bush is the new man on Sidney first, relieving Bro. Shine, who is in a Columbus hospital. Bro. Shine has been having his troubles for the past year or more, and every brother sincerely hopes for his quick and permanent recovery. Secure his hospital address, brothers, and drop him a line. Cheering words are appreciated by anyone confined in a hospital ward, and the brother would be pleased to receive a note from any of the brothers.

Let's have a little help, brothers, on these notes. Every little helps.

Springfield Division—

Bro. J. V. Cummins, second Moorefield, off two weeks hunting, was relieved by Mr. Drake.

We hope to call Operator Clark, first Moorefield, "Bro." in the near future.
Business seems to be picking up on the Springfield and Indianapolis Divisions now, as they are running 55 and 65-car trains out of MOwenfield. Seems like the 400 class battlers will be running to Montezuma in the near future. Someone made this noise.

Bro. Seng, second Montezuma, is having quite a time motor boating and hunting.

It is rumored that the manual block will be put on between Indianapolis and State Line shortly. This will give us more offices.

The schedule is being delayed on account of the officials refusing to give us an increase.

Bro. Grimes was relieved on second Tuscola, while off hunting, by Mr. Perkins, who bumped Mr. Vickory, third Hume. Third Shops cut out; Bro. Hornbeck bumps first trick man at Decatur. Mr. Aikman is back on second Hume.

W. E. Gossert, car man, spent Christmas with his folks at Decatur, relieved by V. R. Thomas.

Bro. M. E. Oxley, first Montezuma, is attending school at Valparaiso, Ind., taking a scientific and classical course, and will later take up the study of law. We wish him success.

We were very sorry to learn of the death of Bro. D. E. Greene's brother at La Place. Bro. Greene has the sympathy of the entire division.

Best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year.

"B."

Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry.

Coast Division—

A very successful meeting was held in Labor Temple, Seattle, presided over by General Chairman Bro. Soyster. We were favored with speeches from President Bro. Perham and Bro. Alexander, from the Southern, who covered the hard struggle on that road for schedule and final results. He was in turn followed by General Chairman Robertson, of the C. P. R., representing our Canadian brothers, who are governed by such an enviable schedule. Bro. Miller, general chairman of the Pennsylvania; was next. In introducing the speaker Bro. Soyster described him as an "orator of exceptional eloquence and the man who brought the 1913 convention to Baltimore when it had been lined up for Seattle." Bro. Miller certainly came up to all that was said of him, and more, and, although he is working against big odds, we feel certain he will be successful in bettering their conditions in the near future.

The meeting was attended in part by Mr. Robinson, Bros. Owens and Olson, Seattle; Bros. Church, Martin, Leamy, Teary and Wooten from the main line; Bros. Lang, Grummell and Nisonger, Tacoma; Bros. Stewart, Barrett, Boylan, Clover and several others from the Tacoma line, and some old-timers, since retired.

R. F. Rader, the boy at "TC" who handles the "32" sheet and makes a fuss when she's not on time, was relieved on vacation by Bro. Lang. The rumor that "R" became entangled in the matrimonial web has not been confirmed.

M. J. O'Connor, wire chief Tacoma, while working a trick on the branches, was relieved by Bro. Nisonger, and he by Bro. McAllister, first Bismarck.

Bro. Grummell, wince in the hospital undergoing an operation, was relieved by Bro. Lang.

Bro. McAllister has returned from "TC" to Bismarck. Bro. Schmitz from the W. U. at Portland, whom we lined up at "TC," has "hiked" for the South.

Bro. Kidd, agent North Puyallup, on a trip East, was relieved by Bro. Boylan.

It's now Bro. Wood, agent Kent, on a trip South, relieved by Bro. Napier, and he on second by Mr. Sutton, from the freight office at Tacoma, who also relieved Bro. H. J. Johnson, second North Puyallup, on trip home.

Bro. W. A. McKinnon, who bid in Monroe, after sizing up the clerical work, maintained he was "not up on that stuff," and took three months' leave, going with the Federal Telegraph at Seattle.

Bro. Farley at "FD" first, Bro. McKay laying off.

Bro. Cronk, who relieved Agent Kent a few days, also relieved Bro. "Scoop" Kinnear, on a deer hunt.

Bro. Chadderson, of Whittier, spent a few days in Seattle, relieved by Bro. Cronk.

Bro. Willsey at Monroe pending bulletin, Bro. Johnson later receiving it on bid.

Bro. Fishburn landed third "SJ," where the boys are all working in the box-car "abode," due to the recent burning of the station.

Bro. Pope, Black River tower, received Keechelus agency, Bro. Snyder going to "BI." C. H. Dahlke received this on bid, but could not be located.

Bro. Blume, first Cle Elum, off a few days, was relieved by Bro. Lang, recently returned from a trip East. Bro. Nash, who accompanied him as far as Ortonville, is still at his home in Terre Haute.

Bro. Church, while partaking of Thanksgiving turkey in Seattle, was relieved by Bro. Boylan.

Mr. Sutton, pulled off at Mineral, went on extra. Bro. McEntee, second Kapowsin (discontinued), went to Salsich Jct. extra.

Bro. Bingham, Everett, on trip East, relieved by Bro. Snyder, a new man from the N. P.

Bro. McEntee, who relieved Bro. Clover, agent Kapowsin, a few days, was relieved on second by Bro. Boylan.
C. Otto, formerly first "SJ," who attributes his inability to carry a card to "poor crops" or the "great depression throughout the country," relieved Dispatcher's Clerk Phillips and later bid in third "SJ."

Third Trick Dispatcher Peterson has returned from his trip East. All the boys are glad to see "Pete" back again.

Bro. Olson, bumped at "S" Seattle, returned to his regular position, Bro. Erland going to Enumclaw to relieve Bro. Hogan a few days.

Banderia closed, Bro. Willesey going to Monroe extra, Bro. Cronk taking the extra list.

Bro. Larson, affected by the cut at Tacoma, who bid in North Puyyallup, is on three months' vacation, trying the real estate business. We all wish him success. R. F. Rader, his relief, was later relieved by Bro. W. H. Lang.

Bro. Steiner, from Laconia, bid in Duvall agency.

Bro. Wooten is now publishing the daily at Cedar Falls, and Bro. Martin the daily at Laconia, the Eagle supplying the boys on the hill with some classy news. The latter recently, in a somewhat lengthy statement, bemoans the loss of Mayor Steiner, who did so much towards bringing prospective settlers to the metropolis and left recently for Duvall.

Bro. Kelso, first Cedar Falls, claims he has been offered $50,000 for his mining interests in Washington, but we hail from Missouri.

Bro. and Sister Leamy, Rockdale, spent Thanksgiving in North Bend, relieved by Bro. Erland and Lang, who on departing were treated to a royal spread by Mr. Carew, of third there. He promises to start the year right by purchasing a card.

Bro. Church, third Keechelus, is anxiously awaiting the approach of summer, when he can make a "wad" escorting the tourists around Lake Keechelus.

In preparation for big game, Bro. Terry, at Garcia, has adopted a wolf hound.

Bro. Taylor, second Cedar Falls, attributes the loss of several pounds to "baching" while his wife spent a month in California.

Second Trick Dispatcher Leahy "CPS," was relieved by Mr. Wallick a few days. Mr. Wallick, formerly chief dispatcher "CPS," has been in Alaska gathering nuggets during the past summer.

Snow, second Argo "CPS," was relieved by Lovejoy a few days on account of illness.

Mr. Owens, second Bismarck, and Sister Clover, first Kapowsin, recently pulled off on account of the abandonment of log runs, makes Salsich Junction the only night office on the T. E. Some of the snow offices will probably be opened shortly, which will take care of the extra men.

Our committee called on the officials at Chicago for a meeting on December 8th. Stick by the committee, and if it comes to a vote, do the right thing.

During the time Dispatcher Allen was troubled with a severe cold we were treated to several nights' work on the good old Morse. She sounded good, and we regret that we can't have more of it.

O. M. Weister, from "GN," relieved Bro. Reynolds, agent Keechelus, who was called to Seattle.

Mr. Maddox, new man, who relieved at Laconia, Rockdale and Keechelus, later went on work train, but was bumped by Bro. Cronk on his return from a hunting trip.

Bro. Reynolds, former agent Keechelus, recently reinstated, bid in second Laconia.

If the boys continue to show the interest sending in notes that they have recently we will be able to have a good write-up. Send them in by the 20th.

Missoula Division—

On special election held in November for local chairman, Bro. Geo. L. Dean, Falcon, Idaho, was elected vice Acting Chairman Bro. E. P. Brink. We all wish our new chairman the best of success, together with a happy and prosperous New Year. I feel sure that Bro. Dean will have the aid of every member on the division. Let us assist him in lining up the nons and getting the division on a sound and firm basis.

The following appointments have been made by Local Chairman Dean: Committee to act for the division, Bros. G. L. Dean, W. F. Marshall, A. G. Smith, R. O. Clark and Sister Mrs. C. M. Van Antwerp. Let's stand by this committee and push with the energy of a football team. Correspondent for the division, Bro. W. Harold Glover, Falcon, Idaho. All are asked to assist and give him all the news possible and promptly that it may reach him in due time for each month's write-up.

Sister Miss Anna O. Stewart, formerly at East Portal, now Mrs. M. L. Right, and husband, spent their honeymoon in Seattle. We wish them a happy and prosperous life in their new home, where'er it may be.

Bro. and Sister E. P. Brink, visiting at his home in Deer Lodge, will also visit in Iowa while on vacation.

Bro. L. V. Maxwell, of Saltse, visiting at St. Maries, Idaho, has gone to his mother's ranch near Portland, Oregon, for sixty days. Bro. Mickey Griswold, of Saltse, spent the holidays at Clinton, and is now on a six weeks' visit at his old boyhood stamping grounds in Wisconsin. We understand he is going in search of a lasie he left behind, and wish him many happy days in his little white cottage by the wayside in Saltse.

Sister Mrs. Barlow, Clinton third, is on a three months' furlough. Bro. Ralph Coon bid the trick in, and Bro. H. H. Brown, just rehired out, relieved him at Ravenna nights.

Miss Essie Payne, extra, third Bryson, who has been visiting in Missoula and Seattle, has gone to Brainerd, Minn., to spend the winter among relatives and friends, leaving behind many friends, who will greatly miss her. Bryson closed.
The Railroad Telegrapher.

Sister Mrs. Lillian McCormick, formerly at Bryson, is on a three months' leave to her home in Seattle.
Bro. A. F. Wilkins, of Missoula, at East Portal for several months, is now on an extensive vacation. He spent Thanksgiving with his people in Missoula and later visited Butte.

Sister Mrs. Palarske, of St. Regis, is on six months' vacation on her ranch near that town.

Mr. Estep third at Haugen, Miss Lena Huibretta and Gary Hughes will soon be with us, and it will only be a short time until there won't be a non on the division.

A new step taken lately is for each operator on the division to donate twenty-five cents a month for maintaining the local chairman's office. It is necessary that the local chairman have a typewriter and possibly a few other things, and he should not be expected to use his own money any more than the other operators. An account of all money received and expended will be kept and a statement issued when requested. When the local chairman's term expires the money on hand and other material will be checked over to his successor. We hope that every one will send his twenty-five cents every month and remit for the first six months or a year in advance as there is no money in the treasury and some is badly needed at once.

The local chairman, the committee and the correspondent wishes all a prosperous New Year. The former expects to go over the division soon and would like to see every operator at the station. You will be notified when he goes over.

Greetings to all. W. HAROLD GLOVER,
Div. Cor., Cert. 2695.

Columbia Division—

Don't think because you don't hear any noise from the committee that it is not on the job. It's slow work and can't be accomplished in a day.

Forces are still being reduced. Bro. Stephens loses Herrick office, closed 1 a. m. to 7 a. m.

Pumper at St. Joe pulled off and Bro. Smith will swell his princely salary by the amount allowed for pumping.

One man pulled off at Tekoa, agent now working a six-hour trick. Bro. F. L. Hayes jerked out of Malden relay days bid in Tekoa first; when it was abolished he took second, Bro. Kirkpatrick taking third forcing Mr. Barry out.

Mr. Jose, in Malden relay nearly four years, was caught in the reduction. Only three men there now; a couple of months ago there were six.

Bro. R. R. Murphy bid in second Manitou, vice Bro. Schlatter, unable to hold regular position on regular seniority list.

Bro. A. Walden has resumed at Pine City agency after six weeks' illness.

Bro. J. H. Vassey, who relieved Dispatcher Current several weeks, lost out on account of third trick dispatcher having to work both ends.

Bro. Kinney, second Othello, is on vacation in California.

Rocky Mountain Division—

There are rumors that more operators are to be laid off and telegraph offices closed. The conductors, being so accommodating as to solicit orders on the block phone at every blind siding and closed telegraph office they come to, enable the officials to do this.

Bro. Jake Schaeffer has gone to Amberst on the Great Falls line. Bro. J. L. Du Houx, back from a three months' vacation in the far East, is now at Hoosac.

Bro. Bothmer, second Two Dot, is on vacation; relieved by Mr. Reed.

Ex-Bro. Maggett, first west end dispatcher Three Forks, on thirty days' leave, visited at Lennep a few days and left for his home in North Carolina for the holidays.

F. P. (Doc.) Byrne bid in second Three Forks, put on to relieve Bro. Clark of his too numerous duties, which also cut down his three hours' overtime per day.

Bro. Riddell, from Great Falls Line, is relieving Bro. Phare on third Sixteen while Bro. Phare relieves Bro. Curn on first, who went East for the holidays.

Several offices closed on Great Falls Line and a number of men laid off. The work up there is about completed and should create a number of "back" jobs when opened for traffic in the spring.

The new depot at Lennep is now completed and moved into December 3d, in honor of which Bro. Pracock and Sister Francis showed up for work in their store clothes. Much disappointment was shown when Bro. Bradley showed up in the regulation uniform—wool shirt and overalls.

Bro. Sill, at Summit, recently assisted in the capture of a bold desperado who robbed Engineer Shaw's house at Three Forks.

One dispatcher cut off at Three Forks and a third track operator and report clerk put on. C. G. Brown, the dispatcher reduced, now working third there until bids are up.

Bro. M. E. Spencer, agent Willow Creek, on thirty days' leave, relieved by Bro. W. A. Horrejs.

Bro. Geo. Redding, who lost out by Finlen being made a twelve-hour day and Dawson a twelve-hour night office, bumped Bro. W. F. Monthey, third Donald. George spent the holidays with his folks at Lexington, Ky.

Newcomb is to be made a twelve-hour night and Janney a twelve-hour day office. Dawson and Cedric are twelve-hour night offices and Moyne will probably be in the same list soon making Ringling a twelve-hour day office.

In the Employees' Magazine for December appears the following article addressed to Conductor Thos. O'Brien and Brakemen C. J. Buck and J. E. Manley: "For your prompt and heroic action on the night of October 27th in stopping Train 94, coming into Grace, due to air valve on Engine 8500 being defective, I wish to hereby extend to you my highest commendation. A serious catastrophe was averted by your efforts, which I know were thoroughly appreciated by the management of this company. It is gratifying to know that we have employees of this caliber who are not found wanting when put to a test. I take pleasure in giving you due credit for this in our Employees' Register and am also extending to you my personal thanks for 'staying with the ship' as you did. (Signed) W. H. Molchoir, Superintendent." We all coincide with the spirit of the superintendent's letter. No. 15 was on its way up the mountain, which was the serious catastrophe averted by No. 94 being stopped. This incident and another recently when a car got away from Grace and, starting down the mountain, was derailed at Cedric by the operator there being notified to open the switch, is a strong argument in favor of maintaining a full force at all stations on mountain grades. This should receive some consideration from the "Safety First" movement; for when the word is given out by the management to cut down the expense of operation, or in normal times when the management will not approve additional expense, the local officials are powerless.

Musselshell Division—

Bro. L. A. Copp relieved Bro. G. F. Rediske, third Ryegate a few weeks, later relieving Bro. J. C. Foster, first Ryegate, a few days, and then went to his assignment third Roundup, relieving Claude Mitchell, extra.

Bro. C. W. Ether assigned ninety-day vacancy on first Baker, relieved on second there by R. T. Davis, who later relieved Bro. Copp on third Ryegate and then bumped Bro. Olson on second Mildred temporarily.

Bro. W. A. Aasve relieved Mrs. Oconnor on second Carterville a few days, later relieved R. T. Davis on second Baker temporarily, and then went on a vacation. Bro. J. H. Cawley, assigned Delphi days, relieved Bro. Cook, who then bumped Bro. Warman on third Shawmut.

Bro. C. H. Richards, extra, relieved Bro. T. E. Crandall, first Ismay, a few days, also relieved Bro. R. R. Russell, agent at Saugus, a short time.

Sister Hayes returned from an extended visit with relatives in Seattle and resumed duty on second Sumatra, relieving Bro. H. J. Thompson, who bumped Claude Mitchell, Heritage nights, until that trick was pulled off, and then bumped C. L. Burke, third Calabar; Mr. Burke assigned ninety days' vacancy on second Baker.

Bro. C. H. Burnworth, assistant general chairman, after some time spent in lining up the Puget Sound Lines, attended a meeting of the Milwaukee sub-committee in Chicago. Sister Burnworth handled the agency at Ingomar during his absence, with Bro. Heise on second and Bro. Leo Thiel on third.

Bros. Wells, Wallace and O'Brien pulled out of the relay office on account of reduction in force. Bro. Wallace assigned second Miles City yard, but is working for the Western Union in Miles City temporarily, with Bro. O’Brien filling in at the yard, bumping Bro. J. H. Jesser.

Bro. J. P. Kennedy assigned Kinsey agency and E. J. Miller assigned Mildred agency. Two nons at Mildred now—only ones on the east sub-division.

The following brothers took their vacations during the holidays and went home to eat turkey: Bro. W. F. Corcoran, Bascom days, relieved by Bro. W. A. Aasve; Bro. Dorner second Terry, relieved by Bro. Richards, and Bro. W. E. Berger, third Ismay, relieved by Claude Mitchell.

Understand the relay office at Miles City is to be pulled off entirely. This will do away with Wire Chiefs Doherty and Maille. Pretty hard on these brothers as it will be necessary for them to take an “OS” job at quite a reduction in salary or get out of the service altogether. One dispatcher also pulled off in Miles City office. The unlucky man being P. G. Kearney. Dispatchers T. E. Corbett and A. O. Veitch, first and second tricks on west end, working through three hours each. C. C. Johnson, first east end, working a lap trick, and A. C. Kolibaese, third west end, with M. G. Pence, third east end. J. C. Anderson, extra dispatcher, is back on the side table job. Jack, while working as extra dispatcher, became well acquainted with all of the operators and is now doing his best to see that each of us get a square deal. Right at the time of reductions he handled some pretty complicated deals and followed the schedule as near as he consistently could thereby saving much of the confusion and dissatisfaction among the operators which had previously existed in that office.

Cert. 2446.

H. & D. Division—

Mrs. W. J. Maloney, wife of Bro. W. J. Maloney, agent Hopkins, died December 16th, after a brief illness. The remains were taken to her old home in Iowa for burial. Bro. Hamilton, who relieved Bro. Maloney, was relieved on first there by Bro. Collins.

Bro. Chas. McReynolds relieved Mr. Fosnco on third double-track switch when he accompanied his brother to Minneapolis for an operation.

Bro. Johnson, third Montevideo dispatcher’s office, on two weeks’ vacation visiting Fargo, Minneapolis, etc., was relieved by Mr. Nelson, from third Montevideo yard, relieved by Mr. Young.

A great reduction in forces, owing to the decrease in business, has been made during the past two or three weeks in all departments. Webster, Bird Island, Renville, Cologne and Hopkins third taken off, and the agents at these stations now have to work a trick. We hope business will soon pick up and the brothers thrown out of work put back again.

Many train crews have also been pulled off, and most of them are now made up entirely of conductors, the younger men having taken vacation until business increases. Trains are handling full tonnage during this nice weather, and the chief dispatchers sit back and smile.

The beginning of the new year is a good time for the nons to start in right by joining the O. R. T. When we look back over the year just passed, and even farther back, and think of the benefits secured for them by the O. R. T., we feel that they as well as we have a great deal to be thankful for. With their help greater and better results can be secured this year. It is certainly to their benefit as well as ours that they become members, and we should get to work in earnest and see that they are made to see this as we do.

Bro. J. P. Walsh is relieving Bro. Churchill at Holmquist, on vacation.

Bro. C. O. Johnson, of third Milan (closed), is now on third Appleton.

Bro. Russell was on second Montevideo yard a few days while Bro. Ronning was sick.

The writer attended a “get together” meeting at Montevideo, but the engineers and firemen seemed to be the only ones having grievances and theirs are so numerous that a telegrapher would die from old age if he waited his turn to voice his grievances at one of these meetings.

Boys, send me any news you may know of. It will be appreciated and we will enjoy the journal so much more with a write-up from our own division.

A good New Year’s resolution is “No card, no favors.” Live up to it and it will increase our membership.

Cert. 1866.

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, It has pleased an all-wise and loving Father to call home the beloved wife of our brother, W. J. Maloney; and

WHEREAS, The years that hurry by,
Each bringing bright or somber scenes,
Each with its joys that can not last,
Of hopes and fears and vanished dreams,
Passing swift to be enrolled
With all the thousands gone before,
To make the total, when 'tis called,
And time shall be declared no more.
Among the sheaves that each shall give
To swell the rich storehouse of heaven,
No sweeter fruit, no brighter flower,
Than her whose life today was given.

Resolved, That while with so much gone
Of life and love, we still live on,
To let her life forever be
The symbol of our charity;
Until in life’s late afternoon,
Where cool and long the shadows grow,
We all must walk to meet the night
That shape and shadow overflow.
We can not feel that thou art far,
Since near at hand the angels are,
And when the heavenly gates unbar,
We'll see her welcome, beckoning hand.
THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER.

And Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions by sent the bereaved brother, a copy spread upon the minutes of Division 23, and a copy mailed The Telegrapher for publication.

River Division—

The new automatic signals were put in service between Hastings and Red Wing at 2 p. m., December 13th, closing Indio and making one-man stations of Eter and Eggleston. Lamolile and Richmond are also one-man stations now.

Bro. Roy Kenyon will do the dispatching at Newport for the next six months. Bro. J. P. Leahy is relieving him at South Minneapolis, and Bro. Cliff Kenyon is relieving Bro. Leahy at signal tower.

Bro. Martin, Lake City, was held up recently and the depot robbed of $90. Robbers are thought to have escaped in motor boat across Lake Pepin to Wisconsin shore.

Bro. Jack Marron, lower yard, was very indignant when he found someone had "balled up" the pay-roll and he did not get any check for November.

Bro. J. F. Sainsbury, who lost out when second Lamolile closed, relieved Bro. Maloney at Wabasha a few nights and then took third at Minnesota City permanently, displacing Mr. Knutson. Chelsea, closed in the reduction craze, was opened again in two days.

Bro. Lakeman, second St. Croix Crossing, has gone to Michigan on two weeks' vacation, relieved by H. J. Ward, from Hastings yard, and he by young Jackaberry, from Frontenac.

Christmas and New Year's past and no signs of snow. Skating and swimming at the same time in St. Paul. Tennis in Minneapolis, and a big baseball game at Lexington Park, St. Paul, December 14th. Not so bad for a Minnesota winter.

Mr. Pickle, at "VD," while helping out in Mr. Sexton's office, was relieved by a brother heavy-weight from "C" office.

Bro. Peterson resumed second Hastings on, December 13th, displacing Mr. Soules, extra.

Bro. Jack Fell resumed second Kellogg, displacing Mr. Winters. Bro. Jack and his friend made good on their hunting trip up North, bagging two good-sized deer and the largest moose shot this season. When we said that Jack was a crack shot with that new gun we were giving it to you straight. We were lucky enough to secure a photo of the boys and their game for the boys to see.

Mr. Winters bumped Mr. Maynard on second Whitman.

Dispatcher Harry Vogel, on six months' vacation, is being relieved by Bro. Harry Peed, from Newport.

C. & C. B. in Iowa Division—

Bro. P. H. Curran, agent Portsmouth, who laid off recently on account of sickness, relieved by Bro. E. L. Nunn, died November 30th, leaving a wife, three sons, a 12-year-old daughter, a mother, four sisters and two brothers. His son LaVerle is a train dispatcher at Malden, Wash., Walter is a telegrapher at Council Bluffs, and George, the other son, is on a homestead in South Dakota.

E. F. Grossman, one of the east-enders, was assigned to third Elberon.

The new double track has been extended at various points along the line, and many night offices have been abolished.

Rumor has it that a telegraph office is to be installed at the interlocking plant at Elberon by the C. & N. W.

The double track east of Marion is in use from Lost Nation to Marion. Ten work trains still out on account of good weather.

Mr. Stone relieved at Covington nights by Mr. Welch, from Neola.

Bro. Farnham, Council Bluffs yard second, is on a three months' lay-off.

Bro. Parmenter, Brown's second, off a few days, relieved by Mr. Hutchinson.

Bro. M. A. DeVoe, Marion, off on account of sickness, relieved by Bro. Dove.

Mr. Fox, Delmar Jct., off a few days on account of sickness, relieved by Mr. Sorg.

Mr. Leaman now dispatching third track at Marion, vice J. W. Held, moved to Milwaukee with his family.

Bro. N. N. Embree, agent Madrid, while visiting his mother in Ohio, was relieved by Bro. Olson, Council Bluffs yard first.

The interlocking plant has been moved from Martelle to Lost Nation, adding considerable extra work to the force there.

Nellie May, daughter of Bro. N. C. Iles, at Keystone, succeeded in capturing first prize and was awarded a silver cup at the baby show held at that point recently.

Wisconsin Valley Division—

Second Star Lake taken off, Bro. West going back to third Merrill.

Boulder Jct., a new station, opened with M. Obrien, formerly bill clerk at Wausau, as agent.

Bro. W. E. Herman, agent Hazelhurst, on a vacation, was relieved by Bro. Blanchfield, later relieved by Mr. Parker on account of sickness, who also relieved Bro. Sternitzke, second Mosinee, a few days.

Third Tomahawk closed, Bro. Burlington going to Mather as agent.

Bro. Heath, second Merrill, was off a few days on account of his mother undergoing an operation, which, we are glad to hear, was successful, and that she is improving.

Business is rather slack owing to the late fall and no snow so far—something very unusual for this neck of the woods. We are looking for things to be booming in a short time.

CARD OF THANKS.

To the Members of the O. R. T.:

We received such a beautiful floral piece, "The Gates Ajar," from the employees in the station and telegraph department of the Wisconsin Valley Division. Of all the flowers sent they were the loveliest. We do not know how to convey our deep appreciation of them.

Mrs. C. G. Hanover.

Prairie du Chien and Mineral Point Divisions—

Bro. Child has returned to Hanover from a two months' vacation to Portland, Ore., and the Far West, relieved by Bro. Doyle, of Gratiot, who is now relieving Bro. Tegan at Albany, Wis.

The local chairman was especially favored recently with a visit by Bro. Lathrop of Bridgeport, and Bro. Regan, of New Glavis. He wishes more of the brothers would drop in whenever they have a day off.

Bro. Millard and wife, of Lima Center, visited the lady's parents at Orfordville, Sunday, November 23d.

Bro. Wichman and wife, of Stoughton, were in Janesville recently, enroute to Belmont to visit relatives.

Bro. Reisel, agent Lone Rock, has been taking a much needed rest, relieved by Bro. Gunderson, of second trick, and be by Extra Richter, who later relieved Bro. Jaeger, agent Woodman, a few days.

Bro. Thatcher, Eagle third, is a frequent visitor at McFarland.

Train Dispatcher E. M. Dousman, Milu, was relieved on second trick a week by Extra Dispatcher G. S. Davy.

Bro. Chas. Neuman relieved Bro. Shore on third Lone Rock while he relieved Agent Hubbard at Richland Center.

It will soon be Bro. Orth, second Stoughton.

Only one non now on Mineral Point Division. Let us get him and make it solid. There are still a few nons on the Prairie du Chien whom we should induce to come across in order that we may get good results.

The hours at Janesville have been changed. First trick, 6 a.m. to 3 p.m.; second trick, 3 p.m. to 12 midnight; third trick, 9 p.m. to 6 a.m., in order that the latter could be in lower yards from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight to handle the stock trains. Bro. Fish is on second Janesville pending bulletin.

Bro. Sekhart, second Madison, away for the holidays, was relieved by Extra Merster.

Bro. Hitchcock, McFarland second, relieved Mr. Allen on first while Extra Bro. McDonald did the second trick act.

Traffic was blocked several days on the Richland Center Line on account of No. 66 derailing eight cars about one mile west of Gotham. Derrick from Milwaukee and Madison cleared the debris.

DIV. COR.

Missouri Pacific Ry.

Central Kansas Division—

It has been six months since this division had a write-up in The Telegrapher. The writer has been exiled in the wilds of Colorado for several months and is not familiar with all the changes, but believes that a little news is better than nothing at all.

Those lucky enough to get vacations were: Neale at "CG," going to the coast; Lemer at "GO," to Pueblo, Kansas City and Omaha, and Ramsey at "MO," to Geneseo.

There are two new faces in "JN," Schaffer transferring to McGee, Ark., and Williams laying off, also some changes in the dispatcher's office.

Bro. Johnny Sorrels, agent Hope, is still on the sick list and improving very slowly. Bro. J. M. Johnson, of Geneseo, is also on the sick list.

There is a new man there on second.

Bro. Boolinger at Osage City is as snug as a bug in a rug in that new depot.

Hade a nice visit with Local Chairman Neale recently, who reports everything running smoothly, everybody happy and business good.

Our old friend, "Mr. Bond," has been pretty busy on the division the past year. It makes little difference how long you have been in the service or how good the service rendered has been, if some time in the past twenty years you have done something that was not just right "Mr. Bond" is right on the job, causing a loss of time, worries for our officers and trouble for the employers. When an employee has been unjustly discharged he is certainly within his rights if he asks, for an adjustment. That is why we are organized and want justice done. But when the party knows that there is no merit to his case and that he was at fault he is only wasting his time and embarrassing the chairman who handles his case. And no good can come of it.

Some of the good brothers on the Rock Island have evidently crossed their wires in regard to the $95.00 minimum on the Rio Grande. There may be several jobs there that pay $95.00, but don't go to Colorado expecting to get such wages. The Rio Grande is hiring men all the time both in Denver and Pueblo, and such would not be the case if this minimum were in effect.

The division is in good shape, but there are still a few outside the fold. There is no excuse for being a non under present conditions, and if each member will do a little missionary work we can soon get this division solid. The nons are not all new men either, there are still a few old heads among them.

The parcel post is a great thing, but it is not safe to mention it to an agent at all.

Any one on the division having any notes for The Telegrapher kindly send them to Bro. Neale at Council Grove and he will forward them to me. It is hard to get notes from the east end. Some one there please send them in.

Next month we will be in closer touch with happenings on the division and can give a better write-up.

"GI," Cert. 2309.

St. Louis, Iron Mountain & Southern Ry.

Valley Division—

It is a mighty difficult task to get all the news on this division as I was but recently appointed correspondent by the local chairman and I am a new man on the road, so I am not well acquainted with the members and their happenings. If the boys will just drop me a line of just any old thing they know I will gladly appreciate the kindness.

Bro. H. H. Bryan has returned from the Rock Island and resumed as telegrapher at Dermott, the heaviest ticket job on the tire. Bro. Hale, from the D. & R. G., bid in second there, and Bro. Pierce is back on third again.

On account of the heavy cotton business, also a late crop, box cars are in demand, and many of the agents are robbing the big long drags for a few to supply their needs.

A cotton clerk has been given to the agent at Parkdale this season, as well as many other places.

Bro. E. J. Stuttsman, from Memphis, formerly with the Soo Line at Superior, Wis., is relieving Mr. Dunham at Higgins.

Bro. T. C. Clover, second Portland, while off a few days was relieved by A. J. Fern, of East St. Louis, and Bro. T. A. Carson, first Portland, off thirty days, was relieved by Bro. Bryan.

Bro. Guse, third Montrose, off fifteen days, was relieved by Bro. Watson.

Bro. Barker, agent Montrose; Carson, first Portland, and Culpper, first Bonita, were Monroe visitors Sunday, December 7th. Bro. Carson, while visiting his son there, stumbled and fell, breaking several ribs.

Bro. Barker, agent Montrose, visited the Portland office force December 11th, and secured Mr. Wall as a member.

J. R. Gullala made a trip over the division recently and gave instructions regarding the bulletin boards being posted.

Chief Dispatcher Rogers, on a month's vacation, was relieved by Dispatcher Lamb, relieved by Bro. Cunningham, of Argenta.

Mail the proper amount for your dues and your M. B. D. assessments at once and get your new card; also see that your neighbor or the man working with you pays up and save the officers unnecessary work by prompt payment. Remaining up to date is necessary for the protection of our loved ones and ourselves.

Southwestern Division—

I am indeed glad to get a few items from the west end, and hope to be more successful in securing a more extensive write-up for the next issue. I wish to thank Bros. D. W. Lowe and J. R. Jones for the assistance rendered.

Bro. N. D. Pritchett, first Snyder, who has been confined to his bed for more than a month with typhoid fever, we are glad to learn, is steadily recovering, and hope he will soon be able to resume his regular duties. He is being relieved by Bro. D. W. Lowe, relieved by Bro. Cavin on second Snyder, who later returned to third Lawton, relieved by Bro. Spencer.

Bro. R. M. Page, on three weeks' vacation at his old home in Dickson, Tenn., was relieved by Bro. F. Shartell.

Bro. Floyd Tolleson has returned to Bristow first from a pleasant vacation to the Southeast.

Bro. C. F. Lewis bid in Kellyville agency, relieved by Bro. E. Hefner on second Catosa on bid, and he on third there on bid by Bro. E. G. Sheldear, from the extra list.

Bro. Wallace Morgan has resumed duty on third White Oak after a short and pleasant vacation.

Bro. Paris, phonie at Verdigris, is now in the B. and E. department. We all wish him success.

Bro. C. L. Hougham, who relieved at Granby and third Peirce City, is now at Seneca, relieving Bro. W. G. Mullens, relieving Bro. Delaplaine, agent Ritchey, taking in the sights at Kansas City.

Maurice Mullens, relieving at Seneca, has resigned to go to school.
Bro. C. B. Dreibels has resumed as agent Seneca, after a pleasant trip in the British Northwest, where our brothers on the Canadian Pacific are enjoying a good schedule, being 100 per cent strong, comprising the dispatchers, agents, telegraphers, telephoners and linemen, with a minimum of $80, and Sunday overtime based on the pro rata salary received per month—the $80 at twenty-six working days per month equaling $3.08 per day; overtime based on same scale, and a fort-night vacation per year, with compensation, for all employees with three years' service—a schedule worth having. We congratulate our energetic Canadian brothers. The eight and nine-hour law does not affect Canadian telegraphers.

Bids were received recently on two of our most popular agencies—Afton and Vinita—which looks encouraging to our good brothers.

With the beginning of the new year our motto is, "Get one new member," if you can locate a non. They are few and far apart.

I am sorry there are so few mentions of the happenings on the west end, and hope to have a write-up of the entire division in the next issue. I earnestly implore all brothers to send me what items they can pick up. I try to keep in touch with all the happenings, but it is impossible, and all help will not only be appreciated, but esteemed a favor. Just mail 'em to Seneca.

I wish all members would read again, and those who have not would read, the article by our worthy brother, Cert. 238, page 1881, November TELEGRAPHER, entitled "The best investment I ever made." It is true and worthy of mention.

CERT. 1727.

River & Cape Division—

Brothers, we should get together and appoint a correspondent for this division. There are a lot of good men who can handle it, if we would only ask them to do so. Three of the other divisions were represented in the November issue, so let us see if we can't have a few items from this division. We have a pretty good-sized bunch of members, and we should wake up and send in all the items we can to the local chairman, who will see that they are published if you get them to him by the twentieth of the month. Another thing—when you are talking to a non show him that it is to his interest to join, and keep after him until he signs up and gets a card.

Menfro, Barnhart, Crystal City, Puxico, Oran, Benton, Osceola, Bassett and Delta were on bulletin recently, but I am unable to say who bid them in except Menfro and Oran, which were secured by Mr. Young and Mr. Luckman, of Delta and Puxico. We should keep the local chairman advised of all the jobs filled on bulletin, so he can help us get in the non's, who are being benefited by our schedule.

Now, let's all get busy and see that we have a write-up in each month's issue of THE TELEGRAPHER. Talk to the other members along the line about this, and see if we can't arouse more interest in the Order for the good of others, as well as ourselves.

Wheeling Division—

Littleton, W. Va., December 20, 1913.

To All Concerned:

Bro. J. B. Springer having resigned on account of moving to New Martinsville, Bro. H. L. Clelland, P. O. address Kingmont, Va., has been appointed L. B. of A. for the Eastern District, Mannington to Winona, inclusive.

Bro. Springer leaves but one "lonesome" for his successor to work on, which is hard to beat, but Bro. Clelland is equal to the occasion, and says his district must be 100 per cent strong.

Fraternally,

C. L. ALLENDEE, Local Chairman.

Connellsville Division—

R. E. Sanders, agent Markleton, called home on account of the serious illness of his father. We hope for his speedy recovery. He was relieved by H. E. Shade.

C. G. Gundrum, third "HK" tower, is spending two weeks' vacation with parents and friends at Beaver Springs, Pa., relieved by E. T. McMullen, of Division 82.

P. P. Hauger, first Rockwood, accompanied by his wife, visited friends in Pittsburg recently.

E. F. Willis, second Hyndman, while on a three weeks' vacation, was relieved by N. M. Harcleorde.

G. A. McGarry has returned and is doing relief work over the division.

We are glad to hear Chas. Brady back at "HK" tower second, after several weeks' absence on account of sickness.

H. C. Dawson, first Markleton, has resumed duty, after an illness of two weeks with pleurisy.

T. Edwards, second Markleton, is on vacation, relieved by O. G. Getty.

Div. Cox.

New Castle Division—

We would like to see ex-Local Chairman Bro. Purdy at our next meeting.

Uncle Biff proposed to Aunt Sophia and was accepted for better or worse. Will announce date later. Cigars, Uncle.

Mr. Tardoff bid in West Farmington, and it was closed December 15th on account of the closing of lake navigation. Chardon closed latter part of December. Snake Division did the heaviest business this year ever known in the history of the B. & O.

Lots of extra men on hand now.

New Castle Jct. first is up for bid. Hope some good Order man secures it.

Remember our motto.

Our meeting on November 29th was well attended, fourteen being present. Glad to see the boys becoming interested, but we missed Bro. Marshall.

Bro. Sosroney, with the steel gang, was laid off and spent Christmas with his wife and her parents in Jersey State.

Mr. Hennen, who has resumed on second "BD," promises to soon take out a card.
Our local chairman is now in the chicken "biz." His intentions are to break the egg trust.

A telegrapher who can afford to have a horse and buggy should be honorable enough to help the organization that advanced his salary and enabled him to buy them by joining and helping to pay its expenses or be made to understand the meaning of "No card, no favors."

Bro. Green, first "WE," was off several weeks. This division will probably be equipped with automatic blocks shortly.

Akron Jct. is a one-trick office again.

Your correspondents hope that all will live up to their New Year's resolutions, especially "No card, no favors," and each of us strive to give our chief better service.

Make it your business, brothers, to see that your side partners have an up-to-date card, and encourage all extra men to secure one.

Uncle Biff and Fiance.

Baltimore Division—

Bro. E. B. Cunningham and E. E. Bowers now have the relief jobs.

We regret exceedingly the loss of Bro. Jesse Spurrier, of Mt. Airy, a staunch member for many years. His children and friends have our deepest sympathy.

The good work of securing the nonis has been very satisfactory on this division during 1913. Let's begin the new year with renewed zeal and do as well, if not better, during 1914.

Each member should forward his dues promptly and secure a new card at once, and also see that the nonis are encouraged to do likewise and get out of the old rut they have been traveling in so many years.

The best way to show us that they desire to be our friends is to join the O. R. T., and by thus affiliating with us help to upbuild our profession and protect themselves and their loved ones. This should appeal to them as a duty, if presented in the proper light, and they should be urged to take this important step without delay.

Wish you all and your dear loved ones a bright and happy New Year.

Geo. W. Crump, Jr., Cert. 641.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish, through the pages of the Railroad Telegrapher, to thank the members of Division 33, O. R. T., for their kind words of sympathy and beautiful floral offerings at the time of our deep sorrow—the death of our beloved brother, J. Mitchell Hammersla.

His Sister,

Miss Nora B. Hammersla,
North Mountain, W. Va.

Pere Marquette R. R.

Chicago District—

It is with regret that we announce the death on December 15th of Bro. James E. Bowerman, first Michigan City, who has been ill for several weeks. He was laid to rest December 18th by members of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers and the K. of P., of which he was also a member. Those acting as pall bearers for the telegraphers were Bros. F. J. Thrall, of Coloma; L. A. Warren, of New Buffalo, and C. Joslin, of Michigan City.

Bro. Jacob, of Grand Rapids, who had been instructed to forward Bro. Bowerman a bouquet, had a wreath sent instead for the funeral, which was very nice in design. Mrs. Bowerman thanks the boys of Division 39 for their kind remembrance.

Passes were requested by Bro. Jacob for himself and a party of fifteen, to attend the services, through Superintendent Mulhern, and Mr. Gordon's office furnished them promptly and cheerfully.

Bro. Bowerman was at one time local chairman of the Chicago District and also acted as past chief telegrapher in the division room. He had many friends and was always ready to take the stand for his fellow-man.

Bro. Rutz is on first Michigan City pending bulletin. Hart and Sawyer are also pending bulletin, and there are many other changes too numerous to mention, more or less only temporary.

Our committee has been in Detroit several times in the past two months giving the court their evidence in our negotiations for a new schedule, which we hope will soon be forthcoming.

Don't forget that united we stand and divided we fall, so brethren pay up your dues and don't let them linger along.

It is now Bro. E. W. Issacson at Zeeland, Mich., and we trust that the few remaining nons will start the year right by dropping in line.

Csr. 499.

IN MEMORIAM.

Whereas, Our heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom and goodness, has deemed it best to call to the great beyond our esteemed brother, James E. Bowerman, and we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, and

Whereas, We realize that in the death of Bro. Bowerman we have lost a true and loyal brother; therefore, in manifestation of our sorrow and fraternal sympathy, be it

Chesapeake & Ohio Ry.

Indiana Division, C. & O. Lines—

Bro. F. M. Peoples, assistant chairman, was relieved by C. S. Smith, on vacation. He expects to have his district solid Chicago to Jonesboro.

Bro. L. H. Warvel, Beatrice nights, assigned to Fowlerton first, relieved by Mr. Smith.

Dispatchers E. C. Murphy and T. M. Minor relieved by Extra Dispatcher W. R. Eckard.

Bro. M. G. Dancy, resigned, is now in the L. E. & W. dispatcher's office at Peru.

Bro. R. F. McKinley, a new man from Division 151, extra at "DR" tower and third Fernold.

Bro. Hammer, from latter position, assigned to second "DR" tower.

Bro. O. D. Lamm assigned to Brighton third.

L. H. Sullivan bid in Sweetser agency, relieved at Okeana by F. H. Littell, later regularly assigned there.

Mrs. J. J. Wooley bid in second Peoria.

Business is very good at present on account of traffic being diverted to this line from other roads diverging from Cincinnati account of yard congestion. Several second and third tricks put on and Medford or Henry may be made a three-trick job.

Bro. J. F. Burke is at Bath agency pending its assignment.

The Grand Trunk boys received a good increase in pay by the efforts of the members. We had better get "25" or we will shortly be the lowest paid telegraphers in this territory. Let us pay up our dues promptly. Get in the nons and back up our committee to the finish.

G. L. FRED, Div. Cor.

Erie R. R.

Cincinnati Division—

It is with deep regret that we chronicle the death of two of our most devoted members, Bro. I. H. Lutz, of Ashland, Ohio, and Bro. F. L. Lary, of Broadway, Ohio, both of whom passed away on the morning of December 19th. Bro. Lutz had been sick for some time, but it was not thought serious until he took a sudden turn for the worse. Bro. Lutz was a good worker and it was the height of his ambition to see the Order prosper. Bro. Lary, who was sick but one day, was a firm believer in organization and always ready to do his share of the work. His three sons are all knights of the key and he was proud to know that all-three were good union men. What is our loss is heaven's gain. Bro. Lary worked over thirty-nine years for the Erie, being sixty-one years of age. He had many friends on the road and in the community in which he lived.

CERT. 20.

IN MEMORIAM.

Whereas, It has pleased Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom, to call home our beloved brother, F. L. Lacy, and

Whereas, Fully realizing our great loss, we feel unable to express in words our heartfelt sympathy; therefore be it

Resolved, That the members of the Cincinnati Division of Erie System, Division 42, humbly submit to the power over which we have no control, and extend to Mrs. Lary and three sons, Bros. Clyde, Clare and Cecil, our sincere sympathy, and be it further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to Mrs. Lary and her three sons, a copy spread on the minutes of the division, and a copy be sent to THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER for publication.

H. L. LIEBHART,

Mahoning Division—

Jones, off account sickness, relieved by Copier Smith.

Miss Emma Fugman visiting relatives at Leavittsburg and Kent, Ohio.

Owens off, relieved by Lacy, second.

W. H. Husted, general chairman, was a recent visitor in Youngstown and Meadville. Several of the boys called on him while in Youngstown.

Local Chairman Fenstermaker ate his Thanksgiving dinner in Newton Falls.

Marshall is in an office by himself now, the general yardmaster's office being too crowded.

"MA" tower closed for winter; this puts Yoder on second at "MX" and Swartz on second at "G."

Bacon is on his honeymoon, visiting points of interest in Detroit and Canada.

Miss Ethel Wilcox was a Cleveland visitor during the holidays.

Carless off, relieved by Weigle, extra.

Daily, off a few days, was relieved by Extra Roberts.

Marvin off sick, telegraph office closed and clerk installed.

The many friends of Dick Noble are glad that he is improving and will soon be back on the job.

C. W. Weimer is now with the Standard Oil Co. at Cleveland.

G. N. Grinn has gone into the chicken business, having recently purchased some blooded stock at a poultry show.

"YO" office is being rewired to comply with the State fire chief's orders.

W. W. Marsh and friend called on friends at Warren, Ohio, recently.

The Erie expects to depress the tracks through the city of Youngstown about the first of the year.
Miss Blanchard, Heckman, and Henry, from "HF" dispatcher's office, visited the Park Theater at Youngstown recently.

H. M. Detrick was married Thanksgiving day. Congratulations.

Third "JU" closed several times lately on account of the shortage of operators.

Understand that the automatic block signals will be working between Leavittsburg and Pymatuning about the middle of January. This will probably close a few towers and start the bumping process.

Sharon freight office closed as a telegraph office, Detrick going to "SQ" first and Buck Riley to second "WH." — "Bill Sykes."

New York Division—

Bro. Sweeney is back on second 44 "JY," and Bro. Nat McGrady is back at "SJ."

Bro. Clifford, of Tuxedo, is now at Arden feeding Mrs. Harriman's bears.

If we had the actual financial support of the unions instead of their doubtful moral support, results would be vastly different when our committee goes in. A "moral" coward is in many respects worse than a "physical" coward.

Mr. Riely bid in second "GB." Paisy and the sheriff should get busy on him now, so we can call him brother.

Bro. Roach back again, and is covering third "JD," until advertised.

There is a new man on third "MQ"; no excuse for him not hearing the gospel with two brothers there. We should all try to make this division solid. A little co-operation on the part of everyone, "one new member a piece," talk organization whenever the opportunity presents itself, and the gain will more than repay us for the efforts we make.

Bro. W. A. McNamara bid in third "NJ," and Bro. Albert Stevens third "JD."

Bro. McGrady was relieved while absent by C. F. Barley, on second "SJ."

Bro. Pittkey, third "SJ," off a few days, was relieved by Mr. Noonan.

Several new members taken in during December and several asking for application blanks. Looks as if we are going to start the new year right. Keep the good work going, brothers.

Bro. Lorden is back again after a siege with asthma. He was relieved by Bro. A. A. Donnelly.

Any member who has not secured a book of the new schedule write Bro. Coleman and get one.

Dispatcher Smith was recently disqualified as a train dispatcher. If he, as well as some others, had remained in the Order, our committee could have taken up their cases and adjusted them. Such treatment should awaken them to the fact that they need the protection of the Order at least as long as they remain in the business.

The regular meeting at Jersey City Monday evening, December 15th, was very well attended and some very interesting business disposed of. This is the place, brothers, to bring your troubles and have them threshed out and put through the proper channels to get results. Some of the boys living right in Jersey City, however, do not attend the meetings, while the boys out on the G. L. and other side lines and from thirty miles out on the main line come regularly and keep posted on what is going on.

The morning and night meeting called for Suffern recently to give the boys west of there a chance to attend, had to be postponed owing to our inability to get a suitable room. Date and time to suit all concerned will be arranged for after New Years, when we hope to have it on a Saturday to get the boys home on Train 51. Watch for the notice and bring all you can with you.

A 90-foot electric turntable is being erected at "SF"; understand when completed the "K4" engines will be put on some of the "SF" locals.

Brothers, if you have any complaints to make of any kind whatever come to the lodge room and make them known and cut out the "hot air" on the outside. There are many matters of moment requiring our earnest attention.

Thanks to the brothers who sent me items. Someone do likewise on the side lines and west of "GB," so we can have a complete line-up each time.

Here's to a happy New Year to all, hoping 1914 will be a banner year and will see us solid New York to Chicago.

Thirteen new members received into Division 43 in November, ten by initiation and three by transfer.

G. H. Palmer, General Secretary and Treasurer.

First District Western Division—

The heavy movement of grain is about over for this year, and a record was established for rapid movement of the largest crop in the history of the Canadian Northwest, and the successful movement of this enormous supply of grain for the world was largely due to the good work of the telegraphers.

Quite a number of changes in dispatching office at Dauphin, Bro. Roberts and Davies securing first and second tricks on branch lines at Edmonton, and Bro. W. G. Robinson and F. Musgrave securing second and third tricks main line at Dauphin. Bro. E. G. Delano still holds the night ticket agency at Dauphin, and may he long remain in that position which he fills so capably and to the great satisfaction of the traveling public.

Bro. L. S. Parkinson, on the relief job, is anxiously waiting for some one to leave a real good station and give him a chance to settle down and enjoy the comforts of home life.

A very happy event, in which a former dispatcher at Dauphin was a leading actor, took place on Christmas day, and I think his plunge into the troubled sea of matrimony will encourage one or two more of his friends in our ranks to make the same jump in the near future. They will all have our very best wishes.

CERT. 52.

W ESTERN DIVISION, SECOND DISTRICT—

We are glad that Bro. Talmey is able to be back at work again, after being off some time on account of getting badly burned.

Bro. Bryce and Hurley are busy raising poultry on their farms.

Bro. Baker, Duck Lake, was off for a few days' rest recently.

Mr. Bedard, Marclun, and our old pal, Armitage at Blaine Lake, are still without a card. Get busy, boys.

It will soon be Bro. Braithwaite at Leask.

There have been so many changes lately that it is hard to keep track of all of them. Several new agencies opened recently.

Bro. Otto Higgins secured second trick dispatcher's position at Saskatoon and Bro. Dineen the relief job. These vacancies were caused by Bro. Hurd stepping into the chief's chair, our late chief having taken the trainmaster's position on Third District.

Bro. Wolf, of Craik, secured Polwarth station, but after looking it over decided not to make the transfer.

Bro. J. D. Healy bid in Hanley station and Bro. Memzies secured Bethune, and Chinook and Cereal Alta agencies and first and second tricks branch line positions at Edmonton, are on bulletin.

The fine weather this fall has helped the empties situation and there will be very little grain to move after this month, with the exception of what the elevators are holding in store, until navigation opens in the spring.

We had a very successful meeting at Saskatoon the last Sunday in November, eighteen being present.

Bro. Hall was the only one who sent me any notes this month. Buck up, boys.

CERT. 111.

W ESTERN DIVISION, THIRD DISTRICT—

We are solid and like to have a good write-up every month, therefore send us your notes not later than the 20th, so we can get them in before the 28th. Call "FD," who will handle them.

Bro. H. Bennett is relieving Bro. Waterfield, agent at Ilay, on a trip East.

Bro. Stephen, a new man from the Penna., at Fort Saskatchewan nights, will transfer to this division; also Bro. Hamilton, Humbolt nights.

Langham days closed, Bro. McArthur going to Chipman agency pending regular appointment, vice Bro. Foss resigned. Good luck to him wherever he may go. He is a good man whom we hated to part with.

Bro. Potts, from the East, relieved Bro. Fizer, Lashburn nights, gone to Paynton agency, vice Bro. Carter, called East on account of sickness.

North Battleford is now, solid, Bro. Shaw first Bethune, from third, recently appointed to second, and Harrington on third pending bulletin, with Bro. Douglas as agent.

Bro. Strong got Big Valley nights and Bro. Given the agency on bid. Bro. Morgan, from Lloydminster, went to Munson days, a new position just opened.

Bro. O'Farrell, second "MO" Edmonton, to Quebec on holidays. Don't know whether "Mike" intends to bring her West or not. Bro. Ashby, agent Red Willow, also on a trip East, relieved by Bro. Laroy.

Bro. Hicks has Card infertility mines agency, a temporary position recently opened.

Mr. Bruce, at Waseca agency pending bulletin, promises to come in soon.

Chipman and Waseca agencies, Big Valley days, third North Battleford and first trick dispatcher branch lines, now open for bids, are first-class positions for some of our good brothers to land.

Bro. Healey, relief agent, on two months' vacation to Ottawa, will likely take in "Lover's Lane" and "Major Hill Park" while in that city.

Bro. Elliott, from "MO" Edmonton, to Vegreville days, Bro. Brenton nights. Mr. Matthews, the agent there, won't listen to reason.

Bro. McConnell, agent Langham, gave a big spread in honor of Bro. McArthur before he left there to relieve the agent at Chipman. Our worthy Bro. Stenson was there with a big speech.

Can now call Agent C. H. Elger, at Edam, brother, which makes Sturgeon River Sub solid.

Understand Bro. Smith, agent Laird, has squared it with his lady friend from Radisson, and that wedding bells will soon ring; also that Bro. Sherman, Radisson days, will also take one of the Radisson girls. Better make it a double wedding, boys.

CERTS. 950 and 986.

D OAPHIN SECTION—

A very enthusiastic meeting was held at Canora on November 23d. There were some very interesting discussions, everyone taking part, showing they were alive to the interests of the O. R. T. There were but few grievances, which the chairman has been requested to take up with the general committee at its next meeting. Bro. McLeod made all the necessary arrangements for the boys at the hotel and for the holding of the meeting and saw that none wanted for anything, not even a cigar. The hospitality shown the boys will be well remembered, and all join in hoping the time will not be long until we can hold another meeting there.

The following members were present: Bros. Brownridge, Cloutier, Jefferys (lineman), O'Farrell, McLeod, Butler, Ross, Murphy, Keays and Vashinder, also E. Kurtz, agent G. T. P., Canora. It was decided that the next meeting would be held at Dauphin in January, date to be announced later.

Did you notice the turnout from Dauphin to the meeting of the O. R. T. at Canora, November 23d? These C. N. R. passenger trains will not wait for anyone, not even the dispatchers.

Some of the O. R. T. boys should be on the stage singing, others should be public speakers, instead of operators.

Bros. T. Davies and G. A. Roberts have gone to Edmonton to take first and second on the branches at that point. Their tricks on the main line at Dauphin filled by Bro. Buchanan, second, and Bro. Musgrave third.

Bro. J. D. Murphy got Bowmans on bid, relieved temporarily by Bro. L. S. Parkinson, who by the way is not married yet.

Bro. McPhedrain, of Ethelbert, who had such a severe attack of rheumatism lately, has, we are glad to say, recovered.

Bro. J. J. Martin and Bro. Hunter are handling the north lines now.

Bro. Craven, from Swan River, is expected to spend Sunday here shortly and his arrival is anxiously awaited at a certain house two blocks south of Main street.

There are a lot of trains moving now owing to the few night offices open. We must stay awake, boys, and give the dispatchers good service, so as to make the best of the facilities we have.

A debating society has been organized among the railway boys at Dauphin, and quite a few heated discussions have already taken place, especially when a certain party forgets his piece and is accused by Bro. Palmer of communicating with the spirit world.

Bros. Eddy and Shepherd were obliged to double a few days recently at "DA," on account of the shortage of men.

Bro. Cloutier, at Kamsack, contemplates a trip to Dauphin at this time during the holidays. This will give the rest of the boys on the line an idea of what the Dauphin girls are like. By the time this meets your eye Bro. G. A. Roberts will have been here all the way from Edmonton and captured one of them, and we understand Bro. Hunter lost his heart to the girl in the bake shop at Swan River the time of the meeting up there.

If any of the brothers happen to pass either Bros. Buchanan, Palmer or the chief's house and hear any loud talking, they in all likelihood are not abusing their wives, but merely practicing for the weekly debate.

Hope to see you all boys, at the next meeting soon to be held at Dauphin.

F. M., Div. Cor., Cert. 574.
N. Jackson. Mr. Adams is now farming near Paschal, but we hope he will renew his membership while doing relief work.

Sister Lamar is relieving Sister King at Butler for a few weeks.

Bro. Ellis, ticket agent Americus, has resumed work, after spending several days in New York.

We regret to learn that Bro. Harden, agent Ogletorpe, is away on account of sickness.

Bro. Morris, of Brownwood, made a flying business trip to Macon recently.

Bro. Slappy and Anderson, of Albany, were on the sick list recently, and Bro. Vestal is visiting relatives in Mobile.

The meeting held in Macon recently was not as well attended as it should have been. However, those present had a very enjoyable time, and a good deal of business was gone over. Nearly 400 notices were mailed, but when the meeting was called to order there were less than 30 present.

Another general meeting will be held there in January. Matters of importance to all will be discussed, and all that can possibly do so should attend.

There are several nons left on this division that we will have to carry over to the new year. I wish space would permit the excuses furnished by one of these men in the last twelve months. All of us would lean back and laugh. At the same time we wonder how men with the brass and nerve they possess manage to be contented with a small railroad job.

M. M. Gilbert, second Terra Cotta, has not had a card for several terms. However, we hope he will begin the new year up to date. I hope to be able to print the names of the three or four remaining nons in next month's Telegrapher as members.

DIV. COR.

Denver & Rio Grande R. R.

Green River Division East—

Mr. Stone, helper second, has gone back to Arkansas, relieved by Mr. Moore, from Green River, who will be with us next month.

Mr. Knox, from the S. P., is the new man on third Price.

Bro. Brown, second trick dispatcher, has returned to Green River second, vice Mr. Moore.

Bro. Johnson, Mounds; Bro. Severson, Westwater, and Bro. Wilson, Woodside, are all on vacation for the holidays.

New men at Woodside, Mounds and Price.

Mr. Imhoff back to third Fruita, vice Martin on second, Thompsons and Cunningham on third.

Bro. Cantley resigned; gone back to Denver.

Bro. Blyth on agency Westwater during Severson's absence.

Mr. Grubbs, Fruita, bid in Sunnyside cashiership, vice Mr. Norgard, resigned.

Lots of "boomer" operators passing over the division now. There doesn't seem to be a very great demand for them West the last few months. Better hold that little job of yours, boys.

Wish you all a happy new year.

"O."

Southern Pacific R. R.

O. R. T. Headquarters,
Southern Pacific Division No. 53.
Hotel Argonaut.
San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 2, 1913.

All the local chairmen, correspondents and members who were thoughtful and kind enough to contribute toward a write-up in the November Telegrapher, that old Southern Pacific Division No. 53 might be properly represented, are surely to be praised and congratulated.

Boys, I surely want you to know that I am exceedingly proud of you. I have gone through the November number carefully, and, throwing all prejudice aside, I find that no division has excelled or outranked the old S. P. boys in the extent of their write-ups or in the excellency of their work. However, I regret that four districts out of fifteen were not represented, but I feel confident that the boys on these districts will take new interest in their work; that the splendid work of the boys on other parts of the system will be a stimulus to them, and that they will see to it that no part of the old Southern Pacific, from Portland and Ogden to New Orleans, will be without proper representation in the official journal in the future.

There are many of you who deserve particular mention for the splendid work you have done, but, for want of space, I shall withhold personal or individual compliment, knowing that those who lend themselves so unselfishly to the work of humanity are well content in the satisfaction of knowing that they have done their best without money, without price, and without the hope of material reward.

Since being advanced from local chairman of the Coast Division to general chairman, at the resignation of Bro. Lester last January, this is the first opportunity I have had to speak to you through the pages of our Telegrapher, while you have received a number of circulars from me in that time.

With the splendid assistance of Bro. E. J. Manion, fifth vice-president, your general committee was enabled, after many weeks of negotiation, to secure for you a splendid working agreement, with shorter hours and a handsome increase in wages, and it goes without saying that you will now do all possible to render good and faithful service to the Southern Pacific Company and to assist your local committee in rounding up the non-members, helping to impress upon them the importance of thorough organization and unselfish loyalty to the members of their craft.

It should be our endeavor to make the O. R. T. on the S. P. not only the strongest labor union in the railroad world, but also one of the staunchest fraternal orders in the world. Fraternity should mean as much to us as to any other organization with "fraternity" engraved upon its banners.

I am very proud to bear membership in three other fraternal orders as good as the best, but none can take precedence over the O. R. T., which has meant so much to myself and family in shorter hours at work and more time to spend at home and also more money to enjoy spending together. I will close with my heartiest good wishes to all.

Fraternally,

JNO. E. COWGILL, General Chairman.

Portland Division—
Now that the new schedules have been distributed all members should familiarize themselves with the rules and working conditions and advise the local chairman of any irregularities which come to their notice.

Remember that the new agreement provides that telegraphers will make and forward two copies of all bids for positions, one copy to be returned to the applicant as an acknowledgment. Overtime slips should be sent in promptly for all overtime worked, and if rejected should be referred to your local chairman. Have had several complaints recently where overtime was rejected on account of telegraphers not notifying the train dispatcher so that it could be shown on train sheet. While our agreement provides that we shall be paid for all overtime worked, yet telegraphers should be very careful to comply with instructions issued from the superintendent's office or they are subjected to discipline.

We now have one of the best schedules in the United States and should show our appreciation by giving the company good service and also remain loyal to the Order which has secured these better working conditions.

It is now time to pay dues for term ending June 30, 1914, and I hope that all members will pay up promptly. Get your card early and always carry an up-to-date.

We have a few nons and delinquents left on this division who should now do the right thing. There is no reasonable excuse for staying out, now that their conditions have been so materially bettered by the new agreement.

I would appreciate it if all members would assist me in lining up the few nons and delinquents. If a new man comes to the division find out if he is a member, get his certificate and division number and date paid to and send to me so that we can transfer him to Division 53. If a non-member does not let up until you have landed him, advising me so that you may be furnished with the necessary papers. Let us keep active and alive to our interests now that we have a good schedule.

Any brother on the Los Angeles, Coast or Western Division desiring to exchange rights and positions to the Portland Division should write Bro. R. Hickman, Wolf Creek, Oregon.

Bro. V. N. Fields is on vacation visiting friends in Ohio.

Bro. A. Bruncker, our steady bug man, nights at Grant's Pass, is on vacation to Kansas, and it is understood that he is to bring a lady back to Sunny Rogue, River Valley.

E. D. Woodburg, chief clerk in the superintendent's office, is visiting his folks in Georgia.

Traveling Auditor W. A. Harrison has been transferred to California, so the boys will not be looking for him to jump off the train and grab their cash drawer.

Bro. E. A. Miller, of West Fork, got him a cook, but could not find a place to live, so he bid in third Junction City. Seems as if everybody is doing it nowadays. The brothers must be taking advantage of the new schedule.

W. A. Perison, of "KC," has gone East on account of his folks' sickness. It may be some months before he returns; relieved by a man who signs "D" and can certainly handle the business.

Five Sundays and a holiday in November made it look very good for our checks. The committee certainly did some good work and should be congratulated.

Those who have not paid their special assessments should do so at once.

A. S. Rosenbaum, agent Medford, was on the sick list for three weeks. Bro. A. F. Noth, of Medford, was called to Wisconsin for three weeks on account of his mother being sick, relieved by Bro. G. M. Leslie on the ticket job, and he by Mr. Darrow, from California.

It is now Bro. O. C. Purkeypile.

Bro. J. F. Knox, from Hillsboro, who relieved Bro. P. A. Nelson when he bid in Carlton, later went to Timber on bid, which has been abolished, and he is now relieving Bro. Henning at Woodburn.

The Giants and White Sox played ball in Medford November 17th in the rain. Bro. Noth had a grand stand seat.

W. W. Harvey, the P. F. E. man, is now traveling out of Portland. The boys regret his leaving, as he can furnish P. F. E's when nobody else can.

Thanks to Bro. G. M. Leslie for news this month. Would be glad to have items from different parts of the Division. With the assistance of the members we can have a good write-up each month.

T. M. Boyd, L. C.

Western Division—

Had the pleasure of attending a very interesting meeting at San Jose the ninth and was disappointed that only four Western and three "BD" San Francisco members were present, owing to the poor train service out of San Jose, making it hard for the boys to get back that night.

Many interesting and entertaining talks made by the boys that did turn out, and we all enjoyed ourselves. Our worthy local chairman, Bro. Ward, acted as chairman and did the honors in fine shape, and General Chairman Cowgill and General Secretary and Treasurer Koppikus gave us fine talks. Quite a number of sisters and ladies were there and enjoyed the meeting very much.

Hope we can hold a meeting in San Francisco or Oakland soon, as the boys can get into S. F. and get home that same night.

When the applications promised for the January pay day materialize our percentage on the Western will be at least 90 per cent. Still a few are getting the benefits secured for them by the organization and should do their part by getting a card. Members on the line working with them can do a great deal by personal talks and letters to those at other stations. The cost is small for a few letters and the increases in our splendid schedule should make each one of us an enthusiastic booster for more members. The man on Niles, who was given an increase of over fifteen dollars a month, secured by the Order for him, has not yet made good his promise to me in September to join. The trainmen are taking an interest in who are "OK," and we all know what they think of a non. It might be well when these hard cases show up to put the trainmen next and much good might be accomplished, for they get in touch personally with these men. Wish the members on the Niles end would get after this man and see that he gets a card.

Coley at Napa Jct. still keeps the dollar a month that it would cost him for a card, also the extra pay secured for him. He had an hour taken off his day's work and does not forget to put in the overtime for the holidays added to the schedule to take the half day allowed. The remaining nonmembers on the division are all open to argument, and will no doubt soon send in their papers.

I did not receive a single note from anyone this month, and not in a position to get all the changes. I would like to receive some news from the boys on the line and have some one act as correspondent. Don't forget this is the month to pay your dues and "do it now." The member that keeps putting it off until he becomes delinquent is not as good an Order man as he should be, and is what makes our poor showing. Most of the nons belonged at one time but dropped out. Expect more notes next month than I got this time; also more applications.

Local Chairman.

San Joaquin District —

A good, old fashioned meeting was held at the Union Labor Temple, Los Angeles, Saturday evening, December 13, 1913, with about fifty members present, including four members of the Ladies' Auxiliary. General Chairman J. E. Cowgill and wife were present, and Bro. Cowgill opened the meeting by appointing Bro. Steer, of "HU," as chairman, who made us an interesting talk regarding the advisability of holding meetings at least once a month, and put it up to the opinions of the members present. No decision was reached, however, and the subject was held over to be discussed at the next meeting.

Local Chairman Bro. W. E. Blume, of Cameron, and Bro. M. B. McMullen were the only members present from this division. This is to be regretted as there should be more interest taken in these meetings, and there are a number of members located between Mojave and Saugus who, with a little effort, could make arrangements so they could attend each meeting.

There is to be another meeting held in Los Angeles in January and notice will be given all members in ample time for them to secure relief if it is necessary, and we hope to see more members present.

Bro. Gipple, of Saugus, on the sick list for a few days last month, was unable to attend the meeting at Los Angeles.

Bro. W. B. Haines, of Division 49, relieved Bro. L. E. Lehmer as agent Famoso, when transferred to Travers.

The orange season in the valley is over. Nine tricks were closed December 20th, and the extra men are having a rather hard time just now, but it will not be long until the business is normal again.

Bro. C. E. Wilent transferred from Lindsay agency to Ducor agency, relieving D. D. Shepherd, who relieved Bro. L. C. Harmonson at Tranquility.

Bro. N. P. Gidley, manager at Mojave, while off making his Christmas purchases in Los Angeles, was relieved by W. A. Troutman, who promises to be with us soon. Ex-Bro. Andrews also promises to come back this month. We will be glad to welcome him.

One man was cut off at Lang and one at Ravenna recently on account of slack business, partly due to the floods in Texas tying up the roads in that district, causing the business to be routed via Ogden.

Bro. Oneill, of Lindsay, spent the holidays in and about Los Angeles. Bro. J. A. Gamble, switching in the Mojave yard, also spent Christmas week in Los Angeles.

The large silver cup presented to General Chairman Bro. J. E. Cowgill by the members of the San Joaquin Division was displayed at the meeting in Los Angeles, and comments of admiration were heard from everyone. Bro. Cowgill expressed his appreciation of the beautiful gift, and the sentiments of appreciation of the members that accompanied it.

I wish to thank Bros. G. A. Sears, of Bakersfield, and Collins, of Ravenna, for items contributed this month.

Bro. O. D. Day, of Walong, had his place of business cut off from the outside world for a few hours recently, caused by someone cutting the cable from his car.

Bro. P. P. Kendrick is on third Woodford temporarily, awaiting assignment. Our new Bro. Sharp, from Woodford, is now on third Lang.

Bro. Jerome Oneill is still at Lindsay extra.

Bro. D. P. Gibson relieved Bro. P. E. Turner at Tehachapi, who bid in second there. Bro. F. S. Whitson, of Tehachapi, took assignment at Porterville when the change was made.

Bro. J. T. Juve, of La Rose, called East on account of sickness of his father in Arkansas, expects to remain several months.

Bro. Frank Nejedly, on the sick list a few days, is able to work again.
Bro. R. B. Mould, now cashier at Famoso, very seldom goes to Bakersfield Sunday evenings any more.

We have not heard a word for three months from the live brothers in the valley who used to send items for our write-up each month. I can not give the write-up I would like to if I do not get the changes, etc.

Bro. M. Krombeck, of Bakersfield, ate his Thanksgiving dinner with friends at Beaville.

One of the Bakersfield papers states that all the telegraph operators in “K” office are going to purchase motorcycles the first of the year. That is a fast bunch.

Let one of your New Year resolutions be to remit your dues for your card at once.

A new switchboard of the latest type has been installed at Mojave, with Bro. N. P. Gidley as manager. These are improvements long needed there.

Bro. Slagle, from the I. & G. N., is acting agent at Searles on the Jawbone.

G. C. Frederick, on third Caliente, will be with us next pay day.

As a whole, this division can put up a fairly solid front, and new members are coming in almost every day, but there are still a few who have not yet decided to come in. There certainly can be no excuse for anyone now, considering the substantial raise we have obtained. So let us all try to have them start the New Year right.

The brothers of this division presented our general chairman, Bro. J. E. Cowgill, with a loving cup as a token of our appreciation of his successful efforts in our behalf in securing the revision of our schedule. A letter from Bro. Cowgill to the local chairman states that he is going to arrange a meeting at some point on this division in the near future, that he may thank the brothers personally for their kindness.

Members who have items for publication in THE TELEGRAPHER will please mail them to me before the 22d of the month.

M. B. McMullen, Mojave, Cal.

Los Angeles District—

General Chairman Cowgill has appointed me to succeed Bro. Eddie Mulvihill as local chairman of the Los Angeles Division. Bro. Mulvihill has been local chairman for a number of years, but, on account of Wilmington growing to such an important station, he was forced to give up his work and devote his entire time to his duties to the company. He has done splendid work for the Order, and we regret to lose him.

On account of Bro. Reid having so many other interests to look after, and on account of my being located so close to him, he has suggested that I appoint someone on another district to act as committeeman, and I have selected Bro. P. J. Coyle, agent Newhall, in his place.

Bro. C. H. Owens, who has been local secretary for so long, suggested that, on account of his being so far removed from the main line, that I appoint someone in his place. Therefore, Bro. Paul Walter, third trick El Casco, has succeeded him as local secretary. I regret very much to lose these two good brothers from the committee, as they have been in the game for a long time, and have certainly rendered valuable service for the Order. Bros. Walter and Coyle have had a great amount of experience along these lines, and I am sure we will have a very pleasant administration together.

I ask every member to appoint himself a committee of one to help out in organization work, also to keep me advised of anything not in accordance with our agreement, and under no circumstances violate it yourself.

Now is the time to resolve to do better, while the stimulating effects of our recent increase is being enjoyed. Let us show that we appreciate it by giving the company the best there is in us, leading them to more highly value the class of service we perform. Our troubles are usually the result of inattention and neglect, brought about by the failure to secure the required amount of sleep while off duty, or a lack of interest, or inattention to duty.

Be sure to render all bids in duplicate, so one copy can be returned as a receipt.

During the past two years entreaty has been made to every telegrapher on the Los Angeles Division to become a member of our organization, but, unfortunately for all concerned, there were enough non-members to prevent a genuine success from taking place for the benefit of the telegrapher and station agent combining positions, in which the greatest amount of intelligence is required in the performance of their duties. Have you ever drawn a Sunday overtime and increase in wages, work shorter hours, and enjoy numerous other concessions and never contribute to such an organization as this? We must make a clean sweep and get every desirable non into the Order. Write letters, and every chance you get speak to them about it; show them the benefits they are enjoying, and ask what they have done to bring about these benefits.

I wish to find a good, live member to act as local correspondent—one who is centrally located or on the extra list. I will do all I can to assist him. Anyone knowing such a member, please advise me.

I respectfully call your attention to the following extracts from our agreement. Please read and study them, and if you do not understand, write me, and I will endeavor to explain their meaning: Article 4, sections (b) and (c); article 5 in its entirety; all of article 9; article 10, section (b); article 21, sections (b), (e) and (f).

There was a very enthusiastic meeting held in Los Angeles, December 12th. Unfortunately, I was not located so I could attend, and the minutes of same have not yet reached me, so I cannot give a very intelligent account of it; but I understand there was not a vacant seat in the hall. The ladies were invited, and all had a very pleasant time, as well as a profitable meeting. I only wish we could have more of these meetings, as they are the life of an organization.

The recent changes of which I am advised are: Bro. W. A. Post from Oxnard to San Bernard-

The result of the vote on merging the H. & T. C., the H. E. & W. T. with Division 53 was almost unanimous in favor of it.

Bro. Cowgill and the reduced general committee of the Sunset Central Lines are now in session in Houston, Tex., preparing a schedule to present to the officials of those lines.

A special election will be called within the next two months to elect a permanent local chairman for this division to fill the unexpired term of Bro. Mulvihill. In the meantime all communications intended for the local chairman should be forwarded to me. A. M. HAMMOND, L. C., Indio, Cal.

Coast Division—

Bro. Werner is the only one who gave me any news this month. Even the cards I sent out were not returned, and it seems to be mostly wasting money to send them. It only takes about a minute of your time to fill in the return portion and mail it, so let's have a good write-up next month. Of course, everyone on the division is more or less acquainted with what's going on, but the boys back East who have been here with us appreciate them.

Business is picking up on account of having more rain around Salinas and south of there during November than for several years. Normal service was resumed on the Coast Division November 5th, the boys all going back to their old places. "Spuds" are going out rapidly from this center of the potato-raising country. Good ones are bringing $2.50 a sack, and fancy ones better prices. The farmers seem to be getting about their share of what's coming to them now, and I suppose they are entitled to it.

Bro. Oakes, Ben Lomond, on vacation, was relieved by Bro. Kenyon, who later relieved Bro. Mabie, of Los Gatos, on a trip to Canada.

Bro. "Bill" Heney, first Gilroy, a "live brother," has gone to the Northwestern Pacific. We wish him success.

Bro. Berry, agent Campbell, on vacation, was relieved by Bro. Kenyon, who also relieved Bro. Harrison, agent Colma, on vacation.

Bro. Chapin, a member of this division since its infancy, now holding a non-schedule position, has been taking a few days off. It is always a treat to meet this veteran brother of the key. Notwithstanding he receives no benefit from the Order, he takes particular pride in keeping an up-to-date card, which should shame any non who has been receiving continual benefits through the instrumentality of the O. R. T.

That staunch old "vet," our local secretary, Bro. Taylor, agent Ocean View, on vacation, was relieved by Bro. Fuller.

Bro. Heistand, Pajaro (Watsonville Jct.), off a few days on account of the illness of his mother, was relieved by Bro. Dan Sullivan, who later relieved Mr. Bell at King City.

Regards and best wishes to all. "HS," Cert. 1538.

Tucson Division—

On December 15th General Chairman Cowgill, on his way to the lines in Texas and Louisiana, stopped over in Tucson for one day. That evening Bros. Cowgill, Stanley, Butler, Lieux and Williams met in Bro. Cowgill's room at the Heidel Hotel to talk over the schedule and some of the phases which affected Tucson "UN" office. The differences were all straightened out by Bro. Cowgill calling on the superintendent and coming to an understanding on the questions involved. Several of the boys from on the line wanted to get in, so we could have a larger meeting, but, owing to the way trains are on our new time-card, they were unable to do so. Mrs. Cowgill and Mrs. Butler were also present.

An intoxicated passenger, put off the train at Sibyl for refusing to pay his fare, began throwing rocks at the train, when E. M. Joyce, the agent, forced him into his office and held him until a special officer went after him.

E. J. Tilley, first Deming, relieved by Stevens from third, vice Mr. Wheeler, while Mr. Tilley was called to Texas on account of the illness of his wife.

H. F. Albert, from Lanark, relieved E. M. Joyce, second trick Willcox. Joyce goes to Tucson.

L. L. Angerson, relieved by W. T. Brinley, first Lordsburg, to Tucson, makes seventh man, on account of the heavy business caused by the strike.

O. M. Shreve, first Maricopa, on sick leave, relieved by L. L. Anderson, from Tucson.

An attempt was made to rob the Tucson ticket office by a masked robber November 20th, about 1 a.m., but Thomas Dempsey, night ticket agent, when ordered to "deliver all the money," jumped behind the safe and called for help, scaring the would-be robber away.

Charles H. Eva, "UN," assigned dispatcher's trick in "DS" Tucson, vice Mr. Howard. Mr. Foster relieved Mason, who relieved Fuller. Mr. Cassidy on day chief and Fuller on night chief on account of Mr. Wilson in Los Angeles stringing time-card 74.

Mr. Arntzen, a new man, relieved H. F. Albert, second Willcox, whose father is seriously ill.

L. J. Lieux, second wire chief "UN," relieved C. E. Taylor, days, who goes to San Francisco to start a course in the Harriman Practical School of Railroading. Lieux relieved by B. W. Doyle, from Patagonia.

Jesse C. Long, first Benson, relieved by A. M. Meacham, from third Benson, while spending the holidays at his home in Nebraska. Meacham relieved by Kochman, from Mescal.

G. E. Wilson, Red Rock; B. D. Mahoney, Jaynes; W. E. Hettinger, Esmond; O. L. Spaulding, Mescal, were recent Tucson visitors.

J. W. Christian, first Willcox, relieved by C. E. Welsh, from Simon, on vacation. Mr. Bostick, third Willcox, promises to line up this month.

F. V. King, "CY" Yuma, was going out of the business, but, having just received an increase of $13.75 a month, has changed his mind. We should see now that he gets a card.

W. H. Johnson, from Willcox, relieved second Simon, vice C. E. Welsh.

B. W. Doyle, from Lordsburg, relieved by Anderson, was in Tucson taking examinations. Doyle to Patagonia to relieve Agent Stone.

E. M. Joyce, from Willcox, relieved M. J. Kochman, Sibyl. Kochman to assignment, third Mescal.

M. J. Kochman, assigned third Mescal, bumps J. H. Cloonan, who relieved I. F. O'Malley, second Aztec, who opens new third there.

A. C. Duffy, returning from vacation, relieved W. E. Hettinger at Vail, who returned to Esmond, relieving O. L. Spaulding, who goes to Mescal to relieve Kochman.

Three new members received on the division during November. It is now Bro. B. E. Acre.

DIV. COR.

G. H. & S. A. R. R., El Paso Division—

Assignments: Marathon agency, R. E. Petross; Marathon third, N. Cheek; Marfa second, G. W. Haas; El Paso ninth, Graves; El Paso tenth, Kelton; El Paso eleventh, Williams.

Vacancies: Ft. Hancock agency and third trick, Marfa third, Valentine second and Sanderson second and fourth.

Bro. E. A. Joyce, who has been in the hospital Dieu, in El Paso, for the last two months, is improving rapidly and expects soon to be out.

Bro. G. J. Schuyder is now in business in Valentine.

Bro. J. A. Skipper is relieving at Marathon agency, and Bro. H. G. Fuller is on Marfa third pending bulletin.

Mr. Young, of New York, is relieving Bro. Lee at Finlay for a couple of weeks. He carries an up-to-date with the Commercial, and we expect to have him with us next half.

Bro. S. G. Gould, agent at Alpine, has been given a cashier at $75 per month. Bro. A. G. Ragon, for a number of years on first Alpine, is now on first K. C. M. & O. at Alpine. The Western Union is installing an up-town office at Alpine. This will relieve the boys at "MY" of quite a bit of telegraph work.

Our good-natured dispatcher, R. E. P., who bid in Marathon agency, has about decided to stay where he is as dispatcher. While the Marathon bunch would be glad to welcome him as agent, all the boys on the line would rather see him stay at "CB."

Bro. Bush, having to get up early to build a fire recently, jumped from his bed and stepped on a needle sticking up in a rug. What took place a little later is a secret. By giving the crippled peg right-of-way, he is now able to run on time.

Mr. Cleaver at Ft. Hancock is preparing for agency work. Agent McDaniel gave him some lessons in billing live stock, and Agent Davidson showed him how to deliver express.

Bro. Bacon, from Sanderson, hunting at Longfellow recently, wounded two large bucks, but failed to get either of them. Bro. Spencer, of Tesnus, was off hunting bear last month.

Bro. Parker, of Longfellow, while on a trip to El Paso, was relieved by Mr. Leavitt, brother-in-law of Bro. Broyles.

Bro. Lee, of Finlay, who has the nicest bunch of high-grade chickens on the line, is laying off for thirty days.

Bro. Murphy, of Clint, had his house robbed one night recently, losing quite an amount of clothing and jewelry. We sympathize with him, but suppose that guy had robbed one of us fellows that only have one suit of clothes.

Ft. Hancock is again begging for an agent, the last two walked out waiting for relief.
Bro. Sorsby, at Tercer, can come nearer giving you an "OS" from all the blind sidings near by than some of the boys can from their own stations.

Bro. D. N. Scott, who killed the only deer in that vicinity this season, was so big hearted that he divided it with the office force, and all the neighborhood. We understand that mighty nimrod, Bro. Cheek, is trapping the "dear" around "RN." We hope he may be as successful as Bro. Scott.

Bro. T. W. Brown and L. L. Lyles were target practicing recently on the river near Langtry. Some rebel soldiers encamped near there in Mexico, hearing the cannonading from Bro. Brown's automatic, thought the Federal advance guard was upon them, but before they could advance to meet the supposed attack our brothers became aware of the disturbance they had caused by their innocent amusement, and Bro. Lyles, remembering an engagement at his office, ordered an immediate retreat.

Bro. Starns, our local chairman and member of the reduced general committee, expects to join the latter soon and meet the general manager to revise the Atlantic System schedule of Division 53. We are hoping for many benefits from this revision and Bro. Starns believes that, with the cooperation of the boys, we will have no trouble in coming to terms. We should enjoy the same working conditions our brothers on the many eastern roads are enjoying, such as two weeks' vacation each year with pay and a substantial increase in proportion to the increased cost of living since the revision of our last schedule. In union there is strength. Every man uphold the committee and give it your support.

Bro. John E. Cowgill, general chairman of Division 53, passed through recently, enroute to Houston from San Francisco, where he has just completed revising the schedule of the Pacific System. Bro. Cowgill was accompanied by his family, and will start with his work on the Atlantic System as soon as they are settled in Houston.

Bro. T. W. Glover is getting to be the "Beau Brummell" of Comstock. He played a leading part at a grand ball given there recently.

Thanks to the several brothers who sent in their items this month.

G. W. Haas,
Local Cor.

G. H. & S. A. Ry., Houston District—

Continued heavy rains over the entire division washed away approaches to bridge over Plum Creek, near Luling, and over the Colorado River at Columbus, with great loss of property to the citizens of Columbus; the Brazos River at Richmond was spread out over a distance of twelve miles; the entire track from Rosenberg to Sugarland was under water from one to six and eight feet deep, causing heavy damage to track as well as to the citizens of Sugarland, Richmond and the bottom lands; no mail service between Luling and Rosenberg for four days, only a passenger each way being run between San Antonio and Rosenberg; no service through to Houston, was the conditions during the recent Texas flood troubles. The Glidden-LaGrange branch was also out of service about thirty days.

Chief Dispatcher Bednarik, while assisting in the rescue work at Richmond during the flood, was suddenly taken seriously ill with pneumonia and rushed to the San Antonio Sanatorium. We wish him a speedy recovery.

Third Seguin, Schuulenburg and Eagle Lake and Waelder nights closed December 10th, due to very light business owing to recent floods.

Bro. Rothe is acting dispatcher during Mr. Bednarik's absence; Mr. McClure, chief, and Jess Walker, first trick dispatcher.

We are sorry to hear of the death of R. B. Rauling, roadmaster for this division, who was injured when No. 10's engine exploded near Kirby during the strike. Our sympathy goes to his family. It is reported that a guard also on the engine died later of injuries.

Bro. Ney, third east yard, was married December 30th. Congratulations.

Bro. Musselman, second Schuulenburg, has been appointed assistant correspondent. Boys, please send us the news. With a little help from you we can have a larger and better write-up. Please help us out.

We hope all who can will attend the meeting at San Antonio this month. Bro. Cowgill, our general chairman, will be there and it will be an interesting meeting.

CERTS. 2303 AND 2811.

Northern Pacific Ry.

Idaho Division—

All Members: We are face to face with a very serious situation, which has been slowly developing for some time past, although there may be those in our ranks who have not given heed to its import. I refer to the matter of the installation of the automatic block on the main line of this and other divisions, the consequent closing of telegraph positions and the forcing of great numbers of our men out of employment, which is only made possible by the installation of outside telephone booths and utilizing of train-and enginemen for the purpose of taking train orders over the telephone. Within the past two weeks, the second and third tracks have been closed at Cocoolalla and arrangements whereby the trainmen may copy their own orders if stuck at Cocoolalla during the thirteen hours of the day and night when no telegraphers are on duty. Since the installation of the twenty-eight miles of automatic block between Athol and Sand Point about nine months ago, seven positions have been abolished out of a total of fifteen positions previous to that time. Outside telephone booths have been provided for trainmen at Lignite, Alpoma, Cocoolalla and Carcoy, and train- and enginemen are now doing the work for nothing for which the seven telegraphers I mention formerly received approximately $525.00 per month.

It is said that within the next year the automatic block will be extended over the entire main line of this division, and as far as Missoula on the Rocky Mountain Division. Judging the future by the past we are due to lose about fifteen or twenty more positions on this division when the entire main line is equipped with automatic and trainmen's telephone booths, and if the train- and enginemen continue to be as obliging and anxious to get over the road in the future it is entirely possible that the company may be able to do away with more than half of our positions. This situation is one that we must meet and overcome, or it will eventually overcome us.

There are two important points to be taken into consideration in shaping our future course of action with regard to this matter. The first, the legal phase, as to whether the framers of the hours-of-service law, which provides for a thirteen-hour day for telegraphers where but one is employed and a nine-hour day where two or more are employed, intended that the law should be evaded through the process of obliterating telegraphers by using trainmen to do the work, and that the law should become inoperative when train- or enginemen, by process of railway evolution, had entirely supplanted the telegrapher. It is evident to every telegrapher who has paid any attention to the copying of telephone orders by trainmen that it is a dangerous proposition and one that, in the interest of public safety, should not be permitted. If it is dangerous to the traveling public for a telegrapher to remain on duty and handle orders pertaining to the movement of trains, after nine hours of service, how can it be safe for a trainman to copy train orders—something which is outside of his regular line of work—and remain on duty for a period of sixteen hours? Such action might be permissible in the case of an emergency, such as wrecks, snowslides or washouts, but it can hardly be considered an emergency when the company stages the act in advance and dispatchers instruct conductors to call up at certain points and get additional orders, providing their trains are delayed or do not make estimated running time. From a technical point, the process enumerated may not constitute a violation of the telegraphers' hours-of-service law, but they do constitute a moral violation, and if the law is not framed to put a stop to such practices it should be amended to make it possible to do so.

The second point is the obligation of the brotherhoods of train- and enginemen to deal fairly with the telegraphers in the railway field of labor. We are a bona fide labor organization, working under a schedule which was drafted for the protection of our members and the advantage of their interests. We recognize the four brotherhoods having jurisdiction over the train- and enginemen as kindred organizations, and we respect their various schedules, doing nothing that will prove detrimental to their best interests. When, by their actions, as hereinafter set forth, they make it possible for the company to crowd seven of our men out of employment on a 28-mile strip of track, we feel that it is time for us to ask and demand that this piracy of other organizations upon the members of our own be stopped. Taking train orders is not a part of the duty of a train- or engineman and the respective brotherhoods should not tolerate such work, when it is plainly apparent that it is daily crowding more and more of our men out of employment. We have no fear of the telephone and will handle any situation that arises from its use if the men in other departments will keep hands off our work, and when those men are union men—members of other railway brotherhoods—if they can not singly, decline to do this class of work, we should all voice our protests in unison to the President of our Order until representations are made to the Grand Officers of the other Brotherhods that will in the near future promote schedule legislation that will prohibit a train- or engineman taking an order on telephone, except in case of extreme emergency. We do not expect to perform any work outside of our regular duties that would help to throw any train or enginemen out of employment, and, in fact, would decline to do anything of the kind if called upon. We expect the same consideration and respect from the men in those departments, and must insist upon getting it if we expect to be a factor in the railroad operation of the future.

It is rumored that some of the organizations mentioned contemplate asking in their next schedule revision for special remuneration of fifty cents for each order taken on telephone by their men. We have this class of work covered by schedule contract and it would constitute a bad breach of faith, to say the least, for any other railway organization to cut in on our schedule.

Every telegrapher is requested to watch this matter closely and wherever a position is closed and train and enginemen proceed to do the order work by telephone, make a report of same to General Chairman Sam Johnson and to President H. B. Perham, and voice your protest in no uncertain terms.

The time has arrived for us to be up and doing, and if we are forced to fight for our existence, let us begin fighting now so that we may have every advantage that goes with the fellow that lands the first blow. Yours fraternally,

B. E. Nason, L. C.

Idaho Division—

Bro. Williams, second Thompson Falls, on a trip to Spokane, relieved by Bro. Mays.

Bro. and Sister Stevens and Miss Murphy, of Kildee, spending a holiday vacation at Bro. Stevens' old home in Nebraska, relieved by Bros. B. F. Maya and W. T. Garrett and Mr. Vawter. The latter will join if working January 1st.

Bro. Underhill, second Hope, relieved on account of sickness by Non Clarke, who fell down on Govan agency.

Bro. Bailey has resumed at Oden, after an extended vacation, relieved by our new brother, C. A. Markham.

Bro. Davidson, second trick Kootenai, and family, are enjoying a vacation with home folks in the "show me" State, relieved by Bro. Meyers and later by Bro. Holmes.

Bro. Lee is on first Ramsey pending bulletin, and Sister Gephart is temporarily on third there.

Bro. Schneider, second Rathdrum, on vacation in Minnesota, relieved by Bro. Jackewitz.

On December 3rd Engineer "Coyote" Smith, pulling passenger train No. 3, passed several second district offices from two to six minutes ahead of time. This is the engineer who, with a telegrapher, was mixed up in the improper handling of orders, whereby the telegrapher was discharged, but he only drew twenty days because of his "previous good record." He does not belong to the B. of L. E.

Bro. Elver was the only one who sent us notes this month. All the members are urged to send the news to Bro. Nason, not later than the 20th of each month.

New seniority lists will be printed and distributed immediately after the first of the year. If any are overlooked, drop a line to Bro. Nason, and a copy will be supplied. It is expected that the "Union Directory and Year Book" will also be issued shortly after the first of the year, but there may be some delay in getting all of the five organizations lined up with their lists. As soon as printed they will be mailed to all members.

New members since the last write-up are: Bros. McCormick, Patterson, Harman, G. W. Meyers, Markham and Crusier. We gladly welcome these brothers to our ranks.

Bro. E. P. Wilcox and family have returned from an extended vacation with home folks in Searcy, Ark., and other southern points, and Bro. Ed has resumed work as agent at Almira. Nons on the C. W. branch will now have to take to cover.

We understand that application has been made for the next convention of the Royal Moochers, to be held at Reardan, Wash. Although they have but one man at that place eligible for membership, what is lacking in numbers is made up in the qualifications of this party.

Remember, "No card, no favors." Don't play a good fellow with the man who does not carry a card. Transact your business with him in a gentlemanly or ladylike manner, and then give him to understand that you do not care to get on a friendly basis with one who is so lacking in the proper spirit of justice and fair dealing.

Div. Coa.

Montana Division—

Now that we are passing through the Christmas and New Year tide and your local chairman always believing in the Golden Rule, trusts that not only the brothers and sisters, but the non-members as well, had a merry Christmas and will have a happy New Year, and that all will begin the year by rendering all possible assistance in bringing into the fold all the non-members and also a few delinquents now on the list.

We wish to thank the brothers and sisters who have assisted us in matters of news as well as locating new men coming on the division.
If all the brothers would let their local chairman know the names of new men as well as the changes at their respective stations, it would lighten the work very materially.

Your local chairman wishes to congratulate Bro. Riley on his deserved promotion to the agency at Columbus—one of the most important stations on the division, and sincerely trusts that, although Columbus is an exclusive agency and not on our seniority list, that he may continue a brother of "Fighting 54," instead of "going into the Grand Division," so that we may continue to have him at our meetings and listen to his words of wisdom and instructiveness.

We also wish to congratulate Bro. Brown on his appointment to the agency at Grey Cliff, which, although not an exclusive point, is nevertheless an important station. Business holds up remarkably well, only one operator at Laurel yard and one at Livingston having been taken off.

There was a rumor that many more would be let out, but business apparently is more than holding its own, so we do not expect any radical reductions. Quite a number of the men in the machine shops at both Laurel and Livingston have been laid off, also section foremen's help, but understand only for two or three weeks.

Andrews and Broderick went to Townsend while Agent Anderson was on vacation. Bro. Gentry opened up Waterloo, which will soon be bulletin.

Bros. Smith and Bowers are at Bozeman while Mr. Atwood is on his farm near Great Falls.

Bro. Douglas, Grey Cliff, off a few days sick, was relieved by Mr. Treet. Bro. Defoe was off a month hunting and looking after his imported chickens. He certainly has a fine flock. Bro. Atherton, from the Rock Island Lines, who relieved, has been transferred to "Fighting 54."

Bro. Williams is relieving Bro. Tronstadt for a month.

Bro. Garry has gone to Canada.

Bro. Herrick's wife and daughter Kathleen, of Bozeman, have returned from an extended visit in Michigan.

Bro. Pidgion relieved Bowers at Bozeman, who went to Whitehall, where Bro. Brown was relieved by Mr. Conkling, a new man, who later relieved Bro. Haines at Logan, who is off to the East. We hope he has a pleasant trip and a good time.

Mr. Tidd, West End, returned from a vacation, relieving Bro. Roe, who relieved Bro. Zepp at "S," who went to "BG."

Bro. Harlan, Chestnut, recently returned from a hunting trip, relieved by Mr. Daniels, who later relieved Bro. Johnson at Park City.

Bro. McDowell, Townsend, has taken up farming, relieved by Mooney.

Mr. Welliver, Pony, on vacation, relieved by Mr. Friedell.

Bro. Wayne relieved Agent Linn, at Fromberg, while attending court at Bozeman.

Bro. Bowers, at Logan, relieved on vacation by Murphy, and he by Carpenter, later resigned.

Bro. Breneman, Three Forks, on vacation, relieved by Mr. Agnew, who later relieved Dodds at Alder for vacation.

Mr. Hale relieved Chandler at Toston, resigned. Mr. Keyes relieved Luke at Belgrade, taken into "VS" while Bro. Conrad and wife are East on vacation.

Bro. Perkins resigned Livingston car job, relieved by Bro. Carleton, and is now on second Toston, and his wife is on third. We hear they are soon to have a touring car.

One operator taken off in "VS," which, when the extra dispatcher works lets the men back to "VS," will leave Operator Sheffler on the extra list.

Sister Sullivan, Springdale, was recently on a week's vacation, relieved by a new man, Mr. Durham, who later relieved Mrs. Pidgion at Lombard while she and her husband, Bro. Pidgion, are on holiday vacation East. Mr. Friedell, extra agent, is at Grey Cliff until Bro. Brown gets on the job.

Dakota Division—

The secret to success is to work without ceasing in lining up the nones and then holding them up to date after making the first payment, as the large army of O. R. T. members becomes more aware of the fact, as time progresses, that they are carrying a $1,000, $500 or $300 insurance policy in a proven strong and steadily growing concern at a cheaper rate than the majority, then they will plan ahead to meet the assessments and dues when due. Preach and urge this upon the new members, and then let's all practice what we sermonize on.

As these notes are compiled just before Christmas, I am glad to announce the Stanton and Linton branches are solid; the Mott branch solid with one exception, whom we feel sure will soon be with us; the main line is like a rock with the exception of G. V. Skinner, third Medina; C. R. Jolley, at Berner; C. H. Boyle and Guy Rich at "J," with the first and last named promising to be with us soon. With a little more help from the brothers on the Pingree-Wilton, Carrington, Oberon, Leeds and Oakes branches, we will have in all the eligible nons before many months slide by.

The seniority list shows an even 100-78 members, 5 not eligible, 3 seemingly "hardshells," which leaves just 14 nons who are bright prospects, making the Dakota Division 86 cent strong, certainly a most creditable showing and firm footing in starting the new year.

Extend the glad hand to the following new brothers: Jos. Smith, third Burleigh; W. L. West, first Bismarck; O. C. Baker, third "JY" temporarily; R. M. Montell, agent Glover; A. J. Kelly, third Dawson; G. A. Snell, agent Cannon Ball; A. C. Diehl, agent Gwyther; B. E. Donley, agent Temvick; G. W. Fisher, agent Fort Clarke; with four sets of blanks out but not received to date. Watch the Dakota lead the N. F. System before many moons. Put 'er in the corner, boys, and give 'em the works.

Bro. G. E. Streukens is back on second Windsor, after successfully undergoing an operation at Brainerd.

The fourth trick was pulled off at "J," owing to slack business. Bro. Poiindexer bumping Bro. Banger on third Bismarck, who bumped Conover, third Steele.

Have received much valuable assistance from several of the more enthusiastic brothers the past month, which aided wonderfully in bringing results.

A general reducing of operators, helpers, etc., took place in December to offset the decrease in revenue to the company through business falling off. We are not alone in hoping that business will soon attain its former volume and not many months elapse until all will be taken back.

Bro. J. O. Wright, assigned second Burleigh, relieved delinquent Bro. Boelter at Adrian, compelled to return to the hospital for a second operation.

Bro. O. C. Baker relieved Bro. B. H. O'Hara on second Sterling while on jury service at Bismarck.

Bro. B. C. Brockhoff has assumed agency at Carson, relieved by Bro. Toyen at Melville, Bro. Jaynes going to McKenzie. Bro. J. F. Purdy, operator-clerk Mott, resigned and left for sunny California, where he intends to engage in other business. We regret to lose "Jack," but not half as much as some of the fairer sex at Mott. (Bro. Smith tipped this off.) He was relieved by C. V. Ellison, from the Soo Line. Bro. John Smith, agent Mott, is growing thin while baching during his wife's absence.

While we are looking forward and contemplating great strides towards a stronger O. R. T., let us not forget to apply ourselves energetically in our daily work for the general welfare and increase of revenue at each and every station of the Northern Pacific Railway. It is through this building up by individual effort, mixed with a courteous manner to the public, that sustains its already high reputation, and, even though we are not often rewarded or commended individually, it reflects in a meritorious way on our organization as a whole.

Allow me to caution each and every brother once again about remitting for your dues and assessment not later than February pay-day and not become delinquent. When you think you can not afford it on that pay-day, just reverse the situation and come to the realization that you can not afford to let your insurance policy lapse.

Admonishing you to lay a trifle more stress upon "Have you got a card" before granting "that" favor, and as you believe in your profession and believe in your company, let me ask you to get down to hard work and "hit the line hard."

Yours in earnest,

H. H. ELLSWORTH, L. C.

To the Members of the Tacoma Division—

Having just completed a ten days' tour of the division, I am glad to report that the Tacoma Division is in better condition, from the standpoint of unionism, than it has been for a long time, and as we close the year 1913 we can look back over a year that has been full of advancements for the laboring class as a whole. It is indeed encouraging to find how large a number of laboring men are beginning to educate themselves both along economic and industrial lines, are taking an interest in all questions pertaining to the betterment of their working conditions and are also coming to a realization of the fact that the laboring man is all powerful if he will but act in unison with his brother and not be the humble tool of selfish interests.

I wish to thank each member of the division for the support given me during the past year and ask your continuance during 1914. I will continue to serve you during the coming year to the best of my ability and hope that my efforts will meet with your approval.

At this time I wish to speak of the aroused enthusiasm of so many of our members. New life seems to have been born into a great many of us during the past three months and if this interest is kept alive during the coming term we will claim the Tacoma Division solid for the O. R. T. by June, 1914.

Do not neglect to send me a list of any changes you may note at your station or others with whom you are in touch. If a new man shows up, find out at once if he is a member. If so, give me his certificate and division number so that we may arrange for his transfer to our division. If not a member do the best you can to show him the error of his way and bring him into the fold of the O. R. T.

One other matter I wish to bring to your attention. I have asked you in the past to send me a copy of any applications for positions which are open. This has not been done except in a few cases and it leaves your local chairman in the dark as to whom are entitled to an assignment. Please do not neglect to send me a copy of these applications during the coming year.
Again thanking you for your kindness and your hearty support, and wishing you a happy New Year, I remain, Yours fraternally,

R. F. GRAHAM, L. C.

Tacoma Division Notes—

The year 1913 having been a successful one for the railroad operators in this country, it behooves us all to work more towards solid organization, as only through organization have we attained this success. Only when we compare the salaries of today with those paid just a few years back can we realize what the O. R. T. is and what it means to us. There are a lot of conditions to be bettered but this can only be done through co-operation.

From a financial standpoint we are in a better condition now than at any time during the life of our Order. Brothers and sisters, we must all work together in building up our Order, as we are all stockholders and draw a large dividend on our money invested.

There are still a few telegraphers on this division, receiving the increase in salary, better working conditions, etc., who refuse to invest one cent in an organization with over 50,000 stockholders, which guarantees one of the largest returns of any on so small amount invested. These drones, continually howling for more, must be shown that the way to get better conditions is to join us and help their fellow workmen. They can start the New Year in no better way than by getting an O. R. T. card and an insurance policy for their wives or mothers. Let us make this a banner year for the Tacoma Division.

There have been a number of changes recently, but as I am working second trick and account of reduction in office force, I have not had time to secure them, and no one has sent me any of them.

At the meeting held in Tacoma, December 7th, it was decided to give another dance, and Bros. Peck, Sherwood and Henderson were appointed a committee to arrange a date, etc., which will probably be February 21st at Tenino.

We want the co-operation of all the members to make it a grand success. You will be furnished tickets and advertising matter about two weeks before the date decided on. When you receive them put up the cards in a conspicuous place and dispose of as many tickets as you possibly can.

CERT. 878.

ELLENSBURG, WASH., December 15, 1913.

To All Members Seattle Division—

The matter of devising some way of maintaining a division fund has been talked over among a few of the brothers, and I would like to offer a few arguments in support of the movement.

This is a matter of vital importance to every member. With the money on hand the local division officers would be enabled to relieve a member in distress, purchase flowers for a sick member, or for the funeral of a deceased member, without going through the slow and cumbersome process of sending a subscription paper over the division. The relief would be prompt and effective and each member would have the pleasure of knowing that he or she had assisted and that each had contributed an equal amount.

It is almost impossible to reach each member with a subscription paper, and members do not like to be called on frequently in this manner, while the small amount required by a monthly assessment would not be burdensome, in fact, it would not be missed, even by the poorest of us.

It seems to me that each member who has any realization of his responsibilities should blush with shame when he considers the fact that the number of The Telegrapher which proudly referred to the million dollar assets of the Order also contained an appeal for assistance from a poor, sick and down-and-out brother, with a family, and that we have made no provision for caring for such cases, and also that with over 40,000 members less than 125 responded to this appeal.

Until some provision is made by the Order for assisting our brothers, who are in need through sickness or misfortune, each division should maintain a fund for the purposes previously stated, and in such cases as those recently published in The Telegrapher the local chairman should be authorized to promptly remit a substantial sum for the relief of the brother in distress.

An assessment of 10 cents a month or 30 cents per quarter has been suggested. Personally, I favor the plan of paying monthly, as the members would be more likely to think of it each time they drew their pay check, while if it was made quarterly they would be liable to forget it unless notices were mailed, and this would entail considerable trouble and expense.

All the members at a station, or several stations for that matter, could put their assessments together for the purpose of convenience in remitting.

The local chairman will probably put the matter to a vote in the near future, and I hope that all the members will not only vote for it, but will also remit the assessments promptly.

JESSE WATERS, Cert. 85.

Bro. Swain, first Glenullen, has been dubbed "the moving-picture magnate."

The big cut came December 12th, and, as a consequence, a number of telegraphers are seeking work elsewhere.

How many of you have remitted for your new card before the holidays? We are going to print a non and delinquent list in a couple of months. There is no excuse for a non or a delinquent being on the N. P., and if each of you brothers will only manifest as much interest in rounding up this class of men as you do in paying your own dues, there would soon be none left.

Bro. Jimmy Golden, first Sweet Briar, took a trip to Billings recently, stopping off at points along the way to visit some of his old "flames," relieved by Bro. Horton.

Bro. Julian opened Fryburg agency December 12th, after relieving Bro. Flannigan, third Sweet Briar, on a trip to coast points.

Numerous changes made on account of reduction in forces, but no one has sent me a list, so am unable to give them. Send me the necessary notes to make this write-up worth while each month. Bro. J. L. Powera spent the holidays around St. Louis, relieved at Custer third by Bro. J. D. Witham.

Bro. Thomas, first Terry, on vacation visiting relatives in northern Michigan, and Bro. Glasser taking in the sights around Genesee, Ill.

Mr. Kritta, extra Hoyt third, goes back to assignment, third Zero.

Bro. Don Dyer hooked in a few at Glendale after leaving Forsyth.

Bro. W. A. Henderson, extra Huntley and later Forsyth, on an extended trip South.

Bro. T. I. Bolton, second Custer, has returned from his hunting trip. No report as to his success.

The new year promises to be one of the best for the organizing of new men into the fold on this road for many years past. We recently got an increase, as well as other concessions, leaving no excuse why a man shouldn't put his money into a bargain that get returns, and that is just what we have who put our money into the O. R. T. on the N. P. While we are not getting quite as much, perhaps, as the men on the S. P., still we are getting more than ninety-nine out of any other hundred roads in this country, and it surely should be some incentive for a man to feel as though he were in duty bound to invest. Every day some of us—yes, all of us—invest our hard cash in some frivolous thing that we know will never get us a penny's return, and those same men can never see their way clear to take out a card in their respective labor organizations. Let's make this the banner year for organized labor—each one pull toward one goal—100 per cent strong and nothing less.

I got in enough new members during the month of December to get me one of the emblem rings offered by Bro. Quick, and to say that I am thankful to those who made it possible by joining in this month, is putting it mildly. I appreciate this prize more than anything I could get, and I think each one of you should hustle a little and see how interesting it is to get in new members. I didn't stop on the Yellowstone, but got some from the Dakota, and I take this means of thanking those who made it possible, as well as extending each new member the glad hand of our brotherhood.

Nothing has yet developed regarding the meeting mentioned in the last issue, but we hope definite plans will soon be under way for the first meeting, to be held at Dickinson. There are a number of O. R. T. and C. T. U. A. brothers located at Dickinson, and we should be able to have a very good meeting. Washington's birthday being a holiday, it will give a number of the men a chance to go, as we can doubtless prevail upon our superintendent to make arrangements for trains to pick up those who wish to attend. Get your passes ready, and if at all possible, be there. You won't regret it, and the mingling of one another will help to create a lot of interest. We will have everything in readiness, and let's make it a red-letter day for the first and second. Talks will be given that will prove interesting and helpful. Take your wives along; let them get acquainted; it will be worth every operator's time and effort on the division. We are going to try to persuade General Chairman Johnson to be with us, and as many of the local officials of the company as can; it is to their interest as well as ours that we be educated along the lines of better service and a greater interest in the work we have to do. Their advice on many topics will open new channels for thought and future usefulness.

L. E. BORDWELL, Cert. 886.

 Relay Division

With about seventy-five men employed, the Relay Division closes the year 1913 with but twelve non-members or delinquents. Of these, nine have promised to come in January 1st. Let us hope that they live up to their promises, but if they do not, we must keep after them and make them see that they are not doing the right thing by remaining on the outside. A majority of the nones are wire chiefs, and they must be made to see that it is to the Order that they owe their good salaries and Sunday overtime, and that they should show their appreciation by carrying a card. We do not feel that a wire chief jeopardizes his standing with the company by carrying an up-to-date. On the contrary, the company realizes that the first precept of our Order is to render the very best service possible to the company for value received, and that the very best men in the service are those who are members of the O. R. T.

The usual winter reduction in force has begun early this year, with two men off at St. Paul, two at Dickinson, two at Fargo, two at Helena, two at Spokane and one at Tacoma. Instructions are out to cut down on telegraphing, and we look for further reductions, although hoping that it will not come. Considering the much greater reductions which have been made in other departments, the Relay Division has been only lightly touched so far. It seems hard that men of ability who want to work are forced to remain idle, but we must remember that this is only the working of the capitalistic system which prevails in this century, and we must put our shoulders to the wheel of progress and add our strength to that of others in making it turn toward better things for those who are to come after we are dust and forgotten.

Tacoma—Those sure were classy smokes that Bro. Jim Williams handed out celebrating the arrival of "Jim, Jr."

Bro. N. F. Gordon, laid of December 13th on account of reduction in force, came back December 26th, relieving Bro. Bill Bates, on three months' leave for California to get a look at some sunshine.

Several changes in tricks here on account of reduction, Bro. B. F. Brown getting a day job at last out of the shuffle—6 a. m. to 2 p. m. Bro. Brown's ability as a cartoonist will now proceed to advance several jumps.

J. F. Kyes, laid off on account of reduction in force, returned to Tacoma, his home. Understand he makes considerable "extra" subbing for the wealthy men in "BY." M. Hawkins, also laid off on account of force reduction, is now in Tacoma "looking around" and doing some subbing.

Business very light here, the Montana locals being cut through to Tacoma, and Butte cut through to St. Paul.

St. Paul—Mr. Graham has gone to Indiana on three months' leave. Ringham and Maloy laid off on account of force reduction.
Dickinson—Force at "DX" cut two men, Bro. Lyons going to Spokane and Bro. Sterland undecided where he will bump in.

Fargo—Bro. H. G. Johnson bumped Bro. King at Dickinson, who hasn't made up his mind where to go, but may bump Mr. Whaley at "DX.

Wheeling & Lake Erie R. R.

W. P. T. Notes—

Bro's. Wimer and Harbaugh, of Hopedale, were Christmas shoppers in Steubenville.

Bro. H. K. Bell, third Mingo, visiting relatives and friends in Pittsburg, was relieved by Bro. J. E. O'Hara, who later resigned.

Bro. Coats, Hickory, is feeling lonesome since the night office was closed. We hope the present arrangement is only temporary.

We are sorry to hear of the serious illness of Dispatcher Fred Jones and Bro's. Fields and Homan, and hope for their speedy recovery.

Freight business is very dull, but we look for an improvement now that the holidays are over.

Bro. J. W. Polen, agent Smithfield, has the cleanest, neatest and most tidy office on the road. We are proud of you, Bro. John.

We certainly appreciate the fact that we have at last reduced the nons to a minimum, there being but one left on the east end. We also appreciate the effort of a brother on the W. S. B. who has been furnishing notes regularly to the division correspondent for publication. Keep up the good work, brother.

Have you remitted your dues for the current term? If not, please do so at the first opportunity. Bro. Balthzer is pretty busy with matters pertaining to the O. R. T., and if each member will be prompt with his dues it will be a great help to him. We hope to see notes from the West End and Cleveland Divisions in the next TELEGRAPHER. The continued silence of you brothers near the lake is getting on our nerves. Please do not wait for one another to furnish items, but every member mail all you can to Bro. R. F. Smith, division correspondent, Brilliant, Ohio, not later than the 20th of each month.

LOCAL CHAIRMAN.

W. S. B. Notes—

Bro. Wilson, agent Bruceton, has returned from a pleasant thirty days' vacation in the West, having gained thirty pounds.

Bro. Howard Warnock has returned to second Warrenton, after a month's visit to Indianapolis, Columbus and Cincinnati, and a week with his folks at Warnock, Ohio. Bro. Warnock failed to bring back that "little wife with the brown eyes."

Chief Dispatcher Connel, at Canton, very ill from cancer of the liver, was taken to Canton hospital to be operated upon. I have been unable to learn the results of the operation. We all wish Mr. Connel a speedy recovery.

Bro. E. W. Grose was off a few nights, relieved by E. B. Little.

T. E. Lucas, third Jewett, off a few nights, was relieved by J. E. O'Hara, from the B. & O. S. W. Bro. Shine, O'Donnell, from the W. U. at Pittsburg, Pa., is now with the Dexter Coal Co.

Bro. W. A. Albaugh, second Mingo yard, was a visitor of "yours truly" while on his Christmas shopping tour.

Agent Hollingsworth, Adena, on the sick list, was relieved by Relief Agent Foster.

Ex-Bro. Rennecker, first Pine Valley, made a business trip to Sherrodsville recently. Come, Emerson; get back into the fold.

Bro. Mike Hannel, formerly at Sherrodsville, visiting his many friends on the W. & L. E., is now located at New Philadelphia, Ohio, on the B. & O.

Bro. Bates, Sico days, says he has the best job on the east end. Must be some attraction at "SC."

Bro. Guthrie, first Jewett, has gone into the paper business. Anyone wanting papers, call "G" and he will send them on "tick."

Mr. Howard, agent Steubenville, has resigned, relieved by G. C. Schlegel, agent Jewett.

Bro. Craig, Bowerston, is lonesome since the baseball season closed.

Since I have been division correspondent I haven't received an item from any member on the Cleveland and Toledo Divisions. Brothers, let us have some items for the next TELEGRAPHER. Brothers on the Carrollton Branch and Cleveland and west end of Toledo Division try and send something. I am pleased with the interest the boys on the Wheeling, W. P. T. and W. S. B. Divisions have shown, and I assure each of you that I am very grateful for the items received. Don't wait on one another to send items, but each of you get busy and send in a few.

Don't forget your dues for the current term.

Southern Ry.

General Offices, Washington, D. C.—

Let us start off the new year to promote efficiency with all that the word implies.

The telegraphers were sorry indeed to learn of the death of the venerable President of this company, Mr. Finley. He was a great railroad man, and the more to be admired because he came from the ranks. Mr. Finley's name is not written on the sands of time to soon be washed away by the waters of oblivion, but stands as a monument to one of the greatest railroad systems in the world and emblematic of the high esteem in which the entire South held him. The words of the poet are justly applicable to him, "Who noble ends by noble means obtains. That man is great indeed."

Business has not been very heavy during the past few months, but is now on the increase.

Bro. Odum spent a few days in Goldsboro recently.

Bro. Wilson spent a few days in Tennessee visiting home folks.

Lloyd Hoppe was in Port Huron, Mich., recently visiting his father. "HY" will soon be with us.

We have room for more good men like him in this organization.

The brothers in "GM" are: Veach, Smith, Griffith, Davis, Golden, Balthus, Purcell, Loveless, Lowe, Williams, Irvin, Koegel, Thompson, Dunlap, Ipock, Wilson, Cline and Odum. Bro. Williams went to Alexandria dispatcher's office, but you know they all come back. He did. The three lawyers in the office are Koegel, Cline and Veach. The first and latter are attending universities, the former is recently of Buenos Ayres, Arg.

Bro. Davis has been sporting a diamond ring occasionally. It's not a man's ring either. I have a premonition that something's going to happen soon. Then it will be up to Manager A. L. T. to get busy.

Bro. Loveless, one of our bonus men, spent Christmas down in the country.

No more being said about local chairman. Must be waiting on the man who has been the spinal column of the movement. You know who.

We wish the Southern Ry. a prosperous 1914, which is no more than we should. We also wish the heads of the telegraph department, our superintendent and manager another, as well as many more, happy New Years.

The employees of "GM" do not envy the treatment of any other offices or railroads except in pay, as superiors from Superintendent Potter down are man-for-man type, with due emphasis on A. L. Thompson, R. S. Veach and J. R. Smith, our office managers, with whom we come in personal contact.

GO; Greensboro Relay—

We are very glad to get in our new office. It is up to date in every respect, and we should all work together and keep it so.

Bro. Morgan, "M," resumed duty November 15th, after about five months off on account of having to undergo a serious operation, from which he has entirely recovered.

Bro. Strouse still at Black Mountain, N. C., for his health, expected to return about January first, relieved by Mr. Mastin.

Bro. Odum "X," was recently transferred to "GM" Washington.

Mr. Reitzel is now with the telephone company in Atlanta, relieved by J. T. Fox, "VO."

Many of our regular men being off lately, we are not as solid here as we should be, but all of the nons promise to come in next pay day.

Being scrappy on the wire should be cut out, as it reflects on the good fellows, but none here have been called down for this except the nons.

Those who have cards are: Smith, "S;" Johnson, "Q;" Morgan, "M;" Whitfield, "CS;" Lillard, "K;" Mastin, "BO;" Dudley, "NA;" and Fox, "VO," are still out. Remember, "No card, no favors."

IN MEMORIAM.

copy forwarded to The Railroad Telegrapher for publication.

Birmingham Division, East End—

The meeting at Tallapoosa, Ga., December 14th, was a bowing success Those present were: Bros. Kipp, local chairman, Jones, M. Jackson, Brannon, Hooper, Williams, Craig, R. Field, Sanford, C. E. Crawford, and F. A. Scott, from C. of Ga. Good talks were made by all present and everybody had a good time.

The line of talk seemed to bear mainly on getting the boys enthused over the work, and Bro. Kipp made the remark that, "If we hold the meeting until midnight I believe the enthusiasm will go so high that we will raise the roof off the house." The question of sums was discussed at length, and it was the opinion of all that with some hard work from each member we could soon have the division up to 99 per cent.

Brothers, let's get after the nons. When one comes into your office make it your business to see that he has an up-to-date. Do not wait for the local chairman to do all the organizing, he has other duties to look after.

Just think of what we could do if every man on the division was lined up. Ask yourself this question, "What would our Order be if every member was just like me?" If every man of us would enter into the work with the determination to do things it would only be a short time before we would be standing at the top. Brothers, put your whole soul into the work. The more we put into a thing we more we get out of it.

The meetings will be held monthly, the next at Bremen, second Sunday in January, and will be divided between Tallapoosa and Bremen. Let's all who can come to these meetings, and as many as can bring along applicants, and we will have a good time.

Bro. Oden's wife is in hospital at Atlanta. Hope she will be able to be up soon.

Bro. H. Foster, to first Choccolocco a few days, was relieved at Oxanna Jct. by Bro. Carter.

The passenger station at Fruithurst burned. Passengers are now handled at the freight depot, which makes it more handy for Bro. Hooper.

Work on the joint station at Bremen is progressing nicely. A few more of these new stations would be appreciated.

Everybody send me what news you can before the fifteenth of each month. Div. Cor.

Winston-Salem Division.

Your correspondent has been working at other places and on account of the heavy work it was impossible to get the time to give a write-up, but I hope to be able to give one every month this year.

I had the pleasure of getting out among the boys for a day or two recently, when I secured several new applications and brought back a few of the old ones who had dropped out of the fold. I wish I had had more time so that I could have at least paid a hand-shaking visit to every brother on the division, but on account of my time being limited I could not do this, however, I hope to get away again before many weeks and then see you all.

Our division, from an organization standpoint, is in fairly good shape. There are only two delinquents on the south end; the Taylorville branch is solid; the A. & Y., east of Greensboro, is solid except one; west of Greensboro there are two delinquents; the Wilkesboro branch has two delinquents.

I have two or three men who make as little as $35 per month and one who gets only $25, and they keep their dues paid up. If these men can do this what reason is there for the man who gets $60 and more to drop? There was a time when we did not make as much as we do today, we didn't get overtime, did not have any seniority rights, and a hundred other benefits could be mentioned; and what has given us all of these things? The answer is in one word, "organization." The old adage, "Keep what you have and get all you can," does not apply to any set of men stronger than to the telegraphers. Brothers, we have made great strides during the past six years, and if we keep up the pace we have got to stay solid.

Remember "In unity there is strength. United we stand, divided we fall." Let every man do his part this year. Pay up your dues promptly, and get the man working next to you to do the same thing. If we all will do this we will have the banner division on the system in the next three months.

Bro. Stewart, of this division, is on an extended trip through the West. Last heard of he had his feet stuck under a table in Denver.

Bro. and Mrs. Jaco, of Cooleemee Mills, spent the Christmas holidays with home folks in Mississippi. They had a pleasant trip and we wish them a happy and prosperous New Year.

Mr. Moose, a new man, has been relieving Bro. Jackson, agent Huntersville, for several weeks.

I have not received any items from the A. & Y. and Wilkesboro branches, therefore am unable to give any of the changes there. If some of the brothers will send me the "dotes" from those points I will appreciate it and we can have a write up each month.

Wish for all a prosperous New Year.

W. E. Jones, L. C.

Atlanta Division, North End—

Some of the members of this division seem to be of the opinion that if a man is thrown out of his regular job by its abolishment, or from any other cause, it matters not how long and faithful he may have served the company and been a member of the Order, he must go on extra until something is bulletinized and then bid it in. In other words he will not be allowed, according to the proposed contract, to "roll" anyone at all, regardless of his age. For the fellow that is to be "rolled" that is a good thing and would mean more in many ways than could be estimated, but what about yourself? Say, for instance, you have been in the service eight years, and your office has been discontinued, and you want the first trick at Dalton, Rome, Brice or any other place. The man at either of these places may have been in the service one, two or three years, or probably only two months, but you can't touch him at all, with your age limit you must fight the extra board, down in the swamps or up in the hills, working first today and third for the remainder of the month, etc. Would you like to see a man with two months' age working a good job, and you with six or eight years' age working on a third trick in the malaria district? I say, "No, a thousand times no!" The question is being agitated, however, as to whether we want our contract modified or changed to that effect. The statement sets forth that, as it now stands, it makes the misfortune of everyone, because one man is "rolled." Well, maybe the misfortune is ours, yours or the other man's, because we haven't the age, but why do you want to make the misfortune of an old-service man the fortune of the younger man? It isn't really a fair proposition, and, regardless of any personal interests, I myself would like to see it remain as it is. It wouldn't be fair to the men older than you are in the first place, and in the second place it would work innumerable hardships upon the older man. Take yourself as an example—your job abolished, would you like to work third trick where an alligator couldn't live and see a fellow first at some good place with a month's age.

The position of correspondent has been wished on Bro. Gay at Rome, who will do all in his power to give you a good write-up every month. It is rather inconvenient for me to get any news items where I am at present stationed, therefore the change.

R. R. J., Ex-Cor.

Asheville Division, East End—

Bro. Simpson, who bids in Black Mountain agency, vice Mr. Bobo, was relieved at Bridgewater agency on bid by Bro. G. F. Coulter, relieved by Bro. Drumwright on first Old Fort, and he on second there by Bro. C. A. Calloway.

Bro. W. O. Calloway relieved Mr. Stine, second Newton, a few days.

Bro. Abernethy, second Connelly Springs, off over Christmas, was relieved by Bro. Wagner.

Bro. Beach, agent Nebo, off a few days, was relieved by Bro. Brinkley.

Bro. Walker, second Drexel, off a month, was relieved by Bro. Ross Frazier.

Bro. Ward is in the chief dispatcher's office, relieved by Bro. Waddell on first Biltmore, and he on second there by Mr. Murr, third Melrose.

Bro. Wagner, first Newton, off a few days, was relieved by Extra Coulter, who later relieved Bro. Spencer, agent Old Fort, on vacation.

Bro. Brookshier, agent Aralena, off a few days, was relieved by Mr. Gilliam.

We are looking forward to our banquet to be held at Hickory during the month of January. Most all who have been approached have subscribed $2.00 and nearly all have already paid.

We have done good work among the nons this year. Let's see if we can't do better next.

Wishing you all a prosperous New Year.

CERT. 2297.

Columbia Division—

Bro. J. J. Gall, Leesville, on vacation, was relieved by Mr. Lee.

Our old-time friend, Ivey, has been succeeded at "CX" by Mr. Jackson, from the Seaboard Ry.

Boys, I wish every one of you who have let your dues pass for the period ending December 31st would remit it at once, otherwise you will rank as new men. I am satisfied that it is not your intention to let your membership drop as I have not had a brother yet say that he isn't benefited by carrying a card. Please don't think because you are away out almost nowhere that a card does not benefit you. If it had not been for these precious cards you would be working all kinds of hours and split tricks and run off without notice hardly.

Delinquents knock us out of our proportionate share of a raise in the agreement. The wage schedule last March allowed a nice sum for each office on this division. There were some who at that time did not carry a card. Get your schedule and see how it reads. Get wise and get your card as it's "No card, no favors." After the settlement is made it is divided according to the pro rata of the membership on each division. We have as good men on this division as any other and they ought to reap the benefits so it's up to each of you to do your part.

I should not be obliged to write about this. You are men and should stand for your rights and honest earned money, and should not let the other divisions go ahead of us. It is not fair to your family nor yourself to be without a card, for their protection and your own rights. Take the schedule and compare it with that of other divisions and see the good wages their members are receiving because they don't mind spending $12 a year for a card which benefits them $100, and in some cases more.

Those of you who think you will receive the same raise as others can see the outcome of the last raise.

Brothers, urge the delinquents to pay, and give the nons no rest until their applications are filed with me at Lexington, S. C.

Just now is a very busy part of the season, which almost makes it impossible for me to get around to see each of you personally, but I am coming soon and shall be very much pleased to see I every one up to date. If not I am going to get you before I leave, or I'll be on your hands for some time.

Best wishes to you all for a happy New Year.

M. D. Denny, Local Chairman.
Charlotte Division, South End—

Bro. I. C. Edwards, Crosswell days, while on a trip to south Georgia, was relieved by Bro. J. H. Gibson.

Bro. P. H. Rudisall, second Cross Keys, on thirty days' leave, was relieved by Bro. L. Elliott, from third Alto, and he by Mr. McWherter.

Bro. B. F. Moss, who relieved H. B. Rhodes, first, agent-operator at Suwanee while he was on vacation, was relieved on third there by Bro. R. E. Pierce, of third Ayersville, and he by Bro. B. T. Littleton, who later went to Falls third on bulletin.

Bro. F. A. Sherriff, third Duluth, while visiting home folks was relieved by Bro. R. E. Melvin.

Bro. B. B. Cheek, at Cornelia agency thirty days, was relieved on Calhoun second by Bro. C. P. Cureton.

Bro. B. L. Walker, Gainesville second, off a few days, was relieved by R. Boggs.

Bro. J. N. Wallace, while taking in Kansas City, Denver, Salt Lake City and other point of interest on his fifteen days' vacation, was relieved by F. L. Brock, and he by W. L. Harbin, Brock going to Bowman. Later Harbin relieved Bro. B. F. Moss, Suwanee third, a few nights.

Bro. J. H. Gibson was on Calhoun third until filled by regular man.

Bro. W. J. Dawkins and T. C. Poole, Duluth first and second, while attending court at Lawrenceville were relieved by Bro. R. E. Melvin and W. M. Tollison. Bros. D. Taylor and E. Shelton, Buford first and third, also attended court there, being relieved by Bro. Cox, and he on second by ex-Bro. C. N. Duncan, warehouseman, and Bro. Shelton by L. Elliott.

Bro. B. L. Rike, Seneca third, while off sick was relieved by W. L. Harbin, Mr. Folger and Bro. Brown doubling the first night.

Boys, let us see how many can come out to the next meeting. It's very important that you be there.

Luck to the Jaybird, And likewise the wren Lord bless all the women And railroad men.

A happy and prosperous New Year to all. B. W. Grant.

St. Louis Division—

The year 1913 has been most successful for Division 59, numerically as well as financially. It is not necessary for me to recapitulate the progress made in the last few years, as your own experience has proven that to you.

It is the uniting efforts of the brothers that has made it possible for us to be enjoying one of the best working conditions in the South or Southeast, and we desire to keep it that way.

I want to thank the brothers on the St. Louis Division for the support they have given me during my term of office, and the much needed help they have given to line up the boys. I am proud to say that on December 31st we had only five nons and one delinquent, and should be solid by the close of the first term of 1914.

It is dues-paying time again, and it is hoped that none of the brothers will allow themselves to become delinquent, as it takes time and money to keep after them; so, brothers, let's all pay up right on the spot and be in a solid line when the time comes for us to renew our contract.

As I can not write each one on the St. Louis Division, allow me to wish you a prosperous New Year.

L. E. Crandall, Local Chairman.

Our correspondent must have gone to Mexico; at least we do not get any more news from him.

G. G. Grubba bid in third New Baden, Ill. We should see that he gets a new card.

Bro. Chapman says he can't leave Albion. Got a mighty good man to work with, L. A.

Bro. J. H. McLin, first Mt. Carmel, was off a few days on account of sickness.

Our old friend E. P. Roach, Germantown, says if he stays he will have a card.

Bro. Al Marvel, of Division 34, working extra, says he is going to stay with us.

Bro. F. Wayman is now at "KY" East St. Louis, where he is ready to serve them hash brown.

Understand Bro. M. J. Kemp, Winslow, was recently married. Congratulations.

It is now Bro. J. S. Booth at Mt. Carmel. Understand Denveraside will soon be solid. Curr. 138.

Queen & Crescent Route (North).

A. G. S., Between Birmingham and Chatanooga—

We are sorry to lose Bro. Brown, as he always believed in having an up-to-date. We wish him success in his chosen future, and hope he will continue carrying a card, for he can never tell when he might need some assistance, whether he be telegraphing or not.

"No card, no favors" is the motto we must all live up to.

Each one drawing any salary secured by the O. R. T. should pay their part of the dues. Mrs. Brown has also resigned. Two L. & N. nons now have the tricks vacated by Bro. and Mrs. B. We hope they will soon be relegated to the south end, where the mosquitoes will do justice to them.

We are glad, indeed, to report Bro. B. E. Driskill very much improved. After about three months of (typhoid) fever, he is able to be out among friends again, and hopes to soon be able to resume work.

Bro. S. L. Wamble, wife and son are visiting their parents in Tennessee.
Bro. J. C. Butler's wife is visiting parents in Edwardsville, Ala.

Bro. Rodgers, off recently, was relieved by Bro. Paul Rodgers.

Bro. R. B. Hickerson has resigned and left for the West. We wish him success.

C. H. Hobson is on second "HD," and Bro. E. G. Wright on third pending bulletin.

Everyone possibly who can should attend the series of meetings our general committee has arranged to hold over the entire line of the road during January, 1914, at which our general chairman, general secretary and local chairman will be present. The dates of the meetings on our division are: Birmingham, January 13th, 7 p.m., and Chattanooga, January 17th, 7 p.m. This makes it convenient for all of us to attend one or both of these meetings.

The good derived from such meetings can not be estimated. They are essential to good organization and help wonderfully in keeping organized.

Our local chairman will advise all later of the names of halls in which meetings will be held in both places. We have an opportunity at these meetings to meet the brothers from other divisions and get better acquainted.

Our local chairman covered the entire division two days last month with good results, and hopes that by January 20th we will be nearly solid. He was very much pleased with the courteous treatment he received.

Brothers when you are talking with a non reminder that he has received $70 increase in salary since March 1st, and do not forget to apply the "No card, no favors" motto on him if he refuses to come into the fold.

Several offices have been closed nights recently on account of some of the boys taking holidays.

Sister Payne, off a few days recently, was relieved by Mr. Patterson, who promises to be with us next month.

Being on day work, and very seldom off, I am unable to keep up with all the changes, and would appreciate it if all the members would forward a few items each month, so we can have a good write-up.

Please send me all the notes obtainable, and speak a good word for the O. R. T. at every opportunity.

M. & St. L. R. R.

Central and West Division

Sunday, December 7th, Division 71 held a meeting at the Vendome Hotel, Minneapolis. While there were not as many members present as there should have been, there was a fair audience in attendance. At 1:30 the meeting was called to order by General Chairman Gardner, and the routine business was gone over with. Secretary Sandmier gave us his reports on the standing of the Order, which showed that we are in good shape financially. Some new members were taken in, with prospects for more.

After the meeting adjourned refreshments were served, and the boys present were well pleased with their trip to the city. There will be another meeting in the near future, and we want a full turnout. The management of the Vendome Hotel were very courteous to us in the way of furnishing quarters to hold our meeting, and no doubt the next meeting will be held there.

Bro. Martinson has gone back to Dallas Center. Mr. Moss, a new man, is agent at Gowrie, vice Mr. Knight resigned.

It is now Bro. W. G. Reinders, agent Pioneer. We all extend a glad hand.

Bro. Hughes, third Morton, is now at Perry nights. Mr. Jones, agent Perry, will stick there for the present. This station was bulletinized some time ago.

Several of the boys attended the Safety First meeting held at Minneapolis, Sunday, December 21st, and heard some very interesting talks.

Now, boys, if you want a write-up every month you will have to send me some items. If I don't get more items than I have of late, I will discontinue the write-ups. See if you can not do better this year.

Wish all the members a happy New Year.

Jor. Cert. 29.

Eastern Division

Bro. J. T. Nelson has returned to Ackley, his vacation being cut short about a month on account of relief man resigning and asking to be relieved at once, as there was too much work there and no help.

Bro. A. L. Gardner, general chairman, attended the meeting of the C. & W. Divisions at Minneapolis, December 7th, also a meeting of Division 126 at Iowa Falls, December 17th; relieved by Bro. L. C. Vannoy, of Ames.

Bro. C. L. Kohn, formerly of Albert Lea, is now at Marshalltown.

We are pleased to hear of Bro. M. B. Quire's promotion to Mason City agency. Bro. C. A. Quire, his brother, formerly cashier, succeeds him at Grinnell agency. D. R. McLain is on Mason City first.

Bro. Geo. Reams, of Division 123, is now cashier of the 1st National Bank of Richland. Bro. George is a fine fellow, and we are glad to learn of his success. He has been out of the railroad service several years, but still carries an up-to-date card.

All who haven't remitted for their new cards, get busy now and get them up-to-date, so we can start the New Year right. Don't make it necessary for our general secretary and treasurer to write us regarding this matter, as we are all stockholders in the O. R. T., and money spent in calling our attention to our duty as good Order men is lost; also don't forget to remit to Bro. Quick for the M. B. Department assessments. The good book says that if we don't provide for our dependent ones we are worse than thieves and robbers, so let's attend to these important matters at once. Let's also start the new year right by each brother giving the non proposition his personal attention and see how many we can line-up during the month of January, 1914. Brothers, this is strictly a business proposition. The nons can't get by it, and we should have very little trouble in lining them up.

The monthly bulletin notes some discharges recently for violating Rule "G." Brothers, let us handle the matter this refers to by letting it alone, and save ourselves and families a lot of grief. The grandest thing in the world is a manly man, one who has the courage to do the right thing at all times.

Bro. C. A. Quire spent Sunday recently with friends at Boone. We will all keep mum, Charlie.

Bro. John Wilson, whose wife died recently and left him with two small children, has our heartfelt sympathy.

Mr. Bryan, at Montezuma, says the Order has never done him any good. His pastime seems to be to turn in the brothers at Grinnell for ignoring (?) his instructions (?). Look out Mister Non, the worm may turn.

With eggs at 7 cents apiece in New York City, no more "ham and" for the "boomers" now-a-days.

Don't forget to send us the happenings along the line. We haven't many this month.

W. C. M.

Chicago & Northwestern Ry.

General Offices "SI"—

Bro. Ed. Novak has returned from a pleasant visit to his old home in Galveston.

Bro. Ike Briening recently made a flying switch to Milwaukee, visiting our old friend "Schultz."

The position created in this office was assigned to Bro. Al. Alverson.

Bro. P. E. Gray, while off on account of sickness, was relieved by a man from "CH," W. U.

Bro. Wm. Early, of the "ponies," is still figuring up his losses on the Cub-Sox series.

Bro. D. C. Smart, our genial vice-president of the CORT Club, is urging the brothers to attend the CORT meetings, the first Saturday of each month. Brothers, try and get out to these meetings, as the change will do you and you will be much benefited thereby.

Bro. O. Hart, in the poultry business at Wheaton, is now able to tell the boys "why a chicken crosses the street."

Bro. J. A. Rose, the old-reliable, is chasing "98" on the St. Paul wire.

Bro. J. D. Willa, Omaha wire, dreams of a trip to Europe, which is a new name for Aurora.

Bro. A. Bradley, our smiling local chairman, is sure tickled to make out those six bone receipts for the new up-to-dates. Let's keep him laughing, brothers.

This office is now solid with the exception of Wm. Hohman and W. A. Golden, who have promised to come in for the new year, and we expect a solid front. There is no reasonable excuse for holding out, as we all participate equally in the concessions secured, therefore the expense should be borne equally, if the man takes the increase and other benefits without paying his part of the expenses of securing and holding same, seems to us he is neglecting a debt.

Wisconsin Division—

Our local chairman spent fifteen days going over the division, meeting members and non-members, and straightening out some adjustments. He secured quite a number of applications for membership, and found that where individual effort has been used prior to his visitation, the non-member was usually ready to sign up as soon as he arrived. Brothers, individual effort has made this great O. R. T. what it now is all over the country, one of the largest and best organizations in the labor world. The persistent and friendly effort of the live member, who has continually kept the invitation before his neighbors, is plainly manifest all over the division. A little more persistence and effort with our already rapidly increasing membership will make this in a short time one of the best if not the best organized divisions on the C. & N. W.

The organization is just exactly what its members make it by their personal effort. Brothers, it's up to us to get the non.

Bro. Coburn, absent several days on account of the sickness and death of his father, was relieved by Conductor Gene Dady.

Come to some of the meetings we are having. You will find none more interesting than our CORT meetings. Every member should impress the non-member with the fact that it is his duty as a man to protect himself and family now, for the time of need in the future, by getting into the Order. There is no other organization that will help you more in this country or in Canada in time of sickness or need and enable you to procure work than the Order of Railroad Telegraphers.

Bring the nons with you to the meetings, where they will learn new ideas and the knowledge required in railway work.

Train order service at Hunting Ave. has been discontinued.

Al. Smith has been appointed inspector on this division. You will all remember that pleasant smile of "Smithy's" which looks like the full moon over Lake Michigan in the good old summer time. We hope Smithy will not be too hard on the boys on this division, as he used to be one of the profession himself.

Frank Chour, who has been on the sick list for some time, has again reported for work on Lake Forest second. We hope Frank will be able to stick to it now, as he has had quite a siege of it.

Mr. Terves, who recently fell into a city manhole at Racine, has reported for duty again.

Bro. Ableman, at Poplar Grove, has had his haggageman pulled off, the same as at several other stations.

Director Ben. Evanson, of Chicago Terminal District, with wife and family, visited friends and relatives at Capron and Elroy recently.
Our noble and emergency Operator-Conductor Gene Dady relieved Bro. Regan at Capron for two days, while he attended a wedding at Milwaukee. "Dido" also relieved Local Chairman Bro. Coburn at Harvard, while he is rounding up the nons and serving on committee work in Chicago. A large number of our boys attended the joint meeting of Wis. and Cal. Divisions at Chicago recently.

The man that does not care for his future is not much of a man, especially those who think they are satisfied with what they already have, reaping the benefit of what was got by the hard work of the O. R. T. and the good workers of the Order. Brothers, get after the nons, your working companions, who have not got a card. This includes all telephone, levermen and telegraphers, we need the co-operation of all. Our organization and profession is the best any one could wish for and the best insurance there is, and it is up to each and every one of us telegraphers to stand by it.

Wish you all a happy New Year.

DIV. COR.

IN MEMORIAM.

Whereas, Death has entered of our Local Chairman Coburn, and removed therefrom his father; therefore be it Resolved, That Wisconsin Division, No. 76, Order of Railroad Telegraphers, extend to Bro. Coburn and family our sincere condolence in their sad bereavement, and be it further Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon our minutes, and a copy sent to The Railroad Telegrapher for publication.

ROY L. HERRICK,
C. E. ABLERMAN,
CHAS. P. REGAN,
Committee.

CARD OF THANKS.

Through The Telegrapher I wish to extend the most sincere thanks of myself and my mother to the members of the O. R. T. and other employes of this division, for the beautiful floral offering and their many expressions of sympathy extended on account of the recent illness and death of my father. These manifestations of regard and sympathy have made our burden of grief easier to bear.

Fraternally yours,
W. H. COBURN, Local Chairman.

Madison Division—

General Chairman Bro. Troy called a meeting at Sparta on November 7th, and one at Madison on November 8th, and told the boys what was in store for us if we did not take more interest in the Order. He also told of the efforts being made to knock the O. R. T. Any members who attended these meetings can explain. He told them, too, what the committee will be up against when it goes in, and gave the reasons.

These meetings are of interest to every telegrapher—member and non. We should arrange to have some of the old-time meetings on this division and get busy on the nons.

Bro. Troy, with his words of encouragement, has always been a great aid to us on this division.

Bro. Boyington, local chairman Signalmen, came from Chicago to see how we do business at our meetings. We are always glad to have our visiting brothers with us. As many as can get away will always be heartily welcome to all our meetings.

Your local scribe appreciated the words of praise from Bros. Troy and Schneider, and it is with heartfelt sorrow that he gives up the work. Being one of the early members on this division, he knows what hard work it has been to place the organization in its present splendid condition. But as we have taken up other lines of business, we will have to turn our part over to other hands, and our best wishes will always be with you.

We are not posted on any of the changes made lately, having been away several months. We are glad to hear that Bro. J. Q. Barnes, at tower "PD," who has been on the sick list, is on the road to recovery. Bro. Edward Welch is relieving him.

Bro. J. F. Gannon, agent Mendota, was off a few days visiting relatives and friends, relieved by Bro. J. B. MacKenzie, who also relieved Bro. Schneider while he attended the meetings at Sparta, Madison and Chicago.

Bro. W. R. Irwin and C. B. McIntosh, second and third Lodi, have been relieved by clerks at less salary and longer hours.

Brothers, the O. R. T. is your only medium through which to combat such changes, so be sure to remit your dues and get that non next to you.

Wish you all a happy New Year.

C. E. L. HANSEN, Div. Cor.

Madison Division Notes—

E. E. Nash, superintendent, has been made assistant general superintendent, with offices at Chicago, vice G. B. Vilas, made general superintendent, vice W. J. Towne, also promoted. J. W. Doyle, former superintendent Dakota Division and later of the Minnesota Division, comes to Baraboo as superintendent of the Madison Division. All these gentlemen are graduates from the Madison Division, and we are justly proud and pleased to see them advance.

Changes in the runs on the division on the old line have taken several more crews out of Baraboo as headquarters, leaving only a few trains now making that point their terminal. The car department has discontinued at Baraboo, and some of the employes laid off who have been in the employ of the company thirty-five or forty years. There was also some reduction in the force at the roundhouse in line with the general policy of retrenchment.

J. W. Neff, third Baraboo, off with a slight touch of sciatica, was relieved by "Jack" Hibbard.

Lodi has been changed to a one-man station, with an agent and a night clerk, throwing out two good men—Irwin and McIntosh. Irwin bid in second Elroy, and Mack is going on his farm near Lodi.

Bro. Scotty Butterfield, off on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Butterfield, who had to be taken to the hospital, was relieved by J. L. Rapp, who later "blew" back to Chicago, relieved by Louis Abts. We are glad to say Mrs. Butterfield is very much improved, and "Scotty" is again chasing cars, relieving Bro. Sid Kilts, who, we understand, has the "movie bug."

The genial local secretary and treasurer of this division, Bro. C. E. L. Hansen, having been thrown out of a job incident to the many changes made in the past few months, is now dispensing groceries, etc., from his new store near Monona yards, and that's one of the reasons the Madison Division has not had a write-up in THE TELEGRAPHER recently. "Hans" has been too busy, and his "able" assistant from "B" Baraboo too lazy and forgetful, but we will endeavor to appear in print at more stated intervals in the future. Maybe after the good citizens of Madison find Conrad "doping" up the brown sugar with Mendota Lake sand, putting lard in the butter and chalk in the salt he will have to come back to the old railroad life again, but here's wishing him the greatest success, and if they are all as good to him as he is bound to be to them, he will have patrons enough to put him on "easy street," and can look out of the window and say, "Go it, you suckers; I used to throw the switch for you, but not again, never, no more."

Local Chairman Bro. L. F. Schneider has been over the line recently, looking up new members and jacking up some of those in arrears, with very good success.

Ed F. Boehm, first trick south end, Baraboo dispatcher's office, is so chesty over winning a few prizes at the "500" parties that the boys can hardly keep pace with him any more in handling the "dope" for trains. He needs a good trimming. Any volunteers?

On bulletin: Agencies—Benton, Wonewoc, North Freedom, Union Center, North Lake, Ashippun and Dalton; and Mt. Horeb, Reedsburg, Dalton and Friesland second and third, and Cutter for telegraphers and phone men.

V. H. John, agent Adams, has taken a position with a bank at Laona, Wis., and A. E. Patterson, agent Platteville, probably assigned as agent at Adams. Mr. Patterson's successor will find that the way has been paved for him in a very creditable manner, and we all wish him success. Should Mr. Patterson not go to Adams, our friend Martin Hansen will likely be the choice for the position, and a good one, too.

J. A. Mannererus, agent North Lake; J. E. Gardner, agent Dalton, and E. S. Smith, operator Dalton, are among those who have recently left the service for more congenial locations.

Bro. Scotty Butterfield found his half-setter, half-pointer "dawg." Ought to see him point a raw steak.

A. E. Cook, one of our old-timers, is back again, relieving Bro. Brown, agent North Freedom, who has gone East to enjoy his big farm in York State.

Reedsburg second is on bulletin, vice Tom Jordan.

Bro. H. M. Schleck, agent Wonewoc, is on six months' leave, relieved by Extra Agent I. Child.

Union Center is bulletined for six months, pending the return of Bro. Wilcox, who has been West some months in the hopes of materially benefiting his health. W. B. McKillip has been acting agent there.

Jack Hibbard is back at Jefferson Jct. from Elroy. N. A. Browne has gone East to his folks in New York, and W. R. Irwin bid in Elroy second. Louis Abts is temporarily on third there, although he likes the atmosphere at Evansville better.

"Pipe" the new drinking cups put out by the C. & N. W., with their flossy containers. Some class to us. The best of everything, as usual.

Bro. Frank Wichern, at Devil's Lake, is gaining a great deal of insight into the forestry service since it has been made a State park. State forester E. M. Griffith is camped near Frank's "wicketup," and the "bachelors" frequently feed together.

Bro. C. M. Cronk spent several days in Chicago about Christmas time. His daughter was appearing in one of the theaters there, and Charley took this opportunity for a visit with her. He was relieved by J. B. McKenzie, former agent there, who was on an extended vacation, but is very kindly helping out as extra in pinches. The latter also relieved Bro. L. F. Schneider, agent Douisman, while he was sailing around the circuit.

Bro. C. P. Regan, of Capron, breaks in on our notice ever so often with a poetical outburst, and the latest of these we have noticed in several periodicals. We miss Charlie's sunny smile since they sliced the strip from Caledonia to Harvard off the Madison Division and handed it to the Wisconsin Division, but our loss is their gain. Happy New Year, Charlie.

Talk about California as a winter resort—nothing to it. Come to Wisconsin. Ask Bro. Wichern, at Devil's Lake. Two lads from Baraboo enjoyed—yes, really enjoyed—a swim in the lake December 5th or 6th, and after that we learn that a resident of Baraboo picked some ripe strawberries in his garden, and there are several residents about this part of the country that are still mowing their lawns, and some even have flowers blooming in the garden. California—well, not yet. And this is December 22nd, 1913.

What did Santa Claus bring you, anyway?

F. E. W., Div. Cor.
Northern Wisconsin Division—

Bro. Johnson, third tower "CF," on his honey-moon, was relieved by Bro. Mack, of Black Wolf. Congratulations, and a happy and prosperous New Year to Bro. Johnson and his bride.

Bro. Noyes, third Appleton Jct., off a few days on account of his father's illness, was relieved by Mr. Jungwirth, bill clerk from Oshkosh freight house.

Bro. Wilson, second Depere, relieved by Mr. Nummerdor, later going to Black Wolf, was relieved by Bro. Mack, of So. Oshkosh, and he by a new man from the "Soo" Line. Later second Depere was bid in by Bro. Panzer, relieved at Burnett by Bro. Mack.

Yours truly, pulled off second Neenah, on account unable to do enough clerical work, was relieved by Bro. Newton, and relieved Bro. Zueke at Appleton while out on the division organizing. He succeeded in lining up Snyder, "FA;" Greisbach, "MO;" Steeves, "WF;" Errard, "DX" and Hassman, "A." Let the good work go on.

Let every one help the O. R. T. along by paying dues promptly.

Try a little of that motto, "No card, no favors" on those who insist on "mooching" on the O. R. T.

Hope everyone will have a happy and prosperous New Year.

C. S. K., Cert. 613.

Ashland Division—

Bro. Kilsdonk secured Stratford agency, relieved by Mr. Krummey, on first Kaukauna, Charles having returned from Chicago where he had been selling tickets in the new terminal. Bro. Garvey, third Kaukauna, while relieving Bro. Ressy, on the clip job at Ashland, was relieved by Mr. Kumbier.

Bro. Penny, second New London, has been off for some time; also Billy Drummi, second Clintonville.

Mr. LeClue has resumed work at second Marion, State Line agency having been closed for the winter.

Chairman Dorr Hickok has been promoted to traveling passenger and freight agent with headquarters at Antigo. We are sorry to have him leave us, but we are glad that he has secured something better. This leaves us without a chairman.

Bro. Jones is now agent at Wittenberg, relieved by Mr. Crandall, who resumed work after his serious injury of last July.

Bro. Keronom, second Wausau Jct., off a few days, was relieved by Mr. Busse, and Bro. Bigford, third Eland, is out at Omaha, Neb., relieved by Mr. Hawley. We should try and get these new men.

Mr. Ryders second Aniwa has resigned, relieved by Mr. Buchaus.

Mr. King is back in the yard office at Antigo, and Mr. Lerquin is on nights there.

Bro. Janasack, third Summit Lake, while skating on the lake December 13th, broke through the ice and was never seen alive again. We are all very sorry that he should go in this manner and extend our sympathy to his sorrowing parents. He had just joined our Order and was trying his hardest to do all he could to make things look better. Mr. Jobe is on third Summit Lake pending bulletin.

Bro. Lethenstrom has resumed Pelican agency, placing Mr. Matz back on second. Glad to hear Louie has found a good wife. Mr. Honzick resumed Pelican third after working extra for some weeks.

Bro. Wilde was on side wire in Ashland dispatcher's office while F. R. Bessy relieved Second Trick Dispatcher Dickerson, on a hunting expedition.

J. T. Severin, Onadah third, can now be called brother.

Cedar closed for winter, L. C. Barrett relieving Mr. Gartner on third Saxon for a month. C. V. Mattson, second Saxon, will probably soon be with us.

Bro. P. J. Meredith bid in Mercer agency, relieved at Hurley by A. M. Borseth pending bids. Bro. H. Henricks transferred from Mercer to Bessemer agency, vice Mr. Irelan, going into the moving picture business. A cashier has been put on at Bessemer, relieving Bro. DeRosier of some of the heavy work.

W. F. Farrell, a new man, is at Wakefield pending bulletin, vice R. B. Penberthy, returned to Woodruff.

Bro. E. G. Manthey, Ironwood first, has returned from a month's vacation in southern Wisconsin, relieved by Bro. J. Garvey, who has returned to Kaukauna.

Manitowish station closed for winter; F. S. Leary to Tomahawk Lake agency.

D. V. Cronin bid in Hurley, leaving third Ironwood up for bid.

Agent Tigerton, second Aniwa and third Summit and Ironwood are all up for bids.

Our last write-up was a good one, and we hope the boys will all take an interest so we will have good ones from now on. We can do this if all will assist. Bro. Manthey, first Ironwood, has started to give us some good news. Some one on the south end watch for some more.

Get after those nons on the south end and have them make themselves a New Year's present of an up-to-date. They are good cards to carry.

Div. Cox, Cert. 561.

Lake Shore Division—

Remit promptly, brothers, and get your new cards. It's the man who pays his dues and carries an up-to-date who is a help to the committee. The news simply help to defeat the efforts of the union. They bring us no increase in salary, nor do they make any home bright by remaining in that classe; instead they bring misery to themselves and their fellow workers. If they have any manhood they should show it by getting an up-to-date, and we should give them no rest until they do so.

Bro. Sohrle, third South yard, off a few days, was relieved by Mr. Martins.

Bro. Knudson, "FO" days, has returned from an enjoyable three weeks' vacation West. Bro. Nygren, "FO" nights, spent his vacation at his home in Marinette, relieved by Mr. Henderson.
THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER.

Mr. Pooler, second Montrose Jct., off a few days, was relieved by Mr. Gatto.

Bro. Tiedka, local chairman, agent Denmark, was relieved while going over the division recently lining up the nons, by Bro. Drengler, and he on second there by Bro. Engles. There are only a few hardshells left. Let's keep after them and make our division solid.

It's now Bro. Kaufman, second, Calumet yard, and Mr. Marsh, second Cleveland, promises to be with us soon.

Bro. Knudson is visiting Manitowoc quite frequently of late.

Bro. Stozer relieved Mr. Herzog, Seven Mile Creek.

Continuous service now at Mequon and Belgium.

Brother's let's all who can possibly get away attend the next meeting, soon to be held.

Now is the time to boom for that solid membership. "No card, no favors." "FR," Cert. 581.

Eastern Division—

Bro. Radaker got second Emmett on bid.

The stock rush is about over on the main line.

I wish each member would advise me of all changes they know of by the 20th of every month, then we can have a nice write-up. I have no other way of learning the changes.

"No card, no favors!"

Don't fail to send a copy of your bids to the local chairman. It may save you lots of trouble.

Bro. Reynolds relieved Mr. Miller, second Bonsteel, resigned, and gone South.

The general committee will be going in next February, and we must all make it a point to land at least one of these nons who are hanging back, and have the division solid. It will be easy to do this as soon as you get started.

Chas. Flick is back at Oakdale first after a visit East, putting Bro. Ritchie on his old trick.

R. O. Beesom, dispatcher's office days at South Norfolk, bid in Plainview second.

Bro. Otra Jofer transferred from second freight yard to first South Omaha yards.

Our apology is tendered Bro. Wurzbarker for referring to him as "Mr." instead of "Bro." in the October items. I am sorry this ever occurred as Bro. Wurzbarker is an old war horse, always ready to do all he can for the advancement of the Order.

It is now Bro. Janovy, of Neligh. Joe did not care to have the title "Non" applied to him any longer. There are a few others whose consciences are certainly troubling them now.

Bro. Kemper, Creston, on a trip to Florida, was relieved by C. J. Smith.

P. Marlick, agent Charleston, has bought out a general merchandise store and intends to quit railroading.

Agent Anderson, off a few days, was relieved by Edmiston, later relieved by an unknown.

Agent Miller, Seward, lost his operator and now has to do the wire work himself, while his boy helps with the station work. Operator's job not bulletined.

A fire at Superior recently destroyed some station records and most all of roundhouse foreman's oil and lamps.

Did you notice the new electric headlights on the locals. Some light, believe me. — JERRY.

Eastern Division Notes—

There has been considerable changing around among the boys in the past month; all looking for a better job.

Bro. Lister is now at Spencer agency.

Bro. John Pomey, who bids in first O'Neill, Neb., is relieving Agent F. M. Bartlett at Emmet, Neb., who is very ill with the la grippe. Bro. S. D. Hess, O'Neill nights, bid in Dodge agency, relieved by Bro. Rhodes, from the South.

A number of agents on the Norfolk and Dallas Line had to give up their helpers on account of hard times.

Bro. Anderson, agent Nickerson, is spending his vacation in Florida, relieved by Relief Agent C. S. Smith. Bro. Henry Kemper, of Crescneteb, Neb., also took two weeks' vacation to Florida on business pertaining to his farm.

Bro. Donahy, agent Cornlea, Neb., took a week's vacation recently.

G. G. Shuber, former agent at Lynch, Neb., has proved up on his claim and is relief agent again.

Bro. Forney, relieving at Emmett agency, made a trip to the Rose Bud country last month.

G. G. Shuber relieved W. H. Frost, agent Lynch, for a week's vacation.

Local Chairman Hood was called to Michigan on account of the serious sickness of his mother. Parcel post is knocking a hole in the express business, and also in the commissions.

Thanks to Bro. Radaker for news items.

Now, boys, Bro. Hood, local chairman, was over the division and lined up quite a number of the nons, and we must keep it that way by working hard and keeping after the nons, and we will soon have things in the very best of shape. Make it a point for each one of us to line up a non. The local chairman is not getting any more salary than we are in this line of business, and we should help him out all we can.

SIOUX CITY DIVISION—

The meeting at Sioux City, December 7th, was not very well attended.

Bro. Troy was there loaded to the brim with facts and figures which showed us how important it is to keep up the organization.

If you forgot to make yourself a Christmas present of an up-to-date card, which is the best you can possibly get, do so at once and call it a New Year's gift.

Bro. C. F. Hays, Mondamin, is responsible for most of the following items, which will let the outside world know that we are still alive:

Bro. C. W. Carnes is again agent at Schleswig, Iowa, relieving Mr. Smith, from the Northern Iowa Division, who takes Ute, Iowa, agency.
Brakeman "Happy" Wells had the misfortune to have three of his fingers taken off at Sergeant's Bluff on December 3d.

Bro. H. D. Graham, agent Modale, was off several weeks recently, getting his eyes tested and visiting folks in Illinois.

The automatic signals will be in operation between Soo City and Mo. Valley about February 1st, which will save the boys lots of wire work blocking trains.

Mr. Edwards, formerly agent at Sloan, Iowa, relieved Mr. Byers at Mondamin, Iowa, who relieved Bro. T. M. Noe, who bid in Battle Creek, Iowa. Later Mr. Byers relieved Bro. A. J. Gabrielson, California Jct., thirty days, visiting home folks.

T. M. Noe.

Iowa and Minnesota Divisions—

Bro. Howard, our faithful chairman, is covering the division and having good success. Brothers, paying your dues is not all that is necessary, we must keep on working and never let up until we get our division solid, and then keep it there.

We frequently hear it remarked how much better off the trainmen and enginemen are than the telegraphers. This is because they are always working for their own interest. The local chairman is doing all he can to raise our profession to where it rightfully belongs, but we must have more individual effort. We have young men now in the service waiting to assist us, who only need to be asked. With proper co-operation our profession would soon be up with the other branches of service. Let us see hereafter that we have it.

A number of the boys have been disappointed in not getting relief, owing to the shortage of men, and it will continue until we come to our senses and endeavor to assist ourselves.

Every man should try to fit himself for the better position, and see how much instead of how little they can do and hold their jobs. Show the company that your services are valuable, and the committee will have something to work on. Let us have more individual effort this coming month and see how many members we can secure. If you do not know who the nons are, write your local chairman and show him that you are willing to assist him. There is no reason why we should not have a solid membership. There are good things in store for us if we will only wake up and do our duty. If I was going to quit the business tomorrow I would still be just as much interested in the welfare of the agents and telegraphers, because I want to see them better paid. Our Order is getting old and we should be drawing better wages. Let's start now and work for our own advancement.

Bro. Kleins at Bricelyn is having his troubles on account of his platform having been taken away.

R. E. Thomas, Kesley, Iowa; H. B. Ferris, Joice, Iowa, and A. B. Staley, Fairmont, have taken out new cards. We are glad to have them back and hope they will stick.

Bro. Howard, of Comfrey, Minn., on vacation, was relieved by Bill Hockert.

Our popular jovial conductor, Wm. Hanks, has been elected on the Legislative Committee of the Order Railroad Conductors. A better choice could not have been made.

Jno. Erickson bid in side table Mason City. We hope he will take out a card with some of that extra money.

H. H. Ridgway is at Carterville, recently opened as a telegraph office.

Nels Howland, agent Guckeen, has returned to the train service on this division.

We are having California weather now, but winter will, no doubt, soon be with us.

——

Div. Coa.

Minnesota Division—

Positions pending assignment: Second telegrapher—Sanborn and Lamberton; third telegrapher—Sanborn, New Ulm and Winona dispatcher's office.

Bro. Leatherman, second Mankato, was relieved on several days by Bro. A. Sawyer, who also relieved Bro. Schwab, at Mankato Jct., and then relieved Mr. Guth on third Janesville on account of reduction in forces.

Ben Nixon, formerly on this division, now in the Soo City office, spent Thanksgiving with friends and relatives on this division.

Bro. A. J. Nelson, agent Nicollet, on vacation, was relieved by Bro. VanDarwarka.

R. H. Ferguson resigned at Lamberton and returned to the M. & St. L.

Bro. R. E. Graham, extra Winona, was relieved a few days by W. F. Segur.

We wish to thank the many boys who sent us news items this month, every little helps and their kind assistance is certainly appreciated. Come again.

Business sure has taken a leap and a bound lately, a large amount of corn moving east, all the men from the rural districts unloading it on the market to enable them to better play the part of old Santa. The movement of this heavy traffic gives a great many train crews work, thus making it possible for them to play their part better, but the poor agent and telegrapher who strains every nerve to keep this business moving, reduce delays and help out in every possible way, gets only his regular little check, and their children must be content with reading about old Santa and seeing pictures of him in books.

The cash that comes pouring into the pockets of all the other classes of employees as a result of this prosperity, does not reach the poor telegrapher, but we hope by the hearty co-operation of all the telegraphers and agents employed in scheduled positions to overcome to a certain extent these conditions, if they will lend their assistance to further this end, and possibly by the time another Christmas rolls around more prosperity and better conditions will be enjoyed by all the other classes, now enjoyed by you and yours.

Telegrapher Brockway, first Sanborn, on a few days' vacation, was relieved by W. F. Segur, who later went to Lewiston. Telegrapher McIntry is on Sanborn second until bulletin expires. Bro. A. Sawyer is on third there, pending bids, vice R. G. DeBolt resigned.

Bro. G. W. Ware, first St. Peter Jet, on Christmas vacation, was relieved by W. F. Segur. Bro. O. E. Highlen, one of our new members, is on second there, and Bro. L. Kraft on third. Bro. Highlen is among the donators of news this month.

Bro. C. N. Watson is back on third Janesville, relieved at Lewiston by Bro. J. C. Hunter, a new man.

Bro. Dangel, second Stockton, is enjoying a vacation, relieved by Bro. W. C. Koehnel.

Bro. E. W. O'Connor, third Lewiston, was off for a few days, upon his return H. J. Yackel began his vacation.

Bro. VanDarwarka, who went to Sanborn third a few days, is now on Judson second.

Bro. Stainabery, a new man, is on Minnesota City third temporarily.

Local Chairman E. J. Thomas spent several days recently going over the division, lining up the boys and secured applications from about thirty. There are still a few who promised for this pay day, when we will be solid, with the exception of a few undesirables. Bro. Thomas is highly pleased with his success, and probably will have a meeting shortly, when we hope the boys will all make an extra effort to be present. Ask for transportation and do your best to attend. That is the place to get acquainted, air your grievances (if you have any), offer your suggestions and in every way assist in making this a banner division. Get in the game and help the cause, and we will be able to better our conditions in the very near future.

Any member, when through reading this copy of The Telegrapher, who does not wish to keep it, kindly mail to the nearest non, so he may have a chance to see how much he is thought of by the members on this division. In that way we are sure to reach them all. I would give a list of the new members secured by Bro. Thomas, but lack of space prevents.

Now that the New Year is here, let every one resolve that during the year 1914 he bend every effort to uphold and strengthen the O. R. T., especially on the Minnesota Division, by paying dues promptly, seeing that your neighbor does the same, and making known to the local or assistant local chairman any irregularities, and by keeping after the nons and assisting in every other way possible. If we will all do this the coming year will bring greater blessings to us than have been received in many years past.

With this thought before you, I wish you all a happy New Year. D. J. M.

Pierre, Rapid City and N. W. Divisions

Bro. Schleckau, of Philip, had to go to Rochester to consult Dr. Mayos, but hear him back on the wire, so I guess he is O. K. again.

Bro. Noe, agent Wall, spent Sunday recently in Rapid City.

Local Chairman Hunter, agent Wasta, was at Miller over Sunday recently.

Bro. Noe, agent Owanka, spent Sunday at the home of his parents at Wall recently.

Understand Bro. Genoway, ex-agent Wendt, is to be reinstated with pay for all the time he has been off. We all hope this is correct, as he has been a good man for the company as well as for the Order, and we don't like to lose such good brothers.

The "Milwaukee's" bridge over the Missouri River at Chamberlain has been out of commission recently, the freight going over the P. R. C. meanwhile.

I hope the brothers all read the piece in the November journal relative to the carrying of the United States mails. It was right to the point.

Bro. M. E. Young, agent Midland, off several days on account of sickness, was relieved by his helper.

Bro. Vick, agent Quinn, I understand, has been obliged to go to the hospital for an operation.

New Orleans, Mobile & Chicago R. R.

We are very sorry that our road has gone into hands of a receiver, but understand there will be no changes in officials or employees at present.

Bro. Meek was off a week recently on account of sickness.

Bro. Higgs was off three days to recruit up, after spending the summer in a box car depot. Lumber is on the ground to replace his depot recently destroyed by fire. Ripley depot, destroyed by fire a few days ago, is being rapidly replaced.

Bro. Sharpe was called to New Albany to work third trick dispatcher a few nights.

Operator-clerk position at New Houlka was bid in by Bro. M. A. Moore, and Mr. Herl, a new man from the I. C., bid in second Mathiston.

J. G. Graves, second Houston, has gone to Lucedale, on the South Division.

We still have a few nons among the new men, and we should make a special effort to bring them in, as we are going to want our schedule revised in the near future and we want to be solid. I think it the christian duty of every brother to get after the nons on our division and persuade them to turn over a new leaf for the New Year.
Colorado Midland Ry.

First District—

Bro. H. H. Sammons, from the N. C. & St. L., Memphis, Tenn., is relieving Bro. Shaffer on third Florissant.

Bro. F. M. Wright, Division 126, late from the C. & S., is relieving Mr. Brawner at Divide, who is relieving Bro. Potts at Florissant, who, with his wife, is visiting in the sunny South. Mr. Brawner’s application was turned down.

Colorado City “Z” office is now solid for the first time in history. Bros. Johnson and Spangler both being up to date.

Bro. James, recently resigned, has a good position in an oil refinery at his home town.

Bro. Collier is reporting fine fishing down in Texas. They must be tame, indeed, if Ed can land them.

We are all sorry to hear of the discharge of Lineman Ellinwood. He is a fine fellow in every way and is well liked by all the boys.

A meeting was held at Florissant on Saturday night, December 20th, and all had a good time.

On account of the severe snowstorm that blocked all traffic, the dispatchers and operators at Colorado City who live in Colorado Springs had to walk back and forth from work, and some records were made that would make Weston pale for want of speed.

Although the December rate was cut to Grand Division proportion, we still have several nons on this district—Mr. Reubendale, agent Manitou, and Mr. Webb agent Woodland, the only two “old timers” left. Remember, brothers, “No card, no favors.” Mr. Webb promised to consider the matter if he was on the road until last September, and you can easily see that the word of a non is not to be depended on.

Bro. Nash, second Wild Horse, and Bro. Devine, second Divide, spent a day in Colorado Springs recently.

Well, boys, 1914 is now with us. Those of us who have not given Division 81 our best efforts in the past year should turn over a new leaf and keep after the nons until the division is solid.

Wish you a happy New Year. CERT. 62.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express to the members of Division 81, and L. A. Division 23 our thanks and appreciation for the kindness and sympathy shown us during our recent sadness. The pretty flowers sent us daily meant more to us than we can express and did a great deal toward lightening the burden for us.

ELTON AND MARIE CRUNCHFIELD.

Second District—

As No. 4 plowed through the snow into Ivanhoe one morning recently, Bro. “Slim,” our correspondent, on his way to spend the holidays with “Dad” and Mrs. Ellis at Leadville, stepped off and asked me to do the editorial stunt this month, and while I did not have time to accept the proposition, I decided to take a chance. Therefore, if this isn’t up to the standard, blame “Slim.”

Mr. Evans, second Cardiff, on leave of absence, was relieved by Bro. Crawford, from third, and he by G. R. Smith, a new man, who says he will get the necessary first pay day.

Bro. O’Brien, second Leadville, spent the holidays with “the folks” at home in Denver, relieved by Bro. McDaniel, of Division 57.

Bro. J. M. Hill, engineer for the Denver Water Company at Littleton, has been almost snowed under, having been obliged to use snowshoes to and from the boarding house.

During the recent snow blockade in the vicinity of Denver and on the First District, we of the Second District, on top of the hill, enjoyed regular summer weather, with no delayed trains to our record.

Mrs. Rose and baby are spending the holidays at Loveland, Colo., with the result that Ivanhoe is at present a typical “back” job. Several of the boys have offered to find me a cook to fill the temporary vacancy, but have not decided as yet to accept the offer, due to the fact that Bro. Lively at Busk, Bro. Bugbee at Sellar, and the Ivanhoe neighbors have asked me to share their Christmas dinner, and an occasional pie comes in from the sympathizers.

Bro. Cooke still holds his old record of having won a sufficient number of turkeys at the Ruedi turkey shoot to supply his household wants Christmas and New Year’s day.

Bro. Lamborn, third New Castle, has just moved his household goods from Denver. We are glad to note that it appears Ed is going to stay with us.

Thirty-seven strike-breakers lost their lives in an explosion in the Vulcan mine at New Castle, December 16th. Our sympathy goes out to those left behind. The C. M. placed an engine and crew at the disposal of the Vulcan management during the day.

Our meeting at Basalt, December 20th, was attended by Bros. A. C. and C. F. Ellis, Clark Bugbee, E. Cooke, J. F. Jones and myself. “Pug” Gilbert was given a vote of thanks for placing the Aspen passenger coach at our disposal. General Chairman Ellis complained to a certain extent as to the amount of heat, but, after due consideration he was instructed to wear heavier underwear when attending meetings on the Second District.

Upon adjournment of the meeting, at 2:20 a.m., we called upon Mr. Scandlan, third trick, but, after considerable talk by the general chairman, we were unable to secure his application. A few startling facts came to light, however, and while it may appear like the story of the fox and the grapes, we find that Mr. Scandlan’s affiliations with a certain financial agency and the office of mayor of the town of Basalt prevent his having anything to do with labor organizations, and laboring men in general are not in his class.
No. 4 being late the next morning, we had an opportunity to have a few minutes' talk with Mr. Borneman, who, in a great way like Mr. Scandan, does not need the money and is perfectly satisfied with present-day conditions. As to who brought about these conditions, he is unable to say, but presumes they are due to corporation generosity. It was also learned that Mr. Borneman was instructor in the Modern School of Business "ham factory" in Denver prior to coming to the Midland, but as the O. R. T. could not procure any wage increase on the position, it was decided to get into a position where there was a chance of securing a betterment of working conditions occasionally. We all wish to thank our obliging chief dispatcher for arranging relief for those who wished to attend the meeting.

In connection with the small attendance at this meeting, I am led to believe that there is a lack of interest on the division, which we should endeavor to overcome, Bro. Jones being the only member present from west of Basalt. It is apparent that the next Second District meeting will have to be held at Cardiff.

Bros. A. C. Ellis, R. W. Coldiron and S. F. O'Brien comprise a committee which I have appointed to investigate the advisability of holding an O. R. T. dance at Leadville. The proposition seems to be meeting with popular favor, and if it is decided to hold it, the earnest support of the entire division is hereby solicited.

The Second District now has four nons, including the new man at Cardiff.

F. T. Ross, Local Chairman.

Western Maryland Ry.

Western Division—

A rousing good meeting was held at the Windsor Hotel, Cumberland, beginning at 8 o'clock Saturday night, December 13th, and lasting until the cold, gray dawn of Sunday. The attendance was good, four divisions being represented, and the meeting was presided over by our worthy general chairman, Bro. R. E. Smith. Three local chairmen were present, as was also Bro. E. C. Kohlbaugh, our general secretary and treasurer.

From point of numbers and interest, this was one of the best meetings ever held on this system. A large number of grievances was investigated, testimony taken, and a great many important affairs were gone over.

I am sure that all those who were fortunate enough to be able to attend this meeting went back to their respective homes with a feeling that it was well worth the trouble and with a clearer idea of what our Order is and what it stands for, and also a better feeling, not only towards our local chairmen, but also towards our general committee.

Bro. Smith took the chair and gave us an interesting and instructive talk on the work of the Order and what has been accomplished since he has been general chairman. A great deal of dissatisfaction has been expressed by the brothers on this division of the last agreement, taking effect May 1st. Bro. Smith went over this thoroughly and made the parts which we did not understand clear, and while we will all admit it's far from being an ideal schedule, it compares very favorably with those of other roads having two or three times as many members as we have.

Brothers, here is the situation in a nutshell: If a general committee goes up with a 62 per cent membership, they will get a 62 per cent schedule and no more. If they represent 95 per cent of the men, they stand a good show of getting a 95 per cent schedule. There is a moral in this.

Another highly important subject that was discussed was to find some means to provide for a paid general chairman. Bro. Smith very generously offered his services at the same figure he now receives from the company, plus a reasonable amount for expenses, but even this we can not afford. In plain English, it would mean that every man would have to be assessed at the rate of $2 monthly and above what he now pays. Of course, this is out of the question, but, after a lengthy discussion, it was decided to poll the system for a vote, with a view of increasing the semi-annual dues to $5 instead of $4, as at present, the additional money to be used exclusively to pay the general chairman for time lost and make it possible for him to visit each district three or four times each year to get acquainted with the men he represents, holding meetings wherever possible, looking up the non-members, investigating complaints, and, in fact, doing general missionary work for the benefit of all.

Brothers, we can not afford a paid general chairman, nor do we need one regularly; but with this additional dollar every six months we can have him with us at least three times each year for several days. Vote for it.

Another knotty affair that has caused a great deal of dissatisfaction on all the lines west of Cumberland was discussed; that is: Why the company is allowed to ignore our agreement, which has been violated in the rankest manner by the officials of this division, and the very men who have suffered most by these violations have done the least to remedy them.

Brothers, it's no use to air your grievances before visiting trainmen or others. They will, of course, extend their sympathy, but that's all. Your local chairman is in a position to help you, and he will do so, but you must, you positively must, do your part. If you have a grievance, remember, if you have, put it on paper in a plain, unbiased way, being careful that you state facts, and do not exaggerate. Attach every scrap of evidence that can possibly help your cause, and send it promptly to your respective local chairmen. They will do the rest. Our local chairmen have complained of lack of interest in our not answering communications in which we were asked to express our opinion. Now, brothers, this is not fair to the men who represent us.
They don't get one cent for this work, and we certainly owe them the same courtesy that we would extend to a stranger that would write us seeking information.

CERT. 254.

Texas & Pacific Ry.

Transcontinental Division—

We did not have a write-up last month owing to the fact that our nice new schedule just went into effect November 1st, and we had not adjusted ourselves to the situation and neglected to send anything in, but we hope to have a nice little write-up every month, and I am going to ask each member on the division to consider himself an assistant correspondent, and send me all the news items not later than the 20th of each month, so we can get them in on time. The local chairman can't do very much good with a write-up unless the boys send him the news. Any changes, deaths, births and anything of interest among the brethren will be appreciated by him.

We have a splendid schedule and I feel that all of the boys appreciate the better working conditions, such as shorter work days, overtime, seniority, and, in fact, everything in it is good, and I feel that there is due our faithful and efficient committee and the O. R. T. a vote of thanks.

In behalf of the company, I wish to make a special request that every member of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers live up to the contract in every respect. Show our management that we appreciate our better working conditions, and put forth every effort that we can to increase our usefulness to the company, and do everything in our power to increase its revenue and decrease the expenses. We agents, especially, can help the company save lots of money in the course of a year by making ourselves useful and watchful of the company's interest. We have every assurance the company is going to live up to the contract. As far as I can tell, everything has been moving along nicely. I have had very few complaints so far, and I hope the boys will not be too quick to file complaints, and feel sure that if the matter is taken up by them with our superintendent that mistakes and misunderstandings, in most cases, will be rectified.

In regard to overtime and loss of dinner hour every man is respectfully requested to put in all of his overtime, and his dinner hour when lost. If he does not he is not living up to the contract and might as well break any of the other articles of the contract, and besides he will be the loser, and it is a bad practice to begin. On the other hand, I hope none of the boys will act arbitrarily in regard to overtime or anything else. We want every man on the division to absolutely come clean in his dealings with the company, and if you are in doubt whether you are expected to do a certain piece of overtime work ask the dispatcher about it, as you will not be paid for overtime unless you are told to work it.

Bro. Council, operator and bill clerk at "MS" Sherman, was relieved for the holidays by Bro. Smith, second Bells tower, and he by E. P. Martin.

Bro. Woodall, cashier at Honey Grove, bid in Windom, relieving Mr. Mason, who returned to Ft. Worth. Bro. Ebbs, first Honey Grove, while laying off, was relieved by Mr. Fitzpatrick.

It is now Bro. Freeman, agent Nash, and Bro. W. J. Slay, agent Doddrige, Ark., also has an up-to-date card and $1,000 insurance policy.

There are still several boys along the line that are not members, whom we hope will come in during January, as a number of them have promised to. If every member would put forth a little effort and see that the boys next to him on both sides stay solid, we will soon have the T. C. Division as solid as the rock of Gibraltar. Let's do it, boys.

I hope to be able to give more news next time, if the boys will drop me a line every time they hear or learn anything.

Wish you all a happy and prosperous New Year.

P. O. RUTHVEN, L. C.

Eastern Division—

It should be our aim not to miss having a write-up in every issue of THE TELEGRAPHER. While we have been very busy this month on account of flood conditions, we should always find time to send in a line or two.

I am very hopeful, as we are getting in shape for great work. We ought to organize a "Booster Club," and make the Eastern Division 100 per cent. Will you join the good work? I am at your service any time, and any matter which comes up which you are in doubt about will gladly furnish you with the information the very best I know how.

Everybody keep posted and let me hear from you, and especially keep Bro. Montague lined up with write-ups, or send them to me. We are anxious to know about each other, and we can use these columns to keep in touch with each other where I could not reach you with the same effect.

"Barkis is willing." Are you?

H. H. HOBERT, L. C., Mineola, Tex.

Illinois Central R. R.

Louisiana Division—

At Hammond, on December 6th, we had the biggest meeting for many months; about thirty of the faithful were on hand, full of ginger—but nothing stronger.

The recent express negotiations were discussed at length; Bros. Rehorst, Allen and Williams proved to be the live wires during the "bailing."

The local chairman then took the floor, asserting that the parcel post had dug the grave of the express companies, and the interment would be soon, and the only salvation for the agents was to stick to the good old O. R. T. ship and boost the game, as this would be their only means for getting their wages adjusted for the losses in express commissions. Legislative committees were appointed to have bonding bills presented to the Mississippi and Louisiana State legislatures during the coming sessions.
CARD OF THANKS.

To Dr. C. W. Patterson and Trained Nurses Misses Axwell, of Memphis, Tenn., and Perry, of Rosedale, Miss., for kind attention during my son's last illness; also Mrs. W. A. Shelby, who did everything possible for him during the last three days of his life.

Rosedale Masonic Lodge, King's Daughters and many friends, I wish to thank for loving deeds and tender sympathy during the illness and death of my only child.

He was not afraid to die, but his going has left a void in my life which eternity alone can fill.

To the many friends and strangers who have telegraphed and written words of comfort, I have no language to express my appreciation; also the kind friends who opened their homes to me in my desolation.

I also wish to thank the Vicksburg Division of the O. R. T. and H. D. Chaney Chapter O. E. S., and other friends, who sent beautiful flowers when we laid my boy, Sidney L. Owen, to rest in Rosedale Cemetery on Thanksgiving.

MRS. IDA M. OWEN.

Rosedale, Miss., December 10, 1913.

Wisconsin Division—

Notes for the November journal were sent in too late for that issue and were published in December.

The first and important item is that our dues for the first term of 1914 are now payable. Brothers, don't overlook that important duty. You owe it to yourself and to your family. A double duty. When it comes to separating "the sheep from the goats," there will be but mighty few goats found on this division. They can all be counted on the fingers of one hand and will be named in the journal next month.

With reference to Pretzel City Club meetings, we are compelled to make different arrangements regarding a hall, but all will be notified by postal when and what change is made. Remember meetings are held the third Friday of each month. Notes of these meetings will appear in the journal under the head of Pretzel City Club. Look for them.

The gravel pit at Forreston has been closed for the season, so Conductor Curran will lose many an opportunity to use the telephone. No doubt he will feel quite lost. We should worry.

If any one has "a bee" for sale they should communicate with Bro. Pilger, at Haldane, as he desires to purchase a colony of them, so he may have honey for his pan-cakes. When it comes to eating honey, he is the real honey-boy.

Bro. Eiser, former assistant local chairman, who has been West several years, is back with us again, and now on second La Salle. The fact that he served several terms as local chairman on the N. P. is ample evidence that he is a live O. R. T. wire. Bro. Olsen, of La Salle, is now enjoying a visit to the Western Coast, where he joined his wife, who has been out there some time. Bro. Gilman, second there, relieved him on first.

Before adjourning Bro. Sam Turner was given a rising vote of thanks for the hospitality and courteous treatment to the visiting members.

Well, Christmas has departed and we are now in the New Year. Nineteen-thirteen has not been a bad year by any means; we have done well, and it's up to every individual member to make 1914 a hummer, and the only way to do it is to "be strong and of good courage," as the Lord told Joshua. Now the way to be strong is to stand together, shoulder to shoulder; back your general committee to a man; pay your dues promptly, and don't make it necessary for the general chairman and the general secretary and treasurer to canvas the division and appeal to you personally to pay your little dues, and last, but not least, have confidence in your general committee; when you elect a man to represent you have enough confidence in his judgment to back him up—then you will get results.

Bro. Chas. St. John, who has worked continuously in Canton, Miss., office since 1862, was the recipient of a substantial Christmas present from the I. C. An additional man was put on to do "St.'s" work and the old gentleman was told to come down when he felt like it and sit around and look wise, draw full pay, and shake hands with his friends. Some class, eh?

General Chairman Mulhall and General Secretary and Treasurer Shannon went over the division this month, shaking hands with the boys; incidentally collecting some back dues and strengthening the machine. They found only two nons, much to their surprise. David, the great king, once said: "All men are liars," and if he just added "and hard to get money out of," he would have said a truthful. It's strange how some men will spend their money for all kinds of trash and foolishness, then neglect to pay their dues; neglect their insurance, then die and leave their families destitute and objects of charity. "What fools these mortals be" is a saying that will live as long as the world stands.

Bro. Clyde Henley, "HN" McComb, Miss., has been granted a four months' leave of absence in order to attend school. The temporary vacancy in "MO" is now on bulletin.

Bro. O. M. Barbee has given up the ticket agency at Hammond and gone on the extra list, but with several bulletins out he will soon be a "regular" again.

Bro. J. I. Magee, agent Doyle, La., attended his first O. R. T. meeting at Hammond recently and enjoyed it immensely. He said: "The operators have some smart men amongst them." My! this is startling.

Regret to announce that Bro. E. I. Bordages, "BO" in "FD" New Orleans, has been seriously ill for some time. Hope he will soon be able to resume work.
Bro. Maske, of Rutland, was taken suddenly ill and hastened to Chicago, and is now in Mercy Hospital. The doctors pronounced it a light case of paralysis. We certainly hope the brother a speedy and complete recovery. Bro. Neidigh, former agent at Burlington, who resigned to enter the horse business, is at Rutland during his dull season. He worked a short time out on the Minnesota Division, but prefers his old-love.

Mr. O'Toole, Amboy days, is still confined to the house by sickness, and his position has been bullpened and awarded to Bro. Sherbert, relieved by Bro. Hart.

Third trick C. G. W. crossing awarded Bro. Eckman; agency Munger to Bro. French; third Parkway to Bro. Hamwitz; agency Blanchardville is now bullpened. Whoever gets it will know he got something.

Bro. Cox, "KS," is doing extra dispatching. It's plain to be seen that it is not necessary to go outside of the ranks of the telegraphers of this division to get train dispatchers. There isn't a man holding a regular position as dispatcher but what came from right off this division.

Bro. Babbler, of Colvin Park, was relieved a few days by Extra Agent Youngblood, a new man, who will soon be a full-fledged member.

New seniority lists will be out in January, and each member will be furnished with a copy. These will most likely be distributed at the February meeting. There will also be an election of officers, and we will have with us that night two or three general chairmen and secretary-treasurers. Don't miss that meeting. Div. Cox.

Iowa Division—

All the railroads in the agricultural belt are reaping one of the largest harvests for some time, and are using every effort to supply cars to move the large grain crop in these sections.

Bro. A. E. Olsen, car distributor at Cherokee, and Bro. King at Claghorn, visited at Sioux City recently. The latter also visited at Lemars.

Bro. Smith, at Quincy, wishes to know what has become of the Reynolds Relay Sounder Co. Letter addressed them at Omaha, Neb., recently, was returned to him. He wishes to procure one of these sounders, and any information along this line will be thankfully received.

Bro. and Mrs. Libby, at Rowena, recently entertained Bro. Stoker and wife, from Matlock, Bro. Olsen and family, from Itilla, and Bro. Hatz, from East Soo Falls, at dinner.

Bro. Tierney, "K" office, Cherokee, visited at Mauson recently.

Bro. Olsen and family, at Hills, spent Christmas with folks at Alta.

Bro. and Mrs. Stoker spent Christmas with folks at Sheldon.

Bro. Hill was unable to call a meeting last month, on account of so much work, together with moving into his fine new depot.

Bro. Eller, Sioux Falls, visited friends at East Soo recently.

The only position on bulletin is Wilke. Every boy secured their vacations during the fine weather.

Bro. F. S. Prater, who relieved Mr. Finch, at Ben Clare, is on a visit back East with relatives.

Bro. Robinson is on first Parkersburg, pending the arrival of Bro. Calhoun, from Alden, whom we understand secures the trick.

Have you got your new card? Do not let yourself get on the delinquent track, as that is hard traveling.

No word from the Omaha Division this month, it is evident this has been too busy a month to secure the wanted information, but let them come forth next write-up, we want all the notes from the entire division obtainable.

Have you got your new card? Cert. 998.

St. Louis Division—

I will be glad if the boys having items will mail them to me at Illinois Jct. or to Cairo.

Bro. Wilson, third Cairo ticket office, called to his home near Louisville, Ky., on account of the sickness of his father, was relieved by Bro. South, of first there, relieved by Bro. Taylor, second Ballard Jct., and he by Bro. Sanders, from Mounds.

The boys at Illinois Jct. have a new office, the old one having been enlarged in order to have a large switchboard, capable of holding all the wires entering Cairo.

Bro. Cameron, after turning out his whiskers, decided he looked too much like a doctor, or too fatherly, and had them removed. Bro. H. L. Dye, second at Illinois Jct., who spent the summer in California, on the Southern Pacific, has received a check for $5.20 for fifteen days' back pay on account of the new schedule on that road.

Chief Dispatcher J. P. Haden, off a few days gathering his corn and pumpkins, was relieved by Mr. Gannon, from Davis tower.

H. L. DYE, Cert. 966.

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our heavenly Father and all-wise Ruler of the universe to call to her reward the beloved wife of our brother, H. S. Noble; in manifestation of our grief and fraternal sympathy be it

Resolved, That the members of St. Louis Division No. 93, Order of Railroad Telegraphers, extend to the sorrowing brother and members of the afflicted family their sincere and heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the bereaved brother, a copy spread upon the minutes of the division, and a copy forwarded to THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER for publication.

Northern Division—

Bro. Beatty, third Randolph, off for the holidays, was relieved by Bro. Arthur Logervall, relieved as agent Renovo by Fred Johnson, who will soon be with us. Bro. Joe Lennon expects to take a few weeks off when Bro. Beatty returns.

Agent Potter, Rich Valley, has resigned, relieved by Thomas McBride, helper Randolph.

Bro. C. W. Roterba, third Kenyon, was away during the holidays.

Bro. Ed Stack, just off the D. M. & N., formerly on Randolph third, is now relieving Mr. Mallum on second Hayfield. Glad to have Ed with us again.

Bro. Geo. Sullee, third Taopi, on vacation, was relieved by R. R. Kirby, not long in the business. His father being a N. P. local chairman, he won't be without a card long.

Bro. Geo. Smock, from the C. M. & St. P., is on second Elma while Bro. Dan Lynch is at Alta Vista agency.

Bro. N. E. Latimer, who went to third Hayfield last month, has returned to second Sumner, relieved by Bro. Griffin, Sumner second. It is now Bro. Littell at Sumner third, which makes a solid office of four O. R. T. members, Mr. Congdon having resigned.

Bro. F. M. Pickering, resigned at Oelwein "WI," has been a member for years. We are sorry that he is leaving us, but wish him good luck wherever he may go.

Bro. E. O. Jarstad, agent Skyburg, returned from his hunting trip in Minnesota's northern woods and brought home a nice buck deer.

Page Brown, first trick W. M. & P. Division dispatcher, is on his honeymoon. Don't push; there's a cigar for each.

A new year, a new card. Let's all get a new member. Everybody be an organizer, and we will put a bunch of new names on the books. Don't "let George, do it" all. Drum the non working with you and the one near you, and results will be great.

Mr. Elfrid is the operator added to the rail gang loading rail on Hamlet District.

Extra Huntley is at "X" Johnson street while Wilson is switching.

Bro. Patterson, third Lemon Springs, off a few days, was relieved by Extra Cox.

Mr. Shooter, Cacey, off thirty days deer hunting, was relieved by Mr. Roof. Mr. Perry is on second Wadesboro pending bulletin.

C. M. Freeman, agent Aberdeen, while attending court, relieved by Mr. Poteet, from Keyser, relieved by Mr. Carpenter, a new man from the C. & N. W.

Bro. Powe, agent Lemon Springs, off a few days, was relieved by Bro. Maynard, and he on second by H. L. Gunter.

Bro. T. L. Gardner, New Hill, who hurt his leg while loading baggage, is being relieved by Extra Proveaux.

With the change of time-card and the putting on of four more new passenger trains, the "Seaboard" has a local schedule equalized by none.

We can now hold our meetings east, north, south or west and have convenient trains to attend. Let's have a rousing meeting and get all the boys out, make these meetings interesting, put some ginger in the boys, and come out and have a good time. I see no reason why we should not have a big banquet some day or night. Show your colors and come out fifty or sixty strong. Don't mind a day's "hay;" you can make it up the next week. Bring along the new men coming to our line. If they haven't a card, we can fix them up. If they have a card, drop your local chairman or Bro. Cumming a card and give their division number, and let's get them transferred to the S. A. L.

Now, a word to you night hawks. "Biz" is picking up now, and with the new passenger trains on, you have no time to "hit the hay." Stay on the job and show what good service an Order man can give. Answer your phone promptly, and assist the dispatchers all you can. They will do you favors.

G. R. Grubbs has been assigned third trick dispatcher added to the Hamlet District. Brothers, fill out the information blanks sent you promptly and return to Bro. Moore.

Our local chairman, Bro. E. H. Moore, surprised us by getting married recently. We extend to himself and wife our heartfelt congratulations and trust that they may live many years filled with happiness, and that Mrs. Moore may inspire the ladies of this division to wake up to the Ladies' Auxiliary to the O. R. T., and thereby be a great boon in furthering the interest of the men and women on this division.

Now, let's all remit our dues to Bro. Cumming at once and thereby keep our cards up to date; also keep the insurance policies in effect. Remember that we have the best and cheapest insurance known, and the insurance alone is worth our entire membership fees. So let's encourage Bro. Cumming by being prompt in all things, and make him feel that his efforts among us are received with gladness and appreciation on our part. Bro. Cumming has done a splendid work for us, and we are almost solid, am glad to report. Let's begin the year by showing Bros. Moore and Cumming that we are co-laborers with them in everything, and that we will strive to make this division a blessing to ourselves and an honor to the Seaboard Air Line Railway.

Remember that promotion comes only to those who show ability for increased responsibility, and don't try to see how little you can do and hold your job, but see how much you can do to make the road popular with the public, and never fail to put in a word for your road when you see it on trial for its merits or demerits. Each of us should feel that we have a personal interest at stake and that we are held largely responsible for the service by the company and the public; so let's strive as individuals to keep down every complaint from any source.

I hope that not a single O. R. T. man will be dismissed from the service this winter for sleeping on duty and stopping the limited. Boys, you know what it means to stop this train. Don't let any complaint come from this source. Don't touch a drop of liquor. The few dismissed from the service because of drink, I am glad to say, were not O. R. T. men. Such men are a menace to the railroad and a disgrace to the profession. Alcohol and railroads can't work in harmony.

A happy New Year to you all.

R. H. Cunningham, Div. Cor., Cert. 197.

Florida Division

Bro. J. C. Sale, agent Bronson, has resigned and entered the service of the Levy Co. Abstract Co., succeeded by C. S. Hickson, from Otter Creek, and he by Bro. W. J. Tillman. We all wish Bro. Sale the best of luck in his new venture. Later Bro. Hickson went into the drug business in Cedar Key, succeeded by Sister Miss M. Sasser, from Willeston.

Third Archer abolished on account of the joint agency being discontinued, both the S. A. L. and A. C. L. now having separate depots.

Superintendent Parsons, Trainmaster Prichett and Claims Adjuster Witt spent an afternoon fishing recently, guests of Bro. G. P. Graham. A fine time and a good catch was reported.

Miss Eagan, agent Campville, has returned from a pleasant vacation spent in Buffalo. Glad to have her back, as she is always "on the job," and besides, she is an exquisite little lady.

Braddock decided third Ocala was good enough for him, and did not go to Fernandina as contemplated. We are glad he did not go. Adams, second Ocala, while off owing to the illness of some of his folks was relieved by Mr. Lemer.

We are glad to say that Ticket Agent Boisseau has joined our ranks and is now a hot O. R. T. man. He says he now realizes the strength there is in unionism. If only a few others could see it that way, we would not only have strength, but power and justice.

Business is picking up right along, and we hope the boys will, as usual, "hit the ball!" and keep things moving through the rush. Understand the schedule of our limited is to be made faster soon, in order to compete with the A. C. L. between Jax and Tampa. That will undoubtedly hold our business and get us more, as we already have the most popular route. Div. Coa., Cert. 854.

Ulster & Delaware R. R.

Telegrapher McDermott, of Grand Gorge, relieved Bro. Griffin at Halcottville while off on important business.

Telegrapher Marks lost his wife recently and is left with a one-year-old child. He was relieved during her illness and death by Bro. Winchell and "Bunk" Brophy. He has our sympathy, and we hope he will join us and become a brother.

Mr. Falk relieved at South Kortright while Bro. Snyder was on vacation.

Bro. James Joyce and his brother Mike are living in Kingston while their house is being built. Bro. Lawrence Joyce expects to build his house some time in the spring.

Bro. T. Ennist relieved Bro. Roosa at Cold Brook for two weeks.

Bro. Morris, Markson, has gone South for the winter.

Bro. Keator, agent at Edgewood last summer, is now with the O. & W. at Franklin, N. Y.
bro. Peter Leming, of Phoenicia, while consulting the doctor at Kingston was relieved by Agent Elmendorf.

Boys, have you paid your dues yet? Do it now.

Wish some of the boys would send me some news occasionally... My aeroplane is broken and I am unable to cover the line every day to get all the items. Therefore, I need some assistance.

Happy New Year to all. There is nothing which life has to offer so satisfying as the profound good understanding which exists between the brothers of this division, each of whom is sure of himself and sure of his friends. "IRE."

Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic Ry.

It is now Bro. Abby at Nestoria second, and Scewartz says he will soon be with us. The boys at Nestoria are getting busy. Let us all follow in their footsteps. Bro. J. J. Stevens, formerly on second there, is again with us at Sidnow.

Bro. Peck, of Dollar Bay, is enjoying a two weeks' vacation, relieved by Bro. Wubben, of Lane, and he by Mr. Derocher.

C. W. Young, Ewen nights, is now agent at Au Train, and Bro. Anderson, who Mr. Young relieved, is at Ewen nights.

Bilson and McMillian are up for bids.

Div. Cor.

"Soo Line" Ry.

We are closing the most prosperous year in the history of our division. There have been more members added to our rolls during the past year than ever before in a like period. At the close of the year, it gives officers of the division great pleasure to announce to the entire membership that we have more members in good standing than we have ever had. Our financial condition is in the best shape that it ever has been. The credit of these excellent conditions is given to the entire membership, as well as the officers of the division.

In the past year the members have taken more interest in the organization than they ever have manifested in the past by securing applications. This, to a great extent, accounts for our great gain in members during the year.

We have all done our duty in the year just closed, and the officers desire to thank the entire membership for the aid and loyal support that they have been given in the past.

Beginning with the New Year, let's all of us exert ourselves just a little more than we have done in the past. If we will do this, there is no doubt but what we can have a better showing at the end of the coming year.

We have a few nones left on the system, and in order to make our percentage reach the 100 per cent mark, we will continue to allow every member a credit on their dues of $2.00 for every application that they secure and turn in to the secretary and treasurer, accompanied with the necessary amount, which during the various months are:

- January or July, $11.50;
- February or August, $10.35;
- March or September, $9.20;
- April or October, $8.00;
- May or November, $6.85;
- June or December, $5.65.

These amounts pay up to June 30th or December 31st, inclusive of the insurance. The applicant pays nothing for his insurance until he receives his policy. The cost of the insurance is: One thousand dollars, $7.20; five hundred dollars, $3.60; three hundred dollars, $2.40 per year; payable half of the above amounts the first of the year and July 1st each year in advance. Please keep these figures for reference to be used when you secure an application. In case you lose them you can ascertain the correct amount to collect from the general secretary and treasurer, or the general chairman.

Again thanking the entire membership for the aid that they have rendered to their officers in the past, we earnestly request each member to assist us in the future.

If we will all get out and lend a helping hand, we can reach the 100 per cent mark within the next six months.

Do not abuse the poor nons, but try to convince them that it is to their interest to support the organization. Get to work on the nons in the office with you. He is enjoying the benefits that you are paying for, and it is no more than justice that he should help bear the expense.

The organization does not owe a single man that is following the profession for a living a cent; while, on the other hand, every man is indebted to the organization for at least his membership in order to help pay for the benefits he has been enjoying at the expense of the loyal members.

Wish every member and his family a happy New Year.

Thanks to the brothers for sending us the news items. Keep it up and we will have a monthly write-up.

CERT. 124.

DULUTH-SUPERIOR DIVISION

Business on our division has been pretty brisk and operators have been in demand on account of the opening up of several new night and day offices along the Plummer and Brooten Lines. Few of these new men belong to the Order. The new positions, some of them choice jobs have not been bulletin and men with practically no rights have been placed on these positions desired by brothers with considerable seniority. Calls for bulletin have been disregarded. It's high time we were awakening to the fact that our appeals have been without consideration.

A grievance should be framed and sent to our local chairman calling for bulletin of all vacancies and new positions, and requesting respect for seniority. Let us be up and doing; do not delay longer: act now!

Bro. E. L. Allen, former division relief agent, bid in Moose Lake competitive agency permanently, a very responsible position. He carries with him our best wishes for success.

Agent A. A. Seeman, Onamia, resigned, succeeded by T. W. Clark, relieved on second by Bro. Drumm, from the C. & N. W. One more brother, boys.

It is now Bro. H. E. Duffy, a very popular and desirable member who will take an active interest in our organization.

B. T. Titus has returned from a vacation to Solana agency. We have his promise, boys. Do not let him escape.
Bro. Clark, third "SA," called home owing to his mother's illness, was relieved by Bro. Bruss, and he on second by Bro. Hokenson, just returned from the West.

Ironon agency opened up by Bro. C. V. Densmore, of third "SO," formerly with the Mo. Pac. in Nebraska.

Bro. Hazen has returned from a visit at Stevens Point to first "Q," with his wife. They have our best wishes for a happy union. Bro. Roderick, second "Q," to Solana second; later to third "JD," relieved by Bro. Fogarty, from the Winnipeg Division. Mr. Sprague, who relieved Mr. Nagle, second "JD," resigned, was relieved on third for Thanksgiving by S. Martin, who later went to Palisade second, S. Jones going to third. We should see that Jones and Martin have a pressing invitation to join.

Bro. Ballon, first "BX," to "BG" second on December 17th on emergency. J. H. McKenite is now on first "BG," with D. C. Burnside on third, and Mr. Millgard, a new man, on second. Here's a good chance for missionary work, brothers.

Bro. H. E. Duffy, now on first "MA;" Bro. Shertler on second; Bro. Johnson, of first "MA," to "JD" first; Bro. Sabine, of first "JD" going to third "MA."

"RO," Cert. 941.

Dakota Division —

There were fourteen present at the Iowa Falls meeting, December 17th, from the Dakota and Minnesota Divisions.

General Secretary and Treasurer Bro. Meador gave us a good talk on the schedule. A good many of the brothers did not understand it, and had not been getting what was coming to them.

There should have been some of the brothers from the Forest City branch in Iowa Falls, but none showed up. They missed a good time, also a good chance to get acquainted with some of the other brothers. We hope at the next meeting we can draw a better crowd.

On December 18th we held a meeting at Estherville and had a fine crowd, about twenty-five of the brothers being there. We also had the division officials there, except Mr. Rosser, he being in Des Moines and could not get there.

Bro. Meador was also at Estherville, and we expected Bro. Brown, but he was tied up in Chicago on committee business and could not get there.

We are planning on holding another meeting at Estherville in the near future and hope Bro. Brown will be able to attend.

It would be nice if we could hold meetings at Estherville regularly, get a hall and have a regular date for holding it, and every brother come and help to get a crowd and have a good meeting every month. If you had been to that meeting you sure would have had a good time and would have wanted to come again. Get to the next one and then you won't want to miss any of them.

Bro. Meador explained the schedule to the bunch and some of the brothers found they had not been getting all that was coming to them also.

Mr. Peterson promised to get the bulletins out regularly from now on; they will be out about the 5th and 20th, so if you don't get one about that time, drop Mr. Rosser's office a note. It may be that they had missed you in mailing them out.

The seniority list will be made up the first of the year, and one will be mailed to every office. If you don't get one, ask for it.

Mr. Peterson said he had been having trouble with the "505" report, some of the agents not making them out right. Now, this is a simple report, and should be made out correctly. If there is anything that you don't understand about it, ask Mr. Rosser's office, and they will make it plain to you.

Mr. Callender said some had not been making out the overtime slips right, some of them showing that the hours-of-service law had been violated. This law should not be violated, and if your slips show that it has been, Mr. Callender will send them back to you for correction, asking you to show time off for meals which you all have.

When you hear of another meeting at Estherville, all of you get there who possibly can. A vote of thanks was extended Mr. Rosser for his efforts in letting the brothers off, so this meeting would be a success, also for holding No. 923 one hour and forty-five minutes for the boys from the west end.

C. J. Wilson, former superintendent Dakota Division, was also extended a vote of thanks for his kindness in furnishing us a room in the Gardston Hotel, and then would not take anything for it.

Bro. Langton and agent Rath, from the M. & St. L., and Bro. Maher, who is farming now but still holds an O. R. T. card, were present.

Bro. Meador can sure give us the "dope" on the schedule. We enjoyed his visit very much. The only thing about him is that he sleeps too loud. I was several rooms from him and could hear him sleeping very plainly, but can forgive him for that if he keeps on working as hard in the future as he has in the past. We have a good man for G. S. & T., and we hope to have him at some of our future meetings.

Bro. Manby, relieved at Clarion by Bro. Story, from Germany, has gone to Ocheyedan as agent, Bro. Sturdevant relieving at Germany. Operator position at Luverne cut off.

Bro. Lockwood is relieving at West Bend pending bulletin. Did not learn where Bro. Paterson is going.

"Ye Scribe" was relieved on second Dows, December 18th, while attending the meeting at Estherville, by Mr. Bellman, former agent at Thompson.

If any of the brothers are short on their payroll any time, take it up at once with Mr. Ros-ser's office, and if he can not get it adjusted, take it up with our local chairman. We want all that is coming to us, and this is sometimes the only way to get it.

Get after the nons and keep them going. Show them that this is the only hope for them. Let us see if we can't make the Dakota Division solid.
You all have a list of them. Keep it on your table, and be careful where you give your favors.
We have a few "hardshells" on the Dakota Division. Remember them when they want a favor.
We favor them enough in the schedule without giving them any favors in their work. Save your favors for some brothers, and the nons will soon see their way clear to come in.

I suppose all of you read of the "Royal Moochers' Convention" in the November journal. You should remember that we have quite a few of them on this division. Remember them when they ask for something, and tell them to get it from some of the other "Moochers."

Time has come for the payment of dues for the term ending June 30th, and get them in not later than the February pay-day, also the M. B. D. to Bro. Quick then, so you will be in good standing all the time.

Remember that in the last schedule nearly all the men who did not get a raise were nons. Don't drop out, for we may cut all the nons out of the schedule next time. Even if you did not get any increase on the last schedule, it should be worth something to know that what you are now getting is being protected—to know that they can not cut your salary; even by cutting out the wires it remains the same. One operator pulled off at Sibley, Bro. Stanley going to Laurens, relieving Bro.
Gashel, who bid in White.

On account of reduction in force, two clerks were pulled off in the superintendent's office at Estherville, also a clerk in the master mechanic's office, the assistant car dispatcher and "CT" 80 clerk in the chief dispatcher's office. Mr. Win-grave, of third Estherville, was bumped by his friend from Indiana, Mr. Stagg, extra dispatcher.
Mr. Stagg was in Indiana for the holidays, relieved by Mr. Wingrave.

Mr. Peterson, agent Ottosen, has promised to get a card. The brothers should see that he does this, and then line up the one remaining agent between Iowa Falls and Estherville—the agent at Popejoy.

West Iowa Division—

Bro. H. O. Lorenzen, first Atlantic, is now back to work, after a couple of week's duck hunting in the northern part of the State, but Otto was rather unsuccessful on account of the deep snow.
He was relieved by Bro. M. E. Wallace, and he by Bro. J. H. Redmond, the latter now being in the neighborhood of Minneapolis.

W. P. Barrett is now in "H" Council Bluffs.
We hope "Bill" is getting better of the rheumatism he has had for some time and will soon be able to get that new card, as he was benefited this time with just as much as the boys with up-to-dates.

Bro. W. J. Edwards has resigned as general secretary and treasurer, succeeded by Bro. Meadow.
Here's wishing Bro. Meadow the best of success.
Let every member do all he can to assist him, and "keep the ball rolling." Sorry to see Bro.
Edwards leave us, as it is partly due to his efforts that we received our last raise.

We were all very glad to learn of the raise, which took effect the first of November, especially the nons and delinquents, as Mr. Non has it figured out he is getting something for nothing.
He should use a little reason, think this thing over and get in line, as it is a serious question. With $2.50 to $5.00 raise each time, where can he make a better investment than to have an up-to-date card. Every new schedule brings him twice and sometimes four times the amount of such an investment. It is a benefit to him and his family, so start the new year right by getting a card. If he would lend his wife the money, she would surely get him an up-to-date card for a New Year's present.

Wish you all a happy New Year.

L. E. H., Cert. 1449.

St. Louis Division—

Bro. Fred Biller bid in Centaur agency.

Chas. Allen, formerly on this division, who has been away for some time, is again with us, and relieved Bro. R. E. Barthram at Stover, on vacation. Later he bid in Leslie nights.

Bro. Danbury has returned from his vacation, which, by mistake in last month's items, was called his honeymoon. We are sorry for this error, and ask his pardon for injuring his feelings in this manner.

Bro. C. L. Hatler, of Barnett, is on his honymoon trip through the western States. Heartiest congratulations.

Sorry to report Bro. H. S. Bolander on the sick list, and truly hope he will soon be well and able to sign the well-known "BO" at "DO." He is being relieved by Bro. W. L. Monegan.

Wonder what's the attraction at El Reno that's drawing the attention of Bro. Stephens.

We are sorry to hear that our traveling freight agent, Mr. Morton, has been transferred to another division in Kansas, and hope it will only be temporary, and that he will be with us again soon. B. Weaver takes his place on this division.

Boys, if you would like to have a good, interesting write-up, send us some news. If it's but a line or two it will help and be appreciated.
Let's hear from some of you gentlemen the coming month.

Wish everyone on the St. Louis Division a happy
New Year.

P. M. A., Cert. 1773.

Missouri Division—

We congratulate Bro. K. F. Little, third Princeton, who was married to one of Allerton's most highly accomplished and esteemed young ladies.

R. G. Fox, Seymour second, off on account of his father's illness, was relieved by S. O. Carr.
Bro. P. V. Cox relieved on Seymour third a few days, made vacant, we understand, on account of the high cost of board.

C. P. Feelemyer relieved M. J. Fox, Princeton second, on vacation. Queer how these boys can take vacations when they are delinquent.

Udell is solid again—Bro. P. E. Rouch, agent and first; D. E. Cox, second; R. J. Underwood, third. Who can beat it?

Mrs. Frazier, agent East Pleasant Plain, is entertaining a new girl at her home. Can’t someone persuade Mrs. Frazier to unite with us?

Bro. G. N. Garrett, agent Unionville, was relieved December 10th by Mr. Bunton, and departed for Memphis, Tenn., it’s rumored, to take unto himself a better half.

Bro. Rouch, after a sixty-day vacation in quest of the elusive quail, returned to work December 5th.

Bro. Turner relieving Bro. Barnett, at Letts, while off to get married. I wonder where the matrimonial bureau is located.

Bro. Cartwright, extra third Jamesport, relieved by L. A. McShane, a new man. Sorry to lose “CA.”

Bro. Harry Moore, Amity, off a few days, was relieved by Mr. P. V. Cox, who also relieved at Altamont agency a few days and later relieved second trick man at Allerton.

Mr. Johnson is back at “SY” for a few days. When asked to line up he’s always broke. Bro. J. M. Boone, “SY” second, off a few days, was relieved by Bro. F. A. Moore. Bro. J. W. Boone is back on the “job,” A. R. Eberline going to Bellnap a few days, later relieved Bro. Porter, who went home sick with the mumps.

C. P. Seymourn, Troy, has gone to Kansas, relieved by A. C. Kemle, a new man, who promised to come in January 1st.

Rushville is solid, with Bros. F. Blackburn, J. E. Ouellet and A. E. Loe.

Expect to have all the Winthrop staff operators in with us by January 1st.

Bro. N. J. Chinn, second Beverly, is being relieved six weeks by Bro. C. C. Porter. We are glad to see him well and back with us again.

We had a fine meeting at Trenton on Saturday night, December 13th, there being about fifty present. These meetings will be held the second Saturday night in each month, and want you all to attend.

Bro. C. H. Meador was with us at this meeting. Bro. Brown was called to Chicago on grievances and was unable to be present.

The new men are coming here fast. Watch them, brothers, and let’s get them either transferred, if up to date, or have them join us. This is a job we all can get in on. If you haven’t the time to write these men, please drop your local chairman a card, advising their names and addresses, so he can look after them.

“BO,” Div. Cor.

General Office—

Topeka—The merry yuletide is with us again, the ground is mantled with a thick coat of the “beautiful” and we should be happy.

Sunday night, December 14th, while the monthly meeting of the Topeka Club was in progress a hurry-up telephone call came for Bro. Carver. He left without any explanation and much speculation was indulged in as to the cause of his hasty departure. Matters were cleared up on the following day, however, when Bro. Carver showed up at the office with a box of good cigars under his arm and told us “He weighs seven and a half pounds and signs ‘A.’”

The sympathy and condolence of the entire force were extended to Sister Brown in her recent bereavement, caused by the death of her father.

Bros. Allen and Hamilton are resting up at present on account of a reduction in force, occasioned by the installing of the Morkrum printers. These printers, with the assistance of Assistant Superintendant Wray, a Morkrum expert, Manager Whitney and seven girls manage to handle some business. More in point of numbers than the two men laid off, and some of the messages are almost readable, and the expense, as well as the delay, is three or four times what it would be to handle it by operators.

Attendance at the meeting of the Topeka Club on December 14th was very small. The brothers should not think because we have received a little raise in salary and a revised schedule that it will not be necessary to take any further interest in the Order until time for other negotiations. We should be working all the time and laying plans for future campaigns.

Bro. Rice, recently of “KI,” is at Herington relay office extra.

Bro. Hamilton, who spent Christmas with his mother and daughter down in Missouri, relieved Bro. O’Grady while the latter spent the holidays with home folks in Dawson, Neb.

Wire- Chief Jones, of Trenton, who made a short visit in “KI” the latter part of December, says he is coming in some of these days.

General Chairman Brown and General Secretary and Treasurer Meador have fitted up nice headquarters at 314 New England Building, Topeka, Kan., and the latchstring is always hanging on the outside. Brothers visiting Topeka should drop in and talk things over with them. They are always welcome.

Trenton, Mo.—Bro. Peyton, off a few days hunting rabbits, filled the rear apartment of his Ford the first day out.

Bro. Brewer’s ankle is still troubling him, causing him to lose considerable time.

Bro. Davenport visited his wife and children in St. Louis New Year. They have a daughter in a sanitarium at that place.

Bro. McClain is enjoying the sunny clime of Tennessee and Florida.

Bro. Powers goes to St. Joe every other Sunday to spend a few hours with home folks.

Saturday, December 13th, there was held in Trenton one of the largest and most enthusiastic meetings ever held on the Missouri Division. The relay boys had taken special pains to advertise this meeting, agitating strenuously for ten days, and the result was all that could be expected.

The meeting was called to order by Bro. Cazell, acting chairman, and the opening address by Bro. Brewer in point of oratory was a masterpiece.

A short time after the meeting was called to order General Secretary and Treasurer Meador and Local Chairman Plum led in a large delegation from the west, which arrived on No. 12. This addition to the crowd filled the hall to its capacity.

Bro. Brewer was followed in his address by Bros. Plum and Abernathy, who explained the unknown “joys” of a local chairman.

Visiting ex-Bro. Jackson, formerly local chairman on the Missouri Division, now retired from the railroad business, gave some very interesting comparisons between conditions of today and the past.

Bro. Meador then took the floor and explained in some detail the manner of schedule procuring, as used in the recent negotiations, and at the same time poured some oil on the troubled waters of a local dissatisfaction.

Bro. Parker, from Hickory Creek, with the Missourian’s usual foresight, fortified the bunch for the ordeal before them, by sneaking from the hall and returning with a sack of large, juicy apples.

The following brothers were among those present: Abernathy, Columbus Jct.; Brown, Fairfich; Coulter, Centerville; Friend, Nuna; Simonds and Little, Princeton; Short, Mill Grove; Cousins, Clio; J. A. Irvin, J. A. Nysat, F. H. Strong, Winston; J. F. Hanley, Edgerton; W. H. Plum, Edgerton Jct., and H. Boyd, from “RX.”

Committee.

ARKANSAS DIVISION

The writer did not get any news from his assistant correspondents. Hope they will come across next time.

J. R. Sangster, at Danville so long, has gone to Brinkley. Bro. A. P. Colvin relieved him.

Bro. Harbison, agent Magazine, was relieved by Bro. G. D. Lee, from Germany, to spend Christmas with Pa and Ma, whom he has not seen for ten years. If all the boys were of the caliber that Bro. Harbison is we would have it solid on this division.

Latimer, third Boonville, bid in Perry agency.

Bro. Williams, who has been on vacation, relieved Bro. Lee at Germany pending assignment.

Bro. Fowler, agent Haskell, bid in Danville agency.

Bro. Swain, extra, bid in third Boonville.

Ragsdale, of Bauxite, who bid in Wheatley, will take out a new card as soon as he gets moved.

Bro. Richardson, first Benton, received a $5.00 raise under the new schedule and will take out a new card.

Bro. V. O. Gardner, the old stand-by at Hot Springs, back from vacation, also received a $5.00 raise; which came in pretty handy, as he lost his household goods, including a piano. Bro. Culpepper, who was relieving him, went to Forrest City.

Mr. Silaz is one of the best chiefs on this division. Let us show him we appreciate his kindness by giving the dispatchers good service and eliminate complaints. Let’s hit the ball and prove to the company our worth.

Lots of the boys laid off to spend Christmas at home with their folks.

GEORGE D. LEE, CERT. 185.

SOUTHERN DIVISION

On account of washouts and putting out on four work trains on the Dallas Line the office at T. & P. crossing was temporarily opened with Mr. Gibb in charge.

Bro. Woodburn, our local chairman, has returned from Woodburn, Iowa, where he was called on account of the death of his father. He has our sympathy in this great misfortune.

Bro. Fitzgerald, on vacation, was relieved by Mr. Gibb, relieved by Mr. Deahle, of the Mo. Pac., who will line up shortly.

We have three tricks again at Bowie, filled by Bros. Eastlake, Wagner and Young. Bro. Eastlake also handles the cashier’s position. Bro. Young, who was sick some time, was relieved by Geo. Fitzgerald, who will line up in the near future.

Bro. Stewart, at Bryson, has resigned to accept a position as cashier in the Bryson State Bank, relieved by Bro. Marsh, from Division 145. We wish Bro. Stewart success in his new vocation.

Bro. Shelton, with his nice little farm, is now a little over on spuds and pumpkin yams to help him out on the high cost of living.

Bro. Jackson, in El Paso on account of his wife’s health, was relieved by Mr. Platt, of Swift & Co., Ft. Worth. We all hope to see “Jack” back again soon, and for the speedy improvement in his wife’s health.

Boys, watch the Western Union wire better. Recently I handled a message for Dallas they had been trying to move for twenty-four hours. It takes only a few moments every once in a while, especially of a morning, to ask Dallas if they have anything for us, and possibly avoid a law suit from some dissatisfied patron.

I am greatly indebted to Bro. Terhune for these items. It seems to be useless to ask any of the other brothers to send in little items, but I would appreciate any that come, so we can have a write-up each month. "BN."

El Paso Division

Everything looks fine on this division. Having plenty of rain no doubt we will have another season of the finest wheat crops ever raised in Kansas and West Texas, and that means more operators.

Now, boys, we have a new schedule and increase in pay, effective November 1st, and we must "hit the ball" and show the officials of our company that union men can do better work than nons. Watch out for all the nons. When they drop in on us without cards, let all the union men on the line know it and line them up. An agent at one of the smaller stations is making quite a kick because he did not get a raise, but as his station pays on an average with the other stations, compared with the work there and he has no card, he should come in and help us, then we can help him to get a raise. Our schedule is something to be proud of, and all the brothers are smiling over it. Remember our motto: "No cards, no favors," and stand by it.

The officials made two inspection trips over the line last month and all stations looked nice, as the agents keep them that way for the patrons of our road.

Bro. O. R. Powers, agent Canton, one of our old-timers, was away fifteen days, the latter part of November, on a nice hunting trip to Oklahoma, accompanied by his brothers.

Bro. W. A. Warren, agent Kingedow, while attending court at Pratt, was relieved by W. R. Lauderdale.

Bro. C. M. Pierce has returned from a thirty days' vacation to first Liberal.

R. S. Hardy goes to Nara Visa on third, just opened again, and Mr. Sey to second there. Keep after them, boys.

Bro. E. Mitcham, from Dalhart, takes third Liberal, and Extra Dispatcher C. D. Williamson is back nights at Dalhart.

Jno. Souer, agent Cullison, is in Kansas City for an operation. We hope he will pull through all right, and come back and get a card.

Bro. H. R. Crist, agent Tampa, has returned from his honeymoon, now has a home of his own and has quit sleeping in the depot.

Sunday, December 14, 1913, time table No. 26 took effect at 12:01 a.m. with very few changes.

Recent assignments: Meade nights, N. A. Collins, and Bucklin third, L. D. Dempsey.

Open for bids: Fowler nights and Meade days.

Be sure and mail copy of your bid to Local Chairman C. M. Sides, Pratt, Kan.

H. H. Dayton got away from Fowler without getting that card.

Brothers, explain the whole works to them and get them in.

Bro. Fred Samples, Mineola first, to Dodge City a few days, relieved by Mr. Maxfield.

S. H. McCamant relieved Mr. Finney, agent Meade. Mr. Fariden, at Meade, is going to get in line shortly.

Only a few nons left now on this division.

Let's make it solid for 1914.

A. Stannard, Meade nights, relieving Munson on Bucklin second, was relieved by the helper at Meade, but he could not hold it.

The company is testing the water at Tampa, Kan., for steaming purposes, with the intention of putting in a water tank.

Very few notes were received for this write-up. Be sure and send in all changes and happenings along the line to Bro. C. M. Pierce, Liberal, Kan., and let the other boys know what we are doing.

With best wishes to all the brothers and their families for a happy New Year, let us all start it right by working for our Order.

Ed., Cert. 2855.

Louisiana Division

It has been so long since there has been anything in the journal from this division that some of the boys have begun to think the division has been taken from them, but we have awakened and are going to claim our space in the journal.

Last year we did not have any local chairman, and since Bro. Hanley came in he has had all he could do without writing, as he has used all his time getting the nons in and has made good at it too, for which we all ought to praise him and give him our support and best wishes, if we can't hand him anything else.

There have been several changes in the last few months, but the most of the boys are old heads and are sticking to their posts.

We only have a few nons left over here, and there will still be less of them inside of a month.

Bro. E. R. Bennett transferred from Ivan to Quitman, La. We hate to lose him, but he wanted something bigger. I have not learned who relieved him. Ivan is now open for bids. Boys, watch out for these good places and keep these new men generally nons out, and stick to what is good when you get to it.

I understand that after January 1st, 1914, the parcel post package weights will be increased to fifty pounds. The agent at Harrell says that he will have to buy a wagon and a horse if not given help pretty soon, as he has to make three trips now to get the mail to the postoffice.

F. L. Magoon, a new man, bid in Randolph agency; W. Otto, another new man bid in Upland, and Bro. J. E. Farlow got Meridan (new name for Pierre).

All the boys are feeling fine over their raise. Bro. Loventhal, first Ruston, who has been off for some time on the sick list, resumed December 15th.

Morton, at El Dorado, has been acting as dispatcher recently.
Bro. McQuidy, the old-reliable, at Winnfield, was checked in as agent there December 15th, relieving Mr. Chalfant on vacation.

Bro. E. P. Davis, at Harrell, don't let the grass grow under his feet when it comes to telling the nons all about it, and the good there is in it.

Jonesboro has added a new position, a cashier and operator.

Bro. Grafton spent a few days at his old home in Bernice the first of December.

Bro. Bennett, at Quitman, and Ogden, at Wyatt, are letting the nons hear from them and doing good work too.

Bro. Corbet, of Dubach, on the sick list several days, is back at work again.

All the boys should read over the new contract thoroughly and familiarize themselves with the new schedule, as there is a lot of good "doings" in it.

Our local chairman has expressed himself as pleased with the good work the boys are rendering him, in running in the remaining nons.

Our local chairman paid the boys on the south end a visit from Junction City south, on a recent Sunday. We would like to see him up this way some time in the near future.

Would like to hear from some of the other boys.

Lake Shore & Michigan Southern Ry.

Western Division—

Hurrah! The ball has started to roll.

Our meeting held at LaPorte on December 9th was a decided success and was fairly attended, considering the poor train service in and out of LaPorte. Brothers west of here were unable to attend at all, which made a smaller attendance than otherwise.

We have inaugurated the use of the ritual which makes our meetings more business-like. Officers were appointed for the evening, and later officers were elected for the next term, as follows: Chief telegrapher, Bro. J. T. Bauchman; first vice-chief telegrapher, Bro. Hostick; second vice-chief telegrapher, Bro. Mallory; secretary and treasurer, Bro. Pratt, and marshal, Bro. Lougee. Bro. Scroggins was appointed inside sentinel by the chief telegrapher. Bro. Warner, first nominated for chief telegrapher, declined to accept, as, owing to his wife's poor health, he would be unable to attend all the meetings, and thought there should be a brother in this office that could attend regularly. Bro. Scroggins was then nominated, but he also declined to accept, saying that he was not well enough versed on the ritual. We were unable to persuade him differently.

Bro. Smith, from Detroit, was with us, which was a great pleasure to all present, he having attended a number of the meetings, which are held regularly at Engineers' Hall, Toledo, and, being well versed on the ritual and how to use it, was of great help to us when starting in here. He has done wonderful work organizing, and recently made a trip over the Western Division and succeeded in landing a number of new members, including a couple of ardent nons. We hope he can arrange to be with us at all our meetings, and that there were a few more Bro. Smiths on this division.

First Vice-President J. A. Newman expected to be with us, but at the eleventh hour Bro. Graham received a letter stating he would be unable to attend on account of schedule negotiations on the Frisco lines. We hope to have him at the next meeting.

On December 1st we handed the officials a request to meet our committee within thirty days, or as soon thereafter as possible, and expect to have a hearing in the near future regarding the schedule, which, if it goes through (and it will if we make it), will make our positions of the same class as other roads.

We have sat still long enough and seen our neighboring operators on other roads get better conditions and increases in pay, while we still go on at the same old rate, and we will continue to do so if we don't get together and stick.

Get the percentage of members and the backing so strong that they can't refuse us what we ask. Now is the time—not next year, but now.

We have appointed a committee to try to persuade Superintendent Smith to stop No. 23 at Chesterton for the boys east of there to get off on the night of the meeting, and we think that this favor will be granted us.

Our next meeting will be held at Chesterton some time during the month of January and regularly thereafter, and we hope that there will be a large crowd of the brothers turn out. There is good train service in and out of there.

Now, brothers, wake up and take some interest in your own welfare. Don't sit idle and let your rights be imposed upon. Try to land the non next to you, and when we are 98 per cent strong we can do something that will open your eyes. There is a chance for decided improvement, and that improvement can't be made by the local chairman, but by the members themselves. Our local chairman is doing all he can, which is a great deal, considering his health.

We have the promise from quite a few of the boys that they will come in the first of the year, so after next pay day don't fail to touch up each non near you. There will be a committee of three or four members cover the division after the first of the year, equipped to take in any who wish to come in.

Bro. Witter, who was on second West tower, is back on third there, Mr. Pancake going back to Osceola to run his telephone exchange.

Mr. Long, agent Osceola, while on vacation was relieved by his brother, from second West tower, Elkhart.

Bro. Graham, local chairman, while attending the meeting at Toledo was relieved by Mr. Climer, who we expect to have with us before long.

Bro. Norton, first "NX," was relieved by "Traveling Operator" Lee while he attended the land show in Chicago. It would have been Bro. Lee by this time had he not had the misfortune to have his suitcase in the station at Chesterton when it burned down one right recently. Bro. Whitehead was considerably excited when he smelt smoke, and later discovered that the whole station was afire, and after turning in an alarm could not talk on the phone, only from the outside through the window. They are now located in a couple of coaches there until a new station is built.

Bro. Summers is now on first Norwood, vice Mr. Straight, gone to California. "Bro. Summers" sounds good. Mr. Cain is on second and Mr. Darby on third there, whom we hope to land in the near future.

Mr. Fulton, third Porte, promises to be with us by the first of the year. That will be starting right.

Bro. Vaughn, from Millers, was in LaPorte on "biz" recently.

The following offices can now hang up their little sign, "Solid O. R. T.:
Mishawaka, South Bend, Three-I Crossing, Lydick, Rolling Prairie, Lake Erie Crossing, Chesterton and Pine; and there are two members in West tower Elkhart, "PM" tower LaPorte, Durham, Otis, Indiana Harbor, 101st street, South Chicago. This looks very good, but it has to look still better before we can get what we want.

Bro. Sharp, who was off a few days on account of sickness, is back on the job, feeling much better.

Mr. Kessler, a new man on third South Chicago, is a good man, so go after him, boys.

Not so much switch chasing at "RW" South Chicago now, as tracks 3 and 4 have been abandoned between Manistee avenue and 73d street, to accommodate bridge work at the latter.

Ex-Bro. Brockman, Whiting tower second, has been spending two weeks’ vacation with his parents in Florida, relieved by Bro. Gray, from Division 75, who will transfer soon. Understand Mr. Brockman will leave soon for the land of sunshine and roses to make his future home.

R. R. Smith, on third "BR," says he will take out a card the first of the year, and we will be right there to remind him of his promise.

Bro. Vaughn puts in a few words on No. 2 phone now and then.

Owing to Operator Foltz’s father being taken sick, Bro. Mallory was recently called to do his stunt at "BC."

Bro. Pratt, third "RO," says he is going to purchase a horse and cart to haul the mail up to the post office. Mr. Tracy is now on second at Whiting station, and Bro. Coloway is on third "CW" (101st street).

Thanks to Bro. Coloway for the above note. Some of the other ambitious brothers might send in a few and help to keep the thing going.

Anyone who can use any application blanks just write me or Bro. Graham, and they will be sent you at once.

All pull together, and remember, "In union there is strength," and "No card no favors."

"BILL," Cert. 610.

Detroit Division—

The December meeting, held at Crowe’s Hall, Toledo, was well attended, several members from this division being present.

One new member was initiated with full honors, and the proposed new schedule now in the hands of the management was read by Chief Operator Miller.

I understand it is proposed to have a smoker and refreshments at our next meeting; so, boys, be on hand and enjoy the evening with a good bunch.

The following positions have been reassigned on bulletin: Trenton tower second, Bro. C. J. Merwin; Monroe third, Bro. Allen Ray; South yards second, Bro. Zollner; Trenton tower third, Bro. Roberts; Vienna third retained by Mr. Miller, extra there, pending bulletin.

Two more beneficents have been added to the Detroit branch lately, namely, Bro. C. J. Merwin and Bro. J. W. Sackett. Phoner Eberline received Bro. Sackett on his wedding trip North.

All our extra men seem to be "phoners," and relief on a position requiring wire work is hard to get. The low salaries paid on this road are undoubtedly the cause of this, and it is to be hoped that the new schedule will help to modify this trouble in future.

Brothers, get your dues in as early as possible this term, so as to give your committee every encouragement while seeking to better your position with the management. "N," Cert. 373.

Eastern Division—

A new year has just started, and among the new resolutions which we make let some of them be that we will keep paid up and in good standing, and that we will do our best to keep our offices solid and help the other brothers to keep theirs solid.

The year 1913 has been a very prosperous one for the Order on this division, the membership being the best in the history of the Order. Let us strive to keep it so and better it all we can. Our committee will soon be in action with the managing officials on a new schedule and a wage increase, and with a good backing we are bound to win out.

There are only a few nons left on this division, mostly west of Erie, and we expect to land a number of these after January 1st.

Bro. Streets, first Lake View, on a hunting trip, expects to bring in some big game.

Bro. C. Crawford, first Bay View, off a few days, was relieved by Bro. L. G. Graney.

Mr. Lamb, of Willoughby, who has been sick for some time, is back at work.

Bro. T. E. Broche took Thanksgiving day, relieved by Bro. Glen Miller, extra.

Wm. Hall, second Madison, off a few days, was relieved by H. W. Williams. It’s about time "Bill" was getting in line.

Bro. Jake Giesinger, Seneca tower, recently visited friends and relatives at Corry, Pa., and Silver Creek, N. Y.
The Railroad Telegrapher.

Bro. L. G. Hemmink, on the expiration of his three months' leave of absence, resigned to enter business for himself.

Bro. John Leo secured third Seneca tower; Bro. Joe Schroeder, third Buffalo Creek tower; Bro. C. M. Smith, second Erie depot, and Bro. Sweitzer, Erie yard office days. Regular relief position is still open.

Bro. Clifford Greene, of North East, on three months' leave, has entered the printing business with his brother at North East. "Jimmy" is an old-timer at this business.

Bro. F. Zeebe had a pleasant visit with his folks at Spring Creek, Pa., recently.

Bro. Del. Beidick, third Dunkirk tower, visited the old folks at home over Christmas.

H. L. Cantrick, third Erie depot, was requested to resign, and Bro. J. A. Clavin bid in the vacancy.

The installation of track No. 1 from Madison to Saybrook makes this division a solid four tracks. This also relieved Bro. C. L. Haasen, agent Saybrook, of the arduous task of watching the interlocking at that point.

The meeting held at Ashtabula, Ohio, December 17th, 1913, was attended by about twenty-two brothers, among them being A. B. Carey and Hass from Amboy, E. E. Smith and Kennedy from the Franklin Division, and Bro. Baldwin from the Toledo Division.

Bro. Geo. Kipp, general chairman, went over our proposed new schedule, which the committee will present to the managing officials soon, and with the backing which is necessary we will be sure to win.

Remember our motto: "No card, no favors."
"Grrp," Cert. 287.

C., B. & Q. R. R.

Relay Division

If you have not paid your dues for the current term, you should do so at once, in order to save the trouble and expense of getting out a second notice of dues, which takes up considerable time of your officers, who could be giving their attention to lining up the nons instead of going after the members to pay up. The same proposition confronts us every six months. You can help out greatly by giving the matter of dues prompt attention, and also getting after some luke-warm member to pay up.

Business is rather dull, and the force in every office is being reduced. Telegraphers generally are in demand, and if the present conditions continue very long, we will lose a lot of good men. There are quite of number compelled to move around who are well up on the seniority list.

It seems that some of our members do not understand the seniority clause in the schedule. Office seniority rules in all offices under the jurisdiction of the superintendent of telegraph, the minimum salaried position is bulletinized and assigned according to division seniority. In case it becomes necessary to reduce the force in an office, the last man in is the first out, regardless of his division seniority over other men in that office. After being so reduced he may exercise his division seniority by taking the position of the youngest man in the relay division at whatever office he may be located. A telegrapher not assigned by bulletin since this schedule went into effect holds no office seniority, and regularly assigned men have preference over him in case of reduction.

A great many seem to be under the impression that in case a reduction is made in an office it should be made on division seniority. This is not in accordance with the schedule to promote on office seniority and reduce on division seniority.

That part of the schedule which says, "When reducing the force, the service of the youngest telegrapher will be dispensed with first," does not apply to a reduction of force in any particular office, but applies to the Relay Division as a whole; that is, the service of the youngest man in the Relay Division is to be dispensed with first. This clause seems to be the cause for so many getting the wrong interpretation of the schedule.

During the time the old schedule was in effect the members on this division requested this office seniority clause, by a referendum vote. While we can consider no change in the rule at this time, I want each member to write me as to how he understood it, whether a reduction in an office was to be made on office seniority or division seniority.

J. J. Rose, Local Chairman.
2153 Ridge Ave., Evanston, Ill.

Relay Division Notes

Bro. Coats, "GO," took a few days off the first part of December to visit his mother at Winchester, Ind.

Bro. Dahlberg, "GT," is enjoying a sixty-day leave of absence in Florida.

Bro. Burkhalter, "GT," spent a day in Chicago on business during the latter part of December.

Bro. Cooley, "G," passed through Chicago recently and stopped in to shake hands with the boys in "GO."

Bro. Wilkins, who was just assigned the La Crosse position, lost out on account of reduction in force at "CX," and was transferred to Omaha temporarily.

Bro. Buck and Riggin, "GO," have been laid off and are taking a short vacation before they transfer to some other office.

Harry Hum, at "OU," is still promising to join. We hope some day he will make good.

Bro. Pawling, "GT," has just returned from a ninety-day leave of absence.

Div. Cor.

Lincoln Division Relay

Bro. Hillman, "M," and Bro. VanArsdale, "VE," were relieved on account of reduction in force to winter basis, the former going to Kansas City and the latter to Jacksonville, Fla.

Dick Thornton and Bro. Doc Blodgett took in the sights at Chicago while doing a little Christmas shopping. "VO" will be glad to give some pointers on the cabaret shows.

Bro. Hayes, "GN," off a few days to catch up in his studies preparing for examinations, was relieved by Extra Crane.

Mr. Brooks has decided to enter his Rhode Island red pullets at the Auditorium in Bro. Wickham's poultry show, and expects to carry off first prize.

Bro. Blodgett went to York, Thanksgiving, on a wolf hunt, but the wolves would not wait long enough to let him get a shot.

Bro. Waite boasts of being some candy maker, but we are inclined to think that Miss Waite does the making.

Gene Sage, of the superintendent's office in Chicago, visited with us Sunday recently, and missed connections to Chicago on his return by ten minutes.

Mr. Bryan, our second trick chief, was very much disappointed, though very happy, that he was unable to name his new arrival "W. J." He will have to name it "Rosey." CRRT. 2747.

_La Crosse Division_

Brothers: I have just returned from a trip over the division and found things in a promising condition, but there is room for improvement. I succeeded in writing up eleven new members and expect several more before long. We are starting on a new year. Let's make it a booster, and make our membership as near solid as possible on this division. I can not do it all, as correspondence, grievances and other things keep me from getting out as much as desired. Train service being very poor makes it bad to get out and back without losing time. I don't think it is necessary for me to lay off when there is a chance for the other brothers to do it. We now have only four nons between Savanna and La Crosse, a distance of 158 miles, and the district between La Crosse and St.
Paul is in good shape, but plenty of room for all the brothers to show what they can do. See if we can not make a good showing this year by all pulling together.

In the future you may send notes for the journal to me, but be very careful about using the journal for a chance to give some non a slam by using his name. These kind of notes have to be cut out before I can send them in. That has been one reason why some notes did not appear.

Wish you all a happy and prosperous New Year.
W. B. SCHUNK, L. C.; Savanna, Ill.

_La Crosse Division Notes_

Bro. H. F. Booth, second Glen Haven, returned from his vacation and relieved Agent Cassville Williams, resigned.

Bro. C. J. Nelson received Dubuque. We all wish him success.

Bro. D. A. Gilliland, off a week on account of sickness, was relieved by Mr. Lewton, from the relay department, who later relieved Bro. Schunk, while covering the division, and then relieved Bro.
Slaght, second Savanna, for a month.

It is now Bros. Falkenstein and A. W. Koch, Wylausig; I. J. Willard, Bagley; W. W. Green and H. F. Booth, Glen Haven; Geo. Johnson and
C. D. Wilson, McCartney; P. H. Roser and H. C.
Brown, Potosi; J. F. Seebec, Marcus, and H. L.
Shanks, Hager. We hope we can soon name some more.

Bro. W. E. Garber has resigned as division correspondent, and it will be next to impossible to have a write-up unless the brothers send in some notes. In the future your local chairman will look after this and asks every brother to help out, if only with one note. See if we can not be represented in the journal every month.

Several offices have been closed for the winter, but it is hoped that all brothers losing out will land something else until spring.

Recent assignments: Bro. O. S. Berger, agent
DeSoto; Bro. L. R. Smeltzer, agent Nelson; Bro.
C. X. Hartman, second "JD."

Bro. A. W. Scholmeir, agent "FD" City, had the misfortune to lose three of his fingers while hunting, but will resume work in a short time.

Bro. Rupp, agent Cassville, has accepted a position in the bank there. We all regret losing Bro.
Rupp, but wish him success.

There have been a great number of offices closed on account of business falling off. All affected by this cut hold their seniority rights for three months. These jobs will no doubt be opened again in a few months, or sooner if business comes up again.

Would like to have some notes from the brothers on the north end.

_Beardstown Division_

Pad. Haist, third Bader, spent a couple of days sightseeing in Peoria recently, relieved by Mr.
Nelms.

Bro. Ob. Haist, phoner Beardstown relay, laid off on account of reducing force, returned to sec-at Adair also relieved Bro. Ore, Greenfield nights.

Bro. L. A. Carnahan, from second Block 107, bid in second Bader.

Mr. Spence, a new man, was given Chapin, being the only one bidding.

Bro. P. C. Hen.jerson, third Bader, has gone to the C. & A. at Roodhouse.

Beardstown yard office closed from 7 p. m. until 7 a.m., Bro. Hanks doing the twelve-hour stunt.
Hope Bros. Danford and Clower will get back soon again. The trainmen are calling up by telephone from the yard and clearing themselves now nights. Boys, we should look into this as they come under the nine-hour law when they do this, and it has thrown two good brothers out of work.

Bro. Turley, first Concord, taken off, went to first trick Block 104, the agent handling the wires
now. Mr. Fordyce from first to second there; Mr.
Clayton from second to Block 107 second.

C. Mosier, from Wrights, who relieved G. A.
Dyer, agent Browning, while he attended court, later relieved Mr. Lindsey, agent North Henderson, for a few days.
Positions recently abolished: Ayers, Atwater and Franklin, two tricks; Keyesport and Concord, one man; Girard, agent working the twelve-hour stunt; two trick. Centralia yard, now closed from 8 p.m. till 8 a.m.; one man Metropolis. Business slack in relay office also.

It has been quite a while since the jack line has had much in THE TELEGRAPHER, because of lack of interest among the boys. Now let each individual send in a few items and we can have a writer for THE TELEGRAPHER every month.

W. W. Mumbower, of Litchfield, bid in Piagah station, vice John Livesey, to the “Clover Leaf” as agent Sorrento.

The closing of Franklin nights released Geo. Harney and P. W. Batis. This is the first time Franklin has been closed nights in the winter since the Burlington took over the old J. & St. L. The new double track and slack business is the cause.

Boys, let’s see if we can’t make this line at least 95 per cent strong, and we can soon make it solid.

I understand one station along this line has turned out five hams already this fall, and the good brother there is making another one now. He is only hurting himself as one of these days one of these hams will take his place. I hope we will not have to mention what station or his name. It does not take much to make a ham telephoner, but when they get so scarce trains can’t run without them, then is the time to make them. They are not needed now.

Let’s get after all the agents and cashiers along this line and get them in our schedule when we go up for an increase. All they have to do is get a card.

Brothers, talk with the conductors in regard to calling up the dispatchers at blind sightings, giving the block for passenger trains and copying train orders, and get them to cut this out and help us to keep a few more men working. Show them that they are doing wrong. Notify the local chairman of every case of this kind you hear of.

Bro. S. H. Frazier, our worthy local chairman, was over the division lately giving the boys the glad hand and words of encouragement.

It is now Bro. Yowell at Litchfield and Bro. Cole at Keyesport.

They certainly need a new schedule down on the jack line, as this is the smallest paying division for telegraphers the Burlington has. The way to get one is to get in the nonis.

Bro. D. Kastrup, first Jacksonville, has returned after three weeks’ leave of absence.

I want to thank all the brothers who sent me items this month and hope they will keep it up. I have you down even though I don’t mention your name.

Div. Cov.

Hannibal Division—

A meeting of operators and agents was held in Hannibal, Sunday afternoon, December 7th. The meeting was opened about 2:00 p.m. by the local chairman, who made a brief talk in regard to conditions on this division, and in a very impressive manner expressed his appreciation to the seventeen brothers who came in on No. 43 with him, four from the Hannibal relay and Bro. Jones, from Brookfield relay, for their presence. We were very glad to have Bro. Jones with us. We hope he enjoyed the trip as much as we did having him with us, and that he will repeat it some time in the future. There was no representative from the North Division in attendance, but we know they have not lost faith in the methods pursued by the O. R. T., and have been reminding their neighbors of “Safety First,” which signifies an “Up-to-date” first. last and all the time, so far as we, “as a band of friends and brothers,” are concerned. When the railroad company recognized us as a labor organization, they presumed that every operator and agent whose position was covered by the agreement would become a member of the organization which represented them, and would continue so, during the future years, bringing about revisions of the schedule, which would benefit the men and the company as well. Therefore it behooves us to remain cemented together, by paying our dues regularly and keeping a sharp lookout for the man who is receiving benefits and has paid nothing for them. When a case of this kind is brought to our notice it is time to bring such a character from darkness to light, that he may see and understand what our organization stands for. Bro. Carder was introduced as the first speaker. His remarks were enjoyed by all concerned, after expressing his appreciation at seeing such a goodly number in attendance, on such a bitter day, he gave us a brief outline of what he and Bro. Rogers had been doing during the past months, which was good news to us. We are in hopes that next time we hold a meeting that Bro. Rogers can also be with us.

Bro. Guy Zinn, in his usual manner, gave a splendid talk that was highly appreciated by all those present. He is one of the best we have on the Hannibal Division and never fails to do his part. We only wish there were a few more like him.

Bro. Fount Palmer, agent Ville, was recently initiated in the Elks at Pt. Madison.

Bro. Palmer, off a few days on account of the death of his stepmother, Mrs. J. S. Palmer, of Elaberry, was relieved by Bro. Lew, of Sandusky, and he by Mr. Epperson.

Cooper, Keokuk yards and Helton days have been closed.

Bro. Clayton was in “X” Hannibal a few days.

Bro. Truit, of Saverton, attended the poultry show in Louisiana recently.

T. J. Lowrie was off a few days attending a law suit in Stoutsville, Ill.

Bro. Lee, third Hannibal yards, spent Thanksgiving with home folks, relieved by E. W. Thompson, who later relieved Mr. Garner, second Hannibal yards, on vacation.

D. C. McCall, agent Saverton, is back after a month’s vacation, relieved by Bro. Tully, relieved on third by Extra Gist.

Mr. Klousmeir, agent Gregory, off two weeks, was relieved by Bro. Landell, Hawk Point nights, who later relieved Bro. Lemon, LeGrange, on account of the death of his child, relieved by B. Gist, later relieved by J. E. Chrisman.

A few needed repairs are being made around the Ft. Madison freight house.

Bro. Blinco, night Wellsville, who relieved Bro. Gough, agent West Alton, on vacation, was relieved by J. E. Chrisman.

G. A. Garner, W. L. Gilmore, E. W. Thompson and W. L. Gilmore have promised to take out a card the first of the year. Some of the other nons along the line should do likewise.

Bro. J. E. McHugh, third Foley, off a few days, was relieved by C. Epperson. Div. Com.

Brookfield Division—

Bro. Jones, Brookfield relay, has been appointed assistant local chairman in charge of the west end and will make a special trip over his end to line up the nons.

Bro. C. A. Martin, third Osborne, off a few days recently, was relieved by Bro. H. L. Spaulding, from the Rock Island, who later relieved Extra Squires at Hamilton.

Bro. C. S. Schoup has returned from Brookfield relay to first Hamilton, relieving Bro. Spaulding, who went to second Randolph a few days.

Bucklin first was closed in December, putting Bro. Nolan, who has been with the company nine years, on the extra list. We hope he will soon strike another regular.

All members on this division remember your obligation and keep the students out. Some are not doing this.

Recent assignments: Bro. J. C. Schweikhaus to second Easton; Bro. Miller, first Laclede; Bro. Holt, Chandler agency; H. D. Hall, second Bucklin; Young Holt, second Saxton; F. E. Emmerson, second Nettleton; Cy. Golden, second South Park.

Our Bro-Agent Nettleton must talk Mike into the Order when he arrives to take charge of second.

Bro. P. E. Bagley, agent Utica, is off sixty days working for the county, relieved by Bro. Smith, with Extra Dowling on second, who promises to be with us soon.

Your 1913 cards are no good now, so get another, as they look good.

E. E. Devinia, third Breckenridge, off a few days recently, was relieved by F. E. Emmerson, who later relieved Mr. Shepherd, second Meadville.

Bro. Peck, line up Devinia and Emmerson.

We are going after another schedule in February and need them all.

My address is O. F. Miller, Laclede, Mo. Do not forget to send me any news you have. Unless you do our write-up will be short.

Mr. Allen's chief clerk, W. D. Welsh, was off during the holidays on a visit through Texas. We wish him a pleasant journey and a joyful and happy New Year as he is a prince with the operators on the division.

We are not certain about the ham factory at Cameron, Mo., but everyone on the division will hear the outcome, as soon as I get it from our local chairman.

Account of taking my vacation, the first twenty days in January there will be no write-up next month unless I can get some one to handle it for me, so if you do not see any do not be disappointed.

"KT."

MANDAN, N. D., December 15, 1913.

To Membership Ottumwa Division—

As it was necessary for me to leave the climate of Iowa on account of my wife's health, I desire to take this means of extending to each of you my regrets at having to leave you as your local chairman. My relations and official duties with you have been of the pleasantest nature. In the two elections in which I was elected by you, by a good majority each time, proves to me conclusively that you had that confidence in me that it takes to make a success of the organization. When I took charge of the division in February, 1912, there were between 35 and 40 non-members on the division, when I left it in September, 1913, there were only 10 or 12. Some of those have been here since the organization first started on the Burlington, but we hope that the way of light will yet be broken to them in such a way that they will see that they are standing in their own way. In leaving the division does not mean that I will forget it, for I expect to keep an eye on the journal each month to see what is going on there. During my time in office we had a write-up in the journal each month. I trust you will pick out the man you want for the place and elect him and then each of you try and help all you can to lighten his burdens, and each of you give him your loyal support. With best wishes and wishing you all a prosperous New Year.

E. A. Brand,

Ex-Local Chairman.

Creston Division—

I hope that by the time this reaches you your dues for the first half of 1914 have been paid, if not, don't neglect them, but get busy and pay up. Remember the $5.00 O. R. T. dues goes to Bro. J. H. Rogers, 717 North 10th St., La Crosse, Wis., and your M. B. D. assessment to Bro. L. W. Quick, Star Bldg., St. Louis, Mo. Our division at present is in excellent shape. Let's keep it that way. If each member will keep his dues paid up it will be an easy matter, not only to keep it where it's at, but build it up still stronger. There is material left yet to build on. See if you can't get hold of some of this material and work on it.

R. L. Hale, L. C.

Creston Division Notes—

Bro. L. K. Wells, first Shenandoah, is laying off, relieved by Mr. Stokes, from the Wabash at Malvern. Bro. Fleming, agent Greenfield, is on vacation, relieved by Bro. D. Ellis.

Bro. F. H. Evers, first Maryville, on thirty days' vacation, was relieved by Mr. Crandall, a new man, later went to Pacific Jct.
THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER.

Agent Brownlee, of Savannah, off sick, was relieved by Extra Shean.

Guy Clarke, former agent Emerson, is back as operator at Bedford, Iowa.

Harry Cook, a brother of Bro. R. E. Cook, of Barnard, Mo., is on second Shenandoah, extra; P. G. Thompson, a new one, was agent at Coburg pending bulletin. Later, I understand, Gleason decided to remain there. Bro. Miller, of Shenandoah, on a month's vacation to the western coast.

There have been several positions closed recently, among them Creston office: Bro. W. N. Robbins, Bro. E. H. Knight and Bro. E. H. Unangst had the three tricks in that office. Robbins went to second Red Oak; Knight to second Glenwood, and Unangst is laying off.

B. C. Micetto is now on third Red Oak account of reduction in force at Creston, and Mr. Hainey was also thrown out of work there.

Bro. Roberts, second Glenwood, off on account of sickness, we understand, is improving.

Bro. Barkus, third Malvern, off a few days on account of sickness, was relieved by Phoner D. H. Harvey.

Bro. G. B. Milliga to third Balfour, relieved on second there by C. F. Farthing, he later by Phoner Helfin; Trotter from third Balfour to a trick at McPherson.

Bro. Dan Gleason is on second Hastings, vice C. E. Seveland, resigned, and gone South.

Bro. E. H. Balcom, extra Red Oak, resigned.

Brooks second abolished making that office a twelve-hour job for Bro. Marr.

Bro. Bishop, Cook, Evers and Hale contributed to the write-up.

Sterling Division—

This is the month that our secretary and treasurer should receive our offerings for an up-to-date card for the New Year. Pay your dues and get a new card to start the New Year. It costs our Order money to be reminding you of your non-payment of dues. Get after the non perhaps your next-door neighbor and see that he turns a new leaf by handing you his application. If you haven't the blanks the local chairman has an endless amount of them, and will gladly mail them upon request. A man must be in awful hard luck to excuse him from giving up the price of an up-to-date card twice a year. If we can't pay for them now, how did we pay when we were working for almost half the money? It's just imagination. Perhaps the non doesn't realize that he or his family are reaping daily the benefits of the organization brought about by our solid membership, which stands behind our committee as a protection, while laboring for better conditions. The non heretofore received his per cent of the increase in pay, the same as the man that pays his dues. If the nons who refuse to pay for cards were told that unless they did so they would have to retain the old salary paid them previous to the first schedule, there would be no nons.

What do you think of your pay as manager of the Western Union? Do you consider you are paid for your labor when you deliver about fifty messages during the month, make up your monthly reports and handle the other necessaries, and when you make up your commission voucher for the month you are possibly $1.50 to the good, providing there isn't too many of the messages received paid and you sent too many sent collect. Why can't we get 10 per cent both ways the same as the express? If we have to hire some messenger boy to deliver these messages how long does it take him to earn your commission? Perhaps two days. Be glad to have some of you brothers explain this to me in the next issue.

Bro. Sill bid in Morrill, Neb.; Bro. Forbes, Curtis nights, I suppose, is waiting anxiously for the cashier's position vacated by Bro. Sill.

Bro. Pinkerton bid in Bayard, and Dickens is on bulletin.

Bro. Norris, on vacation, was relieved by Extra Agent Bro. Tucker, who also relieved Bro. Reynolds, on the sick list.

Bro. Hie, of Dalton, on a trip to Salt Lake, writing some old acquaintances tells us the boys out there have an $85 minimum and ours is $60. They also have house rent and fuel. Bro. Hie was relieved by Bro. Gasterau, who later relieved Mr. Jenkins at Mitchell when he went to Bridgeport.

Boys, give us some items and we will try to have a write-up every month.

A. J. KARAKER.

Wymore Division—

We have started out on a new year. The past one has been prosperous for the Order, especially for Division 130. Have you done your share to make it so by assisting in increasing the membership? If you have not worked on every non within your reach endeavoring to obtain his application for membership in the O. R. T., you have not done your duty toward the Order or your fellow workers.

Let us all start the year by firmly resolving to line up every non on the Wymore Division not later than July 1, 1914.

We should give our best services to the company. A union man should give full measure and just a little more. Let us show the officials during the coming year that it pays to find out if a man carries an up-to-date O. R. T. card before hiring him to work for them as a telegrapher.

Bro. Harvey Grimes recently started for a visit in Texas, but was delayed some ten days in reaching his destination on account of the floods down there.

Bro. Strohecker, for several years agent at Bruning, has bought out a restaurant business in that city and is now working for himself. We all join in wishing him the best of luck.

Bro. Charles Daily, agent Thompson, on vacation, was relieved by Extra Agent Antrim.

Bro. Hazlett, agent Reynolds, on vacation looking after his farm down in Florida, was relieved by Mr. VanDusen.

Bro. E. T. Hicks, agent DeWeese, recently shooting geese down on the Missouri River, was relieved by Bro. Tom Antrim.

Bro. Carder and Rogers, while going over the division recently, secured the following applications: M. D. Allen, P. H. Cobb, D. E. Lloyd, J. K. McCahan, M. M. Messmore, J. M. Pope and V. C. Thompson. Transferred, F. G. Breece. C. D. Hohaus, Nebraska City, also filed his petition.

Bro. Jack Hartenzell, Johnson, bid in DeWitt; C. F. Marohn assigned second Nebraska City, and W. D. Wrench, Nelson, Neb., days.

I wish that every brother who files on a vacancy would send me a carbon copy of his letter, in order to keep check on applicants, and see that each one receives recognition.

Let us be up and doing, and work for applications. Remember, "No card, no favors."

LOCAL CHAIRMAN.

Lincoln Division

Bro. H. L. Coggins, ex-division correspondent, visited home folks in Missouri during Christmas.

Bro. V. D. Chidester, ex-agent Comstock, who went to third Seward while Bro. W. J. Greenwood was off a few days, went to the time keeper's office at Lincoln to work on the time rolls of the last month.

Mr. Dennis, "NI," on vacation, was relieved by Extra "M."

Bro. B. J. Hill, third "GS," was a Lincoln visitor last month.

Boys, it's dues-paying time again. Let's be as prompt as possible, start the new year right, and keep from becoming delinquent.

Bro. R. A. Fulmer, while off on account of his father being sick, was relieved by Bro. B. F. Kaney, extra agent.

Bro. R. B. Slivers, first Sutton, off a couple of days, relieved by C. A. Smith, extra.

East elevator, Friend, located near the depot, caught fire December 2d. Good work by the firemen prevented it spreading, and Bros. Teale and Holmes feel thankful their office was saved.

Bro. A. Klein, from Cairo, relieving Agent Swan at Holcomb, who was called to Peru, Neb., on account of sickness of his father.

Since "biz" has fallen off some Bro. W. G. Weaker, Exeter, gets a chance to eat a warm dinner now and then. Bro. E. E. Holmes spent Christmas with parents at Saronville.

Bro. Olsen, Crete, gets excused once in awhile to escort the fair sex home.

Bro. F. D. Chadwick, Juniata, keeps his car in the garage instead of joy riding between Juniata and Hastings this wintry weather.

Chief Dispatcher Denton, while in Chicago, was relieved by Glenn Stewart, night chief, he by Wm. Martin, first trick dispatcher main line, he by Walter Lamb, second main line trick dispatcher, relieved by Dispatcher Temple, extra, and Operator "Z," out of "NI" office.

Cushman made a twelve-hour office. Bro. J. H. Smith, formerly first there, now on from 6 p.m. until 6 a.m.; Bro. P. M. Orrill bumping Bro. Nicholas, second Cobb. Mr. Flickinger on third Cushman extra.

Bro. Nicholas is relieving Bro. H. E. Stayner second Fairmount, on his honeymoon.

Following brothers were the first to pay 1914 dues on this division: A. S. Kellog, Palmer; C. R. Baker, York; C. C. Whitcomb, Hampton; Wm. G. Weaver, Exeter. These brothers paid for a 1914 card before December 14, 1913. You always find Lincoln Division among the first. Keep it up, boys, and let's all get new cards not later than March 1st.

On account of the reduction in forces at Hastings yards the operators' hours have been extended: Bro. Miller, 7 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Bro. Vant, 4 p.m. to 1 a.m.; Bro. Hill, 1 a.m. to 10 a.m.; helping clerk, 7 a.m. to 10 a.m.

E. P. Flickinger back to York tower nights. Second Cushman pulled off and only one trick there now.

L. B. Denton, our genial chief, went over his division the latter part of December with a little rules examination. Good thing, as it gets our minds back to the proper working instructions. If you have no book of rules, get one and keep posted.

Bro. W. S. Harris, first Cobb, working on Mr. Thropp, assures us he will soon be Bro. Thropp. Bro. G. O. Vant, second "GS" Hastings, assures us he will land five new members in 1914. Who's next? O'Leary, at Dorchester; Blackster, at Crete, and others are on his list. We wish him luck. Have you seen Bro. Vant's gold watch?

Bro. J. W. Shaw, formerly at "GS" Iastings, then to a Montana homestead, is now in the relay office at Livingston, Mont.

It's now Bro. H. C. Cook, Cairo extra, landed by Bro. E. R. Tyner at Cairo.

Mr. J. L. McMinn assigned Exeter tower, and E. E. Thropp assigned third Cobb.

Biggerstaff, at Ravenna, off two weeks, was relieved by "FB."

Bro. R. R. Haggitt, Utica, off a week to visit his sick mother in Iowa, relieved by Anderson, who returned to Saronville as helper.

"WA," Div. Cor.
Alliance Division—

Hemingford and Whitman stations on bulletin. Mr. Brennan, Halsey third, is now at Provo.

We expect to hold a meeting at Edgemont about the latter part of this month, with prospects for a good crowd.

Cashier Livingston, Crawford, took a two-week hunting trip and succeeded in killing a nice deer. He was relieved by Extra Agent Bro. Powell, who also relented Agent C. F. Tripplet at Crawford while off two weeks visiting his mother at Pasadena, Cal., and later relieved Bro. Davis, Crawford first, while he took his daughter to Omaha to have her eyes fitted.

Bro. Sheldon, Minnekahta, off a short time, was relieved by Bro. Harkleroad, who later went to the Alliance freight office.

Bro. Ragland, Hemingford third, is on a month's vacation in southern Missouri.

Mr. Helland in third Anselmo, and Bro. Vant Leven bid in third Seneca.

Hyannis has been made a continuous office, and Ashby nights closed.

H. L. Ormsby, former agent Broken Bow, is now ticket agent Alliance. Bro. Walters, agent Broken Bow, while off three weeks visiting points in California, was relieved by Cashier Brown.

Mr. Wertenberger, who has returned from his honeymoon to Mystic, will be with us in a very short time, which will make the Deadwood line solid. A year and a half ago there was but one member on the Deadwood line, but once in they are stickers.

CERT. 13.

McCook Division—

Mr. Kettler, agent Bartley, with home folks at Benkleman a few days, was relieved by Mr. Cheehy.

Bro. Roberts on second Trenton while on bulletin, vice Bro. Fredrickson, gone to his homestead. Mr. McCoy, an old-timer, is on third.

Bro. Tillman, second Akron, laying off, relieved by Mr. Weiser, and Mr. Jones, a new man, is agent at Ludell, vice Bro. Hewitt.

Bro. O. B. Landau, LaFayette, was a Denver visitor one day before Christmas. It is now Bro. Stingley at LaFayette.

Only one of the boys along the line sent me any notes. If you want more news, drop me a card with news for the journal.

Bro. Carder and Bro. Rogers have done some good work organizing on the Omaha, Lincoln and Wymore Divisions. We wish they would have had time to cover the McCook Division also. There are several new applicants for positions, and as we are in a bad place to get in touch with them away up here, it behooves some good brother to see if they are lined up properly, and if they belong to some other division to let me know at once, so I can get them lined up for 130. If the brothers from other divisions will send me their names when they come to this division, we will see that they are called Bro. instead of Mr.

Would be glad to have more items for the next issue, if some of the brothers would help me.

C. R. Hunt.

Atlantic Coast Line Ry.

Charleston District—

All the winter offices are being opened up as fast as possible. The line will be full of new men, and we should find out if they have a card and have them transferred. If not, insist upon them getting one, and show them how to make a start in that direction. Tell everybody of our regular meeting day (second Sunday in each month, in Charleston), and invite all members to meet with us. Everybody be wide awake and on his job, and let's save our chief the trouble of having to jack up any of us about anything. Those of us who have any dealings with the "28" car report had better be on hand at the proper time, or he will most certainly receive a communication from the chief, for he banks on the information given in this report and must have it.

Every member who possibly can should attend every meeting, as you get next to things you can't possibly learn elsewhere. We initiate every candidate on our division, and it is your duty to be present to either cast a vote for or against him and take part or witness his initiation. We have a secretary who will gladly accept your dues at any meeting, thereby relieving you of the trouble and expense of postal or express money order. You are not taxed anything at these meetings, so don't get the idea into your head that we are going to beg you for anything. Come, let's all get together and stay together, which is very essential in the cause we represent. Bro. Williams, of Wilson, was with us and conducted our last two meetings, and was delighted with our progress and the present condition of things in general on our district. We are grateful to Bro. Williams for the interest taken in our meetings, and we are hopeful of entertaining him socially on one of his trips through at some future date as a token of appreciation.

Some of the late assignments are: Bro. D. J. Kirton to second Jacksonboro, relieving "Operene" Addison; Bro. S. M. Moore to second Vardell; P. H. Chester to third "Hi" Charleston; J. W. Braziel to agency Pon Pon, vice Bro. E. O. Reynolds, to Jacksonboro agency.

Bennetts yard has been opened as permanent positions; assignments are not yet out.

Effingham second and third, and Ridgeland second and third on bulletin. Good jobs for extra men. As soon as they land, all hands jump them about a card, and let's get our interest on amount invested.

Bro. J. H. Champlin, of Division 92, has transferred to our division, and we are glad to welcome the new brother; also Bro. J. Hamilton, of the Grand Division, whom we also hope to transfer and keep with us.

Bro's. Brooker and Cumming were in Charleston one day recently. Bro. Pete Carn, Ashley Jct., off a few days to attend to business in Otranto, Saxon, Oakley and other northern points, was relieved by second trick man there, and he by Bro. Turner, of Mt. Holly.

Bro. R. H. Tuttle, of Bonneau, was relieved, while off getting married, by Bro. G. F. Turner, of Effingham, who also has matrimonial ideas floating through his "bean."

Three new jobs at Santee River will soon be opened on our district. Effingham and Salters will be opened shortly, and we will be able to get in touch with a couple of brothers who have been silent for quite a while, so far as the wires are concerned. It looks rather against Gourdin being opened as a telegraph station any more, as "GN" tower will be so close on one side and Lanes on the other.

Remember about the new men coming in, and do what you can to land them. Let's all get down to business while there is plenty of business. Any information as to blanks, rates, etc., will be gladly furnished by simply dropping me a note, care dispatcher's office, Charleston, S. C.

H. E. BOLICK, Local Chairman.

Savannah District—

Bro. N. W. McIntosh, recently on the sick list, is up and around again.

Bro. LaFrange, of Ways, Ga., is at home in Troy, Ala., with an attack of typhoid fever. Trust he will soon be around.

Bro. Fuller, second Ludowici, is now with the Southern at Blackville, S. C. Mr. Campbell, Ludowici, has gone in business in Alabama, relieved by a member.

Bro. Wheeler relieved Bro. Webb, Dyal, while he was in Waycross hospital being treated for poisoned hands.

Bro. Cox, McIntosh, was the host at an oyster roast given there recently. There was a bunch on hand, including Dispatcher Clark, who favored the boys with one of his characteristic speeches. They all had such a large time that Bro. Cox had to call for relief next day. Can't say whether it was the pepper sauce or the oysters.

Mr. Daniel our chief, accompanied by Dispatcher Jones, returned from a short fishing trip recently, having landed a 27-pound bass.

Bro. Smith was elected councilman of Folkston for a term of three years.

A number of the boys formerly on this district have drifted back including Bros. Massingale and Howell.

Bro. W. L. Barefoot has returned and is on first trick "DE" Savannah. Everybody is glad to see him back again.

Bro. Clements has been advanced to a trick in Savannah dispatcher's office. All the boys are wishing him success. Mr. Leary from Waycross, is working third trick there. It is pleasing to us to note that the officials have selected these promising young men from the ranks and feel certain that they will prove their worth.

New members are: L. W. Strickland, Ways, Ga.; M. B. Mullinax, McIntosh, Ga., and E. A. Bright, Jacksonville, Fla.

Bro. Hollahan has secured the required twenty-five new members this year to secure a watch. Blanks have been furnished several others who will soon be with the crowd.

It is hoped that those who regularly come to this district every season to take advantage of the increases and better conditions secured from time to time will wake up to the fact that it is about time that they paid for their share in the prosperity and get a card.

It is contemplated to have a "feast" and meeting in Jesup some time after the rush is over. So get out your fiddle and string up the bow.

T. M. O'SHEA.

"Big Four" R. R.

Chicago Division West—

Did you ever see the "spineless creature," who, when he had lost his job or some misfortune had befall him, would fold his hands and with the utmost sincerity say, "The Lord will provide?" Now, no doubt, the Lord appreciates his implicit faith in His ability to take care of him, but I have noticed during twenty years of roaming around, the Lord invariably fights shy of such people, and it is a good thing for all concerned that He does. When I go to heaven I want to have a good time. There will be no railroads nor landlords to worry with. So I intend to sit down after I have registered in and steep my Astral soul in the sweet melodies of "Turkey in the Straw" and "Red Wing," playing them on my new harp. But I couldn't enjoy myself in the company of such people. They would not be there long enough to learn the names of the streets before they would be yelling for a piano tuner to work on their harp or for a porter to polish their crown. Besides they would come around where I was playing and insist on singing to my tunes, thus causing me to get "all balled up." So if St. Peter ever lays off to go to a ball game and a sub lets a few nons in, I will give up my equipment and go to the other place, get a small agency and work fourteen hours for $53.00 and commission. The "spineless creature" referred to is commonly known as the "non." One can find them most any place. If you look closely you many find one in your office, and if you cannot get him to join the best plan is to ignore him. Why will you endure a man who calmly sits by and allows you to work and get him an increase, who, instead of being grateful, is the first to yell when the company breaks some trifling part of the agreement. Get rid of him; then open the windows and let the office air out.

We hope you had a merry Christmas, that you will have a happy New Year, and if you haven't done it, do it now—send in that five beans and show us what you are made of. Our committee goes up in January. Here's looking at them.

Bro. Turner was in Springfield recently, relieved by Bro. Boyd.
The Railroad Telegrapher.

The new phone arrangement works O. K., although we on the west end have a hard time separating the little electric impulses, which "Rep" stirs up at the other end, from the noises made by the local, city phone, and the fair young thing who can't work the gun machine.

Bro. Harris is enjoying pastoral pursuits in "Jeab old Kaintuck," and tearing off a large sized time in New Orleans.

Sister Dainwood bid in "RO" regular, relieving Mr. Insko.

New office at "KT," Bro. Argenbright, first; Messieurs, Lucas and Wright, second and third. They have nothing to do until tomorrow if they are not all in when they get through hustling baggage. All for $62.50.

We will have Broderick at "MA" with us after the first.

Now fellers, you see the extent of the write-up. The offices mentioned are the ones who sent me the news. Hereafter I will make it a point to see who is taking an interest. If you are just holding a card on general principles, wake up.

DIV. COR.

GREENSBURG, IND., December 22, 1913.

Bro. G. B. Harris, first St. Anne, is appointed correspondent for the Chicago Division west, account Bro. F. C. Bussett giving up the work. Brothers, please take notice and try to get some news in occasionally. A. J. Hornung, L. C.

Cleveland Division—

Bro. Dutton is still working the agent's job at Augusta account Agent Tobias' wife being sick. Extra Harrison working third Vernon; Chas. Henry sick.

Ed Kelly, night chief dispatcher at "DI," is now trainmaster on the Sanly Division. O. C. Wyman, trainmaster Michigan Division, transferred to chief dispatcher at Cleveland; Mr. Kelly, assistant; Chas. Bourroughs appointed assistant trainmaster, vice Wm. Carter, promoted. The rumor is that the Cleveland Division dispatchers will be transferred to Bellefontaine along with the other officials next spring.

As we are about to open negotiations with the company for a new schedule, would like to see every brother get after the nones working close to them and try and get them to come in with us and help bear the expense. I have written a letter to every non whom we would care to have, and you can help a lot by getting after them yourselves.

I am glad to say that the list of delinquents on the division is very small and there are quite a number of extra men coming in.

Bro. Scott, second Edison, on an extended vacation through the West, relieved by Mr. Gallagher, from third Cardington.

The meeting at Cleveland this month was well attended, our former local chairman, H. R. Reynolds, being on hand. "RN" still is up to date, and we are glad to have him with us.

Some of you have not turned in your information blanks yet. Please get them in at once to be used by the general committee.

Bro. Bogan, assigned third Rush, being the next oldest man bidding on the job, and Bro. Rollins staying at Ashley. This will cover all cases of this kind in the future.

Trains were detoured over the T. O. C., Edison to Martel, then to the Big Four, Indianapolis Division, until the Edison wreck was cleared.

I wish to thank Bro. Edwards, Harper, for some of these items, he being the only one who makes any attempt to help us have a write-up every month.

CERT. 1123.

Sandusky Division—

Happy New Year.

Bro. Smith is enjoying his morning walks to "KI."

Mr. Moorefield, third Par, has gone South.

Bro. C. O. Delp is now third trick operator and ticket agent at Middletown depot. He was baggage agent on 105 one Sunday morning recently. Don't forget to have a different colored card for January. 1914. They are beauties, boys.

Bro. Foley has a new bug. Watch out.

J. Hildebrandt bid in first La3 relieved on first "FA" by Bro. Harper, F. Huber on second.

F. Williams is on first Rox, and Mr. Cox relieved Mr. Rowland on second Galloway.

The Sandusky Division dispatchers are back at "J" again, and Rube was appointed chief dispatcher.

Now, boys, get new members while we have a "cracker jack" of a chairman. Let's make the division solid. Attend the meeting and get acquainted. We want to meet you.

Bro. Hertel is on third "XD." It sounds good to have an old head on the job again.

Bro. Emmerson is visiting in Dayton often. Please advise.

Get that non next door, brothers. All lend a hand and we can easily make this division solid.

Send me the news boys, so we can have a write-up every month. All help. One man can not do it alone. Send the news to Franklin, Ohio.

Eastern Division—

Bro. Comings, of South Orrington, has been appointed agent at Winn; Sister McFarland, second, and Bro. Blaisdell, third Forest; Earl R. Crocker, third Kingman; Bro. Merrifield, of Monmouth, first Mattawamkeag; T. F. Cosgrove, first "B." office; Bro. Morse, clerk-operator Woodland, and Bro. Farady, second Bancroft.

Request your local chairman to furnish you with an office sign, "No card, no favors," and live up to it. Treat the non well, but let him get a card if he wants favors.

I am pleased to state that the percentage of membership on this division is now greater than at any previous time since organizing. We have less than half a dozen non-members and think we can soon get them all.

Find quite a few errors in the seniority list, and would like to have it correct. Check yours with the following, and if any error, notify me:

Bro. Miles lost several days in being transferred from Anson to Perry, and, being unable to get pay from the company, placed the matter in my hands. It was adjusted and he got straight time. It is policy to have an up-to-date card in stormy weather, and very few of us know when a storm is coming. Tell the non-members to get a storm insurance card.

E. McFarland, L. C.

Portland Division—

Bro. Merrifield, clerk Monmouth, who was on a two weeks' leave of absence, visited his parents in Richmond, has bid in third New Gloucester.

Understand the company is thinking of cutting out West Benton station and laying the track via Fairfield.

Brunswick, Augusta, Woolwich and Richmond are solid. It is now Bros. Brown, Dickey and Gray, also Laurence at Vassalboro and Beane, spare—a newlywed. Congratulations.

Boys, don't get behind on the "OS." Danks doesn't like to repeat, and you might get one of those white letters.

Ex-Bro. Delano landed second Burnham Jet., vice Mr. Earles. Hope he will soon get a card again.

Bro. Worth Brown, telegrapher-clerk Fairfield, was up to Berlin, N. H., recently on business.

S. F. Haskell is on third Rumford Jet., pending bulletin.

Charles, Jr., has arrived at the home of Bro. Hackett. We hope no spikes are lying around on the track he will have to cover in the early hours with one passenger aboard.

Bros. J. E. Fardy and S. A. Lavallee visited Bro. Wood at his home in Winthrop recently. Bro. Wood has resigned as agent at Gray on account of sickness, but intends to go on as track operator later on. We all wish him a speedy recovery.

After twenty-seven years' service on the Maine Central, Mr. Nichols, agent at Bowdoinham, has left station work and is now in the accounting department at Portland, his position being filled by Mr. Clark, formerly agent at Winn. Mrs. Jack, his daughter, also resigned at the same time, her position as operator being filled by Bro. Beane, later by Bro. R. E. Robinson.

Pay up your dues, boys. Ask the car knockers at Waterville shop what happened to them when they dropped out. You can bet there is a union there now. "A word to the wise is sufficient." Let's all get wise.

While on a visit to St. Anne de Beauvoir on my vacation I visited one of the stations and was surprised to see a brother up there. Both electric and steam cars are run on that road, and only fifteen or twenty stations on the road—all solid O. R. T.

The new station at Augusta is certainly a beauty, also three good-looking brothers running it.

How about a meeting, boys? and it wouldn't be a bad idea to give us a dance.

This makes my second year here in the woods.

Northern Division—

It would be a good thing to appoint one of the boys correspondent and get a little write-up in every time, and have the others send him all the news possible.

Boys, you must all see that the other fellow has a card, one of the same color as yours and can flash it on a moment's notice. "Get busy" should be our slogan and "No card, no favors" our watchword.

Bros. W. A. Gates and R. L. Gates spent a month pleasantly with the old folks at home in Virginia. Bro. W. A. goes to first Reed City, and Bro. R. L. to Morley as agent. Bro. C. H. Daley, who relieved the latter as agent at Elmira, has been there permanently, relieved by Bro. Walter Holbrook on third Boyne Falls. "Mr." Maney couldn't stand the pressure at "KS" tower and was relieved by Bro. Avery, of the G. T., making "KS" solid.

Mr. Waite is relieving Mr. Leahy on third "A" Kalkaska awhile.

Bro. F. C. Frymire, Alba, spent a month during the deer season in the upper peninsula, relieved by Bro. C. A. Brownell, of the P. M.

Bro. G. A. Hilliker, formerly of Mancelona, spent a few days there visiting with Bro. J. M. Bartholomy. George is looking good. Come again, old man.

Mr. Shue, of "FN" siding, worked a few nights at "KS" tower, relieved by Mr. Norton, a product of the Howard City ham shop. Boys, remember the slogan. Mr. Pugh relieved Mr. Shue at "KS" several days, and was relieved again by Mr. Shue.

In the death of C. E. Johnson, boys, we have lost a good friend. He had the blanks all filled out to become a brother on pay day. He was relieving Mr. Hough, agent at Clarion, on vacation, who returned the day Mr. Johnson came down with appendicitis and was taken to Lockwood Hospital at Petoskey and died there five days later. He was twenty-one years of age last August. The company has lost a good man and the parents a loving son, always the same to everyone. The funeral was held at Clarion, November 23rd, attended by a very large number of friends. Bros. W. S. Plummer, of Pellston; W. W. Holbrook, of Boyne Falls, and L. B. Babcock, of Petoskey, and Messrs. A. B. Weyant, freight agent Petoskey, and Stephenson, of Pellston, were in attendance. Mr. Johnson's father, A. Johnson, is section forman at Clarion.

Bros. R. A. Norin has returned from his western trip and relieved Bro. C. L. Sheets, who is in "DS" office. P. L. Boulard, dispatcher "GN," on six months' leave.

Bros. L. L. Wright and E. O. Brotherton have returned from vacation.

L. F. Judkins, agent Fife Lake for a number of years, has taken third Walton Jct., relieved by R. G. Herrick, of Pellston. J. L. Merrinane gets Pellston.

There has been some changing of agents lately: B. V. Marble, of Muskegon, gets Grand Rapids freight agency, vice Robt. Orr, deceased; C. L. Lane, of Reed City, to Muskegon; E. C. Amplett, of Mackinaw City, to Reed City; H. E. Blue, Man- ton to Mackinaw City; E. Phelps, freight agent Petoskey, to Manton; A. B. Weyant, Pellston, to freight agency Petoskey, and L. C. Lacey, Morley to Pellston.

V. A. Pool, agent Harbor Springs, off a while, was relieved by Relief Agent Graves, now relieving L. E. Foxworthy at Alanson.

Trinity and Brazos Valley Ry.

The months of October, November and December will ever be remembered as eventful ones by the officers and members of Division 144. October saw the planning and the high hopes of everyone for a revised and better contract; November brought the negotiations which were completed in the short space of about nine hours all told, and Thanksgiving day our fondest hopes were realized and there was more than usual to be thankful for. Christmas brought its additional pleasures in the full enjoyment of a contract that we believe is second to none.

The committee carrying on the negotiations was composed of Bros. D. W. Ramsay, general chairman, Bardwell, Texas; N. W. Smith, general secretary and treasurer, and Horace Kemble, local chairman, Teague, Tex.; R. E. Evans, local chairman, Newby, Texas, and T. H. Stanton, special committee man, Corsicana, Texas. These brothers went to Houston on No. 7, October 26th prepared to meet President Robins and Superintendent Allen on Monday morning the 27th. This meeting covered about three and one-half hours and all features of the revised schedule were promptly agreed upon, down to the wage increases; deferred until November 16th, when the committee again met in Houston, with headquarters at the Milby Hotel, ready for another audience with the officials. Every one of the committee was in the best of spirits, determined and confident, feeling as they expressed it to the officials: "We have not approached you as committees most often do, anticipating about half of what is asked for, but we have made a very conservative estimate and are expecting every cent of it," and what was missed of getting it all was only about two and a half per cent. The total figures amounted to nine and three-tenths, while about six and seven-tenths was secured. It was a real pleasure to deal with Messrs. Robins and Allen, and all matters were closed up on the 17th and 18th without the least bit of friction. The road is gaining a well deserved reputation of having the finest bunch of officials in the country to work for, and the boys on this division are going to show their appreciation of the treatment they receive by "delivering the goods" every day in the year.
THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER.

And now for a word about the good things we secured. The first clause carries the words: "It is understood and agreed between the management and the telegraphers" instead of merely "Rules and Regulations." The three-year bumping clause in Article 111 encourages one to settle down to a position and feel secure. It reads: "When positions are abolished or force reduced, telegrapher affected may displace any junior telegrapher, except those who have been assigned to a regular position continuously three years or more, or go on the extra list, retaining his seniority. In event there are no telegraphers in the service younger than three years, the youngest telegrapher may be displaced."

Article IV reads: "Telegraphers with families, who have been assigned regular one year or longer, will be given ten days' notice if cut off through reduction of force or abolishing of position."

The concessions secured in the hours of service and meal hour articles were most gratifying. At one-man stations the men only work eleven hours, as in the past, with one hour of this time for meal, commencing and ending between the hours of 11:30 and 1:30 day or night, as the case may be; the words "commencing and ending" were introduced to prevent the frequent argument that if a telegrapher got started to his meal even as late as 1:29 it was in conformity with the old contract. At three-man stations and dispatchers' offices, eight consecutive hours, without time for meal, constitutes a day's work; at the two-man stations, or nine-hour jobs, the men will get thirty minutes of this time for lunch. The overtime rate was raised to a minimum of thirty-five cents, as against twenty-five cents in the past. Telegraphers on duty at wrecks, washouts and similar emergency offices who formerly received $2.50 per day of ten hours or less, time computed from time they started until they returned, except deductions would be made for time relieved from duty for rest, will now receive $3.00 per day for ten hours or less, time to be computed from time they are called to start until they return, with deductions as above and $2.00 excess money as in the past; this makes practically $5.00 per day for this class of work. Telegraphers required to leave their home station to relieve another telegrapher will receive $2.00 per day expense money.

The minimum pay for telegraphers is now $65.00 per month, as against $60.00 in the past. There is not now an agency on the line paying less than $70.00, eleven of them having been raised from $65.00. This is approaching right onto the much-talked-of $75.00 minimum. Let's all try a little co-operation and make it a reality. Several agencies were raised from $70.00 to $75.00 some to $80.00, and one to $87.50; none of the regular assigned cashiers are receiving less than $80.00 since the new rates went into effect; terminals and junctions are now paying $75.00, $77.50, and one $95.00; relay men are now getting $80.00 and $90.00. Express and telegraph commissions are provided for in the wage schedule and can not be taken away without an adjustment being made.

A contract like this should certainly bring the few remaining nons into the fold especially the one for whom a $10.00 raise was secured, and who is holding out on account of a little grudge, blaming the division and heaping upon our shoulders a load the origin of which he could find by looking at home.

There are now fifty-eight telegraphers enjoying seniority on our list, with eleven non-members or delinquents, whom we expect to soon line up.

Bro. O. Thompson, T. & V. B. Jct., was in Houston on November 16th and 17th, and was at the train to shake hands with the committee when they landed on the 16th. We were all glad to see him.

It gives us great pleasure to have Bro. J. P. Kelley back with us on third "JC," after being so long out in Morenci, Ariz. Thought we had about lost him. Stay with us, boy. Bro. R. V. Smith, second "JC," enjoyed a vacation during the holidays. C. O. Presley, former dispatcher in "DI," is back with us in the telegraph department, assisting Bro. O. Thompson, on first "JC," who has to spend a great deal of his time looking after the yard situation, due to congestion of business caused by recent floods.

Bro. C. W. Weaver, cashier Waxahachie, bid in the cashiership at Mexia, relieved by Bro. C. E. Earl, ticket clerk Waxahachie. Bro. C. H. Wagner is back with us again and settled down to cozy housekeeping at Waxahachie.

Bro. J. B. Milstead, agent Reagor Springs, off two weeks during the holidays, relieved by Bro. J. A. Morgan, of the T. & P., whom we hope will stay with us.

Bro. D. W. Ramsay, our general chairman, spent Christmas at home in dear old Bardwell and used that $10.00 raise to spread the Christmas menu with good "eats."

Bro. W. B. Langford, formerly cashier Mexia, bid in Embouse agency, vice Bro. W. H. Lunsford, resigned, after long years of service, to accept a position with the pipe line company.

Bro. T. H. Stanton, first Corsicana, who served on our committee on the revised contract, is taking an active part in all division matters. We are more than glad to have him on our division and hope to see him elected to office in the near future. Having had a broad experience, and naturally an enthusiastic worker, he loves to be "in harness." He is doing us a world of good. Bros. G. W. Howell and M. A. Cummings, second and third Corsicana, are both new members, whom we are proud of.

Bro. J. A. Boyd, agent Navarro, is enjoying life on his elegant little farm near the station. It is gratifying to know that a great many of the agents and operators along the line are acquiring land, and managing their farms with great success. The T. & B. V. Ry. runs through a territory in which property is increasing every year, and the telegraphers are using good judgment in making these investments. It should be the aim of every one to secure some of this land and settle down with a comfortable home.

Bro. E. E. Hardie, agent Kirvin, has a little agency that is growing right along, and he is getting on fine.

Bro. F. E. Stevens, agent Teague, has plenty of work to keep him going, but never too busy to show his interest in matters of the division. We like to see these brothers who are holding exclusive agencies and other promotions stay with the boys who are building up a progressive division. Bro. J. E. Glenn has been on the sick list, but we hope for his complete recovery soon. He is in the branch office of the superintendent of car service at Teague where our old-time friend, Mr. Cash, holds forth. These two worthy boys have a neatly equipped little office and are handling the "red and green ball" freight movement to a finish. Bro. Ferd Hamilton, second Teague, on a two weeks' vacation during the holidays, visited home folks at Sweetwater, Texas. Bro. J. I. Maxwell, third Teague, has returned from a visit to New Orleans and other points. Bro. Horace Kemble, first Teague, and wife, spent Christmas with their folks in Denison, Texas. Bro. G. W. Maynard, first trick dispatcher Teague, as well as the other two boys, H. V. Evans and W. M. Upshaw, are keeping the train sheets pretty well filled up during the movement of congested freight, due to the recent washouts.

Our amiable chief, E. R. Gassman, is "on the job" every minute of the day, with his smile and pleasant words, making it a pleasure to "hit the ball." He meets all the reverses, such as washouts and wrecks, good naturedly, and goes in to win out. Our energetic and pleasant trainmaster, J. W. Carnes, has been sticking pretty close to the dispatcher's office, assisting Mr. Gassman in handling the trying situation. Superintendent H. E. Allen has been up and down the line, right on the scenes of the trouble, and the prompt and efficient work of the officials, assisted by a able following of employees, has enabled the T. & B. V. to recover from the floods and handle traffic with only slight interruption. Bro. D. B. Frost, our lineman, is passing around the cigars celebrating the advent of a fine baby girl at his home. S. B. Kelley, chief clerk to Superintendent Allen, is to be commended for his policy of having everyone concerned live strictly up to the telegraphers' contract. Mr. Kelley is a great baseball enthusiast, and still talks of the great world's series game.

P. Conners, cashier at Cleburne, has returned from a two weeks' vacation and hunting trip to find a copy of the revised schedule awaiting him. He says he will soon be Bro. Conners. Bro. H. A. Nelson, recently reinstated, who came back from Oklahoma and relieved Mr. Conners at Cleburne, is now at Dobbin agency, relieving J. H. Henderson, on sixty days' leave.

Bro. W. Cole, Covington agency, who had a vacation for four years, is now figuring a little needed rest.

Bro. C. W. Bryan, Osceola agency, keeping ball rolling like the rest of us, enjoyed his Christmas turkey.

Bro. M. M. Cotton is still at Hillsboro "receiving the goods."

Bro. W. C. Driggs, Bynum agency, has shipped a great deal of cotton this fall. We tried hard to secure a helper, and know he will not be hard of us for being unable to do so this time.

Bro. T. R. Deen, Malone agency, was boosted up in salary along with others in the recent wage increase.

Bro. J. I. Weatherford, cashier Hubbard, is always there with prompt service on the wire and with tests. Let's all take a little tip from him and make ourselves worthy of the new contract.

Bro. G. W. Thorpe, Coolidge agency, reports the parcel post increasing his mail business until it is no longer a little sack for the shoulder, but a dray load, and that it costs money to have it hauled. Something should be done through legislation about this mail proposition.

Bro. C. B. Tomme, operator Coolidge, resigned after a long service, was relieved by J. C. Yancey.

Bro. J. R. Eskew, Donie agency, is improving and making a valuable piece of property out of his nice farm.

Bro. T. C. Montgomery, Concord agency, has improved that station 100 per cent under his administration.

Bro. R. E. Evans, Newby agency, our local chairman on the south end and one of the committee on the revision, came in for a $7.50 raise. Unfortunately, he had to leave Houston before the negotiations were completed, and the rest of the bunch had a joke on him that he "beat it" as soon as he got the raise.

Bro. A. E. Gormley, Flynn agency, is getting the business there.

Bro. C. H. Crockett, North Zulch agency, has had lots of trouble with his meal hour on account of the noon passengers, but these words in the new contract, "commencing and ending between 11:30 and 1:30," fixed him up all O. K., and with his $5 raise "Davy" is now "jam up."

The latter, we are glad to state, was reinstated several months ago to his old position there.

The brothers at Tom Ball, as well as Teague and Corsicana, are greatly elated over their eight-hour tricks and the $75 minimum at these stations.

Bro. G. F. Barnhill, first Tom Ball, still handles the express, but, owing to the eight-hour shift, some new arrangement will be put into effect regarding it. Bro. N. B. Anderson, on second, reports his farm in good shape. Bro. B. P. Lee, third, spent a few days in Houston recently, relieved by C. O. Pressley. Tom ball (exclusive) agency was recently transferred from W. F. Crabtree to J. F. McDonald. Neither are telegraphers. While both gentlemen are our friends and we want to see them do well, we believe these exclusive agencies should be given to telegraphers in the way of promotions, thereby encouraging them to look forward to something better.
THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER.

Bro. A. L. Burrow, the faithful old war horse who spent so many years in Teague as operator and personal record clerk in the superintendent's office, is now personal record clerk in President Robin's office. We hated to lose "ABO," but glad to see him do well. He is now working alongside of our dear friend, Judge G. W. Frazez, operator "FS" office.

Bro. Carl F. Bartz, day operator and clerk Galveston, is enjoying life in the "Island City," even though the telegraphing grows heavier every month, and the cotton movement is on.

Sister C. Smylie, Newby nights, who managed Newby station on both dates while Bro. Evans was on committee work in Houston, was on a few days' vacation during the holidays. Sister Ethel Smylie, Dobbin, nights, was also off a few days during the holidays.

Bro. J. H. Ferrell, of the Grand, has returned from the W. V. Ry., and is now on extra here.

Bro. J. C. Cherry was at Big Sandy, Tex., when last heard from. We would be glad to have him come back and hang onto the extra board. We are always delighted to hear from any of the old boys and glad to receive communications from any of the brothers and assist them to get employment when anything opens up. That's our greatest aim—to get steady card men on good jobs.

Bro. N. W. Smith, our general secretary and treasurer, is doing some good work, keeping every feature of his duties in first-class shape. Filling the position of extra telegrapher on the wrecker and regular lineman, he is enabled to travel up and down the road and visit the members. We are sorry to report his family on the sick list, but hope for their speedy recovery.

G. W. Winters, new man, on second T. & B. V. Jct. a few days.

Bro. J. P. McDonald, of the Grand, is at Streemman nights—new position opened up on account of heavy business.

Our old friend "Dad" Vance was at Norman few days, assisting Bro. J. W. Frost.

Bro. D. W. Norman, Singleton, is swapped with the express and I. & G. N. business diverted via T. & B. V. on account of washouts, and has put on additional help to handle the joint agency there.

Bro. C. W. and J. R. Donaho, from the Cotton Belt, passed through Teague on December 21st on their way to North Zulch; the former to the Magnolia Oil Line at Concord, Tex., and the latter on the T. & B. V., extra.

Sister Florence P. Pierce, grand secretary and treasurer of the Ladies' Auxiliary, writes that the insurance feature has been added to the L. A. Policies will be written for $150 and $300 at a cost of $1.60 and $3.20, respectively, per year. The ladies on Division 144 now holding cards should get some of this insurance, and the brothers should help look after this feature. We will soon take up the matter of getting the charter for our L. A. on this division, completing the movement that was started last year.

Fort Worth & Denver City R. R.

Brothers, this is the time of year we give thanks and presents. We have all more or less to be thankful for. The benefits the telegraphers have derived during the past year should be a great incentive for increased zeal in our services to our employers in order that we can in a measure make them feel that the concessions that have been given are fully appreciated. Therefore answer your calls promptly. We are a progressive body and as time goes forward we will probably ask for more privileges, and will be all the better fortified to demand them by giving good service.

The past year has seen quite a number of new members initiated into our Order, but we have not done it all, as there are a few nons yet on our line. Our general chairman has been quite busy and has done excellent service in this work, but we are depending too much on our officers to line the nons up. Each one should take a hearty interest in this matter, as you can not fail to see it is to our interest to be solid. Of course the boys are coming and going, but so long as they are on our line, keep after them.

It is Bro. D. S. Witty on third Vernon now.

Delinquent Blakeney, at Oklaunion, will line up at once; also Mr. Wilson, agent at Rome, and Mr. Newell will have a card if he remains at Decatur.

Messrs. Robinson and Conley are still holding out, but I think they have about made up their minds to join.

Recent engine failures on account of changing to Arkansas coal caused a great many of the boys at one-man stations to be called at night and make a few dimes for Christmas.

Bro. Weaver recently made a trip over the south end and had a word with all the nons and brothers.

Bro. Webb spent Christmas at home in Arkansas.

It has been decided to make the dues for each half $5.00 instead of $4.00. The standard of pay on our line will fully justify this and with the recent increase it will not be noticed out of our checks. Notice of dues were sent out last month and I hope each member will remit in good time. "No delinquents for 1914" would be a good motto, and then make it "100 per cent strong."
First and Second Divisions—

"VN" closed and Bro. Allen transferred to "RD" nights.

Bro. Durrett off for holidays, relieved by Mr. Wilson, former dispatcher.

No notes from the W. Valley this month. Bro. Casey, at Weinert, seems to have gone to sleep at the switch.

The recent bad weather caused all trains to be more or less off schedule, resulting in considerable overtime for the one-man stations. Don't forget what's coming to you, boys.

On several occasions communications have been addressed to me regarding the matter of seniority, men being laid off when jobs have been closed, etc., when younger men were retained in the service. Such matters as these should be referred to the officers only after all the means in your power have been exhausted to set matters right through your own efforts. If these fail, and justice is not done, then it is the duty of our chairman to take it up with the officials. And, furthermore, copies of all grievance correspondence should be attached to your file when forwarded to the chairman, in order that he may have grounds on which to present a case and material to fight same with when so presented.

Notices of dues have been mailed to all members, and while you have until the 28th of February in which to remit, still it is the waiting game that causes the trouble. Now is the time to remit for your dues, and also don't fail to get lined up on your insurance, dues for which must be mailed direct to Bro. L. W. Quick, at St. Louis. Don't try to be the last to line up, try to be the first.

Mr. Pyle, first at "WF," has forgotten, but we expect him to line up after the Christmas expense is over.

First and Second Districts—

A more genial and efficient set of officials could not be found anywhere and all the boys should appreciate this fact and render efficient service. The greatest success to be achieved by telegraphers is by promptness in answering their calls on the wires and attentiveness to business. Let the officials see that you are trying to do right and they will appreciate it as well as assist you. Do not entertain the idea that because you are out on the line the officials do not know what is going on. During the hours assigned you devote your entire time to the company's interest and not to periodicals, dime novels or writing to your best girl.

Bro. Harry O'Bryant, late of Ludlow, Colo., is now at Spur, on the Valley. Glad to have him back with us.

Bro. Merritt, second Dalhart, is in Kansas City on business, relieved by Bro. Holloman.

John Cunningham, the genial night yard clerk, Childress, spent his holiday vacation in and around Galveston and Houston sightseeing.

Inadvertently we recently stated that Bro. R. S. Holmes had resigned and gone North. We are glad to note that he is still with us at Texline.

Bro. J. M. Erwin, Clarendon, is contemplating going into other business in the near future. We will not lose him as a brother, however, as he will continue to carry an up to date.

Agent Cotton, "CD," Childress, is to be congratulated on having so gentle and competent a ticket force as Bros. Johnston and Campbell. The former is looking after private affairs up town when off duty. Wonder who it is?

Bro. F. V. Mize, bumped at "X" Childress, is temporarily at "FR" Ft. Worth.

A brother agent holding one of the heaviest stations on the road recently received an application from a "telegrapher" employed on the Santa Fe, asking for work. He replied if he was an up-to-date O. R. T. man to apply at a certain station for transportation and come at once. Nothing more was heard from Mr. Santa Fe man. You can all guess why. Let every brother agent follow this example and we will get better results.

We are all proud of the boys at Texline—solid to a man. They are a team hard to beat.

Bro. Phelps, "X" Childress, who usually takes a hunting trip every fall down on the Nueces where the "dear" are plentiful, will remain at home this year as there are plenty of "dears" around Childress.

Bro. A. W. Thomson, Texline, on a fifteen days' leave, is visiting in Birmingham, Ala., his old stamping grounds.

We are glad to announce that it is now Bro. D. Kersey, Amarillo.

Sorry to learn of Telegrapher Oster's condition physically; some excuse for "GO."

Bro. G. W. Wheeler, on a sixty days' leave, will return with a life long companion. Heartly congratulations and a long life.

Among the notable "invincibles" is W. D. McDowell, second trick "X" Childress, who persistently declines to be one of us. He is evidently anticipating a high official position soon. "It is well to be wise."

Elmer Pyle, Wichita Falls; C. J. Scefoild, third Clarendon, and W. H. Baird, first Memphis, are troubled with the "shorts." They better make good their promises while the coming is good.

Bro. G. H. Longwell, new man at Electra, will transfer to No. 145. Bro. T. H. Black, of the Grand, has already done so.

Bro. J. H. Farrell, of Idaho Falls, Idaho, a late arrival, is now at Holliday on the Valley.

Boys, be courteous and obliging to the traveling public and your co-workers, as it leaves a good impression and will repay you.
We wish one and all a happy and prosperous New Year with renewed vigor to bring our Order on these lines up to the standard with that of other roads. Let our motto be that of Bro. Brown, of the R. I.: "Unionism is ostracism."

Div. Cor.

Third and Fourth Districts—

We had a very pleasant call recently from Bro. A. C. Wilson, late of the dispatcher's staff at Wichita Falls. Bro. Wilson is undecided what he will do just yet.

C. B. Sansing, a new man, relieved Bro. J. C. Sides, at second Tascosa, for his Christmas holidays, spent in Missouri and then resigned; relieved by R. McKay, another new man. Understand Bro. Sides will not return alone.

The W. V. boys are coming in now. One new brother has just sent in his application.

Bro. Thomson, first Texline, is on vacation, visiting in and around Birmingham, Ala., relieved by Mr. Converse, a new man.

Bro. Henderson, third Amarillo, was off two days recently, looking after outside business.

Bro. Mentzer, Childress, has been under the weather for the past three weeks, threatened with pneumonia.

Night yard clerk at Childress, John Cunningham, is rusticating in Ft. Worth.

Dispatcher Darling was off a few days with a severe cold. Glad to see him back again.

Quite a reduction of force was recently made in the car, track, clerical and mechanical departments.

Jack Taylor is relieving Jargo Harrison, night yard master Childress, taking in the sights of St. Louis during the Christmas holidays.

Snow blockades in Colorado are making all trains very irregular, which gives the terminal operators all the business they can handle.

Some good brothers on the north end write us a few happenings occasionally. Wake up, boys, you have played Rip Van Winkle long enough; let's hear from you.

Bro. E. B. Abbtngton, agent Goodnight, is now cashier there. We are glad to have him so close to headquarters.

J. W. Huggins, late of the dispatcher's force, Wichita Falls, is now in the coal and transfer business in Childress. Bully for you, Joe, we wish you the best of success.

Div. Cox.

Atlanta, Birmingham & Atlantic Ry.

Brunswick Division—

I would be very glad indeed if you brothers on the Atlanta and Birmingham end would give me a few dots once in awhile, so we can let the others know what we are doing.

The Thomasville Branch is solid with the exception of one man, Moultrie, and he will come in in a few days.

We had a good meeting at Fitzgerald in December. We usually have a good crowd at our Fitzgerald meetings from the Brunswick end. Bro. Campbell, from Thomasville, has never attended any of our meetings, and I am going to make a special effort to get him out at our next meeting.

Bro. Lindsey, at Merrillville, on the sick list several days, was relieved by Bro. Stephens, from Mauck.

Bro. Hay, of Cooledge, has had his hands full this fall with cotton and W. U. work.

The new man at Tifton came in a few weeks ago. J. K. Brinkley, another new man, has been appointed agent at Double Run. We hope some of the brothers will investigate as to how he stands.

A. S. Newbern, another new man, now has Byromville agency. Hope someone close will get busy with him.

Hortense agency, recently filled by N. C. Martin, another new man.

Relief Agent Brown has been on the go for some time, relieving several who were sick and on their vacations.

Please remit your dues at once for our new cards for 1914. Do not overlook this and put it off.

Our general chairman, Bro. Gorman, made a trip over the entire division recently in order to get such information as he could not get otherwise to help him in future to adjust any difference at any particular point on the line.

L. C. Mobley, Div. Cor., Cert. 49.

Delaware & Hudson Ry.

Saratoga Division—

This division has elected the following officers to conduct the regular monthly meetings at Mechanicville, N. Y.: Chief telegrapher, T. F. Cassidy, Mechanicville, N. Y.; secretary, E. M. Hughes, Albany, N. Y.; first-vice, C. H. Kemp, Waterford, N. Y.; second vice, J. Govreau, Glens Falls, N. Y.; Marshall, D. Higgins, Green Island, N. Y.; past chief telegrapher, T. Coyne, Mechanicville, N. Y.; sentinel, H. Leonard, Troy, N. Y.

These meetings are well attended, but there is still a big chance for improvement. At December meeting a lengthy letter from our Second Vice-President T. M. Pierson expressing regrets for his not being able to be with us, was read. We have Tom's promise that if business will permit he will be with us next meeting. Very interesting talks were given us by General Chairman G. A. Johnson, D. Danks, local chairman Pennsylvania Division; J. Lawrence, local chairman Susquehanna Division; C. H. Kemp, former local chairman Saratoga Division, and B. N. Nichols, our former secretary and treasurer of old Division 78. How many of us possess the spirit of loyalty to the O. R. T. as Bro. Nichols? Some time in 1906 Ben left the D. & H. and yet today he still has in his possession an up-to-date car, while I am sorry to say quite a few telegraphers, after receiving something like $1.50 increase per year, two days off per month with pay and other benefits have not contributed to the expense of securing them.

How much longer do these men (?) want the members of the O. R. T. to secure for them more increases and better working conditions, so that they may sit back and take life easy at the expense of the O. R. T.?

Did you ever hear of a non refusing to accept an increase secured by the O. R. T.? No! neither did I. Yet any increases got for these men on the D. & H. is more than enough to keep them in good standing in the O. R. T. Perhaps I had better not be too harsh with these men, as our membership is increasing very greatly, and it may hamper the good work being done by some of the members in getting new candidates.

At January’s meeting it is hoped that there will be a large attendance on hand, as this meeting will be the last previous to our first annual dance, which will be held at the Music Hall, Mechanicville, N. Y., January 29, 1914. All indications point to this dance being a great success. It is not unreasonable to say that the committee expect each member to get rid of at least five or ten tickets, and in places that are well inhabited by railroad men the members should get rid of twenty-five or fifty. I think the committee will offer a good prize to the member selling the most tickets.

I have no notes at present, but if the different members will send me the happenings in their locality before the 20th of the month I will try and have a write-up representing the D. & H. in each issue of THE TELEGRAFER.

DIV. COR.

Virginian Ry.
First and Second Divisions—

Several new offices have opened up recently at Goodview, Huddleston, Phenix, Adsit and Suffolk, which goes to show that business is better than it has been before on this end.

I think that this should make us all more determined to land all of the nons and have solid divisions when we go up for another schedule.

Boys, all of you remember that it is now time to get your new cards and you do not want to hesitate a single day before mailing the proper amount to Mr. Goodwin and get them as early as possible.

The three nons at “MA,” “C” and “SU” have all promised to come in and we will be glad to have them do so.

Bro. Herring, off a few days, relieved by Bro. Bevill (a new man from the C. & O.) is calling on his future intended down in the “Tar Heel” State. We all wish him much success.

Bro. Lucy, relief agent, bid in second “CD,” relieved by Bro. Clark. It has not been decided who will get first “CD,” as there seems to be some misunderstanding about that job.

Bro. Giles, first “CD,” has been promoted to dispatcher. We are glad to have him work along the wire and hope he will be successful in his new position.

There are many changes being made that your correspondent can not obtain. Each one of you mail him your notes each month so that he may get them in for the journal in good time.

Our regular correspondent has dropped out of the Order. Perhaps he will see his mistake and come back with us.

Wish you all a happy New Year.

Chicago, Indiana & Southern R. R.
Danville Division—

Mr. Hardesty, agent Cook, off a few days, was relieved by Cunningham.

Bro. J. E. Withrow, after a season of relief, is back at Kentland days.

Now, boys, business is getting heavy and lots of train orders. Be on the job and do not let the dispatchers get angry calling you, as they are good fellows and will do good by you.

Keep the telephone receiver hanging on the hook, so you will know where to find it, and it will cut down the resistance on the line also.

Campbell opened November 15th with Bro. Humphrey on second and Mr. Bern third; Tab, with Bro. Handley second and ex-Bro. Johnson third; Handy, with Bro. Blaney second and Cunningham third.

You nons just stop and think what the engineers and conductors are now getting on their schedule, and it was not their first schedule either. The operators on this or any other railroad will not get anything if you continue to stay out and do nothing to help the good cause along. You believe organized labor is a good thing, but you are too timid to step out and help to organize by joining an 1 being a member and helping it along financially. You might ask some of the best union members of some of the strongest unions of today and you will be surprised to learn what their dues and assessments cost them, and then you will hesitate and claim you can not stand $5.00 semi-annually for a card.

I received no items from any of the boys and this was all I was able to get off-handed. This is my first attempt; will do better next time if the brothers will send me the news.

C. L. Smith, Div. Cor.

SOME DON'TS WHILE WORKING ON THE PHONE.

Don't butt in on the dispatcher with your “OS” or questions while he is putting out orders or is busy with other work which is far more important.

Don't butt in while someone is holding phone conversation.

Don't let the dispatcher ring you four or five times before answering.

Don't “holler” into the transmitter; talk low and you will get best results and will not “bust” someone's eardrum.
Don't lay back in your chair and expect to be heard over the telephone while you are two feet away from the transmitter.

Don't let trainmen or enginemen take their orders. You are there for that purpose and are discriminating against yourself by allowing them to do this.

Don't be snappy and grouchy to the dispatcher when he has to have some information, but help him all you can.

Kankakee Division

Bro. N. A. Jackson, Streator second, has resigned and left for Oakland, Cal. We are very sorry to lose Bro. Jackson, as he is a "live wire" and a worthy member. He was relieved by T. D. Arnold, of Ladd, who promises to be with us next pay day.

Mr. Ikerd, of McNabb, resigned, and C. E. Layman bid it in, and promises to join as soon as settled. He was relieved at De Pue by R. E. Jones, who claims he will join, but falls down on his promises.

Recent new members: Alex Morton and Mathew Cinnetto, of Seatonville, and James Montague, of Momence, Ill. Two or three others have promised for next pay day.

Ex-Bro. Thomas, of Ladd, will soon be with us again. We are pleased to hear that his wife, who has been very ill for a long time, has recovered sufficiently to be up.

Bro. Mark Glover, of Granville, is making too many trips to "Monkey's Nest."

Bro. Hartigan, of North Judson, surprised the boys the other day by going over the division as student brakeman. Says he needs the exercise.

Remit your dues for new card to Bro. C. C. Barnes, 724 East Sample street, South Bend, Ind. Notices were mailed you.

Bro. Moran, of Kankakee, spent Thanksgiving in Seatonville.

Old Jack Driscoll says he has to buy Christmas presents for his Mandy and can not be with us until later. Hope he don't wait until he gets out of date.

Don't forget to ride with Bro. Grady while in Dwight. He is in the livery business.

Delmar is now a three-trick job, with all the C. T. H. & S. E. men in charge. This does not keep them from taking out the necessary papers.

The new tower at Schneider will soon be in operation, and the men there will not have time to think. However, it is a fine building and that will help some; but, oh, you seventy levers and all the switching, too.

Mr. Dooley, the new dispatcher, is getting onto the ropes and seems to understand his business. His is a good job if we can believe Jack.

There is some talk of turning the locals at North Judson. If this is a fact, we should have no trouble in moving our cars.

Bro. Hartigan, first North Judson, resigned and went braking, relieved by Bro. J. C. Kelly, formerly of the L. S. & M. S.

Bro. Bain and Clausen have quit worrying about switch lamps.

Bro. Krick, North Liberty, is back from Florida. Understand he went fishing there. (Look out, boys.) He wanted to bring half car of fruit, but his wife wouldn't let him.

J. E. H.

Ford Patton, agent at Knox, had the great misfortune to lose his wife, who died November 21st. All of his old fellow employees extend him their sympathy. Perhaps in the near future we may be able to grasp his hand and say "Brother."

Shimanek, G. C.

Cornwall & Lebanon R. R.

The manual block system went into effect on this line November 3d. This keeps us operators very busy along with the station work.

A few more of the boys have joined the O. R. T. Boys, get busy and get the rest to join. We have long days and small pay, and as the cost of living is very high, we should receive more for the work we are doing.

Let us do the very best for our employers, and perhaps they will do something for us.

CRET. 2197.

Omaha Railroad Telegraphers’ Club.

The social which was held in Labor Temple Hall, on Tuesday evening, December 9th, was a pronounced success, far exceeding the most sanguine expectations of the officers of the club, and everything running according to the previously arranged program.

Promptly at 8:30 p. m. Bro. Archie Burnite, leader of the O. R. T. Orchestra, gave the "band," composed of ten pieces, the "HI" sign, and the festivities were launched, commencing one of the most enjoyable evenings the members of this club ever participated in. After a preliminary musical selection, the orchestra started one of Archie's favorite "dreamy" waltzes, and President Ackerman called the dancers to the floor, thirty to thirty-five couples responding. There was a total attendance of seventy, and we were sorry so very few of the boys from out of town were among us.

After several dances, we were treated to an excellent musical program. Mrs. J. W. Langley, wife of Bro. Langley of Division 6, gave a piano recital, which was greatly appreciated and well applauded by an attentive audience. Next followed a vocal selection by Miss Flannigan, pianist of the orchestra, which called forth such an encore that she was obliged to respond by adding another number to the program. Miss Flannigan plays her own accompaniment on the piano, and was assisted by "The Rev." Mac, the artist on the cello. We all enjoyed the music very much, and thank the donors for their valuable services, so cheerfully given.

About ten bells the orchestra called a halt, and the committee on refreshments announced luncheon. The refreshment committee was ably assisted by the two boys of Bro. Potter of Division 6 and also by Master Tathewell, son of Bro. Tathewell of Division 23. It was necessary to run a second section of the "refreshment train," which was evidence that the luncheon provided by the wives of the members was greatly appreciated, and the ladies were complimented on the excellent repast.

Among those who attended from out of town were: Bros. C. E. Maxwell and H. J. Mohler, of Division 31, who enjoyed themselves to the limit. Bro. Frank Vybral and wife came in from Schuyler. You can’t lose Frank; he’s always here when “something’s doin’,” and his wife, also being one of the “live ones,” accompanies him. Bro. Reisener, from Gilmore Jct., U. P., also made a special effort and attended, bringing his dancing partner with him. What we can not see is that the brothers from the outlying districts and nearby stations were able to attend while a number of the boys living within a few blocks of the hall failed to appear. They were the losers however, as those who attended will no doubt tell them. Watch for our next date, boys. It is planned to have one of these socials each month, if we can arrange satisfactorily to all concerned for the hall.

The Burlington had a good bunch with us, there being eight or ten men from the general offices, and the U. P. boys also turned out in grand style. The I. C. was represented, as usual, by Bro. Jack Harty, and the Milwaukee was represented by the “whole bunch” from “the Bluffs.” We are very sorry some of the Missouri Pacific boys did not seem to care to attend. We are satisfied they each had an invite, but there were only three of the members from Division 31 present, excepting the general chairman and general secretary and treasurer.

We are not able to announce the date of the next social in this number of THE TELEGRAPHER. I suggest that the members of divisions covering lines at present getting in touch with the vice-president of the club representing their line, and he will post them on the date, and Ie in position to give them the particulars.

The expenses of these affairs are very low and were paid by the club members at the meeting held in November, each one attending that meeting donating a small sum toward the entertainment fund.

No charge was collected at the hall, and as the invitations stated, “admission free,” we require each person attending to present the invitation at the door. You will all readily understand that we must maintain this rule, otherwise we would have people who are not desirable and others who have no right to admission. We did not make any iron-clad rule, however, that a man had to be up to date to be with us, as we invited some “prospective” members also. Several of them were there and enjoyed themselves, and we believe passed the good word along.

There was no speech making whatever. The evening was spent in getting acquainted and by dancing and at luncheon. Everyone attending voted the affair a great success.

President Ackerman made a short announcement of our next regular meeting, December 22d, at the Paxton Hotel, and urged all the members to attend.

It was with reluctance that the orchestra played “Home, Sweet Home” at 11:55 p.m., but as the lights are turned off in all halls at 12 o’clock, it had “to be did.”

Your faithful scribe has endeavored to cover the event as best he could, but as he was “25” a great part of the time, enjoying himself, was unable to get all the notes. “THE SCRIBE.”

Chicago CORT Club.

Our regular meeting of November 6th was a success in every particular; a very interesting time was enjoyed and many old familiar faces were in evidence, which was very gratifying indeed.

The meeting was called to order at 8:20 p.m., with President Craig in the chair and all other club officers present.

A committee of three, consisting of Bros. Corcoran, Smart and Rose, were appointed to draft a club resolution indorsing H. R. Bill 1873 and Senate Bill 927, and urging our Congressmen to support it. This was duly accomplished and copies of the resolution mailed to all concerned.

After the usual club business terminated, First Vice-President Newman was called upon for a few remarks, and spoke at great length relative to the good work that had been accomplished in the past few months on railroads on which he had conducted negotiations for new and revised schedules. To learn of the increases in wages and the betterment of working conditions procured by Bro. Newman and his various committees was very pleasing indeed. Bro. Newman deserves great credit for the many successful negotiations conducted by him since his last address to this club. Some of these schedules are really among the best in the country. This gilt edge work that is being accomplished every day by the O. R. T. certainly should induce the brothers in the ranks to place their shoulders to the O. R. T. wheel of fortune and back their union officials in conquering the corporations flanking us every day in a determined effort to conquer us. All this good work that is being accomplished in Bro. Newman’s territory is liberally being placed by him with the rank and file along the line. See that you are deserving of this reward. Bro. Newman’s remarks were delightfully received and applauded.

Bro. Smart, C. & N. W., was then called upon and gave a short but interesting narration of existing conditions on that road, and what was being accomplished relative to organizing Division 76 individually and collectively and urged the club members to use drastic personal effort in procuring the applications of other O. R. T. members for membership in the CORT Club as a means of advancing it socially and financially.

Bro. Soyester, general chairman Division 23, was then called upon and gave us one of his ever-interesting talks as to conditions generally, as well as those prevalent in his territory. Bro.
Soyster, with his pure, fair-minded, unadulterated facts, mingled with good humor, is certainly a favorite among the club members, who are always delighted to see him take the floor. His remarks always prove wonderfully beneficial to conservative members.

Bro. Jones was (as usual) right on the job and gave us all an earful of the ever-welcome information relative to doings around the federation hall and State legislative matters.

Bro. and Mrs. P. E. Gray spent Christmas with relatives in LaPorte, Ind.

Bro. Smart was off a week visiting relatives at Greenview, Ill.

Bro. J. A. Rose and family spent Christmas day with Bro. A. L. Bradley and family, of West Chicago.

Topeka O. R. T. Club.

The meeting on Sunday evening, December 14th, was called to order at 8:00 p. m., with First Vice-President Bro. H. A. Ford in the chair, owing to the absence of President Stover, who was compelled to work that night.

The minutes of last meeting were read by Secretary Powell and approved as read. Bro. O'Grady, of No. 126, moved that the club pass a resolution at this meeting conveying our sympathy to Sister Brown, of "KI" Topeka, who lost her father recently. Seconded by Bro. Powell, and the chairman appointed Bros. Powell, O'Grady and Hattwick as a committee of three to form a resolution to this effect.

Although the attendance was not large, the meeting was very interesting in every respect, and some very heated debates were indulged in and good points brought out.

Short talks were made by Bros. Ford and Love, of Herington, and Dix, of St. Louis; Powell, O'Grady, Meador, Allen, Ehrhart, Hattwick and Hamilton, of Topeka, and Valdez, of the Southern Pacific.

Every one was well pleased with the meeting, especially Bro. Charlie Hattwick, of "KI." He hasn't been with us very often owing to being on nights, but thinks he will attend regularly now.

Bro. Carver was called home suddenly from the meeting and told us the next day "it was a boy and a dandy, and was going to be a world's champion sender just like 'Dad.'"

Meeting adjourned at 11:30 p. m.

R. A. Powell, Sec'y.

If you know an ambitious, self-reliant, worthy young man whom you can conscientiously recommend for The Oliver Typewriter Local Agency, tell us about him. We are interested in him. If he can meet our standard of qualifications we are in a position to offer him the opportunity of his life.

New local Agencies are being established in hundreds of towns and villages. We are making agency appointments every day.

Yet we must proceed slowly, cautiously. We dare not make mistakes. For these Local Agencies carry with them exclusive control of all sales of new Oliver Typewriters in the territory assigned. The Local Agent makes a profit on every sale. His contract gives him a valuable franchise—an opportunity to build up a profitable business.

EDITORIAL

THE YEAR 1913.

It is said that history sometimes repeats itself, which statement has proven the rule instead of the exception with the Order of Railroad Telegraphers during the last several years. During that period, to write the history of the Order is simply to repeat the history of the previous year with some additions. Each year has been a record of accomplishments, of advancements, of wonderful progress, and the close of the year 1913 finds the Order stronger numerically and in every other way than ever before. The number of schedules in existence at the close of the year is greater than ever before in the history of the Order or of any other telegraphers' organization that ever existed.

The year 1913 furnished a striking illustration of the potency of the Order and its great benefit to the railroad telegraphers. Although business stagnation existed throughout the country during the latter part of the year and hundreds of thousands of men in the railroad service were laid off, no telegrapher on a scheduled road suffered a cent of reduction in wages. On the contrary, the general committees on the various lines continued their efforts for better conditions and much progress was made along those lines. A brief resume of the work of the Order during the year will better chronicle its progress than all the words that could be coined.

During the year 10,511 members were admitted as follows:

February, 870.      August, 832.
March, 1,016.       September, 906.
April, 1,026.       October, 895.
May, 604.           November, 830.
June, 872.          December, 1,109.

During 1913 fifty-four new and revised schedules were secured on the following named railway systems:

Queen & Crescent, South.
Bessemer & Lake Erie.
Chesapeake & Ohio.
Delaware & Hudson.
Southern Railway.
Illinois Central.
Virginian Railway.

The Mutual Benefit Department made a very satisfactory showing during the year 1913, and furnishes further proof of the correctness of the contention that that department is one of the best of its kind in the world. During the year $93,700 was paid out on death claims, and $48,045.33 added to the reserve in the Mortuary Fund. There are only a few words to be said in concluding this article, as the Order of Railroad Telegraphers is now on a solid business basis with the largest membership ever enrolled in a telegraphers' organization, and ample funds with which to back the contention of its members for better working conditions. The members, however, should not lose sight of the old motto that "Eternal Vigilance is the Price of Liberty." If the Order is to be maintained at its present high standard of efficiency, it will be necessary for every member to do his or her duty, not only in assisting in maintaining what has already been secured, but also in securing further improved conditions. There are still a number of eligible telegraphers outside of the fold who should be brought in, and every member will be materially assisting their own cause, as well as that of their co-workers, by assisting in bringing about complete organization. A 100 per cent membership insures a 100 per cent schedule. Get busy.

THIRD VICE-PRESIDENT CAMPBELL RETIRES.

D. CAMPBELL, Third Vice-President of the Order, has withdrawn from the active work of his office on an indefinite leave of absence to enter the practice of law. He will devote his attention to specializing in law in the interest of wage-earners in general and in taking care of the legal rights and liabilities of the members of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, and of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen in Canada in particular.

Brother Campbell has had ten years' experience in actual railroad service and has filled the office of Third Vice-President of the Order for the past thirteen years. His experience and the information thus acquired will be useful to him in his new field of activity. He will be engaged in defending members of the two organizations in cases of criminal prosecution for negligence, in cases of fatal accident, in protecting the questions of indemnity bond, also in taking cases where damage suits are entered as a result of employment, or any other cases where legal recourse may be necessary.

Brother Campbell was appointed Third Vice-President on March 1, 1901, to fill an unexpired term, and has served in that capacity continuously since that time, having been re-elected at each succeeding conven-sion. It is sometimes said that a prophet is without honor in his own country, but not so with Brother Campbell, as the delegates from the Canadian Divisions at each session of the Grand Division have accorded him their hearty support, and each time requested that he be returned to them as their Vice-President, on account of the sterling work he had performed for them. In severing his active official service with the organization, Brother Campbell has left his territory in excellent condition for his successor, as every line of railway in the Dominion of Canada of any size is scheduled, thanks to the efforts of an enthusiastic and loyal membership, ably assisted by Brother Campbell. The best wishes of his associate Grand Officers, as well as the entire membership of the Order, goes with Brother Campbell for a brilliant success in his new field.

Brother G. D. Robertson, who for several years has been general chairman of the Canadian Pacific Railway System, Division No. 7, has been appointed Deputy President, and will perform the duties formerly performed by the Third Vice-President until the next session of the Grand Division. If anything was necessary to testify to the capabilities of Brother Robertson to fulfill these important duties, the very excellent schedule existing on the Canadian Pacific would most amply do this. He has been a prominent figure at all the recent sessions of the Grand Division a man of unimpeachable character, one endowed with the highest sense of honor, thoroughly capable, and such a man as would be a credit to any organization as one of its principal representatives.

A. P. MURPHY DEAD.

ARTHUR P. MURPHY, father of the Telegraphers' Nine-Hour Law, died in Rolla, Mo., his home, on Sunday, February 1st, from heart disease. Brother Murphy, who was a member of Frisco Ry. System, Division No. 32, started his business career as a railroad telegrapher; later studied law and was admitted to the bar. Having been a successful practitioner in his chosen profession, and through his sterling qualities gained the confidence and esteem of the citizens of his community, he was elected to Congress from the 15th Missouri Congressional District, serving two terms in that body. In the hour of his success, he did not forget his early struggle as a railroad telegrapher, and those now following that calling, and realizing the great necessity for a change in the hours of service of the railroad telegraphers, not only for their own welfare but also as a further guarantee of safety to the traveling public, he introduced a bill compelling the inauguration of an eight-hour day for railroad telegraphers, and his speech on that bill, when it came before Congress for consideration, was one of the most notable ever delivered in that great legislative body in behalf of a class of working men. Being a talented orator, and being able to speak from experience, he readily convinced members of Congress of the justness of the bill and the necessity for its passage, and although he was not able to prevent the adoption of an amendment providing for nine instead of eight hours, he succeeded in securing its passage in the amended form, and today the railroad telegraphers of the United States are enjoying shorter hours as a result of his efforts, and are deeply indebted to him for his great service. His memory will ever be cherished in the hearts of the railroad telegraphers of North America.

Among the numerous floral offerings was one from the Grand Division of the Order.

"O. R. T. MEMORIAL DAY."

In accordance with action taken at the Ninth Biennial and Nineteenth Regular Session of the Grand Division of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, held at Baltimore, Md., May 12 to 21, 1913, it becomes necessary for the President to name a day to be known as "O. R. T. Memorial Day." The resolution adopted reads as follows:

"Resolved, That this convention of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers set aside a day each year to be known as Memorial Day, for the purpose of paying respect to the memory of deceased members. The President shall specify a day hereafter to be known as 'O. R. T. Memorial Day.'"

As our Senior Past President Brother A. D. Thurston passed into the great beyond the day after that resolution was adopted, it seems fitting that our Memorial Day should be named in connection with the life-work of the founder of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers. He was born on July 10, 1853, and passed away on May 21, 1913. We will commemorate the day of his birth as near as it will be practical for us to do so, and we therefore specify Sunday, July 12, 1914, as the first "O. R. T. Memorial Day."

Naming the date for the nearest Sunday will give more members an opportunity to pay their respects to his memory and that of other deceased members than would any other day of the week.

Each division of the organization will observe the day in any manner that it may select, and ample time is afforded by this notice so that the arrangements necessary may be made in advance.

H. B. PERHAM, President.

AN IMPORTANT DECISION.

In an opinion written by Judge Brewer, the State Supreme Court Commission of Oklahoma has taken an advanced position on the right of organized labor to strike in protest against the employment of a non-unionist, and the latter, according to the decision, has no cause for action, as workingmen have the right, in the absence of contract, to quit whenever they choose. The decision is the result of a threatened strike of union miners against the Western Coal & Mining Company at Lehigh, Okla., unless a non-unionist was discharged. The mine foreman complied with the request, and the non-unionist then sued the union for $100,000 damages. The lower court sustained the union, and on appeal the State Supreme Court Commission affirmed the ruling. "Employes of a coal company," said Judge Brewer, "who are members of a labor union, have the right, when involved in a trade dispute between themselves and their employer and growing out of this relation, to protest to their employer against the employment or retention in his employment of a non-union employe; and to accompany such protest with the statement that if such non-union man is employed, that such employes will strike—that is, that such employes will simultaneously cease to work for such employer—and if such protest is not heeded, the union men have the lawful right to strike; and if it is heeded, the non-union man who is discharged has no cause of action against either the union as an organization nor the members thereof as individuals. Any man, in the absence of a contract to work a definite time, has a right to quit whenever he chooses, for any reason satisfactory to him, or without any reason. If his wages are not satisfactory, his hours too long, his work too hard, his employer or his employment uncongenial, or his co-laborers objectionable, his right to quit is absolute. What an individual may do, a number of his co-workers may join him in doing, provided the thing to be done is lawful."

Hired Thugs.

The practice of certain employers of importing hired thugs, notorious "gunmen" and other irresponsible characters in case of strike to act as "guards" has become so common, and the acts of these miserable hirelings have become so notorious, as to arouse public condemnation, that federal legislation correcting this flagrant evil seems assured. In his first annual report, Secretary of Labor Wilson requests Congress to pass legislation that will prevent the interstate transportation of armed guards in times of strike. Reference is made to the use of these individuals who, the Secretary reports, "Are said to have been imported from Colorado and other States through a business concern engaged commercially across State lines in supplying corporations with an armed and trained soldiery or police in numbers running into hundreds and even thousands. In connection with the Pere Marquette strike in Michigan, armed guards, furnished by agencies in other States supplying men to take the place of local strikers, accompanied those men to Grand Rapids. They were then turned back by the United States marshal under instructions from the district judge. In the Calumet copper mining region armed guards under contract with the employers were forwarded to the locality by agencies in other States." Mr. Wilson urges Congress to take action within its constitutional limitations to regulate this business in the interest of peace and order. It is shown that this suggestion is neither novel or new, and the report of the Congressional Committee that investigated the Homestead strike, twenty-one years ago, is quoted at length as a precedent. This report favored regulation and declared these guards might "properly be characterized as a sort of private military or police force." Mr Wilson submits that the rights of Congress in this matter are unquestioned, because of its laws relating to the "white slave" traffic and the opinion of Congress and the public generally that interstate commerce no longer applies to traffic in commodities only.

The Denver Evening Express, in a strong article on this subject under the caption "Private Armies and Private Government Intolerable in the United States," prints the following:

"The first political lesson at Trinidad, taught also at Homestead more than twenty years ago, is that private armies are intolerable in a free government. They helped to destroy Rome. They must not be allowed to contribute to the destruction of America. The enforcement of a law is a public duty. When it is subject to either party in a controversy, justice vanishes. Through its own agents, the United States now knows that, for months in the Colorado coal country, free government did not exist—it had broken down. In its place was private government, paid for by federal greed. The governor of Colorado lays the burden of blame upon 'imported agitators;' but the United States now knows that the big trouble was with imported gunmen and with their remorseless employers, the absentee capitalist. It is not just to compel underpaid labor to bear the cost of this default in government. It is cruel to take it out of starving men and women. The public welfare clause of the federal constitution is ample warrant for Uncle Sam to butt in. Mother Jones’ detention without due process of law is another immediate reason.”

Senator Martine, chairman of the sub-committee of the United States Senate Committee on Education and Labor, who recently investigated the conditions existing during the West Virginia miner’s strike, has made a strong report to that committee, which sustains the findings of Senator Borah, who formerly investigated matters connected with that strike.

It will be recalled that Senator Borah found complete domination by the military forces in the strikebound district and a setting aside of every constitutional guarantee, notwithstanding the fact that, to use his own words, “the civil courts were open, holding their terms as usual, disposing of cases and dispensing justice in the usual and ordinary manner.” He further showed that arrests were made outside the military zone for offenses alleged to have been committed outside this district and at a time when martial law did not prevail. In many of these cases the parties charged were turned over to the military authorities for detention, trial and punishment, which resulted in penalties unknown to the statutes and in excess of the laws of the State. Senator Borah refers to the strong feeling engendered because of the strike, but says no threats of violence were made against judges or the courts, and the failure to conv\venc \ grand juries was not justifiable, as an attempt should have been made to call grand juries and test the claim that it was impossible to maintain civil law. Senator Borah says this was not done. In his report to the main committee Senator Martine, who investigated the charge that mails were interfered with by strikers, reports the claim not well founded, and says the charges that mail deliveries were interfered with was not proven. The Senator says the use of armed guards “can not be too strongly condemned,” and that they loitered around the coal company’s stores, which were often in the same building as the post-office. The transportation of foreigners by the companies is referred to “as a serious reflection on our boasted civilization.” The following passage from the report gives some idea of the investigator’s views as a result of his visit to Paint Creek and Cabin Creek: “In no spirit of malice or hatred, but with a view that the country, through knowledge of the true conditions, may right the wrong, I charge that the hiring of armed bodies of men by private mine owners and other corporations, and the use of steel armored trains, machine guns and bloodhounds on defenseless men, women and children is but a little way removed from barbarism.” These reports will be included in the general committee’s report to the Senate.

A USEFUL BOOK.

THE Grand Secretary and Treasurer, on behalf of the Order, has taken the agency for the Phelps Calculator. Any station agent or other railroad employee who has much extension work to do, who dreads the monthly reports, and who wants to cut down these operations (either freight or passenger) by one-half, and who desires to insure the accuracy of his calculations, will do well to secure one of these valuable books. The price of the book fades into insignificance in the satisfaction resulting from the Calculator’s use. This book is also of inestimable value to shipping clerks in the traffic department of large mercantile houses.

Before taking the agency, the Grand Secretary and Treasurer had this book carefully examined by two old-time station agents, who pronounced it to be a most useful publication.

The price of the book is $2.50 post-paid. Send all remittances to L. W. Quick, Grand Secretary and Treasurer, St. Louis, Mo.
AN IMPORTANT BILL.

HON. WM. J. STONE, United States Senator from Missouri, has introduced a bill in the United States Senate to prohibit the importation into the United States of goods manufactured in part or whole in foreign countries by convict or pauper labor, which bill will be of great interest to organized labor in the United States. The bill is known as Senate Bill No. 4161 and is as follows:

A BILL.

To prohibit the importation and entry of goods, wares and merchandise made in whole or in part by convicts, pauper or detained labor, or made in whole or in part from materials which have been made in whole or in part or in any manner manipulated by convict or prison labor.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That all goods, wares and merchandise produced in whole or in part by convict, pauper or prison labor, or in the production of which foreign labor, or convict, pauper or prison labor has been employed, either directly or indirectly, in any manner and for any purpose; or in the production or manufacture of which has been used any material, prepared, manipulated or assembled by convict, pauper or prison labor, and all materials, wholly or partly finished articles, goods, wares, or merchandise, or wrappers, or containers, or attachments of merchandise, separately, or a part of any goods, wares and merchandise, all the foregoing upon which, or any part of which, has been employed in any manner the labor of foreign convicts, or of prisoners confined in any jail, penal institution, workhouse, or other place of restraint, detention or occupation, permitted, established, and set aside, to be utilized by or for criminals or detained persons in any foreign country, and whether the same be the product of the field, the quarry, or manufacturing establishment, any part of which or the materials entering which have been produced, treated, manipulated, or manufactured at any stage, in whole or in part by convict, pauper, or prison labor, or by detained persons in a foreign country, shall not be entitled to entry at any of the ports of the United States and the importation thereof is hereby prohibited.

Sec. 2. That such materials, goods, wares, and merchandise in any manner the product, in whole or in part of convict, pauper, or prison labor, or of persons under restraint whose service is hired, leased, contracted for, or given with or without compensation, and utilized outside of prisons, or in places of restraint or employment whether in the field, quarry, the forest, factory, yard, or inclosure, wherein such prison labor and free labor are utilized, such products, including all the products described and covered by section one of this Act, shall be deemed and held to be convict or prison-produced materials and goods, and the importation thereof is hereby prohibited.

Sec. 3. That if any consignor, seller, owner, shipper, importer, consignee, agent, or other person or persons shall enter or introduce, or attempt to enter or introduce into the commerce of the United States any prison-made goods, wares, and merchandise, as defined and covered by the provisions of sections one and two of this Act, such prohibited articles and the package or packages in which contained shall be seized and proceedings taken against the same as hereinafter prescribed.

Sec. 4. That all goods, wares, and merchandise covered by section one and two of this Act shall be liable to be proceeded against in any district court of the United States within the district where the same is found and seized for confiscation by a process of libel for condemnation. And if any such goods, wares, and merchandise is condemned as being within the prohibition of this Act the same shall be disposed of by destruction or shipment out of the country as the court may direct: Provided, however, That the destruction of the goods, wares, and merchandise shall be decreed unless the cost of such libel proceedings is paid by the claimant and upon the execution and delivery of a good and sufficient bond that said goods so condemned be landed outside the jurisdiction of the United States.

The proceedings of such libel cases shall conform as near as may be to the proceedings in admiralty, except that either party may demand trial by jury of any issue of fact joined in any such case, and all such proceedings shall be at the suit and in the name of the United States.

Sec. 5. That if any consignor, seller, owner, shipper, importer, consignee, agent, or other person or persons shall knowingly and fraudulently enter or introduce, or knowingly and fraudulently attempt, to enter or introduce into the commerce of the United States any goods, wares, or merchandise the importation of which is prohibited by this Act, such person or persons shall upon conviction be fined for each offense a sum not exceeding $5,000, or be imprisoned for a time not exceeding two years, or both, in the discretion of the court: Provided, That nothing in this section shall be construed to relieve merchandise so prohibited from seizure and destruction as elsewhere provided by law.

Sec. 6. That in all suits or information made pursuant to the Act where probable cause for seizure and prosecution is shown, if the property is claimed by any person or persons, the owner, importer, shipper, consignee, agent, or claimant of such goods shall establish the fact that such goods are not convict, pauper, or prison made, as prohibited by this Act.

Sec. 7. That the arrival of any goods, wares, and merchandise prohibited by this Act within the territorial limits of the United States with the intent to land, or the existence of any other facts constituting a violation of this Act, shall be deemed an attempt to enter and import: Provided, That when any collector of customs is informed that entry of any such goods, wares, and merchandise is attempted he shall refuse entry thereof until the owner, consignee, agent, or claimant of such goods shall personally appear before him and subscribe to a declaration on entry that the merchandise is not prohibited by this Act, the form of which declaration shall be prescribed and promulgated by the Secretary of the Treasury.

Sec. 8. That the importation into the United States of merchandise intended for sale, the product of foreign, State, and municipal charitable and pauper institutions, is hereby prohibited, as within the meaning of sections one and two of this Act.

Sec. 9. That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby directed to prescribe such regulations as may be necessary for the enforcement of this Act, and to annually report to Congress all violations of and prosecutions under this Act, together with his decisions and recommendations in regard thereto.

Sec. 10. That all acts, or parts of acts, in conflict herewith are hereby repealed. This Act shall take effect one month from the date of its passage.

WILL INVESTIGATE MICHIGAN AND COLORADO STRIKES.

By a vote of 151 to 15, the House of Representatives of the National Congress has ordered its Committee on Mines and Mining to make a thorough and complete investigation of conditions in the Michigan copper fields and the Colorado coal fields. The committee is given wide powers and will have authority to subpoena witnesses and to hold hearings wherever it may find it necessary. Under the resolution, the following questions will be given especial consideration: Whether a system of peonage is or has been maintained in those strike zones; whether the postal service has been interfered with; whether the immigration laws have been violated; investigate the charge that citizens of the United States have been accorded treatment that is in violation of the constitution; investigate the charge that combinations exist that have for their purpose the controlling of the product of those fields, and the charge that firearms have been shipped into those fields to further this purpose; in the event any or all of these conditions exist, investigate the causes leading up to said conditions. Because of the agitation that has been conducted under the direction of the American Federation of Labor, little opposition to the resolution was presented. One of the best speeches made in favor of the resolution's adoption was that delivered by Congressman Lewis, a member of the labor group, who said: "Shall the laws be so reformulated as to provide a peaceful remedy for these con-conflicts between labor and its employers? And the essential elements of that subject involve both State and federal institutions in the most direct way. For example, I think that all will agree that the feudal system is fundamentally inconsistent with American institutions and in conflict with our established civilization. And yet, let me say, that in the mining industry it is common for an incorporated company to own the land, own the mine, own the jobs, own the store, and even the transportation, the means of ingress and egress to its one industry, town or community. In that case I suggest you have the feudal system as complete as it has ever shown itself in history.”

NEW RECORD FOR TRANSMISSION.

In sending out the message of New Year’s greetings from President Daniel Willard to the employees of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad System, with the dawn of January 1st, the telegraphers on that line are said to have made a record for telegraphic service. The publicity bureau of that road gives the following interesting facts in connection with that service:

Under the arrangements for handling the telegram, which contained 337 words, it was sent from the headquarters of the company, in Baltimore, to the 65,000 men in the service of the Baltimore & Ohio, Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern, Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton, Sandy Valley and Elkhorn and the Staten Island lines in exactly twenty-seven minutes and was delivered to the employees as they reported for duty Thursday morning.

President Willard wrote the telegram of good wishes to his men, as his last official act of 1913, and everything was gotten in readiness for sending it out with the dawn of the New Year. Notices were sent out during the evening on New Year’s Eve to the twenty-two division headquarters and intermediate cities and towns between New York, Chicago and St. Louis, and from the Great Lakes to the Ohio River and down into the mountains of Kentucky, that an operator should be at the key in each of the 1,200 telegraph offices on the system to receive a message which the president of the road would send out.

Just as the United States Observatory at Washington signaled the beginning of the New Year, the operators, with the members of their families and other railroad men who understood the Morse code, sat listening intently as the telegraph instruments began clicking off the tidings of good cheer from the president to the men associated with him in the operation of the railroad system.

In the offices at Baltimore the work of sending the message was handled under the direction of Charles Selden, superintendent of telegraph, and a corps of telegraph chiefs and operators, including W. H. Hoffman, night manager; G. W. Buckman and E. S. Wyant, assistant managers, and Operators H. R. Watkins, E. J. Stephens, C. C. Brown, R. H. Lipscomb, F. W. Fox, F. S. Day, W. B. Holden and W. A. Tuck.

At the moment that the New Year was ushered in the highly-charged wires leading from the main telegraph office in the Central Building of the road at Baltimore began transmitting the message to all parts of the system. Sending the telegram to each of the division points and intermediate offices, it was arranged to make extra copies of the message for relaying it to the offices and signal towers not in direct communication with the Baltimore office. At 12:27 a.m. the last of the message had been sent out and signed for by the receiving operator, and the work of distributing the greetings to the employees was begun.

The distribution of the message to the individual employees was handled in the same systematic manner as had been followed in transmitting the dispatch. At the larger places on the system many extra copies were made, in addition to which the telegram was posted on all bulletin boards, in the stations, shops and other places of employment. Early morning trains, leaving terminal points, carried copies of the message to the various agencies for delivery to the men. Trainmen on the road at the time were handed the message of greetings from President Willard as they stopped for train orders; and in other instances, as the trains slowed down so that the members of crews could lean out and grab their orders without coming to a full stop, the executive message was attached. No employee of the railroad system, however lowly the nature of his duty might be, was overlooked in distributing the New Year’s message. Track walkers, track gangs and other laborers at points on the line of road had the message thrown off of moving trains for their perusal.

The custom of sending a message of this kind to the men of the rank and file is an annual one with President Willard.

AN APPEAL.

WASHINGTON, D. C., January 27, 1914.

To All Organized Labor:

Members of organized labor are undoubtedly fairly well posted from press reports upon the situation as it exists in Calumet, Mich., as a result of the strike of the copper miners. More than unusual space has been given to this strike by the press on account of the duration of the struggle, the large number of strikers involved, particularly since national attention was attracted to the struggle by the calamity that attended the Christmas celebration arranged for the children of the miners, and the unlawful deportation and brutal, murderous assault made upon President Moyer and Organizer Tanner of the Western Federation of Miners at Calumet.

The situation was first officially brought to the attention of labor in a circular issued from headquarters of the American Federation of Labor, under date of August 28, 1913, calling upon the workers for financial assistance to aid this strike and requesting central bodies to appoint committees to appeal to all workers and friends for contributions. A second appeal was issued September 29, 1913, and since then members of organized labor have been kept as fully informed as possible upon the developments through the columns of the American Federation of Labor Weekly News Letter, which is furnished to the labor and reform press.

The officers of the American Federation of Labor have kept in close touch with the situation to the end of rendering every possible assistance. At various times Vice-President Mitchell and Treasurer Lennon made visits to the Calumet district, in the interest of the strikers, and several organizers of the American Federation of Labor have been and are now active there, and aiding by their best efforts to bring about an honorable adjustment of this bitter struggle.

Further attention has been given to the situation in urging action on the part of the Department of Labor and by assisting in every way possible in securing the passage of a resolution by the House of Representatives providing for a congressional investigation of the Calumet and Colorado situations and outrages, which resolution was passed today. Thus far our efforts to pave the way to a settlement of the strike have not availed. The copper mine owners have had full tyrannical sway so long that they regard the requests of the miners as a rebellion; they refuse to in any way recognize the right of the strikers to have a hearing on their demands and grievances. The strikers on the other hand are maintaining a magnificent struggle in defense of their rights, their manhood, the principles of justice and liberty for their wives and children, and are enduring hardships in order that the justice of their cause, which is the cause of labor and humanity, may be vindicated.

Members of organized labor have contributed generously for the aid of these strikers, and our affiliated organizations are to be commended for the prompt and substantial contributions which they made in response to the needs of these defenseless people. You can readily realize, however, that a tremendous sum is required to give them the barest necessities of life, even in the line of food, and we are again appealing to our affiliated organizations and members to render further financial aid to these strikers, even to the extent of making some sacrifice in the matter, to help them stave off hunger and cold so that they may maintain this struggle to a victorious termination. Bear in mind that the rigors of the winter are severer in the Calumet district than in most parts of our country.

You are aware that we are now passing through the most severe season of the year, and we are sure that the fact alone that these strikers and their families are bravely enduring so much distress for the cause of labor, right and humanity will be sufficient to quicken the sympathies of our fellow-workers and friends and inspire the most generous response that it will be possible to make.

Let all organized labor act generously and promptly. In addition to appropriations from organizations, the membership should respond to this appeal, and organizations should elect committees to appeal to all who love their fellows to help in the appeasement of suffering as well as to establish a greater degree of justice.

Send all contributions to Frank Morrison, Secretary, American Federation of Labor, Ouray Building, Washington, D. C., who will receipt for the same and promptly forward it for the immediate aid of the struggling miners of Calumet.

Fraternally yours,

President.

Members who have won prizes in previous contests of the same character to which they may be entitled during the year 1914, will be given its equivalent in other jewelry of their selection, but in no case will cash be given, for the very good reason that money is easily spent and forgotten, while a valuable piece of jewelry is always retained and serves as a constant visible token of appreciation on the part of the Order, for services rendered.

In the foregoing contest secretaries and officers of divisions, and all other members receiving salary or expenses, or both, for their services are barred from participation.

which Hall held was the one for the term ending December 31st, 1912.

The Editor has been requested to express his views on government ownership of telegraph and telephone. So far as he can see, the railroad telegraphers would in no way be affected by the proposed move. So far as the commercial telegraphers are concerned, he is of the opinion that they would be greatly benefit ed by government ownership.

The Finance Committee of the city of Chicago has recommended to the Common Council of that city that $25,000 be such persons as are recommended by the county agent as deserving of getting the reduced prices.

Assemblyman Nutting has introduced a bill in the Legislature of New Jersey, providing that all food products, canned or packed, shall have the date stamped thereon, showing when such product was placed in the package. The purpose of the bill is to enable consumers to tell the age of canned goods.

The State Supreme Court of Washington has ended a long fight waged by organized labor on behalf of the Spokane three-dollar minimum wage scale for street improvement work, by declaring the act providing for this rate constitutional, and that cities have the right to establish a minimum rate for municipal work, whether done by the city direct or by contract.

Assemblyman Quinn, of New Jersey, has introduced a bill in the Legislature of that State, providing that no restraining order or injunction shall be granted in any case between an employer and employee, relating to labor disputes or strikes, unless necessary to prevent irreparable injury to property or property rights of the person making the application, and for which there is no adequate remedy at law.

H. C. Peterson, Cert. 191 in Division 4, has announced his candidacy for State Railroad Commissioner in Nebraska. He is at the present time serving a second term as Mayor of Bloomfield, Neb., and is also agent for the C., St. P., M. & O. Railway at that place, and it is confidently believed the union men of Nebraska will rally to his support.

James O'Connell, Vice-President of the American Federation of Labor, and a member of the Federal Industrial Relations Commission, was a passenger on the Old Dominion Line Steamship Monroe, which was rammed and sunk by the Nantucket off the Virginia coast a few days ago, and had a thrilling escape from death in that disaster. As the Monroe careened for the last time in going down, O'Connell was thrown high in the air over the vessel's side and landed astride the captain's neck in the last lifeboat that left the sinking ship.

Judge Brady, in the police court at Albany, N. Y., on January 8th, found the New York Central Railroad Company guilty of violating Section 8 of the labor laws of that State, which provide for two days' rest a month for signalmen. So far as known New York is the first State to put a law of this kind on the statute book, and it is proving of great benefit to the employees.

The strike on the Delaware & Hudson Railroad, which occurred a few days ago, and which was participated in by the five railroad organizations on that line, the B. L. E., O. R. C., B. R. T., B. L. F. & E., and O. R. T., resulted in a complete victory for the men after a few hours' struggle. After the settlement was reached, all men returned to their positions, including the two former employees whose discharge and refusal on the part of the company to reinstate them was the cause of the strike.

The body of a man was recently found in the Crazy Cat Mountains, near El Paso, Tex., and it is thought to be that of F. S. Armagost. The body was turned over to the authorities at El Paso, who are endeavoring to locate relatives of the deceased. Anyone knowing of the whereabouts of any of the relatives of F. S. Armagost are requested to promptly advise the Grand Secretary and Treasurer.

The State Industrial Commission of Ohio gave an illustration of the benefits of the Workmen's Compensation Law of that State by making the first payment to the widow and six small children of Alvah Hall five days after he was burned to death in the power house of a traction company in Springfield, Ohio. In the five days the commission secured all proofs necessary from the widow, attending physician and others. The family will receive $12.00 weekly until the maximum, $3,744.00, is paid.

The State Supreme Court of Indiana has held the Chicago & Erie Railroad liable for damages in the case of a workman who was injured while executing a special order to move a car by placing his shoulder against it and his feet against an adjoining car on the same track. The cars were bumped and the workman was injured. The company contended the employe was guilty of negligence, but the court held that it was the duty of the foreman to protect the worker while he was obeying orders.

The long-drawn-out arbitration proceedings between the Boston Street Car Men's Union and the Street Car Company has finally been ended, the decision being a victory for the workers. The number of men involved is 9,474, and the arbitrators awarded them an increase in pay. Prior to the decision of the Arbitration Board, an employe did not receive the maximum wage until he had been in the employ of the company sixteen years. Under the award, an employe receives a maximum wage after six years of service. The maximum pay was also raised from 28.9 cents an hour to 32 cents an hour, effective May 1st next. The company claims the award means an increase in wages of $500,000 a year.

The following request was published in the September, 1913, issue of this journal: "F. E. Pomeroy, Cert. 77, in Div. 38, whose address is Box 206, Chester, Pa., requests all members to forward him the trade-marks of the Central Union Smoking Tobacco, which trade-marks must bear the union printers' label." Pomeroy is badly in need of an artificial leg, which will be given him for 20,000 of these trade-marks, and which he is otherwise unable to secure. Advice is just received from him stating that he is still 1,000 labels short, and he earnestly requests all members who purchase this tobacco to send him the labels.

The Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railway, commonly known as the "Katy," is again a scheduled line, and before this journal reaches its readers, "M., K. & T. Railway System Division No. 22," will have been re-established with a larger membership than when it went out of existence, as a result of the 1904 strike on that line. The new schedule was signed on January 14th, and is a good one, comparing favorably with any of the other schedules in that territory. A photograph of the O. R. T. General Committee that secured this schedule appears in this issue of The Telegrapher.

The statement issued by the Bureau of Immigration for the month of September, 1913, shows that there were 209,076 aliens landed at the various ports of entry during the month; that there were 2,337 debarred from entrance, classified as follows: Idiots, 110; insane and epileptic, 24; tuberculosis, 1; loathsome or dangerous contagious diseases, 356; likely to become public charges, 1,024; mentally or physically defective, 407; contract laborers, 137; accompanying aliens, 49; under sixteen years of age and accompanied by parent, 71; assisted aliens, 7; criminals, 52; prostitutes and procurers, 61; without passport, 10; under provisions of Chinese exclusion act, 28. The report also shows that there were 399 returned after landing.

The banquet tendered President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, on the occasion of his sixty-fourth birthday, by the Washington Central Labor Union, was a great success and was attended by over three hundred prominent labor leaders and their friends. Addresses were made by Secretary of Navy Daniels, Secretary of Labor Wilson, Senators Sheppard and Martine, the various union Congressmen and many others. One of the most conspicuous guests at the banquet was Tony Costello, who walked from Galveston, Tex., to Washington, a distance of 2,300 miles, with birthday greetings to President Gompers from the trade unionists of Galveston.

In a letter addressed to all organized labor, President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, calls attention to several important questions considered by the Seattle convention of that federation. By a unanimous vote, the convention decided that the efforts of trade unionists and their friends should be concentrated to secure the enactment at this session of Congress of the Bartlett-Bacon bill. President Gompers shows that the adoption of this bill into a law "will restore to the organized workers the legal rights to which they were entitled before the federal courts interpreted the Sherman anti-trust law to apply to the voluntary associations of the workers." The bill also intends to "eradicate the abuse and limit and regulate the issuance of injunctions." Every member is requested to give his hearty support to the Bartlett-Bacon bill and urge their Congressmen and Senators to support this measure.

The Birmingham Ledger, in its January 27th issue, publishes the following item under a Memphis, Tenn., date:

F. A. Butterfield, alias M. J. Burton, alias W. A. Fox, alias H. L. Burr, alias W. R. Montgomery, who the police say is employed by the Western Union Telegraph Company as an informer relating to commercial telegraphers union affairs, was arrested here this morning on information from Chicago that he is wanted there for theft of $100 from S. J. Konenkamp, President of the Commercial Telegraphers' Union. He denies the charge. According to information in the hands of the police, they believe Butterfield is one of the men who rifled Konenkamp's baggage at Seattle, Wash., in 1911, taking valuable and private papers bearing on the Commercial Telegraphers' Union.

In the last two or three issues of The Telegrapher, members have been urged to write their Congressmen and Senators, requesting them to support the Bartlett-Bacon anti-injunction bills, and with a view to acquainting all members with the attitude of the various Congressmen and Senators on this important measure, all members are requested to promptly inform the Grand Secretary and Treasurer of the substance of replies received in answer to their request to support this bill, which information will be published in these columns for the information of all concerned. Congressman B. I. Taylor, of New York, has promised to support the bill. Congressman J. D: Post, of Ohio, in reply to a communication on the subject, says: "I can not conscientiously support the Bartlett-Bacon bill, but will support the Burnett Immigration bill."

In remitting his dues and assessments for the whole of the year 1914, R. C. Hill, of Salt Lake City, Utah, Certificate 51, in the Grand Division, writes a very interesting letter, which should be of particular interest to the younger members who have not been compelled to make the sacrifices that were made by the oldtimers, in order that the Order of Railroad Telegraphers might exist and overcome the many obstacles with which it was confronted in its early existence and reach its present high position in the labor world. The following is quoted from his letter: "Perhaps you know I have been a member of the Order for nearly a quarter of a century, and while I have not followed telegraphy for nearly twenty years, I am deeply interested in the great good the Order has accomplished. I never could quite understand how any telegrapher, especially those who are now enjoying the many benefits for which the Order is responsible, could refuse to become a member. When I joined the Order it had to be done on the quiet. We were in constant fear that the superintendent would learn of it and discharge us. I have not the slightest intention of ever again being engaged as a telegrapher, and I assure you that I have never thought of lapsing my membership in the O. R. T."

YOUR DUTY.

By Mrs. E. L. Mathis, President.

When your husband joined the Order he did so for you as well as for himself. He hoped by this to secure you and those dependent upon him a better living; he wanted to be able to better fulfill his duties to his family.

He joined hands with his fellow workers because he saw that whatever his trouble might be, it is at one time or another felt by the other workers; in a word, he knew his interests were common with theirs.

Experience taught them that their strength lay in union. They realized that a union of all those that worked at the trade and suffered from oppression would in time help to end low wages and long hours. They had to unite, for it was the only means of protecting themselves against the bosses whose opposition to the working man was growing day by day.

The only hope for the wage earner lies in his organization, for by its means he can force the profit-maker to be satisfied with reasonable returns and curb the promptings of avarice.

Why have the wages of the telegraphers been steadily and constantly on the increase for the past twelve or fifteen years? It is the result of the efforts of their organization.

I can enumerate many places of which I have personal knowledge where there is a vast difference in the working conditions now as compared with some ten or fifteen years back. One in particular, at one place where my husband worked for years as agent, the salary was only $50 per month, and oftentimes he had to work from twelve to eighteen hours each day without extra compensation. Today this same little office, without very much increase in labor, pays a salary of $72.50 per month and 30 cents per hour overtime for all time worked outside of regular hours, all of which was brought about by the splendid and thorough organization of System Division No. 93. I could mention dozens of other places which are similar to this, but deem it unnecessary.

Now my dear sister, does this not appeal to you? If your husband has done so much for you, will you not try to do a little for him? The Ladies' Auxiliary was organized to hold up his hands and give encouragement to him in his trials and troubles. Will you not help him this much by joining the Ladies' Auxiliary? We have a little band of noble women who are trying to do all they can to encourage their men folks to better deeds and nobler work for the home and family.

I take this means of thanking Bro. Quick for his article in the last journal, and want to assure him that he will always be welcome, and that he will not have to dodge any flatirons, rolling-pins or dish pans, but on the other hand we welcome him at any and all times to our columns, and as this is the first recognition that we have ever had from any O. R. T. official, we feel highly elated, and only hope that he will give us an article each month. Indeed, we feel highly encouraged. I wish to call the attention of all interested to his article, as it is very important and of vital interest to you.

Come again, Bro. Quick.

Fraternally,

Mrs. E. L. Mathis.
Notes from the Grand Secretary and Treasurer.

I hope that every member of the Ladies' Auxiliary and non-member will read with care and serious thought the article in the January issue of the Ladies' Auxiliary Department, written by our worthy friend, Bro. L. W. Quick.

The obstacles he has encountered are such that every O. R. T. man should take heed, so that such neglect of their duty shall not be continued to the sorrow of their families.

Believing that the importance of some insurance within the reach of our means will be the same help to the husbands of our members, and that with the better understanding of the necessity to meet trouble by having some money to help out in times of distress, was the main reason the Ladies' Auxiliary felt that the Mutual Benefit Department in the Ladies' Auxiliary was as much needed as it was in the O. R. T.

We realize that many women do not believe in insurance, and look at it that the money put into it is thrown away and will be of no benefit to them. But with the better understanding of this question, which is considered by the world in general as most important, we believe that the Mutual Benefit Department of the Ladies' Auxiliary will help the O. R. T. and also make them more careful of the interests of their families, and if it is neglected by the husband, the wife will see that his certificate is made out for the benefit of herself and family. Our Mutual Benefit Department is now in full swing, and members are coming into it from all parts of the country, showing that we have met with the approval of our O. R. T. brothers, also stating that they wish to congratulate us upon establishing this department which makes it possible with the small rates for them to carry insurance both in the O. R. T. and Ladies' Auxiliary.

The Auxiliary felt sure that with the small fees it will be possible for every O. R. T. brother to take out insurance for his wife, which will be a help to him if necessary.

Rates are as follows:

Series "A," limited to $150 (18 to 50 years), 80 cents each six months.

Series "B," limited to $300 (18 to 40 years), $1.60 each six months.

Initiation fee in Series "A" and "B" is fifty cents (50 cents) until further notice.

Both fees must accompany application. If not accepted, fees will be returned to applicant. This to save time.

Applications for membership, both in Ladies' Auxiliary and Mutual Benefit Department, can be obtained from all Grand Officers, local officers, from their address in the Ladies' Auxiliary Directory, or from the Grand Secretary and Treasurer direct, by writing even a postal card to her address, 2021 Longwood St., Walbrook, Baltimore, Md.

Many have written that they are working for the prizes, and also the locals are offering a prize to the member getting the most new members.

Members securing five new members will be given one of the new Ladies' Auxiliary official emblem pins.

Members securing ten new members will be given a solid silver spoon with letters L. A. O. R. T. engraved upon the handle.

Members securing fifty new members will be given six of the silver spoons.

Members securing sixty new members will be given a watch, guaranteed, with monogram engraved upon the back.

This contest is open to all, and as the conditions surrounding our work are different to the O. R. T., we wish to allow every O. R. T. member to help his wife to secure a prize.

Send application to me direct, giving your name, division; or to your local officer, and you will be given credit for the same.

One of our faithful members, Sister W. J. McCarthy, of Portville, N. Y., wrote me, when paying dues for last term during the summer, that her husband had been struck with lightning while on duty, and was so very ill that she was afraid that he would not recover from the shock.

I am in receipt of another letter from Sister McCarthy, when paying dues again for this term, stating that her beloved husband passed to the great beyond on November... ber 6th, just at the hour when he was accustomed to leave for his work. Everything was done to save his life, but it was no use. This sister says that he had insurance in the O. R. T., and as soon as she can get her affairs in shape she expects to take out insurance in the Ladies' Auxiliary Mutual Benefit Department, and that she hopes to always be a member of our beloved Auxiliary.

I can not help being deeply touched at the loyalty of this sister to the Auxiliary in her great sorrow, and that through it all she did not forget her duty and obligations to the Ladies' Auxiliary.

What Sister McCarthy can do, others with no trouble can do.

She has our heartfelt sympathy in this her hour of sorrow.

For the benefit of any who might wish to know about the security of the money in the Ladies' Auxiliary and Mutual Benefit Department treasury, I wish it to be known that the Grand Secretary and Treasurer carries a bond that much more than covers the money on deposit to the credit of the Auxiliary. This bond is given by one of the most reliable bonding companies in the country.

It again becomes my pleasure to announce to the membership that we now have another new local, No. 26, of Division 146, and the charter has been sent, and money for it was donated by the division, and in sending it Bro. Pye wrote that they are very proud to have a local upon their division and that the brothers are planning to hold an all-day meeting in the near future at Manchester, Ga., to which all O. R. T. brothers will bring their wives, and they plan to show the sisters a royal time, and that all hands will get acquainted and the sisters can decide what to do at the meetings and make other arrangements for pleasant times together.

I would be delighted to receive a request for a charter every month of the new year, and hope other divisions that are contemplating having a local will hurry in the money, and we will guarantee to furnish the members for the charter.

Many other remarks could be made of the work we are doing, but the space will not allow it. But I wish to thank the members for their promptness in paying dues, and hope the others who have not as yet done so will send it along.

Remember that the invitation is always open to all delinquent members to come back as new members, by filling out another blank, and I hope that when doing so they will not forget to send the Mutual Benefit Department blank.

Yours fraternaly,

MRS. FLORENCE P. PIERCE,
Grand Secretary and Treasurer, 2021 Longwood St., Walbrook, Baltimore, Md.

Long Island Rly., Local No. 16.

The miscellaneous shower given by Sister Mary Webb in honor of Sister Edith Burke, on January 15th, was a great surprise to Sister Burke, who was the recipient of beautiful and useful presents. Sister Burke was so overcome with joy at her reception on this occasion that she did not know whether to laugh or cry.

The third annual theater party, held at the Court Theater, 48th St. and Broadway, New York, January 21st, was well attended by our members, who thoroughly enjoyed Miss Laurette Taylor's presentation of Peg O' My Heart.

Members of Local No. 16 extend sincere sympathy and condolence to Sister Miss D. H. Powers, in the sad loss of her sister. We also extend sympathy to Sister Mrs. A. Doxey, whose sister died recently.

Sister Mrs. Hellar, who has been on the sick list for several weeks, we are glad to note is gaining slowly.

There is an old saying: Happy, indeed, is the bride that the sun shines on, and the sun never shone brighter nor upon a fairer bride than it did on January 28th, when Sister Edith Burke, of Local No. 16, Ladies' Auxiliary, left St Mary's Church, Jamaica, L. I., the bride of Bro. Thomas F. Gafney, of Division No. 44, O. R. T.

The ceremony was performed with a nuptial mass. The church being comfortably filled with many relatives and friends of the bride and groom.
The bride, who is the daughter of our worthy Second Grand Vice-President Sister Mrs. Geo. W. Hilley, was handsomely gowned in white brocade satin, wore a bridal veil and carried a white prayer book.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride’s parents, and the happy couple left for an extended wedding trip through the South, ’mid showers of rice and the best wishes of a host of friends.

In union there is strength, and this is a happy union where the parties are real unionists, both the bride and groom having long been earnest workers for the cause.

Sincere congratulations and best wishes, and may good fortune always attend them.

Mrs. J. E. Shields,
Sec. and Treas.

B. & O. Ry., Local No. 10.

I have wondered for quite a while why we do not have any news in the journal from the members of our local. Although I do not like to make the start, I will do so, that we may make a beginning.

Have received a good many pretty articles for our fair, from the different sisters of our division, and a great many more are promised.

Have gotten lovely squares for our O. R. T. quilt from Sister Lannan, of Webster, W. Va.; Sister Ferrell, of Silver Run, and Sister Thompson, of Fostoria, Ohio.

Our quilt and fair will be a complete success, and hope to hear from every member of our local that she will send something pretty for the fair and a square for the quilt.

We want all the ladies of our division to take more interest in our local and make it one of the strongest and most flourishing.

You can be supplied with application blanks for the Ladies’ Auxiliary and Mutual Benefit Department from our General Chairman Sister J. H. Bell, New Concord, Ohio, our Local Secretary and members or myself, upon request.

If the members will send any news items they have, so our local can have a regular write-up every month in the journal, you can send them to Sister Pierce, or myself, and we will see that they appear in the journal.

Sister Mary Eiler, wife of Bro. Eiler, member of the General Committee, and daughter Marie, were in Baltimore, on a visit for a few days, and enjoyed their stay very much. These sisters are staunch members of our local.

Sister L. Gertrude Allender, wife of Bro. Allender, member of General Committee, was in Baltimore for a few days and while there joined our local and took out certificate in the Mutual Benefit Department.

Mrs. O. L. Baker,
Local Chairman, Monongah Division, Petroleum, W. Va.

It is with great pleasure that I announce that I am today sending our application for charter to the Grand Secretary and Treasurer, and that when this reaches you we will have a duly organized local on our road.

This local is intended for all of you. Personal invitations have been sent such of you as we have been able to secure the names of, but there are quite a number we have not been able to reach this way. To such we extend a cordial invitation through these columns, and application blanks can be secured either from Sister C. A. Pye, Oglethorpe, Ga., or myself. We hope that personal solicitation of your membership will not be necessary, and we assure you that our local will try to make it eminently worth your while to be of us.

Election of officers will be held as early as possible after the receipt of the charter. In the meanwhile Mrs. C. A. Pye, P. O. Box 182, Oglethorpe, Ga., will act as general secretary and treasurer, and all applications for membership should be sent direct to her. The rate for March is ninety cents.

Bros. O. D. Gorman and C. A. Pyé have rendered valuable assistance in organizing this local, and the charter membership desires to thank them for their interest and work. Thanks are also extended for the financial aid that Div. 146 has given us in contributing our charter fee.
With the nice start we have, and the encouragement the O. R. T. brothers are giving us, we should soon have a splendid local, and I hope you will let Sister Pye have your application at once.

DITA MAY WEST.

Mo. Pac. Ry., Local No. 8.

I wonder how many of us resolved as the new year came in to put forth every effort to work for the Ladies' Auxiliary? Five new members were initiated in October. Let us see how much we can beat it in March. We ought to exceed that many times if we all interest ourselves in the work as we should. Let us make use of every available opportunity and not only get new members, but keep the old ones in line. There will be premiums given for the one getting the most members; just what they will be has not been announced, but they will no doubt be worthy of our best efforts.

We have some very ardent workers in this local. Let each one use her talents to the best advantage and see if we can not make No. 8 a banner local both in members and standing. Bro. Mohler has given us valuable assistance by sending a circular letter to all the O. R. T. members, for which we are very thankful. If these members in turn will get us one member it will give us a lift we will long remember. Let us also work for the M. B. D., as it is a department worthy of liberal patronage and should win for us many members. We can fill the void the O. R. T. has left by bringing the families in touch with each other, and only then will we realize what a great thing it is to unite the families in a work that is doing more than anything else for the uplift of the wage earner. No force in our national life of recent years has done so much to secure respectable remuneration for the services performed and to give the wage earner a higher ideal of life, than the labor unions. I am sure that the wives, mothers and sisters and daughters are interested in seeing this work continue. You can be of untold support by assisting in a thorough organization of the Auxiliary.

We want a local chairman on each division of the system. We have several now but should have more. The cost of initiation and the dues are so low that they are not at all burdensome.

Any of the officers of the Ladies' Auxiliary will be glad to answer any questions and send application blanks.

MRS. F. O. MOTT,
General Chairman.
NOTICE.

There will be published in this department the names of firms in the United States and Canada who handle union label goods.

LINCOLN, THE MYSTIC.

“My sword shall be dipped in heaven.”
—Isaiah 34:5.

After the death of St. Francis it was the custom of his followers, when writing to one another, to close their letters with the words, “Yours in the holy memory.” So ought we to speak softly when we recall the life of Lincoln, whose name is “a mystic cord of memory” uniting a nation once divided and estranged into a great and noble republic.

Often it is said, by those who would flatter the crowd, that the mass of humanity, of their own foresight and initiation, set out on enterprises of progress. But that is not true. If history makes anything plain it is that such movements are due, not to the efforts of a nation as a whole, but to the genius of a few men who, from time to time, rise above the mass, and focus in their prophetic souls the light of things to come. They are seers, prophets, heretics who care little and think less of their own fame than of the truth which they see afar off, and while they are indebted to the age for the conditions of growth, they are not made by it. They divine the curve of destiny, incarnating the word of the Spirit of the Time, and give it voice.

Of such was Lincoln—a simple, wise, far-seeing man who belongs of right with the prophets of righteousness and the doers of the will of God on earth. Lowly-born, uncultured, he towered above his fellows, and the future cast over him its light and its pall. Once again, in the thin worn frame of a country lawyer, the mighty, tender, heroic spirit of this land took shape and spoke to the souls of men. Never in our history have the qualities of seer, orator, and leader met in any person as they did in that strange, sad, gentle man, whose life reads like a legend, and whose spirit is more alive today than when he lived among us. There was a mystery in Lincoln. Men felt it, followed it, loved it, though not understanding what it was that stirred them so deeply, and they feel it to this day though time has dimmed much else.

It is of that mystery that we are to study today, and methinks the secret of it lay in the soul of the mystic that was in him, giving light to his intellects, wings to his words, and a nameless grace to his homely face and awkward frame. After much study of him it seems to me that the thread on which his days were strung was something almost too fine for words—a vein of mysticism the slow emergency of which gave unity, spirituality, and beauty to his life. He was born a little way over on the shadowy side of life, where the veil between the seen and the unseen is thin, and where a window opens out into the darkness. He felt, always, a sense of something weird around him in the unseen forces, something unaccountable and dim about which he could not reason. In other ages, a man so endowed and so moved might have been the founder and leader of a movement of religious faith.

Not unnaturally this tendency took a form akin to superstition in his early years. It is apt to do so before a man knows what it is. Dreams, omens and premonitions were frequent with Lincoln, and while he himself set little store by them they influenced him deeply none the less. We might cast them aside, as he was wont to do, had not so many of his dreams come true, and so much of his mysticism turned out to be the shadow of fact. His fine logic and his rich humor saved him from eccentric acts and states of mind, but as life and sorrow refined him this seer-like fineness of soul more and more ruled him, softening all that was hard and giving to his spirit a haunting charm. This it was that made his friendship like a religious experience to the young men who knew and loved him in those early days. Today, when they speak of him, a light comes into their eyes, and we realize what a profound reverence really is.

As early as 1843 Lincoln felt that some dark, tragic end awaited him. More than once he said to his partner: "Billy, I feel as if I shall meet with some terrible end," and he spoke as one awe-struck and haunted by powers he could neither divine nor resist. He did not know what would strike him, nor when, nor where, nor how, but he felt that he was marked for woe. With this dread came a feeling that, somehow, he, an obscure lawyer, was to have a part in putting an end to the overshadowing evil of slavery. To that end he began to train his mind, his use of words, his art of eloquence, the better to be ready when the call came for him to speak or act. He studied the slavery issue in all its aspects, from end to end and all through, seeking how to do a righteous act lawfully and righteously. He read the writings of the fathers of the Republic until their words seemed to rise up and march, like soldiers at the call of the bugle. He saw the problem steadily and saw it whole, and when the hour came the man was ready to meet it with a clear head and a heart of fire.

Now the work of Lincoln was threefold, and he seemed specially fitted for each phase of it. He had, in the first place, to see through the slavery tangle and find a way out. Here it was that his gift of seer-like vision came to his aid, and made an unknown lawyer a statesman of rarest insight into national affairs. Looking back, all seems clear enough to us, but nothing was clear then, save that a crisis impended. Of course, then, as now, there were fiery radicals who were sure that they saw the path to the right. They saw the evil, but they did not see how to deal with it without doing more evil than good. Not so Lincoln, who saw the whole scene, on all sides, in the large and in detail, with a calm and level gaze. He saw it was an evil of long standing, disinfected by custom, entrenched in the law, and that radical policy meant ruin. His dilemma has been stated thus:

"Oath-bound to a narrow Constitution; conscience-bound to a broad humanity. Pledged to slavery; plighted to liberty. Sworn to defend and preserve a Constitution and an institution to one of which he was resolved to do violence, to the other—destruction. Meekly holding out hands for statutory and constitutional fetters which, in the holy of holies of his soul, he had covenanted with his Maker to rend and destroy. Pleading gentleness; planning war. Avowing boundless love for the South, his ancestral mother, yet soon to inflict a blow unparalleled in the annals of time—a Quaker destined to make the career of Attila seem like a dream of sugar-coated sonnets and moonlight madrigals. Brave, but—with a touch of superstition that sometimes made him tremble. Desiring long life and a tranquil exit from the world, yet with the prescience given to rapt souls, foreseeing vilification, illimitable hatred, and a tragic death. And from all this from the first he realized there was no escape."

This, nobly said, is the exact fact as to the perplexity of Lincoln and his feeling with regard to it. At root, he was a moral prophet, and the issue before him was essentially a moral issue. For all his radical sympathies, he had a conservative intellect which made him pick his way slowly, carefully, "with malice toward none and charity toward all," eager, above all things, to know the will of God and alert for tokens of what that holy will should be. He knew that slavery was wrong, but he knew he had no right to do wrong in order to get rid of it. While he would not compromise the right, he was willing to wait until the right was ready, doubting until he knew the time had come and then acting as if he had never doubted at all. In this spirit he worked out his problem and found the truth which time has tried and sealed.

In the second place, he not only had to see a way out, but he had to convince the people that it was the right and practical way. This required that he be a master of the high art of lucid and persuasive speech.
No one now denies that Lincoln was a great orator, but his eloquence was as unique as it was compelling. No one need be told that he spoke with the ultimate grace of simplicity, with a familiar greatness of thought, and an austere economy of words.
He made abstract truths concrete, domesticated lofty principles in prosaic minds, and tore sophistries to shreds. But he did more. He charged his audiences with the electricity of his moral passion, and made men see his visions and dream his dreams.
He was genetic, constructive, daring. He had a vitalizing personality dangerous to know if a man did not want to adopt his truths and keep pace with his spiritual processes. He spoke not simply as an orator, but as a seer in whose tones, sometimes sharp and often melting, men heard their own souls speak in accents of entreaty or rebuke. It was so at Ottawa when, after exposing the quibbles of Douglas, he stood as one transfigured, his high shrill voice becoming strangely sweet and sad, his face aglow, his frame swaying with passion, he cried:

“When he invites any people, willing to have slavery, to establish it, he is blowing out the moral lights around us. When he says he cares not whether slavery is voted up or down, he is penetrating the human soul, and eradicating the light of reason and love of liberty in this American people!”

So, too, at Gettysburg when, after the studied oration of Everett, the President read a few lines from a sheet of paper.
He gathered into a few short, simple sentences the faith, the philosophy, the history, the prophecy and dream of this Republic, his homely face and figure embodying the very genius of our nation. That address has no parallel in all history, unless it be the funeral oration of Pericles on the dead at Marathon, in which he summed up Athens at its brilliant best, before it became corrupt, and set forth a conception of citizenship democratic, sane, strong-souled, more eager for duties than for rights. And as the words of Pericles have lived for more than twenty centuries, so the simple words of the great and simple Lincoln will live until men forget history and lose the love of liberty and truth. There spoke the mystic, the seer, the prophet, whose words walk up and down in the hearts of men to this day.

In the third place, Lincoln had not only to show men that his way was right, but he had actually to lead them in working it out. Such a task asked for a born leader and master of men, tactful and wise, skillful and firm, just and kind. Here, too, he measured up to the hour. Nothing shows his genius as a master of men more clearly than the success with which he made men of most diverse temper and ability tributary to his ends. He could tell a man he was a donkey, or ignore him altogether.
and do it with such art that the man felt honored, while with men of influence and power he often came off victorious by what seemed to be a graceful surrender. As in oratory his seer-like soil tipped his logic with points of flame, so, in affairs of war and politics, it gave him an insight into men and things at times almost uncanny.
It was not easy to tell him a lie. He knew men, and they felt in him a dignity and nobility of soul, an exalted honor, and withal a charm not to be defined.

Seward was a strong and able man, and he knew it. Sumner was autocratic and sensitive. Stanton was proud, petulant, hasty, but a man of great ability, fierce in the intensity with which he pursued his duties. Yet for four years Lincoln ruled these men, often when they thought they were ruling him, utilizing their rare powers the while in behalf of the common good.
Surely this was a rare feat in leadership.
Not more so, though, than his mastery of the intricacies of politics, as witness his handling of the Vallandingham affair. In the art of war, too, he became an adept, often making trained strategists marvel at his insight, until Dana declared him the greatest general of them all. Whether in oratory, politics or war, it was the vision of the seer that made him great—the same power which in eloquence throws over the awful tides of human circumstance the white light of the moral ideal, and which in religion makes the martyr and the saint.
He was of that company of fine spirits who have ears to hear, and to whom the unseen world is never far away.

Toward the end his dreams came to have a place in his life not unlike that of the mysterious Daemon in the life of Socrates. In times of danger and before a great battle, he was warned. One dream—that of a ship in distress, and when the ship was seen moving calmly to the haven he knew it for an omen of good. Shortly before his death he saw himself stretched upon his bier, and heard the sobs of the mourners as they passed by. It was a strange power, with which was joined in him the humanistic temper which made him an heir of the woes of humanity. Nothing more beautiful than the sympathy of Lincoln has ever been seen in this land. The pathos of life cast a shadow over his great, sensitive, pitying soul, and made him a brother to the lowly, the down-trodden, the helpless. His life, like the life of his Master, was founded upon love and justice—the justice that is born of love. That love made him suffer, as it always does, and it was therefore that he was a man of sorrows. He fulfilled the great words of Shakespeare:

"Conscience is born of Love."

The spirit of Lincoln! If by some art we could send it into all the dark corners of the world, what a changed place this earth would be! It would make men unhappy—so unhappy that they could not rest while little children wear their lives out in factories, or die in the dirt of the city slum; while girls fade in filthy sweatshops, or fall into the abyss of vice; while men toil all their days, never out of sight of the yawning pit of pauperism—turned out at last, when bent and spent, all broken in mind and heart to totter into the wastebasket of humanity. The spirit of Lincoln! It will never let us rest until every man, woman and child has liberty and fair play—room to stretch their arms and their soul; the right to live and the right to work; the right to be happy and to look up at the stars!

What a life to read, and what a name to honor and remember! What noble integrity, what high courage, what delicate justice and melting pity! What loyalty to the ideal, what common sense touched by poetry, what heights of vision and valleys of melancholy, what tear-frightened humor! It is a story to exalt and ennoble our faith and purify our dreams. Let us here "highly resolve" to follow no leader who, in private life and public duty, does not practice a like moderation, justice, firmness, and gentleness of spirit. By as much as we are true to the spirit of Lincoln and grow up to him, by so much do we become truly great—worthy of our history and the heroism of the days agone.

If ever again an evil hour strikes in this land, may a good God send us another simple, noble, seer-like statesman, with insight to see the right, a golden voice to speak it, and a mighty arm to do it. Such a man will bring us back from our selfishness and folly to the faith and spirit of our fathers—back to Lincoln, with his simple, old, eternal truths of honesty, justice and love. Once more his words will flash like fire, and his spirit will stir the souls of men, as of old, with love of liberty and home and native land. Long live the spirit of Lincoln—mystic, prophet, and, more than all, a man who loved his fellow man.—By Joseph Fort Newton in The Railway Conductor.

LOAN SHARKS—JOHN'S STORY.

A FEW years ago John, his wife Mary, and little son Jack, lived in a small flat—a very happy family. For some years John had worked in the railroad shop, starting there as an apprentice, had served his time, and was then getting about $75 per month. The shop paid off the men twice a month, pay day coming on the 1st and 15th.

John and Mary were buying a home on monthly payments, and whenever they could save a little more they put it in the bank for Jack's education, or for use on a "rainy day."

Bad luck brought that "rainy day" before they looked for it.

One afternoon soon after Christmas, the foreman called John from his machine and said: "Your wife has just 'phoned that little Jack got hurt coasting on his new sled." Not stopping to telephone, John hurried home, knowing no small trouble would cause Mary to send for him.

He found the boy very still and pale, and Mary brokenhearted. After two weeks of misery the little sufferer was carried to the cemetery. Meanwhile the doctor, nurse, druggist, and others had taken all of John's savings and left him in debt. For Mary's sake there had been a decent funeral and money was needed at once for funeral expenses that could not wait. John and Mary had no friends to whom they could look for help. They had often read loan-office notices in their evening paper, and once Mary had said: "How benevolent those people must be to help the poor in their hour of need." Once, before they had begun to save money they wanted more things than they could pay for. John said it might be all right to borrow a small sum from a loan office, but Mary with sensible thrift had begged him not to do it. They both understood the rules of the shops, that if an employee had his wages garnished he would be subject to dismissal. But this was another case. Mary must not be troubled about money matters now.

Looking over loan-office notices again he was pleased with this one:

"SALARIED PEOPLE.

"Would you like to get a friendly loan of Five to One Hundred Dollars on your personal note, without indorsement or other security, at the cheapest rates, with best and most private terms in the city? The Friendly Loan Company will give it to you in a few hours after you ask for it. You can pay it in small weekly, bi-weekly or monthly payments, and get a discount if you pay before time. Good Treatment Guaranteed."

This looked fair enough to John; besides, the undertaker was asking for payment, and several other bills were past due.

When John went into the office of the Loan Company at noon next day, the young woman at the window smiled in a friendly manner, so that John found it easier than he thought to hand her the notice he had cut from the newspaper, and to say: "I came to see about that." She invited him into the cheerful private office to take a seat at a small desk, she sitting on the other side. "How much money do you need?" she asked cheerfully.

"I'd like to get the limit," said John, frankly, thinking of $100.

"Well that depends upon the statement you make, you being a stranger to us," she answered smiling. "We have a printed set of questions to be filled out. If you will answer them I will write down your answers, and then we can tell how much money we can let you have."

So in a little while she drew from John his story, and had written down what he said of his needs and his wages; how and when they were paid; what payments he wished to make; and, of course, his name and address, and that of the shops in which he worked. She also asked where he had worked before, and what his reason was for leaving that job. She further asked the maiden name of his wife, and the names and addresses of their parents, brothers and sisters; and of three friends or acquaintances in that city; what real and personal property he had; what he owed, and to whom?

This statement he signed. Then she said: "We can let you have $75, anyhow. I will ask my brother if he is as willing as I am to give you the other $25. Come back before six o'clock today and get your money."

"When it is so easy to get money," said John to himself on his way back to the shops, "it is a pity that any one should be in want."

But he did not know how much time was spent that afternoon by an agent of the Friendly Loan Company investigating the truth of this story.

When he went back to the loan office at 5:30, the young lady was not in sight. At her desk sat a pale, dyspeptic-looking young man, with thin lips, large chin, Roman nose and keen, cold gray eyes. He called John by name and invited him to take a seat on the other side of the desk. Taking from a drawer a package of bills he slowly counted out $100 and laid the money before John. "My sister said you asked for the limit. As a rule we do not care to loan so much to any one getting only $75 a month, but as you have household furniture we will let you have $25 on that, so you will get $100 after all. My sister left these papers for you to sign. She could not wait.

Then he showed John where to sign: First on nine notes of $12.50 each, the first payable on the 1st of February, and the others on the same day of the months of March, April, May, June, July, August, September and October. Then he signed a mortgage on his household furniture only, as he thought, and signed the four notes secured by that mortgage for $8.50 each, payable monthly on the 15th of each month—all the papers being dated January 20th.

"You will notice," said the loan agent, "that my sister made them out that way, for your rent and other bills become due on the 1st of the month, so the 15th will make it easier for you."

John really had not thought of that at all, and he was duly gratified and signed all the papers without more than merely glancing at them. He was pleased, however, to see that in each note was printed in black type, "Payable with interest at the rate of 7% per annum after maturity."

That sounded good to John. He eagerly took the money and paid it out before he went home, and showed his gratified wife receipts for the mourning suit, bill for the balance due the undertaker, and for small payments on account of several other bills that could then easily wait till the next pay day.

After he had told her how nice they were to him at the Friendly Loan Company, Mary grew thoughtful and asked: "Did you get copies of the papers you signed, John?" No, he had not thought of that, but he knew just on what dates the thirteen notes were payable, and he could easily manage those small sums as they fell due on the days he got his pay envelope. "Besides," he added contentedly, "we have to pay only 7% interest after maturity, so if we have to get further time, it will not cost much."

"That looks good," said Mary. "Let us enter the amounts of those notes, and the dates when they fall due in our book so we will not overlook any of them and thus be sure to pay them on time."

This they did, and John was very much ashamed to find that he had agreed to repay $112.50 in monthly payments for the $75, and $34 in four monthly payments for the $25, or $146.50 in all for the loan of $100 for less than nine months.

"Forty-six dollars and a half!" exclaimed Mary. "Why, John, that is an awful amount of interest to pay on $100, is it not?"

"I did not know it was so much," said John. "It is bad business, mighty bad business, but what else could we do?"

"That is so, John. We just had to have the money and it's all right. I sha'n't need any new clothes for a long time."

"And I," said John, "will not get that bargain overcoat, and I have sworn off on tobacco. I did not spend much for it, but every little will count from now until we get this all paid off."

Furthermore, each of them thought but neither mentioned the fact, that two could live much cheaper than they three had been able to live. So they decided to honestly carry out the contract John had made, unjust as it seemed to them.

John had noticed that there was quite a little of fine print in each of the notes he had signed but he did not read it. Perhaps if he had he would have signed them anyhow, for had he hesitated he would have been told by the nice young lady's gentlemanly brother: "That is what they all sign—our regular form to protect ourselves against dishonest borrowers."

But the following shows the substance of that "regular form" which has been the ruin of so many, even among those much more business-wise than Honest John. It was copied with a few changes from the form of note used by the great "King of Loan Sharks." He began business in Chicago about ten years ago with only $10,000. Now he claims to have over $100,000 loaned out in Chicago alone, and he advertises that he "does business in eighty cities." That note is a masterpiece of legal wisdom, and yet there is a way to defeat it. There is some kind of remedy for almost every legal wrong founded on a moral wrong. The notes that John signed read about as follows:

"January .... 19...

.............after date, for value received, I promise to pay to the order of M y s e l f ................. Dollars at ................. within banking hours, with interest at 7 per cent per annum after maturity.

"This note is one of a series of ........ notes, of even date and amount herewith, payable, respectively on the .... day of each month for .... consecutive months. Default in the payment of this note, to render entire amount of notes, at option of legal holder, and without notice, at once due and payable.

"And I hereby appoint any attorney of any court of record in any state or territory in the United States, to appear for me in any court in term time or vacation, at any time hereafter, either before or after the maturity of this note, and waive issue and service of process and confess judgment against me for the amount of the above note and costs, including a sum equal to at least 25 per cent of the principal of this note or such other sum as the holder of said note shall agree to pay, as an attorney's fee, and to file a cognovit for that amount, and an agreement releasing all errors and waiving all appeals in said cause, and consent that execution may thereon issue immediately. It is agreed that no bill in equity shall be filed to interfere with the operation of said judgment or any execution issued thereon. It is agreed that no extension of the payment of the principal or interest of this note shall release me from the obligation of payment. This agreement shall be binding also on my executor or administrator and assigns.

John had noticed that the dates for payments were all right, but he did not notice that the place at which each note was dated was not the same for all the notes; and neither the place the same for payment of all the notes. That was something he failed to see in his hurry to get the money and get away to pay it out and then get home to tell Mary all about it and give her a grand surprise—which he did, in more ways than one.

Besides, the pleasant young lady had left the papers for him to sign, and, of course, they were all right. Neither had he noticed that the mortgage was also a power of attorney, and that it was a lien, not only on his furniture, as he supposed, but also authorized the holder of any one of the four notes it secured to do almost anything in John's name with any and all of his property, real or personal, without any legal exemption whatever. He would have been dazed if any one had told him all the things that mortgage authorized, especially what it said about Lot No. 7 in Block No. 5, of the Home Builders' Addition, on which he and Mary had hoped soon to commence building their home. Among other things that innocent-looking mortgage stated was, that, in case the personal property failed to make good the whole sum secured, with interest, costs and attorney fees that should become due, then said attorney might sell any other property, real or personal, which he owned, at public or private sale, without notice, at the option of the holder of said note, and without any right of redemption or any right of suit for a relief in law, equity, or otherwise.

If John had noticed these things and had refused to sign, the loan agent would have said: "Well, you expect to repay that money, do you not? Then if your house burns and the furniture is destroyed or anything else happens, you want us to have good security on that extra $25, do you not? Then what difference does it make? You have to pay the note anyhow, and when it is paid your mortgage is cancelled, and in the meantime we are secured. That is why we are willing to lend you the extra $25." So John doubtless would have signed the mortgage anyhow, for 'he needed that $25, and he had no doubt of his ability to pay the notes exactly as agreed.

The nice young lady had felt a real sympathy for John and his trouble at the time he told her his story. Perhaps that is why she was getting a good salary for acting well her part as "confidence winner." If she had been there to pay him the money, she would doubtless have wished to read the papers to him, or at least explain their meaning, so he could know how to do what he so blindly agreed to do. Perhaps that is why she was not allowed to close the loan.

When the 5:30 whistle blew on the 1st of February, the day John’s first note became due to the Friendly Loan Company, he hurriedly cleaned up, and before six o’clock was in their office with the $12.50. The kind young lady was there, but her smile was different when she said: “I am very sorry that I can not accept that money. Your note for $12.50 was protested for non-payment at three o’clock today, and is now in the hands of our attorney who will write you a letter tonight. I am quite disappointed in you. I thought you a man of your word. If you want to be treated well in this office you must do as you agreed. Why did you not pay that note before three o’clock today?”

“Before three o’clock?” exclaimed John. “I did not know that was necessary.”

“Did not know? Why didn’t you read the papers you signed? That note expressly states that it was to be paid on the 1st day of February, within banking hours, at this office, and every one is supposed to know that banks close at three o’clock.”

John simply stared at her in silence. “Well,” she continued, “there may be one way out of it. The protest fee is $1.50. The attorney fee is $5 and the smallest brokerage fee in this office for making such a settlement is $2, so in addition to the $12.50 you must pay $8.50 for your neglect and your unbusinesslike way of doing business. I hope that it will be a good lesson to you,” she added less sternly. “Perhaps the protest notices have not been mailed yet, nor the lawyer’s letter. I’ll go across the hall and see him.” She came back with the note and said it could all be settled. Too astounded for words, John counted out the extra $8.50—$21 in all, and silently handed it to the young lady, who tore his signature from the note, handed the signature to him and placed the note in a safe with the money.

John hated to tell Mary of his blunder, but he made it a rule to talk over everything with her, so when he handed her the balance of his half month pay check, or only $16.50 instead of the $25 she expected, he frankly told her how it happened.

The rent collector called that night and took $10, leaving only $6.50 with which to live on till the 15th of the month. It was well for them that they had good credit and that the $5 monthly payment on the lot fell due on the 15th instead of on the 1st. On the morning of the 15th John got his pay envelope and just after noon was at the loan office with the $8.50 due on the first mortgage note. Again the young lady looked at him with surprise and said: “Why did you come here at this late hour to pay that note? Did you not know that it was payable at Indianapolis?”

“No, I certainly did not,” said John with considerable heat. “Why should I think that note payable anywhere but here where I got the money?”

“For the very best of reasons,” said the young lady. “That note itself so states it. When we make two loans on the same day to the same person we usually assign the smaller loan to another company who shares the risk with us. Those four notes falling due on the 15th of the months of February, March, April and May, are all made payable at this address in Indianapolis,” and she gave him a card.

“But what am I to do? I can not get this money there before three o’clock.”

“The only thing I can suggest is that you leave the money with us to be telegraphed. That will cost you $2.50, and there will be $2 more for our brokerage fee. Shall I call a messenger and send it at once?”

John saw no other way out of it, and he paid her $8.50 on the note and $4.50 for the other items mentioned—in all $13, and was told to come again before six o’clock to see about it.

On his way to the shops he went by the office of the Home Builders’ Addition and paid $5 due on his lot. That left only $19.50 of his $37.50.

When he went back to the office of the Friendly Loan Company the young lady had gone, but her brother was there. That young man said: “Well, if you aren’t a 24-karat chump, I never saw one. You had better brace up, Mr. Mutt, or you will land in the poor house.” John bristled up and was about to give back the kind of answer that makes more trouble, but he felt that he deserved to be laughed at for his stupidity, so he said rather sheepishly: “Well, I guess you got me down right. What about my mortgage note? Did your sister telegraph the money in time?”

“She telegraphed at once. Here is the result.” And he handed John this telegram:

“Indianapolis, February 15th, 3:30 P. M.
Manager out when message arrived. Money paid after three. Protest, attorney fee, telegrams, seven-fifty. Must be paid today.”

“...............”

“Again your lack of attention costs you good money,” said the young man sternly. “You’d better come across with the $7.50, unless you want your employers notified tonight. It takes hard knocks to make you do business right.”

Too deeply disgusted to talk back, John paid him $7.50 and asked for a receipt. “That will not be necessary,” said the agent. “I’m doing this to accommodate you and save you from greater trouble. You can get your note day after tomorrow.”

One of the hardest things John ever did in his life was to give Mary his small balance of $12 and explain that he had paid nothing except the $5 on the building lot and the first mortgage note, with costs and expenses amounting to $20.50. Mary grew pale with fear, but she did not blame her downcast husband. “Never mind, John. It was because you are too honest and trusting to deal with such people. It seems very strange to me though. Why not see a lawyer about it?”

“It does not look right to me either. But if I see a lawyer it will be at least $5 more and we haven’t got the money.” Besides, the loan company would notify the railroad at once, and I sure would lose my job. We will just have to make the best of it and try once more.”

“But what about the coal bill, and the grocer’s bill, and the balance due on all the others?” said Mary, in despair.

“Well, they will just have to wait. We can’t pay if we haven’t got it,” answered John gloomily. So they had to let it go at that.

On the last day of March, John got hurt in the shops so he had to be taken home. The next day he was suffering so much that both he and Mary forgot all about the note till too late to pay it before three o’clock. Mary thought, of course, that when the Friendly Loan Company agent heard the facts he would excuse the delay. She went at once to the shops, got John’s pay check and was at the office of the Friendly Loan Company before four o’clock. She trustingly told the facts and laid the $12.50 on the desk. The young man was very sorry that the note had been protested and the usual fees of $6.50 were charged up against him. If they took the trouble to settle it for her and prevent that suit before evening they must have $2.50 instead of $2, because that was the second failure on these notes. He crossed the hall, but came back without the note, saying: “It has already been filed with the justice of the peace for suit and before it is withdrawn his costs of $4.50 must be paid anyhow, making $13.50 in addition to the $12.50—or $26 in all, which must be paid at once before those papers are served. It is well you came when you did. In fact, in an hour it would have been too late.”

Gasping with fear Mary counted out the $26. The agent went back and brought the note, tore off John’s signature, gave that to Mary and put the note in the safe with the money. As Mary was turning away, absolutely crushed and hopeless, the loan agent said: “If you have not got money enough left to get along with, perhaps we might let your husband take out a new loan for $30 and begin to do business right.” Mary heard, but was too stunned to reply. However, after her spell of hysterical grief she told John what the loan agent had said. They talked it over seriously and agreed that it was the only thing left to do. They paid the rent that night, $10, and had just $1.50 remaining from the half month’s wages, and some bills that could not be put off any longer.

In a couple of days John was able to go to the loan company and Mary went with him. The young lady treated them kindly and sympathized with them for their bad luck. They signed papers for a new loan of $30, again giving four monthly notes, each payable on the 15th. They carefully read each note before John signed it, seeing that it was payable on the 15th of the month, according to Mary’s wise forethought; because they already had all they could pay on the 1st, and they saw that each was payable “at the office of the Friendly Loan Company, or of its endorsee, if the payor should be so notified.” They did not quite catch the meaning of that last statement, but it proved a new and efficient cause of their ruin—for the endorsee and holder of these notes notified them from Chicago.

When the notes were signed, the loan agent handed out $20, saying: “We always charge at least $10 for making a new loan under such circumstances.”

This was unexpected, but, as usual, there was nothing else to do but do as the loan agent said. John and Mary now believed that they were in his power, and that belief made them cowards. The agent told them that if they made any more blunders about their payments, the penalty would be all the greater, and they had better keep awake. He flatly refused to give them copies of the notes. John had been granted a new loan of $30, but had received only $20, and yet had signed four notes for $10 each all payable within four months, on the 15th of the month which already carried a big burden. With that $20 they paid something on account of the most pressing bills, and had $2 or $3 left to live on.

On April 15th John had two notes to pay, $8.50 on the old mortgage loan, and $10 on the additional loan of $30 made April 1st; but the first note of $8.50 was payable in Indianapolis, and in spite of all his precaution that note was protested and he had $7.50 to pay extra. Doubtless feeling sure of their prey, the Friendly Loan Company allowed him to pay $10 on the first new note, without further costs; but when he paid the $5 due on the lot he found that he had but $5.50 left, because it would cost him $1 to send the money to Indianapolis and get it paid there on time by a railroad man he knew. And so the “Brace Game” went on, for nearly two years thereafter, the Friendly Loan Company taking practically all of John’s wages. It had sold out his furniture, and he and Mary were living in a little hall room of a dilapidated tenement house in a disreputable part of the city. Property in the Home Builders’ Addition had begun to boom, and John’s lot was worth four times the sum he had agreed to pay for it, but the title was no longer his. Under the power of attorney he had given, his contract for a deed on that lot had been sold for a song and assigned to the nice young lady in the Friendly Loan Company’s office to pay some more fake protest fees and attorney fees and court costs. John and Mary were both looking seedy as to clothes, and both grew thin and pale for lack of food. More than once he seriously thought of suicide, but the unaltering courage of his little wife helped him through.

Finally the foreman of the shops, a good friend of John’s, learned from him the secret of his evident trouble and poverty. The foreman knew one of the company’s attorneys personally and he laid the matter before him, saying a good word for John’s workmanship and faithfulness to duty. The attorney sent for John and Mary. In his private office they told a simple, straightforward, miserable story. Instead of being discharged, John was told that he should not, under any circumstances, pay the loan sharks another dollar. They simply were to leave the matter with the attorney.

John and Mary were abused and threatened by the loan sharks and their agents, but he had regained his courage, and he was a man again; and the last collector who called was kicked down the stairs.

They soon moved into a decent flat, and began again to live like human beings.—

Kaintuck.

In New York City there is a spacious excavation at the crossing of Broadway and Thirty-third street which is the entrance room of the Hudson tunnels. There are newspaper and candy stands, ticket offices and benches. One afternoon a tall, bony man descended the steps leading to this subterranean station and looked about him wonderingly.

He was Martin Granger, a Kentuckian, who had come from his native State to see New York. He had taken a tour in one of the big autocars in which strangers are shown the metropolis while a conductor points out the principal items of curiosity and comments on them through a megaphone. And now he had determined to go through the tunnel under the Hudson River that he might go back to Henderson County, Ky., and tell his children how the great ships, some of them 800 or 900 feet long, had sailed right over his head, while smaller boats without number had steamed back and forth in the same relative position.

Not knowing exactly how to get to the cars which were to take him on this (to him) perilous journey or perhaps wishing for time to screw up his courage to plunge under the great river, he sat down on one of the benches, presenting a perfect picture of a southwestern countryman wonder struck with that congregation of people which within a radius of twenty-five miles forms the largest in the world.

He had not been there long before a man came and sat down beside him. But Martin Granger was not interested in a single man, but the throngs passing through this station, wherein everything was as much alive underground as on the surface and were just as much alive above the surface as on it. The man beside him sat there but a few minutes, then got up and went away.

Presently Granger noticed persons buying tickets at a booth and put his hand into his pocket for money, intending to do the same thing. Casting his eyes down beside him he saw a small package on the bench. He took it up, looked at it, then cast a glance about him for the owner, thinking that it had been left through carelessness. A number of persons were near, but there was no evidence that any one of them was the owner of the package. He weighed it and found it light—no heavier than paper. He pondered awhile as to what to do with it, then untied a string and partly unwrapped the covering.

Any look of surprise that had come over Martin Granger’s face while in New York was surpassed by the one that came upon it now. He looked upon the corner of a bank bill and especially on the figures $100. As soon as he regained something of his equanimity he lifted the corner of the bill, and underneath it was another of the same denomination. The next below this was marked $50, the next $20, the next $100, and so on of different denominations. The package was about two inches thick.

“What you got there?”

Granger, looking up, saw a man standing over him, regarding him with a severe expression.

“Somebody has been powerful careless and left a whole stack o’ bank bills on this yere seat.”

“I’m in luck,” said the other. “You’ve found the bills taken from the vaults of the ——— Trust Company.”

“How do you know that?” asked Granger.

“I know it because I am a detective and have been shadowing the man who stole the bills. I followed him down here, and realizing that I had him trapped, rather than be caught with the plunder on him he sat down here beside you and when he went away left it. His intention is doubtless to follow you, and when you get far enough from the station and he thinks himself unobserved he will claim the property.”

The westerner looked at the man with wonder. “You must be one o’ them fellers that I’ve read about in the stories printed in our home paper. They kin tell from a shirt button or the stump of a cigar jist who done the murder.”

“Yes; I’m a detective. Now I’ve got the stolen property I want you to help me take the thief. Where are you going?”

“I’m goin’ down under the river jist to see how it feels to be joggin’ along under the big ships.”

“All right. Put the package in your pocket and”—
The speaker stopped short and turned his back on Granger as though he had no intercourse with him. In a few minutes he turned again and continued:

"I saw the rascal. He's gone down the stairs to the train. I didn't want to have him see me talking to you. Go to that birdcage over there and buy the tickets. You'll be given two of 'em. Then go past that man over there and drop 'em in the box. Get on the train, and don't leave it till you get to the last station—Hoboken. I'll be in the same car with you, and quite likely the man who stole the bills will be on the train. When he joins you and asks you for his parcel I'll nab him."

"Waal, now, ain't that fine. I thort that when I come to New York I'd see some remarkable sights, but I didn't think I'd git inter one o' them detective stories."

The man gave him a knowing look, and Granger bought his tickets and, descending a flight of steps leading farther down toward the center of the earth, found a train, which he boarded, and was soon carried down under the mighty waters. He seemed overpowered and did not draw a regular breath till a guard called "All out!" and, seeing the other passengers leave the train, the visitor to New York also left.

He had no sooner stepped on the platform before he saw the detective looking at him, and Granger followed him up a flight of stairs, through a railway station and on to a ferryboat. As soon as the boat left the dock the detective joined the Kentuckian.

"I thort you was goin' to nab the thief," said the latter.

"He has eluded me. We'll return to New York. You may as well turn over the goods to me. I shall not be able to take the thief."

Now, Granger was a countryman, but there are few persons in the world who have not learned the principle that "possession is nine points of the law."

"What am I goin' to git out o' the find?" he asked.

"Oh, you'll get the reward. There's $10,000 offered for the return of the stolen goods."

"Reckon that's all right. But if you do the returnin' how am I to git the reward?"

"I'll report you as the finder of the property."

"You jist tell me whar to turn it in, and I'll go thar with it."

There was a good deal of sparring on the part of the detective to get possession of the property, which failed. Before the boat landed he explained to the Kentuckian that the latter was in a very dangerous position. If the detective should arrest him as the thief it would go hard with him. But the bluff was not effective. The Kentuckian said that he thought he could prove an alibi since he had reached New York only that morning and Cy Butler could swear to the fact since he had come all the way from Henderson County with him.

"Well," said the detective, "I suppose I'll have to go with you to the bank that lost the money, but it's too late to go today. The banks don't keep open after 3 o'clock. You can stay with me overnight, and we'll turn the money over tomorrow morning."

The Kentuckian said he had promised to stay with Cy Butler at a hotel on the east side, but the detective explained that it would not do for him to let him go away with the money, so Granger finally consented to spend the night with him in his room.

The apartment was in a cheap flat-house. The detective, as soon as they had entered it, locked the door and said to Mr. Granger:

"See here, pard, there's plenty for both of us in this deal. I'm the man that took that money from the bank. There's $80,000 of it. I'll give you $20,000. What do you say?"

"What do I say? Why, I say I'm l'arnin' New York powerful fast. I thort you was a detective."

"You're a pretty good sort of chap," replied the other, "and I don't mind taking you into my confidence. I was the man who sat down by you in the Hudson tunnel station. I was trying to get away from a shadower. I concluded to load the goods on to you till I could get away from him and divide with you. All you've got to do to be rich is to turn the goods back to me and deduct your share."
Granger looked at him with righteous indignation and said:

"Stranger, I've lived in Henderson County, Kaintucky, for forty year. Anybody thar'll tell you I hain't got a dishonest ha'r in my head. I'm goin' to turn this money back to the bank that lost it, and don't you forget it."

The man put out his hand and grasped Granger's, saying: "Anybody 'd know to look at you that you were an honest man."

Holding Granger's right hand, the rascal put his own left hand to his hip and drew a revolver. He had cocked and raised it only a part of the way to cover his man when Granger, quick as a flash, put his hand to the back of his neck and drew forth a knife about ten inches long and held it point downward over the so-called detective.

"I see that hand," he said quietly, "and go you one better. Drop yer weepoon!"

The man needed to raise his pistol but a short distance to make it effective, yet the distance was sufficient to give the Kentuckian time to draw his bowie knife—a weapon of the olden time—and hold it point downward over him. The villain quailed and dropped his pistol.

How the Kentuckian drove his enemy down and out into the street, met a policemen and the three proceeded to a station; how the next morning the money was turned over by its finder to the bank, is merely a succession of ordinary details. When the president handed Granger a check for $10,000 the subject grows again interesting. The Kentuckian handed it back, saying:

"Do you reckon that if one o' my Kaintuck neighbors' mares war to stray away and git on to my premises and I sent her back by a nigger I'd take money for doin' it? No, sir. You may do things that a-way in New York, but we don't do 'em so in Kaintuck."

And, turning on his heel, he left the bank.

SAUCE FOR THE GOOSE.

SILVESTRE, the editor of one of the biggest popular weekly journals, looked about him in despair. Never had he experienced such difficulty in getting the right stuff to fill his extra large weekly number, due to be published at the end of August, and he was pondering the matter with an irritable frown on his face when the door swung open and Hartley, the best journalist on his staff, came in.

They were old comrades, these two school fellows, and college mates as well, and now both were cutting their way up the difficult ladder of success in Fleet street.

"Hallo, Hartley! Got any ideas, or has this torrid heat soaked them out of you?"

"Pretty well, old chap. What's worrying you?"

"A couple of columns to fill up with, something new, something to attract the jaded appetite of the holiday readers. I wish—I say, Hartley, I've got it. Look here!"

Silvestre turned over a pile of daily papers at his elbow, extracted one sheet and thrust it over to the journalist, his finger on a paragraph in the society column.

"Read that."

Hartley read:

"Miss Anastatia B. Symkkins has arrived at Claridge's Hotel from Cowes, and leaves shortly for Scotland."

"Well, what about her?" asked Hartley.

"And who the dickens is Miss Anastatia B. Symkkins when she's at home?"

"She's the daughter of some Johnny who's made a corner in something or other—bricks or mortar, or some useful thing like that, and, as I need scarcely tell you, she is an American. Now you know what a rage there has been lately in the papers for articles such as 'Should Peers Marry American-Dollar Princesses?' and so on."

"Yes. One's pretty well fed up with them."

"Exactly. But I propose an article on altogether novel lines. What do you say to 'An Article by a Peer Who Proposed to an American-Dollar Princess?'"

"He'd be rather a cad to write it, I imagine."

Silvestre laughed.
"You're chock full of ideals still, old fellow; but you'll have to swallow all that because you're going to write the article."

"I? But I'm not, thank the powers, a peer!"

"You can be one for the moment, as it were. Did I dream it, or did I hear you tell some one once that Basingstoke's a cousin of yours?"

"He is. Not a relative to be proud of."

"I suppose not, but he's a peer all the same. Where is he?"

Hartley laughed.

"At the Antipodes. I believe the family pay him something to stop there. The title's likely to die out with him."

"What about yourself? You're a cousin."

"Yes, but on the distaff side, thank heaven."

"I see. Well, I'd like you for the time being to pose as Lord Basingstoke, get to know this charming and possibly beautiful Miss Anastatia B. Sympkins, and there you are. I leave the rest to you and the article, and luck go with you."

Hartley stared at the editor, then burst into a roar of laughter.

"You're not serious, Sylvestre?"

"On the contrary, I am."

"But how the dickens am I to set about it? And how do you know that Miss What-d'you-call-her has any special predilection for the peerage?"

"Because she's an American-dollar lady, my boy. And besides, look here!"

He extracted from his desk an American newspaper, opened it, and spread it out before Hartley. The glaring headlines struck him in the eye, as it were:

"ANASTATIA ARMED FOR CONQUEST.
Will She Gain the Strawberry Leaves?
Departure of Miss Sympkins for Europe."

Hartley uttered a disgusted exclamation.

"What taste," he said with a shrug of his shoulders. "I suppose money has to pay—like everything else—for its privileges. Ten to one she's as plain as a pikestaff, though the papers do, I see, laud her to the skies, and call her the beautiful heiress. When were heiresses ever anything else? Where and how do I begin, Sylvestre?"

"That I leave to you, also the ways and means. All I want is a good interview, something out of the common, mind you—good stuff—and you shan't regret it."

There were not many preparations to make for his campaign—a few visiting cards, a neat but distinguished looking suit, and a taxi that one sunny afternoon deposited him at the door of the hotel where Miss Anastatia B. Sympkins was staying.

* * * *

"I guess peeks don't grow on hedges like brambleberries," murmured Anastatia to herself, as she passed through the hall, casting a quick glance over the few people—ordinary-looking folk—gathered there, and letting her eyes rest for the fraction of a second on a decidedly good looking young man who was standing reading a paper. She liked the look of his well-fitting grey suit, and the bluish mauve tie that seemed to match his eyes. She saw them when he raised them for an instant and looked straight at her.

Anastatia felt the color rise to her face. She hurried forward. As she did so, the chain of the long purse she wore slung round her neck caught on a door handle. It quickly tangled as she caught impetuously at it, and would probably have broken it had not someone come to the rescue with a murmured:

"Allow me?"

And again she saw those blue eyes looking at her, as with deft fingers the young man disentangled her chain.

"Thank you," said Anastatia, hurriedly.

"I am very much obliged!"

She paused for a moment.

A taxi came purring to the door, and the longing look in her eyes gave Hartley his inspiration.

"Miss Sympkins, here we are, two lonely folk thrown together by fate. Will you take pity on me further and come for a turn in the park? I know we've never been properly introduced, but I assure you I am quite a respectable person. It would be very kind of you to come?"

"I'd like to very much. I'm stranded here for a day or two because my friends in Scotland can't have me until the eighteenth. But perhaps you are going north, too? I am going to stay with some people I met in Cowes—the Strangways."

"At Arrochar Lodge?" asked Hartley, eagerly.

"Yes. You do know them, then?"

"Yes, I know them; they happen to be cousins of mine," said Hartley, shortly.

The Strangways! He set his teeth, his eyes on Anastatia's fresh loveliness. He could guess very well why the Strangways had asked her up, why they had made such friends with the young millionairress. Wasn't Cecil, the eldest son, always looking for a rich wife? They were a scheming set of people, and he could read through their plans like a book, then—

He was pulled up shortly by the memory of his own plans and schemes where Anastatia was concerned. He felt a hot color rise to his face. Anastatia. The very name was a caress.

If only she hadn't those soft grey eyes that seemed to look through one for all their softness! If only she didn't look as Anastatia looked! If only she was as plain as a pikestaff; the sort of person an heiress ought to be by all the laws of compensation! But she wasn't.

But he had taken the plunge, now; better go on with it to the bitter end, now that he had started. Not that it was bitter at present—as Hartley speedily found out.

He learned a good deal during their turn in the park. Anastatia had no idea that she was doing an unheard of thing in driving there with a stranger, even though he was a peer of the realm. But then, even if she had known, it wouldn't have troubled her much, for she was utterly unconventional, and openly rejoiced over the fact that her official chaperon—one Lady Banister—was laid up with influenza, and had thus left Anastatia to her own devices, secure in the consciousness that her charge was safely on her way to Scotland.

He hated to think that in a few days she would be at the mercies of the Strangways, that they would speedily enlighten her as to his identity if she mentioned Basingstoke to them. How they would laugh and sneer, laugh at her, perhaps, for being so easily taken in and deceived. The thought made his blood boil.

He would have to own up before she left town.

But the next few days sped away, and Hartley and Anastatia Sympkins managed to spend much time together. It was easy. London was empty of those people to whom the heiress mattered, and she seemed in no hurry to be on her round of country-house visits. Influenza still kept Lady Banister a prisoner to her bed, and youth will have its way.

* * * *

"It's a trippery thing to do, but why not the river?" said Hartley, eagerly.

Anastatia looked up from a bundle of letters she had been reading. A curious smile danced in her pretty eyes, as she folded one with a colonial stamp and slipped it into her pocket. Outside, the sun was shining, and there sat Hartley, his eager eyes fixed on her—something in them that made her heart beat strangely fast. How much may happen in a week. Anastatia had often thought to keep her company now. A week!

"I'd love to go on the river," she said. "Where do you think we could go?"

"Datchet—it's delicious down there; we can take lunch with us, and have tea at some riverside inn."

A delightful programme, and one easy enough to carry out, as Anastatia found.

They slipped smoothly down stream, Hartley leisurely, Anastatia comfortably settled against a pile of cushions. It was perfectly calm—the murmur of the river the only sound to break the peaceful stillness.

Hartley was very silent.

Tomorrow, or the next day, Anastatia would wing her way northward; something must be said. Confessions came with difficulty, because he had learned a lesson he had never even tried to learn before. He knew he had found the one woman he loved—Anastatia.

Curse her millions!

"I had a letter from a friend in Australia," said Anastatia, breaking in on his miserable thoughts suddenly. She was trailing one hand in the water, and, as she lay back against the dark red cushions in her white linen frock, a mauve ribbon round her shady white hat, and a string of amethysts round her throat, Hartley felt his eyes grow a little dim. That he must lose what he had only just found! It was too hard. "She tells me that Lord Basingstoke is earning his living as a waiter in the hotel she was at."

"Basingstoke?"

"Yes. Funny, isn't it? I wonder"—Anastasia sat up and shook the glittering drops from her hands—"I wonder why you called yourself Lord Basingstoke?"

Hartley drew a long breath as they drifted into a quiet backwater. The moment he had dreaded was upon him.

"So you know?" he said, huskily.

"No, I think I guessed once or twice; I didn't feel sure until today."

"And yet you came out with me?"

"Oh, yes; you may not be a peer, but I know a gentleman when I meet one, even though he may do odd things. I think I have a right to hear your explanation, haven't I?"

"Yes. Before I tell you anything else, listen to me for a moment, Anastasia. I love you—I cared from the first. I know I haven't a chance because those hateful millions must always stand between us; the fact that I love you may be some small excuse for my conduct. I—began it for another motive, though."

"Yes?"

Out it all came. Anastasia listened with downbent head, and the queerest smile trembling round her red lips. Hartley didn't spare himself. Out it came, the story of the plot—the fact that his cousinship to the erring Basingstoke made it easy for him to assume, for the time being, that title.

"That's all," he finished, heavily, when the story was told, and the whole unvarnished truth laid bare. "Now, tell me you'll never speak to me again. I deserve it!"

"Do you? I wonder! I don't take the conventional view of things, I'm afraid, Mr. Hartley."

"You mean—"

"That I think I can understand. You see, haven't you an old proverb that says, 'What's sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander?' Well, I, too, have a confession of a like kind to make to you. I am not the millionaire's daughter at all."

Hartley uttered a cry.

"You—are—not—Anastasia—Sympkins?"

She laughed.

"Oh, my name is Anastasia Sympkins," she said, "only I happen to be just a poor, distant cousin to the millionaire's daughter, that's all. You see, it happened like this. I wanted to come to Europe to write up things; yes, I'm a journalist, too, and Anastasia—the real one—gave me my chance. She was to come over to do the grand tour, to catch a duke, and that sort of thing; only she happened to be in love with a nice young man in her own home, and she wasn't going to marry anybody else. So she sent me over here in her place; gave me a chance of writing up my experiences, and making any number of good articles out of them for a big American paper from whom I got a commission, and she stayed safely at home. She was generous, too—gave me an outfit, and all the introductions I wanted; so you see—as people who live in glass houses mustn't throw stones—I can't say much to you about your plot. We're birds of a feather. Shake hands on it, Mr. Hartley."

They shook; and Hartley did not let go of Anastasia's hand in a hurry. On the contrary, he held it fast.

"What are you going to do now?" he asked.

"Go home very soon to America," she told him, with a smile.

"Anastasia! Is there a chance for me? Now that I know you're only a journalist like myself, I shall be audacious enough to ask you to be my wife—some day. I'm getting on; I believe I can earn enough to keep a wife if she will let me. But I want no one but you—Anastasia. Darling, will you try to care a little?"

"It won't be hard," she told him, with an enchanting look that made him simply take her in his arms without more ado. "And we can work together. I believe I, too, cared always."

"And what a story it will all make," she said presently, when they came down from a special heaven of their own to more mundane matters. "Imagine what I shall be able to write now at first hand. And, dear, we needn't be poor, you know, because
IN THE NICK OF TIME.

ONE day, passing a furniture store with a sign in the window "This Stock Must Be Closed Out at Once," I went in to look for bargains. I bought a lady's writing desk for my wife, little thinking that fate was using me for one of its strange freaks.

The desk was sent home and placed in a little room my wife used for a boudoir. While she was putting it in order, dusting out the drawers and pigeonholes, she espied the corner of an envelope exposed and pulled out a letter. It was sealed, addressed and stamped ready for the post. When I came in from business in the evening she told me of her find and asked what she had better do about the matter of its delivery to the person for whom it was intended.

It was addressed to a hotel, where the occupants are constantly changing. I told my wife that there would be no more harm in our opening it than a government official at the dead letter office doing so and we would then know better what to do. But first I would telephone to the hotel where the letter was addressed to see if John Ridgewood, the addressee, was staying there.

An answer came that the gentleman had been there not long before, but was not there then, and the hotel management did not know where he was to be found. Having, as I thought, done my part of the work, I settled down to read the evening newspaper, while my wife opened and read the letter. Presently she came to me, her eyes wet with tears.

"Henry, this is the saddest case I have ever known," she said. "A wife writes her husband, from whom she has been separated, telling him that she and their children are in sore distress. To get money for their necessaries she has been obliged to sell piece-meal their furniture, including many of the presents given them when they were married. She begs him to return to her and all will be forgiven."

"Well, my dear," I said to her, "one would suppose from your distress that you were the deserted wife."

"I feel keenly for this poor woman," she said, "and I am going to try to find her husband and send him back to her. Why will men act so brutally?"

"You are indulging a feminine trait in condemning him unheard, Ethel," I replied. "However, I will aid you in any effort you choose to make to unite a divided family. My opinion is that instead of hunting up the husband you had better communicate with the wife and tell her that her letter has not reached its destination. Then you will know better how to act, if indeed you act at all. You must remember that persons who mix themselves up in other persons' affairs are liable to bring trouble upon themselves."

"I don't care," was the reply to this caution. "It is perfectly plain from what this woman says that her husband has treated her shamefully, and she must be an angel to offer to forgive him."

"Just so," I remarked and returned to my newspaper.

Later my wife showed me the letter she had written the deserted wife—a letter exhibiting a great deal of sympathy and assuring the poor woman that she must have a very forgiving spirit to offer to take back such an unfeeling man. I forbade Ethel to send the letter, telling her that the only missive I would consent to was one simply announcing that a letter had been found and asking for instructions in the matter. Ethel did as I suggested, and in due time a reply came which she read to me.

The trouble between the pair was that the husband insisted in treating the wife's mother outrageously. "A case of mother-in-law!" I exclaimed when my wife read this. The wife had written the letter to her husband without her mother's knowledge or consent and left it on the desk to be posted. The mother, finding it there, had put it in a drawer. The desk had soon after been sold to get money to pay bills. The letter must have slipped down behind the drawer. Its writer acquiesced with her mother that it should never have been written. Ethel was requested to burn it.

"There is one little matter that is not stated," I said to my wife when she had finished reading the letter—"the mother-in-law, finding the letter on the desk, hid it between the drawer and the back of the desk and gave her daughter reason to suppose that it had been posted."

"How do you know that?"

"I don't. I surmise it."

"Well, what shall I do?"

"If you wish to confer a blessing on this family I would recommend your sending an infernal machine to the mother-in-law."

"Don't be ridiculous. This is a serious matter. The letter may have providentially fallen into our hands to reunite a divided family."

"And to divide a united one."

"What do you mean by that?"

"What I said before about mixing ourselves up in other people's affairs. Quarrels beget quarrels, and before we get through with the matter we may get into a fracas ourselves."

"That's simple nonsense."

My wife wrote a great many letters to the poor woman with the brutal husband, but I would not consent to her sending any of them. I knew that the mother-in-law held the fort, and so long as she did the situation would remain as it was. Therefore I saw no object in delivering the letter to the husband, for whom it had originally been intended. I persuaded Ethel to put it away. If Providence decreed that we were to make use of it to bring about the reunion of a divided family we would find it out in time. But I consented that Ethel should write the injured wife that should she ever have occasion to make use of the letter to let her know.

After some time a reply came containing an apology for the delay in writing, stating that "poor, dear mamma" had been very ill, and "I fear I shall not have her with me long."

"Let us hope," I remarked, "that she may be soon transferred to"—

"John!" exclaimed my wife severely.

Notwithstanding this shock I had given Ethel I noticed that every morning after that she took up the newspaper and carefully scanned the death notices. Three months passed before her daily watch was rewarded by seeing a notice of the death of Mrs. Steadman, "beloved mother of Mrs. John Ridgewood." I knew what had happened from the pleased look on Ethel's face when she looked up from the paper at me—a look she strove in vain to conceal.

"That poor woman," she said, "has lost her mother."

"Sad, isn't it?" I replied.

"The funeral is to take place on Thursday."

"What have we to do with that?"

"Why, I'm thinking that after it's all over we might send that letter."

"Perhaps it won't be necessary. The brute may see the notice and go home."

"I do wish you wouldn't be so cynical. Even if he does see the notice he may not go home. He may feel too antagonistic to his wife."

"She can write him another letter. The old lady having taken her departure, it will probably get into the mail."

"You have no evidence that she intentionally prevented the other one from getting there. The wife may not feel in the mood to write another letter. I'm going to send the one we have to the husband—that is, if you can discover his present address."

"That's legitimate," I assented. "Holding a letter addressed to him, you have a perfect right and good reason to deliver it to him. I think the day after the funeral would be a good time. The wife, having lost her mother, will probably have a soft spot in her heart for her husband."

Ethel was so pleased at the idea of being instrumental in a reconciliation that she failed this time to reproach me for my cynicism, begging me when I went to business to look up the address of John Ridgewood that we might have it by the time his mother-in-law's remains were transferred to the cemetery. I had some trouble in finding the desired address, since Mr. Ridgewood had removed to a nearby city. Indeed, I did not find it for a week after his mother-in-law's funeral. As soon as I received it I put the letter his wife had written him into an envelope, addressed it to him and mailed it. I feared certain reproaches contained in it as to his treatment of the old lady might antagonize him, but since the cause of the rupture was now removed and the rest of the letter showed deep affection I hoped for the best.

One evening about a week after the forwarding of the letter, when my wife and I were reading in the library, there was a ring at the doorbell and a card bearing the name of John Ridgewood was brought in.

"Show him in here," Ethel said to the maid, anxious to hear what he had to say.

Mr. Ridgewood, instead of showing that brutish cast of countenance which might have been expected of him, was a benevolent looking, frank-spoken gentleman.

"I have called to thank you," he said, "for forwarding me a misplaced letter and to tell you that it came in the nick of time to restore me to my wife and children. Ours was a case of"—He hesitated.

"Right! So bitter had been the breach that I doubt if after her mother's death my wife would have written me another such letter, and I confess I intended to remain away from her forever unless she did. The letter, coming immediately after my wife's bereavement, turned the scale for both of us. I am happy to say that I found my children quite well, and"—

"Poor woman!" my wife added, with a frown at me.

"I dare say," Mr. Ridgewood went on, "that I should have borne with more patience, for my wife's sake and for family reasons if for no other, those little frictions which are liable to arise in any family"—

"Where there is an element of discord in an outsider," I supplied again. Since I did not this time specialize, my wife refrained from attempting to frown me down.

"Please tell your wife how deeply I sympathize with her in her bereavement," said Ethel to the caller.

"With pleasure," replied Mr. Ridgewood. "My wife joins me in thanks to you, madam, for having brought about our reunion. She tells me that she requested you to burn the letter."

With that the gentleman took his departure, and we saw him no more. Ethel says that if I had not interfered with her forwarding the letter when we found it the matter might have been settled long before. That's all the thanks I get for keeping her out of a fiery furnace.—By F. A. Mitchell in Journal of Industry.

JEAN TETERAULT'S START.

JEAN TETERAULT, a French Canadian boy, was born with an ambition not usual to those of French descent in the Dominion. He decided to leave the little patch of ground his father worked, with a view to entering a more exalted career. But what could the boy do? He had but little education and was only fifteen years old. True, he was big and strong for his age, but what is physical strength in the world's battle? Intellect even in a puny body is often its superior.

The Teterault farm was near the railroad, and Jean would have liked some position with the company, but he could not so much as secure that of brakeman on a gravel train. Besides, the conductors and others employed by the road told him that even if he found employment as a railroad man he would grow gray in the service with but a meager salary.

The railroad ran through a cut near the Teterault farm, and on the knoll through which it passed was a walnut tree. One October day Jean, taking a bag, went to the tree, climbed it and began to gather nuts. He had nearly filled his bag when he heard voices approaching, and several men came and stood under the tree, talking with one another. Jean kept quiet and listened. From what the men said he gathered that they were intending to stop a train due in a short time and rob the express car.

A man who was evidently in charge assigned the positions. One was to go in the direction from which the train was expected and flag it, so that it would come to a halt in the cut. Another was to tackle the engineer and kill him if necessary; another was to look out for the conductor, while the leader was to rob the express car.

Jean, if the men had gone far enough away from the tree to permit him, would have descended and run through a wood that skirted the track ahead of the man who was to flag the train and given a warning. There was a bend in the road that would have rendered this quite easy. But the men did not go away, and when the train was heard in the distance all put on masks and got their weapons in readiness for a fight.

When the train came to a stop the express car was directly beneath the tree in which Jean was lodged. He saw a man call on the engineer and fireman to come out of the cab, and the order was obeyed. They were marched toward the rear of the train, where they could not get back into the engine. The leader of the gang was endeavoring to get into the rear door of the express car, which had been locked. Jean noticed that there was not a person between this robber and the locomotive. It occurred to him that he might scramble down to the locomotive, get aboard and pull the train on. But this would probably avail nothing. If he could first uncouple the express car so as to leave the passenger cars he might carry the robber away from his supporters.

The scheme was fascinating. Jean drew three or four long breaths. A resolution was forming within him—a resolution which might mean his death. There was no time to lose. The chief robber was calling to one of his men in the rear to go into the wood and get a piece of timber with which to batter down the door of the express car. Some of the passengers had thrust their heads out of the car windows. They would see him run down to the train, but the robbers were occupied.

Dropping from the tree, he rolled down the declivity, crawled under the express car and wriggled on his stomach to the rear end. The old-fashioned coupling was then still in use, and Jean, watching his opportunity when the robber above him was engaged, reached up and removed the pin. Then, scuttling rapidly under the car to its front end, he climbed up to the platform and over the rear end of the tender.

Jean, having lived beside the railroad all his life, had picked up some knowledge about how to run a locomotive. He at least knew how to start and how to stop one. He opened the throttle rather suddenly, and the locomotive and express car started with a jerk.

The robber on the rear end of the car, finding himself moving away from the rest of the train and his companions, was puzzled to know what to do.

While he was hesitating he looked down on the ground to note the speed and thought he could jump off and get to the engine. He tried it and succeeded, but had just caught the rail to swing himself up when a blow from an iron poker caused him to release his hold, and he dropped to the ground.

Owing to his condition and the speed the engine had acquired he did not think it best to try again. Jean had the express car with the treasure in it, and that was all he could do. Those he had left must take care of themselves. The robbers, seeing what they had come for disappearing in the distance, took to the woods.

When Jean pulled up at a station and told his story the agent sent back a train with armed men on board, which brought on the cars Jean had left. Jean was sent for by the president of the railroad, was given a handsome reward and his request to be educated for a railroad man granted. He has recently retired from the presidency of that same road.—By LOUISE THORNTON, in The Artisan.

CURTIS' VALENTINE.

"NO," SAID Grace, decidedly, "I don't want anyone to send me a valentine. I'm sick and tired of those foolish frills of lace paper with a tender sentiment that lies only on the paper and not in the sender's heart."

"Surely," argued Graham, "you would not want every chap who sends you a valentine to be as madly in love with you as the sentiment on his offering would indicate. You received seventeen last year, I believe."

"Eighteen," she corrected. "One came the next day. Jimmie Curtis sent it from town."

"Jimmie always was about a day slow," commented Arthur.

"Jimmie is all right," she insisted, warmly.

Arthur saw the danger signal in her flaming cheeks and smiled. He remembered that the unfortunate Curtis had gone around with a mournful face for a week in consequence of the letter she had sent him.

No one knew exactly what the contents had been, except the sender and recipient, but for a year one paragraph had echoed through Curtis' head.

"You sent me a valentine," she had written, "breathing all sorts of devotion, and yet you care so little that you did not even remember the day until it was almost too late. I don't believe you when you write that you love me, and shall not answer until next St. Valentine's."

The last referred to a letter Curtis had sent after the valentine and in which he had made a proposal of marriage. This was the real secret not only of Grace's indifference to valentines, but of her coldness to her admiring court, of which Graham was the chief resident member.

None of them took her declaration seriously, and on St. Valentine's morning there was a goodly pile of envelopes and packages at her plate. Rapidly she ran them over and her face fell. Curtis had not sent one. In spite of the fact that this was to have been the end of his probation, he had not even thought.

She held her head high in the air as she opened the various envelopes and smiled as the family were alternately lost in wonder or moved to laughter at the odd assortment, but once in her room her head drooped and the tears fell unheeded upon the dainty creations with which her arms were littered.

She loved Jimmie Curtis, but she resented his absorption in business. Ever since he had left the little town to go to the city he had seemed so far away, and to this sense of distance was added the brevity of his letters.

That Jimmie was working for a position which would enable him to make a home for her did not matter. She wanted long letters, not brief, chatty little notes telling her how busy he was and how rapidly he was making progress.

Then when he had forgotten to send the valentine last year until late in the afternoon, she had placed him on probation and he had cared so little that he had not even remembered.

She cast the packages upon the table and sank sobbing upon the bed. It was an hour before she had gained the mastery of herself and was able to go downstairs and mingle with the family, but when she did there was no trace of the tears, no suggestion that behind her smile hurt pride was making her heart ache terribly.

She went out in the afternoon to compare valentines with the other girls, and afterward went skating with Graham, who improved the opportunity by proposing and, to his surprise, was refused.

The incident angered her. It was not Graham's fault, of course. It was Jimmie's. If he had only remembered she could have announced her engagement and there would have been an end to other proposals.

She kissed her mother and went to her room for another cry. The gaudy valentines, still scattered upon the table, were the final straw, and in a moment she was crouched in the depths of the big chair sobbing in the dusk.

Even a ring at the door bell did not rouse her, and not until the maid tapped on the door and announced that there was some one to see her in the library did she check her tears.
It was hard to make her eyes presentable, but she bathed them as well as she could and descended to the lower floor. The library was dimly lighted, but in a corner her eye caught sight of a huge creation of lace paper and ribbons. It was a crimson heart resting on a bed of lace, and from the center rose a most lifelike image of Curtis' head.

With a cry she stepped forward, and as she did so the head smiled. "Late as usual," laughed Curtis, "but I had to wait. You see I'm part of the valentine. How do you like it?"

She gave a glad little cry and sprang forward. "Did you really remember, Jimmie?" she exclaimed.

"You don't suppose that I picked this up ready made for you?" he chuckled. "They fixed it up for me at a place where they make tricks for magicians. I thought that as you were going to be a married woman next year your last valentine ought to be something good."

"It's splendid," she cried, with sparkling eyes.

"Well," he suggested, "if you will kindly unfasten the hook at the back of the table I can get out of here and claim my reward."

"You shall have it first," she declared, as she leaned forward and kissed him. "You're the best valentine that ever a girl had."

"Neat, but not gaudy," agreed Jimmie, looking at the crimson heart, "but I'm glad it didn't take any longer to come downstairs. Those frills tickled my neck dreadfully."—By SUSE CLEMENTS WILLIS, in St. Louis Globe-Democrat.
"What Man Has Made of Man."

I heard a thousand blended notes
While in a groove I sate reclined.
In that sweet mood when pleasant thoughts
Bring sad thoughts to the mind.

To her fair works did Nature link
The human soul that through me ran;
And much it grieved my heart to think
What man has made of man.

Through primrose tufts, in that sweet bower,
The periwinkle trailed its wreaths:
And 'tis my faith that every flower
Enjoys the air it breathes.

The birds around me hopped and played;
Their thoughts I can not measure;
But the least motion which they made,
It seemed a thrill of pleasure.

The budding twigs spread out their fan
To catch the breezy air;
And I must think, do all I can,
That there was pleasure there.

From Heaven if this belief be sent,
If such be Nature's holy plan,
Have I not reason to lament
What man has made of man?

She held a high degree;
Each evening she would demonstrate
The newest chasery.

The contours of her lissome form,
As she the stuff did stir,
Stirred up a youth, with ardor warm,
To woo and marry her.

A week of the loving fad she fed
On fudge and fluffy cake,
Till in his dreams he moaned for bread
"Like mother used to bake."

With noble purpose rose she then
And raised a pan of dough,
Yes, figured out with pad and pen
How every loaf should go.

Being college bred she donned her gown,
Her cap set on her head,
And—well, 'tis told in Reno town
The cause was college bred.

Local vs. Express.

Jim Johnson works on a train that jerks
You through at a mile a minute.
He makes huge fun of a local run
And the crews enlisted in it.
Past the sidings, then, where the local men
Are waiting Jim will fly
With a sneering shout: "You snails look out!
Let this express go by!"

As a boy, I grew on a farm—did you?—
Where the crickets sang all night.
But I fled to town, which seemed the crown
Of earth's supreme delight.
When I'd see the scrubs who lived like grubs
While I was flying high,
I'd say: "Get a gait, you local freight!
Watch my express go by!"

Bill Stubbins stuck at raising truck
Near the farm where I was born.
When he moved to town he looked old and brown
From shucking beans and corn.
But he brought a roll like a telegraph-pole,
And the street for Bill was pie.
Now he hoaks at me, and I climb a tree,
While his limousine scoots by.

The World Makers.

We are the music makers,
And we are the dreamers of dreams,
Wandering by lone sea breakers,
And sitting by desolate streams—
World losers and world forsakers,
On whom the pale moon gleams;
Yet we are the movers and shakers
Of the world forever, it seems.

With wonderful deathless ditties
We build up the world's great cities,
And out of a fabulous story
We fashion an empire's glory;
One man with a dream, at pleasure,
Shall go forth and conquer a crown;
And three with a new song's measure
Can trample a kingdom down.

We in the ages lying
In the buried past of the earth,
Built Nineveh with our sighing,
And Babel itself in our mirth;
And o'erthrew them with prophesying
To the old or the new world's worth;
For each age is a dream that is dying,
Or one that is coming to birth.

A Sprinkle o' Gray in His Hair.

You may talk about your youngsters
With their rushin', reckless ways,
Their style an' wit an' action,
An' their up-to-date displays;
But for counsel an' for judgment
That will stand the wear an' tear,
Just give me the brave old fellow
With a sprinkle o' gray in his hair.

There ain't no handsomer figure
A-walkin' our roads an' streets,
A-smilin', salutin' an' greetin'
Every child an' man he meets,
Than the man o' fifty summers
An' a winter or two to spare,
With a face that you know can be trusted
An' a sprinkle o' gray in his hair.

An' what o' the dear old lady
All lavender leaves an' rose
All silk an' lace an' cambric
An' gentleness an' repose,
Who carries her weight o' winters
With never a frost in the air?
She's a thousand times more a mother
For a sprinkle o' gray in her hair.

And Dolores, her name,
Seemed to fit like a frame

Oh, the charm of that night!
Oh, the waltz-music dreamy, loveladen!
What her last name might be
Was as nothing to me,

What castles I planned!

A Vacation Song.

Vacation time has come, hey-ho,
'Skeeters and sunburns and sprains;
And many a man
With a frying pan,
Beats it up from the plains
Into the mountains, up by the snow,
Where the biggest 'sketers and woodticks grow.
Hey-ho,
Where the biggest woodticks grow!

Vacation time has come, hey-ho,
Boardwalks and funkeys and hills;
And many a man
Hocks what he can
And beats it down from the hills
To the salted sands, where the tangos go.
And a square meal costs ten dollars or so.
Hey-ho,
Yes, costs ten dollars or so!

Vacation time has come, hey-ho,
Scatter and chatter and roam;
Let every man
Do what he can
To beat it away from his home.
He will wear off his tummy and scatter his dough,
But what is the difference? He's been on the go.
Hey-ho,
You bet, he's been on the go!

It was scarcely 9:30 when the rather fierce-looking father of the girl entered the parlor where the timid lover was courting her. The father had his watch in his hand.
"Young man," he said, brusquely, "do you know what time it is?"
"Y-y-ye-s, sir," stuttered the frightened lover, as he scrambled into the hall; "I—I was just going to leave."

After the beau had made a rapid exit, the father turned to the girl and said in astonishment:
"What's the matter with that fellow? My watch has run down, and I simply wanted to know the time."—Lippincott's.

On the Jokesmith.

Senator Lodge, at a banquet in New York, once found himself beside a well-known newspaper paragrapher.
Senator Lodge complimented the paragrapher on his work.
"But how on earth," he cried, "do you write twenty jokes a day?"
"With a typewriter," the other answered, and he smiled.
But Senator Lodge's retort was ready.
"Oh, is that so?" said he. "I thought you used some copying process."

When We Would All Be Missionaries.

A well-known agnostic was present at one of Henry Ward Beecher's lectures, and after the address the man presented one of his daughters—a beautiful girl—to Mr. Beecher, saying: "Mr. Beecher, here is a girl who, according to your ideas, is a heathen."
"Well, my dear," said Mr. Beecher, "if all heathens were as pretty as you are we would all become missionaries."—Ladies' Home Journal.

"Paid in Full."

When James T. Brady first opened a lawyer's office in New York he took a basement room which had been previously occupied by a cobbler. He was somewhat annoyed by the previous occupant's callers and irritated by the fact that he had few of his own. One day an Irishman entered.
"The cobbler's gone, I see," he said.
"I should think he has," tartly responded Brady.
"And what do you sell?" said the visitor, looking at the solitary table and a few law books.
"Blockheads," responded Brady.
"Begorra," said the Irishman, "ye must be doing a mighty fine business—ye hain't got but one left."
Postponed Weddings.
Wigg—Is it unlucky to postpone a wedding day?
Wagg—Not if you keep on doing it.—
Town Topics.

Public Opinion.
The Fond Mother—Everybody says he is such a pretty baby. I'm sure the poet was right when he said that "heaven lies about us in our infancy."
The Uncle (unfeelingly)—But he should have added, "So does everybody else."

A Connoisseur.
"Mother, is father in the fruit business?"
"No, son. What put that idea into your head?"
"Well, when he took me for a walk the other day he met Mr. Jones, and all they talked about was peaches, pippins and dates."

Looking Forward.
"And darling," says the bridegroom, "you are going to put your bridal gown away in a trunk in the attic, I suppose?"
"Yes, indeed!" the bride says. "Mamma always said if you saved anything for seven years you would have use for it again."—Chicago Post.

An Invitation.
"I suppose," he ventured, "that you would never speak to me again if I were to kiss you?"
"Oh, George!" she exclaimed. "Why don't you get over the habit of always looking at the worst side of things."—London Tit-Bits.

Suitable Play.
"I am going to make my farewell tour in Shakespeare. What shall be the play—'Hamlet'? 'Macbeth'?"
"This is your sixth farewell tour, I believe."
"Well, yes."
"I would suggest 'Much Adieu About Nothing.'"

She Meant All Right.
Mistress (getting ready for reception)—
How does my new gown look in the back, Nora?
Maid—Beautiful, mum. Sure, they'll all be delighted when you leave the room.

Second Time.
Up in Vermont the hotel business is real business, and the man who takes a room and eats a meal at one of the hostleries is expected to pay for it without fail. If you don't believe it, take a run up to Vermont and try to beat the house bill. In one of the little towns of the State there is a hotel proprietor called Jolly Jones.

One morning after breakfast a guest was about to depart without paying his bill. Jolly walked slowly to the door with him and in a deadly tone said:
"Mister, if you should happen to lose your bank-roll between here and Randolph, you can remember that I didn't get any of it."—Popular Magazine.

A Doctor's Story.
A celebrated French doctor having successfully treated a little child during a dangerous illness, the mother of the patient went to his house to thank him.
"Doctor," said the lady, with tears in her eyes, "services such as yours are beyond reward, and therefore I scarcely know how to express my gratitude towards you. May I offer you this purse, which has been embroidered by my own hands?"
"Madam," replied the doctor, brusquely, "the study of medicine is not a matter of sentiment, but one which demands reward in hard cash. Little presents may serve to win friendship, but they are of no assistance in keeping up an establishment like mine?"

Deeply hurt by these words, the lady said in a constrained tone: "May I beg you, then, to name your fee?"
"Two thousand francs, madam."

Opening the embroidered purse, the lady drew out of it five one thousand franc notes. With a slight bow, she handed two of these to the doctor; then she replaced the remaining three notes in the purse, and left the room.
EMOTIONS AND TRADITIONS.

In different forms of language, every generation has been told: "The law of life is a law of pain." Also: "It is only through obstacles and difficulties that human life can be valuable." The spider can manage to weave the finest tissue that the eyes of man can see and admire. Nothing like that is manufactured by any human machinery. The universe is replete with wonders worked out by cosmical forces and animal or vegetal life, products of growth through aggregation or inward expansion. Even as a mere animal, man is a wonderful construction, recapitulating all the mechanisms of cosmical phenomena, and all the machinery that we may originate in the march of civilization. We are then provided with forces to perform all the good and all the evil imaginable. We have certain limitations along the line of evil and no limitations at all for good purposes. What we call pain is simply the product of what we have tried to do and had no right to do because injurious to healthy development.

What now about that perpetual ideal, preached to all generations, to the effect that only through harsh struggles can we accomplish much of anything? What have we done, after sixty or more centuries, of any great value, in the building up of healthy bodies, minds and souls? Why to assume, for instance, that it is so difficult to be good? Why not to realize, once for all, that goodness is the natural condition for all men on earth, as beauty is the natural condition of everything in the universe, outside of man? Why to place men as an antagonistic force to the rest of God's creation? About 200 generations have thus far tried that job. Is the job much of a success? The job is a complete failure. Even what we have to call goodness among men, even that is but a relation to the badness we have been constantly generating in the grand totality and ensemble of human development. We have attributed that to divine general ideals for some final good purpose. But oh, what a low conception that implies, in relation to the natural sublimities of The Soul Divine!

Please notice that when we have to erect a shanty in the wilderness or a cathedral in the city, we commence by outlining the structure on a piece of paper, with all the measurements and details. Then we see about having at hand the materials needed, then we dig the foundation. We then commence the building processes. Not until the building is about finished do we commence the ornamental or final touches, in and out. Have we acted in that way, or any approach to it, in what we should call "The Social Building?" Not an atom of it. We have saturated every nation, and each of us, with all conceivable forms of ornamentation. We don't even wish to know yet anything about the morality or equity required to have healthy nations in peace with the "Father of all Sublimities." Is not that deplorable? The class spirit is yet devouring the manhood and joy of all classes in each national group. We are all yet sick in body, mind and soul. We all remain sunk in the pandemonium of fatal disagreements.

Our modern progress remains saturated and congested with mountains of foolish or childish emotions and traditions. The truth is thus obscured or rendered inert. We mean the truth which goes to the bottom of human life, the truth which takes cognizance of all the constructive processes by which alone we can demolish the enervating influence of mere impulses and sentimentalities. Yes, we have domestic, racial, national, political and economic traditions. Their futility is self-evident from the fact that they have failed to give us a sensible environment, and have simply prolonged—
"The Dark Industrial Evolution" of all previous historical periods, with the malevolent influence of that class spirit which poisons all it touches. That class spirit is reflected in the turpitude and selfishness of all legislation through as many centuries as we may try to overhaul. The emotional flashes that now and then are exhibited, in trying to decrease our social deformities
* * * they have never produced any substantial social improvements.

No revolutionary movement, however sound in certain incidentals, no reform ideals, secular or religious, however earnestly preached or actualized, have ever yet placed humanity, nations and churches in peace with the "Truth preached by Jesus."
Yet its very simplicity, if incorporated in the laws of nations, would rapidly sweep out of existence all the fifty or more social wrongs which pester the life of all of us.

It has never paid, and it shall never pay, to work out our own salvation through any beneficent tricks of our own. Still less shall it pay to raise any group of individuals above the rest, through favoritism of any kind, private or collective. It is not through the lever of wealth, but through that of righteousness applied to all of us as children of the same Father, that humanity can march on to meet the symphonies of the universe. Not even the best of us can rise but in consonance with the symmetrical rise of all. We should grant to each other, in the name of human law, the bottom, cardinal rights that God grants to all men by the mere fact of their existence.

Centuries ago we already discovered that in the universe of forces and forms a good job could only be accomplished or finished, when sensibly and scientifically commenced, all intermediary steps to be correctly con-ected with each other. In the moral and spiritual realm we still imagine that we can afford to discard all science, all sense, all honesty, in the reconstruction of our pri-ivate and national development. No wonder that civilization remains yet a chaotic mass of discords at the mercy of the emotions and traditions which have never given humanity any solid peace, any manhood or joys worth bragging about. All is yet pandemonium. A disorderly bacchanal prevails over all human destinies. A blind march through dark, impassable forests and swamps! That is yet our crazy progress. A subversion of all scientific and artistic processes. That is still our human life, in all the essentials of the morality.
and equity of the Old and New Testament, which we fail to apply where it is most needed.

NOTICE.

All matter for this department must be in the hands of the Grand Secretary and Treasurer on or before the 28th day of the month in order to insure its use in the following issue.

New Haven, Conn., Div. No. 29.

New York, New Haven and Hartford, Shore Line Division, Third District—

The canal is one of the busiest pieces of single iron in the Western district.

Mt. Carmel has been opened up for three tricks; Congamond has three tricks now, and third at Southington has been put back.

Lots of freight moving our way.

Sister Skinner bid in third Mt. Carmel.

Bro. Linehart, at Milldale, was called to Pennsylvania where his wife was taken sick while visiting relatives. Bro. Zanky, relief agent, relieving him.

Our chief dispatcher’s mother is reported to be very sick. We all hope for the speedy recovery of Mrs. Halliday.

Start the new year right, with an up-to-date card; get after these new operators and line ‘em up. CERT. 509.

Midland Division—

A little personal interest will complete the membership on this division. If you are working with a non-member or the next station to one, try and get his application, if unsuccessful, ask some other brother, or several of them, to assist you. Hardly one of the few now out, but what can be convinced, if the right methods are pursued.

Only one bid out during all of last month, Bro. Hilborn going to the Branch Switch; Careyville not yet assigned.

Understand the genial agent at Putnam is running a “Telegraph School.”

Hampton is now solid with Bro. Williams, one of our latest.

The second oldest man on our roster is now Bro. Dwyer, of Manchester, whom we are glad to welcome. Brothers, we are gradually gathering them in. Get after Mr. Kearns, boys, I’ll buy if you land him.

Bro. James E. Lally has resumed at third tower No. 214 after several months lay-off.

Mr. Keach, agent, is reaping the benefit of our last schedule, without paying for it. Let’s all make an effort to get him.

The new line recently acquired by the “Midland” is solid, with the exception of Edward Atchison, agent Forestdale. He is a political power in his State. You fellows from Needham Junction to Douglas Junction convince him that you have done something for him and wish him to reciprocate.

Brother, your affection for your wife and children is reflected in the way you keep them protected by paying up in your dues and Mutual Benefit. What would become of them if your insurance was not paid and you were suddenly called from this earth? Pay your dues and Mutual Benefit dues promptly, and always have the satisfaction of knowing that those dependent upon you are safe.

“En.”

Providence, R. I., Div. No. 35.

The division meeting was large and enthusiastic. Both the general and local chairmen were present and made appropriate and telling remarks.

The spirit of Christmas was evidenced by a unanimous vote to send, as a Christmas present, a ton of coal and a turkey with all fixings, to Mrs. R. A. Brown, widow of a deceased member and secretary-treasurer of Div. No. 35.

December 20th, our regular meeting night, was also “melon” night. At this session the officers of the Benefit Association rendered their yearly reports, chief among which is that of the secretary-treasurer, which showed a membership of 96 in good standing.

The auditing committee paid the treasurer a most flattering, yet well deserved, compliment, when it said: “We found all bills and claims against the association, all moneys received and disbursed, and accounts kept in a very satisfactory manner.”

This report shows $1,307,63 received, and disbursements $193,58, of which $136,43 was for sick benefits and $57,15 expenses, leaving a net surplus for distribution among the members of $1,114.05, or $11.60 per capita, and forty-five cents in treasury to be carried forward to the 1914 account.

This is the best report the association has yet been able to render; justifies its usefulness and vindicates those who were instrumental in bringing it into existence, as a thing whose only purpose was to benefit all our members who participate in it. Each year shows an increase in membership; and at our last meeting for 1913, some 30 new members were added.

This is gratifying, but the increase should have been not less than 100 per cent.

The success attained was largely due to the efforts of Bro. W. J. Brenner, as president, and Bro. R. S. Eaton, as secretary-treasurer. These two officers were re-elected, with the old board of officers and directors, which speaks well for the good business judgment of our members.

Now let us work for a still better showing in 1914.

Bros. Geo. E. Joslin, A. H. Haddock and R. S. Eaton were appointed auditing committee by the chief telegrapher at our January meeting.

The candidacy of Bro. James M. Gaynor, as assemblyman for the fifth district of Rhode Island, was unanimously endorsed at this meeting.

Gaynor has been for many years and is still, an active and loyal member of Div. 35. We wish him success in the contest, thus honoring our division and the grand organization of which we are a part, also the district he would represent.

Other features of our meeting were the debate upon the question of interbidding, which was generally entered into and proved most interesting —both pro and con, as its varied features were introduced and defended.

Addresses by General Chairman Ross, and Local Chairman Joslin, were interesting, pointed and timely.

The attendance was up to the standard and there was no abatement in interest of those things which make for our general advancement all along the line.

A quiet but careful thought is being given to the selection and election of candidates for division officers which will occur at our February meeting. The general confidence and satisfaction which exists in the conduct of the division's affairs, is at least complimentary to the present board of officers. Harmony prevails, and if we are so fortunate as to have officers whose sole aim is to do right and handle affairs impartially, we are most fortunate and should assure them of unanimous support.

We are working for improved conditions all along the line and it is the part of our entire membership to come to the front and help.

In our general and local chairmen we have strong, capable representatives, whose motto is: "Your interests are ours," and we believe this is equally true of all our division officers.

Interesting meetings are planned for the future, don't fail to attend them if you can.

The secretary-treasurer, Bro. Eaton, advises that the increase in membership of the Beneficial Association for the new year is more than fifty per cent.

This is a splendid showing and indicates that slowly, yet surely, the members of our division are recognizing the grand work the association is doing. The more members it has the more good it can do, and every member of Division 35 should be a member.

First assistant chief telegrapher, Bro. Al. Conant, who went to Boston for an operation, which is reported as successful, is now at the Deaconess Hospital, doing as well as can be expected.

Bro. Farley, Pawtucket, reports his wife and son both sick, keeping him at home.

To all of our afflicted members and their families, we extend our sincere sympathy, hoping further advices will be reassuring as to speedy recovery.

Sister McInerney, "F" office, Providence, reported off sick January 26th.

Our sympathy goes out to Bro. E. L. Young, first trick towerman at Kingston. His trick being covered by Bros. Brenner and Callamer.

Bro. Frank Gardner goes to second Wickford Junction, on bid, relieved by Bro. H. A. Sevier, at third Valley Falls tower on bid.

Bro. W. H. Young, from relief to third trick towerman at Park St., Appleboro.

Our sympathy is extended to Bro. P. J. Keenan, agent, Pascoog, R. I., and family, owing to the death of their baby daughter on January 6th.

Bro. G. A. White, agent Dighton, Mass., in bed two weeks with bronchial trouble, now convalescent.

Bro. G. T. Walker, first "C" Fall River, temporarily in dispatcher's office at Taunton.

Bro. Spencer, Promenade Street tower, was off several days on account of sickness.

Bro. McKenna, agent Wood River Junction, has returned from a pleasant vacation in California. All are glad to see him back.

Bro. Vanderbeek assisted Mrs. Hamblin, manager, North Appleboro, Mass., three weeks during the holiday rush.

There is much to be accomplished in 1914 for the uplift and advancement of this grand organization. Let us get at it at once and get a good start.

A review of our work for 1913 is very gratifying to all who did what they could to make it so, but I am wondering how the non on the outside feels, or even those of our members who left it all for the other fellow to do. There should be a more active participation in the work to be done by these two factions.

Those who have assisted our officers to advance the welfare of our members and all interests of the division, are entitled to sincere thanks, which are herewith cordially extended.

J. D. V., Div. Cor.

N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R.—

Our December meeting was well attended. Bros. Ross, our general chairman, and Tiger, our local chairman, both present. Bro. Shields spoke of the advisability of extending Division 37 to West Haven, favoring such extension.

Bro. Leaman, secretary-treasurer, called the brothers attention to the importance of paying their dues promptly, and will have ready receipts for all.

Bros. Allen, Mellick and Hanequin were visitors at the local dispatcher's office this week. Will be glad to see any of the brothers at any time. We are proud of our new office and think it worth while looking over.
The Railroad Telegrapher.

We are having some telegraph line trouble lately, caused by static, makes work for some of us.

On Dec. 14, 1913, the two cabins on the Harlem River Branch were put in service. One located opposite Bungay tower and works in conjunction with Tower No. 3, the other located at east end of Harlem River yard.

The opening of the two cabins put in service the three-track service between Bungay tower and Harlem River yard.

Track four has been turned over to the contractors of the new bridge, which is to connect us with the Pennsylvania at Long Island City. Track two is now a single track service; trains running in either direction under staff control. Track one is an east-bound track between Harlem River yard and Bungay Street, the cabin at Bungay Street crossing trains over from one to four. Track three is normal.

The cabins are temporary jobs and have been so bulletinized, and at present writing all tricks are held down by extra men. Two of them we can call brothers, the others we hope to be able to in the near future.

The staff machines located at the two cabins are interlocked and but one staff can be taken out of either machine at a time. If the cabin at Harlem River yard has a staff out Bungay cannot get one until staff is put back in either machine.

The staff is a piece of steel about six inches long and cut with several sets of grooves which fit into a set of rollers and lock up both machines when staff is taken out; when staff is put back it goes through another set of rollers which reverse the first set, thereby unlocking the two machines.

Bro. Tiffany spent Christmas holidays with his folks in New York State, Bro. Petheck covering.

Relief operator, Bro. Hainquet, holding down first at Bungay Cabin. A new man, Bro. Flannery, just in from Panama, holding down first, Harlem River yard, says: "Boys, American girls sure do look good."

Slight changes are to be made at Oak Point Tower No. 4. The desk is to be moved to face the tracks. This is so the brothers there won't miss any of the "Nicolettes" going by and forget to "OS" them.

New automatic signal line now in service to Bridgeport.

Track two at N. R. Junction is now straight and a new cross-over from two to four, west of the old one, which has been taken out.

All the switchboards are being relettered to read C1 and R1, which is the north side, and C2 and R2, which is the south.

New automatic transformers will probably be put in service January 25th.

Bros. Reif, Bradner, Doolin and French still charge the lightning arresters.

Have not heard of any sickness among the brothers. all must be well.

CERT. 123, Div. Cor.

The members of this division will hold their annual ball at Hibernian Hall, Worthington St., Springfield, Mass., Friday, February 20th. We hope every brother and sister that can come will be there, as they will certainly enjoy themselves. We had a good time last year and expect to make this our banner ball. Bro. J. Casey, from Old Furnace, says he will attend if he has to walk home. Bro. Patterson is harvesting his ice crop at State Line. Bro. D. P. Sweeney, Beacon Park, has returned from a short vacation. Bro. Boyce, West Warren, was at our last meeting; we are always glad to have Charlie with us. Mrs. E. M. Prentice, on two weeks' vacation, was relieved by Mr. Ireland. Miss Susie Sheridan has returned to "Q," Pittsfield, after a long stay in New York and Brooklyn. Get an up-to-date, Su, and we will welcome you back. Bro. Cardinal was off a week with a severe cold. Sister Sibley, at Worcester, is there when it comes to getting helpers for the passenger and freight trains, no delay is her motto. We hope to have Bill Bendford with us at the next meeting; wake up, Ben, and keep your tower solid. Bro. T. P. Donavan, tower 43, returned from a short vacation spent at Bayonette, N. J., with his uncle, who was inaugurated mayor there January 1st, Bro. W. D. Brewer covering his position during his absence.

The B. & A. has taken off several freights to reduce expenses, but there seems to be as many extra freights as usual, if not more.

Bro. Diefendorf, first trick, tower No. 60, State Line, has been sent to Albany at nights to help in getting reports of our western connections and make-up of trains, Bro. Wm. H. Sweet covering first trick, tower 60. High Bridge has again been put on three eight-hour shifts temporarily, instead of one. Bro. H. D. Whitney, chief signalman, on first; Mr. Service on second, and Bro. H. G. Segelken on third trick, his regular job.

Operators bidding in different positions please send a copy of your bid to Bro. M. J. Walsh, first West Springfield yard office, so he can protect your bid. We had a large number of members at our December meeting, and earnestly wish all the members, who can, will attend the meetings regularly, and start the new year right by paying your dues early.

The attention of members of Division 41 is called to Article VI, Section V, of the Revised By-Laws of Division 41, in which it is expressly stated that no member of Division 41, who is not a member of the Relief Association, shall receive financial aid from the division.

Trusting that all members will work for the best interests of the association, I have the honor to remain, fraternally yours, W. H. DAKERS.

Approved, B. G. TUCK, President.

Supt. Frank H. Flynn, of the Fitchburg division, was given a surprise at his home in Somerville on Thursday evening January 8th, by being presented with a silver service which was the gift of agents and telegraphers on the southern division, on which Mr. Flynn had been trainmaster until October of last year.

Mr. Flynn began as a telegraph operator on the southern division in 1885, and has worked up to train dispatcher, chief train dispatcher, trainmaster and to the position he now holds as superintendent of the Fitchburg division, one of the largest on the B. & M. system. He is one of the most popular officials in this territory, and the southern division boys were sorry to lose him. The testimonial committee were: Bros. J. J. Carney, S. C. Wiswall, T. W. Cummings and F. M. Morgan.

Bro. Payne, third at Waltham, has bid in Weston agency.

Bro. Morse, of North Billerica, has been assigned as ticket agent and operator at Hudson, vice Bro. Osborn, who bid in Concord yard.

Bro. Rayno, Weston, has bid in Gilbertville agency.

Chief Telegrapher T. J. Fogarty was confined to his home with a severe cold for five days early in January. Glad nothing serious developed.

On account of the many improvements being made on the roadbed and bridges of the Massachusetts Central division, there will be great doings between Boston and Northampton this coming spring.

The so-called Order of Towermen seem to think that we want to break up their local snap with the company. The O. R. T. is an international organization and simply wants the first clause in its schedule lived up to. All we want is cooperation with all classes of the same nature. The Towermen's Association is simply being used for a cat's paw, and when done with them can be thrown over, as they have no backing, and are used to keep us divided. They are given recognition and when done with will be dropped.

In the death of Bro. M. E. Doran, Division 41 has lost a valuable member. In the division room he was always ready with good advice, modest and unassuming. His charities were far wide, and many a Western Union and Postal telegrapher, as well as our own unfortunate members, received his little bit. He was a member of the old Bay State Division No. 65, and since Division 41 started has been an up-to-date member. He will be sadly missed. The following resolutions were adopted in respect to his memory:

Boston, Mass., Dec. 30th, 1913.

Bro. Richards is covering agency at "Cin."

Bro. Cyr bid in clerk and operator at Stolyoke.

Bro. Bonner, first "DA," off a few days recently, relieved by "Mr." Wells.

Understand the brothers at "NO" have opened a cold storage plant.

The nons on this division are still enjoying the raise the O. R. T. got for them, without making any effort to help the cause along.
No passenger trains, but some freight were discontinued on this division and others changed to better accommodate the business.

Fort Hill closed January 1st, Bro. Mulvey on spare list at present.

We have to thank Bro. Swan for this write-up. Putney third on bulletin.

All are glad to see Lewie Caton back at work.

Brothers, we wish to have a write-up in The Telegrapher each month, and it will require the co-operation of all of the members of this division to make it interesting to all concerned.

Remember there are some of the brothers out along the road who are working second trick and who find it difficult to attend meetings. Now these brothers would appreciate it very much to know what is going on along the line. Start the new year right by sending in what news items you can, so we will be represented in The Telegrapher every month. Brothers on the west send something in.

McKeensport, formerly two tricks, now twelve hours; we hope business picks up and Bro. Daugherty will soon be restored to first.

Rankin, formerly three tricks, now two tricks, Bro. Reigel bumping Mr. Wilson, Homestead.

Bro. E. Keck, first at "JC," now night yardmaster at Newell, we all wish him success.

Bro. L. G. Murren, first at "MR" tower, now agent and operator at Smithton.

Quite an interesting meeting was held in the lodge room of Division No. 52 Saturday night, January 10th, twenty-one members being present. Refreshments were served, and perfect harmony prevailed throughout the evening. It is hoped that there will be as much interest displayed in the next.

Saturday evening, February 14th, we will elect new officers for the division. It behooves us to choose men that will handle the offices of the division in an acceptable manner and uphold the reputation of old 52.

Truro, N. S., Div. No. 66.

We have missed our old correspondent for quite a while; awake, old sport. Traffic is pretty swift, plenty of passenger specials on the go.

Bro. McManaman, of Salt Springs, on the sick list, was relieved by Mr. Gunn.

Mr. Baker appointed agent at "FA," Bro. Hunter relieving him at "P."

Bro. West spent Christmas at his home, relieved by Mr. Kefe.

Bro. H. Patton has been appointed agent at "WC," vice Bro. Roulston.

Bro. McPherson received a box of "bug juice" recently from a wholesale liquor dealer, labeled "Xmas greetings," which he promptly returned.

Bro. Fraser, chairman investigating committee, has been pretty busy lately investigating matters concerning the brothers of this division.

Diapers and operators installed in the new station at "GO" gladly welcomed the change from the old "spook house."

Bro. Beazley spent New Year's at his home on the "DAR."

Bro. Sweet recently visited old friends at "HC."

Bro. Fleming failed to land the big Moose during the hunting season.

Bro. Hamilton is off duty awaiting his well-earned pension. We are sorry to lose him. He had been one of the "faithfuls."

Bro. Dickie and Leary relieved on vacation by Mr. Lethbridge and Mr. Colburne.

Get after the nons, boys, and remember "no card, no favors."

Old Timer.

Boston, Mass., Div. No. 89.

At the January night meeting Chief Kerns resigned the office of chief telegrapher, which he so ably filled for the past two years, not having missed either day or night session during his entire term, which is a record certainly to be proud of. It will be impossible for him to attend in the future owing to having bid in the second trick operator's position in the dispatcher's office in Boston, where chances for further advancement are very good, and rather than be classed among the absentees holding office he resigned, which was reluctantly accepted with a vote of thanks. He lately received a commission from President Perham for his organizing ability and therefore will still remain an active member.

Bro. Bodie and Tuck, representing Division No. 41, were present and spoke in relation to a joint legislative committee. It was called to notice that the O. R. T. will not support "House Bill No. 453, Commonwealth of Massachusetts," providing for one day rest in seven without loss of pay, in that it is short-sighted in effect and does not include all of the employees in our class, craft or calling. The personnel of this committee representing Division No. 89, was changed and now consists of Bros. Mullen, Drummond and Enos, Bro. DeWar having resigned therefrom.

Bro. Ross again gave interesting reports at both meetings as general chairman.

Bro. Enos by virtue of his office of first vice-chief, presided at both meetings in lieu of Chief Kerns, resigned.

A communication to Chief Kerns from a member employed on the B. & A., requests the publication of the names of the five oldest members of Div. 89, is presumed to mean in point of membership, which are as follows: Bros. J. P. Riley, J. H. Steffey, J. F. Francis, C. U. Johnson and T. E. Delaney. Request received too late for January issue.

N. Y., N. H. & H., Boston Division Notes—

The following changes have taken place during the past month:

Bro. Nass, first Clarendon Illills, is away sick and Bro. Peterson has gone to Florida for his health. We hope for their speedy recovery.

Midland Division Notes—

Bro. C. F. Green was the successful bidder on third trick, Norwood Jct. tower, vice Bro. Murphy, resigned.

Bro. Graichen and Evans have transferred from Div. 29 to Div. 89; both propose to attend regularly.

Bro. B. F. Allen bid in season position as towerman at Douglas Jct. cabin during the absence of Bro. Balcom, who, I understand, was recently married.

Bro. Duncan is happily enanced at Milford Station. We would be pleased to transfer him to Div. 89.

Bro. Cy. Pendleton has tendered his resignation as agent at Turnerville, Conn. He will on his own account enter extensively in the lumber sawing business in his old home State, Maine.

Bro. Covert, East Douglas, says there will be something doing, soon as his hens begin to lay. Hope they won't get lost en route to Bill Smith Prov. 35.

Unionville is all but "union."

Only one delinquent reported on this division. "Good stuff."

Bro. Pendleton, agent at Franklin, has a new Cadillac touring car, which he puts to good use.

Bro. Mooney's, agent Norfolk, vacation did not mature as the local papers had it.

BARDOL, Div. Cor.

Meridian, Miss., Div. No. 94.

M. & O. R. R., Mobile Division—

Those last two write-ups looked good to me and pleased other members of our division, many of whom have given the cheering advice of "keep it up." Brethren, the fall rush is over, so let's get busy and line up solid. Bro. R. M. Holmes, our efficient assistant local chairman at Artesia, has secured nine applications since the first of the year. Keep after the nons until they are reduced to a minimum.

I have been unable to get a line from south of Meridian. Wake up, brothers, and let us know what you are doing.

Bros. Holmes, of Artesia, and B. B. Morris, of Eoline, have our thanks for valuable items.

There is to be a big O. R. T. banquet at Artesia February 14th.

Montgomery Division—

Mr. Martin bid in first Eoline, and Bro. Caldwell third Maplesville. We are glad to see Bro. Harris back there again. He has been in ill-health for several months.

Bro. Buffington is back at West End yards after an absence of several weeks.

R. B. Battson, agent Holt, Ala., off a few days, was relieved by Bro. J. C. Simms, relief agent.

Bro. J. M. Elliott, fourth Artesia, while working as dispatcher in Tuscaloosa, was relieved by Bro. P. K. Green, a new man from the North Eastern, who also relieved Mr. Smith, of Columbus, a few days while visiting in St. Louis.

Brethren, don't fail to hail the stranger coming into your gates and inquire of him if he has the proper credentials and if he has not an O. R. T. card impress upon him the necessity of obtaining one at once.

Oakola South—

We are indeed glad to welcome Bro. G. W. Hunter, of Oakola.

Bro. R. S. Sweatman, second Muldon, bid in third Reform, made vacant by the deplorable death of Bro. King, Bro. P. K. Green taking second Muldon, pending bid. "Bro." Weaver, at Muldon, sounds powerful good, too, and it's now Bros. Paul Montgomery and J. T. Owen, at Starkville; also Bro. Bryan, at Wabala; all good men whom we heartily welcome to support us in the upbuilding of working conditions and maintaining a high standard of brotherly love. Glad also to be able to call G. H. Lawhorn, of Meridian, brother.

Sorry to hear of the illness of Sister Dawkins, wife of our good Bro. R. F. Dawkins, and hope for her speedy recovery.

Now, boys, don't forget to drop me a card during the month, for every local item helps.

CERT. 247.

Toronto, Hamilton & Buffalo Ry.—

Sunday, December 14th, will be a meeting which will be remembered by those who listened to the stirring address delivered by Bro. D. Campbell, Third Vice-President, who will no longer be connected with the O. R. T., much to our sorrow, but will be Canadian General Counsel, a position which he is qualified to fill in every way.

Bro. Campbell spoke for over an hour and a half and was listened to with marked attention by every one present and we were only sorry that he had to quit so soon, but railroad schedules are inexorable and he had to leave on a Grand Trunk train a little after six p. m.

In the course of his remarks Bro. Campbell complimented No. 155 on the excellent showing we had made in all departments since our organization a couple of years ago.

All the members of our Order over which Bro. Campbell had jurisdiction, will join with us, in wishing him the best of prosperity in his new position, and what's our loss in one way we gain in another.

Bro. Campbell was preceded by Bro. L. M. Eddy, General Chairman Grand Trunk Division No. 1, Marcellus, Mich., to whom we listened with pleasure. “Come again, old chap.”

On Sunday, January 11th, we were privileged to listen to another great speaker, a great leader among Hamilton’s labor unions, Mr. Samuel Landers, he speaking to us for about fifty minutes. His address was greatly appreciated. Mr. Landers spoke of those members who allowed themselves to become delinquent just because they could not see any tangible results each and every day.

The meetings are now being better attended than they ever were, as there were sixteen out to the December meeting and nineteen to the January meeting, which is quite encouraging to the old stand-bys and the officers.

New hours have now been put in effect on this road, which are very nice for some, but a hardship for others and something will have to be done soon.

I must congratulate the boys on the Grand Trunk for the spirit that seems to be pervading on that old pike now. A year or so ago you would hardly ever see a line from the G. T. R., now there is page after page of it. Keep it up.

We now have block signals in good operation between Welland and Hamilton and they are giving good satisfaction. Understand it is the purpose of the management to extend them further next year.

Hamilton nights after being opened for some five years, has now been closed.

Bro. R. H. Lampman, nights Coyle, has got his holidays after about six months’ delay, relieved by Bro. N. C. Burdick, recently appointed to Fenwick nights, relieved by H. L. Chapman, who has been relieving the different agents and operators between Waterford and Welland.

The real cold weather has set in and trains are more or less delayed, especially those running from Buffalo.

Bro. R. F. Richards has been appointed agent at Vinemount.

Every member should now pay up promptly and keep up to the minute. Always remember the motto, “No cards, no favors.”

Eda.

Grand Trunk Ry.

Notice to Members—

Please bear in mind the Grand Division will revise its mailing list on February 28th, after which date only members whose dues and Mutual Benefit assessments are fully paid up will receive the Journal. Therefore, the undersigned would appreciate it very much if every member of Div. No. 1 would make it a point to pay up in full not later than the date mentioned. If all concerned would do so the secretary would have more time to look after the few nons that are scattered here and there.

Also members of Div. No. 1 located on the Grand Trunk proper who participated in benefits through the last schedule (train dispatchers included) will please not overlook the matter of remitting their first month’s increase to the treasurer, Bro. D. L. Shaw, London, Ontario, thereby enabling him to square all debts incurred through the schedule negotiations which so many were benefited.

Local chairmen and others accepting applications from applicants for membership in the Order will save this office and that of the Grand Secretary and Treasurer, a lot of unnecessary correspondence if they would see to it that every applicant filled out the Mutual Benefit form properly before sending same to this office. Every question on the M. B. D. form should be answered, and answered properly before accepting. In answering question No. 9 the applicant should give the beneficiary’s own name in full, also postoffice address. A number of applicants, when naming their mother as beneficiary merely give the name as Mrs. Jas. Smith or Mrs. J. Jones or whatever the name may be. Please note that that kind of an answer will not do. When making mother the beneficiary, give her own name in full and say whether it’s Elizabeth Jones, Mary Smith or whatever the name may be. Give the party’s own name in full. In every case the name of the beneficiary should be given in full. The M. B. D. form for nine out of every ten applicants has to be returned for correction and that alone takes up a whole lot of a person’s time.

In conclusion, let me remind you that it’s up to the membership to give the company the best possible service.

With best wishes, I am, fraternally,

D. L. SHAW, G. S. & T.

Our second monthly meeting was held at Stratford on the evening of January 2d. There were forty members present, which, although not quite as good an attendance as we had the first meeting, when we had fifty-seven, was very good, considering it was held at a time when the agents had their yearly and monthly reports to get out.
General secretary and treasurer, Bro. D. L. Shaw, of London, opened the meeting with a short address, after which the orchestra favored us with a few selections.

Bro. and Local Chairman W. Middleton, of Bres- lan, then read the new scale of wages affecting the members on his territory, while local chairman, Bro. G. E. McTaggart, of Blyth, did the same in regard to his territory. Numerous questions were asked by the boys in regard to interpretation of the clauses regarding overtime, etc., and were answered satisfactorily by these two gentlemen.

Bro. D. Campbell then took the floor and for two hours and a half addressed the operators, agents and train dispatchers present, not only from the standpoint of the men themselves, but also from the standpoint of the company by which they are employed. He reviewed the struggles of this organization from its infancy up to the present time and pointed out how favorable the attitude of the railway officials towards organization is today to what it was some twenty years ago, when, if a meeting like this was called it had to be held on the quiet. He cited cases where he had held meetings himself in a box car, and transportation to attend same was an unheard of thing. He told of the events which led up to the recent good settlement obtained by the G. T. R. tele- graphers and of the assurance which he had personally given to President E. J. Chamberlain, of the G. T. R., that it would be the best investment that the Grand Trunk had ever made, as it would result in better service all around on the part of the employees.

He urged the members present to do all in their power to back him up in the promise he had made Mr. Chamberlain and show by their efforts that they were doing their utmost to prove themselves worthy of the A-1 treatment that they were being accorded by the company. He made a profound impression upon his hearers and you could have heard a pin drop throughout the whole address.

Following Mr. Campbell's address a two-piece orchestra composed of Mr. Will Plummer, pianist, and Mr. Hugh Stewart, violinist, gave several very pleasing selections, which added very much to the enjoyment of the meeting. Following this an informal discussion took place in regard to schedule matters, after which the meeting broke up.

The next meeting will be held in Odd Fellows' Hall, on the third Friday in February, at which it is expected a good program of O. R. T. musical talent will be put on. Mr. Campbell is retiring from the third vice-presidency of the Order to enter a wider field, that of General Counsel, he having qualified as a legal practitioner last September and will in future look after the interests of the telegraphers, also of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, in a legal capacity.

The Stratford Herald of January 3d gave the meeting a column notice, especially featuring Bro. Campbell's address.

At the conclusion of the meeting, on motion of Bro. D. L. Shaw, seconded by Bro. H. P. Ward, of West Toronto, a vote of thanks was tendered Bro. D. Campbell for his excellent address and for his kindness in setting aside other business in order to attend our meeting.

Bro. Campbell responded very feelingly, saying it was a pleasure for him to again meet so many of his old friends, some of whom he had worked with when he first started his career as telegraph operator on the Fifteenth District.

Among the members present were: W. A. Cusack, Blackwell; F. McCordie, Camlachie; W. Middleton, Forest; G. S. Cline, Thedford; R. Harvey, Parkhill; W. J. Dore, Lucan; T. S. Hill, Granton; A. J. Casson, St. Marys Jct.; W. Rife, St. Pauls; Mers. G. Hodgins, A. Webster, J. Stinson, C. C. Leavitt, E. H. Trehewey, A. C. Harris, J. D. Craig, of Stratford; W. Crearar, Shakespeare; W. A. Cober and A. Weinert, New Hamburg; W. Waugh and W. Russel, Baden; I. C. Laschinger, Petersburg; A. E. Robinson and C. Ober, Berlin; W. Middleton, Breslau; J. T. Cameron and G. H. Milne, Georgetown; H. P. Ward, West Toronto; W. Brandle, Thorndale; J. D. Hodgins, Goderich; G. E. McTaggart, Blyth; H. G. Walton, Brantford; R. Middleton, Newport; F. McConnell, Listowel; J. Roe, Mt. Forest; G. W. Manning, Sebringville, and T. Rumble, Elmira. There may have been one or two more whose names we did not get.

Be sure, boys, you get your applications in for passes one week in advance of each meeting. Chief Dispatcher Culligan insists on this, and as he was good enough to set back trains so as to enable you all to take in the meeting and stopped them at local stations to let you off you should show your appreciation by complying with his instructions.

Second, Fourth and Fifth Districts—

From the outlook at this end of the line, everything points to a very prosperous year for the telegraphers, and with the new schedule in effect the first of the year we are doubly sure of this.

We hope that every man will do the right thing from this time on, both by their organization and by the company, never letting an opportunity pass to increase his own efficiency, thus paving the way for bettering his own conditions.

The writer had the pleasure of attending a meeting in the Temple building, at 301 St. Dominique street, Montreal, Que., on the eve of January 8th, thirty-one being present and a very interesting discussion of matters important to the telegrapher were gone into.

Local Chairman Talbot was chairman, and our general chairman addressed us, explaining the rules and advising all concerned to give their best interests to the service.

Bro. Wood, with his usual energy, took a very prominent part in all discussions.

We were all very much disappointed that our vice-president was unable to attend.

Bro. Fortin brought out some points and new ideas, particularly as to who was to make out the bills for the milk to be forwarded on the early morning trains.
Bro. Roux, it is understood, is handing poor Cupid a package by taking unto himself a wife. However, we wish the brother unlaid happiness and hope to see him on hand at the next meeting with a large box of cigars.

Brothers, do not forget that regular meetings have been arranged for the Friday in every second month, beginning with March 27th at Montreal.

The committee appointed to make the arrangements will entertain you royally, and wish everyone who can get away to be in attendance.

Notice as to hall, etc., will be mailed to you all in due time.

Cert. 899.

Fifteenth District—

The Sunday overtime clause in the new schedule has been ruled that a man coming on duty in his regular hours on Sunday be paid pro rata for the hours worked, based on a twenty-six-day month and eleven-hour day. If required to work through his meal hour he would be entitled to 30 cents for one hour’s overtime and if required to work twelve hours he would get 30 cents for the twelfth hour, which would be straight overtime. If a man does not come on in his regular hours, but is required to come some time through the day to attend a passenger train he would be entitled to 30 cents for the first hour and pro rata for any additional hours he might be required to work. Be fair and considerate and the rules will be lived up to. We should not contend for the minimum for first hour on Sunday when coming on in regular hours, according to the company’s interpretation.

Bro. Eddy, having in mind more important things which the committee will be called upon to adjust, accepted this ruling, considering that the situation could be used to our advantage in other matters in the future.

A night operator let off by dispatcher for his meal hour and asked for “OS” of a train registered there during his meal hour, demurred at giving same and told dispatcher he would put in an overtime slip if required to give “OS” of that train. He was put right at once. Had he persisted in putting in that slip he would have been disciplined by chief dispatcher. The organization could not afford to lose its spirit of fairness in taking upon such a matter for adjustment. Every member should uphold the organization on such a basis and prove to the officers of the company that they are not making a mistake in our recognition and that the service is benefited by the organization of the men, thus paving the way to future benefits for us all.

Bro. Eddy hopes to be able, with the assistance of the fair-minded members on this division, to prove to the company that we are worthy of respect and consideration. Without this support it will be very difficult to adjust grievances and conduct future negotiations. Do not contend for things which may be unreasonable, although the schedule in its literal meaning may provide for them.

We have not been able in the past to come together and discuss these things. We are holding meetings now every month at certain points to get the boys interested. At the Toronto meeting, January 19th, there was about half a dozen and at Brantford, January 22d, about fifteen. There is no excuse for such slim attendance when passes can be had for the asking and no opposition on the part of the officials in regard to relieving members for these meetings. Get out to the meetings and get your minds broadened out and get acquainted with your neighbors. It will do you more good than you may think.

Another matter I would call to your attention is the attitude which some of you bear towards the dispatcher who relieves you for your meal hour. Some are narrow enough to imagine that he is trying to do you an injustice because he does relieve you when it is possible, even though you would sooner have the overtime than the hour off. He would not be doing his duty if he allowed you to make overtime at the expense of the company when it is unnecessary, and as he is being closely checked by the chief dispatcher he would soon get into serious trouble if he persisted in that sort of work, and it is right up to the dispatchers to show by their record that it is safe, as far as the company’s interests are concerned, to permit the inclusion of them in the next O. R. T. schedule and it is decidedly to your benefit to have them included as soon as possible. Co-operation should be your motto.

Old No. 7 being discontinued between Stratford and Sarnia Tunnel means less overtime for the agents on the west end, but it gives them their evenings to spend as they like. If you have any suggestions to make in regard to improvements on present schedule give them to your local chairman. He will gladly consider anything you put up to him and if it sounds reasonable will bring it before the committee with a view of having it included next time. Already some of the members have made some very good suggestions.

Lots of relieving operators idle, and applications being received from men laid off by other roads. If we were not under the protection of an up-to-date O. R. T. schedule, with our seniority rights respected, some would have a slim chance of holding their positions when so many experienced men are looking for an opening. Keep your dues paid up, boys, and the Order will do the rest. You can not expect protection if you hold back on dues as some of you did last term. Remember you have only two months from the beginning of each term to pay both current dues and M. B. D. assessments. If not paid by the end of the second month your membership and insurance policy both lapse, then if anything happens you, your beneficiary is the one to suffer. You men with families or aged parents depending on you should remember this.

Bro. W. J. Hodgins, Guelph Jct. nights, bid in Chesley days, but later decided to remain at the junction, there being too much difference in salary.

Bro. W. Craig, Malton, off sick for a few days, was relieved by Bro. R. Knox, who later relieved Bros. Krapp and Reynolds.
Bro. W. Rife took a trip to Detroit recently, relieved by Bro. Connel, from Pinkerton, relieved by Mr. Blyth, from Hepworth, a newly-classed operator.

One new member this month, Bro. C. Noecker, agent at Blair, the youngest telegrapher on the Ontario lines.

Thedford Station was burned to the ground recently. Bros. Cline and Aitchison have a private car now in place of a station. Geo. says he is going to attach it to the mixed when he goes on a vacation and go right along with it.

Bro. Knapp, at Berlin, just served five days for failure to display order board for block on passenger train. Geo. says it was frozen; had to be hammered into position. This case likely to be taken up.

Bro. Laschinger, Petersburg, also served five days and Bro. Reynolds, at St. Jacobs, is serving five days for other alleged offenses, which goes to prove that the boys are expected from now on to hit the ball and not be caught napping.

We were pleased to hear our old friend, Bro. Billy Duff, of C. P. R., Winnipeg, in on phones at Toronto a few nights ago. Bill was laid off till business picks up, like several other good men.

Toronto Terminals and Sixteenth District

The meeting held in the Labor Temple, Toronto, December 6th, was well attended, about forty members being present, some having come from as far as Brockville and Sarnia. This should be a good example to those living nearer to turn out to the meetings and get acquainted.

Bro. R. W. Groves, Markham, acted as secretary and Bro. Blackwell occupied the chair, introducing Bro. Eddy, our new general chairman, who reviewed the recently-concluded and successful negotiations with the company. After hearing Bro. Eddy give his address we think we have appointed the right man to the office of general chairman and that he will put forth his best efforts for the benefit of the membership.

Bro. Campbell, our retiring Third Vice-President, followed and gave a very interesting address on the benefits of organization and the many means by which such benefits may be obtained. He also referred to the recent negotiations and reminded the members that it was now their duty to secure every dollar's worth of business possible for the company and thereby show the management who had granting such a handsome increase and good conditions that it was a good investment. From his experience with Mr. Chamberlain and his superintendents he had every faith in them carrying out the new schedule with fairness to all concerned.

A vote of thanks to Bro. Campbell for his past long and fruitful service to Div. No. 1 was moved by Bro. Ward, West Toronto, and unanimously carried by a standing vote.

Bro. Grainger, Scarboro Jct.; Bro. Middleton, Breslaw, and Bro. Cowan, Berlin, N. H., also spoke briefly, referring to the good work of Bro. Campbell and expressing deep regret at his retirement from the office of Third Vice-President. We understand Bro. G. D. Robertson, general chairman C. P. Div. No. 7, succeeds him, and we extend to him our heartiest welcome and hope that his work may be rewarded by the same good results which have attended Bro. Campbell in his past years of office.

By a unanimous vote it was decided to hold monthly meetings at Toronto on the third Monday of each month and a committee composed of Bros. Ralston, Ward and Blackwell was appointed to arrange for renting a hall, etc.

The next regular meeting, held January 19th, was not so well attended, Bros. Eddy and Blackwell being unable to be with us, the former being on other duties in Montreal and the latter unable to get relief.

In their absence Bro. Ward, West Toronto, took charge and read a communication from Bro. Eddy, explaining some clauses of the schedule which were not heretofore quite clearly understood. He also advised fairness and judgment in the matter of overtime, meal hours, etc., which we hope will be exercised by all concerned. We look for a large turnout at our next meeting, February 16th, as Bro. Eddy will now attend each meeting and introduce some interesting features which will make it worth while for everybody to be present.

Bro. Black, Mimico, transferred to Burlington Jct. nights, relieved at "MC" nights by Mr. Wilcox, whom we hope to see in line soon.

Bro. Lund, Strachan ave. nights, is on a trip to the old country, relieved by Mr. Shantz.

The Terminal dispatchers have been transferred from their old headquarters at the "Don" to Supt. Farrell's office, where complete telephone dispatching equipment has been installed. Bro. W. J. Fletcher goes to "DO" days and M. J. O'Brien nights.

---

London and Hamilton Division, Seventeenth District

The nons are becoming a thing of the past on this division. It is now Bros. Stobbs, St. George, Hodgins, Lynden and Vrooman, Copetown.

Bro. Steedman is now at St. Catharine's.

Mr. F. A. Rutherford, chief dispatcher at London, is one of the most popular officials on the division. He lives up to the letter of all agreements, and is entitled to the best service we can give him.

Ingersoll days and nights, Paris Jct. nights and Caledonia nights, on bulletin; Bro. Wade, of Hyde Park Jct., is the probable man for Ingersoll days, and Bro. Atkinson, for Paris Jct. nights.

The new seniority lists are now out, and the boys will soon know their exact standing.

As Mr. Chamberlain has consented to set aside $200,000 to increase our wages, we should appreciate it enough to give the very best possible service, assist the management in every way and help to make for our line a name second to none.

Copies of the new schedule have been distributed and all the workings have been explained at the meetings held at various points recently.

Bro. Arnup, of Harrisburg, off on holidays recently, Bro. Meredith going on days, relieved by E. L. Kinder, later by Bro. Newman, from Watford.

Wish some of the boys east of Hamilton would send me a few items about the 14th of each month, so I could get them in on this. It is a hard matter to keep posted on the doings on another division, when it is just a case of "dig it up yourself."

Owing to the extremely stormy weather, the meeting held in London at City Hotel, January 3d, was not as largely attended as desirable, but made up in enthusiasm for the lack of numbers.

Bro. Campbell was present, and after a few fitting introductory remarks by Bro. Shaw, was introduced as the speaker of the evening. Bro. Campbell opened his address by advising us to secure a proper place to hold our meetings, and then came directly to the point in regard to the working of the Order. Bro. Campbell paid a high tribute to our local chairman, and regretted the fact that he was unable to be with us at our last meeting. He brought to our attention that a meeting is soon to be held in Ottawa for the purpose of discussing the eight-hour day for the telegraphers all over the country, and spoke optimistically in reference to the probability of this being obtained for us.

His address led us, step by step, as to the progress our Order has made; then confining his remarks more closely to local conditions and the Order. Bro. Campbell touched upon the matter of the Mutual Benefit in connection with the O. R. T., proving the beauty of this feature, paying as it has, since its inception, the magnificent sum of $1,000,000 in insurance to the widows and orphans of deceased members. He gave us in concise form the history of the nine-hour work day law in the United States. He also gave us some particulars of the meeting held recently in regard to the distribution of $100,000 set aside for that purpose.

Bro. Campbell scored us somewhat in so much that only 60 per cent of the men had given their local chairman particulars of their duties. He strongly advised that we hold a meeting at least once a month, and stated very impressively that we men of this division have in the past denied ourselves many privileges owing to our indifference. He also advised us to develop the social side of our nature, illustrating his remarks by giving instances of where whole communities had benefited to a very high degree.

Coming to the point of our recent negotiations which took place between our committee and the officials of our company, he touched upon the train dispatcher question and fully defined the position of the committee to the satisfaction of all present.

In closing Bro. Campbell paid a glowing tribute to his successor in office, Bro. G. D. Robertson.

After a very interesting round table conference, the meeting was closed by a standing vote of thanks for his very able remarks.

Arrangements are being made for a permanent place in which our meetings are to be held, and we look forward to a series of very interesting meetings, and all who can, are invited to attend, as you will not regret it. Let us get together and show that Stratford has not the only division which can do business.

I am indebted to Bro. Sussex, of Komoka, for the minutes of the meeting, and to Bros. Malcolm and Kerton for some of the news, for which I tender sincere thanks.

DIV. COR., CERT. 1458.

Twentieth District, B. & G.—

On January 4th Brantford dispatchers took over the Twenty-first District, Stratford to Pt. Dover and Pt. Rowan Branch, which has lately been handled by London dispatchers. Bro. Owens, Brantford, relieved Bros. Rodgers, Walton and Stone while they went over their new territory. Car distributing for Twentieth and Twenty-first Districts is also being done from Brantford now, which makes it a pretty busy joint.

Grand Trunk Pacific Ry.

Lake Superior Division, Districts One and Two—
As the Christmas holidays are over now and everybody has got down to work again, and the millstone has still kept rolling the same, some of the boys feel better and some feel worse, for it seems natural for some fellows to go a little bit deeper than their pockets and others to be a little more easy and have some left when they return to their work, and as this winter has been a rather hard one for a good many who have been out of work and it being very hard to get, should be a good advice for all to be more careful in the future. The brothers and others who have been fortunate in having steady work this winter should feel grateful, as it is a very trying thing to be without money or work, and the man who is steady and always on the job is the kind of employe the railroads and other companies want.

Now that it is time for each brother to pay his dues, he should see that he is not behind in getting a new card, for you can assure yourself if you have an up-to-date card you are always welcome at any brother's office wherever you may drop into.

There has been a good many changes since December 1, 1913. Some are brothers from other roads and some are nons. Let every brother get busy and round up every non on the line and make this a solid O. R. T. division. Brothers, it is not right that we who have paid out our good money to win a good solid schedule with an increase in pay and better working conditions should allow the nons to continue on without getting their help, as we are not only supporting ourselves, but them as well.

Transcona days, also Raith, has been bulletined. Good chances for the new men.

Mr. Morgan, Dott nights, relieved by a new man.
Mr. Prest, Redditt nights, on holidays, relieved by a new man.

Bro. Fenen, agent Minaki, made a flying trip to Winnipeg recently. Jack is swelling out considerably.

We are sorry to hear that Bro. Mitchel's wife, at McIntosh, had the misfortune to break her arm, but glad to know that she is getting along nice.

Bro. Champagne, of Elma, Man., was off Christmas and New Year's holidays.

Bro. L. W. Graham, agent Redditt, and his mother spent New Year's with Bro. McCallum, at Malachi, Ont.

We are sorry to hear that Bro. W. D. Smith, local chairman, Tannin, Ont., has been in the hospital again. We hope to hear of his recovery soon.

Mr. Christianson is now at Transcona days.

Business is very quiet, but we hope the line east of Superior will open soon and things will boom, making it better for everybody, also for the company. When things are good on the road we can expect things to brighten up for us.

_Div. Com., Cert. 1295._

Prairie Division, Districts One, Two and Three—
Our ball, that was to have been held in Melville, has been postponed on account of so many others having them. Proper notice will be given as soon as we can settle on a date.

Bro. Thrasher has returned from an enjoyable two months' trip to New York, Baltimore, Washington, Chicago, and his old home down East, accompanied by Mrs. Thrasher.

Our next meeting will be held in Rivers. Come and bring your sewing.

The grain rush is over and we are all wondering what we done with our summer's wages.

Several night offices and some stations closed.
Mr. Williams, train dispatcher, just returned from Christmas holidays, spent at his old home in Indiana.

Thanks to Bro. Harrop for line-up. Some of you lads along the line send us a few notes. We can't guess what you are doing.

_G. A. Swan, Lazare, Man._

Grand Trunk Western R. R.

Business is good and all find work to do.

The new schedule, in effect January 1st, was just what the boys were looking for, and most everyone that did not have a card have either come in the Order or given us their solemn promise to do so in the near future. Each one keep his end of the work up and don't lag. You all have a sample of what organization has done.
for you and it will do more for you if you stick by it, and pay up your dues. Every man with a card be "Johnny on the spot," and remember that any man working, who has no card, is no friend of yours and has no respect for you or himself, and if you extend him favors you are only causing him to hang out longer. Make it your motto and stick to it, "If anyone wants to be alone, leave him alone."

Osborn, Thornton Jct., recently relieved by Grisome.

All offices have been changed from 9 hours to 8 hours a day—another good thing for all concerned.

The G. T. is now trying out a motor car on the C. S. & M. Division, for the handling of local passengers. If a success, it is supposed that we will see these cars on all divisions.

Bro. Card, at Valparaiso, has recently been out on a little round-up after nons.

The 11-hour day with meal hour off makes the one-man station agent smile.

Fremid, agent Wilmet, recently transferred to first Washington. We wish him and his new bride much happiness.

Capac depot burned, and the boys are now enjoying the sights from a car window.

Bro. Bottomley, Nichols Yards, was off a few days on account of the death of his father. We extend our sympathy.

Out of the four offices at Pt. Huron terminals, there is only one non, and no doubt he will soon be with us.

We wish that the boys around Chicago and Detroit would give us a little lift with the news. The boys over on the other side of the river are having a good write-up every month. Do not wait for someone else to do it, but send in your items, if no more than one line, a postal will bring that; also you boys over on the Air Line, mail it to Emmett, Mich., care Box 114, and your Uncle Dudley will be right there to grab it.

Barker, third Millet, recently spent a few days at Grayling, Mich., on account of the illness of his father.

Mr. Thornton, from Detroit, relieved Mr. Cook, agent Belvue, who goes with the Burr Portland Cement Co. there. The Order has just added a nice increase to the pay of that position and also a two weeks' vacation each year on full pay. We hope Mr. Thornton will appreciate this by getting an up-to-date at once.

Among the new members are: D. R. Hogue, Scot, Mich.; R. B. Thornton, Battle Creek; L. Irving, Detroit; C. H. Reynolds, and Mr. Pain, Lansing; R. C. McKinnon, Durand; C. E. Searle, B. C. Mathews, and J. C. Cheadle, Pt. Huron; Mr. Ryant, Millet, Mich.; Mr. Fry, Montrose, Mich., and Mr. Grammer, Swartz Creek, Mich.

Let's all live strictly up to our motto, "No cards, no favors." Every man got enough raise out of his first month's pay by the new schedule to buy a card, and has no reason to cry "short of money."

St. L.

Wabash R. R.

Peru Division—

Seems as though telephones have come to stay, as they are handy for conductors who happen to be stranded at blind sidings, to copy their own orders. Several night offices have been cut out since the installation of the phone system, and trainmen do the work of the operator when they happen to be stuck for something and unable to get out.

Imagine how trainmen enjoy the practice of going to the little box nailed up on the side of a telegraph pole, when the temperature is somewhere around two below, a high wind whipping around the corners, and having to bare their hands to write the order, taking chances of making mistakes, etc., and what has been done by them to stop it?

What would the trainmen think of us if we were to impose upon their jobs as some of them on this road have imposed upon ours by wanting to use the telephone even where there is an operator?

The brakemen sometimes want us to let them use the phone in cases of mere conversation with the dispatcher only. This is against the rules, of course, but nevertheless it is being done every day, and it only bothers the dispatcher and causes inconvenience for all concerned.

This business can be handled by the operator, as that is what he is getting paid for, and will partly eliminate the practice, which will sooner or later get us in bad. If the trainmen wish to transact business with the dispatcher regarding engine failures, tie-ups, etc., where there is an operator, throw him a pad of clip and safeguard yourself, or you will probably some day wish you had.

Our old friend F. L. Ribble, at LaFayette, has been experimenting with a wireless station, and already has his aerial wires, which consist of about 50 feet of barbed wire nailed up the side of his semaphore. He soon expects to receive "SOS" signals from China and other foreign countries; in fact, all he needs now is a "bug" like the one which R. H. James used in "Z" office, which can be wound up, and set the wires to smoking, keep the operators in terror, and almost make Prof. Morse turn over in his grave.

Our clause in the latest revised rules, reads: "When a position is abolished, the telegrapher affected, shall be transferred to the extra list, but will retain his seniority rights."

Some who are not suited with this rule, would find even more complaint if the old rule was still in effect, entitling a man to bump when his position was discontinued, which worked a hardship on a man who has bid in a job, taking chances of it being regular, probably getting married and building a home. The rule, as we have it now, safeguards regular assigned men, and prevents a lot of shifting about. Those who complain of our present rule are mostly nons.

Study this over and vote for the present rule to remain in effect.

W. Muzzy, after relieving Fuller, second Butler, on leave, relieved L. L. Agnew, at West Peru, who relieved Masters, third Wabash, when he bid in third Maumee.

J. R. Miller, who relieved J. S. Rizer, West Peru, several days on account of sickness, relieved R. H. James, at C. & O. Jct., who relieved J. E. Spencer, fourth "Z" Peru, several days on sick list.

V. L. Gentry, back from vacation at St. Louis, relieved Local Chairman Rizer, on second West Peru, who is now on committee work.

Business being poor several offices closed and operators transferred to extra list.

L. R. Rex, on ten days' vacation in Louisiana, was relieved on the night report job in chief dispatcher's office by N. J. Bechtal, from "Z" office, and he by L. R. Cochrane, from third at West Peru.

Brayley, Ohio, telegraph office closed and all operators taken out. Second and third tricks at West Unity discontinued; agent works 6:30 a. m. to 6:30 p. m., Graham went to Blakeley as agent, hours 5 a. m. to 2 p. m., Cook, on second, works from 2 p. m. to 11 p. m., third discontinued. "GS" tower closed from 12 noon to 6 p. m., Fisher works from 3 a. m. to 12 noon, John Kieff works from 6 p. m. to 3 a. m. "CD" tower closed, all operators taken out.

The new tower at C. & O. Jct. will soon be in service, as the grading for the crossing is almost completed. It is uncertain as to which road will take charge of the operators, as yet. The telegraph office may be discontinued.

"Mug," Cert. 2457.

Springfield Division—

The committee is now in St. Louis for the finishing of our negotiations, and we must get all the nons lined up that we possibly can.

Business is the best on this division that I have ever seen. Practically no coal, but other business stays very heavy and the big engines are pulling much larger trains.

The prospects at present look as though the Wabash was about to be taken out of the receivers' hands.

Mr. Delano has resigned, and has taken the Monon presidency, and no one appointed to fill the vacancy.

Bro. Omer, third Lanesville, off two weeks on account of the death of his father, was relieved by Extra Moorland, from the Mo. Pac.

Bro. Abbott, local chairman, who returned to Dawson, Dec. 20th, from schedule work in St. Louis, is back there helping to brush up the negotiations.

Bro. McRoberts, agent Curran, off few days relieved by Bro. Constant, from Dawson.

Maysville agency, Baylis, and Shops, third, now on bulletin. Extra Loed working latter. Extra Melb on Baylis third, and Extra Leeper at Maysville agency pending bids.

Bro. Klinefelter, agent Alexander, off few days recently, was relieved by Mr. Proffit, from second Berlin, relieved by Mr. Ryan, from third Berlin, and he by Extra Leeper.

Mr. Glaze, third Bluffs, off on account of sickness, relieved by T. W. Bass.

Bulletins are being filled very nicely and everything is working very fine for your chairman. Send your grievances to me and I will see that they are fixed up. Do not forget my address, and send me the news. Whenever a new man gets around you find out if he is up to snuff and if so get his Cert. No. and send it to me, as they come very handy, and matters concerning brothers are much easier handled.

W. ABBOTT, L. C., Cert. 748.

Bro. Kearney while attending the funeral of his brother-in-law at Cairo, Ill., was relieved by Extra Koeller, who later went to second Raymond. See that he keeps his promise to take out a card.

Union-made Morse is about the only kind heard on this division, but there are a few tightwads on the line who knock on the Order harder every time they use the schedule to bid in a better job.
Many thanks to the boys who remembered us with notes this month, and hope to see you all back next month. R. V.

Bro. Wm. Rosendaugh, second Willis, was recently married to one of the best "hello" girls in Ava central office. We all wish them happiness.

We hope our extra men won't become discouraged on account slack work, caused by the return of the regulars, and that they will stick it out, as there will soon be work for all.

A third Trick Dispatcher Wilson was under the weather a few days.

We should have a time limit in our contracts covering reinstatements. Mr. Satter was simply exercising his rights under it as it now exists in bumping the youngest regular man. What we need is an agreement that after a man is out of service 60 days he can't be reinstated, and that after that time those reinstated bump the youngest "extra" man. This will be fair for all, as a man, when reinstated, is entitled to a regular job. As a man is fired without cause our present contract covers the same sufficiently. Mr. Satter, if eligible, should now get an up-to-date. Div. Cos.

We are indeed sorry to learn that Bro. Link, of Belle Plaine, resigned January 15th, relieved by O. S. Brown.

J. Kelly, Minneapolis, now local agent at Stone, has promised to come in next pay day.

Bro. E. T. Hopkins, of Fulton, moved to his new location, Westbrook, January 16th, relieved by Bro. W. J. Jarman.

Note the write-up by Bro. Mathews in the December journal on page 2069, Nebraska Division notes, and do all in your power to make it pleasant and agreeable for our worthy Bro. F. P. Goss, who has to take this car report for the general superintendent. Freddy is one of the nicest little fellows you ever met, and a good loyal, hard-working up-to-date member. Every time we give him a boost we help our management and make Fred's work easier. Do all in your power to answer up promptly, and help out by asking that fellow on your right or left to answer.

Sorry, indeed, to again hear of the death in the family of Bro. C. R. Williams. A few weeks ago Bro. Williams' sister was taken from them, and on Christmas day the father was called to the great beyond. This family has the heartfelt sympathy of all.

Bro. W. J. Liddane has been very busy of late attending the installation of our new local chairman, Bro. E. R. Poole, of Crofton, Neb., and adjusting several grievances of much importance to the telegraphers on the Wisconsin division, and other general chairman duties he has hardly been able to be at home over night. Things have shaped themselves now so Bro. Liddane has again resumed work.

Local Chairman Tenney has been having his hands full of late. In addition to his duties, his little 10-year-old boy has had a very severe run of Bright's disease and for several days little hope was held out, but the little fellow is now slowly gaining and it is hoped he will soon be out again.

The general secretary and treasurer has a new sign reading: "This is my busy time," the occasion being the semi-annual dues-paying period. January 19th broke all records. Have you sent yours in yet? If not take time by the forelock and get it in so you can get your new card.

We understand, and are very sorry to hear, that Bro. J. H. Atkinson, of Pipestone, has resigned to go into business on his own hook. Bro. John has been in the service a long while and made many warm friends. He was relieved by John McDermott, formerly chief clerk in the freight house at Mankato.

Bro. I. J. Moyer, former agent at Amboy, is actively engaged in the moving picture business there. Friend Axt, who followed Bro. Moyer as agent at that place, allowed his name to go into the background January 1st. This seems to be one more case added to the list of appreciates, where increases were dealt out recently. They'll all be back in line just before the committee goes in again.

General Chairman Liddane transacted business with the general secretary and treasurer January 19th.

Arrangements are under way for a meeting in the near future. Watch for notices and be sure and attend, for it promises to be a good one.

The C. & N. W. boys on the Minnesota Division held a largely-attended meeting in the Board of Trade Hall at Mankato the 17th inst. Some Sunday in February they will hold an open meeting at which their division officials will be invited to attend. Much enthusiasm prevailed. Our brothers over on the Big "C" are very wide awake all the time.

This 4 below zero weather leads one to believe that our warm, balmy California weather we are wont to harp about in Minnesota was a joke. It may be to some.

Mr. Lang, of Ottawa, was called to St. James recently; he says he'll promise to be good now.

Bro. and Mrs. J. F. Jansen, of Madelia, took in the Fisk O'Hara opera at Mankato January 17th.

Bro. E. T. Brady is watching closely for the January assignments with a hope that he drew the lucky number on the Sa City shops job.

Don't forget, please, that this is the month when we make our offering "for the good of the Order" and by which we are able to get that little bit of cardboard that indicates we are "men amongst men." Don't let the opportunity pass you, for it has been said that opportunity knocks but once.

CERT. 2.

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, Our heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom and goodness, has deemed it best to call to the great beyond the father of our esteemed Bro. C. R. Williams, and we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well; therefore, be it

Resolved, That the members of this division extend to the sorrowing members of the afflicted family and brother our sincere heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the bereaved brother, a copy spread on the minutes of the M. & I. Division and a copy forwarded The Telegrapher for publication.

D. O. Tenny,
B. J. Funk,
A. R. Mann, Committee.

CARD OF THANKS.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., December 26, 1913.

Officers and Members of Div. No. 4—

We, as a family, wish to extend our sincere thanks for the beautiful floral offering which was received on Christmas day, and our sympathy in our bereavement in the death of our beloved father.

C. R. Williams.

Nebraska Division—

Bro. J. P. Hairston, agent Thurston, has resigned on account of ill-health. Supposhe he has drifted back to his home in "Sunny Alabama." Sorry to see a good man leave us.

Bro. C. E. Glade, at Hubbard time pending different bulletins, has resigned and accepted a position in the Omaha post office.

Bro. Coburn is on third "NX," his old stamping grounds, as his folks live in Omaha and he is right at home.

Ira Davidson bid in Thurston. He should now come back in the O. R. T. Let us get after him.

The good old scout, Bro. "Bill" Craig, of Bancroft, who joined twenty years ago, is with us again, and we are sure he will do good work for the O. R. T.

Several prospective members have the necessary papers and the desired information. Keep an eye on them and see that they do not fall by the wayside.

We were sorry to learn that the helper has been taken off at Winside, which makes Bro. Hartson's work that much harder.

Mr. Fenske, relieving at Thurston, who resigned to go farming, has come back. Some good brother please endeavor to get him in line.

"Mike" Halpin and family are enjoying a trip to the coast.

W. M. Wassum, helper at Tekamah and Randolph, is relieving Halpin at Shoals. We understand as soon as he is eligible he will be with us. Brothers in touch with him see that he does not get away.

Brothers along the line send us in some news so we can have a good write-up.

Some one on the Wynot line get after Johnson, at "JA," and make it solid. Some one also get after Pinion, at Bloomfield, and land him.

As local chairman I wish to thank all the brothers for the support they have given me in the past. I trust every one of you will have a prosperous and happy new year. I have done my best for your interest and trust that the brother who succeeds me will represent you faithfully and should he need any assistance I will willingly do all in my power to assist him. As my duties have been increasing I feel that I can not do you justice and have tendered my resignation to General Chairman Liddane, taking effect January 1, 1914.

Bro. L. G. Hallisey is again with us after a trial with N. P. and the W. U. and says there is nothing like the old "Wooden Shoe Route." He relieved Bro. Stevan while off a few days.

Div. Coa., Cert. 3.

Nebraska Division Notes

Following positions filled on bulletin: J. A. Filies, "NT" Omaha; L. A. Thomas, "DT" Lyons; Bro. A. R. Stevan, "DT" Bancroft; T. F. Fenske, "AT" Magnet.

If any news items for the journal, drop a line to Agent Crofton.

Plenty of application blanks on hand. If you know where you can use any to good advantage, let me have the joker's name.

Bro. Schaller, sick past two weeks, improving; A. A. Jager, cashier, relieving.

R. A. Thomas, quarantined on account of smallpox, relieved by W. C. Ireland, cashier.

S. R. Morrell is back. Sounds good to hear him again. Says he will be with us next pay day.

Don't forget to vote next election for Bro. H. C. Peterson for I. C. C.

Dame Rumor says Bro. Willis is thinking seriously of marrying.

Bro. Northrop started on his vacation January 6th, but didn't get any farther than "NS," when he received instructions to return to work again.

Bro. T. A. Logan, on a three weeks' trip to Minneapolis, was relieved by Mr. Moss, from the C. B. & Q.

L. C. Arnold, Norfolk, off six weeks, is visiting in Florida.

Bro. George Fox, agent Maskell, off a few days, was relieved by Mr. Wassum, whom we hope to have with us soon.

Bro. H. C. Peterson, former agent Bloomfield, now with the F. & M. S. Bank there, has been induced by his numerous friends to run for the office of State railway commissioner at the spring primaries. Bro. Peterson has been in the railway service for the past eighteen years and with this division for the past thirteen years, leaving it last May to take up his new duties with the bank in Bloomfield. Do not be content with giving him your vote, but pass this information on to all your friends, as he is well deserving of this office, and his past record, as well as his experience, makes him well fitted for the place.

By the resignation of Bro. James Mathews his duties as local chairman for the unexpired term of three months have fallen upon me.

Thanks to the brothers for items received this month. I assure you that all future items will be gladly received.

"Ye Scribe."

Northern Division

M. E. Carey relieved Bro. Bergin, Shell Lake third, during the holidays.

N. A. Cowing, of Washburn, spent Christmas at his home in Chetek.

Bro. F. J. Payson, while at Chippewa Falls attending the wedding of his sister, was relieved by Bro. Patterson.

Bro. O. C. Jacobs, agent Shell Lake, and wife, spent Christmas at Washburn.

Mr. King, who drew Spooner third, is on the sick list, relieved by Mr. Imislund.

Quite a number have been laid off on account of slack times, and many stations have had forces reduced, making three men do the work where formerly four were required. This retrenchment will, however, only be for a short period, so let's not complain, even if we have been laid off or had our hours changed. We know it can not last long, and it is quite a novelty to get a lay-off without writing six months ahead for it. Hang together, boys, and show the company we are with it in hard as well as good times, and the officials will be all the more willing to share profits with us in the shape of an increase when business picks up again.
Bro. Jacobs now has to work a trick at Shell Lake on account of reduction in force. It has been a good while since an agent handled trains at this station.

We hope all the delinquent members of 1913 will take advantage of the new extension of time which has been granted them and pay up.

Mr. Filbey, of Duluth, promises to join us this month. He is an old Order man, and we are glad to have him on our division.

Fred Greendahl, agent Draper, is laying off to be married, relieved by Bro. J. H. Reid.

Bro. K. S. Purvis, off a week visiting friends, was relieved by Mr. Greendahl on Tuscobia first, who also relieved W. B. Phillips, second Tuscobia.

Bro. Gilbert Nelson, Rice Lake second, was married December 24th. He was relieved by Joe Hodges, from the Eastern Division, who promises to become a member soon.

Trains are now running into Park Falls, opening up some new territory for the Omaha.

In talking with various members, three out of every five make some remarks along this line: "The O. R. T. is all right, but the members on this division are 'dead'; they won't turn out to meetings; they won't say 'boo' to a non if he is working in the same office, and all they do is to pay their dues and sit tight, waiting for their committee to get them a raise." I'll bet you all have heard the same line of talk. Of course, we have to admit that there is a good deal of truth in this, but the chances are that the "guys" doing the talking never broke any records getting to an O. R. T. meeting, nor did he ever make life miserable for the non working with him. What's the use of "knocking"? Let every man have a little responsibility in this matter, and don't sit back and make remarks about what someone else is doing or not doing, but if you don't like the way the organization looks to you in your neighborhood, get out and change it. Call up the non next door to you and ask him if he intends to join, and if not, what excuse he has. When he asks you to chase uptown and get a package of P. S. for him, tell him "nothing doing." Make him distinctly understand that he doesn't belong in your class at all. If we only worked along this line more—did more talking to nons and less about "dead members"—it would not be long before even the "hard-shell" nons would wake up to the fact that he was very unpopular and either join or quit the business.

Bro. Steiner has been obliged to lay off several days on account of sickness. Bill's little girl was sick at the same time, making it pretty bad for him.

Bro. H. Brooks made a business trip to St. Paul recently. Bro. "Hi" says he thinks he will soon be able to make Spooner solid.

Bro. A. B. Crowell, agent Mason, was obliged to send his little son to St. Paul for medical treatment.

Mr. Ledding, cashier New Richmond freight office, was for a time obliged to work the wires for a certain period each day, displacing Bro. Siron. Mr. Ledding, not coming under our schedule, was not entitled to the wire trick, so after the matter was laid before the superintendent in the proper light, everything was adjusted satisfactorily to all concerned.

We are indebted to Bro. Purvis, of Tuscobia, for some items this month. Sorry we can not hear from more of you.

Div. Cor.

Eastern District—

We have started a new year with a clean sheet. How many have remitted their dues for the coming six months, It's time they were sent in. It's just as easy to send them in one month as another, and you will be in good standing all the time. Don't let yourself become delinquent. We need your money and you need the protection. Don't think because we have a good schedule you can let it go at that. There is more in sight if you help get it. You are a part of the O. R. T., and our committee will go just as far as we tell them to go. It must have our support in order to accomplish anything.

The winter is nearly gone and we haven't had any snow as yet and not much cold weather, making business very slack, although business has begun to pick up.

Bro. Engebretson, who relieved Bro. Myron, second Baldwin, for a week, later relieved Bro. Strasberg for a week's vacation.

Our last bulletin looked rather blank. The boys who have jobs are holding onto them like grim death and are not moving around, making news rather scarce.

Bro. Waldum, who relieved Bro. Johnson a few days on second Levis, later relieved Bro. H. L. Nelson at Sheppard a few days.

General Chairman Bro. Liddane, while going over the system fixing up grievances and organizing, was relieved by Bro. Girling, relieved by Mr. Sherer, from the Western Union.

Want to ask you brothers again to be on hand promptly to send grain and cars to "GY" office. Bro. Goss has his hands full, and spends a lot of valuable time calling some of the offices, while a lot of other offices are "Johnny on the spot" and fight to get in, which Bro. Goss appreciates. He starts promptly at 3 p. m. Make it a point to be on hand at that time, as this report must go in, and no excuses are taken by the management for failure to send it.

Our old-time brother, Horace Wood, is visiting his home at B. R. Falls. He is now with the C. N. at Winnipeg.

I wish to ask the brothers to send me a line or two whenever any changes are made or any news for the journal, as I am on the east end of the road and don't hear what's going on on the west end. Mail it to M. J. Harpold, B. R. Falls, Wis., and we will try to have a good write-up each month.

Cert. 7.
Kansas City Southern Ry.

Fourth Division—

We have just received a small increase and a new schedule, for which we are very thankful. This division is in a prosperous condition, due to the fact that all the brothers are working for the betterment of conditions generally, but we must become more concerned about the Order, which means the welfare of ourselves and families, and commence at once and everyone land a non.

Bro. Smith was off a few days recently on account of sickness, relieved by Bro. Word, from the T. & P.

Bro. Tate will soon be obliged to have a larger wagon to get the United States mail to the post office.

Bro. Travis has twelve hours' hard work making expense bills each day.

Bro. Smith, who made a mistake Christmas night on his way home and went into the wrong house, causing quite a disturbance, refuses to state the brand he was using. Crrt. 412.

Union Pacific Ry.

Nebraska Division, First and Second Districts—

The best news I have for you this month is that Bro. Frank L. Hannum, agent Gothenburg, consented to act as local chairman for us in the vacancy caused by the resignation of Bro. Ging, announced last month. So confident was I that the majority would be pleased that I appointed him, thereby saving the trouble and expense of an election. Nor will one be held unless there is a demand made for it. Bro. Hannum is a good operator of experience and a successful agent at one of our larger points, thoroughly competent there, and should be able to bring good judgment to bear on the committee in its endeavors to meet the conditions that are just now most vital to the interests of Division 6. I know he will serve you to the best of his ability and have bespoken for you your hearty support if he would serve.

The tide of reduction has hit the telegraph office at headquarters in Omaha, and six men will suffer thereby. This is regrettable, but we hope it will be only temporary.

Bro. A. T. Runyan, of South Omaha, has been in the hospital in Omaha recently, suffering from a stomach disorder, relieved by Mr. Mills, extra, and he later by Bro. O. E. Johnson, regular relief. Bro. Runyan is recovering. The Omaha Club membership reminded him, by their acts, of our brotherly feeling in his misfortune.

Mr. Knuth, extra, relieved Bro. Pollock on third Schuyler recently. Bro. Frank Vybral was recently successful in securing an auto in a hard-fought contest there. It takes just the kind of enthusiasm to win members for the organization that it takes to win autos in a contest, and Frank has the kind. Here's to more like him.

Bro. E. W. Laun relieved Agent Shumaker at Silver Creek over the holidays. It has always been Bro. Shumaker since I can remember, and here is believing it will be again soon.

F. E. Starkey, of Boelus, bid in Oshkosh, preferring it to Overton.

Bros. Helber and Mann are again in "GE" Grand Island while Bro. Smith is on committee work, and Bro. Cole is relieving Charlie McNutt in the dispatcher's office.

Bro. Andy LeGate is now at Pleasanton, relieved by Bro. Fullbright at Yutan agency until bid in by Byron Byrne. Third at Valley and Kearney on bulletin.

With Bro. McKeeley to Boelus and ability to say "Bro." Elder now at Rockville, we are two steps nearer to seeing a solid branch north of Grand Island. We hope they won't let the Kearney branch beat them too badly.

Bro. M. E. Bray, Gilmore Jct., and wife, spent the holidays at their Missouri homes, Bro. J. Buehler relieving, who went to see his mother in Salt Lake City upon their return. Bro. Buehler is now relieving at Valley.

Bro. C. T. Winters, Gothenburg, is the new member of the division safety committee from our department, and would be glad to present any views you have that you do not care to submit directly. Let's show that we are greatly interested in safety, even if our work is not the most hazardous there is.

Lexington was robbed on third trick recently. The operator there, who has no help all night long, has to work all those trains on the outside and handle hundreds of dollars, many patrons and several wires inside at the same time.

It has been ruled, under our present contract, that an agency can not be taken out of the schedule without thirty days' written notice. This will give us an opportunity to present our case and prevent being thrown out of a home on thirty minutes' notice. Now, when we get an agreement that will allow us to show our reasons why help should not be taken off in times of reduction when our individual station may be showing an increase, and a chance to prevent a superintendent refusing station help because he doesn't want to increase the payroll on his division, we can say: "Now, if you don't get service at your stations, we invite you to investigate the reasons why."

This is right, and we can hope for it when the men awaken and help to present this matter to those who are able to bring about such a situation for us. Interest your neighbor in this as well as yourself. Crrt. 217.

Nebraska Division, Third and Fourth Districts—

Bro. Miller, Hilldale, off during holidays, was relieved by a C. T. U. A. man from Chicago.

Bro. Ringoldsbys, who bid in first North Platte yard office, decided he was most too far away from his farm, near Pine Bluffs, and has returned to Endor.
It is now Bro. Crandall at Lodge Pole, making the third district solid, with the exception of one man, who is beyond the reach of the everlasting arm.

Bro. Ed. Kimsey, third Hilldale, is doing some speeding on a new motorcycle, which he recently purchased.

Bro. T. D. Pyle has returned to third Julesburg, after spending the holidays in Kentucky, relieved by Mr. Baker. Bro. T. H. Engleman, first Julesburg, went on a shopping tour to Denver recently, accompanied by his wife.

Yours truly had the pleasure of visiting the headquarters of our Order while stopping over in St. Louis. Believe me, those brothers working there sure do make a fellow glad that he came.

Bro. C. W. Simons, manager Sidney, is taking ninety days lay-off, Bro. "JO" Johnson acting manager during his absence.

Bro. C. C. Fine is back to Ogallala third, relieved on first North Platte yard office, by Mr. Baker, pending bulletin.

F. M. Kelly, extra dispatcher Sidney, went back on third "CD" when regular dispatcher Wesner returned from his vacation.

Bro. Frederickson, second Archer, is off, we understand, to get married. We hope he don't forget the "segars" when he returns. Bro. Scott, third Archer, off thirty days, is said to also have the matrimony fever.

Bro. L. G. Ging, agent Egbert, former local chairman, was witness in a lawsuit in Cheyenne recently. Bro. Ward. Egbert second, relieving Bro. Spillman, agent Burns, thirty days, was later relieved by Helper Moore from Pine Bluffs, and took a trip back East.

Owing to a retrenchment order, cutting Nebraska division expenses $20,000 for January, quite a number of day and night helpers have been pulled off, which is working a great hardship on some, on account of doing extra work.

It looks as though the dispatcher's office at North Platte would be moved to Sidney, and one set of dispatchers work from Cheyenne to North Platte.

Business has been very slack during the past month. Only one extra man on the third district and one on the Fourth District.

Bro. L. G. Ging resigned as local chairman Nebraska Division to engage in other business, was succeeded by Bro. F. L. Hannum, agent Gothenburg. Success to both.

Thanks to the brothers who contributed items this time, and especially to Bro. Johnson for his interest. Come again, brothers.

KANSAS DIVISION—

Bro. F. H. Blanton, from Emmett third, to Bonner Springs third, relieved by E. S. Pritchard.

Bro. P. A. Bell, extra, assigned Grove agency.

Bro. C. F. Reynolds from Ogdensburg nights to Monoken. Sister Perry having resigned to devote all her time to the water service department.

R. W. Stooddard, Topeka third, is switching in the yards.

C. M. Townsley is at Ogdenberg extra.

Bro. Woodward, Williamstown, has resigned, relieved by Bro. E. K. McMillen, one of our late recruits. Other new members are Bros. Wilson, Solomon; Collins, Olsburg, and Farrell, Emmett. This old division is in better condition than ever before.

Bro. Blanton relieved Bro. Thomas at Hays several weeks.

Bro. Kendall has resumed duty at Blue Rapids, and according to all reports did not settle for the "wiggle stick."

Bro. Newcomb, a new arrival, relieved Bro. Johnson, Manhattan; Bro. Fulkerson at Ellis, and Mr. Shum at Salina.

It is now Bro. Caswell, at Ellisworth, which keeps us solid there.

Bro. W. H. Morris transferred from the Nebraska Division, assigned to Randolph, no applicant for the place.

Bro. Johnson, Manhattan third, with his brand new shotgun, is murdering almost as much game as "hay."

Bro. Smith arrived on the Kansas Division Christmas Day. When last seen on train 103 he had a piece of mistletoe in his pocket and claimed that he found another one that put them all in the clear.

Bro. Denison, Detroit, took a very prominent part in a play given by the M. W. A. there recently, entitled, "Peter Piper's Troubles," and as the troubles of a station agent are more numerous than those of "Peter," it is our best guess that "Daniel Grubbins," alias F. G. Denison, made good.

Bro. E. E. Determan is relieving Bro. Weeks, Belleville.

Bro. Morrell bid in first telegrapher Bonner Springs, Sister Jette going to Lawrence first.

The general committee has sent out a letter to the effect that a meeting is to be held in Denver in the near future, when a number of matters of interest to you will be taken up. You should give this letter and the blank accompanying it, careful attention. If you have not received it, ask your local chairman for a copy.

Emmett, third, bulletin at $57.50, has been made $60.00.

Bro. Bell, of Grove, is on leave, away getting married.

Bro. Lenander, of Minneapolis, has returned with an addition to his household.

Telegraphers at Lincoln Center, Detroit and Wakefield were all pulled off during the recent reductions of force, and forces were reduced generally over the division. Just how some of the agents are going to wade through without help isn't clear. Bro. V. S. Bowers from Wakefield to Fostoria, vice Bro. G. Wright to Bunker Hill, vice Bro. H. O. Brenner to Wamego third.
Bro. Jacobs, at Bennington for the past year, expects to join Bro. Ben Doyle in Mexico, and chase both the rebel and federal army into the big drink. Bro. Smith, on leave of absence since leaving Beloit, assigned Bennington.

Bro. Fulkerson from Ellia is back to Culver account reduction in force; Bro. Lewis back to Sylvan Grove.

Men dismissed for violation of Rule G, appropriating company material and company coal, may have the sympathy of the local chairman in their misfortune, but it will not be of much use to them.

Yocemento, closed as a telegraph position, and pay reduced from the schedule rate to that of a student-agent, without notice (as provided in the schedule), has been reopened.

A meeting of the general committee has been called for March 9th, to meet at Denver, to handle important matters affecting your welfare. A report will be sent to each member.

W. H. Day, for the past twenty years employed as a lineman out of Junction City, was run over recently and instantly killed in the Manhattan yards, by a light engine. "Bill," as we all knew him, probably had more friends on the Union Pacific than any other man on the road, and to have the privilege of acquaintance with this big, kindly and genial soul was a pleasure. The men on the road, regardless of their craft, responded nobly to the different calls for funds to pay their last respects to their friend. His kindness and gentleness under all conditions might well be an inspiration to all of us, and it should be our greatest wish that when we are given our final "30" that we might live as long in the hearts of our fellow-workers as William H. Day.

Colorado Division, D. P.—

J. W. Lummis is relieving Bro. F. C. Parker, agent Cloy, Wakeeny nights closed.

Mr. Minnick, first Oakley, and Agent Peterson, should get a Grinnell card. Remember, "No card, no favors."

We are all sorry that "DS" office at Sharon Springs closed January 16th, thereby losing Chief Dispatcher Blattenburg, and the three trick dispatchers. They are a fine bunch of men and always gave us the best they could. The Hugo and Ellia districts will now be handled from Denver.

Ogallah has been closed as a telegraph office, vice Mrs. Tawney. At Oakley, Mr. Lummis, agent, handles the wire six hours a day, putting Mr. Minnick on second, and Bro. Larson on third. Bro. Perry, who recently bid in second there, going back to third Union, vice Mr. Admire to extra board.

Bro. Perry relieved Bro. C. A. Vickroy at Sharon Springs a few days while sick.

Mr. Woodard is back at Deer Trail after a long spell of sickness.

My thanks are due to Bros. Noon, Touhy, Vickroy, Bailey, Perry and Houser, for their assistance in this write-up.

L. C. Duenweg.
Colorado Division K. P. Notes—
Bro. Thom, agent Quinter, was relieved by Bro. Easter while spending Christmas at Wakeeny.
Many of the boys will miss our old friend, J. B. S., who worked first trick dispatcher at "PS," and we all hope he gets a good position elsewhere.
Bro. Shaw, late dispatcher's clerk, is now on first "PS." Rev., Cert. 1144.

CARD OF THANKS.
We extend our heartfelt gratitude and thanks to the members of the O. R. T., Colorado Division, for the floral offering and the kindness and sympathy shown us during the illness and death of our beloved husband and father.

MRS. W. W. WALKER AND FAMILY.

CARD OF THANKS.
I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to the U. P. R. R. telegraphers at Denver and members of O. R. T. Division No. 6 for their kindness to me in my late bereavement.

FLOYD D. WINTON.

Wyoming Division—
Bro. C. Huyck, Forsyth, Mont., is selling a hand-made, bone stylus, handsomely carved, made by Bro. J. W. Ezell, now serving a life sentence in the Pittsburg Penitentiary for killing a yardmaster in self defense. Bro. Ezell has served ten years and is making and selling these articles to raise money to get his case before the Board of Pardons, is a member of Ill. Cent. Div. No. 93, Cert. 234, and your loyalty to a brother who needs your financial assistance will be greatly appreciated in this his time of trouble. These styluses, the best made, a fine piece of workmanship, give the best results, and can be obtained from Bro. Huyck at fifty cents each.

Wyoming Division, Sixth District—
Bro. Lewis Grebenc, acting agent Walcott, has resigned, gone to O. S. L. at Ogden, Bro. C. C. Martin, of Buford, bidding in the vacancy.
Bro. P. P. Hill, of Laramie, called to bedside of a brother at Lakin, Kan., December 20th, who only lived a few hours after his arrival, was relieved by M. M. Cronk, a new man, who later relieved Bro. Quinn at Lookout a few days.
Former Manager G. F. Haynes, of G. River, is now in "U" Omaha.

Wyoming Division, Seventh District—
Bro. Irosha, extra, has resigned and gone East.
Bros. Kabes and Decker, formerly of Table Rock, are now in Los Angeles. Mr. Riddle is on first Table Rock pending bulletin.
Bros. Metcalf and Thompson, of Black Buttes, have filed on a homestead near there.

Wyoming Division, Eighth and Ninth Districts—
Bro. J. W. Thomas, "NA" Evanston, has returned from a trip East.
Bro. W. R. Headington relieved Mr. Tallman at Devil's Slide, who went to third Bitter Creek. Brothers on the Seventh please look after him.
Our general committee will hold its regular yearly meeting in Denver the first part of March. Anything you wish taken up before it please write your local chairman.
Bro. T. C. Sherman, one of the old-timers of the Wyoming Division, located at Wamsutter, Wyo., was almost instantly killed December 25th by falling through the roof of a house which had been on fire, breaking his back, and living just a few minutes after the accident. Bro. Sherman was one of the staybys in the Order on this division, having served as local chairman and always a booster for the Order. The following nice sum of money was raised among his brother and sister employees for the wife and children:

Fifth and Sixth Districts

Pennington and delivered to Mrs. Sherman January 11th, 1914. I mailed to Bro. Horiskey and Bro. Pennington a copy of this list to compare with the money taken in by themselves and advise all the boys that this money was turned over to Mrs. Sherman January 11, 1914.

CARD OF THANKS.

To All the Brothers on the Wyoming Division, U. P. R. R.—

I wish to thank every one on the Wyoming Division of the U. P. R. R. for your assistance in my bereavement. Your assistance was greatly appreciated and I would like to see a write-up from some of the brothers showing the willingness of each member.

Mrs. T. C. Sherman and Boys.

Canadian Pacific Ry.

Eastern Division, District One—

Have not seen a write-up for this division in several years. I have taken it upon myself to write a few items, and wish all the boys who have any news would send same to Bro. J. A. Bertrand, local chairman, Farnham, by the 20th of each month, who will forward them to the correspondent.

There is nothing to hinder us from having an interesting write-up each month, if the rest of the boys will do their part and start the new year right.

There are still too many nons on this division. Brothers, make special effort to get them all in line. Expect to have regular meetings at Farnham at least every two months, and would like to have all members attend.

F. A. Kelly, Highwater nights, promises to be with us this month. He is longing again for the green fields, does not care for Canadian winters, and is constantly singing, to the accompaniment of his banjo, his new song: "Oh for the long green grass." Bro. Ford at Sutton and our big night operator at Brigham Jct. are attending to business, as usual. They keep a special quilt to wrap themselves in during the severe cold weather.

Bro. Snow, "WH" nights, "butts in" on the phone, as usual, whenever the dispatcher is busy.

Bro. Shonion, "FY" nights, will soon be up to date again.

Bro. Lebel, Megantic days, is hustling steamship freight and passenger extras westward in fine style.

Bro. Lapalme, Sherbrooke, visited his home in Abbotsford recently.

Bro. Madge is relieving at Milan days.

We are all pleased to learn that Bro. Pope has been reinstated and will be on the dispatching staff again in the near future.

B. C. Williamson, from the D. & H., now in Farnham terminals, is on vacation and visits Richford quite often. He will resume Iberville nights on his return, and will soon have a card.

D. B. Fitch, also from the D. & H., is relieving Bro. Ford at Sutton.

Bro. George Swan, 'Brigham Jct., has purchased a new track motor car, and always gets to work on time except Sunday mornings.

We are all pleased to learn of the promotion of our former chief dispatcher, L. G. Rogers, to assistant superintendent at Havelock, Ont. First Trick Dispatcher J. J. Morgan now sits behind the chief's desk. We all wish him success in his new position.

There have been a number of changes recently in the dispatching staff at Farnham, Sherbrooke and Megantic Subdivision—Bro. A. E. Gough, first; Bro. G. A. Smith, second, and Bro. W. J. Finley, third; Farnham and Newport Subdivisions—O. M. Lavoie, first; Bro. O. Pepin, second, and Bro. J. A. Brillhart, third, and G. C. Brownell working the swing trick.

We learn that Bro. Finley expects to be transferred back to the dispatching office at Havelock, on the Ontario Division, to resume his old position. We regret very much to see him leaving us, but understand it is for his own benefit.

Bro. Brillhart already has his application in for a vacation. He wants relief as soon as the "sun shines on both sides of the fence," and expects to visit Vancouver this coming summer. We are all looking forward for warm weather, when we expect to take a spin in Bro. Pepin's new motor car which he has ordered.

Now, boys, get busy and send in some news from along the line, and will promise a better write-up next month.

Quebec Subdivision—

Nothing has appeared in The Telegrapher from this division for some time. Brothers, we must wake up and have a writeup every month to keep the boys posted on everything done of any interest to us.

Our loyal and active chairman has been over the division lately and picked up a few members, but there are some more nons left. We must keep after them and enforce our motto, "No card, no favors," and show the few old "hard-shells" who are receiving the best wages and have the best positions, that it is to their interest to join. Just as long as we keep granting them favors they will stay out. "What is the use," they figure, "to pay $13 to $18 a year when we can get the same favors for nothing." Don't say, "He is a pretty good fellow and a friend of mine." If he was a friend of yours he would not graft on the fruits of your labor. If you can pay your dues and live, he can do likewise.

Brothers, another thing: We must see that the new positions created are bulletined, such as Grand Mere days and Terrebonne day and night. Those positions should be advertised and our agreement with the company lived up to. There is no use for our committee to spend money to get these things unless we get the good of them. Seniority should also be strictly observed. We should request our chairman at the next meeting to give special attention to these cases.

Bro. J. E. Lasalle and J. Gignac have returned from "Q" office to their regular jobs, after a few months' dispatching. Bro. F. C. Demers, who relieved Bro. Lasalle, is now at Laurin nights, and Bro. J. A. Pfoffe has left relief work for a regular job at "JN."

Bro. Gravel is now on the sick list. We hope for his immediate recovery.

We are all glad to see our chief dispatcher giving preference to the senior relieving man.

Bro. J. O. Chenevert and C. Armand have obtained a job after some time of leave off.

Bro. Bigue, on holidays, was relieved by Bro. J. Nault.

Bro. J. A. Frenette is at St. Maurice, a new position.

Bro. J. O. Morrissette, on a temporary job since spring, had to take his regular place at St. Martin Jct. nights.

Brothers, remember our motto, "No card, no favors.

Atlantic Division, District Two

Bro. G. A. Edwards, we understand, has double-headed. This is the outcome of having lady operators on the line. Here's luck, George. Bro. Street is working at Perth while George is honey-mooning.

Bro. Mosher is working at "MO" while Bro. Shaw is on committee work.

We are pleased to hear that our genial friend "MC" is back at Carterburg nights.

Bro. Simpson is enjoying life in Woodstock. He appears to be quite interested in little "tots."

Bro. Larlee and wife enjoyed an evening in Woodstock recently, attending the "bachelors' ball."

Business is picking up, and the Gaines boys are "hitting the ball" at Aroostook, as usual.

We hope within a month's time to have District 2 solid. This is encouraging.

Why does Bro. Letarte visit Woodstock so often? Some say he gets a "hand-out."

Bro. Morgan is at Caribou nights, and Bro. Hallett at Florenceville nights.

Lake Superior Division, District One

Our regular correspondent is away on holidays, and, with the kind assistance of Bro. J. M. F., we are trying to do his work.

Bro. Robertson, agent Shawanaga, is back, after being laid up with his foot which he shot in mistake for a bear some six weeks ago.

Bro. Schultz is at Point Au Baril, no regular agent having yet been appointed.

Bro. Spencer, from Dunlop, is relieving the ticket clerk at North Bay.

Bro. Wylie, from Phelan Pit, is working Byng Inlet nights.

Bro. Fleming is bashing, his better half having left him for Christmas holidays.

Ex-Agent Donnelly, of Bigwood, it is understood, has started a young farm at Bigwood.

Bro. Brown is working nights at Burwash.

Bro. Hales, of Romford Jct., impersonated Santa Claus this year at the Coniston S. S. festival. The boys and girls all got their socks full.

Bro. McLearn, Algoma, on vacation, was relieved by Relay Agent Galbraith.

Bro. Nelson, laid up a few days with tonsillitis, was relieved by Bro. Kendrick, agent Kipawa, on Christmas holidays.

Staff machines are now in operation between Murray and Sudbury, and Murray and Azilda and Onaping and Cartier, and will shortly be in service between Windylake and Phelan. Murray days filled by Bro. Powers, and nights by Bro. Rumble, a new man from Kenora.

Bro. Guindon is acting agent Bigwood. Bro. Tremblay is back again, and we hope to see him working before very long.

Bro. Bushey also went home for Christmas dinner, and found it rather hard to pass Nairn.

Bro. Fawcett has resumed duty at Larchwood.

Bro. Gauthier was off a few days, relieved by Bro. Chamberlain.

Bro. and Mrs. Howe spent Christmas holidays in Ashtabula, Ohio.

Bro. Squires has been called home on account of the sickness of his father.

We were sorry to lose Bro. "BM," who resigned December 17th.

Dispatcher G. C. Lee, returned from vacation, relieved Bro. Valley, "GC," on holidays, and then worked a couple of tricks in "H." Understand he has almost completed arrangements to open an office in the Ferguson block to handle the overtime slips.

Bro. Holland is on sick leave, but understand "he" will be feeling much better when he returns.

How about getting the district solid this year, which we hope will be one of happiness and progress for us all?

Saskatchewan Division, District One

A largely attended meeting of this division was held Sunday, January 18th, in the Moose hall, Regina. Local Chairman V. J. Stubbings presiding. A number of important items were discussed. Two brothers were appointed to act on the grievance committee, with the local chairman in the future. A special assessment was authorized to cover $25.00 which was extended a sister telegrapher (from the local fund) who had the misfortune of falling on a slippery walk, and fracturing her arm.

Biz on the road is all shot to pieces since the holidays, and so many changes have been made it is impossible to keep tab on all of them.

QuAppelle closed nights, Bro. R. S. Wilson going to Grenfell nights, which puts Bro. Dawdy, junior man, out in the cold. Bro. 'L. Harper got Qu'Appelle days on bid.

Bro. H. W. Rose returning from holidays to Wolseley bumped Bro. S. A. Boe, who went to Regina ticket office.

Belgonie closed nights, leaving Mr. Lampin junior man.

Pense closed nights, Bro. G. M. Thomson relieving Agent Snyder; Pilot Butte also closed nights, Bro. R. J. Green relieving Bro. W. B. Lonergan, McLean, on holidays.

Bro. M. F. Hanley, Craven, on four weeks' holidays, visiting friends at Owen Sound, relieved by Bro. Vipond, recently transferred to this district from Kenora, Ont.

Bro. A. R. Carson bid in and has been transferred to Stalwart agency.

Out of 107 train crews working up to December 1st, only 19 left. Here's hoping "bis" takes a spurt in the near future.

I want all the boys to send in what news they can, in the future, and enable us to give a better write-up. Correspondents appointed at last meeting: Bro. S. R. Richards, Kronau, for the Regina, Weyburn and Assiniboia subdivisions; Bro. Geo. Smith, Grenfell, for Moose Jaw subdivision; Bro. J. S. Davidson, Selton, for Colonsay subdivision, and Bro. W. J. Noonan, Regina, general correspondent. Mail you news to correspondent on your respective subdivisions and remember all news must be in the hands of the general correspondent not later than the 19th of the month.

Let's all pull together and see if we can't make our division 100 per cent strong this year. When a new man "hits the pipe," find out if he belongs, and if not, "get him on the wagon," and remember that little motto, "No card, no favors."

CERT. 1604.

Alberta Division, District Eight—

Bro. S. Ibbiton resumes Hector days, after leave of absence.

Bro. A. E. Stelly, Yoho nights, resigned.

Bro. O. G. Otto returning from the coast and resuming duty.

Division Correspondent E. J. Routledge, Settler days, is visiting friends and relatives in England; Bro. D. F. Green, who relieved him, later went to Le Duc nights, recently opened.

Bro. J. A. Mackay, Strathcona days, taking his holiday, relieved by Bro. L. W. Roache.

Bro. J. Taylor, nights La Combe, resumes after an extended visit to Notch Hill, B. C.

Bro. J. R. Wilkerson visiting in the East for a month returned and bid in Edmonton days.

Bro. R. P. Duke, agent Banff, returned from his holidays, Bro. P. Moth relieving, transferred to agency Seebee, relieves Bro. F. W. Lainge, called away on account of sickness and death of his sister.

Bro. L. W. Roache, days Strathcona, resigned and has gone into business at Edmonton. Bro. Mackay has returned and is again on the job.

Bro. I. Sweet, agent Blackfalds, spent several days hunting large game in the hills, and brought back several trophies.

Bro. A. W. Thornton, agent Veteran, is on sick leave, relieved by Bro. A. R. McCue. Bro. F. Harrison, Coronation nights, also on sick list, and is relieved by Bro. H. A. Mansfield. Bro. A. Ryerson is welcomed back from Chicago to Coronation days.

Bro. P. Moth bid in Monitor agency.

Bro. H. E. Pushor has returned from leave of absence to Laggan nights, vice Bro. R. K. Frizzell visiting New York.

Bro. B. Wick Morley nights, on leave, relieved by Bro. D. E. McPherson; congratulations will be in order on his return.

Bro. F. Pribbenrow, agent Erskine, is on leave owing to his wife's health, relieved by Bro. A. R. McCue.

Bro. C. T. Buckingham, relief agent, has been laid up with rheumatism, but we are glad to have him with us again.

We should all bend every effort to have the two or three nons on the division understand that the C. P. R. officials and employees have no regard for them on a system as strongly organized as the C. P. R.

Bro. G. Forbes, dispatcher Calgary, is on six weeks' holiday on pay, relieved by Bro. C. D. Wilson. Is there another schedule like ours?

Bro. E. R. Youell, Calgary dispatcher's office, spent his holidays pleasantly in Spokane.

At a recent meeting of our local in Calgary, Bros. E. R. Youell, C. R. Bauman and F. A. Kerr had the misfortune to lose their seal-skin hats. They certainly have the sympathy of every member of this division in their great loss.

We are glad to say that the vandals have been run to earth and properly dealt with by our chief justice. May this ever be a warning to those who infringe upon the rights of a worthy brother of this great Order.

It would be well for telegraphers who contemplate coming to this section to defer doing so at present as business is very dull and there is no immediate prospect for improvement.

We are sorry to see by the journal that it takes considerable effort on the part of the local chairmen and correspondents of several of our sister roads to hold the members in line, and are happy to say that no such action is necessary on the C. P. R., as every member is more than anxious to see that his name is not dropped from the roll.

As efficiency tests are the order of the day, too much can not be said along these lines, and it is up to every one of us to keep our lamps trimmed and burning, so as to be in readiness for any emergency which may arise.

---

Alberta Division, District Three—

Our local chairman, Bro. W. T. Watson, agent at Hosmer, has gone to Ottawa to the convention of the general committee, leaving Hosmer in charge of Bro. J. D. Robinson, with Bro. Wellander, as operator.

Bro. Geo. Winters, ticket agent at Fernie, left a few days ago with an Ottawa file holding his passes. When last heard of he was leaving for 'Frisco via Cape Horn. Bro. J. T. Millar relieved him, relieved by Bro. A. B. Nigg, displaced at Fernie by Bro. E. G. Doner, owing to Elko days being abolished.

Bro. W. W. Cook bid in Crows Nest agency, vice Bro. Hoffman, who went East and got married, and is now at Cadillac, Mich., on the G. R. & I. Crows Nest has been reduced to two operators, leaving Bro. Cook to do four hours' telegraphing with Bros. Wickwire and Timms.

Bro. William Agile, Swope, has been ordered to reduce his staff forty pounds.

Bro. McPhee, Wardner, off sick for several weeks, was relieved by Bro. Higdon, who later went to Hillcrest, and displaced there by Bro. P. G. Shillington, owing to staff reduction.

Bro. John Cory laid down temporarily on holding up the mountains in the vicinity of Yahk, with the result that a slide occurred of such magnitude that a permanent track was built around it.

Joyie night operator taken off, Bro. Lang to Nanton days, and later to Claresholm nights.

Bro. Sheldon who was relieved at “CK” Cranbrook nights, by W. F. Brown, of N. P., Paradise, Mont., relieved Bro. P. E. Carman, “CK” days, on sick list. Brown is flashing a card that does not bear his name. As he does not claim to be "flagging," it should be taken up.

Bro. Smith, agent Ensign, was off recently on account of sickness, relieved by Bro. Cotter. This agency since closed.

Pearce agency closed, Bro. Lintz, displaced, bumping Bro. Durning, night operator Kipp, who bumped Mr. Revill, who came to Claresholm nights, when Lumbeck laid off account reduction in staff. Bro. McNeil, from Peigan nights, closed, to Pincher nights, displacing Mr. Brown, also laid off account reduction. Bro. McDermott, traveling agent during grain rush, has returned to Pincher agency, vice Bro. LaGault to Prussia, on Swift Current division.

Bro. W. H. Williamson, displaced at “MD” Macleod, account reduction in staff, has not yet decided who he will bump. M. J. Donellan, displaced at Macleod, displaced the man at Medicine Hat. One set-of dispatchers at Macleod taken off on account of slack business. Bro. L. W. Chappler working third until H. H. Wickett returns, who has been ill with pneumonia at Little Britain, Ont., but is now improving. Bro. L. W. Cullen, relieving the dispatchers at Macleod during their vacations, is back in “MC” nights.

Bro. Black, agent Aldersayde, and wife, are on vacation.

The heavy depression in business has caused numerous changes recently, many of the boys being laid off, and overtime cut to a minimum. There is no sign of improvement and those lucky enough to hold a job are “sitting tight.”

Bro. M. Dooley, Frank nights, is very ill with rheumatism, relieved by Bro. Sears, who was displaced at Aldersayde when Bro. Whay returned from his vacation.

Bro. Relyea, Fernie nights, is on vacation to his home in Elmira, N. Y.

Bro. Bundy, relief agent all summer, has returned from two weeks' vacation to his home in Winnipeg and other Eastern points, and taken Nanton days.

CERTS. 1299 and 1385.

Manitoba Division, District No. 4—

It seems a long time since we had a write-up from this district, due to our correspondent leaving. During the busy season none was appointed. Now that we are again down to normal business and a new correspondent has been appointed our corner should be filled with some interesting news.

Bro. J. R. Baker has handed in his resignation as local chairman, due to having too much work and other business to attend to. We regret losing him, as he has been a great standby, and we all looked to him for information when required, which he cheerfully gave us. Nominations were called for by Bro. Wilton and Bro. A. D. Anderson received the nomination.

Bienfait agency was bid in by Bro. McRae, relieved at Mather agency on bid by Bro. A. J. Davis, of Waskada, which station is now open. Bro. J. E. Godard, who relieved Bro. Davis at Waskada, is now on vacation to the coast.

Bro. R. M. Sanders, agent Purvis, on sick leave at his home in Emerson, was relieved by (soon to be brother) A. N. Hultman.

Bro. J. W. Cole, agent Clearwater, was relieved a few days by A. Hall, of Boissevain, whom we hope will soon be a brother.

Bro. C. S. Hewitt, Souris "UR," was home with his parents at Morden for Christmas, and Bro. Hultman, Gainsboro, was at his home in Cartwright.

Boys, do not forget our motto, "No cards, no favors." Each one try a little persuasion and get a new member this year and we will soon be solid.

Bro. Jack Walsh, who visits Portage frequently, spent a few days there recently. Seems to be some attraction there.

Bro. A. I. Kraft, with the passenger department for some time, has gone East and it's rumored has at last been roped and tied and will return to us with a helpmate. He was relieved at Bender by Mr. Smiley, later bumped there by Bro. Herr-riot, of "ID" Souris.

Bro. W. M. McLeod, G. Y. M. at Souris, is certainly there when it comes to the for-ward skin-the-cat on the rings. At one exhibition he gave, the audience was so large they locked the doors three hours before the performance.

The retrenchment policy has caused a number of reductions in staff on this division, so everyone is "sitting tight" and holding what they have.

CHART. 1982.

New York Central & Hudson River R. R.

Electric Division—

Our entertainment and ball on January 7th has been the principal topic of conversation among railroad men since it came off. Have yet to hear of one dissatisfied patron. The entertainment was all that could be asked for, winding up with an act and friendly talk by the veteran Harry Thompson, "His Honor, the Mayor," who is well known in every part of the world to which our magazine is sent. To Bro. Frank Lester, who had charge of this arrangement, is due the thanks of all. His efforts every year to give us something better than before seem to have met with complete success this time. The ball was the most beautiful and enjoyable of any yet held.

The sick benefit fund will be richer by quite a few dollars, is the report of Bro. Dooly, treasurer of the fund, who worked hard in conjunction with Bro. Murty, local chairman of the Terminal, and Bro. Jagger, local chairman of the Electric Division, and the rest of the committee, to bring about the grand success.

General Chairman Morey was with us and many visitors from Long Island and other nearby points. Bro. Joe Curran of the committee, was late in arriving, but made up for lost time when the telephone girls, who had been waited, closed in on him.

We were very much pleased to have Asst. Supt. Slater and family with us; also Signal Supervisors Smith and Wass.

The closing of "UN" tower on January 18th, releasing some men with long seniority, has started a line of displacements that no one can see the end of. For a time no man with less than fifteen years behind him was safe over night. By the time these notes reach us all will be settled in their new jobs, but two or three good men may be forced on the extra list. They are nearly all brothers and we wish them success and plenty of work till a steady job comes again.

The resignation of Bro. Jagger as local chairman, is a real misfortune to the Electric Division. Bro. Jagger when elected was new to this kind of work, but made good to a degree that was a surprise to some and a satisfaction to all. It is greatly to be hoped that the election for his successor may bring out another as good from the untried men on our line.

H. D. S.

Electric Division Notes—

Bro. Heller has been awarded "FD" agency, Bro. Francis resigned on account of ill-health.

Mr. Schwartz is back at "WM" first, from "GCT." Bro. Finelli going back nights and Mr. Borrin on extra. Mr. Borrin is working "SD" nights pending bids.

Bro. J. P. Collins is keeping the lights lit "kinder" late on Hall Ave. lately.

Bro. Connors, agent Scarsdale, is in Bellevue Hospital, New York City. We hope for a speedy recovery. Bro. Downing, who relieved him, was relieved by Bro. Fennessy and he by Bro. King nights.

Members slow in paying their dues are taking serious chances, both with their membership and their insurance. Your dues must be paid in full and on time, as well as your M. B. D. assessments, in order to make your insurance safe, so don't neglect these important matters and jeopardize the interest of those dependent upon you for whom you are carrying this protection. Remit to Secretary and Treasurer promptly and save him a lot of unnecessary work.

The Western Union has opened an independent office at Bronxville, taking that work off the boys there.

The parcel post is making a big decrease in agents' earnings. Some of the local station express business has fallen off 35 to 40 per cent, putting their remuneration back where it was ten years ago. Now is the time to hang closer together than ever before.

Bro. Birchard, Jr., is on a pleasure trip to Niagara Falls, and Bro. Seamon is also on a short vacation, relieved by Bro. Alrutz.

"MN" Austin is working overtime nights getting ready for the new stations.

T. H. Kirk, former yardmaster at High Bridge, has been appointed yardmaster at "NW."

The superintendent is after the assistant agents along the line for not having a uniform. How about the $100 agents investing in one also.

Remember the little song entitled "On the Trail of the Lonesome Non." C. E., Div. Cor.

Harlem Division—

A joint meeting with the Put. and Elec. Divisions was held at White Plains on December 6th with twenty members present and a meeting at Philmont, December 7th, with the same members present.

Bro. E. J. Buckley has entered the poultry "biz," and will soon be able to supply the brothers with fresh eggs, broilers, etc.

Bro. J. J. McCarthy, on two weeks' vacation, was relieved by Bro. R. Maxfield, who also relieved Bro. J. J. McNulty, on vacation.

If the parcel post "biz" continues to increase some of the boys will have to buy a small mule to haul it for them.

T. J. Lyons has been assigned second "UN," and Bro. J. R. Ostrandar resumed at "CF."

Bro. R. Maxfield, growing tired of the arduous duties of relief work, has returned to third "G."
Bro. C. M. Eggleston on the sick list a few days, was relieved by Mr. Benson, from the Putnam Division, and Bro. W. E. Gillerst, also on sick list, relieved by Bro. J. Ledley. Bunk.

Buffalo Division—

When are we going to get started on those two days each month? This is the question of the hour.

Bro. C. C. Cable, formerly at "SS" 45, displaced Bro. F. W. Cole there, who went to "SS" 53, vice Bro. H. H. Miller, who bid in his former position as "SS" 47a.

Bro. I. Rykert, Western Division, displaced Bro. E. A. Riek, at "SS" 52, who displaced C. N. Strachan, at "SS" 47, Buffalo Division, looks good to the Western Division boys.

We are sorry to learn of the death of the eleven-year-old son of Bro. E. S. Smith, "SS" 47, from appendicitis. Bro. Smith was relieved by C. Odien.

Bro. O. A. Siehl, "SS" 59, was relieved a few days by Bro. P. Furmedge, of "SS" Erie 2, and he by J. P. Currie, who later relieved Bro. J. H. Ricker, "SS" 61a, while visiting his former home across the stream.

Bro. P. Briggs, leverman "SS" 58, was relieved owing to an attack of rheumatism by Bro. C. Sanford, of "SS" H, until January 7th, when the two positions of levermen "SS" 58 were abolished, and a new split trick arranged, 8 a. m. to 10 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. to 8:30 p. m., covered by Bro. Jake Engle until Bro. Briggs returns or selected another position. Bro. Sanford was relieved by Langferd.

Bro. Joe Smith, "SS" I, was relieved a few days by Bro. Hugh Parker, of "SS" 50.

Our local chairman, Bro. Jim Farrell, has been doing scout duty again and I am pleased to announce that it is now Bro. W. A. Lafferty, agent, Beach Ridge, N. Y., and Bro. Robt. Imhoff, Cabin "Y."

The fund raised to aid Mrs. William Palmer will total about $100. Of this amount $75 was available at Christmas. The balance will be handed her as soon as those who have not yet paid send in their subscriptions. Prompt remittance will be appreciated by those in charge of the fund.

Many of those fortunate enough to attend our last meeting were agreeably surprised when C. T. U. A. Sister Mary McCauley dropped in to pay her respects and incidentally to address the boys on how to be good union men. Her remarks were well received and it is hoped that Bro. Farrell, our progressive local chairman, will arrange to have other able speakers address our meetings in the future. Everybody should turn out and hear these speakers. It is educational.

Please do not forget to remit your dues promptly and thus protect your membership and your beneficiary. Ajax, Cert. 1352.

Hudson Division—

The meeting on January 20th was very well attended by the brothers from all along the line, and was very interesting and profitable. We have found that we have some real live orators on this division, and when they get started on railroad work, it certainly is very interesting and instructive, as the last two meetings have proven.

The chairman is going to install a question box in the meeting room, in which any member attending can drop a written question pertaining to railroad work, or to the rules or workings of the O. R. T. and before the close of the meeting the chairman or one of his assistants will endeavor to answer the questions.

Recent assignments: Bro. Quinn, first "SS" 77; Bro. Gadeka, second "SS" 55; Bro. Lawlor to third "SS" 65, and Bro. Spencer, third "SS" 72.

We are glad to report that Bro. Dunn, of Pokeepsie ticket office, is improving at Nassau hospital where he has had an operation for appendicitis. Relieved by Bro. Burger.

Bro. Carrotte is again on the extra list, having finished at Manitou and Germantown stations.

Brothers, get after the new men coming on this division. Let your first salutation be to them; "Have you a card?" and keep after them until they get one.

Bro. Boucher, third "SS" 42, who has been using train service from Stuyvesant to Manitou, is now boarding in Pokeepsie, and is having the time of his life among the ladies. He recently relieved Bro. Groupe one day.

Mr. Kirkbright, first "SS" 88, off two days, was relieved by Bro. Hodson.

Bro. Moran, second "SS" 88, was off a few days on vacation.

Mr. Green, agent at Schodack, and Bro. Sweeney, agent at Stockport, on their week's vacation, were relieved by Bro. Sutherland.

Bro. Donnelly, third "SS" 59, is on twelve days' tour visiting Baltimore, Richmond and Norfolk.

There are a few nons on the north end whom we have not reached yet, but there will be somebody up there after them before long.

Cases brought up in Albany and White Plains in favor of the two-day rest law, were decided in our favor and we hope for something more on it before long.

Bro. Gramp, second "SS" 84, relieved a few days by Bro. Hodson.

Bro. Manion, third "SS" 60, off sick a few nights, relieved by Extra Calson, and Bro. Slater, second "SS" 60, off a week, relieved by Bro. Everett.

Bro. Van Benchotten, first "SS" 58, was off one day for eye test.
Bro. Dedrick, who relieved Bro. Haughey, second "SS" 58, and Bro. Osterhout one day, also relieved Bro. F. M. Smith a night.

Bro. Tinney, leverman "SS" 59, off one night, relieved by Mr. Loring.

Mr. Bishop, new extra out of Pokespaie, is on second "SS" 51, vice Bro. Gaedeke, who bid in "SS" 55.

Second Division—

Our new schedules are out and sure look good. No one should have any kick coming whatever.

Bro. Cornell, agent Harrodsburg, has to work 12 hours and 30 minutes now since the two operators were cut off there. As he is a mile from town, he does not get much rest.

Our new president, Mr. F. A. Delano, was over the road a few days ago and made a "hit" with everyone he met. He appears to be an up-to-date railroad man. While we regret to lose Mr. Harrison, we are glad to get Mr. Delano on this road.

From his past record, organized labor has a friend in him.

We are all sorry to learn that Bro. Robertson, agent Clear Creek, has severed his connection with this road, and wish him success. He was one of our oldest members, always up to date.

Agency Stinesville, third Bedford, Wallace Jct. and "AD" nights bulletinized.

Have you paid your dues for the next half? Brothers, do not let this slip by, but pay them at once, and remind those working with you to do the same.

"Biz" is rather light at present, and expenses are being cut in every way possible. The shops at Lafayette, closed down before Christmas, opened January 12th.

Bro. Cornell relieved Bro. Speer, 1st McDoel, during holidays; then went to second Shops.

Operator Tharpe did the wire work in the depot at "Put" three days while clearing up the coal cars wreck there.

The agents at Greencastle and Gosport are required to do six hours' telegraphing now, same as several years ago.

Bro. E. F. Packwood, first West Baden, has been off duty on account of sickness. Here's wishing him well and back with us soon.

We are sorry to hear of Bro. Williams being pulled off at Mitchell on account of slack business and hope it will not last long.

In future when anyone applies for a position bulletinized, forward a copy of application to the local chairman of the division where the vacancy exists. See that this is done in all cases, and don't forget to report all vacancies to your local chairman.

Bro. I. B. Packwood, second Salem, visiting in Illinois, was relieved by Mr. Tharpe, who promises to be with us soon as he lands a regular job.

Bro. Fox, first Gosport, cut off, bumped Bro. Savo on second there, who bumped Bro. Dunkin, second Wallace Jct., to extra board.

Bro. Bennett back on second Shops after doing relief work in "AD" a few months. Bro. Cornell on third.

Boys, while business is slack is the time to clean up around your office and get ready for the early spring rush, as it will soon be here.

Bro. West, relief agent First District, working "AD" nights during the slump in business.

Bro. Strain, agent Gosport, off duty, relieved by Bro. Fox, from first there.

Bro. Parks is back at Bainbridge agency, after several weeks' committee work. Bro. Henson has returned to second there, and Bro. Dunkin bid in second Wallace Jct.

Bro. Whitehouse, extra, working "SP" New Albany yards.

The meeting held at Bowles Hotel, Bloomington, was a decided success, and the boys came from quite a distance to attend. All enjoyed a good time and are wishing for such another one in the near future. We would like to see some of the brothers from the First Division attend some of our meetings down here.

Boys, let us all brace up now and show our new president what kind of stuff there is in us.

Bro. Shorr, first Greencastle, off a few days, relieved by Carl Hibburn, attending college there, who would be with us if he expected to follow the business.

Thanks to those who sent me items this month. Every little bit helps. Keep it up and we will have a good write-up every month.

Norfolk & Western Ry.

 Shenandoah Division, Hagerstown to Winston-Salem—

Business lively; trainmen making full time and lots of them overtime; enough to make board.

Mrs. George was hurt in an automobile accident near Buchanan, Va., but Bro. George, second trick dispatcher, says not seriously.

Bro. Renfro, second Walkertown, relieved on vacation by Mr. Carter, who also relieved Mr. Hamilton, second Madison.

Bro. T. J. Teague, agent Madison, while attending court was relieved by Bro. Gentry.

Bro. Moffit, third trick dispatcher, off a few days, was relieved by Extra Dispatcher "H."

Bro. O. H. Grubbs has returned from Hot Springs entirely recovered and has returned to work. Everybody is glad to hear "G" back on the wires.

Bro. McNeil was a recent visitor at Lynchburg.

Bro. W. P. Wheeler, agent Walnut Cove, N. C., while attending the funeral of his uncle, was relieved by Bro. Gentry.

The annual banquet, held in Roanoke, Va., on Saturday, January 10th, was well attended, considering that all the boys were unable to be relieved, although Mr. Graves relieved all he possibly could. The committee had a delightful program arranged, which was enjoyed by all. The boys who attended say they had a fine time.

It is now past time to pay dues, and we hope all the boys will respond well, as "In union there is strength.

Boys, send us the news. We are unable to find it all.

Bro. Dillard was relieved, to get married, by Bro. Hawkins.

Many thanks to Bro. Roy Vines for notes.

"CW" & "XN" at "W."

Michigan Central R. R.

East, Toledo and Bay City Divisions—

Those who are interested in seeing news in our beloved journal should get busy, take an interest in furnishing us the news. We all like to read, but do not all seem willing to help gather it.

Fire destroyed the main portion of the Michigan Central depot at Third street, on the waterfront, on December 26th, about one week before it had been planned to move into the new depot on Fifteenth street, at the tunnel entrance. It is fortunate that the latter structure was so near completion when the disaster occurred, as it was possible to make a quick shift and transfer to the new station with but a small amount of inconvenience to the public, and business moved along, and the people were being taken care of at the new place as if the thing had been going on for years. Too much can not be said in praise of the magnificent new passenger station, costing two and a half million dollars, the tallest depot building in the world, and the finest in this country, west of New York City. We speak of the boys in "F" office now as aristocrats, in their palatial quarters.

Our regular monthly meeting at Prismatic Hall, 140 First street, Detroit, Monday, Jan. 19, came off as usual. We did not have the celebrities with us as at the previous meeting, but nevertheless the time was well spent, and thoroughly enjoyed, as all our meetings are. There were many things of interest to discuss, and no dull moments. The progress of our schedule negotiation was gone over and wish our entire membership might have been present to enter into the discussion. Many more might be if they would make but a small effort. The local chairman made a report of finances in connection with our recent party here, showing expenses of $44.15 and receipts of $57.30, leaving a comfortable credit balance of $13.15, to say nothing of the pleasure gained. So the affair was a huge success all around. Bro. Lorenzo W. Mills, of Milwaukee Junction tower, is the champion booster, having sold eighteen tickets, and no one can tell how many he really would have sold.
if he hadn’t run out of them. Bro. Mills has the thanks of all for his efforts. He is showing a brand of brotherliness and unionism that ought to be infectious, and will bring victory.

Bro. George L. Foran, Josef Ferriot and William E. Bell were welcome visitors and partic-pants of our last regular; Bro. Frank L. Stuart also honored us and took charge of the petition in favor of Bro. Hunter, who is said to be wrongly held in the Nevada State Prison, and is circulating it among the towermen and other employees, securing names by the hundred. This petition will be circulated among all our members, who will, of course, give their support, as it is worthy.

A subscription is being sent over the Bay City Division in favor of Bro. Goldie, agent at West Branch, Mackinaw Division, who has had about all the bad luck imaginable, and the boys will rally to his aid, as they always do in cases of this kind. We are only poor, low-paid telegraphers, but we can always spare a little money and much sympathy for a worthy brother in distress. We won’t live always, and when the earth ly end is near, the most comforting memories will be of kindnesses done to relieve suffering.
Let us leave

"Footsteps that, perhaps, another,
Sailing o’er life’s solemn main,
A forlorn and shipwrecked brother,
Seeing, may take heart again."

Bro. Arthur M. Burke, extra, residence Banccroft, Mich., is a new member. We hope he will soon be a regular.

Bro. G. H. Kratzmiller, third Chelsea; Wm. J.
Gifford, Toledo, Ohio, and W. L. Patterson, Newport, are new members.

Bro. James M. Coyne reports Mrs. Coyne not feeling very well. We hope she meets with improvement at once.

Bro. M. J. Carey advises the babies are having some indispositions characteristic of very young children. Bro. Carey and wife have the sympathy of all.

The agencies at Caro and Colling are on bulletin; Bro. Dymond has resigned, much to our regret, and the Colling affair is one for an investigation.

It is again Bro. Arthur R. Easterle, second North Yard, he having lapsed while temporarily out of the service.

Bro. Walter Eames, Monroe, took in the automobile show as well as our last meeting, January 19th. Bros. B. W. Garner, Wyandotte, C.
E. DeRouise, "F" Detroit, Dorr Felt, Transfer
House, also attended.

Bro. Guy Van Dusen and wife recently visited at Mackinaw, Chicago, Niles and Detroit, on Bro.
Van Dusen’s vacation.

Mrs. Schlicht, wife of Bro. H. C. Schlicht, agent at Thomas, recently visited her people in Lansing.

Fifteenth and Twentieth St. towers, Detroit, were given the second set of towermen, also two train directors, making eight men at each tower, when the new depot was opened up, making the train movements at those points very heavy. Bro. Silas
W. Osborn has been made one of the train directors at Twentieth street, and we understand that Bro. William N. Carter is to be put on the other track. These are new positions, and we opine better men could not have been chosen. The three new men on the levers at Twentieth Street are Bros. George H. A. Ruby, Archibald T.
Hewson and Anthony H. Turskey. Did you notice we said "brothers"? This makes Twentieth Street the champion tower on the road. Bro.
Frank Swaller has moved up from Livernoise tower to Bay City Junction through the shifting.

Saturday evening, Jan. 17th, the middle division brothers gave one of the good times for which they are noted at Webb Block Hall, Jackson, which was attended by a goodly number from this section, prominent among whom were: Bros.
G. A. Thompson, Chas. H. Pfeiffer, W. H.
Comins, Detroit; W. J. Poor, J. W. Speer and
G. H. Kratzmiller, Chelsea.

Boys, be prompt with dues and thus relieve the officer in charge of unnecessary work and worry.
(We didn’t need to mention the girls in this matter, they always are O. K.)

Kindly mail me any items of interest before time for next write-up.

Northern Division—

Bro. R. Stokes, third Wenona, while relieving Ticket Agent Whiting, Bay City, E. S., for ten days, was relieved at "YD" by Mr. Biggs, a new man.

Bro. H. H. McCalpin, agent Frederic, bid in second relief agent position.

Bro. McQuade, wire chief Bay City, E. S., spent Christmas in Toledo visiting relatives.

Extra dispatchers, Bros. Shaw and Stokes, are back in "D1" Bay City, as vacations are over and the split trick in dispatcher’s office again pulled off. One dispatcher now handles all the trains on the Mackinaw Division.

W. H. Caldwell, our chief dispatcher, left on the 12th for a two months’ tour of the West, accompanied by his wife and daughter.

Bro. C. Bowden, second Pinconning, has resigned to go on the extra list, as he wishes to get over on the Bay City Division.

Five extra operators sent home on the 10th on account dull business and no one wishing to get off.

Bro. Charles E. Goldie has been compelled to resign as agent at West Branch, having been on the sick list for nearly a year now. We sincerely hope the change in work will soon restore him to his natural health.

Loranger has been opened as a telegraph office for the ice season by Mr. Hembling, who will soon be a brother.

Very little snow so far up on the north end this winter, and trains are all running nearly on time.

Mrs. Szepanack, wife of Bro. Fred Szepanack, leveeman at North Lansing, died very suddenly at her home, December 29th, of heart trouble, leaving the brother with five small children. He has our heartfelt sympathy in his bereavement.

On January 14th the board of arbitration, in session in Cleveland, granted the telegraphers on the Wheeling and Lake Erie, and Wabash-Pittsburg Terminal railroads an increase of $5.00 a month, and also better working conditions, effective December 1st, which brings their minimum to $65.00 a month. This looks indeed encouraging to us at this critical time, and we trust that we will be as successful in our efforts as our brother telegraphers.

Bro. Valley has finally been transferred to agency Alger; Mr. Hoyt, a new man, getting agency at St. Helen. Box.

Detroit Division—

Assignments on bulletin: Mr. Hodgson to third West Toledo, and Mr. Hunter to third West Detroit; both new men. Foner Earl Smith relieved our local chairman on Newport third, while at Cleveland.

Bro. Frank Sullivan, traveling operator from Michigan Division, who went to Newport, also relieved Bro. Aten, on account of sickness a few days.

Agency Deerfield is up for bids.

Michigan Division—

A. R. Long relieved Bro. Rogers, Wauseon. Bro. Sullivan, who relieved Bro. Stephens from that place, also relieved Mr. Gipe at Nasby tower a few days, and then went to "XD" relay.

Bro. Gill, from the M. C., who relieved on third Lenawee Jct., later bid in third Nasby tower vice Mr. Kyle.

IN MEMORIAM.

Whereas, Our Father has deemed it best to call our brother, Edward A. Larkin, to his home on high, and

Whereas, We feel that the Order has lost a worthy member and the community a conscientious and valued citizen, and his family a kind and loving husband and father, therefore, be it

Resolved, That the members of System Division No. 16, Order Railroad Telegraphers, extend to the bereaved family and relatives their sincere sympathy, and be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be published in The Telegrapher, and a copy sent to the family.

Pennsylvania Ry. Lines East.

Baltimore Division—

A very large meeting of the B. & O. and Baltimore Division P. R. R. was held at Baltimore, Md., on Friday, January 16th. We were favored with the presence of the fourth vice-president and the entire general committee from the B. & O., also the general chairman, Bro. Stenger, from the C. H. & D., and general chairman of the P. R. R., Bro. J. F. Miller.

Bro. Miller, of the P. R. R. presented for the consideration of the members a bill giving all telegraphers in the State of Maryland two days rest a month with regular compensation. By a unanimous vote it was decided to present a bill in the State legislature, and Bro. F. F. Sullivan, B. & O., and Bro. J. F. Miller, general chairman P. R. R., was made a committee of two to look after the bill in that body.

The brothers in the State of Maryland should all do their part, especially by seeing the different members in their respective counties and city wards and ask them to support the bill.

We understand that our general chairman employed counsel to represent the Order of Railroad Telegraphers before the Public Service Commission at Harrisburg, Pa., on January 20th, when the question of passes for the dependent members and wives of the employees was taken up, which shows the rank and file that our organization is always alert and looking after the interest of the telegraphers.

Quite a few of the brothers attended the meeting at Harrisburg, Pa., Wednesday, Jan. 23d. From our division we noticed our Bros. W. O. Knaub, A. K. Hoyer, B. D. Bare, G. C. Herbst and G. M. Sterner. In all there were about 57 present, and the occasion will be especially remembered as we secured several applications.

You no doubt received the circular letter from the general chairman urging each member to get a member this year. If that is done, the question of solid organization is settled, and we shall then be in a better position to secure concessions than we are now.

All should pay their dues within the two calendar months so as to always be in good standing, so that your committee could count upon your support.

A number of changes are contemplated within a short time and the nons may feel they had better get right so as to assist rather than retard the work that we have in hand. The organization always stands for a square deal and straight seniority rights, and to get what we are deserving of by reason of service rendered.

Many reports are circulated that we are going to get two relief days a month, others that we are going to get more money; but the truth is we shall get it only by thorough organization through the efforts of the men. Therefore let us line up every non that comes on our division.

"Fred" and "Jimmy."

Maryland Division—

The year 1913 is past and gone, and with a very few exceptions the men have stood faithful to the cause. We have increased our membership by a considerable number, and the prospect is very bright for a continuation of the good work.

The very few who have dropped out have injured themselves more than anyone else. They evidently have no desire to assist in the betterment of themselves and their fellow workmen, but are content to let others do it for them. However we will continue to move forward, and when the day arrives, which it surely will, when we have achieved the success due us, they will regret their actions.

Your local chairman desires to express his appreciation of the assistance given him during the year, and feels assured you will continue to help him in the future, as you have done in the past.

Let us all resolve to make the year 1914 a banner one for the organization. If we all work together we can do it. Let our slogan be, "One Hundred Per Cent or Bust," and if carried out faithfully, I'll guarantee we won't bust.

Wish all a happy and prosperous new year.

CERT. 27.

Williamsport and Susquehanna Divisions—

It is a great pleasure for me to say, to you knights of the key, that we have closed the most successful year's work in the history of the organization on the Williamsport and Susquehanna Divisions, and the same report comes from other divisions on the Pennsylvania lines east of Pittsburgh and Erie. The men were never before so inclined to pull together and to work in such complete harmony as at the present time.

We have done a marvelous work, and the oldest men in the service are happily congratulating each other for the co-operative movement which is being done to elevate our profession to a standard of perfection, and which can not help but spell success and victory.

Members who heretofore were somewhat backward in the movement are found today in the front ranks and are showing the non-members their duty which they owe to their fellowmen, and especially towards those who are leading the movement. Every week comes mail giving great encouragement in the work.

At a recent series of three meetings held at Sunbury and at Williamsport one hundred and ten men were present, enthusiasm ran high, and as a result many new members were enrolled and old members of the craft renewed their pledges and their allegiance to the organization. Addresses were made by a number of the leaders in the ranks, not only from our organization but from chairmen of other bodies as well, and all were received amid great applause. The most important part of these meetings, and which is the main theme in the ranks today, is to bring together the five great brotherhoods into one great body of men who handle the trains, for our mutual protection and interests. The rank and file of all these great brotherhoods are heartily in favor of a move of this kind and it is to be hoped that we will all get together for concerted action in the near future.

We have long since passed the century mark, new members are being added monthly and a large number are assured for this month, men of sterling worth and ability, a credit to any organization, thus starting the new year with renewed vigor and increased activity, which is very encouraging to the membership.

Let every member wear the O. R. T. emblem on the lapel of his coat, I will gladly furnish them, without charge, upon request. I trust you will strictly comply with this request as it means much to the profession.

I desire to extend my sincere thanks and appreciation to every one of the brothers and sisters for the very handsome roll top desk presented to me at Christmas time, which will greatly assist me with my work. It was a very timely and thoughtful present.

We are passing into the new year with greater activity and more determination to work hand in hand to achieve our rights we shall ere long secure all we so richly deserve.

If we are wise we will look ahead, turn our backs on the past and remember that "the mill will not grind with the waters that have passed," but that we must continue the work of organization in order to enjoy the fruits of our labors.

We are far in advance of last year this time and much better fitted for the work of this year than we ever have been. We have a membership far above the century mark and new members are coming in every month, having added five to the ranks in January, with many more applications on-hand with part payments and others on the way. The members are paying up nicely. During the first thirty days of this dues-paying period fifty per cent were paid in and ere this reaches you we shall be all paid up working hand in hand to close the balance of these who favor the movement for better conditions.

It has been a great pleasure to me to work with you good, loyal members, and I can see each of you growing stronger in the work as time passes on, which of course, causes me to feel elated over the future and to take on renewed vigor and more confidence over the ultimate outcome of our affairs.

Non-members are in a class by themselves and are deserving of no favors whatever, and if the "No card, no favors" would be applied to this class of men it would probably set them to thinking. When a man stays aloof from an organization of his class in this day of knowledge and advancement, it indicates that he is too selfish to advance his own interests. More education along organization lines is therefore needed to convert this class of men to have them put aside their selfishness, help their fellowmen and boost instead of knock.

Allow me to urge your continued co-operation. "United we stand, divided we fall." By working along the same lines during this year as we have done in the past, a schedule on the "Pennsy" is assured.

A. C. GRIEB, L. C.

Williamsport and Susquehanna Division Notes—

Bro. S. H. Young has returned to duty after being off since October 5th with rheumatism. We are pleased to hear him back on the "string" again.

Bro. S. W. Reichenbauch, off sick recently, was relieved by Bro. J. W. Derrick.

The heavy cannonading in the hills around Montandon last month was caused by Bros. G. E. Shaffer and A. N. Best, in their efforts to supply the brothers on the division with a winter’s supply of game. Have not heard of any brothers being foundered on it yet.

Bro. A. R. Fenstermacher off few days recently, was relieved by Bro. A. L. Grimm. Bro. “Fensty” and Bro. Wagner have traded tricks for few weeks owing to the illness of Mrs. Fenstermacher. We hope for her speedy recovery.

Bro. W. D. Mantz is on first “RF” pending bids.

Bro. Atwood, Wetzel, off recently with tonsils, we are glad to learn is again on the job.

Bro. W. S. Minner is thinking very seriously whether he can keep two on $67.35 per or not.

Bro. F. W. Wetzel and wife took in the sights at Baltimore and Washington on his last relief day.

Bro. W. D. Gresh recently visited his brother, C. A. Gresh, at Northumberland, and also called on Bro. F. W. Wetzel.

The work at “SV” has increased so much since making it a train order office with three tricks that an additional man has been put on from 5:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. “Steve.”

West Jersey & Seashore Division—

On January 22d we had two rousing meetings at the Goff Building—morning and night—which were well attended. The boys of this division, however, should have made a better showing when men past seventy from distant points on the system can attend. Those who were too busy to get around missed the best gathering we ever had. If you want to know what is going on, come out to these meetings, and see that those who can not see their way clear yet to get an up-to-date come also. We are paying for the hall and all other expenses, and it will cost them nothing to come and hear how they can help us to push the work to a final conclusion.

Bro. J. F. Miller was pleased to see so many out. He was at his best, and gave us a good talk.

There were members from the Schuykill, Baltimore, Central Maryland, Trenton and Philadelphia Terminal Divisions present, and it did us good to hear these old warriors tell the facts in regard to conditions in times past.

The second trick men probably had the largest meeting, although the night meeting was also a good one, and quite a few noms were present both morning and night. Many were convinced that they have been laboring under the wrong impression, and some of them will soon be brothers.

Every man in our department is welcome to these meetings, be he member or not, and we hope the agents will come out in full force and affiliate with those who are trying to help them.

Any who may not yet have paid their dues should remember that after February 28th they will not be beneficial and their beneficiaries will be unprotected. Be sure to mail your assessments to Bro. Quick for the M. B. D., and your $4.50 dues to Bro. Nightingale. See how near we can come to having every man paid up by February 28th. Quite a number have already paid up, and we want to make a good showing on our division this term by paying up promptly and thus help Bro. Nightingale, who, unfortunately, has been off sick for several weeks, but still working for us while lying in bed. Make him feel good by keeping up to date and getting that non next to you. See that those who have promised to come in this month live up to it.

The new men who have come here recently are cordially invited to come to our meetings, so that we may tell them why we need their assistance.

Bro. J. L. Hand is off sick with the gripe, W. W. Carr relieving.

Bro. Nightingale is again able to return to duty. Bro. Hendrickson’s little son is quite sick. We hope he will soon be well again.

Bro. J. C. Marshall, Atlantic City, is convalescent and will soon be able to resume his place.

We are glad to learn that it is now Bro. H. H. Peacock again.

Our meetings for the balance of the year will be held on February 26th, March 26th, April 23d, May 28th, June 25th, July 23d, August 27th, September 24th, October 22d, November 26th and December 24th. Cut this out and paste it in your hat. You will also find them advertised in the division directory in the back of the journal, so there will be no excuse for non-attendance. Keep posted and save this unnecessary expense to the division of sending out monthly notices.

Our gain in membership on this division and the smallest delinquent list in our history is very gratifying.

Do your duty like the men did on the D. & H. recently, our officials will do the rest.

DIV. COR.

Delaware Division—

Boys, we have started on a new year, and I hope every member will do everything possible to make this one of the banner years on this division. From reports received in the last few days, things are booming all over the system, and we do not want to see any other division ahead of us.

I suppose all of you have received the president’s report, which shows what the Order has accomplished during the past year. After you read it, if you do not come in and help with the good work, you are beyond redemption, and the only place for you is back to the tall timbers.

The joint brotherhood meeting that our local chairman, Bro. Truitt, has so earnestly been working for was held January 25th and was a rousing success.

Bro. D. P. Keith, of “WN” tower, had an enjoyable trip to Chicago recently to attend the marriage of his daughter, Miss Naoma. He will probably take a trip West at least once a year thereafter.
R. H. Todd, third "WN" tower, now extra in the dispatcher's office, was relieved by C. L. Skoekley. Bro. J. C. Smith, off for some time with typhoid fever, we are glad to hear is improving. We hope to have him back at his old job soon. Bro. Russell is relieving him.

Robert Clifton, who was taken suddenly ill while at work on December 14th, was sent home, and died after two days' illness. We have lost a good friend, one of the oldest operators, he having worked on this road over thirty years.

J. B. Mahoney, agent Kirkwood, off for some time owing to trouble with his eyes, is some better but not able to work. He is being relieved by our good Bro. Sapp, of "J" tower.

R. C. Wainwright, of "B" tower, is also ill.

Trenton Division, Lower End—

The meetings at Camden on January 22d were rousing ones. Over fifty attended in the morning and forty at the night meeting. General Chairman Miller and Bro. Truitt, who addressed us, were much encouraged by the way the boys came out.

Extra Praul has started a telegraph school at his home, on this division; charges, 20 cents a lesson. This is a "free advertisement." You brothers know how to make it pay (?)

It is now Bro. Harold Platt, Mt. Holly, N. J., thanks to Bro. J. H. Austin, Jr.

Bro. Eppler has bid in second "BO" Borden-town.

Bro. Moore, while off sick, was relieved by Mr. Maitland.

Buffalo Division—

Things begin to look brighter for us, brothers, so pay up your dues and stick. We have a few new members already this year, and things look good for a lot more. Let's everyone try to get the "one" that Bro. Miller requested we get in his circular; then we would soon be solid. But don't stop at one if you know where you can land another.

Brothers, please send in a few notes. It is pretty hard for me to learn everything going on, and your assistance helps to have a better write-up in the journal.

Talk to the nons around you and see if they will be willing to come to a meeting, and advise me of the result. They would get a lot of good information at such a meeting that no one else could give them.

C. O. Parks has been assigned acting division operator, vice C. H. Sourwin, appointed passenger trainmaster. D. C. Daley has gone to Albany, N. Y., as Senate journal clerk.

Our officials are faithfully looking after our matters in connection with the committee on industrial relations at Washington, D. C., and working for an amendment to the Martin bill, making a straight eight-hour day for all men handling trains by blocks, manual or electric, or tending main track switches, and no split trips or twelve-hour jobs. Get the nons to understand what we are doing for them, and they will come in and support us in this good work.

Allegheny Division—

Everything is moving along nicely up this way, and the boys are all paying up for the current term better than ever before. The few who dropped out last term have nearly all promised to come in again, and help us to work for our mutual interest. The "get together" movement is showing good results, eight new members joining in January on this division alone, and more are coming in before the end of this month to help pay for the benefits the O. R. T. has already secured for them and work for better conditions.

Remember our motto when they ask for favors, and enforce it at all times.

Bro. George Logue was relieved by Bro. F. L. Watson while on his honeymoon trip.

Bro. F. A. McNamara is on second Foster regular.

Bro. J. R. Karns spent his relief day with his parents at Lower Hillville.

Three extra dispatchers on the Salamanca Branch have been taken off, putting Bro. Geerhart back on second "VS." Bro. Will bumped Bro. C. B. McCoy, third "NB." Bro. C. J. Rodabauger bid in first Oil City shops; Bro. F. L. Watson bid in third "DS," and Bro. C. B. Johnson bid in third "RD." Mr. Sipson was relieved by Bro. Johnson, from the Renovo Division, on first Center street while relieving Mr. Sloan visiting his parents at Bradford, Pa.

Mr. O'Neil, director, while visiting his parents in New Jersey, was relieved by Bro. F. P. Murray.

Sister V. D. Snyder accompanied a party of young folks from Kennerdell on a sleigh ride to Rockland recently, where they enjoyed an oyster supper.

Bro. J. T. McNaughton and wife went to Pitts- burg recently to hear the Rev. Billy Sunday preach. Bro. W. J. Steele was also a recent Pittsburgh visitor, and we understand will need a preacher soon for another purpose than to be preached to.

Bro. L. A. King has resigned to go into the oil business in California, relieved by C. M. Wicks on relief job No. 5. We all wish Bro. King success in his new undertaking. These relief jobs should be put up for bid, but as it is now anyone who wants one gets it by making application.

Dispatcher E. A. Boyles, second Oil City, off ten days on account of the death of his father in Pittsburg, was relieved by Extra Dispatcher Neely. He has our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in his sad bereavement.
New south bound receiving and classification yards are being installed at Venango, with fourteen tracks. Looks as if Venango will be made a terminal some day.

D. S. Flower assigned second Quaker, vice Bro. Persall to third "QA."

F. C. Dean is now on second Red House. Wonder if his religion is still against joining secret societies.

Bro. J. C. Garin, Bradford, took in Olean on his relief day, and Bro. J. C. Lamb, first Vandalia, spent his with his family at Alleghany.

Mr. Guignon, off some time on account of his hearing, has returned to third "AY" tower, Bro. S. P. Gilbert going back to second "SA."

Bro. T. W. Pringle was off some time, relieved by L. L. Brown, who also relieved F. C. Brown while on sick list.

Bro. King, at Carrollton, and Schobery, at Onoville, are holding down twelve-hour jobs on account of the depression in business.

Bro. F. A. McGill, agent Kinzua, was off sick several days, relieved by Relief Agent J. V. Hackett.

Bro. F. T. Daugherty visited his sister at Bradford recently.

It is now Bro. Keating, second "GD;" Crawford, first Rockmerie; Seitz, Hickory; Thompson, third Trunk evil, and others will soon follow on the Salamanca branch. It is also Bros. H. B. Campbell and J. M. Campbell, extra; G. M. Sloughenhoupt, first "PA;" Bro. P. A. Campbell, second "SK," and more to follow on the main line soon.

A certain gentleman paid his compliments to several of the men on this division by sending them a copy of his little journal, in which it is pleasing to note the New Year resolution. We hope he will live up to it.

We are expecting to hold some very interesting brotherhood meetings at some point on this division before very long, which we hope will be well attended, as this will bring some of us closer together.

I received very good support from several of the brothers for this write-up, and hope the relief men will assist me hereafter with a few notes, as requested. Let me have your items not later than the 22d. I will appreciate it very much.

The D. & H. boys have certainly shown us how to make a quick settlement. We all need to do the same thing here is for every brother to take an active part and help us get in the noms. Then we can have a federation with the five great brotherhoods. Get busy, brothers, and work for thorough organization. Therein lies success.

Sunbury Division

Dues period is here again, and I wish to call the attention of the members to the vital importance of keeping up to date, thus insuring your families’ future welfare as well as doing your duty to organized labor. I have tried to encourage you all by the notes in these columns in the previous thirteen months, and did all I could for my fellow telegraphers on the Sunbury and Shamokin Divisions. I took the reins when no one sought the position, and wish to thank the boys who have remained loyal. We must practice the "no card, no favors" rule more strenuously than heretofore, in order to thoroughly organize our divisions. The future is what we will make it. The time is ripe to get busy and do our duty to our organization and ourselves. A lesson has been taught us by the graceful manner the D. & H. boys played their part recently. When you talk federation, be sure you have the facts before you to make your hearers understand it. Best wishes to the "old guard."

Philadelphia Division—

Perhaps one of the things most feared in the world is poverty. The fear of old age will creep on and find one battling to keep poverty out. This discourages many people. Nobody wants to be dependent on others for the privilege of living after the brain has been dulled and the arm weakened by the ravages of time. It is not the idler who dreads the approach of poverty with the coming years, but the man who has worked hard, who has fought the battle, but not with the success to be assured that he has enough of the world’s goods to rest when the shadows of life commence to lengthen and the sun goes down in the west. There has never been a good reason given why this dread should haunt us, because nearly everybody dies in "the harness." But the poorhouse has its horrors that often unfit a man in the very best portion of life. It would be a great thing if we had no fear of old age and poverty—a bugaboo that does more harm than a belief in witches. Statistics show that ninety per cent of old men die poor, and underpaid telegraphers in general will be represented very largely in this ninety per cent of dependents.

The P. R. R statistics show nearly four thousand pensioners. The engineers have twelve per cent retired with a pension, and the telegraphers not one per cent. On the three main-line divisions there isn’t one telegrapher that has the pleasure of retirement. The reasons for such a discrepancy are high tension on the nervous system, lack of physical exercise, close confinement and the dreaded fear of making a mistake which might cause death and the facing of imprisonment for manslaughter.

"The heart that is soonest awake to the flowers is always the first to be touched by the thorns."

"Long, long be my heart with such memories filled,
Like the vase in which roses have once been distilled.
You may break, you may shatter the vase if you will,
But the scent of the roses will hang round it still."

The semi-annual dues, commencing January 1st, are now due. Don’t forget that "procrastination is the thief of time." Pay now and avoid the thief.

THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER.

N. Y., O. & W. R. R.

Northern Division—

Bro. J. J. Hartigan, first Oswego, while attending the funeral of a relative at Norwich, was relieved by G. A. Rhodees.

Bro. J. B. Dixon, of the Norwich dispatcher's force, visited his home town, North Bay recently.

Bro. P. J. Loftus, off a few days recently, was relieved by H. W. Lewis, who later relieved Bro. Wicks at Caughdenoy for a short time.

Bro. F. L. Hamilton, agent Central Square, is back again after being off a week with the grippe, relieved by Art Getman, formerly on N. Y. C., now a thrifty farmer.

Third Fulton and first Welbers have been abolished.

Bro. Beech, agent Galena, while off sick was relieved by his neighbor, Mr. Lindsay, D. L. & W. agent there who worked both jobs.

If I have called any one "Bro." not entitled to the title, do not let your conscience bother you, but just send in your application or pay up your back dues, and it will be all right.

H. K., Div. Cor., Cert. 122.

Southern Division—

On January 8th, at Albany, Judge Brady found the New York Central Railroad guilty of violation of Section 8 of the Labor Law, which provides for two days' rest a month for signalmen and operators, and imposed the minimum fine. The district attorney brought the action on complaint of the Department of Labor, under Section 1275 of the Penal Law. The case will, no doubt, be appealed, but this decision leaves the Department in a position to bring further action in case of renewed violations, while the appeal is pending.

The chances now are far in our favor, that we will soon have two days off each month with pay, which we are so much entitled to, even with that, our working conditions in that respect are far behind other classes of labor, since we have to work all Sundays and holidays. However, it is one large advance step for the relief of those conditions, and from past experiences it is plain to be seen that solid organization is the only remedy to bring about conditions that will place us on equity with other employment of like nature. Therefore, I again appeal to you that it is your duty and for your benefit to have an up-to-date card by February 28. Do not give the nons a rest until you have them safe; I have plenty of blanks. Don’t be afraid to ask for them.

Give your employers the best service you can and let them know that the O. R. T. is beneficial for them as well as for us. C. L. Cook, L. C.

Southern Division Notes—

Bro. B. F. Maybee was off January 3d and 4th, relieved by Bro. Terwilliger.

Bro. R. Davis, second Cooks Falls, off December 31st and a few days in January, relieved by Extra Keator.

Bro. Misner and Barnes, second and third Neversink tower, changed about, as a result of Bro. Barnes having bid in second Roscoe.

Bro. H. A. Smith, third Cadosia, accompanied his wife to the home of her parents in Genesee County, January 7th, on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Smith’s mother. Bro. Smith, who resumed work January 18th, was relieved the first day by the first and second trick men doubling and the balance of the time by relief operator, Bro. Lyons.

On Sunday, Jan. 11th, Bro. Walter Niles, who had been working at Atlanta, Ga., for some time, arrived in Cadosia in a condition where a little brotherly kindness was in order, and Bro. F. A. Wood, who came on duty at 3 p. m., making a few inquiries and using the wire, sent him on his way on train No. 5, with a kindly feeling in his heart for Division 20, as represented by Bros. Wood and Lyons of “HD” office.

The D. & H. one-day strike is an object lesson to the truth of the motto, “United we stand, divided we fall.” Let us have our general chairman get busy with the chairmen of the other orders on this road, and arrange for a similar federation.

Bro. L. C. Wheat, agent Valley Junction, on December 30th moved into the new station there, one of the best on the road; lighted by electricity, heated by steam, etc. There are also six good living rooms over it.

Bro. Pierce, of Mamakating tower, was off account of sickness the last of December.

H. J. DE GRAU, Div. Cor.

C., H. & D. R. R.

Second District, South—

The year 1913 has passed into history. The Second District South, since April 1, 1913, have taken in six new members between Lima and Dayton, in addition to the renewals. The brothers are showing increased interest in the Order, for which they have our hearty thanks, as it augurs well for 1914.

Several minor grievances have been taken up and settled by your committee and the few others pending will no doubt be settled favorably to those interested. Any of the brothers having a grievance should first take it up personally with the proper official, preserving a copy of the correspondence, and if not successful in adjusting the trouble, then turn over all papers in the case to the local or general chairman, and anything possible will be done to reach an agreement.

There must be good grounds for a complaint, otherwise the committee loses some of its influence for good, and lessens the chances for settling well-founded complaints. Within the past year no serious difficulties have arisen, chiefly because the company has been fair with the boys, and in return have received a maximum of good service from all, and where these conditions exist harmony is always the result. Let it continue so during the present year.

During the early part of the last year several of the brothers were victims of the great Ohio valley flood. Although our efforts to aid them were unsuccessful they still carry an up-to-date card in their pockets.

A special assessment previously issued was recalled on November 23d. Anyone who may not yet have met the same should do so at once. Although every brother I have talked to has paid up, placing our treasury in a healthy condition again.

During the year past there has been a man on this district dismissed from the service for inefficiency.

Everyone should strive to put himself in a condition ready to accept a higher position offered at any time by making a constant and careful study of his line of work.

Division and committee meetings have been fairly well attended during the year, but the attendance in future, at the former, should be better, and every brother who can possibly do so should attend as there is always a chance to learn something of interest to each individual operator, promotes more interest in our grand Old Order, and instills friendship among the boys that would otherwise never materialize.

Along during the summer an effort was made to arrange for meeting at Lima, but so far none was ever called, and quite a bit of friendly criticism was directed towards the local chairman for the failure, but the fact of the matter is, this could not be avoided for various reasons, one of which was the inability of our general chairman to attend, account committee work which has been demanding most of his time since July, and as it was the desire of most of the boys to have our chairman present to give us a talk, meeting was not called as we secured no definite promise that he could attend, but as it's never too late to do good, we hope yet to be able to bring this meeting about, but would desire to have as a subject on which to talk, "A New Schedule," which likely will be the main topic of conversation when we again get together. Let us hope.

Towards the close the manual block system recently installed on this district is working fairly well.

The only point seemingly not clearly understood by trainmen being the allowing of one section of train to follow another, without first obtaining permission from the operator in advance. Before letting a second train into block ask the operator in advance for block and when the block is not clear, and the advance operator signals five, the operator having the train following should give 17 for whatever freight is about to enter block, and receive 13 from advance man before issuing caution board to the second train. When in doubt as to what to do at any time, ask your dispatcher, as the man in authority, and then go ahead.

Should some brother, with an up-to-date, happen your way, do everything you can to get him started right, but remember our slogan, "No card, no favors."

Don't forget to send the division correspondent a few notes each month.

I wish to thank every brother on the division for his assistance during the past year, in the work of organization. Whenever an opportunity presents talk to the nons.

Anna agency was withdrawn from January 1st bulletin, Passman goes to "DY" dispatcher's office; Cawley gets first Troy, Baker first "GR" Cabin Troy, Cunningham second Leipsic Junction, Phillips agency Belmore, and Sullivan declines second Anna.

Ticket agency Brighton and third Tippecanoe City open January 1st.

Lilly, second S. W. Cabin, and Sellers, third Cridersville, are our new members for 1914. We all welcome them to Division 21.

Roomler gets first Lima, vice Cox going back to second there until advertised.

Second January bulletin: J. H. Ward to agency Brighton; J. C. Snell, third Troy; B. F. Ward, Third Tipp City; F. G. Shultz, second Anna, vice McCormick temporary; Cox gets second Lima, and Roberts, second North Lima, vice McCoubra temporary, leaving Stockton, Tipp City, Deabler and Bates and Erie Junction third, and North Lima third operator.

Let's try and persuade the boys filing these positions to come in with us, as the O. R. T. made it possible for them to bid on these jobs.

CERT. 207.

CARD OF THANKS.

I want to thank the members of Division 21 in behalf of my mother and father and myself, and express our appreciation of the beautiful floral offering presented by them at the funeral of my brother, Dec. 27, 1913.

D. E. GREENE, Cert. 198.

M., K. & T. "The Katy" R. R.

Waco District—

After a ten-year struggle in Nondom, the old Katy's name can now be erased from the list of non-scheduled roads. We have stepped from out that company with a schedule which pleases us all, and which was won by the efforts of the "true blues" who stood by the committee so faithfully; one which is so good that we are not ashamed to submit it to comparison with that of many older scheduled roads.

Along with the schedule we secured a nice increase of wages, and a general all-round readjustment of the wage scale. Relay men, straight telegraphers and agents were all remembered.

It behooves us to study the contract carefully clause by clause and live up to it in every particular. If you are entitled to any considerations in the way of hours of service or overtime under contract provisions, demand them.

The contract was fought for and obtained for the sole purpose of securing equal rights for all, and if a case of violation of it comes within your knowledge, report it to your local chairman.

"The concern of one is the concern of all," and if we allow precedents to be established, with the other fellow, our turn may come next.

The company has entered into this contract, in good faith, expecting to do its share toward living. up to its provisions, and it is up to you to show equally good faith.

We can all show our appreciation by making a general and immediate improvement in services rendered. Agents by personal solicitation of business and routing orders; all others affected, by more careful, efficient and prompt handling of the duties devolving upon them. We can, by this method, show the company that it has made a good investment, and thereby pave the way for future improvement in our own conditions financially and otherwise.

We are still afflicted with the usual quota of that ever present evil the non, who were the first to arise and cry, "Look what we have done," when the news of the favorable termination of our negotiations was announced.

I am calling the attention of the brothers, to those upon the Waco District and Texas Central, to the end that we, by individual effort, may show them the error of their way, and bring the desirable ones within the fold. We have them at "KV" Ft. Worth, New Yard, Alvarado, Burleson, Itasca, Hillsboro, Italy and at "D" Dallas. On the Texas Central at Whitney, De Leon and Cisco. These men were all legislated for and are enjoying the benefits and protection of the contract, to say nothing of the increase in wages, and have done nothing so far to assist us in any way.

If I have overlooked any of the nons in this write-up, let not their souls be grieved, for I will remember them in my next, and if any of those noted have lined up, kindly advise me and I will be more than glad to correct the error and call them brother.

Kindly bear in mind that the motto adopted by this division is strictly "No card, no favors," and should be lived up to the letter.

TO THE NONS.

You have read, and you have heard it repeated time and again, "Where there is unity there is strength." A house divided against itself can not stand, and that you can take one small stick, and break it with ease, but if you try to break a bunch of them tied together, you will find it a very difficult task; so it is with our organization, if we all join hand and hand, in a solid body, mighty and strong we will be.

You nons have received just as much benefit as far as the increase and working conditions are concerned as the loyal and trustworthy members have, and we, "the true blues," are sincerely asking you once more to come with us, and make one solid body of true blues for the entire M., K. & T. system, and prove to the good officials that organized telegraphers are better for the company, more loyal to their duty, a better class of men, than non-unionized men, by being loyal to ourselves, loyal to the company's interests, and performing our duty right up to the minute at all times.

Friend non, don't you want to be recognized by the company as one of the above? I have you any reason for standing back? You know that you have no good reason, and we want you to come in now, and be one of us.

United we will march steadily on, but divided we will be scattered to the four winds, and fall. You have my message, and I trust that you will look on it in a true light for your sake and come with us.

J. I. GATES.

C., M. & St. P. Ry.

La Crosse Division and Milwaukee Terminals—

The meetings at La Crosse on January 15th and at Portage on January 16th were certainly well attended. They were called to order by Local Chairman Upham, who, after a few brief remarks, turned the meeting over to General Chairman Soyster, and we had the pleasure of listening to a very interesting talk on various subjects which are or should be near and dear to every brother who is taking any interest in the welfare of his craft.

Brothers, I wish to urge one and all to get busy, and if you are unable to pull, then push, but be sure to see that your hat is in the ring, and that you are under it, and give our local chairman all the assistance you can in lining up the division solid. All appoint yourselves a committee of one and send me at least one item of news.

He was willing to come in, but had no one to help him. Write them up when you have them handy. Our local chairman can't see them all.

Send your items to S. V. Pollock, Box 44, Pinnee Grove, Ill. Let's have some every month.
S. V. POLLOCK, Div. Cor.

Bro. E. C. Rood, Slater tower first, and Bro. R. E. Heath, third, attended the special O. R. T. meeting in Des Moines on January 20th, and report an interesting time.

Mr. Stone, a non from North Carolina, discharged at Covington for continuous sleeping, was relieved by Mr. Welsh, a student. Bro. Fickes, from Murphy, unable to secure a boarding place at Covington to bump Bro. Jordan, relieved Bro. Grossman at Eiberon.
Bro. J. R. Millet, Van Horne third, did a first-class "safety first" act by flagging No. 63 with a broken beam down, thereby preventing what might have been a bad wreck.
Louisa nights closed, and Bro. Moxeney is now working twelve hours, Bro. E. T. Corbett bumping Bro. L. R. Carbee from second trick, who later resigned. Bro. A. A. Jordan, of third, bumped Mr. Welsh at Covington. Mr. Tricker, who bid in Covington second, was unable to get board, and is baching in the waiting room there. He promises to be with us soon as he can afford it.
Bro. A. A. Hettle, Slater tower second, attending his little boy, who was sick at Jewell Jct., was relieved the first day by Bro. Rood and Bro.
Bro. Wayne Martin had a close call for his life on the night of January 4th when No. 76 derailed four cars just west of the station, completely destroying the platform and moving the depot.

Bro. V. G. Drumb has returned from Florida, having put in about six weeks on his farm; relieved by Bro. J. J. Degnan, recently assigned third Guttenberg.

Bro. Ed. Christ, agent Turkey River, is on sick list.

Bro. L. W. Obershaw transferred from Gordon’s Ferry to Dubuque Shops, and Bro. Yohe from Waukon Jct. to Gordon’s Ferry.

Bro. Beerman, on six months’ leave, is now in Portland, Ore., Bro. Lyman having charge at Spring Grove.

Motor car has been in service between Dubuque and Waukon Jct., on Nos. 30 and 31, for several months.

Bro. L. E. Webb, agent Cascade, appointed to second Preston, Minn.; H. L. Goodsell transferred from LaMotte to Cascade.

The West Union Line is coming right to the front, Bros. W. C. Towle at Littleport, and H. J. Hansel at Osterdock, having recently joined our ranks.

Supt. Stapleton, on two months’ vacation, will be relieved by Chief Dispatcher Anderson; Dispatcher Crawford to act as chief, and Bro. W. O. Wright to work first.

Two new men on the division, O. T. Knapp at Smiths nights, and W. T. Townsend extra.

Des Moines Division—

Only three nons and two delinquents on this division. If you are one of the five, get in line and help the good cause along. If you don’t understand how things stand call up or write Local Chairman Cunningham at Panora.

Bro. Carl Osborn, of Marathon, who spent a few days in January visiting friends over the division, was relieved by Ed. Olson, an extra man, living at Clive, brother to the relief dispatcher in Des Moines. Ed. will get a card soon as qualified and has a steady position.

Wm. Roach, second Clive, is enjoying the benefits of our schedule, and does not have a card. He, as well as a few others, need a reminder. Let’s try.

Mr. Watts, on third, is not in the condition to belong to the Order as yet, but I am sure he will as soon as possible. He used to carry a card years ago.

Mrs. L. Jefferies, of Jefferson, and Mrs. O. W. Nelson, of Adel, were recent Des Moines visitors.

Chief Dispatcher W. D. Chase was called back East to attend the funeral of his sister. We O. R. T. boys extend our heartfelt sympathy.

Bro. T. Haylett, of Granger, off a few days, was relieved by Ed. Olson.
The post office at Panora was robbed January 22d. The robbers then broke into the tool house and swiped the hand-car, making their escape.

Boys, if you must leave for any length of time, ask permission; all good O. R. T. members will help a dispatcher out.

It is rumored that the Des Moines Division is going to have a general clean-up in the freight and train service. Better take warning and attend to business.

Wires are to be installed at Rands; understood is for Western Union biz only, but it undoubtedly will end in a regular telegraph job.

Our committee is still in Chicago, and we expect good results.

The weather has been fine and track in good shape for this time of year, nevertheless business is not as good as it was last year, but our officials are pleased to say that the agents and operators have done their work well, and sincerely hope they will all remain on the job.

The Des Moines O. R. T. Club has its regular meetings as usual; a special meeting was called Tuesday, Jan. 20th, for the C. R. I. & F. officials, and a big meeting Sunday, Jan. 25th. O. R. T. boys will be able to bring their wives and lady friends into the meetings hereafter. We want a better attendance and think this will help out; once the women get acquainted, they will probably organize a Ladies' Auxiliary.

If anyone of you are in trouble or not satisfied with your conditions, etc., just write the local chairman and explain it; if anything can possibly be done he will do it for you, and if any news please call "C" and tell me or write me at Clive.

S. S. P., Cor.

Soo City and Dakota Division—

We can have some kind of a write-up each month if the assistants will come to the rescue. It is necessary to have a member on the Manilla Line to send in the news, also one on the Soo Falls Line, one on the Mitchell Line, one on the Armour Branch, and one on the Platte Line, in order to make the write-up complete. The first thing is to find the member who will take enough interest each month to pick up a few items, which are of interest to those who have left the division, as well as those who are still here.

We only have three agents on this division now on the non list, but we are not represented at Yankton, and have not been for some time. There is also a strong force of nons at Sioux Falls.

Remember especially that while the committee is working for a revised schedule it is necessary to support it to the limit. A committee can not accomplish results without the support of the membership, therefore each one of you interest yourselves to that extent. We have complained about the United States mail for a great many years; since Jan. 1st, 1913, we have had extra weight added, with the parcel post, which has reduced express commissions about 30 per cent. The new express rates will make more express at a small compensation. Our salaries should be readjusted, and we should be relieved of the United States mail. We do not want to handle it at any price, but if we are obliged then we shouold be compensated for that work, as the Postmaster General has so recommended that the company receive an increase for extra weight. Our class of employees in Canada have recently been relieved of handing the government mail, and so should we in this country. The company claims it is compelled, by contract, to handle the mail to and from the postoffice, but it is not a life contract.

Mr. Van Pelt, from the K. C. S., at Hornick, says the O. R. T. never did him any good. I remember when the old Pittsburgh & Gulf (now K. C. S.) paid operators $30.00 per month.

Everybody play safe and send in your dues to Bro. Derrickson, and M. B. D. assessments to Bro. Quick before the last minute (Feb. 28th).

No chance to square it with the fire inspector; out with the oil stoves and in with the cook stoves in accordance with the latest circular.

Bro. Perry writes from Mapleton a line is being surveyed from Rodney to Manning, on the C. & C. B. Division, through north of Mapleton, through Dennison, which will probably be the main line, instead of the, present one from Rodney to Manilla.

Bro. McKnight, "DS" Soo City, later Hornick second, is now with the Union Pacific at Free- mont, Neb. Dispatchers' force "DS" reduced to five, Given taking side table, first, vice Sellers to Brughier Bridge, and Mr. Fletcher as second telegrapher,

We have a relief agent who figures the overtime to a cent, but claims to have no time for the organization.

Mr. Helvik, from the C. & N. W., appointed third Mapleton. See that he keeps his promise. Bro. C. Perry, former relief agent this division, appointed second Mapleton.

Burbank has been made a telegraph station at $45 a month with the reduced express commis- sion and 30 cents overtime each evening meeting No. 3. Bro. O. E. Burton, the agent there, bid in second Hornick.

Bro. Schultz, of Vermillion second, and wife, spent the holidays with his wife's folks at Ethan. Helpers taken off allowing a clerk at Wagner on account of crop failure from Wagner north. At Geddes and Platte allowing a clerk only. The latter is getting to be one of the heavy parcel post points, receiving about a ton of mail some evenings.

This is my first and last attempt at a write-up for this division. Bro. McKinnon will have to appoint another correspondent. I decided to try it once, but it's impossible for one man to get all the news, especially on a division cut up in sub- divisions the way this one is. I had it all lined
THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER.

...as I thought for items by the twenty-fourth, but all I secured was a few from the Manilla and Mitchell lines, and Armour Branch. I've resigned.

H. F. W.

Armour Line -

Bro. Parker, Utica, S. D., has resigned and expects to join the "back to the farm" movement; Utica on bulletin.

It is now Bro. Knoll at Kaylow. The young agents are the boys who are not backward about coming in. It is also Bro. Johnson at Dimock.

Fine weather for railroading this winter, very little snow or stormy weather.

Weighing United States mail will soon occur, we are advised.

N. A. Batchelder, our old-time T. B. M. express messenger, telegrapher, relief agent, etc., on the Armour Line, is reported to have resigned and taken the active management of a blacksmith and machine shop at Tripp, relieved by Wm. Sigloh.

South Dakota will soon be a two and a half cent fare State, which puts a quietus on the two-cent fare howl.

DIV. COR.

Trans-Missouri Division, Puget Sound Lines -

We should make an effort to have this division 100 per cent strong, and should use the "no card, no favors" motto whenever we get a chance, so as not to let the non live with a smile off our earnings and hear him say: "I get along just as well as those who belong." Give him the "cold shoulder;" that will cure him.

C. H. Houck, second McLaughlin, bid in Faith agency, but resigned before taking charge and was relieved by Albert Kirby on second there pending bulletin. Second there later bid in by Bro. T. J. Kelly, from third McIntosh, who was relieved by Bro. T. H. Wagner, from second Reeder, which position was closed. L. R. Mabrey, from Mobridge relay office, took second McIntosh, bumping Bro. M. R. Bennett. R. B. Houck, third McLaughlin, bumped L. R. Mabrey on second McIntosh, who I think took out a card and went east.

Bro. E. C. Weatherly, agent Walker, with wife, took a thirty-day vacation and went East, visiting relatives and the large cities, relieved by Bro. M. R. Bennett.

Bro. S. W. Fuller, first McIntosh, with wife, went back East during the holidays, taking in the sights around Albert Lea, relieved by Bro. M. R. Bennett, who went from Walker on Bro. Weatherly's return.

Bro. E. A. Cornell, agent Scranton, with wife, are off on sixty days' vacation, enjoying the winter in sunny Florida, relieved by C. J. Olson, from Morristown.

A. J. Eide, agent Thunderhawk, who can not afford to carry a card, was off a few days, relieved by Sister Holmes, from Mobridge.

R. H. Laird, first Marmarth, on vacation, relieved by W. J. Dickerson, from third, relieved by F. E. Frankenburger. H. D. Stevenson on second bumped by Bro. Carlin from second Reeder, which position was closed.

Bro. E. C. Holman from Mobridge relay bumped F. E. Frankenburger, later there on third.

Bro. Merrick, relief agent, relieving Bro. Frundle, agent Reeder, who is visiting relatives and friends at Slafer, Iowa.

A. O. Thompson, cashier Hettinger, on two months' vacation, relieved by a Mr. Johnson.

Bro. Earl Leighty, second Bowman, off a few days, was relieved by H. D. Stevenson, from Marmarth. Bro. Leighty called on the writer between trains recently.

Bro. Russell Kirby, formerly on this division, writes that he is now located with the C. G. W.

J. P. Rothman, our industrious chief dispatcher, taking two weeks' vacation visiting relatives in the East, relieved by First Trick Dispatcher H. L. Wiltrot, relieved by F. R. Douc, third, and he by Bro. H. R. Winship, agent Kaiser.

Bro. R. A. Chase, first trick McLaughlin, says he smokes "Peerless" union-made, and has trained the smoke from his pipe to spell "O. R. T." Can you beat it?

We now have two important matters before us—nomination of a local chairman, vice Bro. O. S. Smith, resigned and gone East in other business, and our meeting at Lemmon. We should give these our personal attention.

I received no news from the brothers on the branches, and therefore am unable to give the changes.

CEN. 2145.

Rocky Mountain Division, Puget Sound Lines -

Dispatchers now working the entire division Deer Lodge to Lewistown one man. For awhile the men on second and third tricks had to copy their own orders in addition to looking after 300 miles of railroad, but the second and third tricks have recently been reopened. Boomer Joiner is relieving Bro. Clark, on an extended visit East; Mr. Mulberger on second and Dispatcher Bro. O. C. Linden on third. Ex-Bro. Dispatcher R.W. Maggett returned from a holiday vacation in North Carolina, looking well and merry and fit for another year's struggle.

Bro. M. E. Spencer is back at Willow Creek, vice Bro. W. A. Horje, now wielding the ax at Schiffman's Spur, cutting mining stulls at so much per foot.

Bro. George Redding has returned from Kentucky to third Donald.

The proposed twelve-hour offices at Janney and Newcomb were not opened, Janney being made a two-trick office instead. This let out Bro. J. W. Thompson on third, filling in now and then on first and second.
Bro. E. M. Kay and daughter have returned from an extended visit through the East. Bro. Curn, of Sixteen, has also returned from a trip East.

Bro. Early, of Ringling, is spending the winter months back at the "old homestead" in Pennsylvania. The Montana ranch is too cold for Jack in the winter.

Bro. Bothmer is on vacation, relieved by Bro. Reed at Two Dot.

Bro. C. E. Harmon, relieving at various points for the past two months, has gone back to Iowa and will stay on the farm until business picks up.

Bro. M. F. Riddell is relieving Bro. H. D. Hughes at Lombard.

Only one or two nons left on the east end.

Butte Relay, G. S.—Bro. Massing has returned from a trip to Buffalo, N. Y.

Bro. T. L. Ballew has returned from Port Allen, La.

Second and third trick wire chiefs removed; positions filled with operators. First trick wire chief subject to call at any hour in case of wire trouble. Second and third trick wire chiefs—Bros. Gray and Faucher—returned from their vacations to find their titles abolished, both now working as day operators.

D. R. Snyder is now with the Postal.

"MC" Miles City relay office has been closed, "GS" office is now testing wires Butte to Miles City east.

Yellowstone Division—

Bro. C. Huyck, Forsyth, Mont., calls, attention to Bro. J. W. Ezell, Division 93, Cert. 234, who has already served ten years of a life sentence in the Pittsburg, Pa., penitentiary for killing a yardmaster in self-defense. An attorney hopes to secure him a pardon, provided he can raise sufficient funds to handle the case properly. Among other things Bro. Ezell is making is a handsomely carved bone stylus for copying train orders, which Bro. Huyck is selling for him at 50 cents. It is well worth the money, and by purchasing one you are helping a worthy brother in trouble.

Musselshell Division—

Bro. J. H. Cook, third Shawmut, off for a few days, was relieved by Operator LeRoy, who later relieved Bro. McIntyre on second Musselshell a few days.

Claude Mitchell relieved Bro. Blazek at Baker one night, Bro. Dunn at Dodge two nights, Bro. Pickard at Melstone a few days and wound up at Roundup, where he relieved Bro. Cedersten and L. A. Copp a few days each.

Bro. W. A. Aasve relieved Bro. W. F. Corcoran on Bascom days a short time, and then asked for leave of absence and went East with Bro. Fuller, recently bumped off third Musselshell.

Bro. C. H. Burnworth back at Ingomar, displacing Bro. Heise, who relieved Bro. Blazek on third Baker and Bro. Sharp on third Miles City yard a few nights, and then went to Musselshell second and relieved Bro. McIntyre, who was off on account of his wife's illness.

Bro. Ray Clevenger and C. B. Mastin, of Vananda, on short vacation. Understand Mastin, who has mooched the Order now for two years, was looking for a better job. A non has no friends among any of the railroad employees on this division.

Bro. M. J. Corcoran, agent Forsyth, was compelled to take his wife to Rochester, Minn., to undergo an operation for an abscess. We sincerely hope she will fully recover and Mike will again carry that smile that won't come off. "WD" is handling the station, and Miss Mary working second during his absence.

Bro. Sharp from third Miles City yard to Ingomar, where he relieved Bro. Burnworth one day and then went to third Calabar to relieve Bro. H. J. Thompson for a couple of weeks.

Bro. J. H. Jesser, back from vacation, worked one night on third Miles City yard and then resumed duty at Mildred, displacing R. T. Davis, extra.

Bro. T. E. Crandall, first Ismay, off a couple of days, was relieved by H. L. Struckmeyer.

The depression this time hit the dispatcher's office, and Dispatchers Kohlhase and Pence are on the shelf until spring work opens up. This leaves our three old heads—Johnson, Corbett and Veitch, working through from Harlowton to Marmarth—340 miles.

Bro. Cedersten, as member of the "safety first" committee is proving a joke—to himself. Some time ago he fell off a motorcar and broke both wrists. More recently he tried to drive a buggy over an automobile and sustained two broken ribs, and at the last meeting, only for the timely assistance of Bro. Corcoran, he would have been run down by a hearse.

In a previous write-up Bros. Cedersten, C. L. Burke, A. K. Edmonds and E. J. Miller were referred to as "Mr." This was all wrong, as there isn't a moocher among the bunch. These errors are unavoidable, and I wish the members would call my attention to them when they are noticed.

Another error was made in reporting Bro. Berger off for the holidays. This should have read: "Bro. Blazek, of Baker."

Bros. A. F. Maile assigned first, W. J. Doherty second, and Mr. F. P. Rozum third Miles City yard.

It has been the practice lately on the part of some nons on this division to try to humiliate a certain alleged "scab" over the wires. He is contributing exactly the same amount annually as they are to help keep up our wages and working conditions. Some of the brothers allowing themselves to become delinquent might give this some thought also.
THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER.

A certain non who realized a $60 a year increase only a few months ago, who has not yet given the Order the $12 it is entitled to, was heard recently doubting over another non's trick. Members should turn this in, as it is a violation of the nine-hour law, and would be a very effective way of getting rid of two undesirables.

Bro. C. H. Burnworth, assistant general chairman, is a very busy man these days on account of so much reduction in force and so much bumping going on. With all the bad features of the present conditions, there are certain good features of the schedule brought to light which were framed for just such an emergency and which have not heretofore been understood. Many of the members are learning the value of an accurate seniority list and correct dating. This despicable non, of course, is sneaking in on his share of it also.

Missoula Division—

The local chairman wishes to express his gratitude to the members who gave their assistance towards getting so many nons during the past few weeks. If the members will continue to lend their assistance, it will be but a month or two until we will be solid. We have not a delinquent on the division, and the nons are being filtered out so rapidly that they are withering away like the last roses of summer when Jack Frost has landed upon them with his cold feet and deadly power.

Bro. W. F. Marshall was off New Year's, visiting with his mother and father in Missoula.

Bro. Bill Sowden, of third Avery, has been called to his home in New York on account of his mother being very ill. We hope he found her much improved. He was relieved by Mr. Parsons. Get after him, boys, and change the prefix.

Sister Smith, at Kyle, has her sister, Corine, visiting her for awhile.

Sisters Van Antwerp and Trimble are receiving bouquets at their home in Falcon.

The twins from Adair were in Avery to a dance recently.

Bro. Clark, of Roland, made a rushing trip to Spokane last week, where he saw many plays, took in dances and had a general good time. Bro. and Sister Clark were to a chicken dinner at East Portal, given by Bro. and Sister Dean, a few days ago.

Sister Maud McMillan, extra Roland, visited her sister in St. Regis a few days ago.

Sister Mrs. Ray received a call to Mildred last week, where her daughter, Louise, resides. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Miller, so now we can say Aunt Kate and Aunt Margaret.

Sister Margaret Ray relieved her mother at Superior, and she was relieved by Bro. Herndon.

Bro. Hanson, of Huson, was off awhile on account of his father's death, relieved by Bro. Herndon. Bro. Hanson has our utmost sympathy in his bereavement.

Bro. and Sister Dean visited in Missoula the second week in January.

Bro. Glover, of East Portal, made a flying trip to Superior recently to a Sunday school party, and met many nice young people.

Bro. Brink has returned from his vacation and bid in Saltse agency.

Sister Maxwell gave a dinner to the young people of Saltse recently, and Glover ran off with the gelatin.

Sister Kate Ray made a visit to St. Regis a few days ago.

Bro. Van Antwerp is relieving Mr. Johnson, second Alberton, while East. He bid in second Deer Lodge.

Mr. Baker, first Alberton, on side table Missoula for a week while Bro. Brien filled the dispatcher's chair, Mr. Hanson acting chief in the meantime.

Sister Margaret had a nice trip to Missoula during the holidays.

Bro. and Sister Clark spent Christmas at East Portal.

Bro. Randolph relieved Sister Maud Martin on Christmas, while she went to a dance at St. Regis. Bro. Smith, of St. Regis, spent Christmas at home in Bonner, relieved by Bro. Mike Palarski.

Bro. Glover spent Christmas with friends in Missoula.

Bro. J. W. Smith, who relieved Bro. Dean at East Portal, off on business, is now on Saltse third.

Sister Dean relieved Sister Eva Kent at Adair recently.

Bro. Dean and Glover spent January 2d at Roland, attending the mayor's birthday.

Bro. Cullen has bought the store at Tarkio. We wish him the best of success.

Local Chairman Dean and Bro. Glover visited our N. P. brother, Bro. Holroyd, at Saltse, recently, and find him a most pleasant man.

Sister Margaret Ray was off sick three days the second week in January.

Jobs bulletin lately were third Haugan, bid in by Bro. Maxwell; agency at Saltse, bid in by Bro. Brink, and second "DG."

Bro. Glover left January 22d on a trip to Spokane and Deer Park, Wash.; thence to Missoula, Butte, Three Forks and Lewistown; relieved by Sister Dean.

The "Chinese Twins" are well.

W. H. G., Cert. 2695.

Coast Division—

A very successful meeting was held at Labor Temple, Seattle, January 11th. In the absence of Bro. Hurley, who was in town, as well as Bro. Pope, but did not attend, Bro. Nisonger called the meeting to order at 2:30 p.m.
Bro. Manion, fifth vice-president, favored us with an address, which was heartily appreciated. Bros. Thompson, Woods and Young, general committee of the O. W. R. & N.; Bro. Bergum, local chairman Seattle Division and organizer, and Bro. Compton also favored us with short talks; and the results obtained by our general committee in session and a two hours' discussion of grievances were had.

Among others who attended the meeting were: Bros. Switzer, Kettering, Lang, Napier, Wood, Kidd, Stewart, G. F. Hurley, Grummell, W. A. McKinnon, J. M. Olsen, A. J. Farley and Nisonger from the Tacoma line; Bro. and Sister Martin and Bingham, Everett line; Church, Taylor, Wooten, J. P. Terry, Woolns and Gordon, main line.

The joint meeting of the N. P. Seattle Division and C. M. & St. P. Coast Division, held at Cle Elum on Saturday, January 17th, was attended by only four of the latter. There should have been at least a dozen present, as the meeting was arranged at our request. Bro. Woolns was relieved to attend by Bro. Cronk, and Bro. Taylor, first Cedar Falls by Mr. Clayton.

Mr. Merritt, who went to Cle Elum to relieve Bro. Howard during holidays, only worked one day, when he met with an accident, breaking his hip, and is now confined at the Seattle Pacific Hospital. We all hope for his speedy recovery. Bro. Nash relieved him.

Bro. Leamy, agent Rockdale, off recently, was relieved by Mr. Clayton.

Sister Leamy, second Rockdale, while spending holidays in Tacoma, was relieved by Bro. Cronk.

Thanks to Bro. Church for notes.

Whittier discontinued temporarily. Bro. Chad-derdon, Whittier nights, who relieved Bro. Chadwick, agent Easton, a few days and Bro. Pope, agent Keechelus, while visiting "Sound" points, was relieved, on vacation to Idaho, by Bro. Cronk.

The extra list is pretty thickly populated at present.

Mr. Milray, second Renton, C. P. S., appointed agent Maple Valley, vice J. A. McEachern, on vacation on account of poor health.

Bro. Erland relieved Bro. Adams, agent Laconia, for Christmas holidays. Bro. J. C. Martin, third Laconia, while spending a few weeks with Bro. G. E. Martin at Monroe, was relieved by Mr. Sutton.

Snowfall is very light in the mountains so far, and no delay to trains from that source, but we have had hard rainfalls, which demoralized traffic on the Grays Harbor branch for several days and caused a slide at Renton.

R. F. Rader, formerly "TC," who relieved Bro. Barrett, third Auburn, a few nights, was later relieved on second North Puyallup, owing to illness, by Bro. Lang, now out of the service for refusing to furnish bond, relieved by Bro. Boylan.

Whittier and Bandera reopened as night offices on account of recent snowfall.

Business is picking up again, due to the opening of lumber camps and mills on the "Sound," closed for the past few months.

Our division is in better condition now than it has been for some time, but we must try to get it lined up 100 per cent. Each one pick out his man and land him. Hogan and Cummings, Enuclaw; Carew, Rockdale; Clayton, Sutton; Maddox, Weister; Rader, Owens extra; McKay, "FD," and Robinson, "S," are all good men, and there's no reason why they shouldn't come in; so let's keep after them.

Several complaints about obscenity on wires at night. I hardly think this comes from any of the brothers. In any event, it should be discontinued.

A certain non on this division, who refuses to join, quite frequently obliges one of our brothers to violate the hours-of-service law by protecting his trick. Instead of laying himself liable to federal prosecution, this brother should report this case. If all the members will apply "no card, no favors," we would accomplish more.

Bro. Young, general chairman of the O. W. R. & N., has invited me to attend a meeting of the S. P. & O. W. at Portland on January 25th, the details of which I will give you next month.

Ft. Worth Division—

The Corsicana, Texas, correspondent of the Houston Post says: A school of telegraphy has been added to course of instruction at the State Orphan Home here, connected with the Western Union telegraph office, has been thoroughly equipped with all modern telegraph appliances, in this city so as to give the pupils practical training in telegraphy. There are 38 students at present. Any of you good brothers in Texas who are fortunate enough to own your own home or any real estate are helping to support this "ham factory." What are you going to do about it?

Bro. H. H. Adams, Highbank, was off a few days in December looking after his farm at Crockett, relieved by Mr. Medlin from the C. N. & W., now up to date.

Bro. Menger, Navasota, spent Christmas at his home in Sherman, relieved by ex-Bro. Hellums, back from a trip through the Golden West. "C" can be depended upon to take out a card. He also relieved Bro. Zeller, Bryan third, a few days.

Bro. Bill Dew has the new night job at Calvert Jet., and Bro. Skeiton, from Bedias, bid in the agency there. Bedias on bulletin, also Stoneham nights.

For two weeks during the flood, two operators were pulled off at Bryan, your humble servant working from 7 a. m. until 6 p. m.

Bro. McCauley was in Bryan to see Santa Claus Christmas eve.

Bro. Wilson, first Italy, resigned, relieved by Bro. Mitchell, pending bulletin; two new men on the other two tricks.
No one sent me a line this month except Bro. Adams. I can not get all the news; please send me any items you may know, so we can have a write-up each month. Div. Cor.

Gulf Division—

Bro. Taylor bid in Rockdale third, and Carl McGee, Sellers first.

Bro. Wilson, on first Valley Jct.; Mr. Patterson on third pending, and Bro. Jones at Hearne temporary.

Bro. Murchison bid in first Conroe, Bro. Link, third Conroe, fell in the Santa Fe turntable, breaking two of his ribs; damage to turntable not reported. Bro. White, second there, can hardly wait to get home now to see how that baby girl is growing.

Bro. Kassabaum, Arp, has returned from a visit to the old States, relieved by Bro. Yarbrough from Troup, relieved by Bro. Gaston, who later bid in third Jacksonville.

Bro. Hearne, Jacksonville, relieved several days by A. L. Adair on account of sickness. Get after the new agent there; that is a strictly O. R. T. bulletin job and he should have a card.

Bro. Bradbury, at "GN" Houston, was off several days sick, and Bro. Quinn and Small doubled.

It is soon to be Bro. Ferguson at Arcola.

Bro. Holloway is back at East Columbia, having been run to the hills on account of high water.

Bro. Holland, at Anchor, did not have to run from the flood, as the depot being the highest place, was a point of refuge for the homeless.

Bro. J. B. Allen, several years on this division, is now at Roanoke, on the Texas Pacific, which now has a good schedule.

Bro. Adams, our secretary-treasurer, has been reinstated as agent at Oakwood. This was very, very good news, as Bro. Adams is a hard and conscientious worker for the Order.

Bro. Berty, our general chairman, is still weak from the operation he had to undergo for appendicitis, but we all hope he will soon be entirely recovered.

Bro. Clarke is on first Sellers pending bulletin; Carl McGee, resigning, going into transportation department. We all wish him success. He would have been up to date had he remained in the telegraph service. Bro. J. D. Frank is on second Sellers pending bulletin.

Will expect all members to contribute a few items each month, so we can have a good write-up; also want each new man who hits your station reported to division correspondent, whether he has a card or not. If he has a card, state what division and number. Want everyone to take an interest in the journal, as that is our medium of communication.

The general committee has decided to postpone revision of schedule, etc., until a more favorable time. In the meantime we want to solidify the entire system in order to go through on greased wheels when we do start.

Try to get new members and keep after the delinquent, for the chairmen have a great deal to do and need some assistance to cover their territory properly.

All matters formerly handled by general chairman will now be handled by local chairman. "BU," Div. Cor.

Missouri Pacific Ry.

Joplin Division—

We have three new members to start the new year with: Bro. Biggarstaff, at Cornell; Bro. Minshew, at Foster, and Bro. Brooks, at Metz. If we keep this up, the end of 1914 will see the platter swept clean.

Every non on the system has received a letter from Bro. Mohler, and every non on the division will receive a letter and a set of application blanks from me in the near future.

Let every brother lend a hand. Some of you are right close to the fellow we are after and can do more with a little chin music, at short range, than we can with a long flowery letter at long range. Tell him about it. You all know what the O. R. T. has done, is doing, and will do.

We were too late with our items last month in which we chronicled the death of the husband of sister Baker, of Jasper. The many friends of Sister Baker deeply sympathize and mourn with her in her great loss. She has returned to duty after six weeks' leave of absence.

Everybody who was entitled to vacation money for 1913 appears to have drawn it on December roll. If anyone is shy, will be pleased to hear from them and will try and help them get it.

Bro. Chapman, from White River Division, is relieving at Chetopa while Bro. Rouse is in the hospital.

On Christmas evening Bro. C. L. Rouse, agent Chetopa, Kans., while running to the depot jolted his revolver out of his pocket, which was discharged, the bullet striking his right ankle and deflecting upward, lodging near the knee. He did not discover the wound until he arrived at his office. He was sent to the Nevada company hospital, accompanied by his son Clyde, where the bullet was extracted, and he is now recovering as rapidly as could be expected. Robert Sleeth, agent Faulkner, relieved Bro. Rouse, pending the arrival of Relief Agent Chapman, from the White River Division. C. V. Rows, Local Chairman.

Southern Kansas Division—

I made a trip over the division in December and met all of you. Very glad to have made the acquaintance of those that were not already known to me. With a few exceptions we are 100 per cent strong, so let's all get busy and make it that way. On account of spending Xmas vacation at home there were no notes sent to the journal for December.
Conway Springs agency bid in by Bro. Losh-hough from Cedarville, Altoona third and Cedar-vale agent and telegrapher now on bulletin. Altoona second received by H. L. Rearick, who will be one of us shortly. Account some misunderstanding of seniority, Bro. Heininger was assigned Greeley nights, but was later relieved by Fred Certain, an older man. He will also be a member in a short time.

Ex-Bro. F. N. Bobbitt is relieving at Dexter. Brothers out that way please see that he again becomes up to date.

Mr. Holleran relieving Bro. N. Certain at Garnett. Bro. Lucy advises will soon come through.

W. R. McComas, extra Altoona, delinquent in Division 54, will soon fill out new blanks.

Bro. Orrick, second Conway Springs, home on few days vacation Christmas, worked several nights at “RB” and “CF,” relieved by Mr. McComas.

It is now Bro. Evans at Leroy, Bro. Rathburn at Winfield, Bro. Camp at Iuka, and Bro. Covher at Neodesha.

On December 26th last Bro. G. W. Neill, Altoona third, died at his mother’s home at Quenemo, Kans. He had been in poor health for a year and worked some time at Montrose, Colo., for the D. & R. G. The Southern Kansas Division members extend their sympathy in this hour of bereavement.

Bro. Martin has returned from Hoisington and resumed at “CF.”

Those on the west end send your notes to Bro. Garton at Conway Springs, and on the north end to Bro. Lucy at Leroy. I will try and get the news on this end of the division. Everybody do their part and we’ll have a write-up each month.

T. F. J.

Central Kansas Division—

Recent changes: Bro. C. R. Wilburn to Admire as agent, Bro. L. E. Goodman to Geneseo second, Bro. M. T. Webb to Lomax third, Bro. J. Milano to new third Osage City. May there be more of them in the near future. Bro. A. C. Eakin decided to go back to Bucyrus agency; not so much weather and tear on gray matter there.

Marquette third bid in by Bro. Wm. Coyne, who has been relieving Bro. T. E. McCann, agent Miller, while on vacation; Bro. J. B. Wells, Comiskey, has also been on vacation, and Bro. Webb spent a few weeks in dear old Kaintuck, with home folks. Dad White, our worthy brother at Bushong, also off 30 days, relieved by Bro. Traylor, third, relieved by Bro. D. B. Frazee.

Bro. T. F. Weaver, Blue Mound, taking an extended leave of absence, Bro. Wilburn relieving; Bro. Guy Williams, “G” of “JN” office Osawat, visited in Kansas City several days recently.

Bro. H. E. Hetzler, second Marquette, off few days sick, causing Bro. Hale and extra man on third to double, until a man could be found to fill in. Bro. Hetzler soon recovered, however, and displaced Bro. Mead on third, who bumped J. F. Nichol, who did not like Marquette account of the disinterested reception he received. Boys, it pays to have that little paste board in your pocket if you expect any favors around “Q.”

Bro. E. P. Stender thought better of it, returned home, and is now on second Geneseo. Bro. Eakin taking care of accounts. Bro. J. M. J. has been seriously ill, but is recovering.

We are glad to hear that Bro. Johnson is greatly improved and also glad to have Bro. Stender with us again.

Bro. Polk, of Langley, was down recently. We extended the hand of good fellowship and a hearty welcome to him, and to Bros. Polk, Wilburn, Dougherty, as well as the ones whose names I have not yet learned.

Bro. Tackwell, Crawford, off a few days, was relieved by P. Deal, a new man; gone to some point near Kansas City.

Bro. Ussleman, Lindsborg, can give you all the statistics you want on parcel post matters.

We are glad to announce that Bro. Ready retains his seniority. Bro. Maxwell ruling he couldn’t return to Allen, as it had been bulletined and assigned, and Hope was the best his seniority entitled him to. Bro. Ready was appointed acting claims assistant only, regarded as an official position.

Bro. Newcomer, former agent Marquette, is now at Kingman, has been visiting relatives at Marquette during the holidays.

Bro. Thigpen, Elmo, was recently taken out of service, reinstated within two or three days afterwards, and did not lose any time; Bro. Goodman, from the North Kansas Division, then went to Admire, pending transfer to Bro. Wilburn.

A. Kersten, agent Carlton, taken out of service, relieved by Fitzgerald of the J. M. S., later returned to his home on account of the sickness of his wife. Fitzgerald being relieved by E. V. Carpenter, not an operator of the Colorado Division.

Agent Bucyrus taken out of the service, Bro. Eakin bid it in.

Boys, we are going to be represented every month and try to create more interest in the affairs of the Order.

Bro. Neale advises that our individual effort has been showing splendid results. There are still a few of the boys that we need and we need them good, all ‘round fellows.

Have the promise of Lowe at Gyp City. He is too good a man to stay out. Then we will only have two left and will not take very much inducement to get them back, as they have always been loyal brothers until recently. That will make this district 100 per cent strong. If some of the boys at $40 per can afford to come in, surely you can with more than double that. Remember the parable of the rich man and the talents, don’t bury yours.

Any time you have a news item send it to Box 57, Marquette, Kans.

Thanks to Bros. Neale and Thigpen for assistance. Keep it up and we will have a lively interest all along in a short time.

"Z."
Wichita Division—

Sister Maude Wade, Ft. Scott second, was in Wichita relay office a few days extra.

Bro. G. E. Twiggs, Reece third, was relieved a few days in January by Extra Kaltenbach.

Bro. C. A. Hughes, who relieved Bro. Kayser, of Bronston, while at Seattle on account of his father's sickness, later bid in second Neal.

Bro. D. E. Keller, Eldorado third, bid in second Iola, his home town. We are glad to see him land it.

It is now Bro. Sant Smith, second Toronto. We are glad to see him back.

Sister Eva Twiggs, Thompson, is now with the W. U. at Kansas City.

Sister L. E. Twiggs and Mr. Fred Kluckbuhn, of Batesville, are now on their honeymoon, after which they will be at home at Batesville. Congratulations.

The following ruling has been made on paragraph "i," article 8, of the schedule: Those who leave on absence or otherwise, out of telegraph service, from whatever cause, for more than thirty days at any time during the year, will not be entitled to vacation pay for that year. Please note, and govern your vacations accordingly.

The wife and daughter of Bro. Carr, of Colwich were visiting in the East when the daughter, Miss Alma, 23 year of age, was taken seriously ill. Mr. Carr was unable to reach there until after her death. The funeral was held at the home in Colwich, January 11th. A special train was run from Wichita to Colwich. Among those present were Superintendent Webb, Traveling Auditor Lynch and Wells Fargo Route Agent Kyle. Bro. Carr was relieved by J. W. Sheas.

G. E. T., Div. Cor.

Valley Division—

I regret that there was no write-up in the December issue of The Telegrapher, but I did not receive any items and am unable to learn anything that I do not ask for personally or on the wire. Brothers, please remember that the local chairman does not receive any salary, pays his dues as we all do, and in addition to this does a lot of “hot footing.” Therefore, do your best to help him make this division solid. Every man who does not carry an up-to-date card is holding back the rest from doing what they could, as we all participate in the concessions secured; therefore, every man should carry an up-to-date, as he will be helping himself as well as the organization. The man who says, “Go do something and I will be with you,” should ask himself, “What am I doing to help?” All the other organizations keep constantly at it, improving their conditions and pay. Keep everlastingly after the non. Do not hesitate or falter in the least from following up one argument with another and drawing his attention to the good work of the O. R. T. each week or month until his promise to join is fulfilled. It is an easy matter in most cases to obtain a non’s promise, but it takes continued persuasion to have the blanks filled out and mailed with the necessary remittance. Show him the good the Order has done. We want this to be a record-breaking year by starting now at the first, and if each member would make one special effort this month the Valley Division will make a very creditable showing. Let us come strong and show our appreciation for the recent raise “Safety First,” a great thing in the railroad world, is becoming the watchman for the entire corporation. It is the only key to the reduction of injury and death lists in railroad or any other work, and the sooner each employee keeps that thought uppermost in his mind, the better it will be for all of us.

Why should a non join the O. R. T.? The very reasonable salary he is securing today as a telegrapher was secured for him by the O. R. T. and the organization prevents his wages from being reduced and sees to it that the schedule is lived up to. It takes up all the just grievances of its members and assures them a square deal from their employers. It promotes good fellowship and brotherly feeling among its members and to those of other departments, and the Mutual Benefit Department gives the most reliable insurance possible at the smallest premium.
Bro. Dicky, first Pine Bluff yard, was a visitor in Portland on January 17th and 18th.

Bro. Hale, second Dermott, has resigned and accepted his old position again with the D. & R. G. at Trinidad, Colo.

Pending bulletin: Mer Rouge and Arkansas City days, Farrell second and third, Pine Bluff yard, Dermott, Swartz, Collinston and Moscow second, and Walnut Lake nights.

John L. Wall, clerk Portland, is on vacation, relieved by Mr. Bradford, of Dermott.

The oldest daughter of Bro. T. A. Corson, first Portland, died suddenly and was buried there.

Bro. Culpeper, agent Bonita, spent Christmas with his wife’s parents. He hung up his stocking, but they burned up before Santa came.

Mr. Curtis, third Bonita, neglected to return for duty while Mr. Shea was there on a hunting trip, and was discharged. He had just sent in his application.

A man named Johnson, who said he was a sewing-machine repairer from Dallas, hung around my office all of one day; he proved to be a former dispatcher for the Frisco and a mighty good telegrapher, but had let whiskey get the best of him. He died that night and was buried a pauper.

Bro. A. C. Mason, second Swartz, in the Monroe Hospital, is some better. Swartz is solid.

Bro. Cook, second Bonita, went to a St. Louis hospital recently with chills and fever.

An agent on this division makes a practice of returning to the office at night, cutting in and reporting trains passing his station. Let’s see that this kind of work is discontinued.

The Bonita Drug & Mercantile Company’s store burned to the ground about 4 a.m. recently, and the agent and his operator were posted on top of the depot with water, putting out the sparks, showing their interest for the company. Bro. Cook, second Bonita, while hunting a few days ago, tripped and fell, knocking out an upper front tooth, when he shot at some birds.

There was a change of dispatchers at McGehee on January 1st.

Bro. Cunningham, Argenta, relieving Bro. Lamb in the dispatcher’s office while Chief Rogers was on vacation, says he’d rather pick cotton than run trains.

Many thanks to Bros. Cook and Lamar for items. They certainly helped out. The rest of you boys do this for the next issue.

H. H. BRYAN, Cert. 2831.

Southwestern Division—
The west end dispatcher’s office has been moved from Sapulpa to Oklahoma City, dispensing with second and third Oklahoma yards, leaving Bro. Casey on days there. “CO” Oklahoma City abolished, business now being handled at “HO” by Bro. Schooler.

Bro. Gordon, second Oklahoma yards, took second Lawton, vice Bro. Cox. We are glad to hear of the recovery of Bro. T. P. Henry, of third Oklahoma City. Bros. Beckerdt and Ward, agents at Jones and Spencer, were shown the sights in Oklahoma City recently by Bro. Schooler.

We are glad to know Bro. Pritchard has resumed on first Snyder, after being laid up with a long siege of fever.

Bro. W. B. Mullen transferred from third Seneca to first Neosho. Bro. W. G. Mullen, second Seneca, who is laid up with a broken collar bone, we are glad to hear will soon be out again. Seneca first and second abolished, and the agent left alone to do the stunts.

Bro. Rowland, the genial cashier at Bristow, was recently married. Congratulations.

Bro. Cleveland has returned from an enjoyable visit to Georgia and Alabama. We are glad to hear him on the wire again.

Bro. Sam Stuart, first Afton, spent a pleasant week in Springfield, December 29th to January 4th, and Bros. Maherney and McQuigg, second and third Afton, spent a pleasant week in Joplin and other Missouri points recently.

Bro. Slagman, from Todd, transferred to Verdigris clerkship temporarily.

Since the high water throughout Texas, Southern Oklahoma and Arkansas, which took away the Frisco bridge at Van Buren, practically all California fruit and vegetable trains formerly operated over the Central Division have been run over this division, making things look like olden times.

The official positions of W. A. Moore, C. E. Prettyman and R. C. Mills, agents Tulsa, Neosho and Oklahoma City, appointed temporarily assistant superintendents, recently have been abolished.

Bro. R. M. Page has returned to Fairland from a pleasant fortnightly vacation.

Assistant Superintendent W. H. Hutchinson, in charge of stations and employment, is showing that he is the man for the place. He is well acquainted with station duties, and knows where appreciation and encouragement are needed. We are pleased at his appointment.

I wish to thank Bros. Ledbetter, Schooler, Stuart, Moorehouse, Tolleson and our brother at Altus for the assistance rendered in this write-up.

Brothers, remember the motto: “Get One.”

CERT. 1727.

Eastern Division—

On account of the numerous changes made recently and being made now, it is impossible to get them all.

Mr. Wright bid in third Republic; Mr. Griswold, second Conway; Mr. Harris, third Conway; Mr. O’Halloran, second Sleeper; Mr. Denton, third Sleeper; Mr. Bruce, second Crocker; Mr. Cole, operator Helm; Mr. Bryant, Jerome nights; Mr. McNutt, first Southern Jct.; Mr. Kennedy, third Southern Jct., and Mr. Holman, second Sheffield.

Everyone seems greatly pleased with the increase received by the committee and with the dispensation of same. It exceeded our expectations, and we are grateful. This was by far the best Christmas present we received.

CERT. 921.

Baltimore & Ohio R. R.

Cleveland Division—

On the morning of January 16th Midvale depot was badly damaged by fire starting from a defective flue. Bro. C. C. Davis occupies five living rooms in the depot, which were badly damaged. Bro. Davis was burned about the face and had his left leg injured in rescuing his eight months old daughter from the second story. Blinded by smoke and flames he fell from the top of the stairway with his child in his arms. The baby was uninjured. Had it not been that the work train, in charge of Conductor Kirk and Engineer Anson, was ready to go east at Uhrichsville at the time, which was turned and rushed to Midvale, the entire building would probably have been destroyed. The loss is fully covered by insurance. Bro. Davis has the sympathy of the members of the division in his misfortune.

After serving on this division for ten years, Local Chairman Bro. G. H. McCoy has resigned. We very much regret losing him after so long and faithful a term. Bro. O. F. Weaver, who has been elected to fill the unexpired term, we are satisfied, will “deliver the goods,” and we are glad to see the brothers ready to help him make the division solid.

The depression of business on the division has caused the closing of several offices which were never known to be closed before. Two men have been cut off at Freeport, and Mr. Hillyer is now working from 10 p. m. till 9 a. m. Mr. Chaney and Mr. Tope have gone back to the farm. Let’s get busy, boys, and make this division 100 per cent strong.

Bro. C. E. Robinson, who has resigned and returned to his home in Elba, will start firing on this division soon as business opens up. Sorry to have the brothers leave us, and all wish him success.

Bro. O. F. Davidson and Bro. A. A. Hammell spent several days in Cleveland recently, visiting and arranging for furlough.

Bro. Shanks bid in second Uhrichsville, leaving Lorain first up for bid. Bro. T. E. Bigler, third Uhrichsville, has resigned and returned to Denison shops. We are sorry to lose him, and wish him success. He spent several days visiting in Cleveland. Bro. A. Scheiser is on furlough. Mr. Summers is on third Uhrichville pending bulletin.

Beach City has been reduced to one man, leaving Bro. Harper to do the telegraphing, agent’s work and pumping.

Wish some brother on the west end and Valley would drop me a few news items on or before the 15th of each month.

Telegraph office Canal Dover has been moved from the tower to the passenger depot, cutting off ticket man there, and Bros. Kiefer and Vickers now handle tickets. C. & M. target and switch at end of double tracks also handled by the telegraphers.

“VI,” Div. Cor.

Pittsburg Division, Eastern District—

This district has become conspicuous by its absence since our efficient correspondent, Bro. Billups, resigned and your humble servant accepted the position.

We still have a few nons on the Pittsburg Division whom we must by some means induce to join our organization, notwithstanding some of them have failed to keep their promises. Continual dropping will wear a stone; we must keep everlastingly after them. The new men, as a rule, are willing to join as soon as they get their first pay, but we must keep a watchful eye over them also.

Local Chairman Bro. Yeager, Jr., has been with the general committee in Baltimore practically all of the past two months, assisting in our present schedule negotiations with the company, but during an adjournment several meetings on this and other divisions—one meeting at Wheeling December 23d, a day and night meeting at Pittsburg, December 29th, and a day meeting at Callery on the 30th, where he was introduced by Local Chairman Olwell of the Western District. All were well attended. Bro. Yeager explained all phases of the schedule, and was pledged the full support of the members. We have capable, able men on our general committee, and will come out winners in the end, so don’t become discouraged because of the length of time it is taking our general committee to conclude the schedule negotiations.

Bro. Oliver, at West Newton, was off a few days attending the funeral of his mother. We all extend him our sympathy.

Bro. Billups has secured third “MJ,” and will require no other physical exercise except what he gets wrestling levers there.

Bro. Marsh was recently re-elected a member of the council at Versailles.

Bro. Sheirey was off during the holidays, and Bro. Fitzgibbon was off a few days on account of sickness in his family. Were relieved by Mr. Busser, a new man.

Bro. Kepler relieved Bro. Toulon a few days at Demmler.

Bro. Moon has gone to Florida, relieved by Mr. Dillinger.

Bro. Wilson, second trick leverman at “WJ,” recently returned from Florida.

Bro. Skinner has been granted a six months’ furlough.

Bro. Williams, second Rand, has been assisting in the examination of employees on the book of rules. Quite a compliment, for it is no cinch to become familiar with all of those questions.

Agent Welty, at Willcock, is an old B. of R. T. timer.

It is now Bros. Kyler and Button at Taylortown.

Bro. Young, better known as “Mutt,” has hiked back to Willow Grove.

Bro. J. F. Stahl, on the river district several years ago, was recently elected general secretary and treasurer of the newly organized Panama R. R. System, Division 158, at Cristobal, C. Z.

Bro. Kuhn has returned from a trip to the Pacific Coast.

Sister Bellman, Allegheny, was off recently on account of the illness of her sister.

The fone system, although modern in every respect, has been entirely out of commission several times during the past few months, owing to storms and snowy weather. Some of the boys would much rather hear the old familiar Morse.

Do everything in your power to encourage the general committee. Send the members a note of encouragement, whether you have anything of interest to suggest or not. It will be appreciated.

Keep your eyes on all new men, and if they are a member of other divisions, send their names and division and certificate numbers to Bro. Yeager, and keep everlastingly after the nons, preaching and practicing, “No card, no favors.”

I wish to thank Bro. Gleipinger for his notes, and hope all members of the L. B. of A. will contribute next month. CRRT. 159.

Philadelphia Division—

Local Chairman Sullivan called a special meeting in Wilmington, Del., December 20th, for the purpose of considering some of the propositions the company desired the men to accept, which was well attended, and the company’s side explained in detail. It was generally agreed that the cry of hard times, by the corporations, was not well founded. Railroad men, generally, perhaps may not want government ownership at present, but if conditions become unbearable it may be forced upon them, feeling that such a change might be beneficial, especially when the wages paid and the hours of service established in the departments already run by the government are taken in consideration. The lesson the people are teaching the express companies should act as a guide to others. It takes time for public opinion to assert itself, and if the railroad men of this country should grow dissatisfied with their treatment, and turn to the government for relief it would no doubt have a powerful influence on the situation.

Bro. R. W. Dill has returned from his trip west to Wilmington, Del.

Bro. Battersby, Wharton Street tower, Philadelphia, reports that cutting out East Side tower has considerably increased the work in that office.

Bros. G. H. Smith, O. R. Burroughs, Seibert, Dill and Battersby, were at the meeting. The three latter gave their usual interesting talks. We were glad to see Bro. Christine out, and hope he will come again.

Local Secretary E. L. Miller was absent for the first time that we can remember. CRRT. 405.

Wheeling Division—

Local Chairman Allender made a very successful trip over the division when he came back from Baltimore, landing almost all the nons he was able to call on.

It should not be necessary to send out organizers over the division. The boys certainly realize the conditions existing and should make a personal effort to support the general committee in session in Baltimore by getting in the nons with them and near them. When we look at what the Order has done in raising salaries and bettering our working conditions, we should also get our cards promptly at the beginning of each semi-annual period.

C. E. Miller, third Glover Gap, on six months’ leave, was relieved by W. Elsiz. Bro. A. G.

Ogden on second. Bro. A. G. Harbert, third "D" Tower, was off three days recently looking after business affairs at Clarksburg.

Bro. R. M. Coyne on third "MO" Tower pending bulletin.

It will soon be Bro. Shoulte, the youngest extra man on the list.

R. Pepper is relieving Roy Davis at "DK" Tower, and Bro. Bunk Louden is relieving Hargert, who is serving on the jury.

Let us all give the general committee, now meeting with the company officials at Baltimore, a helping hand by paying our own dues promptly and seeing that our neighbors do likewise. As an organization our interests should be so bound up in each other that no difference of opinion should ever allow us to forget that one is necessary to the success of the other, and an injury to one affects us all.

There are still a few nons and delinquents on this division whom we must get in line.

Bro. L. B. Ferrell is now on third Central.

Bro. O. L. Baker, second Petroleum, who was relieved by T. Davis, relieved Bro. L. C. Scott there a few days on account of sickness at Bro. Scott's home. Later Bro. Scott bid in third Connwallis, which will make it much handier for him to get home.

Bro. T. A. Robinson, Silver Run, was relieved by Bro. Ferree a few days on account of his little girl being sick.

Let us not forget our golden rule, "No card, no favors."

Advise everybody to get in line and always carry an up-to-date. It is the best for them in every way.

"Billy," Cert. 1369.

Connsville Division—

A. L. Gates, second Mukden, off several days on account of illness, was relieved by J. A. Evans.

J. H. Tucker, third Washington, Pa., was recently called to Garrett on account of the illness and death of his father. We extend our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in his sad loss.

J. P. Devilbiss, first Dunbar, is on vacation in the Southern States.

We regret to learn that Mrs. Lynn, wife of J. Z. Lynn, second Indian Creek, has typhoid fever, and hope for her speedy and complete recovery.

E. W. Sipple, second Salisbury Jct., made a trip to Richmond, Va., recently.

Glad to note that S. Y. Waterhouse, second wire chief, Connsville, and A. E. Scanland, second Wilson Creek, are back again after a short period of illness.

A freight wreck on the W. M. at Meyersdale the latter part of January caused their trains to be detoured via our line from Keystone to Connellville.

Div. Cor.

New Castle Division, East End—

Quite a number of our brothers considerably put out on account of not receiving their pay checks the last half of December until Christmas, when they were unable to get them cashed.

Our monthly meeting, held in Central Labor Hall, Akron, Ohio, on December 27th, was very well attended. Quite a number of new faces present. Among them were Chairman Yeager, of Pittsburg Division, who thoroughly explained the articles embodied in the new schedule, and the offer made by the company. Our meetings are becoming more interesting each month.

Bros. O'Connor and Foley attended the meeting at Chicago Junction on December 29th.

Bro. Mulhern, of Akron, Howard St., has his hands full since Akron Jct. and East Akron were discontinued. The boys at "AK" are doing their work by phone.
Mr. Craig, third "TF," has resigned, relieved by J. M. Garner, who will soon be in line; also Mr. Senner at "BD."

It is now Bros. Carl Adams and McConahy at Lodi. Glad to see them again in line. It will also soon be Bro. Coyne, extra, at "OD."

Item in December issue in effect that Bro. Bedel had secured "SU" nights was an error, as no assignment made. Bro. Bedel is still at "FN."

Bro. R. R. Barr is now a "papa."

Bro. Carl Adams is on vacation, and Bro. Burwell, second Haseltel, is off, sick.

Several of the boys have asked for relief, but are unable to get it as several extra men have been dismissed and several resigned.

Mr. Neidler bid in first "OA." Cert. 933.

Chicago Division—

Bro. J. G. DeLong, Ripley third, while off ten days on account of sickness, visited home folks at Greentown, Ind.; relieved by C. C. Redmond.

Bro. G. B. Connor, second Albion, bid in second Ripley Tower, relieved by C. C. Redmond, later relieved by Mr. O'Connor, a new man, and relieved Bro. Rothenberger, first, Kimmel, while visiting a few days.

Bro. Connor and DeLong are keeping "bachelors' hall" in a car at Ripley. The only trouble they have is getting the children ready for school.

Boys, get after the nons and line them up. We need them in getting our new schedule.

Send in your notes and keep me posted on all the different changes and anything else you would like to see in the journal. "CH" at "KN."

Chicago & Eastern Illinois R. R.

Illinois Division—

We are now working under our new schedule which went into effect December 1st, which was secured only after two determined efforts on the part of our committee, the first meeting November 18th lasting several days. At the second meeting, by both sides giving ground, an agreement was reached by which we get approximately a 5 per cent raise in salary; overtime at relay jobs raised from 35 cents to 40 cents, and other positions from 25 cents to 30 cents per hour; straight eight hours for three-man stations, and eleven hours for one-man stations, and some other changes in rules.

The new agreement as a whole is not what we expected nor what we should have received after waiting two years for a revision, but on account of the road being in the hands of receivers it is the best that could be done at present. However, another meeting is promised us again next year and better things can be expected at that time.

In this connection I would urge every member to keep his dues paid up and insist on the non-members coming in and carrying their share of the burden, keep our treasury in good shape and assure our committee men that they will be backed by a solid, loyal membership.

It was really amusing during the recent negotiations to hear the nons on the wire trying to get news from the O. R. T. headquarters. They are always live wires when they see something good in sight (if they think some one else will stand the expense), they are always ready with that old song, "I am right with you in case of a walk-out," but when it comes right down to the point of backing up their talk with a written obligation and a little cold cash (which the O. R. T. has secured for them) they fall back on some flimsy excuse to hide their selfishness.

By trying to make the non-members see themselves as we Order men see them, I do not wish to create any hard feelings but I would certainly like by some means to stir all telegraphers up to the sense of their duty to themselves at least, and when they begin to try to help themselves by good old O. R. T. means, they will be helping every other telegrapher.

Now you non-members, look the matter square in the face. You bid in the job you are working and are assured of keeping it through the O. R. T.; you are working decent hours and get overtime if worked beyond those hours; you are assured of a square deal in time of trouble and are drawing from ten to fifteen dollars more every month than the position paid two or three years ago. These things you absolutely would not be able to enjoy had it not been for the O. R. T. men devoting their time and money to get them.

Now suppose several telegraphers would pool their money (the Lord knows it wouldn't be very much), and put it in the bank or some business enterprise in order to get better interest on their money, and they offered to let you in on the deal if you would put in your share of the stake, then after the deal went through successfully and you did not put your money into the pool, would you feel justified in going to the bank and asking for your share of the interest, simply because you were a telegrapher and working on the same road as the other fellows?

"No, certainly not," you will say.

You would have no right to one cent of that money.

Now why is the O. R. T. not the same kind of a deal?

We put our money and efforts into the O. R. T. bank, so to speak; we draw out better interest than any bank in the world would allow us on the same investment, and at the same time provide a life insurance for the benefit of our loved ones after we are gone, an insurance that can not be beat by any company, and as safe as a thing of the kind can be made.

Now friends among the non-members, every day you work, you are drawing interest out of our O. R. T. bank, every time you draw your check, every time you make out an overtime slip, you are drawing interest from O. R. T. money; every time you put your bid in for a job you are using a right secured through O. R. T.
T. money and effort. I ask you in all candor and good feeling, is it right?

Down deep in your mind you will answer, "No," but will you let it rest at that?

Let me answer the last question for you. "No, I won't let it rest at that," I will ask the first O. R. T. man I see to get me a set of application blanks and dig up the necessary amount if I have to do without something to eat, I will stop being a "moocher" on the O. R. T. and do my full share to further the strength of the Order, thus not only helping myself and my loved ones, but reaching out a helping hand to all telegraphers."

When every telegrapher makes up his mind to this effect, what will the result be? Our committee will get what they ask for and the much talked of $75 minimum will not be far distant.

Now, ladies and gentlemen, I have a few application blanks here, and the fee for February is $8.83, for March $8.17; don't crowd, please, for all, when these are gone, I'll send for another carload, whose the next?

Recent assignments on bulletins: Bro. Dowdy, first Sullivan, to first Goveville; Bro. W. E. Hicks, local chairman, second Sullivan, to first Sullivan; Bro. O. Sneed, third Kell, to second Marion; Bro. A. M. Chiam, second Thebes, to agency St. James; Bro. F. O. Watkins, second Arthur, to first there; Bro. L. E. Dole, agent St. James, to operator-cashier West Frankfort; Bro. W. V. Thornberry, third Mode, to third Bourbon.

Bro. W. E. Hicks, local chairman, off few days recently, going over the road trying to line up the nons, was relieved by Bro. F. E. Huser, who also relieved Bro. Dewey, second Findlay Jct., a few days.

Bro. Kelley, formerly first Arthur, was off few days recently and returned with a bride. Congratulations.

Bro. E. H. Kirk, second Cadwell, worked several days extra at Ina recently, after Cadwell office had been discontinued.

Bro. W. H. Davenport, local chairman of terminals, from "GO" office, Chicago, made a flying trip to Salem recently on O. R. T. business. He is one of the live ones and we would be glad to see him oftener.

Bro. G. H. Leffler, second, and R. E. Farmer, third, two dispatchers Middle District, and H. J. Walker, third north end, off a few days recently, were relieved by Bro. B. E. Johnson, extra.

It is now Bro. F. R. Thixton, second Mode, we are glad to hear also M. L. Daugherty, first "OW" Salem, and Mr. Wooley, operator-cashier Salem station, have their applications in and will soon be carrying cards. Div. Cor.

Chicago Division, Danville District—

Bro. V. L. Burton, third Woodland Jct., on sixty-day leave, was relieved by R. P. Selsor.

Telegrapher Wood, third Coaler, has returned from an extended trip to San Francisco and other western points.

Telegrapher Potts is back on first Rom Jct. from first Danville ticket office.

Bros. Lottinville and Davenport are out after new members and delinquents.

Bro. E. G. Oehmke, third Pittwood, is visiting in the southern part of the State, relieved by Extra McCleskey.

Bro. J. L. Lanham, agent Steger, was a recent Watsaka visitor.

Bro. J. B. France, agent Momence, was compelled to lay off one of his freight men recently on account of decreased business.

W. N. Danviels, yard master Momence Jct., on the sick list this month, has gone to his home at Watsaka to recuperate.

H. T. Wescoat, third "HJ" tower, is now with the M. C. at Chicago Heights.

Bro. L. S. Willis, second Yard Center, has returned from Attica, where he has been receiving treatment. It will probably be another month before he will be able to resume his duties.

H. R. Ragan, agent Longview, is now on first "MS" tower, Momence. Div. Cor.

Chicago Division, Villa Grove District—

Bro. Glenn Johnson, third Gerald, was off on ten days' vacation. Sister G. R. Smith, second there, was on the sick list several days.

O. C. Hunt, a new man, bid in third Ellis. It is now Sister Cheffer on second there.

Local Chairman Lottinville did some good work over here in January.

Sister McCammon, second Royal, is on the sick list, trying the sunshine in Los Angeles, Cal.

It is now Bros. Thomas and Todd at Royal. R. E. Farlow, agent there, has our sincere sympathy in the death of his wife. He will be with us in the near future.

Brothers, let us have a write-up every month. Send your items to Bro. C. A. Payne, at Watsaka, not later than the 20th. It is no trouble to jot down a line or two when you hear of any change.

Now that we have our new schedule and a raise, let us keep on working until we get this district 100 per cent strong, and then keep it there with the "get together" slogan.

I desire to thank the three of the eight brothers whom I asked for items who helped me out this month.

"CD," Div. Cor.

Evansville Division—

We are all enjoying a little raise and better hours in the last schedule, effective December 1, 1913, and we all feel grateful to our worthy local chairman, Bro. Skiles, who is always on the job and does his best for us. We feel that we have done very well in our agreements, considering that the road is in the hands of the receivers.

Brothers, if you have not paid your dues, do so at once. The time is coming soon when a non will not be recognized in a working agreement.
Boost the O. R. T. "In union there is strength," and divided we may be easily broken.

We are glad to see Bro. "Rip" West back on second Worthington, after a spell of sickness.

Bro. O. K. Jackson, second Elliston, wants it distinctly understood that he is not married, although he is a candidate.

Brothers, let's have a write-up in the journal each month. You can all send me something, and by so doing we may know what each other is doing and be better acquainted.

D. A. J., at "CO."

Pere Marquette R. R.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to extend my heartfelt thanks through The Telegrapher, for the beautiful floral offering and sympathy accorded by the members of Division 39 during the hours of my distress and sorrow.

Mrs. James E. Bowerman.

Michigan City, Ind., January 3, 1914.

Chesapeake & Ohio Ry.

Indiana Division—

Bro. F. M. Peoples, of Peru third, bid in "HY" tower, but didn't think much of the job after a closer inspection, so he landed Bath agency.

Extra Dispatcher Eckard has resumed his regular position at "Z" office. Bro. Holmes, who had been relieving him for several months, is now on third Peru yard office pending assignment of that position.

Several telegraph offices closed temporarily on account of decrease in business which always shows up in January.

Relief Agent Cain was over the line recently, conducting the semi-annual operators' examination.

Bro. M. D. Wood, who has been confined to his home in Fowler with pneumonia, is improving and will no doubt soon be able to resume work.

Bro. J. J. Wooley was in Peru on business recently, relieved by Sister Wooley, who filled out the necessary credentials this month.

Bro. Geo. Shanklin is on third Losantville tower while Bro. Brock is relieving Bro. Hutchins on first there.

Bro. Moore, of second Fowler, is now a happy papa.

L. H. Sullivan, agent Sweetser, does not see that taking out a card would benefit himself or family. He reasons: "What's the use; I get all the benefits anyway, so I'll just stall along and save the money." It is a shame that we are compelled to work with such material. He has received over $72 through our organization the past year and is not willing to return $12 of it. We are certainly thankful that more than 90 per cent of our force represent other than this class of men.

G. L. Freed, Div. Cor.

Erie R. R.

New York Division—

The regular meeting at Jersey City on November 19th was fairly attended, and some very interesting business gone through. Regret our worthy Bro. Coleman was unable to be present on account of an attack of lumbago, relieved by Bro. Prince. Bro. Coleman was also off previously, owing to the death of his brother. He has our sincere sympathy.

Bro. G. E. Remsen, first Paterson, was off with lumbago several days, relieved by Bro. Prince.

Some brother on side lines send me some items. It is impossible to cover the main and side lines. Your help will be thankfully received.

Doubling up is about a thing of the past. Our new division operator must be able to furnish a man when needed, and the boys can get a day off when requested, which is a great relief from the old days and much appreciated by us all.

A little effort by the members to get the few remaining nons will soon make us solid. Each member should go for one he knows personally and explain the benefits of membership in the O. R. T. Without a solid membership it is impossible to secure the results that we should enjoy.

Telegraphers on competing lines are receiving from $15 to $25 a month more than we because they are better organized. Don't condemn the railroad nor the committee you send to the officials. The former will pay only such salaries as they are obliged to, and your committee will get just such concessions as it has the power to demand by the backing of a solid membership. "No card, no favors" is a potent argument for lingering nons. Let's try it.

Bro. Donnelly is relieving Mr. Dowell.

Bro. "Joe" Dockery fell over the signal wires on his way to work recently, cutting his fingers pretty badly.

Bro. Heman, while attending court, was relieved by Bro. McGrady, and he by Mr. Bowen.

Bro. Stevens has returned to second "XK," after working at "JD" on the ten days' clause. Sikes has moved to Southfield.

Bro. Readdy was off a few days, relieved by Extra Bowen.

Bro. M. S. Earl dropped in to look at his old love at Newburgh Jct. recently.

Bro. Mat Brown is now on second "NJ."

Div. Cor., Cert. 85.

Susquehanna Division—

There has been no write-up from this division for several months, owing to the illness of your scribe and the usual failure to receive any notes. It has been a good many years since we failed to have a monthly write-up and we regret it, but put the blame where it belongs. Not one brother has notified the local chairman as to the standing of the new men. When a new man comes to your office to work, unless you do this your chairman is unable to know whether they are members or not. It is more to your interest than anyone's that we have a good membership and make our division solid. Let's interest ourselves in our own welfare and help the local chairman to get the nons lined up. There are other obligations besides carrying a card in order to secure better results, and these also include the wearing of a union-made coat, shoes, hat, etc., and going to the polls and voting for members who stand for union labor. When you make a purchase of any kind, demand the union label. If you can not find it in your own town, come to McGlenn Bros. at Elmira, who make a specialty of union-made goods. Spend your union money for union goods and for no other if you can avoid it, which means sanitary conditions and good wages for other union men and women.

Your chairman has been appointed on the State legislative board, organized in New York in September by the O. R. T. to represent the Erie in this State. The board will soon meet in Albany to take up its duties, and we hope to accomplish much good through its efforts for all concerned, if each member will cast his vote for the men who represent "our cause."

Bro. Husted will soon hold a series of meetings on the system with Bro. Pierson and some of our other officials. Let's turn out strong, attend these meetings and learn something of interest to us all.

Bro. Ryan bid in Big Flats agency. Mr. Stone says he had much rather that agents' positions be filled by experienced telegraphers than by raw material. Bro. Reeder, agent there for so many years, has retired on account of reaching the age limit, and we all extend to him our best wishes for his future success. Bro. Knickerbocker bid in first "XU," vacated by Bro. Ryan, and Bro. Kelliber in third "XU," vacated by Bro. "Nick."

Bro. D. H. O'Brien, who has resigned to accept a much better position, will no doubt continue to carry a card. Bro. Moseson bid in second "VO," and keeps a line of good watches, etc. Bro. Meeker has purchased a fine motocycle, and is keeping the trail hot between Woodlawn avenue and a certain young lady's residence down town, and "VO" is still solid.

Mr. Smith decided that Covert had a right to return to "GY," which he bid in when "JT" was closed and he protested against returning to "JT" on its being reopened.

Mr. Mapes, a new man from the D. L. & W., will soon be with us.

Bro. A. L. Mason, now on the New Haven, was a very welcome caller along the division during the holidays, and extends his best wishes to the brothers. Bro. Nolan, now on the D. L. & W., called on Elmira friends recently.

We are all glad to see former Bro. P. Donnellan promoted to dispatcher.

There are still a few nons on the division whom we should get after. If you don't know where they are, the local chairman will furnish you a list.

Horseheads agency is now vacant—a good job for some worthy brother.

The Susquehanna and Tioga were the best paid up of all the divisions on the system at the expiration of the recent term. Div. Cor.

Mahoning Division—

Lewis, off on account of sickness, was relieved by Carroll. Flagherty, off a few days visiting in Buffalo and Niagara Falls, was relieved by Lewis.

Fred Duerr, now with the N. Y. C. in New York City, called on several of the boys along the Mahoning Division recently.

Andrews, off making a new time card, was relieved by Copier Smith.

Cate is back on second "IN," after an absence of several months.

Thompson bid in "JU" second.

Grimm was snowed in during the last storm, and our worthy chief had to do the 4 a. m. stunts at "OB."

Brownay was recently presented with an up-to-date auto, which he expects to enjoy the coming summer.

Bruce, taking in the sights in New York City, was relieved by Extra Snyder.

McDermott spent several days in Canton, relieved by Mohi.

The meeting at Youngstown on January 17th was well attended, two or three times as many as in December being present. General Chairman Husted gave an outline of the work being done and other information. Bill is certainly improving as an orator, and we hope he will be with us more frequently in future. Boys, you are missing something in not attending these meetings, arranged for you. Several new faces were seen. We hope they will be regular attendants.

Daily, on Cregan's desk, is laid up with a bad case of mumps. Cregan, car tracer at "SB," is becoming quite an amateur actor, especially as a Dutch character.

The new roster is "some class."

Nothing like advertising. When through with your journal, give it to some non. Probably he might read something that would add one more to our ranks. Our journal is one of the best trade journals in the country, and we have a good editor at the head of it. Pass it along and don't be so selfish.

Arnold visited a few days in Pittsburgh and attended the Billy Sunday meetings.

Pierson recently purchased a parrot, whose vocabulary is now limited to "At home at last." It is hoped "Peg" will be able to teach it more.

What nonsense it is to talk about how much we do and how we love our Order, and at the same time make no effort to do anything to strengthen and build it up. Be a "booster" instead of a "knocker," and get busy. The field is large and the returns are great.

Cincinnati Division—

There have been many important changes made on this division. The automatic block being installed between Marion and Galion, effective January 20th, displaced nine more men, "BX" tower, Caledonia and Slick being closed.

Bro. J. P. Wilson, of Caledonia, bid in Broadway agency, vice Bro. Lary, deceased. The patrons of the road will find Bro. Wilson a nice, pleasant man to deal with. He was relieved by Bro. I. N. Petty while moving his family from Caledonia.

On account of trains Nos. 10 and 11 being discontinued between Marion and Dayton, Green camp, Broadway and Kennard nights closed.

Bro. Leibhard was in Springfield recently on business.

General Chairman Husted attended a meeting in Youngstown on January 16th, which was well attended.

Let us all make a resolution to secure at least one new member every month until we have no more timber to work on. We will then have a strong organization. That is the only way to do it, brothers. We must all get busy. Cert. 20.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. Fannie Sheehan Lutz and Mrs. Nettie Lutz and family wish to express their sincere thanks for the beautiful floral piece sent in respect for their beloved husband, son and brother, Isaac Lutz.

Canadian Northern Ry.

Members Division 43: Ten new members in December, six by transfer and four by initiation.

G. H. PALMER,
General Secretary and Treasurer.

Western Division, First District—

Bro. Edling, of Wadena, bid in Chinook on the west end. He takes with him best wishes from boys on this district for future success.

Quite a few reductions have taken place lately account of slack business which I trust will be only temporary.

Bro. E. G. Delano, of Dauphin Depot, is on a trip South.

Mikado station has closed for a couple of months, Bro. O'Farrell, the agent there, relieving Bro. Humphries, at Invermay, for a few weeks.

The extraordinary mild weather has curtailed the usual winter operations. An abundant fall of snow would be of great benefit to the laboring men both in our line as well as in every other occupation, as there are great quantities of grain and forest products still unmarketed, waiting for enough snow to make easier hauling.

Game of all kinds has been very abundant on this district during the past game season. If this feature of the country was properly advertised by the railways and the government, our district would become a great center for hunters. Moose, elk, deer and other big game abound, while birds were never so plentiful before, and right on the railway tracks.

CERT. 52.

Western Division, Second District—

Bro. Lemieux, "SU" nights, who got new terminal at Hanna nights, is on holiday to see the folks at home, relieved by Bro. "Nibs" Francis.

Bro. J. H. Strong, the new Prince Albert agent, now has his family with him.

Bro. Thompson, at Big River, is watching the new mill under operation, which will again make his village the city he dreams of.

Bro. Braithwaite, at Leask, is making overtime now that the line is completed to North Battleford; also Mr. Bedard and Mr. Armitage, at Blaine Lake, who will soon be brothers, and help make it solid.

Bro. O. Binnette bid in Aylesbury station, leaving DeArcy station on bulletin. Rosthern, Davidson and Hanna days, also up for bid.

Bro. Menzies secured Bethune; Bro. Richardson, Kenaston, and Bro. C. J. Berger, Girvin.

R. B. Law, Cert. 111.

Winnipeg to Port Arthur—

There has been no write up from this division for some time, but some of the brothers have been kind enough to send me some notes for publication. A division laced up as well as ours should have a good write-up every month. The writer is willing to help if the brothers will do the same. Our division from Winnipeg to Port Arthur is a credit to the Order, as it is practically 100 per cent strong. This certainly is a grand showing and most of our dispatchers belong.

The extra set of dispatchers at Rainy River during the wheat rush have been withdrawn, leaving only Bro. J. H. Thompson, chief, Bro. Rock, first, Bro. Hicks, second, and Bro. Hitesman on third. At Ft. Frances Bro. Sievers is chief, Bro. Wicks on first, Mr. Knoblauch on second, and Bro. Simpson on third. It is not known yet whether they will be left there or not. Bro. Fay, formerly on west end Rainy River, is now at Winnipeg, and Mr. Krouse, who says he will be with us soon, is also at Winnipeg.

At Port Arthur Bro. T. J. Brown is chief and Bros. Bensit, Gelzer and Thomms, on first, second and third tricks, respectively.

It has been a hard season on the dispatchers and telegraphers this fall as the weather has permitted navigation being kept open later than usual and the grain handled this year exceeds the amount handled any previous year.

Bro. Olephant, relieving at Woodridge, has gone to the Western Division. Bro. Bell, who has been in the Duluth hospital with a bullet in his shoulder, having returned. Bro. H. A. Cox, agent Woodridge, secured six new members last year, which is not bad.

Miss McElmoe, Ste. Anne nights, will be with us as soon as she has been in the service long enough.
Bro. Arnold at Sprague, off for Christmas holidays, will transfer from Division 83.

Bro. T. Scanlan is at Pinewood nights. We are glad to learn that his wife has recovered her health after being confined to the hospital for seven months.

Bro. Herton, Emo nights, resigned; relieved by Bro. Gale, who has not yet seen the ghost reported to be there.

Mokomon closed Mr. (soon to be brother) Cassey at Mattawa nights. Kashabowie nights, Windigo, Mokomon and Twin City Jct. temporary offices, also closed.

Bros. Cullen and Doollittle have returned to Mabella; Bro. Jameson, relief operator, resigned.

Bros. Ainsley, Division 7, and Plunkett, Division 2, G. T. P., are at Atikokan; Bro. Smith, agent there, relieved of telegraph work during busy season.

The new yard office at Port Arthur is completed, the force moved in. Bro. Jones, Port Arthur, is on vacation visiting friends in Michigan and Minnesota, relieved by Bro. McFarland, and he by Peebles, from Kakabeka Falls nights, leaving the latter short.

Only nine miles more steel to be laid from Port Arthur when this line will be completed east to Sudbury. Two long bridges have to be built before the material can be hauled to finish this piece of road.

Send all the news you can to the correspondent and let's have a write-up every month.

C.R.T. 1094.

Battleford Section—

Bro. Fred Sherman and bride, while passing through "DN" to Chipman, where Fred has bid in the agency, were showered with rice and old shoes. Bro. Smith, "DN," also recently married, bid in Laird agency. Bro. Frisco, dispatcher at "DK," was also recently married, but we did not learn the name of bride. Bro. Roberts, dispatcher at "DK," has returned from his holiday with a bride, to Edmonton. Congratulations to all the happy couples. Bro. O. Farrell also returned from three weeks' visit below Quebec; but the girl refused to come to the wild and woolly West. Try again, Mike.

Bro. McLaren, Denholm agency, on two weeks' leave, was relieved by Mr. Bruce.

Bro. Grant, "DN" nights, on sick list, relieved by Bro. Campbell. When Bro. Sherman bid in Chipman agency Bro. Campbell went on days, and Mr. Henry, a new man, on nights, until Bro. Grant returned, when Mr. Henry went to third "FD." He will soon be one of us.

Bro. Xmas, Delmas, while taking in the great white way at Edmonton, was relieved by Mr. Henry.

Bro. Bennett, relieving agent Ishay, bid in Big Valley days.

We are glad to see Bro. Jack Ashby back at Red Willow agency.

Bro. Potts to Vegreville nights, and Bro. Elliott days, pending bids. Humbolt nights and Hafford agency on Blaine Lake extension also on bulletin.

Bro. Bethune, third North Battleford, to Edmonton third during Christmas rush.

Bro. McKinnon, Vermilion days, spent Christmas in Edmonton.

Ontario Division—

Nons are comparatively few on our line, our schedule is as good as any, and we hope with the next revision it will be ahead of any other.

Our lines are gradually extending; the east line being opened through to Ottawa on January 5th for freight service. Agents installed at McLaren, Richmond, McEwen, Smith's Falls and Lucas and Chauffey's Locks. Other agencies will be opened as soon as the through passenger service between Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal is put on. The steel has been connected up between Sudbury and Port Arthur with prospects of a through western service about September next. This will open up a lot of jobs for some of the boys who like obscurity and solitude mingled with black flies and mosquitoes.

Rumor has it that the telephone system of dispatching is going to be installed between Port Arthur and Toronto. Ten years from now this will be the road of Canada, which is saying considerable when you consider the wealth of our neighbor, the C. P. R.

I suppose you are all waiting patiently for the new parcel post to be put in effect when we will be able to laugh at our friend the postmaster toting his mail bag with a consignment of thirty dozen egg crates and a few boxes of butter in it. The express companies are proposing to ask the government for reimbursement for their losses by the inauguration of the parcel post. What is wrong with the O. R. T. asking the express companies for a small slice of that reimbursement? We are doing their work for them today for a measly ten per cent on local business and less than nothing on interline. What we want to get right after is at least 15 per cent or 20 per cent if we can get it. The boys on the C. P. have an agreement with the Do-
Central of Georgia Ry.

Atlanta Division—

A meeting was held Sunday, Jan. 18th, in the Odd Fellows' Hall, Macon, Ga. We had a very nice crowd, though not as many as could have had. We were met at the train by Bro. Hightower, who marched us out to his sister's, where we were treated to an elaborate spread. After we had eaten our fill, we had some smokes, and repaired to the hall where several things of vital interest were taken up and discussed. Several of the boys had to leave before the meeting was concluded on account of having to work that night. It seems as if each station could spare one man to go to these meetings, so if the raise does not suit you boys when the committee goes down for one again, remember you are at fault. I am glad to say that there is one place on the Atlanta District that sent two men.

Bro. Pope, visiting relatives in South Georgia and his wife's folks at Mansfield on Christmas, was relieved by Bro. McBee, from the G. S. & F., who also relieved Bro. Carter a few days, and later relieved Bro. Hodges several days, also Non Lock a few days.

Bro. Hutchins relieved Bro. Jones while he relieved Bro. Thompson while visiting relatives near Columbus.

Understand Bro. Thompson lost all his clothes while away on account of his boarding house burning. He has our sympathy in his loss.

Brothers, please remit promptly to Bro. Travis for your new card. Several who have not as yet remitted for card ending December 31, 1913, should do so at once. Don't make it necessary to go to the expense of going to see you—do it now—don't put it off another day, you are running too big a risk. You owe it to your family.

Columbus Division—

Bro. Pearson, Dadeville days, off account illness and death of his mother, relieved by Extra Featherston.

Several Columbus dispatchers off during Xmas relieved by Extra Dispatcher Sites, who was relieved in "SW" message office by Bro. D. O. Glass from Opelika, relieved on the second there by Extra Frank Hill, who also relieved Bro. A. H. Warlick on first, while spending a few days at Cusseta with his mother.

Bro. B. F. Jimnett, third Margaret Jct., off ten days during Xmas, relieved by Extra Bolt.

Bro. M. E. Rawls, agent Goodwater, made a pleasant trip down in the southern part of "Here we rest," leaving it up to Bro. Brown.

Important business (?) suddenly called Bro. D. S. Brown to Chattanooga, Tenn., relieved by Featherston.

Bro. L. B. Houston, second Goodwater, on thirty days' leave to try the "AB" and "A" at Arkright, relieved by Mr. Bolt. Here's wishing him well.

Bro. C. Belk, ticket agent Union Springs, goes to Columbus as city ticket agent, relieved by J. C. Perry.

Bro. W. D. Corley, agent Colgate, is a recent convert. We like to see them come.

Bro. Cowden, Camp Hill, relieved a few days by J. C. Perry.

Bro. C. R. Roberts, second Sylacauga, spent a few days at Lineville, relieved by Extra Bolt.

Bro. Fred Clark, agent Leeds, spent Sunday in Columbus attending investigation, relieved by Featherston.

We intend having a write-up from this division of some kind hereafter, so if anybody ever does anything they don't want shown up they will have to do "biz."

Certs. 578 and 590.

Denver & Rio Grande R. R.

First Division—

The slump in business hit this division pretty hard, quite a number of offices closed and a lot of "bumping."

Jess Campbell, of "DC" Denver, is spending the winter on his farm, on the Gulf Coast of Texas.

A. L. Rogers, "DR" Tower, is visiting in California.

Frank Jones, bumped out at Echo, is now in the wood and cattle business there.

Operators very thick of late, beating it back from that dear California and the Northwest, where conditions are about same as here.

Only a very few nons left on this division. Keep after them and let's make it solid for 1914.

Certs. 41, Div. Cor.

Second Division, First District—

Mr. Sheehan returned to Tennessee Pass agency, relieving Mr. Bacon, on an indefinite vacation.

Mr. Carnahan, second there, resigned to engage in other business at Leadville.
Bro. Pohlson, third Granite, resigned, relieved by Mr. Collins, who promises to be with us soon.

It's now Bro. Wiggle, agent Red Cliff; Bro. Wilson, third Malta; Bro. Bigelow, third Pando, and Bro. McGaw, third Wolcott. The ice train at Pando is doing good business, something like 300 cars loaded and shipped already.

Our six-foot snow had some of the boys guessing where their eights were going to come from.

Our committee meets the management in a short time, everybody get busy, we "gotta" make a good showing to get that two weeks each year, with numerous other "articles" of great value to us.

Bro. Alton, third Salida, off on account of his father being very sick.

Three misters promised January pay day. See that they make good, we need the money.

Coast Division—

Bro. C. L. Johnson has returned to Mounds third from his trip to Denver; vice H. Harding resigned.

Fruitia second and third, Woodside second and third, and Ruby closed on account of light business. One operator at Green River and Thompson's, and four chain gang crews pulled off.

Bro. Ely, agent Woodside, has returned from the East; Bro. Babb going back east, relieved account reduction in force there, Bro. R. C. Wilson also gone east.

Helper again solid, with Brô. R. C. Moore up-to-date.

Our third trick dispatcher, Helper, made a flying trip to Salt Lake on business. "Happy" is well liked by all the boys.

Mack, Colo., open as an all night position; Bro. Seymour from Green River, and Bro. Rambo from Fruitia on second, making Mack solid.

Mr. Grubbs, Sunny side, has promised to get a new card.

Boys, do not be afraid to kick if you have a good cause, you will never get anything you do not ask for. Local Chairman Hopkins advises that all positions will be billedent.

Don't forget, brother, to work on the non next to you, or in the same office and get his application. We are about 90 per cent strong now. Individual effort is what counts and it's up to you to land him.

A convict escaped from train No. 2 between Solitude and Thompson's, January 21st. Bro. Cunningham, Thompson's, says he's going back. Bro. Seymour, at Mack, took to the woods.

Mr. Imhoff, third, is now night clerk at Fruitia.

Mr. Alderson is on third Price. Touch him up "Sammy," and see if he has a card.

Coast Division—

A rousing meeting, marked especially for its enthusiastic and large attendance, was held in the Labor Temple at San Jose on December 7th, under the auspices of the Coast and Western Divisions, some thirty-five brothers and their wives being present.

The meeting was called to order by Local Chairman Ward, who went into the finer parts of our new schedule, in order that all the brothers should be thoroughly familiar with the articles. Bro. Ward ended his talk by introducing Bro. Kopikus, our tried and true warrior, who journeyed with Mrs. "Kop" from Oakville to be with us. Bro. "Kop" can always be depended on for a talk, and we were pleased to have him with us. He gave us an idea of how we stood financially, ending by saying that "Old 53" has obtained more new members, more members transferred from other divisions, and that conditions never looked brighter for Division 53.

Bro. Ward then introduced General Chairman Cowgill (who is no stranger), who was on the eve of his departure for the Atlantic System to help with schedule negotiations there. Bro. Cowgill spoke of trying instances while trying to put through the new schedule, and exhibited a silver loving cup, the gift of the "boys of the San Joaquin." We certainly enjoyed Bro. "Jack's" talk, and I am sure the boys who were unable to take in the meeting would have enjoyed it immensely. We hope to have Bro. "Jack" with us again on his return home.

We also enjoyed hearing Bro. Chapin, a non-schedule member, who told of the difficulties in organizing "53" and how he had to ride a bicycle from Arizona to Oakland in order to get at the boys.

Bro. McDermott, agent Alviso, told of some of his experiences in the old days, and Bro. Harrison called our attention to "eternal vigilance." Bro. Seger (the Relay Divisions' general chairman), who, accompanied by the Hoell brothers, journeyed from "BD," also gave us a nice talk. We also were pleased to hear from Bros. Green, San Mateo, and Chapman, of Alma.

The surprise of the evening, however, was when Bro. Ward called on Bro. Dains for a talk. Bro. Dains exhibited some O. R. T. cards bearing the date of 1889, and while everyone appeared interested, Bro. Dains turned to Bro. Cowgill and presented him with a handsome dress suit case. "the gift of the boys of the Coast." Bro. Cowgill responded in a manner that was good to hear.

Bro. Pennington, local chairman of the Western Division, then favored us with a brief talk, and as the time was short the meeting was adjourned, in order that the boys could make their trains, all of them going with a promise to be on hand at our next meeting.

It was a pleasure to note the presence of the gentler sex, which made our meeting more home-like. Among the ladies were Mrs. Cowgill, Mrs. Berry, Mrs. Kopikus and several other ladies, the names of whom, I am sorry to say, I overlooked.

We will hold another meeting in the near future, and all the brothers should get together and get acquainted.

Owing to unavoidable circumstances, I was unable to be present, much to my regret, and am indebted to Bro. Werner, my able assistant, for this report and for nearly all of the news.

Bro. Parke resigned third paso Robles, relieved by Mr. Arcander, a new man, who promises to be with us soon.

Bro. Emery, while on vacation around the bay cities, was relieved on third Surf by Bro. Moore.

Bro. Blake, assistant agent Lompoc, on sixty days' vacation visiting his old home in "little old Noo Yoak," relieved by Mr. Miles.

Bro. Stuart, agent Gilroy, has resigned and gone into business. We wish him success. Bro. Young is acting agent pending bulletin received at Gonzales by Mr. Siison, and he at Santa Cruz by Bro. Merrill, relieved on second Redwood by Bro. C. W. Fuller.

We regret the unfortunate accident that befell Bro. Doyle's brother, who, we understand, lost his foot while braking out of Sacramento, on the Northern Electric. He was formerly an operator on this division, but has been braking for several years. Bro. Doyle was relieved at San Jose yard by Bro. May while off to take care of his brother.

Bro. Berry, agent Campbell, has returned from his vacation, and Bro. Kenyon, relief, has gone to Los Angeles for a short visit. There's a reason.

Bro. Covey is assistant at Boulder Creek.

Bro. King, second Guadalupe, on vacation, was relieved by Bro. Sullivan, who later relieved Mr. Heistand, first Watsonville Jct.

Bro. May relieved Mr. Grove, third Mission Bay, San Francisco, on vacation.

Night chief San Francisco abolished, Mr. Masengale reliving Dispatcher Leary on third San Luis Obispo, Leary bumping Bro. King, third "B:" San Luis Obispo, who relieved Bro. Covey, a new man, on second Gaviota.

Bro. Day, Watsonville Jct., off several days, relieved by Bro. D. R. Sullivan, who later relieved Mr. Bell, third King City, a few days.

On December 10th Edna station was broken into and robbed of about $90 S. P. and a like amount of the Wells-Fargo Company money, while Agent Burds wasuptown on an errand.

Local Chairman Ward, San Jose "SJ," relieved a few days by Bro. A. D. Spencer.

Bro. Crofut, third Del Monte Jct., on a few weeks' vacation around Los Angeles, was relieved by Bro. C. F. Moore.

Bro. D. Topham, second Delmonte Jct., on a few weeks' vacation to Los Angeles, Portland and Seattle, was relieved by Bro. Shackelford.

Bro. G. R. Smith, second Gilroy, relieved a few days by Bro. Covey while going to San Francisco to get married. Congratulations.

Business is picking up again, as the rains have started, which, if continued, will assure a bumper crop next year. "HS," Cert. 1558.

Western Division

Telegraph offices opened at Webster with three men, and Mikon nights with one man—Bros. Moreland and Allison and Mr. Fothergill at Webster and Bro. Alexander at Mikon. These are emergency offices on account of the high water in Yolo Basin, and will pay emergency rate. Bro. Moreland relieved by Bro. Backschlies, after several days on first Webster, to take his assignment as agent Walnut Creek.

Bro. S. O. Higley, former agent Niles, bid in Danville agency; Bro. A. J. Rutherford, agent Alvarado, received Niles agency; Bro. McGinnis, Milpitas agency; Mr. Leitchhammer, night telegrapher position Richmond, and Bro. C. P. Walker, telegrapher Cygicus Sink, on the last bulletin.

Only one non landed, and he received a $10 increase on the last revision and claims he can live for $23 a month. Some brother close to Richmond make it a point to see if he can not be persuaded.

Bro. A. M. Allison, on the extra list, who spent two weeks' vacation in Los Angeles and Southern California during the holidays, got back just in time to catch an emergency job on the Yolo Basin.

Mr. Kellar, agent Bay point, resigned, relieved by Telegrapher Miller, relieving at Centerville for two months.

Bro. Lester Taylor, agent Altamont, is on his honeymoon trip to Los Angeles, Southern California and old Mexico points. Congratulations and best wishes. Bro. Taylor was relieved by Bro. Dyer.

C. T. U. Bro. Brandt, Altamont, promises to get in line soon, also Messrs. McFerren and Dille at Livermore.

Bro. Follansbee, second Livermore, off Christmas week with his folks, who are spending the winter in Oakland. Severe winters in Boston and mild winters in the "Golden State" made it possible for Bro. Follansbee to spend a real Christmas.

Heavy rains have caused lots of trouble on the Yolo Basin, on the two Putah creeks between Davis and Dixon and slides at Nevada Dock, also near Stege and Vallecito Jct. Single track over the Yolo Basin since the first of the year, and all trains more or less delayed. Heavy snows in the Sierras have caused overland trains to be quite late and in some cases to be annulled. One day both tracks were gone at Webster and trains all run via Stockton and Tracy from Sacramento, and local trains turned at Davis and doubled back from there. January 22d, Steamer Solano, tied up for repairs, and all trains detoured via Napa Jct. and Vallecito except Overlands, which were detoured via Stockton. Over three inches of rain fell during the night and washed out the branch line between Suisun and Napa Jct. The first train from San Francisco got through about 2:30 p. m., after laying at Napa Jct. five hours.

The non list is entirely too large on this division. We must start a system of personal solicitation by all the members on the division. With the increases secured for each position and the benefits added to the old schedule, we have a good argument. Some have enjoyed the benefits so long that they feel entitled to any additional advantages we have secured. When a relief man comes to your station or the station next to yours, make it a personal matter to find out if he is an up-to-date member, what division he belongs to, and advise your local chairman. Let’s make the division solid.

Thanks to Bros. Dohner and Follansbee for the larger part of the items this month. The interest shown by these brothers is certainly pleasing. Remember that items for publication should reach me not later than the 20th, so they will reach St. Louis in time for publication.

Another meeting will probably be held in San Francisco soon, and a large attendance will help much towards making these meetings a regular occurrence. The brotherly feeling shown at these meetings makes it worth while to attend, and you will be amply repaid for any trouble you may have in getting there.

Don’t forget the news items.

L. C.

San Joaquin District—

Sunday, December 27th, 1913, a meeting was held at Bealville, the very best meeting held on this division in years, judging from the expressions of good-feeling from everyone present.

Bro. and Mrs. Winter were ideal hosts, to say the least, and everyone enjoyed the luxurious repast and the delightful entertainment furnished by them after dinner.

The meeting was called to order at 4 p. m. by the local chairman, and matters of interest on the division were discussed by the members. After the business of the Order was completed the ladies were invited in and the idea of creating a local of the Ladies’ Auxiliary on this division discussed, and all the ladies took blanks home with them, as did also many of the members whose wives did not accompany them. The Ladies’ Auxiliary will probably have a membership on this division which will be a close second to the O. R. T. itself. L. A. application blanks can be obtained from Mrs. W. E. Blume, Cameron, Cal., local chairman of the Ladies’ Auxiliary on this division—the first member to enroll from the San Joaquin Division. We hope the members will have their wives and sisters join, and we can soon have the strongest membership of any division on the system.

The greater part of the crowd played games and visited until midnight, and on leaving everyone extended to Bro. and Mrs. Winter their heartiest congratulations and best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year.

Walang and Cable closed, Bro. O. D. Day, of Walang, going to third Marcel. Business is very light, a great many offices having been closed and others reduced from three tricks to two and in some cases from three tricks to one. Bro. R. S. Easterwood went to Bealville after second Tulare closed.

A new time table, in effect January 4th, took off four trains between Bakersfield and San Francisco and two between Bakersfield and Los Angeles and all the suburban trains between Los Angeles and the beach resorts.

The boys on the main line should answer their calls promptly, thereby saving the dispatchers lots of work.

A washout on the Shasta Division delayed the Rogue River Valley business men’s excursion to Los Angeles twenty-nine hours. Rogue River Valley moved some thousand cars of fruit during the rush season.

Thanks to Bro. Cathers, Wheeler, for P. R. & N. news. Hope the other boys will send me some items every month. The P. R. & N. is now solid.

Our Bro. M. L. Shinabarger contributed the front piece in our journal for December, 1913.

Sacramento Division—

Los Angeles District—

Our new agreement is working fine, and it is now the duty of every agent and operator to leave no stone unturned to swell the revenue at their stations, and double the amount conceded in our recent revision, thereby proving to the management that the Southern Pacific will lose nothing by treating their telegraphers fairly. Give them the best service possible, and also render good service to your organization by advising your local chairman of all changes. Every time a new man comes to this division ascertain whether or not he is a member, advise your chairman, and keep him posted on all things pertaining to the Order. This is the only way he can keep up his records. You should also send him copy of bids for future reference.

Get interested in "the safety first" movement, boys, for the benefit of yourselves and the traveling public. It shows that the road you are working for is up to the times.

The meeting advertised for 2 p. m., Sunday, January 18th, was postponed on account of rain and washout; it will be held at Colton some time soon.

Those who have not yet received a copy of seniority list dated January 1st, advise and same will be furnished. Incidentally the nons might ask who pays for the printing of these seniority lists.

Bro. A. F. Thomas transferred from Division 81, relieved by Bro. R. H. Hobgood, second Imperial Jct., a few days.

Bro. A. E. Laisure, general chairman H. T. & C. until same merged with Division 53, has been elected to the reduced general committee of the Sunset Central Lines, now negotiating with the officials at Houston, Texas, headed by Bro. J. E. Cowgill, general chairman.

Bro. A. M. Hammond, local chairman, was off two days, relieved by Bro. G. L. Rorer from Pomona, relieved by Bro. J. W. Craig assigned.

We must insist that not the slightest abuse of the schedule will be tolerated, at the convenience of the company, or for the benefit of any special member. Slight abuses, if allowed to creep in from time to time, might destroy the effectiveness of portions of our agreement. This was the case of our schedule just superseded, where part of it became almost inoperative.

Lano opened as a telegraph office January 18th by Bro. H. P. Pielert temporarily.

Bro. Bailleff relieved Bro. E. W. Kalles two nights at Riverside Jct. third, then to Cabazon, relieving Bro. C. H. Musselman, third, a few days, then to Irises, relieving Bro. H. F. Mead, who took a few days off in Los Angeles.

I wish to call to the attention of brothers in the East that this company will hire only first-class combination telegraph and clerical men in future, and have instructed the examining board accordingly, so if contemplating coming West you will not be disappointed. At this writing California is flooded with men of all trades out of employment.

A. M. HAMMOND, L. C.

Tucson District—

At the end of 1913 this district showed only one delinquent. Feb. 28, 1914, is the limit set for the payment of dues for this half or until June 30, 1914; so those who have not yet paid should do so immediately, both to protect themselves and to keep the Order records as clean of delinquents as if there was no such word as "delinquent." This division also shows more members at the end of last year than any previous year, with two new ones added in December, and three in January. Of some 130 operators and agents on the division, only seven are still nons. Each brother and sister should do all in their power to help make us 100 per cent strong. Bring in these non-members working with you, and next door to you; your local committee can not reach them all, and depends on your help. No good excuse for their remaining out. Let's make them realize this the same as we do.
Look over the new seniority list of new men on the division; and write your local chairman or committee man for those not up-to-date. They have all promised us their applications the first pay day. See that they keep their word.

Our three new brothers are: J. C. Bostick, Picacho; W. H. Lawrence, agent Bowie, and E. L. Cummings, agent, Separ.

"UN" Tucson is soon to have three 14-wire table, new style Western Electric telephone jack boxes.

O. L. Butler, Committee man.

Shasta District...

I regret that we have not had a write-up in the past two months, but I have received nothing I did not ask for on the wire from anyone but Bro. Bob Vaughn at Weed, whom I wish to thank for his assistance. If you all would help out as he does, we can have a good write-up. Since leaving Dunsmuir I know very little of what is going on.

Bro. Tuttle, agent Chiloquin, says the government is going to give that big nine-pound boy of his 160 acres of land on account of his being the first white person born on the reservation.

Bro. Lloyd, second Weed, was off a few days on account of his mother's illness in Washington. Hornbrook third is up for bid. Bro. McCarthy bid in third Kennet, making it solid. Delta nights bid in by Mr. Miller.

Shasta Springs closed, Mr. Veil relieving Bro. Ruth, at Ashland, on account of illness.

Bro. DeHaas is on first Red Bluff; McCleary, second; Bigelow, third; Mr. Miller, agent.

Redding is solid with the exception of Agent Martin, and Sisson solid except R. E. Nixon on third, who promises to come in pay day.

Bros. Morrow, Cusick and Mr. Edwards have been busy straightening out wires since the storms.

The snow plows have been busy on the division lately, Bro. Scott at Sisson handling baggage and mail with his toboggan. The winter carnival there began the last of January, and any of the brothers may call on Bro. Scott for skis or toboggan and show them around.

Boys, we have the finest schedule in the United States and the best bunch of officials to work for in the country. I have worked on a dozen different roads, and I have never found a better class of men to work for than we have in Dunsmuir. All try to do their best and give the company the very best there is in them. "XP," Cert. 2916.
G. H. & S. A. R. R., El Paso Division—

Bro. A. Lickorish, agent Sierra Blanca, who received a plum pudding by parcel post Christmas all the way from England, has resigned and gone to Ontario. Bro. Hoffman, second Sierra Blanca, received a Christmas package from Canada.

Bro. Polk returned from several days' hunt for the elusive black-tail deer without any game.

The depot and Brown News at Valentine burned on the morning of January 19th. Nearly all the contents of the depot were saved, but Bro. Gardner, the agent, who lived in the same building, barely had time to escape. A new building is now in process of construction there.

Bro. Dearman, Valentine’s news, has gone to El Paso, relieved by Mr. Floyd, from the Western Union, St. Louis. Bro. Alvarado, second Valentine, resigned to accept a position as dispatcher with the Mexico Northwestern at Juarez, Mexico. Bro. Barber is still doing the tango at Valentine and playing poker with the error cards.

Victoria Division, G. H. & S. A.—

We acknowledge a brief but pleasant call from our popular local chairman, Bro. Z. B. Alexander, on his way to Houston to confer with the committee on a new contract. We hope the nons will in the near future realize the inevitable position in which they stand and how they are regarded by the brethren who are not only bearing their own burdens but also those of the few who still stand under the black cloud of non-membership and ask for affiliation. Brothers, get after the nons in your office and secure their applications, so that we may be able to get a contract in accordance with our intelligence and experience. Let us also endeavor to keep our personal records clean by giving such good service that Order men will be known as the best on the road. Should any demerits be placed against you which you consider unreasonable, take up the matter at once with the local chairman, and if you have received the marks in error he will back you up and see that you get justice.

Bro. Rice, agent Pierce, bid in El Campo agency, relieved by Mr. Hansard, formerly ticket agent for the T. & P. at Dallas.

We are glad to hear that Bro. Shoquist, Nixon, is improving, and hope he will soon be again in harness. He is being relieved by Mr. Winter, formerly agent Beasley.

Bro. Isaacson, Beasley, bid in Westhoff, and Bro. Little, Smiley, bid in Beasley, but later resigned.

We are glad to welcome into the fold Bros. Isaacson, Beasley; Bell, Van Weck; Harding, Bay City, and McClaenan, Palacios, and extend to them the right hand of fellowship.

Bro. Allsworth, Wharton, has resigned and is handling a track on the main line. Sorry to lose such a good man. He was relieved by Mr. Whitsett, an old-time agent for this company, who was relieved by Mr. Black on return from his vacation.

Bro. Morgan has returned to El Campo, after a spell of night work in the high-water districts at Nixon, Boy City and Wharton. The boys say the water was so high at Bay City that Morgan slept on a hat rack for a week and then begged to be let loose, as he was afraid he would get web-footed. Bro. Rheinhardt, bumped at El Campo, has gone to Canedo.

Bro. F. S. Alexander, Cuero, relieved the local chairman at Port Lavaca agency while the latter was in Houston on committee business.

If the boys on the west end will keep me posted, I will be only too glad to make a write-up, but for the present I am depending upon hearsay.

Cert. 1715.

T. & N. O., and Galveston Divisions, including East Texas, Dallas and Sabine Branches—

Resolve that you will always keep an up-to-date card in your pocket. Best thing in the world for you.

Bro. Baffington, our hustling local chairman, mailed out invitations to everyone in reach of Houston to join in on a "whoop-em-up" meeting on Sunday, Dec. 28th. Bro. Cowgill, general chairman Division 33, is in Houston with his family. He is one of the finest ever.

A certain Skinner by nature as well as name, who confessed he had helped break strikes on the Katy and Santa Fe, and butted in on the street car motormen’s strike at Beaumont, lasted less than a week in this section. His reception by the boys in general is best expressed by the touching little ballad entitled, “He may get over it, but he’ll never look the same.”

The Sunset Central Lines have been having one awful time the last month or six weeks with the flood and washouts in Louisiana, and serious troubles over the H. & T. C. and the G. H. & S. A., in which every other road in the affected territory was put out of commission.

Bro. Driver relieved Mr. Harksider of the car desk, visiting relatives over the holidays; relieved by Mr. Bright.

Bro. Rummel, from Echo, was a recent Houston visitor.

Don’t forget to pay your dues and get the man next to you.
The Railroad Telegrapher.

We had a well attended general meeting in Houston, December 28th, of telegraphers, from all lines of business in and around that city.

Among those present were: General Chairman Cowgill, Local Chairman Buffington, General Secretary and Treasurer Hill, and two other boys from the S. A. P.; Bro. Binde, Houston Packing Co., who still retains his card; the Leo brothers, and Bros. L. L. Albertson, D. A. Norton, T. E. Davis and a brother from the W. U. Local Chairman Loper, who went back to Livingston and lined up the H. E. & W. T. solid; and a number of others, in addition to your humble servant. There were none present from the T. & N. O. and Galveston Divisions.

Bros. Cowgill, Hill and Binde made some very interesting remarks on the organization of a telegaphers' club for all lines in and around Houston.

Another meeting will be called in Houston shortly and we hope as many of the boys who possibly can will attend and get acquainted with each other.

The general committee was convened at the Cotton Hotel in Houston for eight days, including Bros. Cowgill, Starns, Alpine; Alexander, Port Lavaca; Haddan, San Antonio; Buffington, Houston; Bro. Lausive, Ennis; Assistant General Chairman Wells; the local chairmen from the Louisiana lines, and the official stenographer, Bro. Buckingham.

The various callings were represented, there being two agents, two straight telegraphers, and two relay men. The various towers on the Sunset Central, the H. & T. C. and H. E. & W. T., now included in Division 53 (Division 57 which heretofore covered these lines, being dissolved), will also be represented hereafter.

A number of the brothers called on the committee while in session and met a fine bunch of men. The telegraphers of the Sunset Central are very fortunate in the choice of their representatives, who can be fully trusted to handle the situation in a manner that will bring about the greatest good for the greatest number.

Brothers, we must assist this committee by paying our dues promptly, and seeing that the men on the job with you do likewise. Our motto of "No card, no favors," should be lived up to.

No news sent in from anyone on the line since yours truly has been on the division. If you expect to see a write-up in the journal covering your home division every month, drop a postal card in regard to the happenings in your vicinity to I. M. Rathburn, 1219 Liberty Ave.; Houston, Texas, not later than the twenty-second of the month.

Bro. Oliver is in the Houston hospital, having undergone a very painful operation.

"Hit the ball:" pay your dues, and "get the man next to you."

---

First Division, H. & T. C. District—

The consolidation of Division 57 with Division 53 will be of great benefit to us, so let's do all we possibly can to make the work of our officers as light as possible, and they will be more willing to exert themselves in our behalf. Whenever a man shows up at your station, or anywhere that he can be talked to, ascertain if he is a non; if so use your influence to convince him that he should be with us—if he belongs to another division get his certificate and division number and send it to our secretary and treasurer, and have him transferred to 53.

We should all be proud of the fact that our Bro. Lausive was able to arrange for the consolidation, thereby bringing us all together. His work is greatly appreciated, and we must show Division 53 that it made no mistake when it voted practically unanimously to allow us to merge.

Bro. Lausive, and Bro. Cowgill, general chairman, have been in Houston for some time arranging details regarding the consolidation and also getting up a new schedule for the Sunset Central Lines. Let us show them that we are behind them 100 per cent strong right by getting that man working with you or next to you immediately; have every man carrying a 53 card—then when the time comes for the conferences to begin, we will have a strength of numbers which will be conclusive evidence to the company as to just how the boys stand on the revision of the schedule.

Having just been appointed correspondent for the first division I am not up on the various changes, but with the help of the rest of you we will have a stunner next month. Send me a line or two. It is great to get the old journal and see a nice big write-up for the H. & T. C. It gives a man a proud feeling. Without your help I can't make it as big as I would like. Let's keep together, and use the journal as one way for doing so.

Another meeting is due shortly when the cards are sent out. Arrange to come. It's fine to hear the talks.

It is with great regret that we have to lose our genial Irishman, Bro. Moseley, as secretary and treasurer, account of the consolidation, and the handling of the position for this line is now being done by Bro. D. W. Kopplius, of Oakville, Calif., but with Matt's line of convencement and oratory there will be a time when we will have to again call on him for assistance, and by so doing keep him where he should be—in the lead. Thanking him for his past efforts and good work is a mighty small matter, but when I express myself to thank him it's the sentiment of us all. "Matt," here's our thanks, may God bless you and keep you with us.

W. F. Davis, Div. Cor.

Louisiana Lines—

Vacancies: Bowie, Roanoke and Adeline agencies, Bowie second, Schriever first; Vinton and Des Allemands third.
Relief Agent J. L. McIntire relieved C. J. Baggenstoe at Bowie, later by H. L. Teske, until J. Whitmeyer, assigned. Teske relieved at Roanoke by W. H. Gates until Edgarly assigned. Olliver, West Lake and Hayes telegraph offices, and second and third Des Allemands closed; Alabama water tank nights opened.

Bulletin was delayed this month on account of our local chairman being in Houston on revision of contract.

Remember, boys, just a few more days in which to get that new card.

Northern Pacific Ry.

Idaho Division—

Our membership is now approximately 85 per cent on this division. This is a very good line-up compared with our showing last year, but we should make a better one. On January 1st we had 110 up-to-date members, but some of the younger ones are temporarily out of the service through reduction in force. We have eighteen non-members, and there is no reason why we should not reduce their number materially, through acquisition to our ranks, during the early months of 1914. No telegrapher can give a satisfactory reason for remaining out of the Order, for we have conducted our affairs in a business-like manner, have made good on all our promises and have not only increased the salaries of all telegraphers through our efforts, but have secured many beneficial working rules that apply to the nons as well as to our members. I fear we are not getting as much individual work as we should, and hope that every member on this division will resolve hereafter to do all in their power to line up the non working with or near them.

It is also important to keep an up-to-date card. During the latter part of the last term I was compelled to use practically half of the time that I should have put in organizing to clean up delinquents, 80 per cent of whom advised me that they had “neglected” or “overlooked” the matter of remitting their dues. This should be remedied. The division can not be organized to the maximum when I am compelled to use the greater part of my spare time keeping our membership up to date. Pay your dues before the first of March and September, respectively, always keep an up-to-date card in your possession, and see that Mr. Non working near you gets into line. Do not overlook this: Pay your dues before March first.

Only for the defection of five of our members during the last term we would now have approximately 90 per cent. F. A. and W. E. Hartman of Thompson Falls; Miss E. B. Murphy, of Kildee; J. A. Hutchinson, of Medical Lake, and J. S. Harned, of Govan, were suspended for non-payment of dues on December 31, 1913. Mr. Harned will probably soon be with us again. Miss Murphy and Mr. Hutchinson ignore my letters and the Hartman brothers, who advised me October 15th that they were going to quit railroading and “did not think it would be to their advantage to pay any more dues into the Order,” are still in service. Members may draw their own conclusions as to the sincerity of the statement. I received a special request from the Hartman brothers about a year ago, in which they asked that I do all in my power in the pending schedule negotiations to have the salaries at Thompson Falls increased above the minimum, and $5 a month was added to each of their positions, which they repay by dropping out. The salary on third Kildee, held by Miss Murphy, was increased $10 a month in the schedule revision of 1911, and $5 a month in the revision of 1913—a total increase of $15 a month, or $180 a year, in less than three years. Another example of the consistency of telegraphers who decline to support the organization. The salaries of Messrs. Hutchinson and Harned were raised $2.50 a month each in the last revision.

I believe the foregoing explanation is due the membership, who are striving to make this the best division on the road. We have now but four non-members on the main line of this division—three on the First District named above. Mr. Bunge, third Cheney, the only one on the second district, promised to join February 15th. I have done all in my power to make the main line of this division 100 per cent strong, and would have succeeded only for the dropping out of those on the First District. I hope our members on that district will get actively to work and point out to those parties how they are not only injuring others, but themselves as well, by pursuing the course they have taken and remaining out of the Order.

B. E. Nason, L. C.

Idaho Division Notes—

Furlong office closed, Bro. LaMoreaux displacing Mr. Harned at Childs, who bumped Bro. Partridge from Govan agency. Later Childs closed, Bro. LaMoreaux going to Cooella with the intention of bumping Bro. King on agency there.

Third trick Heron discontinued, Non Dickinson bumping Bro. Griffith on third Clarks Fork, who bumped Bro. Bartley on third Hope, not yet located.

Oden office closed, Bro. Bailey displacing Sister Cunningham on second Ramsey, who has not yet exercised her bumping rights. Bro. Bailey was called back to Kansas by the serious illness of his wife, whom we trust he will find much improved.

The preceding holiday remembrances were handed the good telegraph employes of this division, presumably as a reward for "good and faithful service" during the year 1913. Sentiment does not enter into the matter of business.

Bro. and Sister Stevens and Miss Murphy, of Kildoe, have returned from a holiday vacation, spent with relatives in Nebraska, and resumed work on their respective positions. They were relieved by Bros. Garrett, B. F. Mays and Non Vawter.

Bro. N. P. Matheney has resumed work on third Noxon, after a thirty-day vacation spent in the Middle West.

The hours on second Heron have been changed by the closing of third there, Sister Cahill going on the extra list.

Bro. King, agent Cocallia, on thirty-day leave in Denver, Colo., and vicinity, relieved by Mr. Moe, Dakota Division, who has promised to join if he remains here.

Bro. Ageton bid in first Pullman, relieved on Peck agency by Mr. Colegrove, who promised to join Order "if working after January 1st."

The reverse side of the November pay checks bore the following: "Did you ever think about the other fellow—the man you're working with, or the man under the car working, or the man 'coming along behind,' or the green man who doesn't know? Are you doing something or failing to do something that might kill or injure him? Think it over. A pay check looks as good to him as it does to you. Do something today for the other fellow." The reverse side of the December checks were blank. The green man and the man 'coming along behind' had been thrown out of a job on account of reduction in force, and the company has "done something for the other fellow" with their retrenchment policy.

The following spasm occurred at Otis Orchards on the night of January 16th, train No. 3 having run up against an automatic red board at that place and no operator on duty. The conductor of No. 3 calls the dispatcher on telephone, and the following is perpetrated:

Dispatcher: "Make a 19—Order No. 44, f-o-r-t-y f-o-u-r. To C. & E. No. 3, t-h-r-e-e. Proceed under control. Otis Orchards, O-t-i-s O-r-e-c-h-a-r-d-s, to Velox, V-e-l-o-x, expecting to find track impassable. No trains between Otis Orchards, O-t-i-s O-r-e-c-h-a-r-d-s, and Velox, V-e-l-o-x.—J. L. D.

Conductor No. 3 (repeats): "Order No. 44 to No. 3. Proceed under control to Velox and protect and expect to find track impassable."

Dispatcher (prompts): "No trains between Otis Orchards and Velox."

Conductor No. 3: "Oh, all right; that will be good. We're gone."

Only half of the order repeated; none of it repeated correctly, and a passenger train running against a red board with it. This is an actual occurrence and a fair specimen of the safety in permitting other than experienced telegraphers to handle the receipt and transmission of train orders. Good fortune will not always attend such work, and the inevitable toll of death and destruction will follow.

Bro. J. D. Garber, recently married, has accepted service with the Great Northern as extra dispatcher at White Fish, Mont. Congratulations on both events.

When Non Brown left Paradise he attempted to borrow an up-to-date card from a brother on the Rocky Mountain Division, stating that he wished to use it to "get over the road and to help in getting a job." It seems that even a confirmed non appreciates a card in times of adversity. He showed up at Cranbrook, B. C., "flagging" under name of Whalen, carrying a card to correspond. After a few days' work at Hosmer, B. C., the good brothers of the C. P. R. got "next" to him, and he left for Havre, Mont.

All brothers in this territory have viewed with gladness the accounts of the victories of the Federated Orders on the Sunset Lines of the Southern Pacific, and on the D. & H., and the dominant topic of the day is the universal sentiment for federation of at least five brotherhoods on the Northern Pacific. Looks good to us.

Some of our chronic nuns have objected to our many allusions to them and their standing in the columns of this journal. We wish to state to these parties that this is not a "Sunday Supplement" or a "Pink Society Sheet," conducted for the benefit of parasites, but a Union Labor publication in the interests of its members. If you do not like your classification, get into the band wagon and try being a man for awhile. It will do you good.

We are indebted to Bro. Kay for First District notes this month. Div. Cor.

Yellowstone Division—

The usual annual flunk in business has struck us with the greatest curtailment in men we have experienced in several years. It is not because business has decreased, but with California weather, summer rating prevails and the larger engines in use on the Yellowstone makes what business there is seem small. This company is handling its business the cheapest in years, comparatively speaking, and it is not a pleasant thought to know that so shortly after the joyous period we all entertain during the holidays that we should be set adrift with no position in sight, and several weeks or months yet before we can expect to be earning money to sustain life and an humble home.

It must bring home to the most of us that we are too free with our earnings when times are good and pay checks regular, and the more we realize from these experiences that we must "save the half," for when our employer deems it necessary we must "hike" if our standing on the list is not well up towards the middle.

It is at this time that one meets telegraphers "booming" hither and yon, mostly broke and always looking for help from those who have through the strictest economy and self-denial been able to lay away the "mite" for a rainy day, and it is a blot on the men who make telegraphing their profession that they should be so unmindful of the future that the least retrenchment in expense by the company, should make it necessary for a man to have to go elsewhere with not enough money to pay his way. There is no plausible excuse for this state of affairs now-a-days, with the salaries we get, and while our charitable instinct may be good, still a feeling of hardness comes over us every time a man comes in with the "broke" look on his face and the "stake me" joke. We are scheduled, so some papers say, for a depression in business, such as we had in 1907, and if it is our luck to battle with a panic, every man today who holds a position should see that he takes stock of his surroundings, and when he at last is laid off have enough to tide him over till he is again able to work.

We had one slipped over on us this fall, as we didn't heed the old slogan, "No card, no favors." A man named H. C. Larson, came to our office, wanted a job, had no card, but gave us that worn-out excuse, "as soon as I get to work." We got him a job, first pay day came around and "soon as I get a full pay check," was the next excuse. It came, and, "I want a job on bulletin." He got that, and, "I am up against it and can't do it just yet," was the next plea. Then took a lay-off, got a pass to Mandan (as far as he could get with no longer amount of service), bought a ticket to down around Duluth or elsewhere, and came back again on another ticket to Mandan; went to work and after another pay day, tells us: "Can't do it now, as I am afraid I will be laid off." Anyone coming our way now, looking for a job, wants to have a paid-up card in his pocket or he will not get any consideration at our hands.

Most of the lay-offs, with a few exceptions, have been among "the no card" class, and I won't take up valuable space to enlighten the faithful members on the happenings of these non-microbes.

Bro. Don Dyer, bumped at Glenullen second, was bumped by Bro. Hitchcock, from Glen dive, and bumped Bro. Brand, extra Mandan, who is going to stay on the premises and be ready at the first call for help. He saved his money, and is the kind of man we need, also the company.

Bro. Green, Glen dive extra, bumped Bro. Shoquist at Glenullen third, as Glen dive was reduced to three men.

Retrenchment hit Mandan the second time, taking Bro. Dyer off his feet entirely. He saved some money and will "camp on the job" until business picks up.

Bro. McLean, second Allard, an old-timer, reduced to a jobless state, stopped off at Mandan on his way to St. Paul to visit old friends, but will be here when the bugle blows. We're going to keep these brothers posted if they leave their address, and when business starts we hope to see them wind their way back to the N. P., the best road yet.

Bro. Hannon, on third Beach, while Non Larson was on a trip, was laid off on this non's return, but we are pleased to say he got the managership of the Western Union at Beach.

Sister Golden, second Sweet Briar, down to Mandan weekly taking in the sights and lessons in music. This worthy sister entertains all those who have the time to listen on the simplex, to some exceptional music. Also. Bro. Flannigan, third Sweet Briar, sets in and one can't tell which is which from this distance. Bro. Jimmie Golden, first Sweet Briar, recently received a patent for an attachment to an automobile, which is a valuable acquisition to the many sundries in the auto line, and the writer has been promised a position as "shoofer" soon as Jimmie sells his invention, and is able to own a car.

Bro. Finch, just out of the Glendive Hospital, after several months' illness, bumped in at Medora third, relieving Bro. Brand, who went up and worked one day. Brand back to camp at Mandan, and Finch calls for papers to get in while he is still alive.

Bro. Holritz, agent Sims, was down to Mandan recently, laying in supplies for the winter. Speaking of winter, if anyone buys a ticket to California or Florida, with the present kind of weather this part of the country enjoys this winter, they should not be allowed to return; we have the best there is.

Sister Haegc., second Sims, in company with Sister Golden, of "SB," took in the Capitol City recently.

We are wondering how much longer trainmen, and others, will be allowed to take orders at any old place they have to. The government passed an "hours of service act," regulating the hours under which telegraphers and "foners" could lawfully work handling trains, and at the same time permit trainmen to be on duty sixteen hours, and if necessary, take an order every thirty minutes. In my estimation, the man sitting in an office, that is not allowed to work more than nine hours, has a greater chance for being "safe" than the man who is thinking of "meets" he already has, hot boxes, flat wheels, and the numerous other duties which surround the proper handling of his train. Trainmen with their long hours, hard work, big trains, orders and signals, have no more right to take orders over a phone longer than a nine-hour period, and any law that says they can, and the telegrapher can not, is ignorant bosh, which should be made the fighting point of every grievance committee appearing before a management. We have it from the daily papers that the O. R. C., on one road in particular, have asked their company to discon-continue permitting trainmen of any class, to receive orders over the phone, and we hope the enthusiasm of the idea spreads to every road in the country. When trainmen or enginemen take orders on the phone they infringe upon the rights of the operators, and is about as much advanced in the present railway from this distance as it would be for the train crew on a train to tie up upon arrival at a station and the telegraphers get out, run the engine, do the station switching, and when the air was tried, call the crew for duty. It's just as reasonable one way as the other.

Are you one and all starting out this new year with a firm and steadfast resolution of getting the non next to you? If not, get at it, don't allow him to work a day without reminding him of his duty to us, himself and the laboring class in general, for without the persistent effort of each individual, nothing can be accomplished. Let's bend every energy toward the only right thing before us today, that of keeping the men with whom we work, lined up and worthy of fraternal esteem. See that he wears a button of our organization. I take it every man has a backbone and he should not be afraid to advertise the fact.

Bro. Vaughan, late agent Sentinel Butte, now on second Howard, expects Mrs. Vaughan home from the East shortly, and will make Howard his future home.

Those having the handling of orders will notice dispatchers are leaving off the word "all" in addresses and bodies of orders; this is a new ruling and one we should not overlook, as it is sufficient reason for reprimand during periods orders are turned in for inspection.

Bro. H. A. Hiers, first Miles City, just returned from a trip through the Central States, taking in St. Louis and Chicago.

Bro. W. J. Pombert, agent Hathaway, has returned from his vacation.

Bro. J. P. Meehan relieved Bro. Pombert on Hathaway agency, but on the latter's return, was left without work, on account of the reduction of force.

Bro. E. H. Brammier, agent Rosebud, took in the New Year's dance at Forsyth.

Sister Heckman, who has filled the clerk's position in chief dispatcher's office, is working second Miles City extra. She reported for work within three months' limit, thereby retaining her rights.

Dispatcher Histed, first trick, third sub, spent vacation in Pennsylvania, returning with Mrs. Histed, who had been there for some time, stopped in at Mandan and saw the boys in "A" office on his return.

We are glad to note that we may now refer to H. A. Hiers, Miles City; H. A. Briese, and C. V. Schwindt, Terry, and J. H. Hollinshead, Gladstone, as brothers.

Bro. L. Gammon, agent Myers, has returned from a two weeks' sojourn in the East.

Bro. L. D. Witham, third Custer, is expected back shortly from a visit to his home at Waco, Mont., during the holidays; relieved by Bro. Whistler, from Salt Lake Division, Sou. Pac.

Bro. C. A. Sharpe, third extra Sanders, before second and third pulled off, is expected back from a trip East as soon as Mrs. Sharpe recovers from her recent illness sufficiently to travel.

Bro. Sheffer, spending some time on his "dry" farm, is expected back to work shortly.

Have you paid your dues for the current term? It costs a great deal to keep after those who forget to keep up to date. Get your dues paid up at once, and save your treasury for business of a greater importance than reminding you that you are not, as yet, paid up.

Several of the brothers were anxious to try a meeting at Dickinson, but owing to the reductions made, it crippled the force to such an extent that few could get off, hence the idea was dropped until a more favorable time.

Are you all insisting on being given your rights to your bumping privilege during the reduction? You should keep well posted at a time like this, and stand up for your own rights, more so when we have no local chairman to whom you can turn in case of doubt.

The relay division received quite a jolt in "DX" office, Bros. Sterland, Lyons and King being laid off and going elsewhere. Understand there was some mix-up as to rights at "DX" office, but through Mr. Clapp, our congenial superintendent of telegraph, Bro. King was allowed to use his bump where he saw fit. Beuts all how the nona with a year's right seem to think they should be given preference.

The Bismarck Daily Tribune recently contained an article commending the Northern Pacific and the employees on duty at Dickinson, on the arrival of No. 2 at the time a representative of one of the big Eastern papers made his record trip around the world, over the manner in which a lady who, reached the office as No. 2 pulled in, wishing to go to the bedside of a sick relative, was permitted to board that train. Through the efforts of the operator the matter was explained to the dispatcher, and the train was stopped at a point on the first sub, and the papers eloquently related one instance of a great many which are happening every day somewhere, showing that the railways and their employees are not bereft of their conscience as some would try to make us believe.

Bro. Laurence, third Richardton, spent several days in St. Paul recently getting fitted for glasses, stopped in Mandan on his return.

Bro. E. A. Brand relieved Bro. Laurence, third Richardton, several days, and on return of Laurence, went to Hathaway.

It is a gratified pleasure to refer to E. F. Finch, third Medora, as brother.

Bro. Dyer, grazing at Glenullen for a few days, was sent to third Zero for awhile.

Bro. J. O. Spencer has been elected unanimously as local chairman of this division; let every one of us do as well to support him in his work (now that he has the reins) as we were to back him up for election. There are a number of matters on this division that have become lax during the last three years, which time we have really had no local chairman at all, and it will take persistent perseverance to put things on a smooth basis, to the mutual advantage of the employer and employee. Keep him posted on all changes, new men coming to the division, whether card men or nons, and do every thing in your power to get those who are next to you into our fraternity. We have got to have a better per cent in strength on this division, and with a wide-awake man like "Spence" we can not lose.

L. E. Bordwell, Cert. 886.

Dakota Division—

"Get this idea into your system and radiate it," that you are doing a non a favor when inviting him to become a member of the O. R. T. And while business is rather quiet don't become lax in your energies, but get busy lining up the few remaining nons. During the "lull before the storm" let us all prepare for a bigger and better year for the Northern Pacific Railway and the O. R. T.

I have appointed Bro. O. H. Underwood, agent Elgin, as assistant local chairman, to better assist in the good work he has already started. So with Assistant Bros. D. C. PoinDEXter, at Bismarck, and Waine Mattson at "JY" office, I can boast of three staunch Order men to help bear the burden of the Dakota's work along with the helpful assistance from such privates in the rank as Bros. C. E. Andre, of Dawson; Harry Marsh, of Brinsmade; J. E. Stokes, of Oakes, and numerous other good brothers who have rendered aid in the past.

It is now Bros. A. C. Diehl, at Gwyther; A. Sayles, at Flasher (making Mott Line solid); Chas. Rodgers, at Sheyenne; A. J. Kelley, of Dawson (now at Mott), and expect J. F. Ellis, at Robinson, C. E. Boyden, at Oberon; E. C. Knoop, at Grand Rapids; C. R. Jolley, at Berner; G. V. Skinner, at Medina, and A. C. Conover, at Dawson, in the near future. J. J. Ryan, of Turtle, has not yet sent his blanks, as erroneously stated in January TELEGRAPHER, but still hope he will make good.

Bro. B. F. Neal and wife, of Carrington, spent Christmas with Superintendent Strachan and family.

Bro. F. A. Sommers, attending school at Fargo, has resumed at Mercer agency.

Bro. G. W. Sartell, agent Buchanan, enjoyed a few days' visit with relatives in the East.

Bro. Ralph Whitcome, third "JY," rides the J. R. & O. branch quite frequently since he relieved J. A. Youngman at Dickey. We wonder why? He also relieved Bro. A. Peterson, agent Minnewaukon, for ten days, while "Pete" visited in Minneapolis. And since being informed that a young lady from Steele called on Pete, we are led to believe that both gentlemen are lady-killers. But neither of them have anything on Bro. J. D. Rohrer, at Carrington.

Bro. J. O. Wright went from Adrian to second Burleigh, relieved by Bro. S. F. Morse. Third Burleigh was pulled off, and Bro. Jos. Smith left for a tour.

Bro. C. E. Rotramel, of New Leipzig, and Bro. Underwood, are in favor of holding a get-together meeting at Mandan some time in the future when the weather warms up. It is a happy thought and we will see if it can not be arranged at some later date.

Bro. G. B. Stuart, agent at Driscoll, during Moe's absence, was relieved upon the latter's return from working on the Idaho Division, Guy going to first Dawson temporarily.

Bro. G. L. Berquist, agent Tappen, recently took about three weeks off east on his honeymoon. J. O. Rosendahl, a brother to Bro. O. J., at Sykeston, relieved Bro. W. W. Jaynes, at McKenzie, while the latter and wife made a flying trip out to the coast. J. O. went to Goodrich, from there to relieve John Iretson for several months, and promises to be with us soon.

Bro. C. J. Roberts, with the Dawson Press for some time, relieved Bro. Vincent, first "JY," a few days while the latter relieved Mr. Horvnel, car distributor at the headquarters. Roberts later relieved Bro. West on first Bismarck until Bro. Ross Whitcome arrived from New Rockford.

Bro. E. M. Pool, agent Steele, made a quick trip to Minneapolis; relieved by his helper.

Bro. C. E. Andre, first Dawson, and wife, took several weeks' vacation, visiting points in Wisconsin, where their parents reside.

Ex-Bro. A. L. Boelter returned, convalescent, from Brainerd Hospital, stopped off at Medina before going to visit relatives and friends in Wisconsin.

Bro. Clarence O'Mally, assistant wire chief, from N. P. relay office, spent part of his vacation with his sister at New Rockford, before continuing on an eastern trip to New York, Washington, D. C., and other points.

Bro. John Smith, agent Mott, is batching while his wife is in Illinois.

Bro. Rotramel, of "NE," visited our assistant local chairman, Bro. Underwood, at Elgin, over Sunday, discussing things of interest.

All agents are greeting our new traveling freight agent, W. T. Kraft, who succeeded Mr. Burnham, promoted.

"Unless you get out of the rut of pessimism, and get that glorious feeling of optimism, you can never make your work a success." Become an optimist at once.

"Careful" buttons will be issued soon to all those who have applied for membership to the N. P.'s newly-launched "Careful Club." With the Bureau of Efficiency doing wonders toward bettering our Northern Pacific service, the Careful Club comes to make it so much the more so.

"Hard work is the best pavement you can lay for luck to get to your door." Let's pave.

Hope to welcome at least two more nons to our ranks by next month. H. H. ELLSWORTH.

Seattle Division—

Sister Robinson, Maywood, on 90 days' leave, relieved by Sister Fenner.

Bro. Fenner, third Martin, relieved a few days by Bro. Gould, of Division No. 31, who later transferred to Division No. 54.
Bro. Newcomb, first Stampede, off a few days, on account injuring his back, relieved by Bro. Burghard.

Sister A. A. Rivett, second Borup, granted 30 days' leave, relieved by Sister Morgan.

Bro. "Shorty" Anderson, bumped at third Easton, relieved second Upham. Shorty says Upham is as near heaven as mortal man can expect to be.

On account second and third Thorp being closed, Bros. Ackley and Farrington bumped to second and third Easton; third Bristol also closed, Sister Cleo Erdman going to second Palmer Jet.

Bro. Davis, second Martin, off a few days, visiting friends in North Yakima, relieved by Bro. Gould.

Sister Morgan, extra, was visiting and shopping in Seattle for a few days recently.

The December write-up regarding Bro. Burnett securing second Doster, is in error; should read Mr. Burnett.

Bro. Floberg, second Auburn depot, off two days to join the "Moose" and attend the meeting at Cle Elum, relieved by Mr. Bassett.

Bro. Williams, first East Auburn, also attending the meeting at Cle Elum, was relieved by Bro. Mulligan.

Bro. Tegelber, first Everett, has been appointed assistant local chairman on the north end.

The company is installing a fine, large fan at the west end of Stampede tunnel to clear it of gas and smoke, which at times is very bad. This will be appreciated by all who have to go through it. It is expected to be finished about June 1st.

Bro. Hammer is relieving Bro. Earp, on first Arlington, who is in Tacoma Hospital.

Bro. Pearson is back at Bothell, not finding Issaquah to his liking, relieved by Mr. Shutt temporarily. Bro. Griffith, ex-agent Issaquah, is sojourning in California for his health. We hope for his speedy recovery and early return to our vicinity.

Bro. Palmer, back at Maltby nights, temporarily relieving Bro. Davidson, who secured first Upham.

Mr. Corsley, second Wickersharn, out of service, relieved by Bro. Kilhefner.

The company has eliminated all bids of lady operators from mountain grade, on account of switch throwing; as the sisters have been doing this work as well as the brother operators, this hardly seems fair.

On January 17th, a joint meeting of the Milwaukee and Northern Pacific brothers and sisters was held at Cle Elum, which was very well attended, there being seventeen brothers and sisters from this division present, which included Bros. Morgan, Bayer, Shisler, Farrington, Leeper, Silliphant, Anderson, Fischer, Newcomb, Bergum, McIntyre, Floberg, Bell and Williams, and Sisters Johnson and L. F. Rivett, and about ten brothers from the Milwaukee, whose names I was unable to obtain. The main question to be discussed by the members of this division was the starting of a reserve fund, to protect the expenses of the division and to help out a brother or sister in case of sickness, and if compelled to go to the hospital, at Tacoma, and to have flowers and fruit sent to them. After several suggestions from the brothers as to what the assessment should be, it was decided to place it at $1.00 per year, payable semi-annually, and at the same time your other dues are sent in, same to be remitted to the local secretary and treasurer. It was also decided that on account of Bro. Kelly, our present local secretary and treasurer, not being more centrally located, a new local secretary and treasurer be appointed. Bro. Bell, of Auburn, was appointed.

The brothers on the mountain are keeping after the nons in good shape. Two were recently secured, which will be appreciated by our local chairman. Keep the work up brothers, and in case of the excuse, "pay day," if given you, remember that the ghost walks on the 15th of each month, camp on their trail and secure the coin.

"Happy!"

Rocky Mountain Division

Bros. Parks and Hinton, Silver Bow, are out gunning for nons. Olson on first better hurry and get that card or they will ambush him.

Hope Bro. Cuthbert, Deerlodge first, will get time to do a little missionary work on Lyle, now on a trip to California and New Mexico, relieved by Bro. Bonn, of Division 2.

It's now Bro. G. M. Campbell, extra Garrison first, making that office solid. Hope Bros. Corwin and Cron will be able to land Stevens.

Bro. Hart, agent Avon, is on month's vacation, relieved by Mr. Wilcoxen, from second, and he by Miss Guot. Hope to soon call Wilcoxen, Wilson and Miss Guot brother and sister.

Bro. A. Balzhiser, Drummond second, is sick again and has gone to Rochester for treatment, relieved by Mr. Fuller.

Crane, at Austin, and Scott, at Blossburg, promise to be with us February pay day.

We are glad to have Bro. Mintline, at Austin third. It is also Bro. Scott, extra Missoula second, and Bro. Scholz, at Hamilton.

Bro. Nutter, Birdseye third, has returned from a pleasant trip to the old home in Ohio.

Mr. Bullis, at Lo Lo, says: "Organized labor has brought peace and comfort to many homes, but sorrow and desolation to a great many more." His raise in salary, $30.00 a year, on the last schedule he says is as nothing, as he makes $50.00 during the summer selling garden truck, but the $12.00 for a year's dues looms up large to him, as he needs all his earnings to start his next spring and summer work, and then he pleads illness and was afraid he might be turned down on the insurance and that would be held against him in case he wanted to get other insurance, but said if we could waive the insurance he would gladly come in. We had the insurance waived, but he was only playing safety as he figured we would not waive the insurance.

Understand Mr. Cyr, one of the new men, has filled out his papers.

Business rather slack just now and some of the extra men having a hard time keeping busy; for that reason am giving them a little time before pressing them too hard, as we want to give every one a fair chance. The old nons who have been with us for two and three years have had plenty of chances though, and should be cut from your calling lists, as they show that they do not want to associate with the brothers by their refusal to join us.

Bro. Holroyd, Saltise, is the busy rustler on the branch and trying hard to make the "snake" solid.

Mr. Force, at Lookout, has been intending to "leave the service" for a long time. He don't like to be called "hog," "bloodsucker," etc., and while I don't believe in calling names, I am beginning to wonder if the others were not right.

Mr. Brown, for many years at Paradise, and could not see the good in the Order, was discharged some months ago and went to Canada, where he found it rather hard "sledding" without a card to get a job, so he wrote a nice, friendly letter to Bro. Carr, at Perma, and asked him to "kindly send him his up-to-date card," so he could travel on it and get a job. Of course, he got it (in the neck). If you boys here would treat the nons like they do across the border there would be mighty few and those few wouldn't last long.

Bro. Nason, of the Idaho Division, had a splendid letter to the membership in last month's journal, and I urge all of you to read it carefully; it is well worth reading and applies to this division as well as to the Idaho.

Am very much pleased at the many applications going in since the beginning of the new year and hope all of you will interest yourself in this matter and keep them coming in till we are solid. Let's do it before the end of the present term. Also don't forget to pay your current dues promptly; costs no more now than two months from now and you have the satisfaction of carrying a card all the time.

V. N. WERRE, L. C.

Fargo Division—

Agencies Dieser and Eastedge, "CS" job at "DH," operators Davenport and Mau from second Eckelson and Brackett, two tricks, pulled off on account of light business. Mr. Birlinghamair is now on second Buffalo, and Mr. Begley on second Tower City, they having exchanged positions.

Mr. Fenne, Davenport, on vacation on account of second there being closed, later relieved Bro. Opahl, agent Schable, on account seniority, who relieved Bro. Frey, at "XN," called away on account of death. Opahl went to Hastings from "XN" for a few days' relief work.

The boys at "DH" made a change for their own convenience, Bro. Arnold, first trick, taking third, Bro. Brink, second, taking first, and Lokke, our big Swede brother, third, taking second, were relieved by Mr. Thompson, our "CS" man, and Agent Amick, Dilworth, while making change. Later Bro. Murphy relieved Bro. Lokke, on a visit to the cities.

Ex-Dispatcher Wold, relieving on first "MX" for awhile, went to "FO" relay office, relieving Bro. Paulson, who relieved Bro. Carrigan, off with the mumps.

Cleveland, first "SA," resigned, putting it on bulletin. E. C. Murray, first "VY," also resigned, Bro. Myer bidding it in, and Penick, off the branch, bid in second "VY."

Bro. Hanson, off a few days, was relieved by Bro. Burton.

Mr. Klefsas took second "SA," on account seniority, pulling Bro. Lee off; Bro. Kvein also pulled off on account of that trick taken off. Bro. Beigh-
The Railroad Telegrapher.

Bro. Ryan, third "SA," bumped by Bro. Murphy, went to second "VY," putting Hauber out on account seniority. Bro. Nuebeck on vacation to Cuba, will be dancing the "Cubanola Glide" when he comes back; relieved by Bro. Ryan on second "CA," Wold taking second "VY."

The boys are having some time now jumping from place to place on account of business so dull and seniority so small, but we hope that business will soon pick up so they can all go to work.

We wish to thank Bros. Wilk and Løkke for the items they sent in and want everyone who can find out any news to do likewise so we may be able to have a good write-up each month. Use names of places instead of office calls.

Mutt and Jeff, Certs. 1901 and 1225.

Tacoma Division—

Bro. W. G. Lowery, of Rainier, who was operated upon January 5th for appendicitis by Dr. Mowers, in Tacoma, N. P. Hospital, is doing nicely.

Let us keep after the nons, boys. Our duty is not done when we get a card. We must show them the benefits to be obtained by their coming in with us. If we can't get them in don't have anything to do with them.

Certs. 2258.

Relay Division—

Acknowledgments are due to all the brothers who furnished notes this month.

Business way below the average.

Bothmer was off two days taking in the sights at Spokane. Bro. A. W. Sterland, Dickinson, laid off December 15th on account of force reduction, is now walking from Portland, Ore., to Portland, Me., billing himself as "The Dakota Land Turtle." H. E. Miller, C. G. Mason, H. E. Nining, Committees.

St. Paul Division—

Our write-up for the January journal was probably delayed, as it did not get to St. Louis in time for that issue, and therefore appears now with our February notes.

Two new members were initiated this month—C. A. Anderson, second Gregory, and T. A. Larson, second Lincoln. We welcome them with the glad hand. We also have the promises of two or three next pay day. We can soon be solid or near it if each brother will do his duty.

Agent Schultz, Starbuck, off a few days for Christmas, relieved by Bro. Meiser, from Division 53.

Benson, first "MS," off a few days sick, was relieved by Bro. Anderson.

Peters, third Royalton, was recently married. We congratulate him, and hope he will keep his promise to join next pay day.
Brothers, keep after the delinquents as well as the nons, and see that they pay up.

Bro. J. B. Macy, a new man from K. C., came right across without asking, and we hope to soon get his pal, Mr. McNeal, another new man, as we understand he had a card up to June 30, 1913. Bro. Macy relieved Mr. Walters, third Rice, who relieved Agent Love there on a sixty-day leave to California, owing to the death of his mother. Bro. Macy later relieved Bro. Nelson, third Little Falls, also Bro. Hardenbrook, second Little Falls, while they made the trip to Minneapolis for the usual "exam" on eyesight and hearing. Bro. Macy then relieved Bro. Brisbane, third Lincoln, while "Bris" was in Minneapolis doing Christmas shopping for the babies. He then relieved Mrs. Buck, first Darling, while she took a brief visit with her folks and little daughter in Iowa, and then relieved Bro. Sova, third Darling, while away enjoying Christmas right, so he says.

Mr. McNeal relieved Bro. Galloway, second Anoka, a few days while visiting with his folks, and then relieved Mr. Anderson, second Gregory, whom we hope will soon be up to date.

Bro. C. E. Ayer, first Sartell, took Christmas dinner with Bro. Randall, agent Gregory, and I know he enjoyed it, as I have taken dinner at Bro. Randall's house myself.

Would be glad to receive a few notes from the boys on the east end. CLYDE BARTER, L. C.

Wheeling & Lake Erie R. R.

We have at last secured our long-looked-for schedule, and while it falls short of our ambitions, it only remains for us to maintain our strength and membership and continue to add to it each year. Now, boys, it has again been demonstrated that the O. R. T. is a good old boat to ride in and one that is fully equipped to weather the storms. You have secured a new schedule, better working conditions and a raise in pay, which has taken nearly nine months to secure. Your dues have been the same, with the exception of one assessment of $2, as under normal conditions, and the entire bill has been footed by the O. R. T.

To fully understand what this means to us, it is only necessary to consider what such a siege would have cost our brother trainmen and conductors in dollars and cents.

Now, boys, let us show our appreciation in the strongest possible manner. Those who have not joined the Order and those who got "cold feet" and dropped out should join at once. The old adage, "Get all you can and keep what you have," applies to us in strong terms.

It has been clearly demonstrated to us that our only salvation lies in the Order, and I trust you will all respond to this call promptly and make Division 55 one hundred per cent strong. Get after the non telegrapher or agent in your office or on either side, and everyone pull.

CERT. 79.

W. P. T. Notes

Bro. J. D. Harbaugh, third Hopedale, and wife, spent Christmas with their parents at Crooksville, and Bro. "Hank" Bell, third Mingo, spent New Year's with his parents at Pittsburgh, relieved by Bro. Harbaugh.

Business on the W. P. T. has been at a standstill since lake navigation closed.

W. S. B. Notes

Business is very slack since navigation closed.

Bro. Sturges, operator and clerk at Clairton, cut off January 1st, bumped the agent at Fair Haven.

Bro. Cowan has been appointed agent at Longview.

Wheeling Division Notes

I did not receive any items this month from the Cleveland and Toledo Divisions.

J. H. Atwell, ticket agent Martins Ferry, bid in Jewett agency.

Bro. Horton, first Sherrodsville, was called home owing to the illness of his mother.

It will soon be Bros. Wright, agent Sherrodsville; Eby, second Mingo yard; Aby, agent Yorkville; Renneker, first Pine Valley, and G. W. and T. E. Lucas, second and third Jewett. This will make the Wheeling Division nearly solid. We welcome them all into the fold of a good cause.

Now that we have our schedule, we should all "hit the ball" and make the officials of the company feel glad that they have these kind of men working for them.

Mr. Friend, Toledo, has been appointed chief clerk of civil service, with headquarters at Toledo.

We regret very much to learn of the death of Dispatcher Fred Jones and his sister, Miss Mildred Jones, and extend our heartfelt sympathy to the members of his family. Mr. Jones was well liked by all the boys.

Thanks to the brother at "HO" and Cert. 224 for items. Let's have a dandy write-up next month. Be a "booster" not only for the O. R. T., but for the "Wheeling" also. I wish to extend my appreciation to all the good brothers who sent me items. Let's have some from some of you brothers on the Toledo and Cleveland Divisions.

R. F. SMITH, Cor.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mingo, Ohio, January 25, 1914.

To the Employes of the Wheeling Division:

We wish to express our great appreciation and sincere thanks to you for the beautiful floral piece, "The Gates Ajar," and the heartfelt sympathy in our recent bereavement in the loss of our beloved husband and father.

MRS. FRED JONES AND FAMILY.
Southern Ry.

St. Louis Division—

The meeting of agents at Princeton, Ind., Sunday, January 25th, was a success in every way. Many points were brought up and discussed that were of great benefit to the agents. Mr. Gatchell certainly knows how to deliver the stuff for the benefit of the agents.

Now, as you all have shown that you were able to come to this meeting, we are going to call a meeting for the benefit of all agents, operators and levermen on this division within a short time, at Huntingburg, and it is hoped that you will show your interest at this meeting as you did in the Princeton meeting. So, brothers, be on the lookout for the notice of this meeting and be sure to come. Mr. Howsen has promised to stop No. 1 east of Huntingburg to let off the boys who attend from the east end.

Bro. J. A. McLin and wife spent a few days with Bro. A. M. Hall at Birdseye recently.

Bro. Hutchinson, Mt. Vernon, off a few days, was relieved by Mr. Grubbs.

Bro. Oskins, third Ayrshire, has moved to Velpen, where you will always find him with that pleasant smile.

Bro. A. M. Hall made a flying trip to Fairfield recently.

Bro. Boston, wife and son Harold, of Birdseye, made a trip to Indianapolis recently, relieved by Mr. Eskew.

Bro. Spurling, of East Jct., is now at home at Francisco.

Bro. T. E. Riley and family, Belleville, visited home folks at Lincoln City recently.

Bro. C. U. Bishop, of Tell City, had the misfortune of losing the depot by fire recently, losing three typewriters and some very valuable things. We are certainly sorry to hear it.

Watch for the big meeting at Huntingburg soon, brothers, and let’s have a good turnout.

Birmingham Division, East End—

The regular meeting was held at Bremen, January 11th, with a good attendance. Many subjects of importance were discussed. The most important touched on was that of thorough organization. All agreed that this was the keynote to success.

We have battles to fight, and unless we have an army, we can not expect victory, and unless we all enlist and show the true colors, we will surely meet with defeat.

Another thing of vital importance is that of permanent enlistment. As long as we are coming and going the army can not be as strong as it would be if we were always on duty. Brothers, quit going on furloughs, for the enemy may attack us when we are all on furloughs. Don’t be a “quitter.”

Boys, give close attention to your office calls, and don’t cause the dispatcher to do any unnecessary calling. Let’s give good service, and when we go up for a new schedule, it won’t be so hard to get.

We are going to Washington long, and the boys will be anxious to know the outcome. If we were all lined up, we would know before we went what it would be. Let’s all do the right thing and line up as many as possible, and be on hand when the roll call is sounded at our meetings.

Bro. Oden, Muscadine, while with his wife at the hospital, now much improved, was relieved by Mr. Salters.

Ex-Bro. J. S. Aly, from the S. A. L., on third Cook Springs, vice J. L. Poole, promises to do the right thing soon. Later this position was assigned to B. G. Aly.

Bro. G. C. Gladden, second McFall, relieved a few days by Curtis Johnson, who also relieved Bro. Tom Coleman, second Riverside, a few days. Mr. Johnson will come in as soon as he gets the age and experience.

Bro. Harry Foster relieved Bro. W. R. King on second Pell City a few days.

| CERT. 1340 |

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend to our brothers at Bremen our most hearty thanks for the manner in which they so royally entertained us at dinner January 11th. We were treated with a true spirit of brotherhood. Broth*ERS BIRMINGHAM DIVISION.*

Birmingham Division, West End—

Our regular monthly meeting was held at Parrish, Ala., December 21st, with a fairly good attendance.

Two candidates were initiated, one petition received and the promise of another petition at our January meeting.
Everyone enjoyed the dinner furnished by the ladies of Parrish, and wished them a merry Christmas and a happy New Year.

Bro. J. R. Miller, third Parrish, was sick two nights, being relieved by P. M. Griffis, an old-time telegrapher, who has been out of the service several years, who later relieved Bro. T. M. Cannon, first Parrish, on vacation.

Bro. J. J. Andoe, agent Cordova, made a trip to Tuscaloosa, and could not attend our last meeting.

Boys, call "J" and give me the news, so we can have a write-up each month.

DIV. COR., Cert. 253.

Mobile Division—

Brothers, note the write-up from the west end on the Birmingham Division. Pretty close to home, for us not to be represented in the journal each month. You will note by Bro. Stoudenmire's write-up that they are holding meetings. We can just as well do this also. Now, let us hear from all who have the welfare of the Order at heart enough and willing enough to help out in having a meeting on the Mobile Division. This is the only successful way to carry on our affairs and become better acquainted with each other personally. It is necessary for us to get together, or we will never know what is going on, and there are conditions that could be improved.

We are glad to note that a night office has been established at Seymour, with Bro. Reedy, formerly agent Piedmont, in charge. The creating of this position is evidence that business on the B. B. B. branch is on the increase, which is encouraging for this part of the year.

All who favor holding meetings and establishing a lodge, as our sister divisions have, let it be known, and not only that, but let us do something. Any brother who feels like writing to me personally, I will be glad to hear from him on the subject. It only needs the support of a few to start, and the rest will follow. Let's do it, and do it now.

E. M. Lawler, Cert. 1745.

BELLE ELLEN, ALA.

Charlotte Division, South End—

Bro. J. D. Jones, Madison first, off three days fox hunting, relieved by Bro. G. Walters, of third, and he by F. T. Brock.

Bro. C. P. Cureton, Calhoun second (extra), assigned to Athens days, relieved by Mr. Brock.

Bro. K. W. Boggs, with the Western Union at Clemson College during Christmas holidays, is with the A. C. L. at Savannah. We all wish him success.

Ex-Bro. A. E. Stewart from Toccoa third to Gainesville second, relieved by J. P. Lyles, assigned regular.

Bro. A. P. Laurence, Central second, off a few days on account of sickness in family, relieved by Bro. J. H. Gibson, Bros. Johnson and Brown doubling one day.

Bro. H. L. Watkins' name appears in the December journal as "Mr." This is an error, as Bro. Watkins is always up to date.

Our former chief, A. W. Watson, who has been in Highlands, N. C., all summer and fall, with consumption, died at his home in Greenville, and was buried January 1st. We were all sorry to have him go, as he was a thorough railroader and treated his men right.

Bro. B. L. Rike, off ten days getting married, relieved by W. L. Harbin. Congratulations.

Bro. B. T. Littleton assigned second Deercourt.

Bro. Arthur Werner, from the Seaboard, an old-timer of this road, on a visit to home folks at Easley, during Christmas holidays, reports only two nuns on his division. Says they don't like 'em.

Bro. E. H. Brown, Central third, off a few days, sick, relieved by Fred Brook.

Bro. R. E. Pierce assigned to Fallis third, Lyles on extra board.

Bro. I. C. Edwards, Browsell days, off with fever, relieved by Bro. J. H. Gibson, relieved on third Culham, by N. M. Tollison, who promised to do the necessary thing pay day.

B. W. GRANT.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank the South End Charlotte Division brothers for the floral offering in our recent bereavement, the death of our little son.

A. P. Laurence and Wife.

Columbia Division—

I wish to thank you all for your courtesy, and hope you will put forth all efforts possible to make our division 100 per cent by the first of March, 1914. We have a good set of men on this division; they stick well, and there's no changes, but some of them are rather slow in their support of the Order, after the Order has done so much for them. The officials of the company did not voluntarily increase your salary and make your working hours better. This was done through the efforts of the O. R. T., which needs your support.

I heard a remark made by a very prominent official that was impressed upon my mind. He said: "I like to see a man of his craft stand for his rights, or he is worthless to himself, or the company; nor does he have much respect for himself or fellow-craftsmen by not trying to better himself or his condition. Such a man is worse than a highway thief, because the thief gives the law a chance to catch him. On the other hand, the man that reaps the benefits of organization without any contribution, but promises, only is more of a thief than a robber, because there is no law to get him." This remark was made while discussing the various organizations and no particular ones pointed at.

We are glad to know that every man on this division is going to have an up-to-date card, and we have been in touch with them and all seem very much interested.

I had a list of all the nons on the division, and could have shown it to this gentleman, but I did not have the heart to do so, as he would have had a very bad opinion of the men on our division, whom we look forward to be up to date on the next half. Gentlemen, wake up; your integrity is at stake. Be working members of our Order and don't stand back and wait for some to do so for you.

Remember the Lord loves a cheerful giver, and you shall prosper according to your deeds. Look at the B. L. E., O. R. C. and others.

Bro. McGimpsey, Blythewood, has about recovered from being hurt on account of a skid being knocked through the office, striking him. He was relieved by Bro. J. A. Clarke.

G. C. Turner has returned to Vaucurse agency, having been sick some time. Mr. Boon, "CH," has been sick also.

Boys, look out for the "KO" report. One of our brothers in "CO" says it's awful sometimes in getting it from some of the stations. They are ready to help you, if you will help them.

Now, let's start and make the year before us a prosperous one. M. D. D., Cert. 2729.

Memphis Division—

We are glad, indeed, to learn the nons have decreased some on this division since our last write-up; several of them have filed their applications, and we can now call Messrs. Jones, of Paint Rock and Minor, of Collierville, brothers. A few more of the young men have also filed their applications for membership. Let us all pay our dues promptly and see that our new brothers never fall behind with their dues.

I am not receiving the co-operation I should, boys. Let everyone who has any news for the journal send it promptly to Bro. Uptain, at Memphis, so it can be sent to the editor of our journal, for publication, not later than the 20th of each month. Don't depend on another one to do this, but send in all the news you can yourself.

The new block tower is now completed and being used at "DJ," and we hope the one who has fallen from the ranks there will soon come in again. Find out and let me know.

Bro. Atchley bid in Glens, relieved by Mr. Canterbury at Barton.

Bro. Willis, off a few days, was relieved by Extra Tinsley.

Bro. Jester, off a few days recently, was relieved by Bro. Wyatt, and he by Extra Kimbrough.

Bro. Adcock, of Huntsville, has accepted position as night chief bill clerk at Memphis.

Brothers, don't forget to work on the nons every day until we get them all lined up. It is embarrassing that the percentage of nons and delinquents is so great on the Memphis Division, so let each of us do our best to decrease the number as much as possible.

Div. Coa., Cert. 2641.

Knoxville Division—

The dues and initiation fee for members filing petitions in February is $9.50, and for March, $8.50. Blanks may be had upon application, and I will be glad to handle same promptly. Start 1914 right by paying dues. W. H. Com, L. C.

Bro. F. A. Calfee, Cert. 1575, who was in the hospital last July for some time, with rheumatism, was taken sick again in October, and is unfit for duty, and has sent me a letter asking for assistance. I believe his is a worthy case, and feel that we should help him.

As our regular monthly meetings have been discontinued on account of non-attendance, and as handling such matters by circular letters, in my opinion, has not been satisfactory, I am advising you of this case through the Journal. Anything you feel like contributing you may forward direct to Bro. Calfee at Whitepine, Tenn. He writes that he had three convulsions in one day, and it has been reported to the superintendent that his illness has affected his memory, and that he can not allow him to resume duty until he has passed a satisfactory examination. Just a little help from each brother, he says, will help him to tide over until he can get back to work. He will appreciate any help you can afford to give him. I have written the general chairman in regard to waiving the dues of Bro. Calfee for this term, and feel sure that Division 59 will be glad to do so. I have also taken the matter up with assistant local chairmen on the east end.

W. H. Com, L. C.

We closed the year 1913 on the west end with a 99 per cent membership. R. W. Clark, Loudon, Tenn., being the only man out. The east end has not shown up quite so well, but we hope it will later on.

We greet the new year with pleasant anticipation, as 54 new and revised agreements were made during 1913, and no strikes, a schedule for every week in the year and a few left over for good measure.

We have had better conditions and more pay the last two years than ever before, in any like period.

Every member added to the membership roll increases the power of the organization for good to that extent, and every member who forfeits his membership reduces the influence of the Order that much. So it is plain to see that every man who declines to pay up hurts himself just that much.

It should be the ambition of every telegrapher to make his profession as remunerative as that of any other employee connected with the movement of trains, and it is self-evident that the only way this can be done is through the Order.
of Railroad Telegraphers; therefore, if you wish to bring about this much desired result, you must keep yourself in good standing in the Order, and help to organize and stand solid. Every member should assist in bringing into the fold those who still remain on the outside.

President Perham has well said, in one of his circulars to the division officers, "Let the unorganized drool over their foolish reasons for keeping out of the game; they know in their hearts they are wrong and their consciences prick them in ways unknown to the one who does his duty to his fellows, works hard, and sleeps the sleep of the just."

Certain cases are being referred to the Commission on Industrial Relations for investigation, and amendments to the hours-of-service law will soon be presented to Congress by Hon. Raymond B. Stevens, of New Hampshire, when a good, hard fight will be made to institute the straight eight-hour day for every one who takes care of train movement by means of electrical circuits or signals. At the right time the membership will be requested to lend a hand to bring this about, as was done in 1908, when 30,000 telegrams from "home" were poured out upon congressmen's desks, asking their support of the "telegraphers nine-hour bill." Let's get the remaining non-members to sign up before the time comes 'round for business.

Regardless of the benefits being enjoyed, some of the non-members here turn a deaf ear to all appeals to get a card, and have turned down every proposition made them.

As long as they can get these benefits without any outlay of money on their part, they seem content to remain non's and let their fellow men pay the bills, and "No card, no favors" should now be applied vigorously, as these non's get the same benefits as the member who pays.

Recently on a certain road a non did not get his vacation as soon as he thought he ought to have had it and he wrote the chief, demanding it, referring him to the "rules and regulations." The chief just wrote on the bottom of his letter the notation, "There is no vacation coming to you." Later on this non got a card, and then secured his vacation. That is what we need right here on this division.

There has been some discussion relative to the work of the general chairman, which is getting heavier all the while. The Southern Ry. System covers about 8,000 miles, over which the general chairman has to travel, and at the same time keep up his correspondence and other work. The writer believes that it would be to the advantage of the organization to have an assistant general chairman, or a system organizer, whose duty it would be to look after the organizing, and assist the general chairman in his work. Division 59 is a big one and the organization is in shape to carry this out. We should also subdivide the Atlantic and Knoxville, which are very large divisions, and have two local chairmen for each of them, as one chairman can not well take care of such large territory. Case 48, Div. Cor.

Several brothers have called my attention to the write-up by R. R. J., ex-correspondent of the Atlanta Division, in the January journal, concerning a proposed new seniority rule, which would be all in favor of a few, and against the majority. It would not permit a man, in case his position was abolished, to roll anyone, but compel him to take the extra board and take chances on the bulletin. I have not been informed officially about the matter, but I am of the opinion that the present seniority rule is the best for all concerned. Some of the oldest roads in the country have been working under it for many years, and it seems fair to the majority. If such a change is proposed, the membership should be given a vote on it, as this would take the responsibility off the committee. I hope our general chairman will put it up to the membership for a vote, which I believe he will do.

W. H. Cord, L. C.

We note the write-up in January journal, by Atlanta Division correspondent, in which he states that it has been proposed that our seniority rule be changed, making it so that when a position is abolished the man so affected will take the extra list, and take chances on bulletin. Under such a rule a man who has ten or fifteen years age on the division, would, in case his job was cut out, have to take the extra list, instead of being allowed to take his rights on the road. It would not be fair for such a man to have to work extra over the division, and, if he has a family, be compelled to pay board on the road, as well as the expenses of his family at home, when there is a man one year old holding a desirable position on the division to which the man whose position was abolished is entitled. It would not be just to adopt a clause like this, giving to the younger men advantage over the men of long service. Several of the oldest organized roads in the country, namely, the C. & O. and B. & O., have the same seniority clauses as Division 59, and our present rule has worked satisfactorily. The present rule will come nearer giving justice to all concerned than any other rule that could be applied, and for the good of the organization, any change in this rule had better be given serious consideration, and a vote taken before adopting any change. We should learn a lesson from one of our neighboring roads that changed the seniority rule without a majority vote, which resulted disastrously, so we had better let the seniority rule alone. It is the most important one affecting the majority in the agreement, as it now stands. If a man has but little age on the division he gets a show accordingly. If he has but little age, that is no fault of the man who has stood with the division and accumulated years of seniority. If the rule is changed it will give the younger men more advantage than the older man, and there would be little use to have a seniority clause at all.

We recommend that our local chairman be requested to call a special meeting, notifying every member to be present, to discuss this matter should it develop that such a clause has been proposed covering our rules and regulations. Many roads organized for twenty years have the same seniority rule as Division 59 has today, and have been satisfied with this rule for all these years without change. Division 59 has been organized for about seven years, during which time there has not been any serious kick on the present rule. While there may be a few who want the new seniority rule, we believe that a very large per cent of the men would vote to retain the present one, and are not afraid that this vital question will not be given consideration by the membership when they are aware that a change like the brother on the Atlanta Division mentions in his write-up is about to take place.

We hope it will remain as it is, and believe it will; however, we call your attention to the matter and refer you to the Atlanta Division write-up in the January TELEGRAPHER.

Atlanta Division, South End—

Our correspondent must have gone over Niagara Falls. We never see any write-ups from this end. The north-end correspondent comes across each month with the happenings and tells his views on certain important questions.

Recent changes I know of are: J. I. Hardin, on second; Bro. C. A. Pless on first, and Bro. G. C. Merritt on third Locust Grove; Guy Green, on third Flippin; Bro. Key, on third Ellenwood; Bro. J. J. Anderson, on third Jenkinsburg, while waiting for the successful bidder; Bro. J. F. Moseley, on second Jenkinsburg; Bro. McClelland, on third Jackson; Bro. W. H. VanZandt, on first Sandy, having given up Stockbridge agency, account of rheumatism. He has our sympathy and hope he will be pleased with his new place. Bro. C. J. Simpson bid in Flippin agency; second Constitution which he understands will be on next bulletin, as well as several other places.

I think this end should have a regular correspondent, and send a write-up each month, for we all usually turn to the fraternal pages of our grand old journal as soon as we receive it. All other divisions of this road give write-ups each month and we should do the same, and let other divisions see that we are not asleep. Bro. R. R. J.'s views in regard to rolling just suits me, and I hope other good brothers will fall in line, and let's defend our contract and let it stand exactly as it is.

You take the conductors and trainmen, when one train is taken off it affects all other runs. And if it is not too much trouble for the company to change this class of men, neither is it too much trouble to change our class when a job is discontinued. If a job is abolished or cut out temporarily, I think the boys so affected should be allowed to go where their age entitles them. So let the contract stand just as it is—both sides made it and both sides certainly should live up to it to the letter. CERT. 612.

The items you send me go to Bro. Quick at St. Louis just as you send them in. If they are not published as written, there is a good reason for their change or omission, which can be satisfactorily explained by Bro. Quick, as he is responsible for such matters. I am going to serve you to the best of my ability, and thank you all for the items contributed. Please let me have all changes and other matters of interest by the 20th of the month, as I must mail them to Bro. Quick before the 28th. The items for January were mailed too late for publication that month. Those received too late for one month appear the following month revised so as not to appear out of date, unless it is requested that they do not appear.

Div. Cor.

Eastern Division—
We are pleased to call C. G. Ramsey brother, also Bro. Christy, at Union.

D. R. McLain was relieved at Mason City by a brother of the B. of L. E.

Bro. J. T. Nelson, agent Ackley, has returned from his trip, relieved by T. J. Dailey.

Bro. C. V. Platts, local chairman, from Steamboat, while at Minneapolis several days, was relieved by his assistant, C. Shaner.

Bro. C. C. McElroy, relieved at "M" town yards, by Mr. Kightlinger.

We are pleased to now have three good brothers at Hampton, and S. L. Zee, the agent, is also up to date—wish we could get some of the nons on the east end to see it that way. Ex-Bro. J. D. Kyle, agent at Brighton, will also be with us shortly, and Bro. Bartlett, one of our old standbys, can no doubt help us to land Roy on third trick there, which will make "BR" solid.

Bro. C. L. Keen, from "A" Lea, is now on side table in "DS" Oskaloosa.

The committee has been meeting with good success, lining up the nons, as they have no excuse for not joining.

Brothers, let's send our dues to Bro. Sandmier promptly for this term, and save stamps, as well as valuable time he might be using to get in the nons. Don't forget either that the "MB" department assessments go to Bro. Quick, as your card won't be issued until that is paid.

Let's all get our shoulders to the wheel and make 1914 the best year old Division 71 has had. We have lots of good pushers, but it runs awfully heavy when others drag their feet and pull back.

W. C. M.

Chicago & Northwestern Ry.
General Office "SJ"—
It certainly looks encouraging the way Division 76 is lining up, showing that the brothers realize that it is necessary to present a solid front and back up the committee in order to secure a schedule equal to that which other roads now have.

Every member should make it a point to get in the nons about him, and use the "No card, no favors" rule, as there is positively no argument against joining. The trainmen will not take excuses; it's either join or the no favors rule applied in a way that generally works. Brothers, unless we get busy and line up solid, we can not expect the committee to do very much. The Southern Pacific lately secured a $90.00 minimum for O. S. and $110.00 for relay jobs, and many other concessions, and the C. P. and Can. Nor. have almost as good a schedule, because they have almost a solid membership.

As our committee is about to convene, it is absolutely imperative that it have the undivided support of the telegraphers on this road. The committee is only as strong as the membership behind it, and unless it represents the majority of the men it is useless to try and secure concessions from the management. The company is not going to grant us increases out of sentiment. It is purely a business proposition and it is up to us to have the strength of numbers to back up our demands.

Cupid is getting busy on second, and Bro. Alverson is looking the "happy guy."

Bro. Novak exchanged, hours with Mr. Golden for two weeks, Bro. Novak serving on jury during the daytime and doing the owl shift nights.

They are all nons in the Galena Division train dispatcher's office, since "Dutch" left. What's the reason?

No. 78 is a solid O. R. T. wire all the way now. How about the rest of them?

Div. Cor.

Chicago Terminal—

J. J. Lewis, chief director at Lake street tower, is on a three months' leave, relieved by W. E. Connors, succeeded by Bro. W. H. Harlan as assistant director. The boys at Lake street are very much pleased with these appointments, and peace reigns once more. Bro. Lawson goes to Lake street, relieved at Division street by Bro. Crampton.

Bro. Howard Gobel bid in second Sangamon street, which we had bulletined after quite a little trouble.

Bro. Morrison, from split trick Canal Jct., is doing fine in the restaurant business. We wish him continued success.

Charles Martin, in poor health for some months, has filled out his pension papers; succeeded by George Russ, first Rose Hill.

Frank Garl promises to join shortly.

Two new towers, Wood street and Hunting avenue, opened up in the Terminal District recently; the former a mechanical and the latter an electric plant. This gives us nineteen towers in the district, a splendid field to work for new members.

Nothing heard from the Galena Division side this month.

Boys, let's everyone put our shoulder to the wheel and get this district into shape, before the committee convenes, which will be only a few days now, unless something happens we can not foresee at this time. If you are looking for success this time you must show your enthusiasm in other ways than words and carrying an up-to-date card. I hope every member will give me his full support, and absolutely refrain from knocking any move that is made for the good of the majority.

Please send me or telephone me some news items.

Local Chairman, Cert. 434.

Wisconsin Division—

Our local chairman has been over the division recently, meeting all the members and non-members his limited time permitted him to, working late into the night and getting out early in the morning. He reports great progress in the way of organization. In fact the membership of this division has increased with almost incredible rapidity. All that is now needed is a little personal effort on the part of each member who has a non-member working near him, to bring all within the fold. He has called on these men and if the matter is now kept constantly before them, the time will be short when we can call this the best organized division on the road. If you meet a man you can't land, write the local chairman and he will help you.

Miss Reil, Desplaines third, has accepted a position at Mayfair.

Miss Vesely, of Chicago avenue round house, was a recent caller at "GO."

Remember the court meetings at 912 Masonic Temple. It would greatly benefit all of you brothers to attend these meetings, where you will hear things that are of interest to you.

Get after the few nons floating around, and write them up.

Bro. Price, of Harvard, and the third trick man from "GO," took a hunting trip over the "KD" line, west, a few days ago, and shot eleven times at one rabbit before landing him.

Brothers, send all the items of importance you can to your local chairman at Harvard, not later than the 20th. We will greatly appreciate this.

Cert. 262.

Madison Division—

Martin H. Hansen, from South Beaver Dam, has gone to his assignment at Adams agency.

Superintendent and Mrs. J. W. Doyle ate their Christmas turkey with friends at Huron.

Bro. Scotty Butterfield was rabbit hunting near Kendalls, New Year's, but no rabbit stew has been floating 'round, for the delectation of the Baraboo force.

Bro. Sid Kilts, while looking after his movie show interests, was relieved by Bro. Jim Neff, on first trick "B" Baraboo, relieved by Bro. Jack Hibbard, on third, and he by A. G. Verch, at Jeff. Jct. Hibb had a lot of "new" jokes to spring about the wooden horse.

Reduction of forces seems to be a mania now. By the time the trimming is over with we may all be lookin' for a "jawn."

Assistant Superintendent Layden has changed his headquarters from Adams to Baraboo, and Trainmaster Worthman from Baraboo to Adams.

R. R. Ginn, agent Galena, relieved by Harry Hammill, chief trainmaster's clerk, has been assigned to Beloit agency. Both are old operators whom we are glad to see moving up. Harry LeMay takes the chief clerk job at Baraboo.

J. S. Lewis bid in South Beaver Dam agency, relieved at Benton agency by H. L. Lippold.

M. Biwerer relieved G. W. Richardson at Dane a few days at Christmas time.
E. D. Wilson, who recently resigned Merrimac agency, relieved A. B. Steinhoff there, who relieved Bro. Harry Pigg for his "wedding tower." R. H. Peacock, a new man, is learning the plant at Merrimac.

Joe Dolbier has resigned again, owing to ill health. We hope for his speedy recovery.

H. Hobart, relieved by R. H. Peacock, relieved F. J. Dunklee, agent Roscoe, a few days at Christmas time.

E. J. Lang, agent at Ipswich, on an extended trip to the Pacific coast, was relieved by A. G. Verch.

Bill Holden, second trick dispatcher on the north end, has a corner on calendars with Scotty Butterfield, runner-up.

J. H. Mueller, at Galena, was off a few days, somewhat under the weather.

H. J. Wagner, agent Milton, was relieved a few days about New Year's, by J. B. Mackenzie, former agent at Norwalk, who has been a great help recently, both to the boys who want relief and the chief, as extra agents are scarce.

Walter Hansen, Wyeville Yards, has been off for some time, the work being taken care of by Al Clark and E. D. Wilson. The operators at the interlocking plant at Wyeville have been installed in the depot, and the plant is now in charge of levermen.

E. D. Wilson relieved F. C. Wolfe at tower "Z," Merrimac bridge, a few days.

The new seniority list has been made up and is now in the hands of the different officials to whom it goes. Bro. Scotty says it's some chore to make up the list of seven or eight copies, with so many changes, and some 175 or 200 names to show.

A. D. Dungan is back on the extra list again, and relieved Mr. Sorenson at Reedsburg, who bid in Cutler.

Matt Schleek, agent Wonevoo, relieved by Jove-child, cut his six months' leave short, and resumed work after an absence of several weeks. Some of the agents at some of these bureaus make from $65.00 to $85.00 in express commissions, several dollars in W. U. commissions, and at junction points, something for being a good man for the other line; but they earn it, and we like to see them haul it down.

L. Holley is relieving J. H. Mueller, at Galena, who is on the sick list.

Train Dispatcher John Stekl wants to publicly thank the boys who so kindly send him copies of the Hebrew papers every few days, and is saving up a lot of Chinese laundry bills to send them in return for their thoughtfulness. John says he likes to read awful well, but his folks brought him up to be right-handed.

Agent C. L. Graves, at Cottage Grove, was relieved several days, while indisposed, by Relief Agent A. C. Dimock.

C. B. McIntosh relieved Agent J. Roberts, at Lodi, a few days last month.

Agents Edwards, at Wales; Stephens, at Footville; Barnes, at tower "PP;" Schmidt at tower "DO," enjoyed vacations recently. Others were also off, but we didn't learn who. Come across with your news items, fellers.

Percy Avery breezed into the office of the scribe the other evening and gave us a good social chat on the affairs of the new line. Percy keeps well informed and is up to the minute on the business. He bid in Dalton station, and was going over to take charge. Come in again, old man.

C. E. L. Hansen,
Secretary.

H. L. Lippolt bid in Benton agency, relieved at Cuba City by Agent Stephen's son there, pending bulletin.

A. E. Tuttle relieved Archie Matzek at Beloit third a few nights, who relieved one of the force in the freight house who was sick. Later Tuttle went to tower "HJ" to learn the interlocking plant.

Mike H. Keeffe bid in Mt. Horeb days, vice J. E. Dolbier, resigned, and relieved R. J. Main there, extra, who went to second tower "DO," vice H. Hobarts.

J. H. Mueller has resumed at Galena after a few days' illness. Harry Harnall appointed agent Galena.

Jack Hibbard is relieving at "B" Baraboo.

Louie Abts, who relieved "Bill" Grimshaw at Elroy, while attending the funeral of a relative, was relieved by J. S. Lewis.

O. S. and Mrs. Butterfield took a trip over the west end one Sunday recently, to Lancaster.

S. F. Kilts resumed first "AO" Baraboo, relieving Jimmy Neff, who took several days off to view the sights in the surrounding country.

A meeting was held at Antigo, Sunday, Dec. 28th, on arrival of No. 141.

Get after the nons, brothers. The line-up shows too large a per cent of nons on the A.D. We need them all to make a good showing.

Div. Cor.

Lake Shore Division

Bro. Teidka, local chairman, has just finished a sojourn over the division. Although he secured a number of new members, some of the nons made great promises; others argue that the O. R. T. can not better their conditions any, while some absolutely ignore the Order, in spite of the fact that they secured better wages and working conditions through the medium of the O. R. T. Let's get after these fellows, brothers, and see if we can't get some of them off the non list. Bro. Smith says the brothers are very careless about paying their quarterly dues. Since he has been local secretary and treasurer he has collected only $6 or $7. Now, boys, 25 cents every three months is not very much to give for a good cause. When you let it run for a whole year, it's $1, and you hate to part with it without seeing any immediate returns. In a few weeks Bro. Smith will send out dues cards for the first quarter of 1914, and I sincerely hope that every brother on the division will respond promptly.

The brothers at Belgium have a non with them who promises to join soon, and Bro. Blau has a couple under his charge. Brothers, ask me for a list of the others, and get after them. Mr. Strohm, at Mountain, will be a member before long, also Mr. Grimmer, at Green Valley.

Mrs. Teidka, wife of our local chairman, has the distinction of being the only member of the Ladies' Auxiliary on this division.

Bro. Hawlette, agent Newton, spent the holidays with his parents at McAllister, Bro. Wilke relieving.

The wife of Bro. Evans, in the hospital at Green Bay, is reported getting along nicely.

The brothers of the L. S. Division join in thanking Chief Dispatcher Bowman, also Dispatchers Haight, Moser and others, for the generous donations they made to the subscription for Bro. Evans.

Bro. Teidka says he will soon have the few vacancies on the division bulletin.

F. K., Cert. 581.

With the closing of the ore season several of the small telegraph offices on the west end, also night offices at the larger stations, were closed. Indianatown, a new office, has been opened, with Mr. Easman in charge.

Bowers second was bid in by Bro. Shannon; Bro. Fahey resigned, leaving second Little Sua-mico 'open for bids.

Bro. Dunlap, relieved at Cascade on bid by Bro. H. G. Barkhard, has resigned and gone South. We wish him success.

Bro. Damitz, of Saundera, while being treated for a serious illness at a sanatorium in Missouri, was relieved by Bro. F. W. Merrick, who was later taken sick with typhoid pneumonia and relieved by Bro. Ferra. Bro. Fousignout relieved Bro. E. R. Burkhard at Narenta, who relieved Bro. Ferra while relieving at Dark River and Saunders.

Operators Semour, Martin and Peters have been transferred to the L. S. Division.

Bro. Merrick has resigned and gone to Indiana.

Bro. Fahey is in the bush, scaling logs and keeping books for some lumber company. We wish him back in our ranks.

Bro. Rasmussen, relieving Bro. Hartbo at Peno-loga, on vacation, is being relieved at Stambough by Mr. Rouguette, and he by Bro. Tousignant.

Operator Syverson, of South "W," was off several nights on account of being injured while playing basket-ball. The E. H. S. Eels must be a pretty rough bunch, eh?

E. Johnson, leverman Tesch, on a vacation during the holidays, was relieved by A. E. Sundberg. We would like to be able to call these levermen brothers.

Bro. Shannon, on fifteen days' vacation, was relieved by Mr. Bardwell, a new man.

Bro. Deroucher, of Stager, has resigned and gone farming. We wish him success.

Mr. Laure, of Iron River, was home on a vacation during Christmas and New Year's.

Looks good to see all our engines equipped with electric headlights. Seems more up to date. Don't forget to equip yourself with an up-to-date. It looks just as good.

Bro. R. A. Moran has resigned as local chairman, and Bro. F. W. Phillips, of Wilson, has been appointed his successor. We sincerely hope that he will continue in the good work.

Cert. 455.

Sioux City Division

A meeting was held in Sioux City on December 13th, but the day was unfavorable and many of the brothers could not be there. It is to be regretted that conditions were such that we could not show our appreciation at the presence of General Chairman Troy. Bro. Noe was the only official representative of the division present, but reports indicate that he did honors to his position.

Bro. Troy has had a number of organizers over the divisions to strengthen our position as much as possible before the committee meets the management.
Bro. Fisk, of Boyer, is a new addition to our ranks, also Bro. Stadum, tower "Y." Crinklan has returned from Sioux City to Sargent's Bluff, and Guille has taken the agency there.

Bro. Haymond has returned to Ida Grove, Bro. Carnes to Schleswig, Mr. Smith to Danbury and Watson to Sioux City dispatcher's office.

Inspector Noyes, of Chicago, passed over the division recently, giving us a general check-up on train movements, etc.

Everything is running very smoothly, owing to the exceedingly open winter. This division has enjoyed a nice business during the past year, and a slight lull now will not be greatly noticed.

Our committee is due to meet February 1st, and we trust that every brother will give it his unlimited support and try to bring in every delinquent and non within his territory.

Bro. Fenn has been covering much of the State with his check-writer and protectigraph, and has been doing exceptionally well, which we are glad to learn.

Bro. Stadum has been having trouble with his bonds and, as usual, no excuse is given or any explanation of any kinds. It's to be regretted that there is no law that will compel the bond companies to give an explanation in full at time of cancellation.

A meeting at Sioux City on January 18th was attended by about fifteen brothers. It is indeed encouraging to have a turnout of this number, and trust that future meetings will meet with as ready a response.

Mr. Baskin has taken River Sioux while Bros. Neves takes Blencoe, vacated by Bro. Grush, who goes to a farm near Cedar Rapids. We all regret the departure of Bro. Grush from our midst, and trust that future success will be his. He was always an earnest worker for the Order, and was never known to miss a meeting—an example that the younger men could follow with profit.

Louie Dick was on a few days' vacation, relieved by Baskin.

Shrimp Hays has been handling Boyer temporarily.

Bro. Barker, Wall Lake, has been told to go home when his time is up at 7:30 p.m., instead of "sticking around" for the passenger trains, as in the past.

Bro. Fenn has resumed work after a successful campaign with his check-writing machine. He made sales faster than the factory could fill the orders.

We hope that everyone will make a special effort to increase the membership, especially during the next couple of months, so that it will not be necessary to send an organizer over the division, as it is an expensive proposition, and the money spent for an organizer could be much better spent for some other purpose.

The new express rates, effective February 1st, should prove to our benefit in many ways after they get thoroughly in action. Much of the small stuff now coming by freight can be secured by express, and we should not be the least bit backward in securing it, as the railroad company is paid 55 per cent of the express company's earnings.

Dick.

Sioux City Division Notes—

M. J. Elliott, agent Craig, on a thirty-day visit East, was relieved by Bro. H. W. Hays. He should be able to get an up-to-date card.

Bro. F. L. Hudnall is on second Cal. Junction pending bulletin, relieving Mr. Byers, who relieved George Barfoot at Galva, on thirty days' leave.

The pump house at Mondamin burned January 4th; origin of fire unknown. Two days later two hoboes started a fire in a boiler, which had been set up outside to pump water, and burned out all the flues.

L. T. Fuller has returned to first Onawa, Iowa, from thirty days' vacation in New York visiting relatives.

Bro. I. B. Haymond called to Chicago for committee work, relieved by Bro. H. V. Fagan, who had been relieving Bro. B. I. Fenn, agent Holstein, Iowa, selling check-writers for a change.

The regular meeting held at Sioux City, Iowa, January 18, was a great deal better attended than the former one. Hope we can make our meetings a large affair each time hereafter. Superintendent McClure gave us a little talk, requesting our cooperation in the work of the division, and also explained the working of the inspectorship. We have nearly as many inspectors as agents now.

Chief Dispatcher St. Clair also gave us a short talk on how to keep the old ship sailing as smoothly as possible.

Superintendent's Chief Clerk Brink, who said he wished to meet as many of the men as possible, so he would know who he was doing business with when writing to them out on the line, told us how to help ourselves along at our office.

A vote of thanks was extended to Bro. W. I. Grush, agent Blencoe, Iowa, for past favors and endeavors while working with us as a brother, who was always up to date and always willing to do anything at any time for the good of the Order, and wishing him the best of success in conducting his farm, near Webster, Iowa. T. M. Noz.

Iowa and Minnesota Division—

The Southern Pacific recently granted its telegraphers an increase of 10 per cent over their former wage schedule, because the men were 90 per cent organized on the entire system. The Northern Pacific also recently granted its telegraphers an increase of $47,000 a year. The men on that system are also well organized and back their committee to the limit.

We can have just such conditions here if we will get in the nons. Some of them have the best jobs on this division and can well afford an up-to-date card, and we should see that they get it before the committee goes before the management next time.
Do not be simply a dues-paying member, but help us make this division 100 per cent strong by getting the nons, so they may help us bear the burden. There is no valid excuse why they should not join.

To have a real live membership is for everyone to have an up-to-date card and take pride in its possession.

We are going to have a write-up from this division every month, and inaugurate a campaign to secure the membership of every man on the division by keeping everlastingly at it. To do this we need the co-operation of every “live wire” on the division.

A few items of interest sent to our correspondent and a little missionary work will work wonders in this proposed reformation.

If you have an idea that you think will help the cause, send it along and it will receive prompt attention.

Considering the odds we have had to fight against here, we have done remarkably well, but there is still considerable room for improvement.

Remember our motto: “No card, no favors,” and practice it.

Are you with me? __________

Iowa & Minnesota Division Notes—

In the December, 1913, issue of The Telegrapher we referred to Bro. C. J. Beard as a non. This is an error. Bro. Beard was a member of Division 4 at that time, in good standing. If you have a grievance, don’t hesitate to write your local chairman.

Brothers, please hand this copy of the journal to the non within reach of you; tell him to read it; then ask him what he thinks about it. Tell him our golden rule is “No card, no favors,” and don’t forget that rule yourself.

The parcel post is making big cuts in agents’ salaries, because of the local express offices showing as much as 50 per cent decrease, putting the remuneration back to where it was ten years ago. Now is the time to hang closer together than ever before.

How many of you brothers would make an effort to attend a meeting at some point on this division and lend a hand? Talk it over; it might be arranged if you are interested. Would be pleased to have suggestions.

Bro. G. B. Small, third Fairmont, is now a benefit. Do not know the young lady’s name.

Bro. Dan Gutnecht is laying off, relieved by P. D. Shreve.

Minnesota Division—

Recent assignments: Telegraphers—First Tracy, Bro. W. H. Wilder; second, Sanborn, Bro. R. E. Graham; Lambertson, Bro. M. D. Larwarka; third Waseca, Bro. J. F. Pierce; Mankato Jct., A. M. Thompson; Sanborn, Bro. M. S. Daly; New Ulm, Bro. A. Sawyer; Winona dispatcher’s office, W. E. Skela. It is a pleasure to note that all but two of these are brothers. Their applications are in the local chairman’s office, and the funds will be forthcoming next payday. This will make this division nearly 100 per cent. Keep up the good work.

The meeting at Mankato, Saturday evening, Jan. 17, 1914, was one of the best we have ever held on this division. There were nearly thirty brothers present.

After the usual business had been transacted, including the election of local secretary and treasurer, and division correspondent for the ensuing year, the present incumbents, Bros. J. G. Johnson and D. J. Mahoney, were re-elected.

After a general talk it was decided to hold an open meeting at Mankato the third Sunday in February, and invite the officials of the Minnesota Division, and every telegrapher and agent to attend, and give all a chance to meet our officials within our own assembly room for a few pleasant hours.

After a few expressions of views by several of the brothers, Bro. Thomas requested Bro. D. O. Tenney, general secretary and treasurer of Division No. 4, to favor us with a few remarks. My pen fails in doing justice to words that flowed from the lips of this most worthy brother; only those who have had the pleasure of being within the sound of Bro. Tenney’s voice on such an occasion, can appreciate and understand my inability to describe the inspiring thoughts that were voiced by him at this meeting. His words of advice and encouragement were eagerly listened to, and everyone wended his way homeward glad that he was a member of our grand organization, and that he had had the opportunity to listen to the words of this worthy brother, which inspired us to greater efforts for the upbuilding of the O. R. T.

Bro. E. J. Thomas, our local chairman, responded, reviewing the work accomplished on this division for the past few months, which included the glad news that during his recent trip over the division he added the names of twenty-one telegraphers to the list of brothers, with a promise from nearly all the remaining nons to come in soon. This is a great showing, and Bro. Thomas feels that it now only remains for the brothers to bend greater effort on those few remaining out, to get all the desirables into line. The year 1913 closed with our ranks on this division in far better shape than it has been for some time.

After Bro. Thomas closed his remarks the meeting adjourned, all the brothers feeling that vast amount of good had been accomplished, and several expressed the hope that we would have more of these rousing meetings from now on. The next one will be the third Sunday in February, and it only needs the hearty co-operation of all the brothers on this division to make every meeting a grand success, and that is the way to further the upbuilding of the Order.

Bro. Thomas handled in a little write-up this month which should be read closely by all, and we have secured a promise from him to turn in a few lines from time to time to help us make a better write-up, and show his views of different matters.

W. F. Segur, from Winona, worked extra at Tracy, while first there was on bulletin, after Skeels went to Winona and until Bro. Wilder took charge.

Bro. F. W. Mosher, first Mankato, has taken a two months' leave of absence, trying out a position as bookkeeper for the Standard Oil Co., at that point. We wish him success. Bro. R. E. Graham, from Winona, relieved him.

Bro. G. W. Ware resumed work at St. Peter Jct. first after a two weeks' vacation.

Woodruff relieved Bro. Vandrawraka, at Walnut Grove, who took his regular assigned position, Lamberton second, relieving Tel. Knudson, who went on extra list.

I want to thank the many boys this month for their assistance. Keep up the good work from month to month.

Mankato Jct. third again opened by Mr. Lush, from Dodge Center, later relieved by Bro. Hunter, and he later by Mr. Thomason, from Lamberton. Tel. Lush relieved Bro. J. Westrom, agent Meriden, while he attended court at Wasca.

Bro. W. F. Swanson spent the holidays with relatives in North Dakota; relieved by Bro. Vandrawraka.

Bro. E. W. Judson, second Judson, was relieved while on his honeymoon by Tel. Knudson. Congratulations.

Dispatcher Kelly, of the Huron force, was in Mankato recently between trains exchanging greeting with the boys on this division.

Joe Daly, Springfield third, was laid up at his home in Sanborn for several days with boils on his face.

Bro. W. O. Tuberg, first Rochester, also on the lay-off list for a few days, relieved by A. E. Thompson.

Bro. G. W. Cotton, first Janesville, called to Winona for a couple of days the fore part of the month to write up the telegraphers' examination book; relieved by Bro. J. C. Hunter.

Bro. I. M. Doskoskie, second Minnesota City, was relieved a few days account of death in family, by W. A. Winters, a new man off the Milwaukee. We extend our sympathy to Bro. Doskoskie.

Telegraphers McKinstrey, on Sanborn second until position is taken by regular man, Bro. R. E. Graham.

Bro. Dingler, second Lewiston, on ten days' vacation, relieved by W. F. Segur, from Winona, later by Bro. Hunter.

State inspector of safety appliances recently looked over the interlocking plant at St. Peter Jct., and suggested some changes. We hope he recommends it being made an electric plant, so that the brothers there would have only to push a button to throw the switches, instead of using the Armstrong motor now in use there.

Bro. H. J. Yackel is back at Lewiston after a few days' vacation.

The addition of Bro. S. D. Warren, Zumbrota, Minn., to our membership, makes three members of the Minnesota Division unemployed or of the service, who still retain membership in the organization. Bro. Warren held membership in Division 76 while employed on the C., St. P., M. & O., and when he left the service, transferred to the Grand Division.

This division is now second among all other divisions on the system in point of new members secured, the actual number being 21. The Wisconsin Division leads with 24. This speaks volumes for Bro. Thomas, and he has our hearty congratulations for his good work. We have started this new year off with a rush, and the members should assist in every possible way. First pay your dues for the ensuing period, then make certain your neighbor does the same. The most necessary thing in any organization is keeping the finances in good shape.

Be sure and attend every meeting and induce all other brothers to do the same. Then keep after the non's with uniting energy. You can secure a list from your local or assistant local chairman any time.

Also perform your duties for your employer to the best of your ability. This will create a friendly feeling, and make the work of your local officers much easier and more pleasant, and be the means of making this the banner division on the entire system. Let the good work go on.

D. J. M.

Eastern Division:

Bro. Richardson was married on Christmas Day. Congratulations.

A new man at Platte River, who threw the switch in front of No. 139, derailed two engines and smashed a couple of cars, was relieved.

Mr. Casey, third Bennington, was off a few nights early in January to get married. We hope Mrs. Casey will make him get a card.

Dispatcher Hall, at Fremont, on vacation; Bro. Richardson, first "FY," going to second car man's job. Bro. Hall, from "RA" first "FY," relieved by Bro. Yount, from "QP."

Bro. Eustis was off a few days on account of his mother's death. We extend him our sympathy.

Mr. French, first Blair, off a few days with a sore throat, was relieved by Bro. O'Leath. Bro. Coburn, also off with a sore throat. I understand the conductors received instructions to take their own orders on the phone at North Yard, during Bro. Coburn's absence. This would be a nice thing for the Interstate Commerce Commission to find out about. Such things as conductors taking their own orders ought to be stopped. They have enough of their own work to attend to without looking after the operator's side of it, though it isn't their fault that they do this. If the members of the O. R. T. would report such cases to the Interstate Commerce Commission and push it through to the end, the practice would soon stop.

Bro. Breunaugh, after waiting almost a month, was finally relieved by Bro. O'Leath.
Bro. Anderson, back after a month of illness on account of the extremely cold weather, was compelled to lay off again indefinitely.

We should try to get in the few nons on this division. There is no good reason why they shouldn't come in, now that we have secured them an increase in pay. A card costs very little compared to the good it does. Other roads with 75 per cent to 95 per cent membership have a $75.00 minimum. The C. & N. W. boys can have the same if they will get together and do something. One man can't do it all.

We hope Bro. Gold can get the two nons at his station to come in, or teach them the proper way to do business.

Please send all your items to Irvington, Nebr., or call for them on the different wires from here, if you have any.

"FO."

Black Hills Division—

Mr. Pease resigned at Lusk, relieved by C. T. U. Bro. W. H. Ashbury. It is now Bros. Hambin, at Lusk; Poggehol, at Gordon; Taylor, at Valentine; Behrens, at Rapid City; Nelson, at Lost Springs; Schmitz, at Wood Lake; Schedt, at Hot Springs; Coffey, at Merriman; Logan, at Cody; Coburn, at Chadron, and Case, at Crawford. If we can keep that pace awhile the nons would be about "as scarce as hen's teeth."

Your local chairman made a trip over the line from Long Pine west and north, and called on nearly every member and non, giving the latter a chance to join the only substantial organization of telegraphers in existence, and encouraging those who have been hearing the brunt of the battle. The few delinquents realize that the O. R. T. on the C. & N. W. has helped the craft wonderfully, and will no doubt line up again, as we feel that $90.00 minimum is forthcoming, and that they will want to help secure it.

Bro. G. B. Dollard, from the Can. Pac., is relieving Mr. Carr at Rushville, who is in Wisconsin, either buying a farm or looking for a wife. Bro. Hite will see that he is again properly lined up when he returns in the old band wagon. Bro. Hite is on vacation now, relieved by Bro. McDonald, of Rushville, who relieved Bro. Ness while out over the line, and again while meetings were being held at Long Pine and Chadron.

W. S. McCoy, from the Frisco, relieving at Lusk.

Bro. J. A. Ross, at Long Pine, has returned from Chicago where he underwent an operation, so that now he can speak with his old-time musical clearness. Mr. Selden recently had an operation performed on his nose. Mr. Cook, who has been in Duluth and St. Paul several months, has returned to his assigned trick at Long Pine.

Mr. Jorgensen, at Newell, and Mr. Goff, at Hay Springs, told Bro. Ness that they expect to go to farming in the spring.

Mr. Palling, at Sturgis, doesn't think much of the organization, and Mr. Roley will join when we get ninety per cent of the working force into the Order. Don't forget our motto, "No card, no favors."

We are especially pleased to see Valentine solid again now, with Bro. Howe in good shape along with Taylor.

Mr. St. John is looking for another raise like he got last year without the expenditure of a single cent. You boys on the north line don't forget that.

Ex-Ibro. Doud, at Deadwood, can not afford to get an up-to-date, as he is going back to his homestead at Van Tassel in the spring.

Van Tassel station is advertised, and Fruitdale, on the Newell line, in that nice irrigated country, will soon be opened for bids. The station is new and has electric lights.

Eastern Division Chairman J. R. Hood brought some of his boys up from west of Norfolk to the meeting held in Long Pine on the night of the 21st, and there were 16 of the boys at the Chadron meeting the forenoon, afternoon and evening of the 22nd. We had a good session. Ibro. Troy explained what was necessary in order to prepare the way for the committee to convene in March, the principal thing being organization, for without that the committee has no support, and without support their argument has no force on the management in Chicago.

Bro. Troy had been present at meetings on nearly every division on the system, and as a result of that campaign on his part, as well as the membership campaign on the part of the local chairmen, assisted by the loyal membership, the system is getting financially in good shape again. All the boys at the meetings went away with a better idea of the working conditions in general and with more enthusiasm for the Order.

Mr. Leppla and Mr. Sly were invited to one of the Chadron sessions, and they gave us some very good, fatherly advice, which was appreciated by the members; Bro. Troy responding kindly to their suggestions, which created a very kindly feeling towards the management. One delinquent, who complained that he had not seen Ibro. Troy on this division but once or twice in several years, was given a special invitation to come to Chadron and get better acquainted with our genial general chairman, but he failed to show up.

Bro. Ness was royally treated by all the men on his last trip over the line. On account of the long division and the train service, it is almost impossible to hold frequent meetings, and the boys get lonesome for some information of how the work is progressing.

Bro. M. D. Smith, of Wayside, recently returned from an extended trip to New York.

Bro. Penkoski and Bro. Nye have traded Oelrichs and Fairburn. Nye got nearer his homestead at the former place, and Penkoski nearer a certain young lady who resides in Fairburn.

Don't fail to send your local chairman a copy of your bid when you ask for anything on bulletin.

Saxton, at Merriman, and Veatch, at Hay Springs, have promised that they will soon be with us.

Div. Cor.
Dakota Division—

A rousing meeting was held recently at Iroquois, Bro. Troy giving the boys a good "spiel" on what was expected of each and every one. After the meeting a smoker party was held. The following brothers were present: Wheeler, Robinson, Troy, Anderson, Long, Harrison, Carpenter, Harrington, Hauskey, Rohelfie and Pfefferle.

If you lay off, notify who is relieving you, why you are laying off, whether you are going away, where and how long you expect to stay. The members on the east and south ends never find out what is going on the horn and west end. In the three months I have been at this station I have failed to receive any assistance outside of this office.

Bro. H. Helwik, now at Mapleton, Iowa, on the "Milwaukee," is married and sends his "73" to the brothers.

Mr. Galles, formerly on this division, is now substitute clerk in Minneapolis post office.

I appealed to you to give Local Chairman P. E. Long your assistance, in order that we may be able, by working together, to bring this division to the front. The trips made over different parts of the division show that all are willing to give their assistance in our movement for the betterment of the division. So let us work together and gather in the non-members, and soon we will reap as we have sown. Local Chairman Long, while out organizing, received quite a few applications, with the promise of several more for next pay day. Present conditions are favorable for the building up of Dakota Division, so that we can demand better working conditions and a higher standard of wages. Show your fellow-workman his mistake in holding back his application, and invite him to help us make this a banner division. Let's all try to secure at least one application and see how soon the desired results will be obtained.

A. H. Larson, agent Arco; Harry Griffith, agent Gettysburg; E. M. Blufat, agent Hetland; C. A. Champ, operator Sioux Valley Jct., and E. P. Menefee, agent Ludden, are now the proud possessors of the little button and can now be called brothers. We welcome them into our ranks.

H. D. Hatfield, acting agent Mission Hill, is now relieving H. L. Paul, agent Seneca.

Bro. J. T. Lane, second Highmore, relieved P. Estee at Canistota, who relieved J. Stenniger at Parker. C. Swartz, former agent Canistota, was a recent Sioux City and Iroquois visitor.

W. L. Boughner, agent Salem, spent Christmas with his folks at Watertown.

Bro. P. E. Long, second Iroquois, off three weeks organizing, was relieved by ex-Bro. Andy Titus, relieved at Pierre by Jack Welsh. On the return of Bro. Long he relieved the scribe three days while doing Christmas shopping at New Ulm, Minn., and then relieved Jack Welsh at Pierre, who relieved the chief there.

Bro. J. T. Lane, agent Canistota, spent Christmas with his father, Bro. J. D. Lane, agent Mansfield.

Bro. E. W. Carpenter, agent Cavour, was a recent Huron visitor.

Centerville seems a hard place for floaters. There were two there during Mr. Palmer's vacation.

Mr. Autes, agent Bruce, is on a trip to the coast. Bro. F. L. Porter, second Brookings, was relieved by J. H. Chapman, W. U. Chicago, later resigned.

A. P. Coyer, second Cavour, resigned, relieved by W. W. Dier, Clover Leaf, who worked about three weeks, but was unable to stand prosperity, and Bro. Carpenter is now without an operator.

A. P. Wichmer, W. U. Chicago, relieved Mrs. H. L. Mertens, second Balaton, resigned. J. B. Fletcher, third DeSmet, is now at Brookings. The depot at Balaton burned to the ground Christmas Day, Bro. and Mrs. Mertens losing all their household goods. We extend our heartfelt sympathy.

The scribe has been making hurried trips to Cavour.

F. F. McCauley, assistant superintendent Winona, relieved by W. F. Carroll, traveling engineer on Minnesota Division. Lend him all assistance possible.

Bro. Kendall, at Brookings, is trying hard to get relief so he can go to the coast.

Bro. H. R. Hauskey, second Salem, was a recent Huron and Lake Preston visitor. W. Seaton and Dispatcher Kelly were recent Iroquois visitors.

General Chairman Troy was recently at Huron and Iroquois on business pertaining to the Order.

Don't wonder why a black hen lays a white egg; get the egg. This is an old proverb. Don't sit and ponder why the non-working with or near you does not carry an up-to-date. Get the non.

Bro. E. H. Rolfs, first Salem, spent Sunday at Hurley.

J. E. Bemis is now at Mission Hill.

Dispatcher C. H. Kelley, taking trips to Rochester owing to the illness of his wife, was relieved by J. R. Holmes, with Harry Jones on south and west end.

W. L. Boughner, agent Salem, back from a week's visit at his home in Watertown, says he will be with us soon.

Former Bro. H. A. W. Graham, agent Carthage, off two weeks visiting relatives in Michigan, relieved by C. F. Schwartz, who later went to Wolsey, relieving Bro. William Wilson, taking a much-needed rest in California.

Bro. R. A. Pfefferle is making hurried steps to Cavour weekly.

O. A. Titus went to Brookings second, relieving Bro. F. L. Porter, who went to Wisconsin for his health. Later Titus, who was relieved by J. C. Jackson, second "DX" (abolished), relieved Bro. L. J. Kendall, going to the coast for a few months.

Bro. H. R. Hauskey, second Salem, was a recent visitor at Lake Preston.

Thanks to Bros. Anderson, McDearmon, Hauskey and Rohffs for items sent in.

The meeting held at Huron, S. D., January 18th, in the Knights of Columbus Hall, was very well attended by the P. R. C. & N. W. boys.

Superintendent Dickinson, Dakota Division, and C. E. Sainesbury, C. T. D., addressed the meeting, which was greatly appreciated. Bro. R. A. Pfefferle was appointed secretary for this meeting. Several cases of overtime, etc., were discussed.

A $5 collection was taken up and forwarded to ex-Bro. Hunter, of Nevada.

Votes of thanks were extended to Mr. Dickinson, Mr. Sainesbury and the Commercial Club of Huron in their efforts to make our meeting a success. The most important work of each member is to keep up his dues, pay them promptly, keep after the nons so that the number will grow less each month and send in the news. It pays to advertise, and that is what we on the Dakota Division are trying hard to do. I trust that the four who responded this month will be joined by twelve next month, and so on until we get a line from everyone on the entire division.

The winter is nearly gone and nothing in severity compared with the last two or three years, and no occasion to get out the rotary snow plow or the usual mix-up of trains. When your local chairman calls a meeting, come to it. We need your help and encouragement. Meetings will be held in a short time at different points on the division. As many brothers as possible should attend these meetings and put their shoulders to the wheel, so that the Dakota Division will rapidly approach the 100 per cent mark.

R. A. PFEFFERLE, Local Scribe.

P. R. C. & N. W. Division—

Bro. Vick, of Quinn, has returned from his vacation.

Bros. Schleckau, of Philip; Higbee, of Powell; Hunter, of Wasta; Joe, of Wall, and Noe, of Owanka, attended the meeting at Huron, January 18th. Was sorry there were not more of the Dakota and Minnesota Division boys there, for we had a very good meeting.

Supt. Dickinson, of the Dakota Division, gave us a good talk that all the boys should have heard. Mr. Sainesbury, chief of Dakota Division, also gave a good talk and Bro. Thomas, of the Minnesota Division, also addressed us. The Commercial Club sent us several boxes of good cigars.

We took up a collection of $5.00 for Bro. Hunter, who was reported in dire straits out in California.

Bro. Young was relieved while sick with yellow jaundice by Bro. Curran, who has a claim north of Wasta.

It will soon be Bro. Mower, at Cottonwood, Bro. Mower at Nowlin and Bro. Casselman at Underwood. We will soon be 100 per cent. Our local chairman is doing some good work.

Bro. Edwards, of Capa, has been to Minnesota recently to see his father, who is very sick. We all hope for his speedy recovery.

Bro. Zoller, Edwards, Ark., writes that the roses are all in bloom and the weather very fine there, but we don't have to go outside of Dakota to find the latter.

Louisville Division—

I have been appointed correspondent for this division and with the assistance of the brothers will try and send in a write-up every month.

Bro. Jim White, agent Mossville, who was recently married there, was relieved on his honeymoon by Bro. J. W. Murry, relief agent. Congratulations.

Bro. D. A. Davis relieved Mr. Ferrell, cashier Philadelphia, resigned, and gone to Laurel. Bro. Callehan also went to Philadelphia pending bulletin.

Bro. H. C. Wilson, chief clerk Murton, was sick several weeks, relieved by Bro. W. W. Watts, relieved on third there by Bro. C. B. Hottler. Bro. G. R. Smith, second Murton, was off several days hunting large game, relieved by Bro. A. L. Rayborn, who also relieved Bro. W. W. Roberts, of Stratton, while he spent several days at home.

There are only a few nons on this division, brothers; let's get them in and make it solid. Pay up your dues, get your new card and keep the work going on.

We have the best set of dispatchers in the South. All of you get in right and make wire working easy.

Let's try and have a write-up each month.

The meeting at Cumberland December 13th was well attended, about twenty members being present. Business that had been hanging fire for some time was brought before the meeting and disposed of. The oratory was not the most eloquent, but good common-sense talks were heard from different ones, and the writer enjoyed being present, only did not appreciate holding an all-night session, but it was good to be there.

Bro. H. W. McCubbin, agent Roslyn, was off a few days, relieved by W. A. Lindsay. Bro. Tritch, operator and agent "OW," on fifteen days' vacation, relieved by Bro. Line, who also relieved Bro. Kenner, agent Emmetsburg Junction, for fifteen days' vacation.

Bro. Arnsparger, the gay old bird from "G," has been making frequent trips to Frederick for some time.

Bro. Lawrence, first "MC," was on a ten days' vacation sightseeing in Washington, D. C., and Bro. Valentine, agent Keymar, on a fifteen days' outing, relieved by Mr. Otto.

Brothers, let us start the new year right by all endeavoring to do right one unto another, with good-will toward men; let brotherly love be more manifest, and live as one large, happy family. The good old year just past may not have been to us as fruitful as desired from an organization viewpoint, but as a whole we should be truly thankful for the many blessings enjoyed from the Giver of all good and should appreciate the fact that we are privileged to be united through bonds of fraternity, and should be mindful of the fact that it is to our mutual interest and individual advantage to remain united and do our utmost to enlarge our organization, and reach out for the desirable non."Boost" instead of "kneck"; praise your works instead of denouncing, for there are plenty of "knackers" on the outside, and who, if handled in the right manner, will likely become our greatest advocates of the cause we cherish. Let all hands join together in one staunch, solid body and when difficulties arise that are truly worthy of adjustment we have the consolation of knowing we are not alone fighting for right, but have a medium wherewith to be represented and our desires and troubles brought to the attention of our employers collectively, and not be compelled to go it single-handed. It is not in good form nor a wise policy to be continually nagging and trying to have some (ofttimes trivial feature) brought up for adjustment, when upon investigation it is really no case. If we do this, it surely will have a tendency to belittle our estimation and hinder our success in dealing with a just and true grievance. Brothers, let us be conservative in every sense, be sure we have been unjustly dealt with through improper action of some official before complaining, and then if a just case be sure to present it in its true light and chances are good-for a satisfactory settlement.

You well know under what conditions we would be working today were it not for the fact that we are organized, not only on our system, but throughout the country. It is because of our great influence collectively being brought to bear upon our representatives in our legislative bodies that we are privileged to enjoy the present vastly improved conditions. Because a committee is not always successful in adjusting grievances to the entire satisfaction of all interested, is not sufficient cause for a few to cry out that we are making no effort in their behalf. Committeemen on boards of adjustment are only human and can not be victorious in every particular.

Let us build in place of tearing down and uphold instead of denounce. Anyone can criticize; encouragement is helpful. Help to make 1914 the banner year. Be optimistic and tender praise wherever deserved. lend your hearty, loyal support in every way, and especially by paying dues promptly and urging those around and about to do likewise. Pursue such a course and success will crown our efforts.

I appreciate the items from those brothers tendering same and heartily thank you.

Eastern and Middle Divisions--

There has been some retracement here and there on the line. Boys, let's do our best so that every lick counts as gain for the company's property and continue our fairly high standard of efficiency. Our hearty interest in the service and good judgment in the performance of our duties will mean for a higher rate of pay and better chances for earlier negotiations.

Am very sorry to note that Bro. J. M. Kraut is confined in the hospital with an ulcerated limb, but trust he may soon recover. "Fatty" Myers is relieving him.

Bro. C. M. Flickinger contemplates a trip up York State and the great metropolis.
THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER.

Bro. P. M. Sterner, third Oldtown, is visiting relatives and friends in and around Hanover, Pa.

Bro. Kalkman was off for about ten days, relieved by C. C. Hamm.

Bro. Harry Ruch has purchased a building lot on Oakland avenue, expects to build a dwelling thereon and is considering the purchase of an Overland machine, then the girl of his ideal he will make happy.

Bro. Munson bid in second "YD." The signing up of Mr. Williard the first of the new year makes "SA," a new position just created, already solid.

Let's all bear in our minds our motto, "No card, no favors." Bro. Kibler should be able to convert our old friend "KN." He is a good fellow whom we would like to have with us, and hope Bro. Renner will see that the young man signing "GC" gets an up-to-date card.

Positioned landed on bid: Bros. E. M. Loose to second "K"; H. E. Danner, to second "MC"; R. E. Tritch to agency "RN" and C. R. Arnsparger to second "FD," displacing Mr. Ruth temporarily, and there are also a few other changes. Bro. Young an 1 Arnsparger, so suddenly displaced by extra dispatchers in "G" office, the committee were successful in having them returned to their former position.

I hope the few who have not paid dues for the current term will do so at once. Brothers, by putting off this important matter you may sometimes be led to spend foolishly the money you should pay your dues with and retain your membership. Pay them promptly and urge others to do likewise and assist us to gain members. Thus you cause the organization to become that much stronger and much more effective and our efforts to obtain more improved conditions and have agreements sooner and more quickly established. This seeming indifference in not paying dues more promptly and inactivity in securing new recruits is a great drawback. It is utterly impossible for a committee to accomplish much, if anything, under such adverse conditions with a handful of followers; and it's absolutely necessary that we become more solidly united if we hope to be effective and successful. Brothers, it's as much your obligation to get others to join as it is obligatory on the part of the officers on a division to do so, and I am satisfied if the boys will display greater activity, become more zealous, more willing and determined that we will soon notice a great change in a pleasing condition vastly different in so far as we are numerically concerned.

As we grow in number we likewise grow in strength and effectiveness, therefore be solicitous. When you joined, your willingness was signified to help all in your power; now do not violate your solemn promise, but go after the nons, and consider it as needful to do so as you consider it necessary to partake of your daily food, for we must eat to live and we must also strive to gain additions to our number if we wish to live effectually and successfully as an organization.

There is no particular argument to advance to induce a non to join, simply get him to thinking, after which comes conviction, when conversion happily follows. Tell him we have a scheduled road and that our schedule is lived up to as near as any of the other organizations' rules are lived up to, and that since becoming effectively organized we obtained three different schedules and two nice increases in pay inside of three years; that the committee has adjusted differences with the company's officials for our members to the satisfaction of all concerned, and will continue on these lines and secure more increases in pay by joining and helping us to present a solid front when we go up to obtain such conditions.

There are a lot more good things within the realms of the grand old O. R. T. that are beyond question, convincing to such as are not blind to their own convictions and interests. Get the spirit, renew your zeal and inspiration, for we first need become reconverted ourselves before we can expect to gain converts. Go get them.

I thank Bro. Lawrence for his help in this write-up, and suggest that others exemplify his good example and don't forget your dues. Come again, brother.

Western Division.—

Bro. Coffman, second "S" W. Va. Jct., off few days Christmas, was relieved by Bro. Determan, second Green, relieved by Bro. Freeman, from the C. R. R. of N. J., who is an old hand and always finds it good business to carry an up to date.

Bro. Dubbs, third Rawlings, off several days to visit home folks in Pennsylvania, was relieved by Mr. Moore, from the Cumberland Division of the B. & O., too capable a man to be on the outside. Later Mr. Moore relieved Bro. Determan, second Green, a few days, who was so unfortunate as to cut his right hand.

R. E. Fortney, soon to be "brother," second Colman, bid in third Ohio Pyle.

Bro. Rafferty, second Ohio Pyle, was greeting and renewing friends at Confluence recently, and Blair, agent Ohio Pyle, did likewise at Cumierland.

Many thanks to Bro. Adams for assisting with this write-up. Other brothers having any notes, send them over not later than the 18th of the month, and I'll do the rest.

Mr. Sweitzer, second Deal, can soon be called "brother."

We are pleased to note business is picking up on this end. Line 'em up, brothers; now is our chance to go after that promised increase, etc.

Bro. Herman, third Greenwood, visited points in Ohio Pyle recently.

Pay your dues promptly, as better things are expected in the near future.

Bro. Hore relieved Bro. Lynch, second Meyersdale, who was acting agent there during Bro. Gill's absence.

Joint Track Division—

Everything is lovely on this division; the boys are all well pleased with the new schedule and doing their best to live up to it, and improve the service as much as possible.

Every man should make it a duty to save every cent he can for the company, and increase the revenue as much as possible and show his appreciation for the favors extended us by the management and the way they are living up to the contract. The dispatchers ‘say calls are answered more promptly and a general change for the better in the telegraph service on this division has taken place since November 1st, so we hope the management can see the good of a contract between it and the employees, and that they will be ready to revise our contract when the committee goes up again.

Bro. Pearce, agent at Roanoke, has returned after a month’s vacation, during which time he crossed the “matrimonial seas.” We all wish for Bro. Pearce and his better half all the prosperity that goes with a married life.

D. L. Whisenhunt sent his application in this month, making W. O. solid.

There are still a few boys on the division reaping the benefit of our contract, are not lined up yet, who are gladly taking the overtime and other good features we got for them. We should now see that they line up and help us to get the protection every man should have in the railway business.

Bro. J. H. Vittow has returned to “FD,” Mr. Weems going back to “BN.”

Bro. J. M. Robbins bid in second S. W. Crossing, Bro. Burford resigning to go to farming. We hope he will still carry an up to date.

Bro. F. A. Kruger, Autrey, spent a few days at Roanoke recently mixing with the fair sex and having a general good time.

Our general secretary and treasurer is receiving new applications almost daily, his report for January 21st showing eight new members. This looks like the boys are taking an interest in the matter, and we hope that the good work will continue.

Let us all do everything possible to show the management the good of organization, by handling business promptly, making prompt settlement of all claims, being polite to the patrons, looking after every little detail about the station that will save and cut down expenses, and when we meet the officials again for a revision they will not have to be told what has happened, but can tell the committee what a great improvement among our class of employees has been made, and that they are willing to help us out with a general revision of contract. — Div. Con., Cert. 21.

Eastern Division—

It is gratifying to note the spirit of cooperation that exists on this division and elsewhere on the system. It wins; it pays.

We are surely making progress, and the prospects are bright for effective organization this year. Everybody is on the job, eager to “deliver the goods,” not only for the O. R. T., but for the company also.

Remember this is the last month for dues. Do not fail to pay them in time.

In filing applications for vacancies be sure to make them out in duplicate and forward a copy to me for record, thus avoiding confusion.

I am going to ask the membership on this division, as a favor, to please save your back numbers of The Telegrapher and send them to your neighbor. There is many an “eye-opener” in the fraternal columns from all parts of the country. I would also appreciate a few volunteers for division correspondent. You understand Bro. Montague, assistant local chairman, is only acting as division correspondent pro tem.

H. H. Horst, L. C.

We are starting 1914 with renewed energy, and a resolve to give good service, as we are looking forward to an improved schedule. Each member on his respective division must realize that it is his duty to secure every non possible, bearing in mind that you, as a member, help to constitute the backbone of the organization. Your committee, without your assistance, can accomplish nothing, but with your support, strength and membership, it will be encouraged to go before the management for a revision of our schedule, and secure results by which all will be benefited.

To be a good member you must assume your part of the burden, as strength is the success of all organizations; we must therefore endeavor to get in the nons.

Good results have been realized during the short duration of our contract. We are now starting on the third month, and the past excuses of the nons and reasons given for not joining have been exhausted; so boys, try them again, and never let up until you get them or they quite the road. Even then we can have their records follow them.

Bro. Finley, “FC” Ft. Worth, off 15 days visiting relatives in Naples, Tex., was relieved by Ex-Bro. C. V. Rhodes, from Panama, who later relieved Bro. J. A. Butler, third Wills Point, and will soon be with us. He states that the completion of the canal caused quite a number of telegraphers to be laid off.

Bro. J. F. Bales, from the Indiana Division of the I. C., who went to the freight wreck west of Cobbs, later relieved A. C. Fitzgerald, second Torney, and C. P. Cole, agent Hawkins, for Christmas holidays, relieved by B. F. Van DeMark, who later relieved Bro. J. A. McJimsey, at Grand Saline, on account of sickness. We are glad to have Bro. Bales in our midst, as his heart is in the right place.

Bro. B. B. Campbell, third Hallville, was relieved by Bro. Carnick, from the S. A. & A. P.

E. Grienfeldt, agent Forney, off several months on account of poor health, was relieved by Mr. Buchanan, cashier, from Longview, relieved owing to the serious illness of his father in Mississippi, by E. O. Bonner, from Longview.
Mr. Downs, third Forney, is expecting soon to be with us.

L. G. Scott, from the Mo. Pac., succeeded R. E. Williams, auditor, assigned to other duties. Other changes are rumored, which arouses a feeling of speculation.

Our write-up in the January journal was a very good start. Let's keep it up. Little occurrences which may seem of no interest to us will look good to the other fellows, and it all depends on you whether we are to have a good write-up each month or not. It is our only method of getting closer together, and learning of the happenings on other divisions of the system. Send me your items as promptly as they occur each month, and should they not appear in the current month's issue they will be in the next one.

The seniority list of this division is out, which excludes the agents. Likely another one covering the agents will be out in the near future.

Bro. S. R. Walton, agent and operator, Bivins, while visiting relatives in Wellspoint, was relieved by Bro. W. F. Roberts.

Eagle Ford is solid. Bro. Cherry, from the C. M. & St. P., relieving P. Gavin on third, who is visiting relatives in Alabama. The latter will be up to date again in the near future.

Percy Smith was off ten days recently on account of sickness; relief unknown.

G. B. Montague,
Acting Div. Cor.

Rio Grande Division—

Bro. L. P. Trimble, first Strawn, was relieved a few days by Bro. Morgan, extra.

Bro. R. Butler, Mingus, was relieved for a few days by Bro. J. R. McMurry.

Bro. W. M. Tucker, agent Barstow, transferred to Mingus, relieving Former Agent Peck; Tucker relieved by R. M. Barkley, third at Cisco, who was relieved by Extra Morgan. Div. Cor.

B. R. & P. Ry.

Buffalo Division—

Recently the changes on this division have come so rapidly that it is almost impossible to keep track of them. On account of slack business offices closed in December were: Second and third Ellicottville, and West Falls; third Glenwood, and Kellogg days, and the operator taken off at Orchard Park, leaving the agent there to do his own telegraphing. This close-up has caused such a liberal amount of bumping that none of us feel quite secure, regardless of seniority.

Sister R. M. Button, formerly second West Falls, is awaiting some opening of offices, which it is reported will be done at an early date, as business has picked up and is rather above normal for this time of the year.

A night clerk has been put on at Ellicottville; Mr. Fenton doing the twelve-hour day stunt. Bro. Potter, formerly at that point, going to the message wire, third "DI" East Salamanca.

J. W. Occoner, formerly second Ellicottville, will be at Great Valley until the completion of the new bridge just south of that point, when it is understood second and third there will be closed. Great Valley agency is bid for. Hope we are not losing Bro. Richards, as Lee is a live one whom we all would like to have stay with us.

Bro. Keiser is now agent at Ashford, and we are glad he likes it there. The new interlocking plant at Ashford has been completed, with Bros. Wooden, Helt and McGurn on first, second and third respectively, keeping trains moving through the yards.

Brothers, don't forget that this is the month to get a nice, clean, bright, new union card of the proper color. Don't put it off and get delinquent at this time of the year. You know the spring is the time the committee generally goes before the management. Let's all stay in line, and try to get one new member apiece, or as near that as there are nons on our division, so that the committee will feel that it has the proper backing. Even if you have to dig up the old pipe and cut out a few Havanas, be sure that you have the new card. The satisfaction of having one is worth twice the price. If you are a beginner, get one and see for yourself; you will always feel like an outcast without one when you go out with the boys. Many times it will get you little favors, among not only members of our own organization, but among others.

Illinois Central R. R.

Louisiana Division—

Our last meeting at Hammond, January 10th, was a hummer; a large crowd was present, and plenty of enthusiasm. The way the boys turn out at our meetings is gratifying, and the interest manifested is more than gratifying. After all business had been transacted Local Chairman Miller announced that under the heading of "for the good of the Order" speeches were in order, and admonished the orators to "go to it." Bro. Jawn Youngblood took the floor and announced that there was only one real orator at the meeting, and forthwith introduced Bro. Jack Maulburn, who began his speech by saying: "It is my painful duty, etc., etc." as if some dear friend had suddenly died, and to the surprise of the local chairman, presented him a fine leather hand bag. Bro. Miller was visibly affected by this manifestation of esteem, and as a reward for faithful service promised to continue the good work to the best of his ability. After adjournment all repaired to a restaurant, where a nice repast was awaiting the inner man.
On Sunday night, January 11th, a meeting was held at Jackson, Miss., and was well attended. We were treated to a pleasant surprise by having General Chairman Mulhall with us, who gave us one of his interesting talks along the line of what has been accomplished and what would be accomplished in the future, if everybody would keep their shoulder to the wheel and push. One of the most important features of the meeting was that of creating a legislative board to present bills and look after their passage through the present legislature in the State of Mississippi. The board is composed of Bros. Miller, Head and McGowen; Bro. Miller was elected chairman, and instructed to have a bonding bill and a bill to prohibit corporations from intimidating and discharging employees from joining or belonging to labor unions. State Senator Norwood has introduced these bills for us in the Senate, and both bills have passed the Senate and are now before the committee on railroads and corporations in the House. This committee will report the bills favorably on January 27th, and will no doubt become laws long before this is read by the membership. Nothing succeeds like success; let us take courage and go forward like true American citizens.

We regret to report that Bro. Edward I. Bordages, "BO," who has worked the Chicago wire in "FD" office so long, has been obliged to request an extended leave of absence on account of ill health, which has been granted, and he has left for El Paso, Tex. Our best wishes go with him.

Senor Martin and Grandma Poley have formed a partnership at Nogan, Miss., and gone into the poultry business, with ample capital for all purposes, but not one cent for the O. R. T. We feel sorry for the poor chickens.

Our genial general secretary and treasurer, Bro. Shannon, paid a flying visit to Canton, Miss., recently, but both Gant and Holliday reported sick when they heard "Bob" was in town, and Sister Furlow had to double.

The new position created at Canton was assigned to Sister M. R. Addison, who was glad to get away from second Yazoo City to nice hours at "XX."

Second at Harahan Jct., La., was assigned to Mr. E. F. Drummy, who belongs to the "Hard Luck Club."

Second at Yazoo City assigned to Bro. O. L. Brumfield, which leaves the Natalbany, La., agency on bulletin with no takers.

Bro. G. A. Bierley, alias "Safety always first," has resigned, and fourth Jackson, Miss., is on bulletin.

A. J. Drane, agent Wesson, has joined the "Hard Luck Club," also Jno. Boudousque, agent Flora. They lay it on the parcel post. The sure way of having more and continued hard luck is to join the "down and out" crowd. A word to the wise is sufficient. Div. Cor.

Mississippi Division—

Had to depend entirely on our local chairman this month for items and changes in line-up.

We are sorry to learn that Bro. White, of Ackerman, is now in the hospital at Chicago, undergoing treatment and possibly another operation on account of stomach trouble, but hope he will return at the expiration of his ninety-day leave of absence, and that his cure will be permanent. He is being relieved by Bro. C. Y. Gooldsby, a new man from the Frisco.

Bro. Duke, of Scobey, relieved by Bro. Steadman; Bro. Gulo, of Grenada, and Bro. Knight, of Abbeville, by Bro. L. D. Gooldsby (also from the Frisco) for a few days on account of sickness.

Bro. J. N. Rhew, Coldwater, just returned from a fifteen-day vacation, being relieved by Bro. Edwards. Bro. Kirkwood, Oxford, is on thirty days leave, relieved by Mr. Ennis. Bro. H. B. Caldwell, agent Vaiden, is being relieved for a few days by the night "owl," his brother, also our Bro. W. S. Caldwell.

Bro. Crow, of Durant, who bid in Goodman, took a few days' recreation before being checked in. All "Crows" are wise.

Mr. Talbert, agent Winona, was called to New York for a few days on account of the illness of his brother, Bro. Edwards, our efficient relief agent, relieving.

Bro. Frigmore, of Pope, Miss., on ninety-days' leave; agency bid in by Bro. Graves, who later bid in first Aberdeen Jct., putting Pope on bulletin again.

Bro. Buford, after being at Hernando for several months, bid in Sallis agency, a much smaller station and work much lighter. Bro. May gave up Sallis for second Ackerman. Bro. Holley also gave up Brilliant recently, and is now on extra board, not liking the surroundings there. Bro. Gruner, another Frisco man, has been assigned that place regularly.

Bro. Kelly, a young man in the service, for several months at the junction, bid in Hernando agency, and will handle "DO" all right when he catches on.

Bro. Jarnagin, for the past eight years agent at Goodman, has bid in Starkville agency, a much heavier and better-paying position.

Oakland agency on bulletin thirty days, no applicants, and Bro. Calloway is unable to get away. This is a nice little town and pays above the average.

Bolivar nights and Durant third on bulletin.

Come on, boys, and give us a "tip" from your district next month and have a good write-up.
Our regular monthly meeting will be held at Holly Springs on Sunday night, the 8th. CERT. 326.

Tennessee Division—

Business has been good on this division for many months, and prospects are that it will be good for the coming spring and summer. Consequently, all who have any seniority are working, and prospects are bright for continuous employment. The seniority list just received from our general secretary and treasurer shows that we are about 90 per cent strong on this division; still we should try to improve on it. There are still a few who are eligible for membership, and the members are urged to make an individual effort to get all the new ones possible, either by transfer or otherwise, and see if we can not beat the year just closed, which was a record breaker in good things generally for our Order. There are a few who allow themselves to become delinquent from time to time, thereby causing a great deal of corresponding both by the general secretary and treasurer and by the local chairman. Due is a just debt we owe the organization, and should be paid promptly, like any other obligation. Some members are entirely too unconcerned about our Order and consequently the welfare of themselves and families. Little frivolous matters, an oversight or carelessness sometimes cause us to become delinquent. This is a wrong spirit, and we should all try to remedy it by keeping in good standing at all times.

The agents and operators are not receiving the compensation they should for the duties they perform, and the only way to remedy this is to keep organized, back your committee in its undertakings to a man, do less kicking, get together on everything for the betterment of our organization, and good results will surely follow. CERT. 332.

Iowa Division—

Bro. A. H. Stivers, at Alta, who requested six month's leave, and with Bro. Sherill purchased a music store at Boise, Idaho, sold their music stock, and Bro. Stivers has withdrawn his request for leave until a later date.

Bro. Rosa Stivers, Correctionville, has requested six months' leave, and will go on his farm near Wapato in March. His station is bulletin.

Instructions were issued recently wherein we are now compelled to remain on duty Sunday to send the a. m. car report. It has not been the practice to send this report on Sunday heretofore. Every member should take this matter up with the local chairman, as our schedule provides we will be excused from as much Sunday work as possible.

Bro. Foster, Williams, spent ten days in Florida looking over his land in those parts. Bro. Weaver relieving.

Bro. Olsen, Hills, unfortunately cut his right hand on a rusty nail and has been laid up for ten days. Mr. Meyers, clerk from Rock Rapids, relieving. Bro. Olsen checked in at Sioux Falls as operator and ticket clerk temporarily, Bro. Eller out of service.

Meeting called for the 24th by Bro. Hill, at Ft. Dodge, and we hope to report a large attendance. There will be much business to transact, and we are sure all who can will attend.

Notes were slow in reaching the division correspondent this month. We hope to give a better write-up next time. Unless we receive the items it will be slim. CERT. 998.

Minnesota Division—

We are going to try to have a write-up each month hereafter. If the brothers will send a few notes to Bro. Wells, he will turn them over to me to send in to Bro. Quick.

Bro. L. A. Hintz, first Manchester, on holiday vacation, was relieved by Bro. Estler, of second, relieved by an extra from the Pennsylvania.

Bro. T. J. Russell promoted to trick dispatcher, vice Dispatcher C. H. Harris, who passed away very suddenly.

Brothers, the new seniority lists are now out. Any brother failing to get one, write Bro. J. H. Wells.

Brothers, let us secure at least one non, get him lined up soon as possible, and not leave all the work for the local chairman, Bro. Wells.

I wish to thank Bros. Glenn and McKelvie, Waterloo, for their notes, and hope they will keep up the good work.

—SCRIBB—

Wisconsin Division—

Our monthly meetings which are held on the third Friday of each month have been poorly attended for some time. It is hoped the members will from now on make an effort to attend. Entirely too many are troubled with “stay-at-homeitis” when they could just as well come as not. Each month finds the same old ten or twelve present, with now and then a strange face or two. The January meeting had present a grand total of twelve. This is very discouraging to such brothers as Yoder, of Madison, or Chandler, of Parkwvay, who make a trip of 175 to 200 miles to attend a meeting and when they get there find plenty of members living within a very few miles, in fact, some living right in Freeport, who make no effort to turn out. February is election of officers; let all come that possibly can do so.

Bro. Savage, of Blanchardville, has resigned to accept a better position in other lines.

Mr. Blum bid in Burlington agency, and the vacancy at Munger caused by this move was awarded to Bro. French, from Parkwvay, which was bid in by Bro. Hamwitz; second Parkwvay was bid in by Bro. Shipper and Heyworth nights by Bro. Helbig.

Sister Mead, of Dixon, on vacation, was relieved by Bro. Devaney, of Bloomington, and he on extra list by Bro. Johnson.

We are sorry to hear that Bro. Wheelless, of Rockford, was compelled to undergo an operation at Mercy Hospital. Latest reports say he is improving nicely; relieved by Bro. Lisle, and he by Bro. Eiser.

Mr. Harrington, second Rockford, was discharged for being continually late, thus causing several violations of the hours of service law for which the company is facing suit. According to newspaper reports there has been suit entered against the company on seven different counts for violating the federal law. Bro. Glaser, a newcomer here, has Mr. Harrington’s former position, pending bulletin.

An additional position created at East Junction is now pending bulletin. This will again make East Junction a three-man, eight-hour office. Bro. Kiester is on first, second under bulletin and Bro. Huisinga on third.

Bro. Graham, of Wapella, has resigned, relieved by Bro. Miller, pending bulletin.

Bro. Cox, of “K” office, is dispatching on the south end and Bro. Sweeney, also of “K,” on the east end, both doing it like old heads. We wish them success. The chief dispatcher will not be compelled to leave this division to find all the material necessary to make all the dispatchers he will require. Bro. Youngblood is in “K” office while the above-named brothers are breaking in on their new duties.

Bro. Maske has resumed work at Rutland after an illness of several weeks and Bro. Neidigh, who relieved him, has gone to Oglesby to relieve Bro. Ewing, who will engage in the insurance business and we lose another good man.

It is with much regret we learn that Bro. Weidner, of Tonica, lost several hundred dollars in the failure of the local bank there. Just to show you that he is made of the right stuff and, like other telegraphers, has the confidence of the people in the community in which he is known, Bro. Weidner has been placed in the newly-organized bank as bookkeeper, something which was decidedly needed in the defunct bank.

Mr. Delano, confirmed non, is still trying to figure out why he as agent is drawing about $20.00 less per month than his night operator. It’s dead easy if you get the right formula. Here it is: One up-to-date card, plus moral and financial aid to our organization, equals a fair and just compensation; try it once.

Bro. Poskule, at Bloomington, was taken suddenly ill and the men are doubting until an extra man can be gotten there. We trust his illness is slight and that we will soon hear him again on the wire.

Bro. Cudd, of Kappa, was off a few days, relieved by Bro. Hines, from Hudson, where he relieved Bro. Carrithers, who has again resumed work.

Bro. Oleson, of La Salle, has resumed work after an extended visit in the West, previous to which he was breaking in at dispatching, thence to the hospital for a minor operation and then on a trip to the west coast. Bro. Eisler relieved Bro. Gilman, who was relieving Bro. Oleson.

Bro. G. E. Ricketts, the heavy thinker at Monet, on vacation November 18th to the 29th, was relieved by Bro. H. E. Walters.
The Railroad Telegrapher.

On account of the extra work for our agents, incident to the holiday season, our monthly meeting for December was called off, but we expect an extra large attendance in January to even up.

John Todd, who resigned Otto nights about a year ago, has returned and bid in second there.

Bro. C. A. Nichols, of Irwin, on his annual vacation December 1st to the 13th, was relieved by Bro. H. E. Walters.

The general officers' "Get Acquainted Special" moved from Chicago to Bloomington during early part of the month. The party comprised our General Supt. Clift and officials of the freight traffic department. At most of the stations the special made stops to enable the officers to visit patrons and employees.

Bro. J. T Madison, agent at Ashkum, off from January 3d to 12th, was relieved by Bro. Devenoughs.

Bro. F. A. Henion relieved Bro. Gardiner at Cropsey while he attended a suit in the Federal Court at Indianapolis.

Bro. B. C. Maison, of Manteno, was off December 9th to the 25th, relieved by Bro. Henion.

A very interesting meeting was held at Kankakee January 16th, and the attendance was somewhat improved, the Champaign District especially making a much better showing than usual. On account of a misarrangement for the Odd Fellows' Hall it was necessary to meet in Claim Agent Carey's office.

Miss M. Barnard has transferred from Harpster agency to Ridgeville, succeeding Bro. Pelps, deceased. Bro. Ford bid in Harpster agency.

B. E. P.

St. Louis Division—

News is very scarce, owing to my not being able to get out over the division this month.

Bro. Childers, second Cairo ticket office, off a few days, was relieved by Bro. A. J. Wilson, of third there, and he by Telegrapher Casey, who later relieved R. T. Briggs, second Centralia, off on account of the death of his sister at Logansport, Ind.

Bro. J. F. Cameron, first Illinois Jct., off a few days visiting friends and relatives, was relieved by Telegrapher Nation.

Agency Reevesville bid in by C. C. Mulkey. Mr. Lawson went back to the L. & N., making room for some good brother at North Jct.

G. R. Smith, extra "CD" Carbondale, Ill., who was relieved by Bro. G. R. Wallace, second Belleville, who went home sick, later relieved by M. R. Coughenour, who has just retired after resigning in September to go to Oklahoma. Smith to "MS" East St. Louis one night, then to Carbondale.

Boys, keep away from the B. & O. Plenty of men there.

Bro. J. M. Widimer, third Belleville, is contemplating a trip to Florida.

Anyone having any news please send me at Cairo, Ill.

Northern Division—

Bro. C. Peterson has been transferred from Elkton agency to Waterville agency, relieved by Otto Smith from New Hampton, relieved by C. R. Peterson.

Bro. F. W. Beatty, third Randolph, visiting two weeks at his home in Ohio, was relieved by Bro. A. Logerwall. Bro. Joe Lennon took a few weeks off, relieved by Bro. Beatty, on his return, Bro. Logerwall remaining on third. Thos. McBride, formerly helper at Randolph, now agent at Rich Valley, will soon be a member.

In the January write-up we mentioned Mr. Scmock, third Elma, as brother. This was an error; he is not a member.

Bro. Geo. Sullie, second Taopi, on two weeks' leave to Kansas City, was relieved by J. D. Everett. If the last increase of $7.50, at Taopi, is not sufficient for him to be a union man, let's all hope that his drug business will prosper so that he can afford to join us.

It is now Bro. Fred Johnson, at Renova, and Bro. H. E. Rannestad, Northfield agency.

Bro. Frank Briggs, third Coates, on leave for several weeks, was relieved by M. M. Sigoloff.

Bro. C. E. Norris slipped on ice near his office recently and sprained his knee, causing him to remain off duty three or four days. He was relieved by M. M. Sigoloff, who went to third Elma, on Bro. Norris' return.

Bro. J. L. Moser, cashier Red Wing, was recently married and went to Chicago on his honeymoon. Congratulations.

Mr. Bassett, second Red Wing, promises to be in line with us shortly.

I wish to thank Bros. Morrill, Lennon and Beatty for the items they mailed me. I would appreciate it very much if some of the members on the W. M. & P. branch would send me a few each month. C. E. N.

Southern Division—

Your division correspondent was on a short vacation last month when the write-up should have been sent in, but as no news was sent me it would have been "blank" anyway.

Bro. E. D. Spicer, who recently resigned to help his brother-in-law on the farm, has re-entered the service and is now on third Conception. Bro. J. H. Calkins is now assistant agent there. Bro. H. F. King, first Conception, was relieved by J. W. Dobbins, from the C. & N. W., who is now on vacation, relieved by Bro. Trunnell, from the Rock Island. We can now say Bro. Nelson, agent at Conception, making that office solid.

We are glad to see Bro. E. D. Lusk back at Rea "MO" nights again.

We are glad to note the interest that some of the brothers are taking in building up the membership. If we continue to get in the noms, as we have in the last two months, we will be making wonderful progress. It is hoped that every member will put his shoulder to the wheel, and not expect the local chairman to get all the applications, as the members can do as much toward increasing the membership and sometimes more than the local chairman. Just speak a kind word to the non that you know or should be working with and we will soon have the division 99 per cent strong.

You can now say Bro. Walters, at "RO" Kansas City.

Ex-Bro. C. A. Stickleman, second Blockton, will soon be with us again. We will be glad to have him back with us.

It is pleasing to note how promptly the brothers answer up for a "31." Keep it up brothers, and show the company who the valuable men are.

We are all glad to have our old Bro. Jap Trunnell with us. Jap is an old-timer on the C. G. W. He couldn't stay away.

General Chairman A. L. Coleman, with his family, spent Christmas with his sister at Columbia, Mo.

Bro. C. S. Liggett, one of our oldest members, is on an extended vacation with his family in California. We wish for him a very pleasant vacation, and hope for their safe return. He was relieved by Ex-Bro. L. B. LaForce, from the Chicago Division, whom we expect soon to land.

It is now Bro. F. J. Rokey, agent at Shannon City, and we are glad to welcome him into our ranks.

The trainmen on the local freights are doing some fine work for us, talking to the nons, and will be the means of several of them joining with us.

Reports of increasing membership being received from the Eastern, Western and Northern Divisions, are very encouraging. We hope they will keep the good work up. Brothers, let us all hustle and not let the other divisions get ahead of us.

I wish some brother on the north end, between Des Moines and Oelwein, would take it upon himself to send me the news every month, and keep me posted on the conditions on that end. I would like to appoint an assistant on the north end if I could find a live one.

Keep after the nons, and remember our motto, "No card, no favors."

L. M. Wilson, Local Chairman.

Bro. Rowe, relief agent, has been relieving his brother at Millendorff a few days.

Brothers, there is room for some work among the extra operators. Let each man try to line up the man next to him. If every man will do what he should, it will only be a month or so until we can report 100 per cent strong. Let's get "next" to our new men and show them why it is necessary that we stand solid at all times.

Boys, look out for the limited—9 and 10—as no explanation will be accepted for delaying this highly competitive train from New York to Jax. Let's co-operate with our management, and when the season is over we will have reason to be glad that none of our men lost out on account of sleeping on duty, and the management will feel greatly encouraged because of an up-to-date set of faithful and efficient men.

R. H. Cunningham, Div. Cor.

Alabama Division—

Quite a number of vacancies have been bulletined during the past sixty days, among them being second Americus, bid in by Bro. Kinnuyears ago. We have reason to feel proud of what the Order has accomplished, and by all brothers paying their dues and sticking together we will continue to gain more rewards for our labor.

"IKE."

Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic Ry.

J. Malloy has resumed as agent Iron River, Wis., after being off several months on account of an operation, relieved by Mr. Wright, formerly of Marquette ticket office, who has now taken McMillan agency.

J. W. Hancock is agent at Duluth, vice M. D. Hoff, resigned.

Bulletins are now out showing third at Ishpeming and Trout Lake, agency Fiborn and several other vacancies.

Business is very quiet, due to the copper country strike and scarcity of snow. Log work and log trains will start at places along the line as soon as there is enough snow, when lumbering operations will begin in earnest and make business better.

Bro. Becker, at Hancock yard office, was relieved by Mr. Bistell while spending Christmas with his people at Moran. It is reported that Bro. Becker was married recently, but he has not advised me as to the truth of the rumor.

Mr. Tact, first Houghton yard office, was laid off on account of slack business. Bro. Lester is working there nights, being the only man in that office now. We hope the second trick will soon be put on there again.

The disaster at Calumet caused by someone yelling "fire" in a crowded hall, where over seven hundred people were holding a banquet on Christmas Eve, when eighty-three were killed trying to escape, cast a great gloom over the copper country, especially in Calumet.

Bro. William Carlson bid in third Ishpeming. Mr. Adams relieving him on first Eagle Mills, with Mr. Hawes on second.

Mr. Chamberlain, now at Seney, promises "soon."

Mr. Franks worked a few nights at L'Anse.

Mr. Briatt, Eagle Mills, one of the oldest men in the service, had to give up his position due to age and ill health. We were sorry to have him leave.

J. W. Whalen, of Ishpeming, has resigned and gone to some southern road.

Many thanks to Bros. Brazeau and Lester for items this month. If we had a few more live workers like these two brothers, our items each month would make a much better showing.

Let's all get busy now on the nons and also give the company first-class service, be courteous to the public and as prompt as possible with our dues before we are sixty days in arrears. It saves a lot of work for our general secretary and treasurer and gives him more time to devote to securing more members. The larger the membership the more we are in a position to accomplish results through our organization.

L. C.

"Soo Line" Ry.

Applications still continue to come in at a rapid rate, which indicates that the membership in general are getting interested in getting the few nons left into the fold. We earnestly request each member to help us in this matter, and let's get our membership up as near the hundred per cent mark as we possibly can. If we will all go to work on the remaining nons we can reduce their number materially in a short time. We must have all the desirable ones in order to strengthen our position; so far during the month of January we have taken in seventeen new members. Have you secured an application? If not, how hard have you tried to secure one? Remember we are still allowing each member a credit on his dues for each application that he turns in accompanied with the necessary amount.

There is an operator on a certain part of the system that has had his salary increased in the past three years $15.00 per month; still he can not afford to carry a card, but he can wear better clothes than the majority of the boys, for the reason that he is enjoying benefits financially that the other fellow is paying for. We believe in treating everyone fair and square, so at this time we will not mention his name, but if he don't get right, in the near future, we will publish his name, so all of you will be wise as to who he is. A word to the wise is sufficient.

The force has recently been greatly reduced all over the entire system, three-men offices made two-men positions, two-men offices made one-man position. At some of the important points which have been exclusive agencies, the agent is now working a trick at telegraphing; in some cases the business possibly warrants such changes, but at some of the points where the force has been reduced, the earnings are showing an increase, compared with the same period a year ago; in such cases it is an injustice to the men to cut down their help.

Again we earnestly request you to get busy and help us get the remaining nons into the fold. Let's all work hard for one month and see how many new members we can add to our membership for that month.

Cert. 94.

Duluth-Superior Division—

Thirty operators have been laid off recently, approximately 33 per cent of those employed on the Duluth-Superior Division. Mr. Pennington, president of our system, gave a very forceful article on "Why the Railroads Have Struck," in the Minneapolis Journal a short while ago. Study up! Post yourselves on the conditions confronting us. It's well worth your while.
Bro. Firminiac, at Crosby, through the summer, expects to be located shortly at the Bemidji passenger station.

Bro. Harris, at Cass Lake, during the summer, was pulled off on account of reduction of force.

Bro. R. A. Schanberger is now catering to the wants of the Central Ave. people, relieving Agent Poitier, resigned.

Bro. J. B. Sprague and Bro. Marcinak are now the congenial ones selected for first and second Omaha, because of the reduction of force. Jimmy thinks it’s an awful thing to be so far away from home. Have a little pity, I’m a poor married man!

The agent at Moose Lake is compelled to work first trick; Bros. H. E. Duffy and F. J. Schertler have moved back on second and third.

Second and third tracks have been pulled off at Blackhoof. Walt thinks it’s an awful lone town. For pointers on cooking and housekeeping inquire of Bro. H. W. Bruss. Do not ask him for an opinion on it, though.

Third track operator and warehouse man pulled off, and Bros. Gustin and Roderick compelled to do double duty.

Bro. D. F. Swan, relief at Bemidji, is also laying off a couple of weeks.

Mr. H. E. Plummer, who bumped Bro. Clark, at 28th St. tower, was later bumped by Bro. Harris, and Bro. Laidlow, of Omaha, was bumped by Mr. Plummer.

Mr. Sommermeyer is on second at Remer; left because of the log business around there, on account of an increase in freight receipts. It is understood that the operator does the warehouse work.

The Duluth agency has been transferred from M. D. Hoff to J. W. Hancock, permanently.

C. V. Densmore bid in the new station “RO,” Ironton.

It is understood we are to have interurban service on the range this coming summer. The means of transportation will be gasoline-driven coaches, manned by a conductor and motorman.

Bro. Watkins, who relieved Bro. Salven, at Manfred, as agent, was bumped by Bro. A. J. Bauman, of Lintonville.

Bro. Owens, second Carrington, who went to Velva, was laid off the first of the year, owing to reduction of force, will spend the winter in California.

Bro. J. E. McCullough, first Minot, inherited the commercial manager’s duties also, on account of Mr. Davis, former commercial manager, taking sudden leave to parts unknown, leaving Bro. A. G. Carlson on second and J. W. McGrady, formerly side table “RD” office, on third.

Bro. J. M. Schwartz chose third trick Portal, as the trick carries the higher salary, leaving A. C. Wegener on first and M. G. Welton on second, who promised to take out a card this pay day.

Whitetail, Mont., is the latest station on bulletin on the Ambrose extension.

Thanks to the brother for news items sent in this month, keep it up.

Soo Line Safety First buttons are being displayed on the boosters’ coat lapels. The motto warrants much merit, keep platforms free of trucks, freight and any articles that may cause injury to people stumbling over them, etc.

On account of the dull season in this northern section of the State, several positions have been closed, and with the slack-up of business lends time to clear up left-over matters, such as fixing up complete files of tariffs, filing old records, arranging office files in proper manner; in general, make ready for the spring work.

CERT. 124.

Chicago Division, First and Second Districts—

Bro. F. H. Cramer, agent Coloma, off a few days, was relieved by Hoffman, and he on third Vernon by H. Scheyer, from second Honey Creek, closed temporarily.

Frost bid in the vacancy at Shop Yards, relieving J. McDonald, who was there pending bulletin, which will leave Fond du Lac on bulletin.

M. R. Miller, third Fond du Lac, was off a few days, in Milwaukee, to testify against the four yeggmen that robbed the Kewaskum, Wis., post office last June, they having purchased tickets from him, Fond du Lac to Chicago, the morning following the robbery. All four were found guilty by a jury.

These are all the items I could get a line on this month, boys. Every one help, and we will always have a good write-up.

Jack Frost, Div. Cor.

Chicago Division, Northern District—

Business is rather dull and many of the younger boys are being laid off until it picks up again.

Chairman Lewis was over the line the latter part of December.

Joe Henkel bid in Abbotsford agency, vice Bro. Minshall who has taken second there, on account of his yard clerk being away. Many agents of late are bidding in on telegraph positions, and giving up their agencies. Mr. Ballow bid in first Abbotsford, Bro. Hofferman remaining on third. Mr. Lempke relieved on second, pending transfer of agency.

Bro. Menke, agent Colby, resigned to go into the mercantile business in Milwaukee. He has the good wishes of all the boys for success.

Bro. Mais drew agency Spencer, relieved at Westboro agency by Bro. Katas on bid.

Night offices at Somerset, Cylon and Downing were closed recently, on account of decrease in business. Bro. Kavanaugh, second Cylon, took third Cadott, displacing Mr. Lempke, who went to second Abbotsford.

It is now Bro. Welch, first; Bro. Schubert, second, and Bro. Zionly, third, at Auburndale, making it solid once more.

Bro. Etta is back on nights on side wire dispatcher’s office “91,” relieved by J. J. Korb, from Junction City, and he by Bro. M. J. St. Amand, relieved later by Bro. Buchmiller, on account of no work.

N. M. Lepinski, third Junction City, will soon be a brother, and Agent Rindt has promised to come in soon.

Bro. Schubert, second Auburndale, relieved J. J. Korb, second “AX,” several days while on the sick list.

Dispatcher Bryan, on leave of absence, was relieved by Bro. Cowen. Dispatcher Stemm leaves on a trip to Panama to see the canal.

Bro. S. J. Sebora, agent Junction City, resigned to take a position as cashier in a local bank, relieved by Bro. Kotas, and he later by Mr. Rindt, on bid. Bro. Wenzel relieved Bro. Kotas for a few days recently.

Bro. McPherson relieved Bro. Bishop, at Somerset, during the holidays.

The Omaha has come through Park Falls. Bro. Clausen has been given a cashier, Billig Clerk E. O. Gerhman receiving this position. We understand Medford is also to have a cashier.

IN MEMORIAM.

Whereas, Our heavenly Father in His infinite wisdom and goodness has deemed it best to call to the great beyond the beloved father of our Bros. L. H. and F. C. Ludowise, in manifestation of our fraternal sympathy be it

Resolved, that the members of the Chicago Division of the Minneapolis, St. Paul & Sault Ste. Marie Ry., Division No. 119, Order of Railroad Telegraphers, extend to the sorrowing brothers and family their sincere and heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement, and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the bereaved brother and a copy forwarded to The Telegrapher for publication.

J. E. Minshall,
N. M. Lepinski,
G. A. Buchmiller,
Committee.

Lehigh Valley R. R.

There has not been a write-up for several months in The Telegrapher. Has Stub forgotten us? He was our main stay on the west end.

Do not get discouraged, there is coming a time when we will be organized yet. We have got to do it if we expect to live working on the L. V.

The section men get more money per day than our agents and operators on this road, as help is scarce.

Brothers, let’s get to work and start the new year right; we could have as good pay for our work as the rest of the agents and operators get on other roads if we would only organize and get busy and get a few members each month. The O. R. T. can’t do it all for us, if we don’t help and stick. Your five-dollar raise per month last spring will more than pay your dues.

Remember our motto, “No card, no favors.”

Last winter we had a meeting, but have had none since. We were doing fine then, but there has been nothing to it since.

Boys, I have been a member three years, and will stay one as long as I remain an operator and agent.

There has never been a write-up from the boys east of Sayre, Pa. Is there no member down in that country?

Boys, wake up and do something. I for one will do all I can to make this old Pike a solid O. R. T. road.

If you boys will send me a few notes I will try and get a write-up each month.

Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Ry.

Chicago Terminal and Illinois Division—

The special meeting held at the Harper House, Rock Island, January 15th, was not as well attended as was promised, but turned out to be very interesting, regardless. Bro. Brown gave one of his instructive talks. Bro. F. Kuhn, local chairman of the Iowa Division, gave the boys a line-up of that division. Bro. Wagoner, from the Illinois Division, was unable to attend.

The following assistant local chairmen have been appointed by the local chairman for the Illinois Division, and from the action they are taking, there won’t be a non on the line by the end of the first half of 1914, with a few exceptions. We intend to hold a special meeting of the chairmen and assistants at Joliet within a few weeks, and make more thorough arrangements for handling this proposition, and with the bunch of live wires; besides, we are certainly going to clean the slate. Those appointed are: Bros. G. S. Hubbert, Rock Island; Bro. J. L. Sumner, Peoria Yards; Bro. C. R. Condit, Tiskilwa; Bro. W. F. Kay, Blue Island.

Bro. H. King, third Tiskilwa, closed, bid in third DePue, also closed, but reopened again.

It’s now Bro. G. K. Boggs, agent Lafayette.

We are certainly pleased to see our old-timer on the right side.

Bro. Ira Jeffries is now agent at Milan, and Bro. F. S. Thomas is at 20th St., Rock Island.

Bro. Nolan, second, and Bro. Donahue, third Morris, on vacations, relieved by Former Dispatcher R. E. McGowan, from the Iowa Division.

The first list of nons on the Illinois Division issued to the brothers, reached the local chairman and assistants January 3d, and we took the train with extra copies, giving some to our brother conductors and engineers, who jack up the parties whose names appear on the list. Seems to be doing some good from the information that I have been receiving over the wires. Let’s keep it up, boys, and we will soon have our headquarters cleared. Correct these lists each month, showing who have been taken off.

F. D. Stanley, assigned Silvis shops days, promises to get a card shortly.

Parsons, second Tiskilwa, has been on the non list long enough. Get your mill or pencil working, and give him some touching up.

It is rumored that the Western Union offices recently taken out of several stations will be located at these points again on account of saving money, letting the station operator do it for a few pennies. We surmise the boys will be glad to see the wires back (nit).

C. D. W., Cert. 309.

“GO,” General Offices—

Chicago (GO)—I will endeavor to keep you well advertised for the rest of the year. We are a bunch of “home guards,” and there isn’t very much news around.

Now is the time to get your new cards. We will all have ours by the time this gets to press. Our force is pretty well shattered, and a few of the boys are working afternoon and night tricks on account of the reduction of force and the installation of printer circuits to Des Moines, Topeka and El Reno, cutting off Bros. Rice, Harding, Kososki and U. V. Lewis, who have been taken care of. We expect them back as soon as business picks up a little.

Bro. Franklin Curoso Kososki bid in third Blue Island, right at home.

U. V. Lewis landed “MS” Des Moines. “Zeke,” better get an up-to-date.

Bro. Rice landed Fairbury, Neb., days, and Bro. Harding is located at Goodland, Kan.

Bro. Lyons and Asper are thinking seriously of taking a “life sentence” and feathering their homes on the north side. Don’t forget that sign, boys, “Let Hartman Feather Your Nest.” It sure does remind you.

Cert. 784.

Haileyville (HY)—Owing to the open winter, business continues good, and we have not experienced the slump some other offices have shown.

Third Trick Wire Chief Samus resigned January 10th, and is now with the T. & P., succeeded by J. G. Wyatt, promoted. One job bulletin not yet awarded.

This office is solid with the exception of the manager and wire chief. Very few nons on line’s tributary to Haileyville; they are coming in fast. The new local chairman is making a good showing.

El Reno (NO)—Bro. Bernard and family spent Christmas with his parents and relatives at Francis, Okla.
Mr. Rippon, on his honeymoon, will come in soon.

Bros. Allen and Hamilton paid us a welcome visit on their way to Haileyville, where they were transferred first of the year owing to reduction in force at Topeka.

Bro. Davis has a detective system that beats Conan Doyle's. Ask him about his watch.

Bro. H. T. Snodgrass, now assistant chief, is handling the job in a most creditable manner.

_Fairbury (F)_—W. R. Johnson, with us all summer, bumped by Bro. Rice, from Chicago, who, after working a few days, took two weeks' vacation. Johnson then bumped Olson, first Lincoln, who relieved Cook at Phillipsburg a few days. Bro. Mason didn't like the woods; resigned and went to St. Paul, Minn.

Sister Richardson, cut off early in the fall, is now at Courland second. Bro. Phlegar on train orders, 8 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.; Bro. Woolen, 7 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.; Bro. Graham, 12 a.m. to 8 a.m.; Bro. Stevens, 4 p.m. to 12 a.m.

There was no bumping in "DS" office, but they had their share of the cutting. F. Felden, night chief, cut off, relieved by Bishop; McFarland, dispatcher, back to car distributor, leaving Mc-Gee handling entire division Phillipsburg to Council Bluffs, and Nelson to Horton—413 miles—8 a.m. to 4 p.m.; Dickens, 4 p.m. to 12 a.m.; McCoy, 12 a.m. to 8 a.m. Pretty hard on the dispatchers until business began to let up.

We are trying to keep Local Chairman Hornbeck informed of the changes and any other news of importance.

The new station at Fairbury will be ready for occupancy in two weeks. Lower floor main waiting room is tiled, also the ladies' rest room and gents' smoking room. Ticket office, in west end of waiting room, is roomy and nicely finished. Upper floor, east end of building, superintendent's office force, entire width of building. A hall through the center from this office to west end of building splits the other rooms. Mr. Kelso's private office is next to main office, and chief dispatcher's next west on south side of hall. "DS" office will be between Mr. Cavanagh's office and the "F" relay office. West side of hall will be occupied by trainmasters, master carpenter and roadmasters. Will try with our next write-up to give a kodak view.

_Trenton, Mo. (RN)_—Note the Missouri Division write-up of the meeting Saturday night, January 17th. Bro. Plum acted as chairman. Following the address of Superintendent Coughlin and C. T. D. McClure, there were little talks and arguments from almost every brother there, and a tournament was staged. Prizes were awarded to Bro. Mason, from Eldon, Iowa, for hand sending, and to Bro. C. H. Price, agent Clarkdale, for bug sending. We also had visiting Bro. Carver, from Topeka, who sat in and gave a sample of his splendid arm. Most everyone there took a shot at the key in some manner, but the prizes were only for the division men.

The brothers in attendance were: Wells, Muscatine; Berry, Washington; Mason, Eldon, Iowa; Turner, Spickards; Parker, Hickory Creek; Dean, Gallatin; Strong, Winston; Hanley, Edgerton City; Plum, Edgerton Jct.; Freeman, Camden Point; Hamm, Platte City; Oliver, Dearborn; Prince, Clarksdale; General Secretary and Treasurer Meador and Carver, Topeka; Cazel, Davenport; Schriever, Powers, Brewer and Peyton, all of Trenton, in addition to Superintendent Coughlin. Chief Dispatcher McClure and Manager Hafford of Trenton relay office.

Bro. Powers is relieving Bro. McClain, on vacation at Johnson City, Tenn. Boys, attend these meetings at Trenton. You will not regret the loss of a night's sleep. Do not wait for a special invitation; come in on the wire, and tell any of the boys in "RN" that you would like to come, and we will get you permission and passes to ride the Golden State Limited or any other train.

The regular force here for years is still here, and as long as conditions remain as they are we will be here for years to come: Bro. Davenport, 7 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.; Bro. Cazel, 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.; Bro. Brewer, 9:30 a.m. to 6 p.m.; Bro. Schriever, 2 p.m. to 10:30 p.m.; Bro. Peyton, second trick wire chief, 3 p.m. to 11:30 p.m., and Bro. Powers, 1:30 a.m. to 10 a.m.; Mr. O. S. Jones, late night wire chief.

Don't forget to pay your dues for the first six months of the year 1914.

_Cedar Rapids (CR)_—Our force is rather small, owing to the reductions made not only in the telegraph department, but all others.

Sister Stephenson, who went to Manly, was later cut off there, and since then we have lost all trace of her.

Bro. Tucker went to the Nebraska Division at Alvo. We regret to have him go.

Bro. Billy Supply, after two weeks' rest, expects to go to Des Moines, but we hope by that time his services will be needed here again.

Bro. "Larry" Halpin, while visiting relatives in Omaha and Kansas City, recently, was relieved by Bro. Tucker.

Bro. Rice spent Christmas and New Year's week at home, calling on the boys on the line; relieved by Bro. Agner.

Friday, January 16th, was the regular meeting night for our Cedar Rapids O. R. T. Club, and fifteen or twenty brothers were present. Our meetings are held the third Friday of each month. Special invitations will be sent out and a special effort made to all the brothers for our meeting February 20th. Bro. Brown, our general chairman, was with us Friday night, and made a very interesting talk, which was enjoyed by all. We wish he could be with us every month.

We were also very glad to have with us Bro. Kalb, LaPorte City. Get out and attend these meetings, boys, and enjoy the benefits you will receive. Help your local chairman to be well represented each month with some news from your respective divisions.

You will find the regular write-up of the club among the other club notes on the last fraternal pages of THE TELEGRAPHER.

Des Moines (MS)—

One man pulled off. Bro. Bill Downcuy now night station master, for which he is well fitted, as he was formerly with the 69th Irish Regiment of New York.

Elder Bylander is somewhat peeved because his two years' service as messenger in this office was not considered when making out the seniority list January 1st.

The five brownies allotted to Hiram Clow on account of not detecting an error in printer message, were recalled for "previous good record."

The printer service has somewhat improved since Sargeant T. J. Baxter, who served in the Philippines, has taken upon himself to interpret all messages received in Spanish.

U. G. Lewis, who came from "GO". Chicago some nine months ago, is some whirlwind. It requires a messenger to straighten up blanks, etc., for him. He promises to take out a card "soon as he can get enough money."

Miss Hannah Fitzpatrick is a most efficient messenger. Nothing of importance escapes her vigilance. Messenger Millie Sayers says: "I should worry."

H. H. Hilfinger, bumped, has gone back to the Iowa Division, relieving the agent at Moscow.

Little Rock (RK)—

P. E. Goodbar, brother of Bro. Goodbar, was nominated for county clerk of Lonoke County. "BG" layed off to assist in stump-speech-making. Congratulations.

Bro. Riser, "MF" Frisco, Memphis, relieved Bro. E. H. Mitchell here two days, while latter was on sick list.

Topeka (KJ)—

Bro. Carver, accompanied by General Secretary-Treasurer Medor, attended the Trenton meeting the night of January 17th.

See Missouri Division, Trenton news for account of the meeting.

Bro. Badsky and wife visited a few days in Lincoln, Neb., recently.

Bro. Harding, wife and daughter Glenola, en route from Chicago to Goodland, where Harding is now working, stopped over a day and visited with Bro. Stover.

The meeting of the Topeka Club at Bro. Brown's residence, January 11th, was a hummer. See account of it on another page.

Reggie Herbert, of Kansas City, worked extra during Badsky's lay-off.

Sister Brown made a short visit in Kansas City the last week in January.

The retrenchment policy of the company hit "KI" recently. Bro. Graham, the last victim, however, was fortunate in drawing Fairbury, where he worked for several years, and will be right at home, and also have the pleasure of working in the new "shop" up there, which Bro. Walt Graham says will have 'em all skinned when completed.

The Markums are still on the job with but little improvement.

Everybody has a card in "KI" except the manager-wire chief, Whitney "W;" second trick wire chief, Harper, "VO;" third trick wire chief, Weld, "X;" and assistant chief, Ekel, "AR." It's about time they "got in the game."

Some of the managers and wire chiefs in the relay offices will not join because they are afraid it would injure their standing with the officials. This stand, in face of the letter we have signed by the general managers of the road and the superintendent of telegraph, wherein they positively state there will be no discrimination against any one affiliated with the Order, is not very complimentary to their superiors.

The managers and wire chiefs, and assistant chiefs have been benefited more by the increase in salaries and other concessions secured by the O. R. T., than any other class, yet some of them refuse to join us, and do their part like men. And some of them, especially the managers, not only will not help us, but do everything in their power against us.

St. Louis Division—

That prince of good fellows, Bro. John J. Gunn, agent Union, Mo., pulled one over on his numerous friends and was married last month while on a short leave of absence "to visit the home folks," at Pleasant Hill. We all join in wishing Bro. and Mrs. Gunn the choicest of God's blessings, and nothing but happiness. While on his honeymoon, Bro. Gunn was relieved by Bro. Bishop, relieved by F. E. Kirkland.

We are very sorry to lose the Misses Carrolls, at Raytown; Mrs. Johnson, Lackland, and Mrs. Loyd, Vale. They being out of the service, on account of the Missouri State 54-hour law for women. All but the latter having up-to-date cards, and are live members of the Order. We sincerely hope that some change will be made soon, and that we will have them back with us.

Two of the boys, Bro. Schofield, Pleasant Hill, and Bro. Stephens, Union, sent us a few items this month. We certainly appreciate this, and hope that everyone on the division will send in something next month, so we can have a good write-up. Let's hear from you all.

It's now Loyd and Bransum, Belle; Morgan, Bland; Rustler, Meta; Stubblefield, Medford; Prince, Pleasant Hill (we have Mr. Prince's promise, next pay day); Schroeder, Lee's Summit, has also sent his application in, and Mrs. Loyd, at Vale. Let's all try and line them up.

It's very hard to get a good write-up, considering the hours I have, so let's hear from all of you next month.

P. M. A., Cert. 1773.

Missouri Division—

A fine meeting was held at Trenton on Saturday night, January 17th, on the arrival of No. 12 at 9:30 p. m., at Roh hall. These meetings have been changed from the second Saturday night in each month to the third Saturday night. This coming meeting in February it has been arranged for us to bring our wives, mothers, sisters or sweetheart. We want the ladies there. Other meeting nights will also carry these arrangements, as you will be notified. Let's everyone get out and make them a success. At the last meeting Superintendent Coughlin and our new chief dispatcher, L. E. McClure, were in attendance. Good talks were made by both. I feel that the company is going to expect you boys to get out to these meetings as well as your organization. A great deal of good will come from them, and the ones that get you out and hear the talks get new ideas, etc., are the only who are going to be able to do things.

Our superintendent advised me that in the near future he expected to have a car body set off at Trenton and that the meetings could be held in the car. We should each one appreciate that, as it will save us a little in the way of hall rental.

With some of you brothers would show him this right path. Bro. J. R. Krusor, Jr., Belknap third, bid in Culver second.

Dispatcher H. S. Smith passed over the line recently, shaking hands with the boys. Smith is sure a good fellow.

Bro. C. G. Belding goes from Mercer agency to Fairfield third, and Bro. J. B. Waggoner from Fairfield third to Jamesport third.

Wish you good brothers would talk O. R. T. to the lady working third trick at Donovan.

Lots of changes being made and new men coming to that line that I do not hear of for weeks. It would certainly be appreciated if you would drop me a line on all changes and new men showing up. There are several non-members and three or four delinquents on the division that we should get after and clean up. This can be done only by each one doing his part. Are you willing to do your share in this work?

W. H. Plum.

Kansas Division—

Bro. C. S. Forbes, extra McFarland, returned January 2d from Oklahoma, where he spent the holidays with friends and relatives.

Bro. E. L. King, first Horton, has returned, after a short vacation, relieved by Myron S. Resor.

Bro. H. A. Ford, Herington relay, was called to St. Louis January 9th by the illness and death of his brother.

Bro. and Mrs. W. T. Brown entertained the brothers of this division and their wives, January 11th, at their home in Topeka. A short business session was held, and the rest of the evening was spent with music and conversation. A delightful two-course luncheon was served. About forty were present, and all kept thanking Bro. and Mrs. Brown for a most enjoyable evening.

Bro. Gillispie, third Marion, returned January 8th from vacation, relieved by Bro. McGovern.

Bro. E. T. Blanton, Valencia, is being relieved by E. H. Logan.

Bro. Frank Nelson, first McFarland, was called home by the serious illness of his brother-in-law.

Bro. F. H. Shanklin bid in Herington yard third. Bro. Smith, at Marion, was recently married.

First trick Marion pulled off and Agent Bebie is working first, Bro. Smith, second, and Bro. Gillispie, third.

Bro. Benham, Wichita, is being relieved by Bro. Groves, recently transferred from Division 130.

Superintendent A. B. Ramsdell has ordered the practice discontinued of conductors and yardmasters getting their orders on the phone at Wichita, and the operator is now allowed the call which is due him.

A number of the boys have already remitted for the first half of 1914, but there are still some who have not done so, and they should remit at once.

While the Kansas Division is in good shape, we still have a few nons. It is each member's duty to keep after them and help get them in line.

In order to have a good write-up in the journal every month, each brother, when he knows anything of interest, should drop a few lines to the local chairman, who will send them to the division correspondent.

I have been appointed local chairman to fill the unexpired term of Bro. E. Pringle, and will try to fill the place to the best of my ability. I want the boys of the Kansas Division to give me their hearty co-operation, so that we may all work for the betterment of the good old Order.

J. R. Fix, grandfather of Mrs. F. H. Munzer, wife of Bro. F. H. Munzer, while visiting relatives and friends at La Crosse, Kan., was suddenly stricken with paralysis of the right side, and brought home Monday, January 12th, in a serious condition.

M. W. Shaw, L. C.

Kansas Division Notes—

Closed on account reduction in force: First White City, causing Bro. J. Ussary to work a trick and Bro. M. L. Emery to bump Bro. J. A. McGovern on third, who went to Marion and worked a few days, later going to Wellington. Marion first cut off. F. C. Beebe now on first in addition being agent, Bro. Smith bumping in on second and Bro. Gillispie bumping McGovern off third.
W. H. Woolsey relieved Bro. Emrich on second Dwight during the holidays.
Herington yard third, Willard second and Latamer nights on bulletin.
I wish some of the boys would let me know what's doing at their respective stations. Ad-

Nebraska Division—

Bro. J. F. Cook, 1st Phillipsburg, on a trip to Kansas City, relieved by Extra Dispatcher Oliver
Olsen, relieved at Lincoln by W. R. Johnson.
Bro. Moore, first Lincoln, bid in agency Alvo.
Boys, give the man at Meadow a chance to know how you feel toward him.
Business has been rushing lately, due to the shipment of grain south, making the night tricks more interesting and less on the order of hay parties.
I have been appointed correspondent, and while my abilities in that direction are very limited, will do my best to give the division a write-up every month, with the able assistance of Sister D. B. Richardson and the rest of you.
Don't forget to let us know of any changes in your office or any other news.
A. W. Koontz is now agent at Havelock, with Bro. C. H. Zook on second and Bro. O. C. Kaatz on third.
Agent Davis, at South Bend, recently pulled a 15-pound cat out of the old Platte.
It is now Bro. Gill at Montrose.
Bro. H. M. Patton relieving on third Gretna.
Bro. Riffey, agent Gretna, and wife, returned recently from a two months' visit in Illinois. We are all very sorry to hear of the death of Mr.
Riffey's father.
Bro. Corbett is now on third Mankato, and
Mr. McNamara is back on second, vice Bro.
Ensor gone to third Rokey.
Bro. Doering, relieving at Fairview, was relieved at Athol by Mr. Baldwin, who later went to Thompson.
O. B. Olsen, of "DS," is relieving Bro. Cook, at Phillipsburg. Bro. Rollins has returned to Belleville, relieved by J. R. Tucker, Des Moines relay, now on third Alvo.
We are all very glad to have Mrs. Eaton back again on second Montrose.
Fred Felden is now acting night chief at El Reno. relieved as night chief at Fairbury by A. S.
Bishop.
Bro. Cash, of Beatrice, relieving at Mahaska, is now at Hallam.
Sister Sawyer, second Rydal, spent a day in Courtland recently. Div. Coa.

Colorado Division—
The working conditions and the new rules incorporated in our new schedule, the concessions to the men, together with the increases in salaries should meet with the approval of everyone on the division. There was a failure here and there to secure a raise, but "there was a reason, across the table." A change in conditions, increased or added compensation, or more express commissions, etc. What was wanted in way of rules and percentage of increase your committee failed to get, simply because it was impossible at this time, but note the concluding article of the agreement which provides that the rules contained therein shall remain in effect for a period of one year, at the end of which time your committee will, working under instructions from the membership, convene again, and it is hoped that the remedy so seriously needed during the past few months will at that time be amply provided—"that of a solid membership." You are the union, now why not get together and demonstrate that fact?

There is absolutely no reason on the Colorado
Division for a non-member; there is not a position that does not pay a union salary and if a non-member is occupying the position, there is no reason for him not lining up to date, paying his portion of the expenses incident to the securing of the increases in salaries.

All of the block operators' positions were included in the wage scale and as a result every one of them has joined and remitted for their O. R. T. card. This is a record that has not as yet been established by the telegraphers. Why not? I was in hopes that I could wipe off the list of nons stick and clean by January 1st. The applications are coming in slowly on account of that lack of "individual organizing" that I harped on so much last summer. My latest list of nons shows only twelve, and six of these are joining this pay day at the $11.00 rate. The rate for new members during the month of January will be $16.00, which pays for a card to July 1, 1914.
Have you a non in your office who isn't coming across with his application? If you have, get his excuses and send them to me, and I'll give him several reasons why he should join, and good ones, too, to protect and benefit his own welfare, increase his pay day revenues and protect his family by making them his beneficiary in case of sickness and death.

We have only about three or four non-members among the agents on the division, so let us bend all our forces to line them up. Figure the initiation fees at $10.00 any time of the year and add $1.00 per month for the remaining months of the current term. Keep application blanks on hand all the time so that you will be prepared for any prospective new members. I realize the importance of road work going over the line to meet and to get acquainted with the newcomers, but I have been unable to do this on account of having to be away from the division considerable during the past few months and other important matters that have taken my attention. I am open to suggestions on this point and I hope necessary arrangements can be made soon for some one to spend three or four days out on the line regu-larily that it will take to make this division solid,
Business is very dull, but we are very happy to know that the reduction of the forces has not yet reached the agents and telegraphers, but the falling off of business cuts quite a figure in our station earnings and express receipts, and we should solicit the public's patronage so as to hold our going rates up to the standard as near as we can. Working conditions and the wage scale over the entire Rock Island System are far better than the average, creating a much stronger feeling of loyalty among the men to the interests of the company and paving the way for future valuable concessions from the management, so we should boost the business of our employer while advancing our own interests and protecting our individual welfare and demonstrate our worthiness for advances of salaries and better and more up-to-date working rules.

On account of the recent reduction of the relay office forces Bro. Tracy, at "GD" Goodland, was bumped by Bro. Harding, from "GO" Chicago, and bid in second Dresden.

Roswell and Falcon third up for bids.

Bro. Art Neville, first Norton, on sixty days' leave, relieved by Bro. Snyder, relieved by Bro. Girvin.

Bro. Shepherd, agent Dresden, recently returned from a two months' vacation in Iowa and Chicago, relieved by Bro. E. R. Judd, now in Hot Springs, Ark., recuperating from an illness and injury that has been troubling him for the past few years. It has never been admitted that a man could live with a broken neck, but Bro. Judd does it, and works most of his time.

Bro. L. M. McGee, second Rexford, recently resigned. "XD" second up on current bulletin for bids. "MC" now has a job on the El Paso Division.

Bro. G. G. May relieved on third Roswell ten days while Bro. Murphy was at "WJ".

Sister Martha M. Holtz, relieving on second Rexford, bid in Selden third.

Sister Marie C. Grabach, extra third Selden, now on short L of A., relieved by F. J. Cassidy, who promises to line up first pay day.

Bro. Lee Akers and Sister Edith Johnson, of Edson block office on their honeymoon, paid us a very pleasant call passing through to Denver on No. 39. Miss Ruth Moore, from Simla, and Mr. Brandt, Kansas, relieved them.

W. C. Mosher, relieving on second Kanorado, pending bulletin, has promised his application.

'Twill be Bro. Valley Dodge, third Burlington, by the time this is in print.

Bro. Geo. Garehime, third Bethune, was off recently attending to a little outside business, and the boss got short and had to call George in to go to work.

E. A. Folsom, agent Vona, is on 60 days' leave, relieved by Frank Blakeman, Jr. Hope he will soon get an up to date.

Bro. Reynolds, second Flagler, done the Christmas relief work in "GD" Goodland; relieved by V. H. Wolfe, a new-comer.

Bro. Tommie Murphy, third Roswell, relieved ten days at "WJ" Colorado Springs, while A. D. Williams relieved Dispatcher E. D. Sheehan on second "DI" Goodland.

The blizzards and snow blockades made business good. It was necessary to have a couple of rotary snow plows and a wedge plow or two to open up the line between Limon and the springs.

Our chief dispatcher was able to supply all the Christmas reliefs, and took an interest in arranging to let us off promptly.

Bro. Osborne, agent Limon, spent a day recently shopping in Denver, and spent Christmas in Colorado Springs with relatives.

Arriba agency on bulletin for 30 to 90 days; Bro. O'Brien off on account of sickness.

All 30-day vacancies, or longer, are now being advertised for bids. Regular men should not hesitate to bid them in, as they retain their former assignment at the expiration of the specified time for which the position is bulletinized.

E. B. Moshier, from "old Mizou", is on third Roswell, pending bulletin.

Bro. Pringle, of Limon, and George and Chauncey Harmonson, of Mustang block office, were visitors at the stock show.

wreath at Colorado Springs as a token of respect and esteem for our worthy brother.

L. W. Quick, at St. Louis, Mo., for publication in The Railroad Telegrapher.

East Iowa Division—

Bro. R. H. Gould, second main line, bid in Burlington St. Station, Iowa City days; Bro. E. W. Stewart, who bid in second, is on his regular trick, and Bro. A. D. Martin formerly at the Burlington St. Depot, bid in third there.

Bro. C. H. Meador, general secretary and treasurer, recently made a trip over the division, and attended the meeting December 21st, at Des Moines.

The following brothers and their families took Christmas dinner with relatives: Mr. and Mrs. W. L. White, of West Liberty, at Kellogg, with the latter’s parents; Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Doyle, and son Clarendon, of Wilton, at the parental Doyle home in Atalissa; Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Kuhns, of Iowa City, at Wilton Jct.; Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Dewey, West Liberty, at Wapello, and Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Martin entertained Bro. C. K. Leimbach, of Iowa City. It is now Bro. W. P. Masters, at Newton; Bro. J. D. Crumwide and Bro. R. E. Clarkson, at Valley Jct., and Bro. E. R. Buntin, at Oxford.

Bro. J. E. Bach, former operator at Victor, is acting agent there now.

Special meeting Rock Island, January 15th, was attended with a fair sized crowd. Bro. F. R. Kuhns, local chairman, Iowa City, and Bro. Geo. Robertson, agent Atalissa, were the only members from Iowa Division. These meetings concern all, and the boys should make a special point to attend as many of them as possible.

We are glad to note that it is Bro. J. T. Monning, at Victor. Welcome to our ranks.

Bro. E. W. Stuart, second Iowa City, and wife, spent a few days in the “Goldenrod” State.

Bro. W. A. Taylor, agent Moscow, and family, on 30 days’ vacation; Bro. H. H. Hilfinger, from the “MS” office, relieving.

Make it a personal matter to see that the non or delinquent has an up-to-date card.

If anyone has news send to local chairman or Bro. Hubbell, Anita, before the 20th of each month. This will be greatly appreciated.

The new interlocking tower at Short Line Jct., Des Moines, is nearly completed. Bro. Wm. Tallman, Bro. R. E. Clarkson and Mr. Longwell will have charge.

Bro. O. M. Latta, Chariton, has resigned, to enter the First National Bank, as assistant cashier, at Brooklyn, where he was formerly agent. We all wish him success.

Bro. R. H. Gould, Burl St., Iowa City, recently made an over Sunday trip to St. Louis.

Bro. Geo. Meier, Colfax, expects to commence harvesting ice soon.

Bro. C. K. Leimbach, first Iowa City, is mastering the “tango.”

Please remember that it is a good thing to pay dues early in the year.

Backsiding should be a remembrance of the past, but am sorry to find a few in the old rut. Our new schedule has been effective two months, and fail to find anyone refusing their share of the benefits—yet a few refuse to do their duty, making this possible.

Boys, if you expect to read news items, each one must do his share in supplying them; send either to Bro. Lee Hubbell, Anita, or to local chairman.

CERT. 241.

Minnesota Division—

J. L. Greene, third “MA” Manly, will be with us next month. Forces at Manly recently reduced, taking off one side wire operator, Sister E. H. Stevenson, relieved on third, who visited at her home in Iowa City. Bro. Greene relieved a few days by Bro. E. J. Dunn, who later went to Albert Lea second, and thence to Owatonna third, vice F. K. Thompson. Sister Pearl McRight, “AO” Iowa Falls, on thirty days’ vacation, is visiting relatives and friends in Louisiana, relieved by E. P. Henry, from the Milwaukee at Comus, who promises his application in a few days. Manly dispatchers’ force reduced, one dispatcher main line working with five and “MA” office with three men. Night operator Sherman taken off, also Mt. Auburn and Shell Rock.

Mr. Grover, Waterloo first, is being relieved a few days by R. O. Staley.

Bro. Blackwell, second Rockford, returned from vacation, and J. V. Lang went to Albert Lea second.

H. J. Mosier from third to second Faribault, E. J. Fent going on third.

Bro. E. J. Dunn, who relieved B. H. Van Heel, Albert Lea, on vacation Christmas, was taken sick and Agent Reese had to work part of the tricks. Operators at “SF” back on regular nine-hour shifts again, after a siege of overtime for the extra hour when held up for meals.

A meeting was held at Manly on December 20th. Bro. Brown was there, and we expect to line up things for the next meeting, so as to get the C. G. W. and M. & St. L. boys interested and have them come along with the Short Line boys, so as to make it a go.

If some brother has been called "Mr." I will be glad to correct the error, as the line-up is somewhat mixed up.

Get that card, whatever else is accomplished. With that last raise we got we certainly should enforce our motto, "No card, no favors."

CERR. 2806.

Iowa Falls Line—

As our division is arranged, it is hard for one correspondent to get all the news of the division, and another member and myself have decided to try to furnish the news from the Iowa Falls Line in hopes that someone will get busy on the main, and also on the Short Line.

We have but three nons on the Iowa Falls Line. Let us show them the right course and give them the facts in cold figures. That will show them what the O. R. T. has been doing for them and what it will do for them in the future if they come in and help. We obtained a 5 per cent increase for them recently, together with the other better conditions, when all the roads were reducing forces and cutting down expenses.

Brothers, our positions are what we make them and what our organization has made them.

If you have grievances, take them to our monthly meetings. The O. R. T. Club of Cedar Rapids has kindly invited us to become members of that club. No one can go there and come away feeling that he has not been benefited.

Wake up, old-timers; let us see a little more enthusiasm. Merely carrying an up-to-date is not fulfilling your duty entirely; that is only the first step; the next one is to help get these nons lined up. They have no excuses to offer since the recent raise in wages, for their increase will pay their dues many times over.

Remember the monthly meeting at Cedar Rapids, as that is the most accessible point for the boys on the Iowa Falls Line. They should make that club their home.

Let each of us write these nons a letter. We have all the force of argument and they have none. Do not put it off, but take a few minutes' time right now. You could not use your spare minutes to better advantage.

Robinson will soon leave. We hope "GY" will be solid when this vacancy is filled.

CERR. 1884.

Dakota Division—

On January 19th we held another meeting at Estherville. About twenty-five of the brothers got there, some of them bringing their wives. We had a good meeting, several of the division officials attending, and they gave us interesting talks regarding our work. General Chairman Bro. Brown was also with us, and gave us an interesting talk in regard to the O. R. T. Everybody had a good time, and after the meeting refreshments were served.

No. 923 was held two hours for the brothers from the west end, for which we thank the division officials.

You brothers who don't get out to the meetings are missing a good time and a chance to see the other brothers and meet the division officials. We hope to be able to hold meetings at Estherville right along, and want everyone who possibly can to go there. Mr. Rosser will furnish the transportation any time you ask for it, and will let you go if at all possible, so you won't have any excuse for not attending these meetings.

Bro. Finch, agent Forest City, off on ninety-days' leave taking a trip through California, was relieved by Extra Agent Creighton.

Agent Ballou, Rowen, off on sixty days' leave, relieved by Bro. Patterson.

Bro. Anderson, relieved Bro. Griswold a few days for Christmas, relieved by Mr. Wingrave.

Bro. Peterson, Emmetsburg, off a few days, was relieved by his son, helper there.

Dispatcher Turner, off a few days, relieved by Mr. Stagg, and he by Mr. Wingrave.

It is now Bro. Peterson at Ottoson and Bro. McMahon at Popejoy.

Bro. Kreger, agent Clear Lake, recently visited a week at Minneapolis.

Bro. Griswold, second Estherville, relieved by Mr. Wingrave while on his honeymoon to Oklahoma. Congratulations.

Mr. Knapp furnished the smokes for the crowd, for which we thank him very much.

"Ye Scribe" relieved on second Dows by Mr. Bellman while attending the meeting at Estherville.

DIV. Cot.

El Paso Division—

Interest must not be allowed to slumber because we were successful in obtaining our revised contract, but, on the contrary, every one of us should be on the watch to see that it is observed by both the contracting parties, as "Eternal vigilance is the price of safety." We should bring any infringements of the schedule to the notice of the local chairman, who will take it higher up, in case he is unable to secure satisfactory adjustment.

Ex-Bro. O. J. Dettle has been promoted to Liberal agency, vice R. L. Brown, who goes to Nebraska as division agent, which position he formerly held on this division.

Hooker (a good station) and third Liberal yard are on bulletin.

John Lawrence, on third Liberal a few days, is now on third Nara Visa, relieving R. S. Hardy, who is on third Liberal pending bids. Hardy has promised to send in his application soon. Let us see if Lawrence can not also be gathered into the fold.

There are still a few here who are receiving the last increase with every pay check. If persuasion doesn't avail, remember the remedy: "No card, no favors." S. R. McCamant is at Meade agency. His wife has been sick for the past six months.

Bro. Irvine, from Goodwell, bid in Hooker agency, and Goodwell is now open for bids.
Agents are anxiously awaiting the result of the effect the lower express rates which went into effect February 1st will have on commissions. It looks as if there might have to be considerable readjustment of agents' salaries before long, unless the lower express rates recompense the agents for the loss of commissions entailed by the parcel post, but it will take an enormous amount of express business to keep the commission.

Bro. Thos. Edwards, third Hutchinson, spent New Year's day at Tampa with his wife, a bride of a few weeks. C. M. PIERCE, Liberal, Kan.

We are all very much pleased to learn that H. E. York, first Hutchinson, has joined the Order, and will soon be glad of his assistance in lining up the few remaining nons, who should be working for their own as well as for their fellow-workers' advancement.

Div. Cor., Cert. 2434.

Southern Division—

Bro. Young, of Bowie, has been on the sick list for some time, but is now back on duty.
Bro. J. E. Nelson was discharged for overlooking a 31 order. We will all miss him very much.
Bro. H. A. Rice, former agent at Paradise, who bid in Graham, was recently married to a Paradise girl.

All the material is on the ground at Newark for the new pump station and pipeline which will be built to the river two miles west of town. Agent and pumper will be connected by telephone. The mill at Newark burned down the night of January 4th.
Bro. O. S. Daniel presented our local chairman, Bro. Terhune, with a nice fat turkey for Christmas.
Bro. R. O. Neal is thinking very seriously of starting up his hennery again.
Our motto, "No card, no favors."
Let's all attend the meetings at Bridgeport each month, keep after the nons and try to line them up solid.
A member working with a delinquent or non should keep after him until he pays up his dues. This is a business proposition which brings in large returns for the money invested.
I wish to thank Bros. Bennett and Beeson for items they sent me. If some more of the boys would do likewise, we could have a fairly good write-up each month. O. S. D., Cert. 2013.

Amarillo Division—

There is not a non on this division and just one delinquent, which is just one too many, as we do not believe there is any reasonable excuse for there being one delinquent even on the division and we hope before this is in print there will be none. We want every man on the division to help keep it cleaned up.
Bro. McLean, of Lela, on ninety days' leave, relieved by Bro. Burk pending bids. Unfortunately he got in too much of a hurry the other day and fell downstairs head foremost, dislocated his left elbow and had to go to Shamrock and have it set. But with the help of some of the boys at Lela he is still able to hold the fort there, of which we are glad.

We are looking for the greatest crop ever this year.

E. W. Fitch, chief clerk to Supt. Walker, died suddenly January 17th while his wife was absent from home for a short time. He was promoted from the ranks of clerks in the office to chief clerk about a year ago, and was held in very high esteem by all with whom he came in contact. His relatives have our profound sympathy. The agents and operators purchased a nice wreath for his funeral which was held January 19th at Amarillo, Tex.

M. H. KEASLER, L. C.

L. S. & M. S. Ry.

Toledo Division—

The December meeting was very well attended, there being about thirty present. The new proposed schedule was read. It is now up to all of us to stand behind our committee. Two new members were given a ride on the much-used goat. Pay up your dues promptly and organize.
The meeting held January 20th was also very well attended, there being about forty present.
Five candidates were initiated after which we proceeded to the dining hall where a sumptuous lunch was served, the boys doing justice to same. Bro. Kipp gave us a very interesting talk.
Mr. Jones, third Elyria Jct., off a few days, relieved by Mr. Durand, third "UN."
The Ramsey road is now laying the crossing over the Lake Shore west of "OB," which will mean a three-trick tower position when completed. Handy to Lovers' Lane.
Agent at Wakeman has had his station man taken off and is now thinking of what the O. R. T. could have done if he had come across.
Bro. Kinsey, third Clyde, and Mr. Deer, third Fremont, hunting at Wakeman recently, bagged nineteen fine rabbits.
Bro. H. J. Furlong, second Clyde, says that after February 24th it will not be necessary for

Mr. Brown relieving Mr. Durand, days Monroe, went to Genoa.

Ex-Bro. Munce, third Grayton, had the sad misfortune of losing his mother; she being struck by No. 31. Fred has our heartfelt sympathy.

Ex-Bro. Keane, first Oak Harbor, off a few days, was relieved by Mr. Reynolds.

Bro. Crimm, third Bay Bridge, has gone to West Virginia, relieved by Mr. Swearington, former relief agent and operator; position abolished.

I am indebted to Bros. Haley and Stagner for most of these notes. If the rest of you don't come across I will have to discontinue the write-ups.

Every brother get busy and line up the nons and back your committee as we are after better conditions.

Everybody take out that new card at once.

"OAK," Cert. 459.

Western Division—

Will give you the details in March Telegram of the meeting at Chesterton.

Our committee is in Cleveland now negotiating with the officials. We must have the loyal support of all the men on the road, so get after that non next to you. When all are on the right side we will no longer be working for smaller salaries than men on other roads of the same class.

The G. T. has received a fine raise through the efforts of the O. R. T., due to the fact that they believe that in union there is strength. Keep the nons reminded of their promises to join about the time they get their blue checks.

Bro. Graham, our local chairman, while in Cleveland on committee work, is being relieved by Mr. Cliner.

If some of you brothers will send in a few notes we will have a write-up each month. I am unable to keep track of all changes, especially on first and second tricks.

Aurora Division—

Meeting of Aurora Division held at Hotel Arthur, Aurora, Ill., Jan. 24, 1914. Not as many were out as should have been, there were only 28 present, when we should have 728, considering the number of members that are on the Aurora Division. Those who were not present certainly missed the good speeches given by Bro. J. F. Carder, general chairman; Bro. J. H. Rogers, Jr., secretary and treasurer, and our good brother G. Dal Jones, of Division No. 91. Bro. Jones said when he started to talk that he would only take 30 minutes, but when he finished he had the floor one hour and forty minutes. It was certainly regretted by all present that the brother could not stay another hour longer.

We hope Bro. Jones will be with us next time, and the members that were unable to be with us last meeting will turn out next time, and hear this able labor leader.

Bro. Frank Coffman, first Plano, laying off for a few days on account of sickness; Bro. McNamara working the trick.

Bro. Cope, Earlville depot, attended the meeting held at Hotel Arthur, Aurora, January 24th.

Bro. Skelly, of Bristol tower, expects to be very busy the next month or two. He will begin the latter part of the week to ride the Masonic goat. Bro. Todd, local chairman, expects to be on the side line and give him some main line practice. We will hear later on from the brother.

W. E. Brown bid in Spring Valley agency, and Bro. R. A. Richards won Neponset agency. Glad to have the brother back on the west end. We hope he will help us out and accept assistant local chairman’s job on that end.

Arthur Thomas, extra Flag Center, called on Bro. Todd, of Sandwich, one day last week; he is a full-fledged brother.

By the time this reaches the printer Yorkville will be solid for the first time.

It is now Bros. Kaut and Jackson, of Yorkville, Ill. Glad to have you with us. The old Fox River Branch is almost solid now.

Now, brothers, let us all get busy and line up the C. & I.; don’t stop because we got our old banner back, but get busy and keep it. Don’t let the LaCrosse Division take it again to Savannah; don’t let them get a look at it. Get busy, everyone of you.

Galesburg Division—

Our notes for the January TELEGRAPHER were not received in time for publication in last issue of the TELEGRAPHER. I hope you will pardon the omission and furnish material for the fraternal columns from this time on a little earlier.

I was unable to visit all the brothers while going over the division in December, as I had to cut my trip short by reason of my taking sick before I could complete the rounds. I however hope to visit each office in the course of the year.

I am very much pleased with the growing interest displayed among the men in the station service, and wish to thank the brothers, whom I had the pleasure of visiting, for their cordial reception. I wish to say, however, that I am sorry to have to report that I found many student's outfits in offices. I am not prepared to say that any brother is guilty of violating his obligation by running a "ham factory," but I do admonish you to discourage it in your own office. If allowed to continue there can be but one result, which is apparent.

A checking-up of our membership list shows the past year's work to have borne fruit, and adds another mark of progress to our stride. We have still sufficient numbers on this division "riding free" to enable some one to secure one of the grand prizes. Do you ever ask the non in your office to join? Do you ask him why he does not? Do you ever ask the man on the next block? Do you find out if the new extra man is a member? Do you get his Cert. number and send it to me so we may have him transferred? Do you always endeavor conscientiously to be a member in deeds and interest as well as by wearing your button and carrying a card? Do you report promptly to your local chairman any irregularity not conducive to the welfare of the O. R. T., which, without your assistance, he might never be any the wiser? Do you attend any and all meetings which your hours of service will permit? Do you believe that without the assistance of the individual membership we shall ever reach that standard of solid organization? I wish to say to those who may read the above questions, that it will not hurt you to give them heed, and ask yourself honestly, what have I done in 1913, and what can I do in 1914 to help myself and the organization to reach the position desired.

Our delinquent list for last term is down to the minimum, and account 30 more days' grace being granted before dropping them from the rolls, their names will not appear in this issue, but a complete list of backsliders will appear in next month's Telegrapher.

I hope we shall not have a single member in bad standing by February 28th, and I see no reason why that dues money should not be forthcoming above all other obligations, for to whom do we owe our present benefits if not to the organization through which they were received? Turn to, brothers, with a will and let 1914 be the banner year. I thank you for the support rendered me in endeavoring to serve you in the capacity with which you have honored me, and trust that I may receive your unbounded assistance this new year.

F. J. Graves, Local Chairman.

Since last issue very successful meetings were held at Quincy and Galesburg. Owing to lateness of K. Line train, Bro. Carder could not reach Quincy, but was present at Galesburg. Both meetings were largely attended, and it is hoped that the attendance will be doubled the next time.

The next meeting of Galesburg Division telegraphers will be held at Quincy, Sunday, March 22d, between No. 7 and No. 6.

New members: Marks, Avon; Earls, New Canton; McAfee, Farmington; Philhower, Bradford; Chambers, Maquon; Mullen, Colmar.

Recent assignments on bulletin: Bro. Duffy to Barstow, vice Bro. C. A. Smith to Peoria Freight House; Denrock third on bulletin, have not leave as Bro. Whitehead went.

The recent reduction in force in relay department has caused some of our relay brothers to sit upon the anxious seat, and many of the younger ones have been forced to go "bumping." We hope that the business will soon warrant placing them all back on their regular positions. I wish to ask all the road men to assist the brothers in "GT" in every way possible, by answering calls promptly, also the dispatchers. Let it be found that offices hard to raise are not organized. Prompt obedience to and faithful discharge of your duties will win both respect and admiration. When your next schedule is negotiated you must not be found wanting in any requirements. Faithfulness and honesty are the standards of all legitimate business, and do not lose sight of the fact that your organization is a very large business of which you are both stockholder and director, and are responsible in a way for its successful progress. F. J. G.

Galesburg Division Notes—

Glad to see so many brothers paying dues. Keep it up.

It is now Bros. Mark Avon, Fleisher, Elmwood, and Earls, New Canton.

Don't forget that non working right in your office.

CERT. 492.

Galesburg Division, North End—

Bro. B. L. Lindquist, extra at Barstow for the past few months, is enjoying a vacation.

We are glad to note that the drones are getting to be a scarce article, and sincerely hope we can freeze them all out by the time flowers are in bloom again.

Bro. Carl Young, Galesburg relay office, handling the north end message wire, is now a married man. Congratulations. Bro. Young is always on the job, and is certainly everybody's friend.

Now is the time to put your paddle in and help push. With a little help from each brother we can make this the banner division.

Do not delay sending your dues. We are glad to note the large number that already have their new cards.

Bro. B. S. Waite, formerly second Denrock, is now on second Prairie City. We are glad to announce that it is now Bro. Whitehead, third Denrock.

Bro. Norcross, Galesburg relay office, is back on second at Rock Island passenger station again account reduction in force.
THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER.

Bro. George Larson, agent Henderson, is spending his honeymoon at Thermopolis, Wyo., and Denver, Colo. We agree with Bro. Larson that he needed a cook after such a long siege of baking.

We are sorry to note Bro. Rikey's old position on bulletin, and hope we will not lose him from our ranks for some time at least. We are pleased to hear of his promotion, and wish him success. Hand your TELEGRAPHER to that non after you are through with it.

Bro. Eighn, second Henderson, is relieving the agent at that point for a few days.

E. L. Moneysmith, extra Denrock, bid in second St. Augustine.

F. H. Pierce, extra, on second Denrock a few days.

Mr. Sweet, agent Garden Plains, off a few days, relieved by Mr. Shepherd, of Henderson.

F. W. Greenwood, first Moline, bid in second Barstow, but canceled his application, and it was awarded to Bro. J. Q. Duffy, third Yates City, next in line.

Bro. C. A. Smith, second Barstow, landed the Peoria freight house job.

Bro. Eighn, second Henderson, was off a few days on account of his father's illness.

Bro. Carroll, agent Hillsdale, off one day, was relieved by Mr. Connor.

Bro. John Westbay, second Lynn, on a few days' vacation, was noticed sitting in the park at Rock Island a short time ago. Evidently he had gone to town to celebrate, as he had a sack of popcorn.

Seems like summer by the amount of business handled during the last few weeks. Plenty of extra men on this end on account of some of the third trick positions not being opened all this winter.

Be sure you want that job before you bid on it. If you are in doubt as to your age in the service, ask the local chairman for a copy of the seniority list.

Cert. 1851.

Another big meeting was held in the Wood Hotel, Quincy, in December, 1913, with a good crowd in attendance. All of the long-winded talkers were there, and it was mighty pleasant to hear Bro. Graves tell of the good luck he had among the nons on our division. Looks like a clean sweep. Let the good work continue.

Bro. J. H. Frain, local chairman Burlington Division, favored us with his pleasing smile, and we all enjoyed his pleasant and well-delivered forty-minute talk in regard to the success he had experienced on his division and the enthusiasm displayed by all the brothers along the line.

Brothers, existing circumstances are brought about by your interest or lack of interest; the matter lies entirely in your hands. If you want to grow and secure what we deserve, attend the meetings on your division whenever you can. Do not let a man come to your station without questioning him if he has an up-to-date or not; and if he hasn't, see that he gets one as soon as possible.

Personal activity is necessary in order to secure a solid organization. Don't wait until tomorrow. Start right now.

The members present were: F. J. Graves, local chairman Galesburg Division, Abingdon, Ill.; J. H. Frain, local chairman Burlington Division, Wyman, Iowa; Guy Ventres and G. A. Willis, Golden, Ill.; H. P. Bredette, Augusta, Ill.; Bro. Straub (Bridge Jct.) and M. K. Jester, Quincy, Ill.; E. G. Armstrong, Macomb, Ill.; H. A. Ballew, Yardmouth, Ill.; Bro. Hendricks, Fall Creek (Wabash); D. G. Rikey, Peoria, Ill., and Bro. Belden, Avon, Ill. D. G. R., Cert. 928.

Peoria Branch Notes—

Bro. J. L. Dollison was a Peoria visitor Saturday and Sunday, December 20th and 21st, attending the meeting of the club. He is sure some "live one" in the member-getting department.

Bro. Duffy, third Yates City, was off a few days attending court in Galesburg at the Buck trial.

Bro. Z. C. Keck is relieving on first Knoxville. Mr. Grimm, from the East, worked a few days at Knoxville, later resigning to go West on account of his health.

Bro. Rikey, Peoria local freight office, transferred to rate department same office, relieved by Mr. Wood, from the Northwestern, who resigned to go West, relieved by Mr. Ried, later transferred to second Knoxville, relieved by Bro. Cochran, recently from the Iron Mountain.

Mr. Kynion is now agent at Norris.

It is now Bro. Sam Fleisher at Elmwood.

Bro. H. L. Majors, Bloomington, Ill., now in C. & A. relay office, was a Peoria visitor Sunday, January 25th.

Bro. C. A. Smith is now regular at the Burlington local office.

Bro. W. O. Blackman, "PRT" Western avenue, is on the job all the time. He enjoys the pleasure of securing the application of the first lady member in Peoria—Sister Myrtle Hemmele.

Bro. Edw. Whalen, general chairman, and I. E. Schlosser, local chairman "Big Four," Terre Haute and Waynestown, Ind., respectively; J. F. Carder, general chairman; J. H. Rogers, general secretary and treasurer, and F. J. Graves, local chairman Galesburg Division, Burlington Route, were visitors at our regular meeting on Sunday, January 11th, representing some of the best speakers in this territory. Brothers, you owe it to yourselves and the organization to attend all our meetings, if circumstances will permit.

D. G. R., Cert. 928.

Beardstown Division—

The following positions are on bulletin: First Waverly, second and third Keyesport, two tricks at Centralla, night job at Ayers and first Girard.

Bro. Renfro, who has been relay operator in the Beardstown office, has been promoted to train dispatcher on south end on account of increase in business, Mr. Weeks relieving him.

Will Beckman secured second Litchfield on bulletin, and Mr. Mumbower gets Pisgah agency.
Mr. Yetter, day operator Waverly, who has been in the service of the C. B. & Q. on this division for four years, has resigned to accept a position with Uncle Sam as postmaster of Waverly. This is a decided promotion over his former job, and we wish him good luck in the same.

Business has been very quiet the last few weeks, but has picked up exceedingly fast in the last few days, which accounts for the many jobs on bulletin. There are plenty of men available; so if you want a vacation, now is the time to take it, as it will help some other brother who has no job, even though they are only $52.50 positions.

I am unable to have a very large write-up this month on account of the boys having sent me no notes, all but Bro. Urham, on telephone circuit in "B" Beardstown office. Thanks to you, "E."

We have several promises from boys down the line that they are coming in. "DK."

La Crosse Division—

Business picking up somewhat and it is hoped that some of the offices closed will be opened soon.

Dues are coming in nicely and it is earnestly hoped that all will pay up early and avoid the rush; also help your local chairman and general secretary out, thereby saving them lots of correspondence, which time could be used to a good advantage in organizing.

Bro. E. W. Dyer, Grand Crossing first, off on vacation, relieved by Bro. Flannagan, from "CX."

Bro. Gilbertson relieving Bro. Yuill, Galena Jet., second, and later protected night job at Galena, which requires some skill in different departments, his duty being baggage agent, ticket agent, janitor, brakeman, train baggageman, telegrapher and numerous others.

Bro. Slaght transacted business in Galena recently, coming home with a pocket full of greenbacks.

Bro. J. R. Garber and wife spent Christmas at La Crosse with relatives.

Bro. E. B. Sperry called back East on account of death in family. He has our sympathy.

Bro. A. W. Koch, third Wyalusing, on short vacation. We heard wedding bells ringing and presume he got lonesome, and two can live as cheap as one since "the high cost of board."

Bro. S. R. Kimball, first Charme, spent a short vacation in the northern woods of Wisconsin, where the smallest game they say is "deer."

Five men laid off at La Crosse office on account of no business.

Bro. Lindner and wife spent a lengthy vacation in California and other points of interest, relieved by Mr. Irwin.

Did you notice that nice increase the Frisco boys got just because the men stood back of their committee. This is a good example. Back up your committee in whatever it thinks best.

Bro. P. N. Smith, "RY," visited Pra Du Chiene recently. The dentist relieved him of the pain in his teeth; also some surplus cash.

We sympathize with Bro. A. W. Biefeleidt, whose baby boy, born December 23rd, passed away December 30th.

Bro. Gilliland, off on account of sickness, relieved by Bro. R. M. Shultz, from the relay department.

Some news from the brothers on the north end would be appreciated.

The Milwaukee held a nice meeting at La Crosse the 15th, yours truly being present. If I can be assured of a good attendance would like very much to hold a meeting; don’t all speak at once.

W. B. SCHRUNK, L. C.

La Crosse Division Notes—

Bro. Koch, third at Glen Haven, on a month’s vacation, getting married, was relieved by Bro. Florio.

Agent Hornby, of Bagley, and wife spent a few days with relatives at Hazel Hurst, Ill., relieved by E. H. Peterson.

Bro. I. J. Willard and wife enjoyed a week’s vacation with relatives over New Year’s, relieved by Bro. Sands.

Positions on bulletin: Lytle first, Nelson third and East Winona third.

Bro. Falkenstein has resumed work after a month’s vacation, relieved by Bro. Sands.

I. J. WILLARD.

Hannibal Division—

Your local chairman just received a fine report from Bro. Rogers, secretary and treasurer, for the week ending January 21, also stating if we keep up the work this way it would not be long before we will have a clean slate. We hope by the time THE TELEGRAPHER reaches you in February that such will be the case. You who have not remitted please do so promptly. It helps Bro. Rogers and myself to clear our records and saves much correspondence to keep up this good work; also adds to your wealth as much as any one; you can not afford to allow yourself to become delinquent.

Since the new time card January 4th, the blocks are quite long on the high line, Bellflower being the only regular night man between Old Monroe and Francis.

Bro. Hackamack spent Christmas with his relatives at La Grange, relieved by Bro. Roberts, extra from Hannibal.

Sorry to report Bro. Meriwether, agent Buell, laid up with rheumatism, Bro. Laudell, from Hannibal, extra, filling vacancy.

Bro. Ottinger and wife spent the holidays in Tennessee with his parents, Bro. Crisman, of Martinsburg, doing night duty at Bellflower in his absence.

Bro. Bilincu bid in Sandusky on the night office, Wellsville being closed.
Hannibal Division Items—

Bro. G. E. Beck, second Machens, who was in jured by falling downstairs, is on the job again, was relieved by Bro. Jarman, regular agent, he being relieved by Mr. Anderson, relief agent.

Bro. J. M. Porter, extra operator, has been working nights at West Alton until Mr. Lowrie could find a man for the position, was relieved by Mr. F. Menmeyer. Mr. Lowrie made the boys at Machens a pleasant call January 9th; also giving them instructions on giving hand signals to trains working in yards which are controlled by interlocking signals. He also made the boys at Old Monroe a call for the same purpose a few nights previous.

Bulletin on La Grange agency very popular, as there are a great many bids for it.

Fine weather for January.

Don't seem to be many vacations taken this time of year, several of the extra men complaining they are not getting enough work.

The writer wonders if the boys know what a saving it would be to the company if each man on the entire system would follow up each train he gives orders to and get the hoops thrown off, instead of letting them lay around and get run over and broken up. Try it once and see how few times you have to order hoops this year. You will be surprised.

The vacation proposition should be agitated without let up until we get it. If a man who has been in the service ten, fifteen or twenty years should tell a man who does not know the station agents' and operators' working condition, he had worked for the number of years stated without a Sunday or holiday except a deduction from his pay check, the gentleman would certainly doubt your statement, although absolutely true. The laws of God and our country says one day in seven for rest. While they run trains on Sunday, offices must be open; we are working fifty-two days
each year rightfully our own, and without pay.
Two weeks or fourteen days of the fifty-two we should have on full pay, and we believe any disinterested man or body of men will say such a request would be most reasonable. Make the request and make it strong.

Are we giving our local chairman the help he rightfully should expect. We have a good one, and he needs the members' assistance, a word of encouragement, help him land the non he may be working on, send him a few items each month.
Bro. Mays is a good, safe man, conservative and the kind of a man to retain the respect of our officials. We have the right man in the right place for our local chairman, let us make his position so pleasant by our help that he will not object to stay on the job. We refer to the next election.

The merit system is a fine business and the fellow who finds a brakebeam down, informs his dispatcher, and receives a nice letter from the superintendent, feels good over it. Some dispatchers take pleasure in making it known to the superintendent and makes it a point to see the operator gets due credit. Show your dispatcher your appreciation by giving him more than good service; he is the man who got you your letters, and to him is due the thanks.

Div. Cor.

Q. O. & K. C. Division—

The members of this division are very desirous of seeing the eight or ten nons who have promised to "come over with us," do so without further delay. Our schedule depends entirely on these, which will put our per cent up to the point where we can claim our rights.

Cert. 2705.

Ottumwa Division—

Dear Brothers: I wish to thank you for showing your confidence and loyalty to me in the recent election, by which I was placed at the head of the Order on this division, and I sincerely hope you will never have cause to repent your action in so doing.

I intend to fill this position to the best of my ability in every way; safeguard your interests and promote your welfare in every way possible.
You must realize, though, that I must have your co-operation as far as it is possible to give. You must know that, as a rule, nons do not flock in and beg for the necessary blanks to put them up to date; persuasion is usually necessary. Help me along this line, boys; at least, keep me posted when a new man shows up at your station. I have decided to act as correspondent for awhile, until I get better acquainted with the workers among you boys. A little help in the shape of some items will cheer me up. Try it.

I have asked two brothers to assist me on their respective ends. As I have not yet received their acceptance, will announce them in the next journal.

The division is in good condition now. I wish to see it stay that way. Don't forget, brothers, when you draw your pay check this month to save the necessary $5 for Bro. Rogers, if you have not already attended to this.

T. R. Crandall, Local Chairman,
Albia, Iowa.

Bro. J. W. Curry gets first Afton on bid.
Bro. O. A. French, second "UK" Ottumwa, takes first Fairfield, vice Bro. P. C. Benthuysen, with the Western Union at Des Moines.

Bro. J. M. Stevenson, "FS" West Burlington, while taking his fortnightly vacation was relieved by Bro. Richards, a new man on this division.

Bro. J. H. Atchison, who was with us last summer on second Lockridge, is now located at Evanston, Wyo., with the U. P.

Bro. J. W. Yount, who spent some time among us not long ago, is now working a trick in the Fremont relay, C. & N. W. Ry.

Bro. E. F. Browne, who recently moved to town by bidding in third Mt. Pleasant, has also taken himself a helpmate. Congratulations, Ed.
The cigars were fine; that is, I heard they were.

It is now Bro. C. F. Fisher. Push him the glad hand, brothers.

Bro. G. A. Lager, second Woodburn, off on the sick list; Bro. H. L. Heasley, extra, relieving.
THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER.

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our heavenly Father and all-wise Ruler of the universe to call to his reward our beloved brother, J. L. Stafford; in manifestation of our grief and fraternal sympathy, be it

Resolved, That the members of the Ottumwa Division, System Division No. 130, Order of Railroad Telegraphers, extend to the sorrowing family their sincere and heartfelt sympathy in their sad bereavement; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be forwarded to the bereaved family, a copy spread on the minutes of the division, and a copy forwarded to THE TELEGRAPHER for publication.

St. Joe Division—

Bro. Frank Bunten bid in third at Parkville.

Bro. Olson, third Napier, off a few days on account of cutting his hand on a broken window pane, relieved by Bro. P. L. Young, later taken sick and relieved by Mr. Strode, who also relieved Bro. V. A. Solider at Bigelow, on a few days' vacation. Strode was relieved at Napier by Mr. Whiting, who also relieved me, off one day on account of sickness.

Bro. J. F. Jefferies, third Corning, and Bro. V. A. Solider, third Bigelow, were in St. Joe recently.

Bro. P. H. Gibbons, first Florence yards, off a few days, relieved by O. G. Depuy, from relay office.

On account of business falling off, the forces in "C" office were reduced and overtime cut off, which makes some of the boys feel that winter has come.

Bro. H. E. Millen, second Tecumseh, Neb., is on vacation visiting relatives at Coin and Westboro.

We have been blessed with two good snows, which look like winter had set in, and will probably make business better on account of the coal hauling.

C. M. Privett, agent Tarkio, resigned to go into the insurance business, relieved on bid by Bro. F. R. Elton, relieved at Hamburg agency by Extra Agent Ledgerwood, who promises to come in. F. A. Yarbrough, operator Tarkio, will soon be in line.

It does no good to sit around and talk about what the committee ought to do and what we should have received last time, but get in line, get after everyone that isn't in line, and the next time the committee goes up it will do better. The committee is made up of men just like we are, and they can't do anything with the management if we don't stand behind them.

Bro. A. C. Conine, agent Hepburn, while off a few days getting married, was relieved by Extra Agent Whiting, who was also married at Clarinda on Conine's return.
Thanks to Bro. Rosling and Bro. Ockerman for items this month.

Some of you brothers on the south end get after Joe Gardner, at Rushville, and get him in line. I know it doesn’t take all his money for tobacco.

Agent Russell, at Braddyville, promises to become a brother shortly. Don’t let him forget it. It is now Bro. E. C. Smith at Davis City.

Bro. J. E. Scott, Napier, bid in agency Hamburg, but couldn’t get a house to suit, and decided to remain at Napier; Bro. J. S. Clanton, agent Parkville, getting Hamburg, leaving Parkville on bulletin.

C. O. Whalen, formerly at Water Works, relieved at Cursons several weeks.

Bro. V. H. Conard, third Block 36, worked second tower 46 during Bro. C. G. Conard’s vacation.

Bro. V. A. Solider, from Bigelow, relieved Mr. Canfield at Block 36 second, on vacation.

The new depot at Winthrop, Mo., is nearly completed. This will probably make some new positions for our division.

J. S. Gardener, third Armour, off a few days, was relieved by Bro. Solider. If Gardener don’t soon get a card we will have some of the natives mob him.

G. Weigman, a new man from Weston, relieved Bro. R. R. Johnson at Halls a few days recently.

Some of you fellows get busy down on the south end and get some of those nons in line. Have you asked them if they have a card?

Brothers, please keep sending in the news, so we can be well represented in the journal every month. Thanks to Bro. Ockerman, and Bro. O. E. Whalen for news this month.

L. J. MILLER, L. C., Coin, Iowa.

Burlington Division—

It is now Bro. Osborn at Lomax, and Bro. Halterman at Ford. Bro. M. J. Cummings, operator Oskaloosa, was off sick several weeks, relieved by Bro. Smiddy, agent Cedar. Mrs. I. S. Casto, taken sick, was relieved at Cedar by W. W. Stout, who also relieved Bro. Franl while going over the division.

Bro. Franl reports dues being paid rapidly. He secured several applications and a number of promises to line up soon. He also attended the meeting at Peoria on December 14th, and, with Bro. Bellew, attended the meeting at Quincy, December 21st. The boys who can attend don’t know what they are missing or they would be at more of these meetings.

Mr. Rich relieved Roy Alston, agent Noble, and Mr. Smith relieved Bro. Bellew at Yarmouth several days Christmas week.

Brothers, be “live wires” for a month or two now and line up the few nons left. Find out who is up to date; then talk O. R. T. to every non on your branch. Do it yourself; don’t leave it for someone else to do. Almost every one of them promised Bro. Franl faithfully to come in. Don’t let them forget that you are interested in your organization. Read the journal from cover to cover when you get it, and you will have something to tell the nons. Work for your organization and it will work for you. There is more to unionism than carrying an up-to-date. That is necessary, of course, but getting a card is simply the first step. How far would a child get if it was satisfied when it had taken the first step? Get your up-to-date and then see that your neighbor has one or gets it. Ckrt. 8.

Alliance Division—

Mr. King transferred from third Broken Bow to agency at Whitman.

Bro. Davis, first Crawford, off, relieved by Bro. Hughes.

Second and third trick operators laid off at Hyannis, account reduction in force.

Bro. Vant Leven and R. F. Henry gone to Kansas City for awhile, account reduction.

Bro. Jolly has just returned from a visit to his home in Massachusetts. E. S. P.

Alliance-Ravena Subdivision—

Can’t see Bro. L. C. Triggs, at Hazard, for parcel post.

Bro. O. H. Newman, from Omaha relay, bid in third Broken Bow. We are all glad to see Bro. Newman back with us.

Bro. J. L. Boyer, agent Dunning, has resigned to go into business for himself at Sheridan, Ore. We all wish him good luck. Bro. R. H. Stevens draws agency at Dunning.

Bro. King, third Broken Bow, bid in Whitman agency.

Bro. T. J. Cummins, agent Seneca, spent Christmas and a few days in Deadwood, relieved by Local Chairman Powell.

Bro. W. Vant Leven spent a few days in Grand Island, relieved by Bro. Powell.

Chas. Ernstmeyer is on vacation, visiting relatives in Peoria, III.

Bro. Wells, second Ellsworth, off several weeks visiting parents in Oklahoma, relieved by H. C. McKnight, who later relieved Bro. S. E. Stewart, who went to Indiana to spend a few weeks with his parents. Bro. V. H. Ough, acting agent at Ellsworth, until received on bid by Bro. Kennedy, who checked in.

Thanks to Bro. W. M. Fitzgerald for helping on the write-up. Want all of you to call up any of the operators at Seneca when there are any changes, and we will show up in the journal every month. Keep after the nons. Deadwood line is now solid. Bro. Powell is now located at Hem-ingford, and is going to do his best to make that end solid. We want this end to be solid. You can get application blanks by calling me up or writing Bro. Powell. Bro. J. H. Rogers, general secretary and treasurer, at LaCrosse, Wis., says applications are coming in faster than ever. Everyone do your best to get them, and we will make him say it again. G. A. Henry, Cert. 3176.

Creston Division—

We have now started in upon a new year. Let’s try and make it a banner one for the Creston Division. There is only one way in which we can do this—all work together. The backbone of our Order is the membership, so it’s up to the members whether it shall go ahead or go back. They can cause it to do either, so let’s do our part in trying to make it go ahead.

I do not feel as though some of our members on this division are doing their duty; last year there were but two applications received by individual members. This looks bad when there could have been a dozen or more. It’s to the interest of each member to keep his eyes open, and when a new man lights, ask him if he carries an up-to-date; if so, and it’s in some division other than 130, secure the division and certificate numbers, and send to me; if he be a non, talk to him in a nice way and see if you can not secure his application. Should he fail at first to give it to you, don’t get angry with him, for you can’t get them that way; but try and point out to him the good things there are in the Order, and in time, don’t think you will have any trouble in securing his application.

Now, as I said before, I do not feel as though some are doing their duty. For an illustration, I will cite you to a case I had while covering the division a few months ago. I called on a certain non-member who had been working for some time; he was a phoner; I asked him about coming into the Order; he asked me what it was, said he had heard about it, but nobody had said anything to him about joining. I explained it to him, and he immediately gave me his application. He no doubt had worked with many a member, but none had asked him to join.

You can not rely upon one or two to keep the division up, for they can not do it. It’s an impossibility to keep in touch with all the boys. Each and every member should try and do as much as he expects from the other fellow in doing this work.

There are now several new men working on the division; some are located where your local chairman can not see them personally. Writing letters in most cases does no good, for the waste basket usually finds them, so I will ask, should one of these men be working with you, or next station to you, find out if he is a member of some division other than ours; if so, send me his division and certificate numbers; if not a member, then do your best at trying to land him. If you fail in this, advise me and I will try my luck. We must all work together. The sooner this is realized, the sooner our membership is going to increase—not saying our membership on this division is not good, for it is, but it can still be better. Another thing I wish to mention, and that is the write-ups, which mean a lot. Through these write-ups we keep interest up among the boys, but to have good write-ups we must receive items. Some time ago I received a complaint from one of our good brothers on account such short write-ups in the journal from this division. I might say to this that time after time I have sent out as many as fifteen or twenty requests for news, and in return would hear from two or three of the boys. Is it any wonder our write-ups are short? So it’s up to the members again—if they want to see a big write-up each month, send in the items.

Please keep in mind that if your dues are not paid by the last day of February you will become delinquent, and there is no good excuse for this, for the dues are not so high but what we can all pay them when they are due. So I will ask that all those who have not already done so, remit to Bro. J. H. Rogers, Jr., 717 North 10th St., LaCrosse, Wis., your $5.00 O. R. T. dues, and Bro. L. W. Quick, G. S. & T., Star Building, St. Louis, Mo., your assessment to Mutual Benefit Department. Now, boys, do not keep putting off paying these dues. It costs no more to pay them one time than another, and you save your division money by paying them when they are due.

Now, let’s get down to business; do our full duty to the Order, also to the company, and at the close of the year you will see a big difference.

R. L. Hale, Local Chairman.

Bulletin No. 20 of Dec. 12, 1913, assignments:

Second Red Oak, Bro. W. N. Robbins; second Hastings, Bro. D. J. Gleason; third Emerson, A. R. Ellis; third McPherson, C. F. Farthing; second Shenandoah, P. G. Thompson; first Griswold, E. E. Hull. No application received for third Pacific Jct., and M. G. Bacon was employed and assigned to that position.

Dale Ellis and M. G. Bacon have handed in their applications and will soon be up to date.

In the January write-up I stated that Mr. Stoaks, from the Wabash, was relieving Bro. Wills on first Shenandoah. This was an error, as it is Bro. Stoaks instead of Mr. Stoaks, and he was the regular man there, and Bro. Wells from the Wabash relieved him a few days. Later Bro. Wells resigned and went with the O. G. W., at Lohrville, Iowa.

Bro. Rose, first Pacific Jct., is still off duty, but understand he is improving rapidly now.

Bulletin No. 29, Jan. 12, and assignments: Third Corning, Bro. Knight; first Shenandoah, L. O. Price; second Shenandoah, P. G. Thompson. Mr. Price was formerly agent at Anderson, Iowa.
THE RAILROAD TELEGRAFER.

No items received this month from anyone except Bro. Hale.
Bro. Nixon, agent Malvern, spent Sunday with his mother at Mt. Pleasant, recently, and is making numerous trips to Randolph also. “There’s a reason.”

E. B. WALLAHAN.

Omaha Division—
Bro. and Mrs. Holt spent Christmas in Illinois.
Hays and wife, of Goodwin, are taking vacation in the South without a card; relieved by Bro. Sadler.

Mr. Farmer, another “no card man,” of Laurel, is also killing time some place.
Bro. Boyd, besides carrying an up-to-date, is carrying twenty shares in the building and loan. Why can’t the nons have a card?

Bro. and Mrs. Downey spent Christmas with home folks at Page.

A. B. Hass can not see that the Order has ever done any harm.

A number of the other boys have promised to come in during January, and we should be pretty near solid by February or March.

Mr. Reynolds has been helping Mr. Fauble out on this division and checked several stations on the line.

Boomer Sutton got canned at O’Neill days for not “kiting the ball,” relieved by Bro. Hess on bid, who likes the work as well as the town.

Bro. Holt is back to work after a six weeks’ stay in the East.

Bro. Downey took in the poultry show at Sioux City.

Bro. Boyd had his feet warmed up some when the depot at Royal burned, but he only had to “hot foot it” a few days.

Bro. Gordon gave up the idea of going to Uhling.

C. A. Smith, who took the job, will be brother soon.

Bro. Lacey made a flying trip over to Plainview on a three-wheeler, but he ran out of gas coming up the Breslaw hill and was all out of “puff” when he got to “PN.”

Bro. Saddler is still at Waterbury; Geo. Sheely not back yet.

Bro. Marsh, at Jackson, was on the sick list a few days, but is back at the old grind again.

Bro. A. M. Smith was recently heard on the wire at Winnebago; bet he’s getting lonesome to tickle the brass again.

Positions recently bid in by nons: Baum, Louisville tower; Wachal, third South Omaha; Murphy, second South Omaha; Tucker, first South Omaha; and Ward, third Gretta.

Burkett, from Sterling Division, opened Lake ton while the ice rush is on.

Bulletin was issued for operator at Oakland, but no returns yet.

Lincoln Division—

It’s now Bro. E. E. Thropp, second Cobb, landed by Bro. W. S. Harris at Cobb. Bro. Harris only had to pay $3.00 dues this term, as he landed two new members and Bro. Rogers gave him credit for $2.00 on his 1914 card. Get busy, boys, it’s worth while and help make the Lincoln Division solid. Some brother help Bro. Tyner out on the high line; Bro. Tyner, at Cario, landed one and Bro. Baker, at York, one.

Bro. Chas. G. Irwin, Loup City operator, landed by his brother, Bro. Dick, of Hastings passenger station. Dick is another of the boys that cut down his term dues by landing a member. I say! This year is starting out O. K., so all of you boys get busy, including Bro. Chidester and Kaney, who meet with the nons all the time when doing the relief work.

Bro. C. M. Halstead, first “KY” Lincoln, on the sick list, relieved by Bro. Hayes, from “NI” office.

Bro. J. E. Elinor, first “HN” Hastings, made a business trip to Alma between shifts. Jim had a real estate trade on.

Bro. V. D. Chidester, a St. Paul visitor, while on his way to Denver for a few days’ visit with “mother and sister.”

Mr. Biggerstaff, second Ravenna, on vacation, relieved by Mr. Briggs, a new man who later relieved Geo. Ehardt, first Ravenna, while the latter attended the wedding of his sister at Hastings.

Bro. R. B. Silver’s, first Sutton, one of the charter members of Division No. 130, was recently married. Congratulations.

Operator Blackeser, third Crete, on vacation, relieved by Mr. E. J. Weshinsky, from the Alliance Division.

Understand Bro. G. O. Vant, second “GS” Hastings, is getting to be a star boarder at the motion picture shows at Hastings.

Cobb is now reduced to two men, P. M. Orrell resigning. Bro. Harris now works noon to 9 p. m., Bro. E. E. Thropp, 9 p. m. to 6 a. m. The office is closed from 6 a. m. to noon.

Bro. G. O. Vant, second “GS” Hastings, was an Ingleside visitor this month. He returned O. K. so he must still be a sane operator.

Bro. Andy Kline working extra at Ulysses, Bro. Cook filling Andy’s place at Cairo.

F. R. Underwood, Norman, made a business trip to Minden this month in his car. Somebody trade him an O. R. T. card for that car.
Bro. J. P. Fahey, the correspondent's chief adviser on the Pumpkin Vine line, says nothing to report, on account of nobody laying off, canned or removed by death or otherwise. Thanks just the same, "JF."

Understand Mr. G. E. Harriman, third Ravena, was married recently. All he needs now is an up-to-date card to make happiness complete.

Bro. A. A. Canfield, Inland, is sticking around Inland close. What has stopped his monthly trips to Hastings?

Bro. J. E. Elinor, first "HN" Hastings, has traded his ten-acre fruit farm in Utah for a nice nine-room modern cottage in the city of Aurora, Neb. Here's hoping Bro. Elinor will be able to trade his Aurora home for one in Hastings, where he can use it himself.

Bro. R. V. Starks, agent Fairmont, was a Sunday Greta visitor.

Lots of honeymoons on the Lincoln Division, but Bro. D. Irwine, Hastings, says restaurant grub still tastes good to him.

Assignments: R. R. Burns, first Milford; Bro. F. F. Mueller, second Milford; Bro. W. F. Nicholas, operator and clerk Sargent. There is nothing pending bulletin just now.

Bro. A. S. Kellog, Palmer; C. M. Halstead, Lincoln; H. H. Golden, Grafton; C. R. Baker, York; C. C. Whitcomb, Hampton; W. R. Ball, York; W. G. Weaver, Exeter; E. H. Bladerson, Kemesaw; C. F. Nicholas, Sargent; R. V. Starks, Fairmont, paid up before January 1, 1914. I do hope all the boys will be paid up on or before March 1st, and then we will feel that the Lincoln Division is entitled to the prize as the most prompt division on the Burlington System.

"WA," Div. Cor.

Wymore Division—

The members are paying up fine on this division and I trust by the time this reaches your hands all will be carrying an up-to-date card, or if not, they will make it a point to remit immediately and get one.

By paying up you save the secretary, general chairman and your local chairman becoming prematurely gray-headed from worry from fear that you are going to drop out. Then it looks better for a division when all members are paid up right on the dot. Looks like we were a bunch of live wires and I know we all take more interest in the work when we take enough interest to get in line to start with.

The Relay Division has been rather hard hit by reduction of force recently, four men being taken off at "SN" Wymore, but thanks to the schedule the oldest men retained their rights and positions. Those who lost out at Wymore were Wells, Fears, Heilman and Williams.

Bro. T. M. Mann, the sage of Table Rock, has been enjoying a thirty days' leave of absence, relieved by Mr. Hawkins.

On account of reduction in force, Bro. Pekar is temporarily at Pawnee as helper, awaiting business to open up.

Bro. Sanders, agent Vesta, bid in Bruning station; Bro. Haley to Vesta temporarily.

Bro. F. A. Young, agent Dunbar, on vacation, relieved by Mr. Hargis.

Bro. Harvey Grimes has returned from his outing in Texas, and bid in Johnson agency.

Extra men Hargis, Pekar, New and Alva Antrim laid off on account reducing force.

Bro. Miller, third Rulo, recently on leave of absence, relieved by Mr. Hawkins.

Bro. Glenn, agent Ong, recently away on account of a death in the family, relieved by Bro. Tom Antrim.

Bro. Bert Harpster is back to agency Burchard after having helped to get Mr. Ocker installed as agent at Beatrice.

Keep after the nuns, and remember, "No card, no favors."

Div. Cor.

Sheridan Division—

Bro. Roode, Verona agency, went to Thermopolis Springs for treatment for rheumatism, relieved by Bro. D. Gustafson. We hope for his speedy recovery.

Business has fallen off and telegraph jobs have been closed: Second at Greybull, Frannie and Dietz; third at Ranchester and Alger; second and third at Verona and Rozet and Thornton nights. Most of these were opened temporarily on account of stock and coal rush and were filled by new men, most of whom left the service as soon as the positions were closed.

It is now Bro. Beck at Manderson. We are certainly glad to see "CB" get in line.

Sister Young, second Wyola, on sick list a few days, relieved by Miss Cora Ketrin.

Bro. Lynch, who bid in Ionia, relieved at Corinth nights by Bro. Lowe, extra, later bid back Corinth nights, Bro. Lowe going to Ionia pending bulletin; third Gillette and second Ulm also on bulletin.

Second Alger assigned to R. G. Burt, who proved up on his homestead near Thornton. Hope Mr. Burt will get back in line.

Bro. Taylor, agent Bonneville, has moved his family there after an extended visit with Bro. Norton and family at Garland.

Bro. Bietel, Gillette third, bid in second, moving his family there from Sheridan.

K. C. Fortner, assigned Ionia nights, promises next pay day.

Bro. Young, agent Wyola, enjoyed a visit during the holidays with his two sons, Glenn and Harold, home for vacation from school.

Mr. Lewin, agent Ranchester, promises next pay day. Boys, we need your assistance to line up these nuns.
It is now Bro. W. C. Elder, third Hardin. Remember that your dues for the first half of the new year are now payable and don't wait to get your new cards until the last moment. We hope our three delinquents will not allow their names to be dropped from the list of members and trust during the few days yet remaining that they will pay up. No man should permit his name to be dropped with the benefits we are deriving from the Order. We can not expect to secure more benefits with no more interest than to permit ourselves to be dropped on account of failure to pay our dues. I earnestly hope that the first period of this new year will find every member paid up to date.

It is to be regretted that on account of poor train services we can not hold regular meetings on this division, and it is therefore necessary that every member put forth an extra effort to assist in keeping the division in proper condition. We are stronger on this division than we have been for a long time, but it is desired that we should be 100 per cent strong and will take the combined effort of all members to attain this mark. Won't you help to do it?

I wish to thank Bro. Gustafson for his assistance by furnishing several items, also Bro. Best and Bro. Young.

Remember "No card, no favors," and let's make our motto for 1914, "100 per cent strong."

J. E. Wham, L. C.

McCook Division—

Assignments: Bro. D. C. Crane, agent Pinneo; Bro. P. M. Green, agent Ludell; E. Johnson, third Oie; Bro. C. C. Field, third Arapahoe.

Bro. Stark, third Republican, was an Orleans visitor recently. Looks like a schoolmarm will change her name if things keep going this way.

Bro. Salada is first Alma, and Bro. Hoppe on nights. Mr. Brooks gone farming. We wish a few more of the nons would do likewise or join us.

Extra man at Ft. Morgan pulled off December 15th; beet season about over.

Bro. Buck, Bartley nights, was off several weeks.

No one gave me news except Bros. Pexton and Jordan. Hope you will do better next time.

Bro. Landau, LaFayette, and Bro. Sweeney, agent Lyons, were Denver visitors between trains recently.

Bros, get your new cards on time this term, as we wish to go in soon for a revision and we must be 100 per cent, or near that at least, to do any good. If you do not get what you want and are a non or a delinquent you have no one to blame but yourselves. It takes time to write each one in regard to his delinquency that we should have to put in after the non, so please pay up promptly. There are fewer to be dropped this term on this division than at any time since I have been local chairman and I wish to assure you I appreciate it very much, and only hope you will continue to keep up the good record.

Let's have more news for the next issue.

C. R. Hunt.

Atlantic Coast Line Ry.

Wilson, N. C., Dec. 26th, 1913.

All Members Division One Hundred Thirty-two, Greeting—

It has not been customary heretofore to publish the names of members who secured less than five new members during any one year, but I am going to give the names of all members who have secured, and sent me during the present year one or more applications, and I am going to show those who have secured prizes offered by Bro. Quick. If I should leave off any name it will not be intentional, as I call this my roll of honor, and I would hate for any member to be left off who should appear thereon.

If your name is not on this list, see that it appears on the one for the year 1914, and with a sufficient number to get one of the larger prizes of Bro. Quick.

While everybody can't be a prize-winner, everybody can make an effort, and in order that you may not lose anything by your efforts, this division will continue to give prizes to every member securing one member, and a prize for each member, no matter how many you get.

While I have not the time to confer with the committee before this letter goes to The Telegrapher, I believe I can promise a prize of at least ten dollars in value to the member securing the largest number of applications during the year, and another of the same value to the local chairman securing the largest number. Therefore the local chairmen who have an advantage will not come in competition with the membership at large.

I know these sixty-two members are proud that they have been able to induce one or more men to take a step that will mean much to them in the future. I also know there are many other members on the system who have tried to get applications, and it is not their fault that their names are not on the honor roll.

I wish to thank everyone who in any way contributed toward securing a new member, and want to ask each member on the system to try and get on the honor roll for 1914.

J. H. WILLIAMS, G. S. & T.

First Division, Fayetteville District—

A happy New Year to all, is the wish of the writer. While this will reach you some time after the new year, you will know that the wish was made at the proper time, and our only regret is that it could not be expressed to you in person.

This is being written the day after Christmas, and before we have heard how the day was spent by our members, but it is our sincere wish that everyone spent it in a manner befitting the event it is intended to commemorate, and that each had in his heart the true Christmas spirit. That each of us may feel we have contributed in a degree toward making someone happy this holiday season. We also hope there has been no mishap to or by any member of the O. R. T., and that everyone has felt his responsibility and performed his full duty in every respect.

There is no nobler desire than that of doing good, and this is the season to bring out all the good there is in our nature's. May much happiness have been enjoyed as a result of this desire on the part of the men on the Fayetteville District.

On account of the Christmas rush it has been impossible to get the notes of happenings on the district, but will give what few I have gathered, with the wish that we may have something in each issue of the journal during the entire year of 1914, and that when the year is closed we may all be more proud of the district and the work accomplished than in any previous year, and that the next holiday season will not find a non-member on the entire district.

Bro. O. S. Miller, of Pee Dee, bid in second Rowland, and Bro. J. L. Doggett, formerly with the Southern Railway, bid in third there. This makes Rowland solid once more. Mr. Bradford, who worked here for a short time, would have joined if he had remained on the district, but preferred to move further south.

Bro. H. T. Prevost, first Rowland, was off few days, relieved by Bro. Wise.

Bro. W. J. Summerlin, second Latta, spent the holidays with his people at Wilson.

We were very sorry to hear Bro. Todd, of "DI" South Rocky Mount, lost his month's salary. Certainly bad time to lose anything like that. Third "YD" South Rocky Mount assigned to Bro. W. H. Parker. Not the oldest bidder, but a good man. Bro. A. J. Todd, first "DI" South Rocky Mount, off for a few days first of the month, relieved by Bro. Jones, from "YD." Bro. Whitlock, third "DI" South Rocky Mount, relieved Bro. Clark, first Dillon, ten days, relieved by Bro. W. H. Parker.

Bro. Bill Alley assigned second Dillon. Understand he is contemplating a trip in January, accompanied by Mrs. Alley (to be). Congratulations in advance.

Understand Bro. Yelvington, of "DI" South Rocky Mount, is going back to his farm. Sorry to lose such a brother, as we can't afford to let the good ones go.

The uncertain weather has affected the phone circuits greatly within the last month. Morse being resorted to at frequent intervals.

Our chief dispatcher said early in the month that he had fifty applications for relief for four or five days at Christmas, and that some one would be disappointed. We are sorry for those who could not get away to spend the day with their loved ones.

If the members will let Bro. Bridgers or Bro. Williams have notes by the 20th of each month, they will see that the district has a write-up each month during the coming year. Div. Cox.

First Division, Richmond District—

Your correspondent has been in the Christmas rush too much to gain sufficient information to send in an interesting write-up this month, but does not want the new year to find us conspicuous by our absence.

I want every member on the district to send to Bro. McCotter by the 20th of each month such items of interest as he has been able to pick up during the month, and if this is done I will promise there shall be no absence of the Richmond District during the year 1914.

I believe it is expected that the new double track between Pleasant Hill and Collier will be put in operation early in the new year. When the interlocking plants are completed at Falling Creek Yard, and put in operation, the line will be double tracked and in operation from Richmond to Selma, a distance of 161 miles, and the forces are already putting in double track bridges between Selma and Parkton, about 65 miles further. When all this work is completed there will probably be a further reduction in the number of men employed in the telegraph and telephone service, but if it makes the number get scarce as fast as it did when the offices were closed between Rocky Mount and Pleasant Hill, it will be practically impossible for a man to get relief. We thought there would be plenty of extra men when these offices were closed, but such was not the case. It was not two weeks before regular offices had to be closed temporarily because of scarcity of men.

We now have on the district only three or four nons. Mr. Boisseau, at Pleasant Hill, promised to get a card on January 1st.

The latest addition to our ranks is Bro. L. R. Slagle, at Huske. We welcome him and wish him a happy New Year with an up-to-date card to tide him over many storms.
We have one prize winner in Bro. Quick's contest for members securing applications during the year. Bro. McCotter, local chairman; he will not be able to get one in 1914 unless we get in some new material, however, as there are not enough eligible nons on the district at present to win anybody a prize. We hope, however, to see them all either members or gone before the end of January. Go after any non you know and see if you can't get him to join. Div. Cor.

First Division, Columbia District—

That was some grand time we had in Florence at the banquet, the account of which appeared in the November journal. The occasion would have been a credit to a much more prominent but less worthy class than railroad telegraphers. It is these fraternal gatherings that make the organization a force for good among its own members, and the more frequently they are held, the quicker we will all learn the meaning of true unionism. Every man who attended this affair will try to be present at the next one, and most of us hope it will not be far away.

Now that regular monthly meetings are being held in Charleston, we hope more of the members from the Columbia District will try to attend. They are being held on the second Sunday in each month, on arrival of train 79, and close in time to return on 78 or 82, so the schedules are convenient for us to go down and get back the same day.

We expect the Wadesboro agency case will be handled shortly and some change made at that point.

Several of the nons on this district promised to join January 1st, and we sincerely hope every one will live up to his promise and make us solid. There is not a single man on this district who would not be acceptable to us. It is therefore our duty to try to get every one of them to become members at once.

Bro. W. S. Clark, of Wadesboro, has been doing considerable relief work, relieved Bro. Mooneghan at Elliott, S. C., who went to Florida to spend the holidays.

Bro. Charles Bolick, of Florence, recently purchased a $5,000 home there and has gone to housekeeping. We wish him all kinds of happiness.

Here's wishing each member of the O. R. T. will have a very happy and prosperous new year. Div. Cor.

First Division, Norfolk District—

It is a pleasure to see so many good articles from the Coast Line as appeared in the November journal. I find just one district on the system failed to have something in that journal, while two or three districts had two articles. When we read these articles and learn there are so few nons on many districts, it encourages us very much and shows that we are not half as dead as some of our critics would try to make believe. It also shows that we have some pretty "live wires" scattered over the road, for no line can be kept well organized unless there is someone behind the men to spur them up to larger things.

One new member during the present month—Bro. W. H. Hedgepeth, of Hobgood.

We sincerely trust the new year will be a happy one for every member of the O. R. T. and that every agent and telegrapher on this district will be a member, including dispatchers, and hope to call them all brothers ere long. They certainly need our assistance, and we could be mutually helpful.

D. J. Brock, who worked at various places on this district, has accepted a position as bill clerk at Greenville and moved his family back to North Carolina. Div. Cor.

First Division, Wilmington District—

Each month finds us a little nearer solid than the month previous. A few more trips by Bro. Williams over the district would make us almost solid. On his last trip to Wilmington he secured the application of Bro. C. W. Futch, of Smith's Creek yard, and the promise of two or three more on January 1st.

There is just one delinquent on the entire district. Let's find out who he is, write him a personal letter and see if we can't get him to pay up.

Bro. P. H. Barfield, of Mount Olive, has been appointed agent at Mayesville, vicé Bro. J. H. Foy, resigned.

Bro. J. D. McMillan was let out at Warsaw for sleeping on duty. Sorry to learn of this, as we hoped that the sleeping had been cut out. Can't expect anything but dismissal when an eight-hour man is caught asleep on duty. Div. Cor.

Second Division, Savannah District—

I have located a number of the new men members of another division, and they will be transferred promptly when the proper time arrives. The membership do not seem to realize the importance of ascertaining, when a new man arrives, whether he is a member or not, or advising the chairman. We should be on the alert at all times, but especially at this season of the year, when the blocks are opened and so many new men are arriving. We are constantly losing members through their being transferred to another division, and it is necessary that we transfer those arriving in order to keep pace.

Glad to learn that Bro. S. L. Thompson, Allenhurst, Ga., has returned to work, after an illness.

Bro. Strickland, suffering from vaccination, is in the Waycross hospital. Hope to see him out soon.

Bro. Lewis, Patterson, Ga., confined to his bed with smallpox. We regret to hear this. "Red" is a good scout, and we hope to hear of his early return, completely recovered.

We are pleased to Chronicle the following as having joined recently: M. B. Mullinax, Shea, Ga.; L. W. Strickland, Ways, Ga.; E. A. Bright, Winokur, Ga.; B. W. Roy, "YN" office Jax; C. A. Browning, "YN" Jax, Fla. and H. B. Kauffman, Baldwin, Fla.
It would be pleasing to receive the applications of Mr. and Mrs. Loux, who have been and are working tricks at McKinnon the third consecutive year, which would seem to indicate that the climatic as well as the working conditions are satisfactory to them.

The writer is indebted to someone for sending him a copy of the December issue of the Commercial Telegraphers' Journal, which would certainly be an "eye opener" to a great many who wonder at the seemingly slow progress of our commercial brothers to reorganize. The tactics outlined as being employed by the Western Union and their hirelings is a disgrace to a man claiming American citizenship. Imagine for yourself a company hiring two Pinkerton men and several others to follow the movements of one of our Grand officers with the express purpose of getting hold of data in his possession that would assist them in their endeavor to break up the union—a right guaranteed us under the Constitution—secure an adjoining room at each hotel, if possible; if not to bribe a hotel employe to gain access to his room during his absence, get his baggage out of the parcel room and baggage room under false pretense, etc. Some of them—one time operators—when questioned by the officials as to his excessive expense account, which ran up to $8 per day, stated that it was necessary to be a good fellow in order to get "next," or words to that effect. Bro. Konenkamp and those who are building up the C. T. U. A. under the above conditions, are deserving of great credit, and should receive the undivided efforts and assistance of all the crafts, and anyone who believes in a square deal. Get hold of the C. T. U. A. journal and read for yourselves.

Among the new men to arrive for the block season are a number who are members of other divisions: Bro. C. E. Edwards, Central of Georgia Division; Bro. G. E. Campbell, Division 7; Bro. Wise, Division 53; Bro. O. K. Fleming, Division 33; Bro. T. J. Miller, Division 96, and no doubt a number of others who have not been reported to the chairman.

The block offices were officially opened January 5th. This necessitated the putting on of about forty more men.

On account of the increased work at Jesup during the tourist season, there has been a fifth man added to the regular force of four men.

Second "DE" Savannah on bulletin temporarily, vice Bro. Clements, working a trick as dispatcher.

Has your wife, sister, mother or daughter joined the auxiliary?

Second Division, Waycross District—

The date set for the annual banquet is Saturday night, May 23d. The same arrangements as were made last year will be made this year, namely: Members Waycross to Thomasville will come on No. 180 and return on No. 57; between Waycross and Brunswick, come on No. 90 and return on No. 91 Sunday morning; between Waycross and Albany, come on No. 97 and return on Nos. 32, 94 and 92, and 96 Sunday morning. Expect all will return on Nos. 32, 94 and 92 that night. Between Albany and Thomasville, come via Albany or Thomasville, returning on Nos. 57 or 92 that night and branch lines trains Sunday morning. Between Dupont and High Springs, come on No. 42 and return on No. 43 Sunday morning. Business conditions will, of course, be considered in excusing the men, but it is expected that as many, if not more, can come than did last year—probably between fifty and sixty. The price will be $2 per plate; if a member brings a lady it will, of course, be $4, and it is expected that everyone will try to bring a lady with him, so as to make it as large a social affair as possible.

If the brothers co-operate and help me this year as they did last year, we can easily have between 150 and 200 present.

It is expected that the chief dispatchers, trainmasters and superintendents of the Waycross and Savannah Districts, the general superintendent, superintendent of transportation, your general chairman, general secretary and fourth vice-president will be present, provided business or other engagements do not prevent. A circular letter will be mailed on this later and be an advance notice for all who are to attend to remit.

It is desired to have a musical program by a first-class string band while the "eats are going down.

Let's make this the social event of the system for 1914.

The seniority list has just been made up, and I have given each man on the district who entered the service prior to December 31st, 1913, a number, which will show just where he stands on the list. For instance, the oldest man is No. 1, the tenth man down the list is No. 10; thus, if a man has No. 99 he would know there were 98 men older than he is on the district.

Hereafter, on bulletin cards showing assignments, I will show, in addition to the name of the man assigned, his number also, which will show just where he stands on the seniority list, and by doing this, each man can see how far he has missed getting the job if he bids on it. I am sending Bros. Moore, of Hoboken, and Hughes, of Glenmore, each a copy of the seniority list, and anyone desiring to know what his number is can find out from them or from me at the Waycross yard office. I thought at one time of having copies of the list printed and furnishing each member a copy, but have decided that the method of giving each man a number will be just as good.
and cheaper, also; and then it lets me give the members on the district the position each man assigned jobs on bulletin holds on the seniority list, in addition to his name. You can also find out if he is a member or not from either myself, Bro. Hughes, Bro. Moore or Bro. Sasseer, and I hope you will all endeavor to do all you can towards getting the district lined up solid. We had on this district on January 1st sixteen nons, and of those, six are not eligible to membership for one reason or another; the other ten will be in on the 8th. This will give us an even 100 members out of 106 men.

A. L. Pixley, Local Chairman.

Waycross District Notes—

All brothers should, when bidding on jobs, make separate bids for each job in duplicate, so the local chairman can hold one for his record and send the superintendent one.

Following jobs have been bulletinized and bid in: Naylor, operator-clip, by Bro. M. G. Braswell; Camilla agency by Bro. M. B. Mock; Suwannee, agent-operator, by Bro. S. C. Musley; Bro. W. L. Freeman, agent-operator Haylow; Bro. W. J. Booth, second, and T. W. Thompson, third Quitman; R. H. Jones, third Sylvester, and Pine Mount agent-operator, which has not yet been filled.

Bro. C. C. Rudd assigned Ruskin agent-operator, which leaves Ousley agent-operator on bulletin. Bro. E. Woody, who was assigned second Homerville, leaves Cutting agent-operator for bulletin. Mr. E. J. Ray, second Valdosta, bid in third there and Mr. M. G. Cecil bid in second there. Bro. Braddock, extra man, went to second Waycross yard, while Bro. Hack is doing the extra work in "F" office Waycross. It did not seem right to have a brother at Valdosta on account of it having been a solid non office so long. Messrs. Ray and McQuaig are still there with their promises, but nothing more as yet. They are two good men and we hope they will soon see the error of their ways and line up. I understand that Mr. McQuaig told Bro. Pixley that he had the money to join, but could not right now, as he did not know when he might need the ten spot. I wish he would get it into his head that there is no better place he could put it than with Bros. Quick and Williams and be called brother instead of Mr. Non.

Good news soon; guess what?

Mr. Lary, who has been with us for so long, has gone to Savannah District as dispatcher. We wish him the best of success at his new job.

Telephones have been installed between Waycross and Thomasville and put in operation in January. They will make our Order that much stronger, as it will give us a better chance than ever to talk to the nons and to get acquainted by voice as well as by "ticks." But it is funny how the ticks stick, isn't it? Even the cattle men have noticed it.

Watch your train orders, brothers, and see that you don't deliver any to conductors that are scratched or have anything left out. They have to turn them in to the superintendent now, and the man who delivers an improper order stands a good chance for ten days' suspension. This also applies to clearance cards as well as 31 and 19 orders.

Bro. R. C. Mansfield is at Naylor pending bulletin.

Bro. F. A. Crittenden took two more days off lately.

It is hoped that all the brothers will not put off any longer the idea of getting their new cards promptly. It is a good idea to have them at the opening of each new period. I notice that a good many of the boys had paid up by January 5th, but sorry to see that some of the best brothers did not appear on the list. I hope that by the time I get another list things will look better. Nothing like always having an up-to-date.

Bro. Hughes, of Glenmore, is running a fine race for tax receiver and if present indications are good for anything he will be elected by a large majority, for he is justly popular with every one and is a great bird hunter to boot. Bet on Hughes. It is related also that last summer he, while out fishing with Bro. Pixley, rescued a lady who had fallen in the pond. The water was over her heel, but Hughes waded in and brought her out, as the water only came to his knees. (F. S.—The lady was over five feet tall, too.)

Every one go after the nons and don't take "No" for an answer, but keep right after them until they line up. If every brother will make it a point to talk to every non on the wires and those he has in his office just once a week we would soon be rid of this matter. This would mean that every brother talk to a non about four times a month, and that the non would be talked to about four hundred times a month. No trouble for the brother to do this and how long do you think the nons could stand such a pressure? Not but a very little while.

Wonder if it will ever be Bro. Beatty, of Lake City? Perhaps if the brothers on the High Springs Line will each one write him a letter just once a month, telling him the many reasons why he should join, he might do the right thing.

Every one pull for the banquet on the 23rd of May and let's make it the biggest and best ever held by the operators in the Southeast. We can do it by every man sending his $2.00 to Bro. Pixley as soon as he receives Bro. Pixley's circular letter about it. If a man wants to come and remits, if he is later prevented from doing so and advises Bro. Pixley by the 21st of May that he can not attend Bro. Pixley will return his money. The price last year was $1.50, but as Bro. Pixley ran short about $15.00 and this year it is desired to have a string band of six dusky artists to furnish music while we eat, the Committee on Arrangements think they can pull out on $2.00 a plate, for there are a good many extra expenses in addition to the actual cost of the banquet such as menu's printing, hall and room rent of the ladies' parlor and also the guests of honor. It is hoped that the Savannah District officials can make the same arrangements with Bro. Hollahan, local chairman of the Savannah District, as the Waycross District in regards to letting the men come and get back on first train.

F. A. CRITTENDEN.

Second Division, Charleston District—

Now that the heaviest season of the year is on us, it behooves each and every one of us to mend our gait and keep up with the increased speed of traffic. Let's all take our right rest and be "right on the job" at all times. Give the required information as promptly and explicit as possible, and keep our department clear of any delays whatsoever. As we are all aware, the one who fails short of what is required of him always looks for some place to lay the responsibility, and as the operator is apparently responsible, it will most assuredly be laid upon his shoulders if any possible way to do it. Delayed by operator not handing up a "119" properly; not answering his call promptly; too slow in delivering the goods; wouldn't say when he was coming; unable to wake up operator; get no sense out of him; green horn on the telephone, or most any old thing to keep it from where it really belongs.

I have been very busy this month, and have had no time to drum up anything for The Telegrapher, and I think it as little as some of the boys on the line can do, to send in a few notes. You won't attend the meeting once a month; never speak a word to the non you work with every day; don't send in any notes, so what proof have you that you are an up-to-date member of the Order? Not a thing in the world but your division card. Let's all wake up and get busy. Work in lividually during the month and come in on the second Sunday and let's all tell what we have done "for the good of the Order." If impossible for you to make it in this month, send in your notes and try and swap off and be here next time. We have a few brothers on the line who are at one-man stations and have not missed a single meeting. Now where there are three and four at one station and not a single member attended yet; I would love to hear some of those excuses one by one (see, but the variation that would be mixed up in them). Two or three individuals can't possibly make a live district. It is absolutely necessary for each and every member to do his part before we will reach that standard for which we are striving, at least the standard we claim to be striving for, but our works do not show it.

Bro. Williams will make a trip over our district now shortly and it is to be hoped he will meet with the success he did on a trip about this season last year. If any of us have not paid dues, have them ready for him, if you will not come in and pay them at a meeting. Keep after the non and have them ready by the time he reaches you.

Since the last issue of The Telegrapher we are glad to report that Bros. R. M. Huey and B. C. Addison have been added to our ranks, and by the time this issue reaches you we hope to have added several more, and if you will come in to the meetings, you will get to witness the initiations and get the news "right up to date" and not have to depend entirely upon The Telegrapher for everything that happens right in your reach.

No one has been reported as being on the sick list, but on inquiring of Bro. Carn, at Ashley Jet., having broken a "hunting date" was informed that he was in bed sick. Hope he will soon be able to be out again, as we all miss him.

Some of the recent assignments are: Bro. Kirton to third Lake City; Bro. Belger to second Greenpond, and Bro. Weatherford to third Effingham; also Bro. H. E. Rodgers and Bro. Addison to second and third Ravenel. With Bennetts yard and the new tower at Santee River, six more men will be cared for through the summer than in former years. Let's all try and induce the right kind of men to bid, on these positions. Those we think will stick and make worthy members.

H. E. BOLICK.

Second Division, Montgomery District—

We want every member on this district to interest himself at once to help us get in all the non's. They have no valid excuse for not getting a card. We must show them the many advantages they are already enjoying, secured through our own efforts (not theirs by any means), and perhaps we can touch the right spot and get their applications. We have had some mighty fine promises, but they don't pay bills nor pay dues either, and for that reason we prefer taking cash in payment hereafter.

Bro. Williams will probably be over the district some time during January or February and he will no doubt call on all the non's and as many of the members as possible. A visit from him will do lots of good.

Bro. Quick's prize contest closed December 31st, and at least one of our members will get a prize, while others on the district have secured one or more members, and deserve credit for the work they have done toward the complete organization of the district.

I hope this good work will continue during the coming year, and that more than one prize will come to the Montgomery District, provided the supply of non's does not run short, but I hope it will become exhausted early in the year.

D. C.

Third Division, Gainesville District—

This was the only district on the system not represented in the November Telegrapher, simply because no one sent any notes to Bro. Martin or to anyone else. If the members on this district will send items to Bro. Martin by the 18th or 19th of each month, he will see that they are gotten in shape for the journal. Lots of useful information can be secured in this way.

Bro. Martin is one of the prize winners this year, as he was last year; only, we understand, he gets a larger prize this time, as he secured more new members. There are some nons left, however, and someone else can win a prize if they go to work for one. Some of the live members who have not as much work to do as I, get busy on them. You can rest assured I will do my part, also, but can’t reach all of them.

It is now time for new men to be coming on the district, and you should send Bro. Martin and Bro. Williams, general secretary and treasurer, the names of all new men now on the district, and others as they land. Don’t wait for someone else, but send them yourself. It would be much better to hear from a dozen that a new man had arrived than for a dozen to wait for someone else to do it and the new man’s name not be sent at all.

Bro. M. E. Ardrey, of Dunedin, has gone with the Seaboard at Tampa. There are two nons at Dunedin, and Bro. Sanders will no doubt show them the error of their ways and lead them to see the light.

There are several other nons on the Fla. Sou.
and S. & St. P. who have promised to send in their applications the first of the year. All the members down that way see that these promises are kept, or know the reason why.

Let’s commence the new year with a determination to make it the banner year of our existence, and send the largest delegation to St. Louis in 1915 that has ever gone from the Atlantic Coast Line.

FLA. CRACKER.

Third Division, Lake and District—

If the members on this district will send a list of the changes and any other news notes to Bro.
Let any time before the 20th of the month, he will get them in shape for publication or send them to his regular correspondent it one has been appointed by that time.

Let’s make the year 1914 memorable by the things we do in South Florida. We have the best country in the U. S., and the U. S. is the best country in the world; so we are ahead of everybody in one respect. Let’s get ahead in other. There is no reason why we should not be solid, and if each member would try to get another member, we would be solid from High Springs to Fort Myers. Let’s try this for one month and then note the result. Am sure it would surprise many of the oldest members down this way, and certainly surprise the nons if we all went after them at one time. They would wonder what hit them.

GATOR.

Lakeland District Notes

It would be a great help to me in getting a nice write-up each month from our district if you will all send me the changes, etc., by the 20th of the month. It is impossible for me to learn them all without such assistance. Let us all see how much more we can do for the Order this year than we did last. There is room for you to work as much and as hard as you wish.
You will never do too much, no matter how much or what you do.

We are going to soon want a revision of our schedule, and we must get busy and line up better than we are at present to get it. There are several nons on the district, and you all know where and who they are. They have been asked a number of times to join and help us carry the burden, but this remedy is of no avail. We must take some other step. Who will do it? We can not afford to let them rob us of our toil, as hard as we have worked for what we are getting. They are drawing each month enough money which the O. R. T. has gotten for them to join us any month in the year. Let’s get after them with a new vim and see if we can not get them in.

Bro. W. D. Harnage, agent Croome, off a few days, was relieved by Bro. J. E. Long, third Croome, and he by Mr. Jordan, a new man. Understand Bro. Long is going to be married soon.
J. M. Huieet, third Tribly, off fifteen days’ visiting relatives in South Carolina, was relieved by a new man, who did not stay with us long.

Istachatta agency on bulletin not up yet. Do not know what Bro. Collins’ move is.

DIV. COR., CERT. 1265.

“Big Four” Ry.

Cairo Division—North End—

We are now working under the new order of things, with the dispatcher’s office at Mt. Carmel.
J. J. Skinner, chief dispatcher, with former chief at Harrisburg, now night chief. In the “DG” office we have Bros. Mitchell, Rogers, Hedrick and Fry. Bellamy, for the north end, and Casey for the south end, car distributors. It seems undecided just yet as to where the trainmasters are to be located, though probably at Lyons and Mt. Carmel.

We note the following assignments: Bros.
Hayes and Michaels, first and third Cherry; Bro.
Hestlin, second Allendale; Bro. J. L. Steele, first Bliss; V. A. Goodner, second Hobbs; Chas.
Goodner, the trick at “RJ” Lyons; Bro. Anthis working third at Marshall; Walter G. Boylan is back with us again now on third “VD”.

We all owe the very best of our efforts to our employers, if we would be faithful employees. It doesn’t look well to ask for the same information you have in an order just received. One instance came to the notice of the writer, that was absolutely grotesque and absurd.
The dispatcher had just sent a wait order for 28. The operator finished “AAH” and turned right around and asked him about what time will 28 be here? Is it any wonder a dispatcher loses his religion with such “dummy” work? Put your mind on your business and give your employer value received.

On bulletin: Second at “DX” and “DG,” third at “WG,” “DG,” and “YD.”

Agent Miller, of Birds, bid in agency Flat
Rock, vice M. A. Miller, resigned.

Telegrapher Hobbs bid in second “RS,” and Bro. Wilson second “SX,” was quarantined, and consequently off several weeks.
Bro. Byers is on first “BI,” Telegrapher Buckner second telegrapher.

Kendall has resumed on third Marshall.

Bro. Steele, second “ONS,” on a visit to Wabash, Ind., was relieved by Telegrapher Ault.

Notices of vacancies in the agencies at West York and Birds were issued.

Extra Dispatcher Hedrick has been utilized several times lately to fill temporary vacancies.

Bro. Weaver, of Grand Chain, to first Allendale, Grand Chain having been closed.

We understand that Bro. Pat is going down into Old Mexico. A good chance for him to do some missionary work. He might also fix their currency while there.

Boys, send in your items. Cert. 871.

Indianapolis Division—

I was out of town at the time for the items to go in last month, so we had no news in the January number.

The boys are glad they have a job these hard times, and are going to keep working it while it lasts.

Business is kind of short, and the company is reducing expenses by cutting out offices. Two at Muncie, Degraff and Harrisville, and three at Elroy closed, and it is rumored other offices will be closed. The following brothers, and others, "bumped" and "got bumped!" Bro. Newfarmer, second Muncie to third Hart, Bro. Sellers to second there; Mr. Flinn to third So. Anderson; Bro. Terry to second Taft, and Bro. Weckley to third Belt Junction; Bro. Ferree quit and went west. Bro. Kautzman, third Muncie, to Hart first; Bro. Melvin to third there.

Bro. Newfarmer to first Spafford; Bro. Atkinson to third there, and Mr. Shoffner off. Mr. Barbee, second Degraff, landed first Eastwood; Bro. Dix going to third there. Mr. Thatcher to third Degraff, and Mr. Dick bid in third Quincy. Bro. Haworth, second Harrisville, to third Winchester, and Bro. Warren, third Harrisville, to second Connor. Bro. Bodenmüller, of Harrisville, sure has our sympathy, for he has to work twelve long hours each day now.

Bro. Burkett, third Elroy, has taken an agency on the "CN," don’t know where the second track man went.

"Sunny" Miller, first Elroy, has everybody on the road worried, wondering where he is going, as he has been out to look at every job on the line that he could get, trying to rent a house in each place. “Sunny” and the rest of the nons like him, always say that the Order doesn’t do them any good, but they are all very willing to claim all “their” seniority rights in cases of this kind. I suppose they think the company gives them these rights because they are faithful. If it wasn’t so serious it would make us laugh.

Bro. DeBonen, third Vance, was off two weeks spending Christmas with his parents; relieved by Bro. Allison. Bro. Kirk, second Vance, was off several days Christmas to visit friends in Indianapolis; relieved by Mr. Thompson. Mr. Olvev, first Connor, off several days Christmas, was relieved by Mr. Mills.

It is now Bro. Riffe, Myers and Branum, at Dolby.

Brothers, it is up to you to see that the nons keep these promises to “go in” next pay, even if you have to follow them to the bank with their check. Do it, even if it does seem like a hold-up, for that is what they are doing to us all the time.

St. Louis Division—East—

Bro. E. E. Butler was relieved during Xmas week, and relieved Bro. G. C. Weber, third Duane, for holidays.

Loza is now only a day office, conductors getting block over dispatcher’s force. Something should be done to stop this.

Bro. J. A. Tafinger, third “GM,” was married during Christmas week.

Duane and Wann both have new towers. Now to have them both solid—little work on your part, boys.

Automatic block system has been in effect since first of year from Kurgan to Wann, closing of Sunnyside entirely, and leaving Hadey, Reno and Perth day offices.

Bro. W. J. Wright is now agent at Carbon, Mr. Wright, from west end, getting agency Vermilion.

Seniority rights have been extended to Granite City since dispatcher’s office was moved to Mattoon, C. A. Bray being C. T. D. for St. Louis Division.

G. C. WEBER, Cert. 981.

Chicago Division—West—

Boys, pay up and get your new card for 1914 before you become delinquent.

Bro. J. R. Hughes, first Lebanon, off Sunday, 28th, visiting home folks at Swanton.

Bro. C. S. Boyle resumed work January 1st, after about six weeks’ sickness; relieved by W. L. Martin, of Crawfordsville, a new man.

Mrs. Stewart, third Zionsville, off few days, relieved by extra Mr. Iusko, and he by W. L. Martin, who got Clarks Hill on bulletin.

Bro. J. R. Hughes off from his duties at Lebanon, four days first of the month attending funeral of his brother who was killed in an automobile accident at Templeton; relieved by Sister Miller, second trick Whiststown, and she by Operator Iusko.

E. E. Taylor, third Lebanon, off January 11th, relieved by W. L. Martin.

D. M. Mercer, third Lafayette, off 30 days.

Bro. Jim Moore, suspended first of January for letting No. 31 in block on 43, was relieved by Mr. Seagle.

L. C. Jordan, third Sheldon, was off three days recently visiting the folks at home, relieved by W. L. Martin.
Roy Calvin, off ten days at Donovan, relieved by Extra W. H. Gardner, a commercial man. Bro. G. B. Harris, St. Anne, on 60 days' vacation south.

With the increased freight rates the company should feel a bit generous toward us. Cert. 676.

Cleveland Division—

For the first time in the history of the Big Four, Rushylvania is now solid, made possible by Bro. Bogan bidding in third trick. Now Bros. Walker, Akins and Eberhart say death to the first non who dares to linger on the job. Now no more "would-be hams" will get as much as a look in. Let's make all offices on this division solid. How about the 15 days off per year with pay. The agents have it; why can't the operators get it also?

There was quite a smallpox scare on the road for a few weeks on account of Extra DIX contracting the disease and then working in a good many of the offices on this division; a good many of the men have been quarantined.

Bro. Keifer, agent West View, goes to Ashley as agent soon as transfer can be made. Extra Jarvis and Fautz working third Columbia. Bro. W. O. Tripplet, third Huff, off few days. B. M. Smith, second "RT," off few weeks, relieved by Extra Powers.

It is very gratifying to the local chairman to have the men send for application blanks the way they have been doing the last month, most of the men asking for them being old standouts. Keep the good work up, brothers, and we will soon be solid.

Bro. Reams, first Shelby, off one day; an extra man was told to go to Shelby, but was afraid of the job, now he is looking for another. If the C. T. D. tells you to do anything it is the best policy to do your best, and if you can't hold the job that is not your affair.

Bro. Dick, second Leonardsburg, bumped by Bro. Rollins, from third Ashley, account Ashley being closed; Bro. Griefenstein bumped Mr. Alexander out of third Leonardsburg, and then proceeded to get quarantined with Bro. Rollins. C. E. Henry, third Vernon, off sick, relieved by Extra Bazzle. Bro. Scott, second Edison, back on the job after an extended trip through the West. Mr. Gallagher going back to third Cardington, relieving Extra Detwiler, who went to North Eaton.

Most of you have your new passes by this time, or should have unless you have been overlooked.

The gauntlet between Hiles and Boyd has been discontinued as the new bridge over Vermilion River has been completed. No more offices have been closed on this division, the only ones closed being Ashley and Marsh.

Assignments on last bulletin: Bro. Fred Travis, third Shelby; W. G. Pinkerton, second Linndale, and P. H. Bogan, third Rush. No bids were received on North Eaton or West View agencies.

Former C. T. D. J. R. Kelly is now working first trick at "DI," putting Davis on second and Fulvey on third; Shea going back to "DK" tower.

Bro. Rutledge, third Ridgeway, off a few days, was relieved by Extra Predmore; Bro. Edwards, on Christmas vacation, by Extra Bro. Crone. Mr. Cleveland, third Larue, off a few days, relieved by Extra Alexander.

Understand that Bro. Walker, agent Rush, has purchased a ranch out in Montana, and expects to leave us in the spring. We hate to see Bro. Walker leave us, but wish him success.

I wish to thank Bros. Edwards and Eberhart for helping out on these items. Cert. 1123:

Cincinnati, Sandusky & Columbus Division—

Bro. Rowland working first at Galloway, filled by Mr. Dickens for a few days.

Bro. Jenkins, working third at Huntsville on account of closing third at Belle Center. Middletown station, "DN," closed, day and night ticket clerk taking place of operators.

Bro. R. Cunningham, Salt Lake City, Utah, spent his vacation with relatives near Springfield, Ohio.

T. Walsh and J. N. Lemon are ticket agents at "DN."

Bro. E. L. Corwin back on first at Huntsville, leaving "CD" open, filled by J. R. O'Brien pending bulletin.

Mr. Smith, first Draw Bridge, pending bulletin; Mr. Hiemburg, third Dayton yard, pending bulletin.

Mr. Brown resigning second Draw Bridge, filled by C. Schnorf pending bulletin.

The company has closed all the night offices on the Delaware Branch except Milford Center and Silver Creek. Grants on the Sandusky Division.

The "matrimonial bee" is buzzing in the bonnets of several of our brothers along the line.

The brothers have all received their annual passes for the new year.

Bro. Weber, of "AK" tower, slipped and fell during the heavy snow, spraining his hand, keeping him from work a few days.

Bro. McMahan, second Kenton, off a few days attending his brother's wedding.
It is certainly amusing to hear some of the nuns around these temporary jobs talking about "our" new schedule "we" are getting. Don't forget, "No card, no favors."

Let's all attend the meeting at Springfield and keep after the nuns; have a solid line. DAD.

---

Main Line—

Mr. Raynes now a father; all he needs now is a card and insurance to protect his family.

Bro. H. N. Russell landed agency Greene.

Bro. Flynn relieved Mr. Sullivan, agent at Burnham, while the latter was off duty on account of sickness.

Bro. S. A. Lalaville on a few days' leave of absence, was relieved by Bro. Beane.

J. E. Clark is now agent at Bowdoinham. Hope he will soon come back in the fold again and make Bowdoinham solid. Mr. Delano, who was relieving the agent at Bowdoinham, landed second Burnham Jct. and Bro. Robinson landed third.

Clerk and operator at South Gardiner has been taken off, Sister Little landing operator's position at Bowdoinham. "They miss your sweet smile, Mildred."

Bro. Bailey, third Freeport, off duty on account of sickness, was relieved by Bro. Beane, later by Mr. Earles.

Mr. Ames landed third Clinton and Bro. F. X. Lalaville was assigned agency Moors, new office just opened.

Bro. Priest was off duty a few days on account of sickness.

It looks as if "Dan Cupid" hit the mark when he shot his arrow through the open window at Harwards at the pretty agent there. We are not particular what brand of cigars your hubby passes us, Gertie, but for goodness' sake don't forget us.

It is now Bro. Haskell at Rumford Jct. Welcome to the ranks, Sammy.

Bro. Beane is now relieving at Pittsfield, Mr. Hennessy off duty on account of sickness. Cupid got "Danny" in his union, so I guess he can be roped into ours.

The tax collectors at Lewiston and Brunswick both claim Bro. Brown as a citizen of their city. Guess they have to go halves on the coin or "Ed" will have to come across twice. Better get her a job in Brunswick, Eddie.

If the nuns will glance over the Boston papers of January 20th they will see what the unions did for two union men that were discharged on the D. & H. for an unavoidable accident. "If you want protection sign the papers."

"MICKEY," Cert 400.

Mountain District—

Bro. W. E. Lutes, "W" office, resumed January 21st, after an absence of several weeks on account of poor health.

Bro. Fardy, at Iceboro, is making the nuns sit up and take notice, as his applications show. We won't ask for his recipe as long as he keeps them coming.

Waterville yard office, recently vacated by Bro. P. L. Gardner, who went to Cumberland Mills as third trick, has been filled by Bro. H. A. Dickey.

Sister M. E. Little, South Gardiner, bid in clerk and operator at Bowdoinham.

Bro. Irving Thombs, of Thompson's Point, has bid in first Mattawamkeag. Thompson's Point second trick is temporarily filled by Bro. C. T. Beardsley until Bro. C. H. Stevens, of Beecher Falls, who bid in the position, can be transferred.

We are pleased to welcome to our ranks Bro. A. B. Congdon, who recently assigned to Sawyers River. Bro. A. A. Bean bid in "PQ." Bro. F. C. Conway, who bid in Sawyers River, has resigned, relieved by A. B. Congdon on bid. We hope to have him with us very shortly.

The Mountain District stands well to the fore in organization, only one man out in the entire district, and we are camping on his trail. "Get in and keep in" is our watchword.

W. S. McGeoch, L. C.

Eastern Division—

I. H. Thombs, Thompson's Point, bid in trick Mattawamkeag.

C. W. Wiggins has been appointed agent at Brewer Jct.

No bids were received for clerk and operator at Eastport and assistant superintendent was given authority to assign someone to that position.

J. L. Buckley bid in Veazie agency, relieved at Passadumkeag agency on bid by F. W. McCarthy, agent at Franklin Road; no assignments yet for the latter and Oldtown.

Seniority list for the year 1914, which is made up in the superintendent's office January 1st each year, has not yet been received.

Received no notes from the brothers along the line and am unable to give personal items.

CERT. 160.

Norfolk Southern R. R.

Since this road acquired the Raleigh, Charlotte & Southport Railways the first of the year over 250 miles of track have been added to our fast-growing system. This gives us about thirty more operators that we can get into our system division, and we must make a concerted effort to line them up. We all need warehousemen—even the smallest station—to help handle the fast-growing mail, parcel post, etc. Think of it: 50-pound packages allowed through the mails under 150 miles, and 20-pound packages from any distance.

It seems that the majority of agents and operators are content with their $40.00 and $45.00 jobs.

When some of the nuns are approached, we hear the old, familiar remark: "I used to belong to the Order, but the boys wouldn't do anything.
so I dropped it. I will come again when they show me something is going to be done."

Wonder who "they" are referred to.

These men are the very ones, when they were members, who didn't do anything but sit still and look on.

The thing to do is for everybody to stick a "paw" in and do something, and if those fellows at Hartford, Edenton, Washington, New Bern, Raleigh and Charlotte will all drop in and say, "Here am I, send me," we will see the much-needed change.

Quite a change was recently made in our Raleigh office: W. E. Lowe resigned on account of too much work, and an entire new force was put on. There was quite a difficulty in filling the vacancies, and there was some talk of resorting to a telegraph school at Goldsboro for a "ham" to fill one trick. A few other changes have been made on the line. Bro. Z. S. Wright is now at Chocowinity days, vice Bro. Kavanaugh, who accepted Bailey agency, G. H. Jordan going to Simpson, vice Bro. H. G. Moore, resigned. Mr. Jordan will soon be with us.

Very sorry to hear of the death of our former brother, C. A. Barnhill, of Greenville, who resigned from the railroad service some time last year, letting his membership drop in the Order.

Our deepest sympathy is felt for Bro. D. F. May and his wife, at Northwest, in the loss of their child, but we feel that death was a great relief to the brave little sufferer, and we commend them to the all-wise God, who giveth and taketh.

We are in hopes that our new schedule will be effective ere this reaches the journal, as the boys are expecting Bro. J. J. Dermody, in Norfolk, Va., soon to assist them. "Old Virginia."

First and Second Divisions—

The meeting in Norfolk, January 13th, was the most successful ever held since Division 154 has been in existence. There were several officers and members present. Among them were the following: Bros. J. E. Goodwin, general secretary and treasurer; H. W. Hix, general chairman; S. H. Davis, H. L. and S. L. Gardner, J. R. Grigg, C. E. Powers, T. L. Boone, G. F. Williams, W. E. Winston, C. Z. Patterson and J. P. Strickland.

We regret very much that some of the members were kept away on account of not being able to secure passes; and especially do we regret the absence of Bro. Wooten, our local chairman, who was unable to attend on account of his wife's illness.

Boys, wake up and attend the meetings on your divisions, as we only have this great opportunity occasionally, and we want to keep enthused.

Owing to the illness of his mother, Bro. Williams, "GO" Norfolk, was off a few days, relieved by Mr. Matthews, clerk-operator from Kenbridge.

Bro. Chappell, first Goodview, has given up his position there and gone on the extra list. Understand he is waiting for something nearer home.

Bro. Harmon, from Dolphin, bid in first Goodview.

Mr. Hardy, agent Victoria, resigned, vacancy filled by Bro. Dungan, cashier from Roanoke. We are glad to see the brothers getting the best jobs.

It is now Bros. Talley at "BU," Matthews at "GN," and Hunt at "WS."

January 26th a rousing meeting of the Danville Division boys was held at Kentland, Ind.; 25 members being present. Meeting presided over by General Chairman Shimaneck. Among the attractions was a quartette by the brothers, and some splendid music by the O. R. T. band. Bro. Osborne, at Kent, certainly knows how to provide entertainment for the brothers coming to his town. You boys from the Danville Division who did not come certainly missed a great treat. Several applications were presented and more to follow. Bro. Turner, from the L. E. & W. Ry., told a parrot story, and Bro. Smith told a stuttering story. After the meeting we all adjourned to White's restaurant, where Bro. Shimaneck came near killing himself eating pie. After lunch a smoker was enjoyed, and all went home satisfied. Among those present were: A. J. Shimaneck, W. J. Albers, J. E. Withrow, Paul McCain, Elmer Jackson, F. H. Scott, S. G. Handley, W. A. Jacobs, J. A. Jacobs, C. L. Smith, C. C. Brown, Mr. A. L. Pickering, L. V. Hunter, Mr. A. Hardesy, C. M. McVey, L. V. Osborne, Mr. H. W. Haben, Mr. Wm. Haywood, C. E. Harrison, T. A. Gott, J. M. Lowe, C. I. Turner, Mr. James Padgett, J. M. Gott, Harry Osborne and M. L. Gots.

The non's are all promising to come in January and February pay days, and we will soon be solid. There are about three of the old heads for whom "the Order has never done any good and they can not throw their money away foolishly." I think they will be glad to come in before very long. Remember, brothers, "No card, no favors."

It is now Bro. Roney, at North Judson, and also Bro. Weigner.

C. C. Johnson, of Momence tower, can not see his way to join the O. R. T. Says he will quit and go into some other business. Probably some good brother will bid in this trick and make it solid.

Don't forget to send your chairman a copy of your bid on bulletin positions. It will save you any misunderstanding that may come up.

We are sorry to hear of Bro. S. M. Kern, of Seatonville, being sick with the mumps, and hope for his quick recovery.

F. A. Thomas, of first Ladd, will be with us soon. He has had very bad luck for the past year; his wife being confined to bed most of the time with rheumatism. We are glad to hear that she is able to be up and around the house, even if the recovery is slow. Mr. Fletcher also promises to be with us soon. Howe will then be solid.

Bro. Vleck, of Moronts, is going to buy an automobile this spring. Louis has lots of money, and will not miss a few hundred.

Bro. Glover, of Granville, presented the general chairman with a fountain pen, which "Shim" put into service writing the non's. They are all coming in now.

Look out for the sign on the door at Granville. Bro. Snively says keep out, and he means it, too.

Old Mr. Layman is undecided whether to come into the Order or not.

Bro. Gould, of Lostant tower, is always on the job.

Mr. Settle, the new man at Lostant tower, will soon be with us. Write him up.

Bro. Arnold is on first Streator, while General Chairman Shimaneck is off for about 30 days. Mr. Ritter, a new man, relieving Arnold on second. Report it to the man who wears the button. M. H. McNamara, agent Streator, is the man Bro. Jacobs, of Ladd, is the other. "Safety first."

Bro. Kibbons, Streator third, is going to be married soon. Look out for "ten-centers," boys; that boy is going to pass 'em.

The new man at Buda promised to be with us as soon as settled. Think he is going to plow up the right-of-way and plant potatoes at Buda.

Bro. Nichols, at Dwight, is to be married soon; some more cigars. Bro. Grady doing big business in the bus line.

Bro. Boyer, of Redick, says rabbit-hunting is no good this winter, not enough snow.

Bro. Baker, of Union Hill, has resigned, and will bid in another position. No house to live in, is the cause of his leaving.

Bro. Wilson, of Goodrich, enjoys the fresh air, driving to and from work every day; only about seven or eight miles.

Bro. Moran, of "KKK" office, has recovered from the sickness which kept him away from work about a month. Has bid in Ladd second, so he can be close to his folks.

Old Jack Driscoll will be with us soon. Mandy said he could join, so it's a sure thing.

Nashville, Chattanooga & St. Louis Ry.

Nashville Division—

We are working today for identically the same thing that we were two years ago, with nothing in sight in the future, unless we get together again. Organize and stick with determination to win. That is all we have to do, and things will be coming our way.

We all regret very much the loss of our president and general manager, Mr. Thomas. It we ever get anything, it will be through organization. So let's all make a start right now, and keep on until the battle is won. If we will go to organizing between ourselves, it won't be long until the O. R. T. will send organizers to our line; so all stay together this time.

Understand the Chattanooga Division is coming to the front. Let us hear from some of you good brothers over there.

I think now is a good time to make another start. Unless we get busy, we will be working for the same old thing for years to come. Living expenses continue increasing, yet salaries remain the same. With an organization like the O. R. T. to back us, we will be able to do something. Let us all get busy, and ask the O. R. T. to help us. "Stay with it." Let that be our motto until we secure a contract, and then we can climb by degrees.

Div. Coa.
THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER.

Peoria-Pekin O. R. T. Club.

A most enthusiastic and interesting meeting was enjoyed at our regular session at the Jefferson Hotel, Peoria, Ill., Sunday, Dec. 14, 1913.

Bro. Graves, local chairman Galena Division, and Bro. J. H. Frain, local chairman Burlington Division, representing Division 130, were with us, and their presence made the meeting one that could not have been improved upon.

Owing to the resignation of Bro. Shippeau, our secretary and treasurer, an election was held to fill the vacancy. Bro. Rixey, Division 130, was elected to fill the unexpired term.

The new cards for the ensuing year were issued at this meeting. Twelve taking advantage of the opportunity to procure an up-to-date.

Bro. Graves made a very interesting talk of thirty minutes duration, and the remarks and short talks by all brothers present contributed to make this meeting one of the best held in Peoria since the organization of our club in Peoria six months ago.

Too much cannot be said of our hard working and capable president, Bro. A. C. McNeff, whose earnest and successful efforts are fast bringing our club to the front. We are able to boast of forty actual members enrolled in our club, and we start the year with a clean slate, and money in the treasury. The object of our club is not only to create greater and livelier interest among the members, but to demonstrate to those who are not personally acquainted with the telegraphers' organization that we are interested in our present and future welfare, and willing to work hard so that we may ultimately, as a central representative body, contribute our part toward procuring better salaries and better working conditions, both of which we are rightfully entitled to, but which we are not now receiving.

All members of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers in our immediate vicinity who are earnestly in favor of a greater O. R. T. should not overlook the opportunity to help yourselves, and the organization and the future success of our club by taking out a membership card. By so doing you will make it possible for us to have headquarters in Peoria, which will be in keeping with our large growing organization. Fifty cents is all that is necessary. If you are in favor of better salaries, better working conditions, a larger organization, and a good live representation in our city, send a remittance immediately to the undersigned.

D. G. Rixey, S. & T.,
Burlington Local Office, Peoria, Ill.

The meeting at Hotel Jefferson, Sunday, January 11th, was by far the most interesting and best attended meeting of any held before in Peoria. There were forty-five real live, enthusiastic brothers present, among them three general chairmen, one general secretary and treasurer; and three local chairmen of the various lines entering Peoria.

Bro. Edw. Whalen, general chairman of the “Big Four,” gave a most pleasing and instructive talk of over forty minutes’ duration, telling of the good work done by the various O. R. T. clubs in several of the larger cities, and urged the boys to look more to the social and fraternal side of their respective clubs, and not figure that the only thing to bring success to your local organization was the money which you paid for dues. Bro. Whalen also spoke of the bright prospects for a revised schedule on the “Big Four,” with more money and better working conditions.

Bro. Carder, general chairman of the Burlington, in his usual straightforward and excellent manner, told the boys of the vast strides made by the O. R. T. toward success on the Burlington, and although the past had been one of complete success, the future looked doubly as bright.

Bro. Rogers, general secretary and treasurer of the Burlington, lived up to expectations, and contributed one of his best talks on the grand old organization, the Order of Railroad Telegraphers.

Bros. Graves, Schlosser and Decker made short talks, which were interesting in every detail. Everything had something to say, and good fellowship prevailed during the entire afternoon and evening. Our club has been lucky in every department. Through the kindness and generosity of the Hotel Jefferson, we have been able to hold our meetings each month in the finest hotel in our city without any expense to ourselves whatever, and the officers of the several different roads we wish to thank for their attendance, and help to make our club meetings interesting and attractive to our members and the members of the O. R. T.

We have enjoyed a gain of ten members since January, 1914, and lost only three, account of removal from Peoria. This is a most excellent showing, and the future looks very bright for a prosperous and successful year.

The meeting at Pekin, Jan. 23, 1914, was some "whizzer," and being the first held there proved quite satisfactory both in attendance and enthusiasm.

Twenty-four present, and the "nitro-glycerine" hurlers across the river certainly know how to show everyone a good time. Bro. Carder, general chairman of the Burlington Route, was with us, and his presence, as well as his most instructive talk, was more than appreciated. Bro. Clothfelter, general chairman C. P. & St. L., sure is some eloquent speaker, and everyone enjoyed his talk on the conditions on the C. P. & St. L. Bro. Patterson, local chairman, contributed a very pleasing speech of twenty minutes' duration, urging the boys to help those who help us.

Short talks by all present were thoroughly enjoyed, and it was certainly gratifying to see so many of us taking an active interest in the affairs of our organization.

This was an open meeting, and its good can not be estimated. Already three applications have been procured as the fruits of the meeting, and a great deal more can and will be accomplished if each and every member will put his shoulder to the wheel and be more active and write up every non with whom you are acquainted. Our club needs more members, and if you know of an operator who is not carrying a card, hop on his trail and make him come across, and help carry the load, and assist us in procuring larger and better results and benefits for the investment of our money.

The meeting was adjourned, each one attending promising to see a large crowd at our next meeting, January 26th. The regular meeting on that date was well attended by a representative bunch from each line entering Omaha, and included our old friend, George Soyester, the general chairman of Division 23. What George had to say to the boys, and especially those from the Milwaukee, was worth any effort they may have put forth to attend this meeting. His talk showed the boys just what position they are in, and gave us a line on real news to all of us, and we sat up and took notice. Regret there were not more present to hear his talk.

Bro. Bliss, of Persia, made the trip to be with us, and had his little "say" along with the other speakers.

One of the questions put to vote and passed upon was the matter of giving assistance to our worthy Bro. W. J. Hunter, of Carson City, Nev.

Our regular meeting scheduled for February 23rd has been canceled, and in its place we will give a social and reception at Labor Temple Hall, 19th and Farnam streets, Omaha, Tuesday, February 24, 1914. This "social" is to be conducted on the same plan as the one given December 9th, an account of which appeared in the January TELEGRAPHER, free to the members of this club and their invited friends. No charge whatever is made for admission, and any member of the O. R. T. applying to the vice-president of this club, representing their line, can get an invite. The vice-presidents of the various lines are as follows: Union Pacific, Bro. F. A. Coulter, of "U" Omaha; Missouri Pacific, Bro. R. W. Sinclair; Rock Island, Bro. A. L. Marshall, Council Bluffs; Burlington, Bro. J. G. Lawler, of "G" Omaha; C. & N. W., Bro. Harry Draper, of South Omaha; Illinois Central, Bro. "Jack" Harty, of Council Bluffs; C. & M. & St. P., Bro. C. E. Olson, of Council Bluffs; Wabash, Bro. M. H. Meeker, of Council Bluffs. The address of the president and secretary of the club is in the directory on the back pages of THE TELEGRAPHER.
Our own orchestra, composed of members of the club, will furnish the music for the dancing, and a most enjoyable time is anticipated. Every effort is being made by the committee on arrangements to see that nothing is left undone to insure a good time for all.

At the meeting on January 26th Bros. Burnite and Thawswell played several pieces—piano and violin—for the boys, which were greatly appreciated. The balance of our orchestra were compelled to work on this date during the evening, but we are assured that they will be on hand with a good program for the social February 24th.

Don't forget the date, February 24th, at Labor Temple Hall. Come and bring your wife or lady friend. All O. R. T. boys are welcome. Get your invite from your vice-president.

Please notify others at your own and nearby stations that the regular meeting for February is canceled. The social on February 24th takes its place, and the next regular meetings will be March 23 and April 27, 1914. "The Scribe."

CORT Club.

The regular Cort Club meeting of January 3d was very well attended and a good time enjoyed by all present. The greater portion of our time at this meeting was consumed in discussing and disposing of numerous important club matters.

A committee of three, consisting of Bros. Jones, Sosster and Carter, was appointed to handle the proposition of distributing petitions among members on the various lines entering Chicago, with a view to securing signatures for the pardon of former Bro. W. J. Hunter. From $30 to $35 will probably be realized on the prize shawl.

The dance proposition was disposed of indefinitely, and it was suggested that in lieu of the dances the club give card parties at each regular meeting, with one or more prizes as an inducement. This suggestion was very favorably received and indorsed by nearly all brothers present as a good one to get the brothers out to our regular monthly meetings.

It was with great regret that we learned that Bro. J. J. Rose, our loyal secretary and treasurer had tendered his resignation, effective February 7th. Bro. Rose has been secretary and treasurer of the Cort Club for over three years, with a record unsurpassed. He explains his action as being due to a shortage of time, every spare moment being consumed by his duties as local chairman of the Relay Division, C. B. & Q. However, at our next regular meeting, which is election of officers, we intend re-electing Bro. Rose and endeavor to induce him to continue the good work in the capacity of secretary and treasurer.

After the conclusion of business matters, interesting talks were made by Bros. Jones and Sosster, which no doubt proved very beneficial, indeed. Meeting adjourned at 12 midnight.

Bro. and Mrs. W. J. Early, C. & N. W., were off several days recently, visiting relatives in Mattison, Ill.

Bro. James Troy, general chairman Division 76, was a recent and welcome visitor among the brothers in the C. & N. W. general office.

C. & N. W. general office brothers responded very liberally towards the W. J. Scrimgur fund, late operator C. & N. W., Grand avenue, Chicago.

Bro. Geo. A. Flynn, recently reported as resigning with the C. & N. W. and going to Minneapolis, decided to remain with the C. & N. W. general office and continue as a Cort Club booster.

—All general office forces in Chicago have been greatly reduced with the exception of the C. & N. W., which added one man to its force. On the Northwestern Line (the best of everything) with an Abe Lincoln and an able lawyer working in "SJ," what else could you expect.

Would like very much to hear from the I. C. and C. B. & Q. about the 25th of each month, Would like very much to hear from the I. C. represented at our meetings occasionally.

D. C. SMART, 2d V. P., and Club Cor.

Topeka O. R. T. Club.

The meeting on January 11th was mostly of a social nature, and was held at the home of General Chairman Bro. Brown, instead of the regular club rooms at the Throop Hotel. The crowd began gathering at noon, and by evening something like fifty brothers and their wives, and lady friends had arrived. As a preliminary, a short meeting was held, which was started off by an address by Bro. Brown, followed by Bros. Shaw, Halpin, Lowe, Pringle, Allen, Edwards, Sister Dorrin and others. The announcement of the death of Bro. Ford, cast a shade of sorrow over the gay and happy throng. Bros. Powell, Carver and O'Grady were appointed by President Stover to draw up fitting resolutions.

At 9:00 p.m. the meeting was adjourned, and all repaired to the commodious parlors of Bro. Brown's residence, which were beautifully decorated for the occasion with cut flowers, and listened to an excellent vocal and instrumental program. After this, a bounteous repast was served by Mrs. Brown, at which everybody made a good average.

This is the first attempt at a social meeting the club has made, and the results were highly gratifying, and from now on the social feature will receive more attention from us.

It is planned to hold a big meeting at Herington some time in the near future at which we bespeak a large attendance.

The club was unanimous in a vote of thanks to Bro. and Mrs. Brown, and in pronouncing them royal entertainers.

This club meets the second Sunday of each month at the Throop Hotel, Topeka, Kan., and all visiting brothers are cordially invited to meet with us. R. A. Powell, Secretary-Treasurer.
IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, It has pleased our heavenly Father, in His infinite wisdom, to call to His home, the brother of our true brother, H. A. Ford; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we, a committee in behalf of the Topeka O. R. T. Club, and Division 126, extend our sincere sympathy and consolation to our bereaved brother and relatives in this hour of sadness, and be it also

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved brother, a copy spread on the minutes of the Topeka Club, and a copy sent to The Telegrapher for publication.

A. S. Carver,
W. V. O'Grady,
R. A. Powell,
Committee.

We were very sorry and disappointed not to see any of the Division 23 boys out. We hope they will be with us next meeting sure.

The matter of holding social entertainments in near future, was discussed at length, and all the brothers were asked to see that as many as possible were at the meeting in February to decide upon some definite arrangements and date.

The secretary would be pleased to have some of the brothers suggest something this club could pull off to interest or entertain the following brothers, all located in Cedar Rapids: R. C. Rice, 126; Kneffler, 126; Ocheltree, 126. They have their first meeting to attend since July, 1912. No wonder we can't get any of the boys off the line to get in here. Can't we jar 'em loose?

Cert. 2119.

Cedar Rapids O. R. T. Club.

Dues for term ending June 30, 1914, are now due; remit and get your card.

The regular monthly meeting of January 16th was called to order by General Chairman W. T. Brown, of Division 126, in absence of President Schertz, at 8:30 p. m., with about fifteen present.

Short talks were made by the following: Halpin, Rice, Supple, Heyman, Merrill, Beecher and Kalb, of 126; Copp, O'Mera, Conover, Weiser and Kleim, of 76.

Bro. Brown gave us his usual interesting and instructive talk, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

Des Moines O. R. T. Club.

The Des Moines O. R. T. Club called a special meeting January 22d for the benefit of the C., R. I. & P. brothers. Mr. Brown was the speaker, and enlightened all present regarding many topics. There was a good attendance, and a smoke, was enjoyed.

At the meeting Sunday, January 25th, G. E. Soyster, of the M. & St. P. discussed the committee work in Chicago. The next meeting will be Sunday, February 22d, and on Sunday, March 22d; all are welcomed, and sincerely requested to come. S. S. Pace, Secy. & Treas., 1429 W. 12th St., Des Moines, Iowa.

ANOTHER IMPORTANT DECISION.

THE United States Circuit Court of Appeals, fourth circuit, rendered an important decision in connection with the hours of service law in putting a construction upon that part of the law relating to telegraphers employed at offices "operated only during the day time" and "continuously operated night and day." The decision in effect declared that offices kept open more than thirteen hours in any twenty-four-hour period is "continuously operated night and day." The decision in full is as follows:

In a case arising under the Federal hours of service act (34 Stat. p. 1415) where the question presented is whether a railroad telegraph office which is regularly kept open for business from 6:30 a.m. until 10:15 p.m., and never later than 11 p.m., is a "continuously operated night and day" office within the meaning of the proviso in section 2 of said act: Held, That—

1. The Federal hours of service act is not a criminal statute, and therefore is not governed by the rule of strict construction; it is rather a remedial statute, which should be so construed, if its language permits, as to best accomplish the protective purpose for which it was enacted, the end to be attained by the law being a guide to its interpretation.

2. The classification of an office is fixed by the length of time it is kept open, and not in the least by the nature of the duties performed, if only those duties include the handling of train orders as occasion may require.

3. The statute covers all telegraph offices in which interstate train orders are handled.
4. The objects of the law require that a preference be accorded to a construction which recognizes the legislative intent to permit 13 hours of service in offices kept open only such number of hours in the aggregate as do not materially or substantially exceed the length of an ordinary day and to prohibit more than 9 hours' service in offices kept open such number of hours in the aggregate as necessarily include a material or substantial portion of the night.

5. The statute assumes that all offices will be operated during the daytime, and for those operated during the daytime only it makes the 13-hour requirement; for those which are operated during the daytime with a continuance of operation into the night it makes the 9-hour requirement.

6. The office in question falls into the 9-hour class.

Before Knapp and Woods, Circuit Judges, and Rose, District Judge.

Ernest F. Cochran, United States attorney, and Philip J. Doherty, special assistant United States attorney, for plaintiff in error, and George B. Elliott (P. A. Willcox on brief) for defendant in error.

OPINION OF THE COURT.

Knapp, Circuit Judge:

This suit is brought by the United States to recover penalties for alleged violations of the act of Congress approved March 4, 1907, commonly known as the hours of service law, and the employees directly concerned are telegraphers in the service of defendant in error at Bennettsville, S. C.

From the stipulated facts on which the action was tried it appears that the telegraph office at the station named was regularly kept open for business from 6:30 a. m. to 10:15 p. m., or 15 hours and 45 minutes in each 24-hour period; that two operators were employed at this station, one of whom was required to be on duty from 6:30 a. m. to 12 o'clock noon, and from 1 p. m. to 6:30 p. m.; and the other, known as a "second-trick" operator, from 10:15 a. m. to 5:30 p. m., and from 6:30 p. m. to 10:15 p. m., or a total of 11 hours in each case; that the office in question, during the period covered by the suit, was closed for business, and the operators entirely relieved from duty, from 10:15 p. m. to 6:30 a. m., or 8 hours and 15 minutes, except on a few specified dates when the second-trick operator remained on duty from 15 to 45 minutes after 10:15 p. m.; that during the hours from 6:30 a. m. to 10:15 p. m., when the office was kept open for business as aforesaid, the operators employed therein, by the use of telegraph and telephone, received and delivered, more or less frequently, orders relating to or affecting the movement of trains engaged in interstate commerce; and that these operators received such train orders from the office of the chief dispatcher, which was located at Florence, S. C., and kept continuously open throughout the 24 hours.

The question to be decided is whether the defendant in error, by requiring or permitting its Bennettsville operators to be on duty during the 11 hours above described, to say nothing of the instances of somewhat longer hours, violated the proviso of section 2 of said act, which reads as follows:

"Provided, That no operator, train dispatcher, or other employee who, by the use of the telegraph or telephone, dispatches, reports, transmits, receives, or delivers orders pertaining to or affecting train movements shall be required or permitted to be or remain on duty for a longer period than 9 hours in any 24-hour period in all towers, offices, places, and stations continuously operated night and day, nor for a longer period than 13 hours in all towers, offices, places, and stations operated only during the daytime, except in case of emergency, when the employees named in this proviso may be permitted to be and remain on duty for 4 additional hours in a 24-hour period of not exceeding three days in any week."

As the operators in question were customarily kept on duty for 11 hours out of 24, and sometimes a little longer, it is apparent that defendant in error was chargeable with repeated violations of the statute, if the Bennettsville office belongs in the class of offices "continuously operated night and day," and equally apparent, since the hours of duty were always less than 13, that the law was fully observed and the defendant in error free from liability, if this office belongs in the class of those "operated only during the daytime." The trial court held that it was an office of the latter class, and accordingly directed a verdict in favor of defendant. The correctness of that ruling is challenged by the writ of error to this court.

The meaning and intent of the hours of service act in various particulars has been the subject of considerable litigation, and some aid to the conclusion which should be reached in this case, or at least a starting point for discussion, is found in the decision of the Supreme Court in United States v. Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Ry. Co. (220 U. S., 37). In that case it is said:

"We think that the Government is right in saying that the proviso is meant to deal with all offices, and if so, we should go further than otherwise we might in holding offices not operated only in the daytime as falling under the other head."

In view of this declaration, that the statute covers all telegraph offices in which interstate train orders are handled, and since the statute itself makes only two classes of such offices, it follows, of course, that this Bennettsville office is one to which the law applies, and that the telegraphers there employed can be kept on duty not more than 9 hours, if it be adjudged a "night and day" office, but may be held up to 13 hours, if it be adjudged a "daytime" office. It must be performed in one class or the other.

This is not a criminal statute and therefore is not governed by the rule of strict construction. (Johnson v. Southern Pacific Co., 196 U. S., 17; St. Louis Southwestern Ry. Co. v. United States, 183 Fed., 771.) It is rather a remedial statute which should be so construed, if its language permits, as to best accomplish the protective purpose for which it was enacted. (Stewart v. Bloom, 11 Wall., 493; Bechtel v. United States, 101 U. S. 597.) Obviously, that purpose was to promote the safety of employees and the traveling public by prohibiting hours of service which presumably result in impaired efficiency for discharging their important duties. The end to be attained by the law is a guide to its interpretation.

It is argued by counsel for defendant in error that the Congress intended to distinguish between (1) offices in which train orders originate and from which they are issued, and which in the nature of the case must ordinarily be kept open for approximately the entire 24 hours, and (2) local offices which merely receive and deliver the orders so issued, and which may be and frequently are closed during a substantial part of each 24-hour period; and that therefore the classification of a given office depends as a practical matter upon whether it is an office like that of a train dispatcher, who actually directs and controls the movement of trains, or only a way station office where the operator aids the dispatcher by communicating orders and sending in reports. Besides, it is said that telegraphers in offices mainly occupied with the dispatching of trains have heavier responsibilities and are under greater strain, and consequently should be restricted to shorter hours, than employees at local stations who perform miscellaneous duties and perhaps devote only a small portion of their time to the receipt and delivery of train orders and the transmission of train reports.

The answer to this argument is twofold. In the first place, we find nothing in the language of the act to support such a distinction. The terms employed are plainly intended to include every sort of place where train orders are handled, however infrequently, by telegraph or telephone. There is nothing to suggest that the permitted hours on duty, whether 9 or 13, are determined by the number of train orders handled, if they are handled at all, or by the proportion of time which the employee spends in that particular service. Surely the descriptive words, "towers, offices, places, and stations," negative any intention to confine the 9-hour limitation to those offices, however designated, in which the principal work of the operator is connected with the movement of trains. In short, we deem it beyond dispute that the classification of an office is fixed by the length of time it is kept open, and not in the least by the nature of the duties performed, if only those duties include the handling of train orders as occasion may require.

In the second place, it is not to be assumed that the telegrapher in a train dispatcher's office, or other similar office, performs more wearisome labor, or becomes sooner fatigued, than the operator at an ordinary local station. The latter, it is true, may average only a small number of train orders in the course of a day, but, nevertheless, he may have, and usually does have, other duties which are varied and often onerous. Even if he is not called upon to act as station agent, and does little but use the telegraph or telephone, the orders and messages of the company not relating to trains, and the commercial business of the community, may involve exertion and responsibility quite as fatiguing as the work of a telegrapher engaged mainly in the transmission of train orders. In other words, and for the reasons here suggested, it seems to us that operators at local and subordinate stations are scarcely less liable than operators at main offices to suffer loss of alertness and efficiency from excessive hours of duty. In our judgment, neither the terms and purpose of the statute, nor the conditions of actual service, justify us in upholding the contention here considered.

It is conceded that an office need not literally be kept open every minute of the 24 hours in order to be within the 9-hour restriction. But if it may be closed for one or more substantial intervals of time and still remain in the 9-hour class, where shall the line of division be drawn? In the Atchison case, above cited, the office was shut from noon to 3 p. m., and from midnight to 3 a. m., or 6 hours in all out of the 24, and the Supreme Court strongly intimated, though the point was not directly involved, that it should be classed as a 9-hour office, because the proviso was meant to deal with all offices, and therefore “we should go further than otherwise we might in holding offices not operated only during the daytime as falling under the other head.” But where is the logical place to stop? The words “operated only during the daytime” are quite as much entitled to be made effective as the words “continuously operated night and day.” Manifestly, if we look only at the surface meaning of the words, these two definitions are inconsistent, or at least overlap each other, since there must be many offices which could not be fairly described as “operated only during the daytime” and yet are not, in any absolute sense, “continuously operated night and day.” For example, in a case argued at the same time with this, the office was open throughout the 24 hours, except from 1:30 a. m. to 6:30 a. m. To say that such an office is operated only in the daytime is to do violence to the commonest understanding.

This is plainly a case where the natural significance of terms must yield to the necessity for giving to the entire proviso such reasonable meaning as will promote its beneficial purpose. If it seems a strained and unwarranted construction to hold that an office which is generally closed at 10:15 p. m., and never later than 11, and kept closed till 6:30 a. m., is nevertheless “continuously operated night and day,” it is not equally strained and unwarranted to hold that an office which is kept open from 6:30 a. m. to 10:15 p. m., or later, is nevertheless “operated only during the daytime?” Since the office in question must be assigned to one class or the other, we are of opinion on the whole that it will be more correctly and usefully placed in the night and day class than in the daytime class. If this conclusion gives greater effect to the words “operated only during the daytime” than to the words “continuously operated night and day,” we think the objects of the law require that preference be accorded to a construction which recognizes the legislative intent to permit 13 hours of service in offices kept open only such number of hours in the aggregate as do not materially or substantially exceed the length of an ordinary day, and to prohibit more than 9 hours' service in offices kept open such number of hours in the aggregate as necessarily include a material or substantial portion of the night.

It follows that the judgment should be reversed and the case remanded for a new trial.
Woods, Circuit Judge, concurring:

The decision of this case depends on the meaning of the word "continuously" in the following statute:

"Provided, That no operator, train dispatcher, or other employe who by the use of the telegraph or telephone dispatches, reports, transmits, receives, or delivers orders pertaining to or affecting train movements shall be required or permitted to be or remain on duty for a longer period than nine hours in any 24-hour period in all towers, offices, places, and stations continuously operated night and day, nor for a longer period than thirteen hours in all towers, offices, places, and stations operated only during the daytime, except in case of emergency, when the employes named in this proviso may be permitted to be and remain on duty for four additional hours in a 24-hour period of not exceeding three days in any week."

The defendant contends that "continuously" means without cessation, and that the offices, etc., "continuously operated night and day" can only include places operated without cessation through the night and day. The context and the purpose of the statute shows that this is not the sense in which the words were used. The statute was intended to cover all telegraph offices. (United States v. Atchison, etc., R. Co., 220 U. S., 37.) If the defendant's construction were adopted it would cover only day offices and offices operated throughout the day and night, leaving out the offices operated during the day and into the night. There is some reason for attributing the meaning of habitually or regularly to the word continuously; but the plain construction and that which will give the statute its full signification is to take the whole phrase "offices, places, and stations continuously operated night and day" to mean offices whose operation is continued from the day into the night. The statute assumes that all offices will be operated during the daytime, and for those operated during the daytime only it makes the 13-hour requirement; for those which are operated during the daytime with a continuance of operation into the night it makes the 9-hour requirement. The office at Bennettsville was in operation during the daytime with continuance into the night, and therefore falls under the 9-hour class.

MARYLAND'S NEW LAW.

A very beneficial law has just been enacted in the State of Maryland. It provides for two full days' rest for all telegraphers, train dispatchers, signalmen, towermen, gatemen, levermen, agents and telephone operators, employees either in a railroad signal tower or public railroad station and who are required to receive or transmit telegraphic or telephonic messages or train orders for the movement of trains, and who is required to work each day in the month.

The law was approved by the Governor on March 4th and became effective on that date.

The bill, which has been enacted into law, was as follows:

A BILL ENTITLED

"An Act to add a new Section to Article XXIII of the Code of Public Civil Laws of Maryland of 1911 (edited by George P. Bagby) title, 'Corporations,' sub-title, 'Railroad Companies,' said new Section to come in immediately after Section 325 of said article and to be known as Section 325-A thereof.

"Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, that a new section be and the same is hereby enacted and added to Article XXIII of the Code of Public Civil Laws of Maryland of 1911 (edited by George P. Bagby) title, 'Corporations,' sub-title, 'Railroad Companies,' said new Section to come in immediately after Section 325 of said article and to be known as Section 325-A and to be and read as follows:

'325-A. Any person employed as signalman, towerman, gateman, leverman, agent, train dispatcher, telegrapher or telephone operator in a railroad signal tower or public railroad station to receive or transmit a telegraphic or telephonic message or train order for the movement of trains and who works eight hours or more in any twenty-four each and every day continuously, and all levermen employed in connection with the reception or transmission of a telegraphic or telephonic message or train order for the movement of trains and who work the number of hours aforesaid must have and shall be allowed at least two days of twenty-four hours each in each and every calendar month for rest with the regular compensation; except in cases of extraordinary emergency caused by accident, fire, flood, or danger to life or property, and for such extra service in case or cases of such emergency, such employee or employees who shall work on extra days by reason of such emergency shall be paid in addition to his regular compensation for and during the calendar month in which such extra service shall be rendered an amount equal to his average daily compensation for each day during which he performs such extra service. Any person or persons, company, corporation or association, who shall violate any of the provisions of this Section shall on conviction pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each violation thereof, and such fine shall be recovered by an action of debt in the name of the State of Maryland for the use of the State, which shall sue for it against such person, company, corporation or association violating this Section, said suit to be instituted in any court of this State having appropriate jurisdiction, and such fine when recovered, as aforesaid, shall be paid without any deduction whatever, one-half thereof to the informer and the balance thereof to be paid into the public school fund of the State of Maryland.

"Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, that this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage."

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATIONS.

The United States Civil Service Commission announces open competitive examination for Inspector of Safety Appliances and Inspector of Hours of Service, for men only, on April 24 and 25, 1914, at the places named herein. From the registers of eligibles resulting from these examinations certification will be made to fill vacancies in these positions in the Interstate Commerce Commission at salaries of $1,800 per annum, with necessary allowances for expenses incurred while absent from headquarters in the discharge of official duties, and vacancies as they may occur in positions requiring similar qualifications, unless it is found to be in the interest of the service to fill any vacancy by reinstatement, transfer, or promotion.

It is expected that several appointments will be made to the position of Inspector of Safety Appliances and to the position of Inspector of Hours of Service.

The duties of the Safety Appliances Inspectors will comprise the making of inspections and reports as required by the Safety Appliance Acts; the duties of the Hours of Service Inspectors will be the making of inspections and reports as required by the so-called Hours of Service Act. Both Safety Appliance and Hours of Service Inspectors may be required to investigate accidents as required by section 3 of the Accident Investigation Act of May 6, 1910.

Applicants must have reached their twenty-fifth, but not their fiftieth, birthday on the date of the examination.

Applicants must be physically qualified to perform the duties required in these positions. An applicant whose medical certificate on the application form indicates that he is not in sound physical health will not be admitted to examination.

It must be shown in connection with his application that each applicant is (a) a person of good moral character and habits, active, intelligent and discreet; (b) of good speech and manner, and qualified to address and confer with railroad officials and employees as occasion may require.

An applicant for the position of Inspector of Safety Appliances must have had at least eight years’ experience in steam railroad service as conductor, engineer, trainman, yardman, fireman or yardmaster, or at least five years’ such experience as manager, general or division superintendent, trainmaster, master mechanic, master car builder, general car foreman, road foreman of engines or air-brake supervisor, and must within two years next preceding the date of his application have been in active service in one or more of the capacities mentioned, or as an inspector of steam railroad equipment under the Government of the United States or any State or Territory, provided he has had experience in any one or more of the positions above referred to.

An applicant for the position of Inspector of Hours of Service must have had at least eight years' experience as trainmaster, yardmaster, train dispatcher, telegraph operator, block signal operator, conductor, engineer, fireman, trainman, or yardman, or at least five years' experience as manager or as general or division superintendent, and must within two years next preceding the date of his application have been in active service in one or more of the capacities mentioned, or as an inspector of steam railroad equipment under the Government of the United States or any State or Territory, provided he has had experience in any one or more of the positions above referred to.

No person interested either directly or indirectly in any patented article required to be used on any locomotive or car under inspection, or who is intemperate in his habits, shall be eligible for appointment to either of these positions.

Competitors will be examined in the following subjects, which will have the relative weights indicated:

The applicants for the position of Inspector of Hours of Service will be given practical questions on the provisions of the Hours of Service Act, on standard train and block-signal rules, on the operation of trains, the manner of keeping train sheets, time records and block-signal records, etc.

As inspectors are required to report in writing the results of their investigations, they must be qualified to make reports which shall be not only comprehensive, but also correctly, logically and concisely expressed. When rating the subject of report writing especial consideration will be given to the latter specification.

The rating on subject 5 will be based upon evidence furnished in connection with application form 1933 and upon corroborative investigation.

Different grades of experience will be rated according to their importance. Those persons who fail to receive a rating of at least 70 per cent on each of subjects 3, 4 and 5 will not be given ratings on other subjects.

Two days will be required for each of these examinations.

No sample questions of these examinations will be furnished.

THE BARTLETT-BACON BILL.

In the last issue of The Telegrapher, the attitude of United States Senators and Congressmen in regard to the Bartlett-Bacon Bills, which are of such paramount importance to labor organizations, was given so far as known at that time, and a request made that members furnish their editor of this Journal with the replies received from their representatives in Congress so that their attitude might be made known through these columns for the information of all concerned. The replies received from United States Senators and Congressmen by members throughout the country, and which have been forwarded to the editor, may properly be divided into two classes, as follows: (1) Those who announce that they will support the bill and (2), those who state they will give the measure their "careful consideration," or words to that effect.

The following have announced themselves as in favor of the bill: United States Senators Duncan W. Fletcher, of Florida; John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi; Thos. S. Martin, of Virginia, and Claude A. Swanson, of Virginia.

Congressmen J. Thomas Heflin of Alabama; O. W. Underwood, of Alabama; Stephen M. Sparkman, of Florida; J. W. Collier, of Mississippi; Isaac R. Sherwood, of Ohio, and H. D. Flood, of Virginia.

Those who have not committed themselves on the bill, but who state it will receive their "earnest consideration," or words to that effect, are as follows:

United States Senators Hoke Smith, of Georgia; Jas. K. Vardaman, of Mississippi; Lee S. Overman, of North Carolina; F. M. Simmons, of North Carolina, and Atlee Pomerene, of Ohio.

Congressmen John H. Bankhead, of Alabama; Frank T. O'Hara, of Illinois; H. Garland Dupre, of Louisiana; John J. Mitchell, of Massachusetts; John H. Small, of North Carolina; Chas. M. Steadman, of North Carolina, and Edgar R. Kiess, of Pennsylvania.

The attitude of all United States Senators and Congressmen on this important measure will be published in these columns as far as known, and all members are urged to carefully watch the progress of this bill and keep informed as to the attitude of their representatives in Congress on this measure, which is of such great importance to every organized worker in the United States.

AN APPEAL.

To All Members O. R. T.:

On December 2, 1913, on account of declining health, I was forced to discontinue work. Dr. J. A. Goodwin, Frisco railroad physician, of Jasper, Ala., examined, stated that owing to the condition of my lungs I would probably never again be able to resume office work, and advised me to remove at once to a higher locality and live an outdoor life. Acting upon this advice, I moved to a high point twelve miles north of Atlanta, Ga. I am unable to follow any regular vocation, have three small children to care for and will very much appreciate any fraternal assistance that may be extended. All assistance received will be promptly acknowledged. Address, C. E. Moss, Route 2, Smyrna, Ga.

Fraternally,

C. E. MOSS,
Cert. 1056, Div. 32.

EDITORIAL NOTES

Eight hundred and seventy-five new members were initiated into the Order during the month of February.

Federal Judge Witmer has decided that unnaturalized persons can only sue a railroad company in the district court where they are chartered.

The City of Denver, Colo., has adopted an amendment to their charter, providing for semi-annual pay days for all municipal employees.

The convict contract labor system at the House of Correction in Chicago, known as “The Bridewell,” will be abolished on May 1st next.

The Supreme Court of Kansas has ruled that a dying statement may be taken as evidence in civil as well as in criminal court proceedings in that State.

Unions affiliated with the San Francisco Building Trades Council are donating their services in the construction of a home for the blind, now being erected in that city.

The State Railroad Commission of California has ordered the Wells-Fargo Express Company to reduce its rates, effective March 1st. An average cut of 17 per cent will be made.

Congressman Cramton has introduced a resolution in the House of Representatives for an investigation of the Pere Marquette Railway by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Homer D. Call, Grand Secretary and Treasurer of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen, has been elected State Treasurer of New York by the Legislature in joint session.

The Trades and Labor Council of Toronto, Canada, through a committee appointed for that purpose, is holding meetings with farmers, for the purpose of attempting to work out a plan, whereby the workers of that city may secure the products of the farm direct, thereby eliminating the “middleman.”

The United States Supreme Court has ruled that the law of the State of Ohio, regulating the working hours of women, is illegal. The law provides that no woman shall work more than fifty-four hours a week nor more than nine hours a day.

The United States Supreme Court has unanimously held that it is illegal for a police officer to seize letters or papers of a person charged with crime and use them to convict a person so charged, unless that officer is properly armed with a search warrant.

Congressman McGillicuddy, of Maine, has introduced a bill in the House of Representatives, which provides for the payment of compensation to disabled civilian employees of the government. The measure proposes a pension for life.
for total disability resulting from an accident while in the performance of duty, the amount to be 66½ per cent of the salary of the injured person. Smaller amounts are to be paid for accidents resulting in partial disability.

The Industrial Accident Insurance Commission of California has published a decision that it is illegal to reduce wages to meet the cost of insurance against the compensation risk on employees. The Commission learned that some employers intended to assess their employees for amounts required for liability insurance, which would mean a profit for the employers above all cost of insurance.

Senator Boylan has introduced a bill in the State Legislature of New York, regulating advertisements and solicitations for employees during strikes and lockouts, which provides that any advertisements for workers during strike or lockouts, shall state the fact that a strike or lockout is on. The bill further provides that when a worker seeks employment in a factory, where a strike or lockout is on, the management shall state such facts to the applicant in his language or native tongue.

Assemblyman Bredenbeks has introduced a bill in the State Legislature of New Jersey, calling for an investigation of the relief funds maintained by the different railroads, which are contributed to by men not in a voluntary way. The resolution states that "There is reason to believe the funds are not managed to the satisfaction of the contributor and that the benefits are not properly enjoyed."

The old saying that the salaries of unorganized employees are often reduced "just because they can be cut," has been exemplified in New York City by the United Cigar Stores (the Trust), who have reduced their clerks from 10 per cent to 25 per cent through the adoption of a uniform scale just made effective. It is said the wage reduction will amount to from $175,000 to $250,000 a year, which will reimburse that company for the extra dividend of one-half of 1 per cent paid last year.

At the time of going to press, a telegram was received from Second Vice-President Pierson of the Order, stating that a new schedule has been made on the Boston Elevated Railway, that is out of the ordinary. It is an agreement between that system and the Order of Railroad Telegraphers, and in addition to providing for a very good increase in wages, it also stipulates that only members of the Order shall be employed in positions covered by the schedule. It would be interesting to know what the confirmed "non," who has been accustomed to "hogging" everything possible, will think of that provision.

The statement issued by the Bureau of Immigration for the month of November, 1913, shows there were 137,796 aliens landed at the various ports of entry during the month; that there were 2,231 debarred from entrance, classified as follows: Idiots, 73; insane and epileptic, 12; loathsome or dangerous contagious diseases, 330; professional beggars, 1; likely to become public charges, 1,000; mentally or physically defective, 397; contract laborers, 191; accompanying aliens, 40; under sixteen years of age and unaccompanied by parent, 51; assisted aliens, 14; criminals, 48; prostitutes and procurers, 47; without passport, 7; under provisions of Chinese exclusion act, 20. The report also shows that there were 505 aliens returned after landing.

The Supreme Court of Ohio, in a decision recently handed down, has declared the Electrical Workers' Union, which union is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, and of which Frank J. McNulty is president, is the legitimate organization of that craft, which decision has ended the long drawn-out legal contests started at Cleveland, Ohio, several years ago by a seceding union. The lower courts held that the Electrical Workers' Union was a bona fide organization and was entitled to all the moneys and property of that union, and the Supreme Court has upheld that decision, and has declared in effect that when a man or a group of men join a voluntary organization, such as a labor union, they pledge adherence to the Constitution, which is another name for a contract, and that when the said party or parties desert the organization, they forfeit all rights to any property, benefits or privileges of that organization.

BE LOYAL.

By Mrs. E. L. Mathis, President.

It is the amount of your best self which you put into your work that brings you success. Every business organized today is demanding loyalty to its men and women, more than ever before. Why? Competition is keen, making loyalty one of the first requisites. A disloyal person is one of no use in the great scheme upon which business is builted. There is no place in the world where disloyal humanity may comfortably and profitably work. This disloyalty does not alone deter the progress of individuals, it permeates their very atmosphere, and those less strong-minded become inoculated, for chronic disloyalty is a disease, sapping the very life from everything it contaminates.

As an Order, we stand on five basic principles—truth, love, fraternity, beneficence and protection—and these virtues embody the noble attribute “loyalty.”

We love our Order for what it represents, and we are loyal to it for what it means to our homes, and our loved ones, and for the great work it can accomplish among our women.

Be loyal. No one loves a “kicker.” If you can not be loyal, if it is beyond the reach of your character, keep quiet and do not let the world know of your calamity. By your silence you may thoroughly overcome the malady, and come out into the sunlight of fair and square dealing with a heart right with itself and the world. So long as you are part of an institution, stand by it. Life is only worth living when we are loyal, and loyalty, intrinsically, means “love.”

Notes from the Grand Secretary and Treasurer.

The interest in the Mutual Benefit Department has been very great during the month of February. While I state in these notes that applications can be obtained from any Grand officer, and the local officers, yet you note that I urge that all filled-out applications be sent to the Grand Secretary and Treasurer direct.

It may not be further understood by the membership, and those desiring to join the M. B. D., that the work of the M. B. D. is done jointly with the L. A. work by the Grand Secretary and Treasurer, and that this work is so interwoven that it requires the utmost care and detail, so that every case is correct in its detail, and can show the same on the books. The work can be handled much easier and faster if all those contemplating joining the M. B. D., will secure an application from where they can get it the quickest, and when it is filled out to send both initiation fee and dues direct to the Grand Secretary and Treasurer, and avoid the delay of sending to the local secretaries, and then wait until they send in a report to send in your M. B. D. application.

If you belong to a local and can get the application blank from your G. S. & T., do not send it back to her, but direct to me. If your application cannot be accepted, I notify you at once, and if it can be accepted, I give you a receipt until you receive your certificate.

I also urge that you send the dues of the M. B. D. along with the application blank and initiation fee. If you are not accepted, I will send you your money back, and notify you of the same.
By sending initiation fee only, you have to wait until I write to you to send assessments, which makes further delay.

We find that we will work along these lines a little different than the O. R. T., as we only have one to handle all the work, and our way is easier, not only with the work itself, but to avoid the long delays until answers are received, and handling cases several times.

By sending initiation and dues together, it can be fixed up at once, and saves time all around; information given you whether you will be accepted and your receipt received.

Again, I urge that you look over each and every question before sending, in order that it will not have to be returned to you, to further fill out.

Again, you note that there is no reduction in assessments, but that your dues count the same no matter what month you join, as that is so much more added to the principal, and the interest begins at once.

I will further add, that if a member joins say the first of June, that her policy can be made out to begin the first of July, as by the time it is written up and ready to send to you, it is near the last of the month, and these few days will be allowed to you.

I also urge that you take note in these columns, the amount of assessments for each series, and all that you have to do is add the 50 cents initiation to it.

Rates as Follows in Series "A" and "B."

Series "A" initiation and dues, $1.30 per six months. (18 to 50 years.)

Series "B" initiation and dues, $2.10 per six months. (18 to 40 years.)

Remit the above amounts, when sending application in either series that you can take, to me direct, with initiation and dues in the Auxiliary, if a new member.

Our prize contest is attracting much notice, and members are working for them both individually and for their divisions, and I hope that this department of the L.
A. will become as popular as the prize contest of the O. R. T. Our prizes are not of the value of the O. R. T., but they will compare with them, allowing for the difference in our financial conditions. I am sure that members securing one of the solid silver spoons, will never rest until they have the whole set. Again all the new members secured by members of any division will also count in the sum total for the division. I take this way of answering this question as it has been asked so many times.

Again, I find that the extra prize to be given to the local securing the most new members for the term ending June 30, 1914, will not give all the locals a chance to compete for this, there being such different conditions existing among them, and I have been asked in order that it will be a fair contest, that I let it run for a year, and then again it was suggested that it run until the next convention, and give it out at that time to the local getting the most new members until that time, and this will give everybody a chance to work in a fair way. Many divisions being so situated that they cannot work by coming in contact with many of the nons. I will, therefore, give one of the solid silver spoons to the local that secures the most new members ending June 30, 1914, and continue these prizes during the succeeding terms, and hope that all will work for the extra prize to end with the convention, and it will be presented to the local at that time.

It is very gratifying to the Grand Secretary and Treasurer to report that ending
February 28th, the members of the Grand Division of the Auxiliary are nearly all paid to date, and the few that are left will remit shortly, and they have nearly all written notes stating their desire to work for the Auxiliary, and to have locals upon their respective divisions, and requesting blanks to try to secure a charter, and many of the members of the locals have paid more promptly than ever before. We urge that the membership pay dues as soon after they are due as possible, and do not require several reminders to perform this duty. It is pure forgetfulness in nearly all cases, and it is just as easy to pay first as last, unless there is some sickness.

I wish to take this way to congratulate the Ladies’ Auxiliary upon their faithful and efficient general secretaries and treasurers, as I do not believe that any organization has a set of women that perform this duty better, and are so well qualified for the work. I consider the Annual Reports of the Secretaries this year are far beyond those of last year, showing how they have improved in the work, and used every effort to follow out all instructions for the advancement of the interest of their locals.

Sister Marie Eiler has been appointed by Sister Marie A. Bell, general chairman of Local No. 10, to fill the vacancy of the general secretary and treasurer, Sister Florence P. Pierce, resigned.

Sister Eiler is the daughter of Brother T. M. Eiler, member of the general committee of Division No. 33, and is fully capable to fill this important position, and Local No. 10 is to be congratulated in securing the services of this young Sister. We hope all members and non-members will note this change and send all communications to Sister Marie Eiler, Defiance, Ohio, and they will receive prompt attention. She can furnish every member on Division No. 33 with L. A. and M. B. D. blanks upon request.

RESIGNATIONS.

It is with sincere regret that I announce the resignation of Sisters Nightingale and Boutwell from the Board of Directors, Sister Nightingale's health having become so impaired that she is not able to attend to her duties as she thinks they should be done, and Sister Boutwell's husband having left the railroad service.

Sister Nightingale was appointed in 1911 to fill the unexpired term of Sister Pierce, and was unanimously elected to succeed herself at the last convention. Her clear insight into all matters coming before the Board and her prompt action assisted materially in carrying the L. A. through some of its hardest struggles, and in losing her from our official family we are losing one of our strongest members. However, she is not giving up her membership in the L. A. and we hope that she will at a later date be able to again assume the responsibilities of an office.

Sister Boutwell has only been an officer of the L. A. since the last election in May, but she has long been an active and valued worker in the ranks. Her services as minute clerk at the last convention brought her prominently before the membership, and in the short time she has served on the Board of Directors, she has made her influence felt.

DITA MAY WEST,
Chairman Board of Directors.

Northern Pacific Ry., Local No. 24.

Prospects for the future of our local are very bright at present. Several of our brothers of the O. R. T. at various places on the system, have recently shown a disposition to assist us in getting a start on the several divisions, and, as a result, new members have been added and others are in view. I have had quite a number of requests for application blanks, all of which have been supplied, and am quite confident that we will reap good results from these. Our individual members are displaying an increasing interest, both in organizing and in the detail work of our organization, and I am sure that we will experience a steady gain from this time forward.

To those brothers of the O. R. T. who have lent their assistance, we tender our heartfelt thanks and trust that they will continue to lend a helping hand and that others will emulate their example. To our own members, we urge the desirability of effort in your immediate vicinities. All of our members have friends and acquaintances who are eligible to our Auxiliary, yet are not affiliated with us. See how many of them you can induce to become members, and, in addition to finding the labor most fascinating, you will have the satisfaction of having done your duty for the cause.

We welcome to membership in Local No. 24, Sister A. L. Gardner, of Abbott, Iowa, wife of Brother A. L. Gardner, General Chairman of the M. & St. L. System. Sister Gardner's membership was placed in our local, pending the organization of a local on the M. & St. L., which will probably occur in the near future.

Sister Dobson, of Spokane, wife of Brother R. C. Dobson, of Spokane Relay office, is also a new and welcome member. If she proves to be as good a booster for the L. A. as Brother Dobson is for the O. R. T., we will count ourselves as more than fortunate in acquiring her membership.

A baby girl has come to gladden the hearts and brighten the home of Brother and Sister Graham, of Woodland, Wash. Brother "Bob" says it is the finest girl ever, to which Sister Maude heartily agrees, and the members of Local No. 24 join in voicing best wishes for the little L. A. recruit.

MRS. B. E. NASON,
General Chairman.

Local No. 16.

What is for the welfare of the husband is, of necessity, also for the good of the wife and, conversely, what interests, entertains or instructs the wife is beneficial to the husband as well.

There are many men who act on the theory that the wife is merely the housekeeper or drudge of the family. This opinion is clearly manifested or put into practice when opportunities intended to furnish recreation or amusement for the careworn and weary housewife present themselves—in other words, the poor wife's pleasure is not considered by the selfish husband, the home being deemed good enough for her.

On the other hand, there are many instances when the wife is so short-sighted that she thinks the nominal outlay necessary for the husband to hold membership in a labor organization and the short time necessary occasionally to attend meetings are solely for the husband's benefit, and a waste of time and money so far as she is concerned. This feeling on the part of the wife and the consequent nagging because of such a mistaken feeling have been the cause of many a man dropping out of the Order of Railroad Telegraphers.

Particularly to instill into the minds of the women folks in all telegraphers' families the advantages of cohesion and cooperation on the part of all laboring in the same cause, it is not only desirable but necessary that an auxiliary be attached to every division, and the wife of every telegrapher should be a member of it. Again, when the monotonous humdrum life of the housewife is considered, auxiliaries are needed to provide recreation and entertain-ment whenever possible.

If the women folks of every telegrapher can be gotten into the fold and thereby convinced of the benefits to the entire family of organization there will be fewer back-sliders from the parent organization in the future than there have been in the past—the good wife will insist on the husband being always in good standing in the O. R. T. as she would insist on his being in good standing with his life or fire insurance company.

MRS. G. W. HILLEY,
First Vice-President.

Local No. 21.

The February meeting was held at Sister Albertson's house on Wednesday, February 18, 1914. All those who attended were well repaid for their trouble. Sister Albertson is a royal host.

One thing we are proud of is that every sister who belongs to Local No. 21 can proudly say that her hubby has paid up his dues and holds an up-to-date card for this term. Come, ladies of the W. J. & S., join this little band and help this good work along. Those of you who do not belong, if you will come and join us you will learn why it is policy to see that your husbands keep paid up and we are sure you would see that they were paid up promptly. Here is one good field of endeavor for us to exert ourselves for the common good of all.

Sister Maurer finds time in all kinds of weather to come from Elwood, where the train service is so bad, so none of the rest will have any excuse for not getting out to the meetings.

Our March meeting was held on Wednesday, March 18th, at Sister Thompson's house, Camden, N. J.

We would like to see Sister Austin of Mt. Holly come to our meetings. Sister Pheasant, of the Trenton Division, is now a regular attendant. Why not try to get a few more Trenton Division ladies interested and have them come to our meetings? They will enjoy them.

We would like to see Sister Moore come to our meetings. She has not been to any to get acquainted.

CORRESPONDENT.

C., R. I. & P., Local No. 22.

We are starting on our second year as a local, and while we had hoped to accomplish more than we have, yet we feel we have not failed altogether. We organized in February of last year with eight charter members. We now have a membership of twenty-nine. We hope this summer to have a meeting of all members and get fully organized for efficient work. We realize that our members are so badly scattered it will be hard to have the meeting convenient to all, but perhaps we can hold several meetings. I would be glad to receive suggestions from any member as to the best time and place for a meeting; also if you would care to have a meeting on your division. I will be glad to appoint one and will try to attend.

We have received requests for application blanks and had hoped to have several new members before now. My dear nonsister, won't you hunt up that application blank and fill it out today and give it to your husband and tell him to make out a money order and send it in today? Some have said they intended to join, but have just put it off, so please don't put it off another day, as we need you, and we believe you need us.

We are always willing and glad to send application and M. B. D. blanks to all who may desire them.

MRS. J. A. TRACY,
General Chairman.

ON THE MIDNIGHT LOCAL.

As the west door of the depot swung open it hid the man sitting behind it from view. Katherine never even stopped to make sure it was fastened after her. One glance up at the clock, and she hurried over to the ticket window.

"Topeka," she said, in a low voice.

"Baggage" queried the young fellow who was on duty at night. "Because she's coming along now, and you've hardly time to check it."

"I have only my suit case," said Katherine. "Thanks."

She picked it up and went out on the platform. The up-bound train was due any minute. As she passed out, that man behind the door rose quickly and came forward, his hat pushed back from his face.

"I'll take one to the same place, Al," he said, with a grim smile.

"It's Topeka, Mr. Gavin, and no sleepers on this train."

"That's all right, I don't mind," said Gavin, pleasantly. "You might telephone to her father and mother that I have gone along to take care of her. You understand, Al?"

"Yes, sir. All right, Mr. Gavin." Al Simms pursed his lips for a silent whistle as Gavin stepped out into the night. The midnight train pulled in, and he saw the two board it, the girl still unconscious that she was being followed. When he came back and unlocked the ticket office, he called up the Osgood house. He could hear the prolonged ringing of the bell, and finally a drowsy, rather testy tone asking who it was.

"It's me, Mr. Osgood, Al Simms, at the station; yes, sir. Mr. Gavin just told me to call you up and say he would look after Miss Osgood, as he was taking the same train through to Topeka."

"Miss Osgood is upstairs in bed and asleep."

"Pardon me, Mr. Osgood, but I just sold her the ticket myself, and the train's gone."

There was a faint smothered sound like a groan and a muttered word of thanks, then silence, and Al Simms stared thoughtfully out of the dark window pane.

On the train Katherine found a vacant seat easily. Nearly all of the occupants of the car were already asleep in varying postures. She sat close to the window, very cold and straight, looking at the reflection of herself in its darkened surface. It was like a negative held to the light. Her face seemed strained and unnatural, and still its lines were all softened and toned down.

She had hardly come to the full realization that the step was taken, that she had thrown off the bond of duty and love that held her to her home, and was going out to find herself. That was the way she had put it to herself for weeks, to find herself. Somehow back home in the jumble of warring personalities, she had lost her grip on her own self. At her feet was her suit case, and tucked half under her skirt her violin case. While she had that she was never afraid. It would bring her money for food and shelter and clothes until she could take lessons and broaden out her scope. From Topeka she would go East gradually. It must be easy when one was young and alone, and all the world lay ahead.

She threw up her chin with renewed determination and looked down the aisle at Kenneth Gavin smiling at her. He bowed and came leisurely forward with outstretched hand.

"Now, isn't this a lucky chance, Miss Kitty?" he exclaimed. "I was dreading the night trip, and here I find you to talk with. Going far?"
Katherine hesitated. The one person she really would have avoided was with her. His eyes held no questioning; his voice was natural and cheery. Almost against her will she welcomed his presence. She had always felt vaguely relieved and comforted after one of his visits up home, although he talked with her father usually on rare old prints, and politics, either subject finding swift response from Mr. Osgood.

"To Topeka," she said, "I expect to work there now."

"That's good. It does anyone good to broaden out. You must be over twenty now."

"Twenty-two in December." She smiled wistfully. "It's pretty well grown up, isn't it?"

"Not to thirty-four," he came back. "I'm going away because I'm lonesome up at the house, and there's nothing to do there now."

"Nothing to do?" she repeated, quickly. "Why, what a queer thing for you of all men to say, the most active that I ever knew."

"Well, there isn't. All my plans have been upset just the way you'll break a cobweb down."

"I'm awfully sorry," she began, impulsively, her big blue eyes searching his for some clew to the trouble.

"No, you're not a single bit. Though I don't think you've done it purposely, mind." He was still smiling. She had always felt a queer, unsteady little thrill when he bent his head and looked at her so, and had been angry with herself for it. He was Kenneth Gavin, the one citizen her little home town was proud of. It had tried to send him to the legislature and make him serve on committees, but he had evaded the efforts as a boy evades lessons. She knew he loved travel and books, and his big estate up in the hills. Once in awhile he would come down to see them, driving his big car alone, cheery and full of news for her father, ever courteous and amusing to her mother, but rarely talking to her. He had seemed like someone who had arrived at all things attainable. And now he sat beside her on this midnight local, telling her he was lonely and that somehow she was to blame.

"I'm sorry," she said again, "awfully sorry. Why on earth are you going to Topeka?"

"To look after you," he said promptly. "You see, I was down at the station waiting for them to come down after me. There had been a late meeting at the club. Your father was there, too, by the way. You probably took advantage of his absence to run away, now didn't you?"

Slowly, against her will, the telltale tears filled her eyes.

"You don't know what life is like to me," she said, tensely. "You don't know anything about it."

"Don't I?" he replied, warmly, but with a humorous gleam in his eyes. "After knowing your father for years? I've watched you grow up, Miss Kitty, for the past seven years, ever since I came back from my first trip around the world. You were fifteen then, and I heard you play on your violin out in the garden one afternoon, remember?"

"The nocturne in E flat," she flashed back at him. "I know. Then what?"

"Nothing. I just waited around. There seemed to be many who filled your life in a way I could not hope to."

"You mean Walter." She had entirely forgotten Walter in her eagerness to escape her home boundaries, and yet there certainly had been Walter as a conspicuous figure in her life. It had never occurred to her that any one could regard him as a serious person. "Don't you know that he's going to be a naval engineer, and has gone for four years to San Francisco? He went two weeks ago, and I never even dreamed any one thought we cared for each other—that way."

"Brentwood Junction," called out the brakeman at the door.

Gavin rose, and picked up her suit case and violin.

"We get the down train here," he said. "It's due in about ten minutes."

"But I'm not going back. I'm——"

"Yes, you are," he smiled down at her reassuringly, compellingly. "Of course you are. Now, if you had told me that you were running away to marry Walter, I should probably have gone with you, delivered you safely into his keeping, and come back home. But now," he leaned over until she shrunk a little from the fire in his eyes, "now you are going back home tonight, and I will see your father myself. You don't want to fight your own way in the world, dear heart. You just want to be loved and petted up a bit, and given a chance to breathe in an atmosphere that is congenial. Isn't my atmosphere congenial, Kit: honest, now?"

The train had slackened speed. Katherine gave a little unsteady laugh.

"I'm trying to make up my mind."

"You know you're not. You're fixing your hat on straight, and are all ready to follow me, aren't you?"

"Brentwood, Brentwood," called the brakeman again.

"Hurry," said Katherine. "They only stop here a minute." And they stepped off the train together into the night.—By John Darling, in St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

THE RAINBOW'S END.

They say that the brave, and strong, and bold,
At the rainbow's end find a casket of gold;
I've followed the rainbow for years and years,
But found only caskets of sorrowful tears.

—J. W.

A big, gaunt team of oxen pulled a creaking covered wagon across the little stream and came to a standstill beneath a huge spreading oak that bordered the water. Both team and outfit showed signs of a long journey, and the generous shade of the tree was grateful, not only to the beasts but to a tall, gaunt man in faded blue overalls—likewise the woman and three children. The man stiffly climbed down from the wagon seat and started unhitching the team—the woman then emerged from the depths of the wagon and, after alighting, turned to lift out, one by one, the three tow-headed youngsters.

No words were spoken, and after the man had returned from driving the oxen to water, he found the little camp-fire burning brightly and their rough little meal prepared.

The faces of the three children, exact miniature reproductions of their mother, fairly shone in their cleanliness—the woman herself, although poorly dressed, was neat and tidy, and a closer look at her face showed intelligence and sincere Christianity.

"Guess we'd ought to reach there by to- morrow noon," she said, "that is providin' nothin' happens—looks some like a storm brewin' toward th' West, but mebbe it'll hold off."

The man showed no sign of hearing, except to glance up at the sky, from the sky his eyes dropped to the road and in the distance, a single horseman could be seen coming towards them. When the rider had approached near enough, the man walked out to the road and hailed him.

"Howdy stranger," he asked, "'Kin you all tell us how much further it is to the old Dobbins ranch?"

Sam Watson, herd rider for the Circle-H outfit, after looking over the little camp for a few seconds, replied:

"About thirty miles straight along this road," then in a more friendly tone, he added, "Are you the people who bought the place?"

"Why, yes," replied the newcomer, "Although not exactly a buy, we figure on staying if we can make a go of it."

"Glad to have you for neighbors," advanced Sam, holding out his gloved hand, "my name is Sam Watson of the Circle-H our land joins yours, but there's some considerable space between."

"Same to you," answered the man, reaching up to grasp Sam's hand. "My name's Bill Hughes, from Texas, there's my woman and the kids. I reckon we kin make the ranch by noon tomorrow."

"Yes, you got a good tough-looking team there," said Sam. "Well, I must be hiking—any time you want any help or such, come over," and he galloped away.

That evening after dark, Hughes squatted alone before the glowing embers of the camp fire, stolidly smoking a much-used corn cob pipe. Within the covered wagon the three children were grouped around their mother, who, in a low tone, was reading to them by candle light, from a thumbed and dirty Bible. As the droning voice of the woman occasionally reached the man, he moved uneasily and his lips muttered something but that was all.
After the woman had finished, the eldest boy, taking her hand and looking up into her face, said:

"Mummy, please tell us again that story about the rainbow and the pot of gold?"

"No, deary," she answered, "not tonight—Mummy's too tired—we'll be home tomorrow and then I will." Going to the wagon-flop, she called to the man, who even then was killing the fire, preparatory to going to bed.

Spring found the little family nicely settled and things began to take on a look of comfort. The long rows of corn began to show, as the gentle rains gave strength to the delicate green shoots; day after day the man could be seen in the far distance from the house, plowing and weeding and planting. Within the rough little house, everything was clean, wholesome and in its place.

Sam Watson riding past one day, in search of some stray cattle, stopped to rest and water.

"Glad to see you settled so nicely, Mam," he said, "that man of yours is sure some worker, and this being an uncommon good spring, you'll sure have a good start; if there's anything us boys can do for you, let us know."

When Sam returned to his mates that night, he remarked that, "the little woman over on the old Dobbins' place was a God's woman, clean and good, and was teaching her kids what's right."

When Hughes came in from work that night, he appeared surly and morose.

"Mighty careless about their stock in these parts," he growled, "if Hickey was around this country they'd be more particular how they left their cattle loose."

"O, Bill, please forget that horrible man," the woman answered, "you know you promised to give up all that stuff, and that's why we came all this way from Texas, and think of the children, Bill."

Two weeks later, a bunch of cowboys rode up to the little cabin, and the spokesman asked Hughes if he had been missing any cattle of late.

"No," replied Hughes, showing interest, "I've got no stock to lose—why, what's up?"

"Nothing much," said the leader, "only some curious cattle-thief has run off a big band of cattle and we're trying to locate him."

After the cowboys had left, the wife of Hughes turned considerably paler.

"God knows, Bill," she said in a trembling voice, "I figured we'd left all that behind us," and then as she turned away, she murmured, "I dunno, I guess there's no end to my rainbow."

One quiet April afternoon, a tall, loose-jointed man on horseback rode directly up to the open door of the Hughes' cabin, and seeing the woman busy at work, he smiled a satisfied smile and muttered under his breath:

"Kinder thought I'd locate 'em after awhile," and then in a loud rasping voice, he shouted, "Why Jennie Hughes, how be ye? and where's Bill?"

The woman, intent upon her work and in the act of drying a dish, dropped it with a clatter and staggered back as if from a blow.

"Steve Hickey, you here?" she gasped, and then straightening up, "don't you bother Bill, don't you dare disturb us. we're gettin' a good start now and I sha'nt have you taking him away on your thieving raids." Seeing that her words only brought a sneering smile to the listener's face, she changed her voice to a wheeling tone, "O, Steve, please go away, Bill has been awful good since we left Texas and you. See, look how nice our place looks; and Steve, please don't start him again, won't you let him be?"

"I sure am sorry, Jen, but we've just got to have him—he's the only man we can trust to take this band out of the valley and we want him—where'll I find him?"

"Steve, please let him be," begged the woman, "I've got a few dollars saved up, I'll give 'em all to you, only please don't start Bill again, he's beginning to forget all —"

"Now, Jennie, don't carry on so," broke in the man, turning impatiently on his horse, "this is a big deal and we need Bill worse than we ever did, mebbe—" his glance happened to travel afar over the field and he saw a lone figure of a man, plodding behind a pair of oxen. "O, there he is, alright Jennie, I'll get him. He was about to wheel his horse and gallop away, when a look came over the woman’s face that stopped him.

“Now, Jen, be reasonable,” he growled, “Bill and I have pulled through some big deals, and we won’t fall down on this, you know how it is.”

The woman never uttered a word, but her hand stealthily felt around the corner of the door and clutched a rifle. Hickey pulled his hat more firmly down over his head and touched a spur to his horse, simultaneously with this action came the sharp crack of the gun, and the horse, feeling its rider suddenly become limp and then fall, came to a halt.

For a few moments the woman stood as if paralyzed, and then she was conscious of voices and a crowd of men.

“What’s happened, Mam,” inquired a big man on a gray horse, “we heard your shot and—ah-h,” as his eyes found the limp figure, crumpled up in a dusty heap and the riderless horse.

“Oh, God help me,” droned the woman, “I shot him, it’s Steve Hickey, and he came after my man to help run off some cattle; he always could wind Bill around his finger, that’s why we quit Texas,” and then her voice broke suddenly, taking on a tone of hopelessness. “I guess I’ll never have a home after all, and I promised the kiddies we’d find the end of the rainbow out in this country, and things sure was beginning to look up fine.”

Her voice sank, became almost inaudible and finally she dropped to her knees and began to sob. The big man jumped from his gray horse and opening his coat showed a sheriff’s star.

“Well, Mam,” he said, helping her to her feet with a kindly hand, “if that’s Steve Hickey, you’re sure in luck. There happens to be a reward out for him, and I should say you’re entitled to it. Pick him up boys, and let’s be moving; looks a little like rain; I’ll be out and see you again, Mam.”

After the little rainy sunshine, as the man and woman looked out of their open door across the fields, a rainbow, superb in all its glory, radiately circled the clearing sky with its glistening hues, and causing the three little children to clap their hands in ecstasies of delight—the man, sturdy-hewn and heavy handed as he was, seeing the starting tears in the woman’s eyes, kissed her roughly on the cheek.—By Jack Wolf.

MUNSEN’S DREAM.

HAS. MUNSEN drew up his truck as No. 19 pulled noisily up at Riverside, and sticking his head through the doorway, asked, “Got anything, Reddy?”

“All in the door, and that pile on this side,” answered Jim Parsons, the messenger as he finished tying up a bundle of sealed packages and way-bills, and came toward the door, handing them with his book to Munsen to “sign up.”

The latter climbed into the car, checked up and signed, and then said, “That’s a nice mess to bring in here tonight.”

“Well, if we’d been on time, you could have handled it O. K., and if I had known we were going to be as late as this, I’d have left it over at the junction with Miller, and he could have taken care of it in the vault till morning; but I didn’t know—so, there you are and I guess you’ll have to take it, as there is no vault at the Falls, you know.”

Riverside was a good sized, hustling little town of about fifteen thousand inhabitants, and Noah Munsen had three drivers, two clerks, and a cashier who also acted as money clerk. Munsen met every train, and personally signed for all “reds,” transferring them to the office and thence to the money-clerk or the drivers, which ever place they belonged.

On this particular evening, train No. 19, due at 4:50 p.m., did not arrive until 6:15 p.m., having been delayed by a freight wreck; hence it was that a package, valued at $15,000, could not be delivered until the next morning. This would necessitate someone staying in the office as an extra guard that night; and, as Munsen was unmarried, he decided to say nothing about it to his clerks, and stay there himself, as they were all married men with families, and he disliked to ask any one of them to leave their homes alone all night when he could just as well as not leave his bachelor apartments.
Thus it was that, after checking up and loading the perishable shipments for the driver, Munsen dropped his value packages into the office safe, having first checked them, and told his cashier, who was just balancing his books, "that he had some trinkets in the safe, and guessed he'd spend the evening with them." Ed. Johnson, the cashier, smiled, but said nothing and went out. He knew what Munsen meant.

Left to himself, Munsen read and smoked until he began to feel sleepy, and then pulled out a cot from the back room, lay down and was soon fast asleep.

How long he had slept, Noah Munsen never knew; but he was awakened by someone moving about in the office. He tried to move, to speak, but his muscles and tongue seemed paralyzed; he could only lie there and listen. Presently there was the sound of the combination on the office safe working; then, after a slight pause, the door swung open, and Munsen could hear the packages and papers rattle as some one handled them over. Then the safe door shut with a thud, the combination clicked and someone moved toward the door of the office; it opened and closed, then all was still, and Munsen fought hard to overcome a drowsiness which suddenly seized him; but he was powerless, and when next he awoke it was daylight.

His first thought, on waking, was of the $15,000. Springing to the safe, he worked the combination with hands that shook so he could hardly control the dial. Finally the heavy door swung open. The safe was empty! Noah Munsen groaned, as he staggered to a chair. It had not been a dream then after all. The office had been robbed. He rushed to the door, it was locked. Who could have done it. No one but himself and the cashier knew that combination.

Ed. Johnson, the cashier, and Noah Munsen had been school boys together, and either would have trusted the other with his life. No, it could not have been Johnson, and Munsen had himself slept in the office.

The agent telegraphed the superintendent of the division, and then called him on the telephone and explained as best he could. Then he telegraphed the route agent.

At noon they both arrived and looked things over, and listened to Munsen's story. Nothing was said, but after talking together apart for a short time, they left for Riverside.

The next day Munsen received a letter from the superintendent relieving him and the cashier from duty pending an investigation. He was further advised that Nelson, the route agent, would arrange the transfer.

In the afternoon Nelson arrived with the new agent and cashier. Nothing was said regarding the theft, except that Nelson asked if they had made any new discoveries. Munsen replied that nothing had been learned.

The transfer being made, Munsen and Johnson put on their coats and hats and left the office, after shaking hands with the route agent who said: "Now, boys, don't take this too hard. It's a queer case, but I, for one, don't think that either of you had anything to do with it." That was a good deal for him to say—more, in fact, than he should have said, and they knew it. They thanked him, and left the office, each going to his home.

That night neither man slept.

The next day Judge Spellman, the president of the National Bank of Riverside, entered the express office and asked for a private interview with the agent.

"As you are well aware," he said, "I am pretty deeply interested in this burglary, if there has been one, and it looks most mightily as though there had been, for I owned a package worth $15,000, which disappeared with the others. Now, what I am here for is this: If you can get your superintendent here, I think I can arrange a scheme which may discover the whereabouts of the missing valuables. I may say further, that I have known Mr. Munsen and Mr. Johnson since they were babies, and I am positive that they are innocent as I am, that I am here regardless of the circumstantial evidence against them. I taught them as boys at school, and they have grown to manhood here in Riverside, and I know them perhaps better than anyone else. In fact, Mr. Munsen lived in my home as a member of my own family from the time his parents died until my wife died and I broke up my home."

"I will wire the superintendent at once, and will advise you as soon as I get a reply," said the new agent.

Judge Spellman thanked him and left the office.

When the evening train arrived, Judge Spellman and the agent were on the platform waiting, talking in subdued tones.

The agent hurried forward as the superintendent alighted from the train, and, after shaking hands with him, turned to introduce the judge, but an introduction was unnecessary, they were standing with hands outstretched and a smile of recognition on their faces.

"Well, well, Henry," said the superintendent, "so we meet again after so many years. I did not know you were here in Riverside still. I don't think I've seen or heard of you since we left college. I'm mighty glad to see you."

"John, old man," replied the judge, "it has been a long time since we met, but I have done better than you, it seems, for I have kept track of you."

So it was that fifteen minutes later the two old college chums were seated in the cozy rooms of the judge's, and, after talking over old days for a while, they became more earnest and confidential in their conversation, until finally the superintendent sprang excitedly to his feet, exclaiming, "Henry, do you really think that was it?"

"That's my theory, Jack, and I think you'll find that I am right. That man is as honest as old Professor M—, and you know he wouldn't take a sheet of paper with a mark on it for fear the mark belonged to one of the other professors."

"Well, we'll try it; by George, we'll try it! I wouldn't listen to such a thing from any one but you. But I know you have good reasons for it, and pretty sure, or you wouldn't ask it of me. It has not appeared in the papers, I believe, and if it's as you say, we'll give nothing out, and I'll leave it to you."

The next day Noah Munsen and Ed. Johnson were summoned to the office. When Johnson arrived he was told to go into the agent's private office. This he did, and found Munsen and the superintendent chatting together as pleasantly as though there was no cloud on the horizon, although Munsen looked pale and worn.

"How are you, Johnson?" said the superintendent, as he rose and held out his hand. "Sorry we have made you and Munsen here so much trouble for the last few days; but, as you know, there was no other way out of it. However, it has been decided that you are both to go back to work tomorrow morning, and Nelson will be here to make the transfer back this evening. I will stay over until tomorrow or the next day, as I want to spend a little time with Judge Spellman, who was an old class-mate of mine at college. I trust you will both do all you can to get this matter straightened out."

The two men left the office together, their minds dazed.

At 3:40 they were back again, the transfer was made, and they were again in their accustomed places. The new agent was to remain till the next day.

After the evening train was in, and Munsen had checked up his "reds" and placed them in the safe and locked it, he turned to Johnson and said: "Ed., I'd give all I'm worth to know where those packages went to, and why the superintendent has acted in this matter as he has."

"So would I," returned the cashier, closing his books and putting on his coat and hat. "By the way, did Mr. Wilson give you my key?"

"No," replied Munsen, "he gave me the one he had, and I never thought of the one the cashier had. I hope he didn't lug it away with him. We seem bound to get into one mix-up after another lately. Well, we can do nothing about it tonight, but I'll see to it in the morning."

The two men left the office together, going to their respective homes.

A few minutes later, three men slipped quietly out of the cigar store next door to the express office. One of them unlocked the office door, and they quietly entered. No word was spoken. The office was in darkness, except for the feeble rays of one gas jet which was always left burning at night on the cashier's desk.
Two minutes later, no one would have thought there was anyone in the office. All was quiet and peaceful, and so it remained until a little after twelve o'clock. Then someone put a key into the lock of the front door, the door opened and a man entered. He closed the door, went into the agent's office, came out again, went to the safe, worked the combination, opened the safe, took out a package, closed the safe and locked it, then entered the agent's private office. As he did so two shadowy forms followed him, and as all three disappeared through the door, someone pressed a switch, and the room was flooded with electric light.

In the end of the room farthest from the door stood a desk, and kneeling beside it was the man who had taken the package from the safe. He unlocked a secret door, in the end, and placed the package in the opening, and was just closing it when there was the sharp report of a pistol.

The man sprang to his feet with a yell, quivering from head to foot. Three men stood beside him. He looked around in a dazed sort of way. It was Munsen, and there stood Judge Spellman, the superintendent and Wilson.

Judge Spellman spoke first. "Noah, look in that desk there and see if you don't find something."

Munsen did as directed. He first produced the package he had just taken from the safe, then the packages that had disappeared on the night he had slept in the office.

The Judge turned to the others, and smiling, said: "You see, gentlemen, I knew what I was talking about. Noah was a sleep-walker when a boy, but I thought he had out-grown it. Perhaps this will cure him, though."

"Gentlemen," said Munsen, "as God is my judge, this is the first I ever knew that I was subject to walking in my sleep, but there is no doubt of it now."

"Munsen," said the superintendent, "you have had a close call, but I hope you are cured. You can thank Judge Spellman for getting you out of it. You have been a good man, and he has pleaded your case well but I warn you that if it ever happens again you are through. Now go and put that stuff in the safe, and go home and go to bed, and, d---n you, stay there."

Munsen placed the packages in the safe, and then turned to Judge Spellman, tears in his eyes, as he held out his hand, saying, "Judge Spellman, I don't know how I can ever thank you for this great favor you have conferred upon me."

"Tut, tut, boy; go home and go to bed, and don't ever repeat the dose. That's all I want for pay," said the judge, as he shook the outstretched hand.

"Well," said the superintendent, after Munsen had gone, "Henry, you were right; he was asleep all right, and as innocent as a babe unborn, and I hope he won't have any more of it."

"I'm sure," replied the judge, "the fright of so suddenly awakening and under such circumstances will prove the best cure that could be given."

And such proved to be the case; for Noah Munsen never again walked in his sleep.—By EARL C. PRESSEY, in Express Gazette.

THE TICK OF THE CLOCK.

THERE is coming about a singular mingling of American wealth and European ancestral abodes. It is now quite the fashion for an American multimillionaire to buy an old castle, repair it, decorate it and keep it for one of his homes. I am not exactly a multimillionaire. Indeed, I am scarcely a millionaire, but plenty rich enough to have bought a castle—a small one—and put it in habitable order.

It is a veritable feudal castle, situated in Pomerania between the towns of Dievenow and Kolberg, on the Baltic Sea. It stands on an eminence overlooking the sea and altogether makes a delightful summer residence. As to winter—well, I can't say how pleasant it is in winter, for the moment the winds grow the least bleak in autumn I invariably leave, like the birds, for a warmer climate, but I should fancy it would be very desolate.

With the castle I bought what of the furniture remained in it. There were not many pieces, but what there was was very old. There was an elaborate bedstead with the arms of the family that built the castle carved upon the framework set on the posts supporting the canopy. There was the original dining table of massive oak. No wonder it remained. It was too heavy to be easily taken away. There was a spinning wheel that had spun all the material worn by the members of the inhabitant family for centuries.

At a turn in the great staircase leading to the rooms above stood one of the first clocks ever made. It was seven feet high and large in proportion. The machinery was crude, the weights heavy and the hands warped out of shape with age. But they were not moving. Indeed, they had not moved for many years. The pendulum was unhooked and standing in the case just below where it had ticked away a number of generations. A baby would be born, live to three-score years and ten, die, and meanwhile the pendulum would swing slowly back and forth, as the poet has beautifully expressed it, saying, "Never, forever; forever, never."

Of course there was a legend about the clock. There always is a legend about an old timepiece like that. A musty record book went with the premises, giving the history of the castle in entries that had been made from time to time. I went to live there in the early spring, intending to spend the summer, and one of my principal amusements from the first was poring over this old record. Certain entries I found scattered here and there interested me exceedingly. These are samples:

"Dec. 12, 1654.

"At midnight the clock stopped. All knew that it would likely begin to swing at the next midnight and that it would mark the hour of our good Sir Olaf's death, who is lying sorely distempered."

"Dec. 13, 1654.

"The clock began again to tick at midnight and gave twenty-five ticks, when it stopped again. Sir Olaf will die on Christmas day. The clock will not begin to tick again till after his death."

A later entry was as follows:

"June 3, 1743.

"Though the pendulum of the clock has been detached for forty years, last midnight a loud ticking was heard in the castle. All counted seven ticks. Poor little Hubert is very low. We look for his spirit to pass away in three days."

From a previous entry recording the birth of Hubert I judged that the lord of the castle and his wife had been married long without a child, and Hubert had come to them a great blessing. After his death—he seems to have died in childhood—the entries for some twenty years are very meager, and the castle appears to have been seldom occupied.

I wondered at the superstitions of these people, who seemed to look upon the supposed or reported or dreamed ticking of a rusty clock whose pendulum had been detached for forty years as no more unusual than one would consider the appearance of a comet in the heavens. Nevertheless, I never passed the old clock as I went up and down stairs without something akin to dread. I attributed this feeling to the superstition prevailing among my own ancestors centuries ago, the rudiments of which still exist in me.

I passed a delightful summer in my castle. I would sit all day looking at the ships now far out at sea, moving apparently so slowly that I could not detect their motion, just as we fail to perceive it in the passage of our lives. In the morning a sail would stand on the horizon, a mere spark of yellow sunlight, and by noon it would be opposite me. Sometimes when the wind was light it would be within my range of vision all day. On a terrace, at my window or on the battlements of a tower I would dream dreams of the former denizens of my castle.

At one time I could see a viking ship pulled up to the shore below me, plumed knights debark and, coming up to the drawbridge, stand and call to me to come down and lower it for them. At another, men would be noisy in the court yard putting on armor and mounting fiery steeds. There would be a sound of chains running through pulleys, a thud of the drawbridge as it came down, then a clatter of horses' hoofs upon it as the warriors under their feudal lord went forth to do battle for the king. Then they go scampering over the winding road, their metal suits and armor shining in the sun, their plumes dancing on their heads, their forms growing less and less, horses and men passing into a gradual confusion until they are swallowed up in a green wood.

The summer passed altogether too quickly. September came and my children, preferring the gayer life of Berlin, departed, and my wife was obliged to go with them. I preferred to remain a few weeks longer. So I let them go, intending to content myself with the companionship of those who, in my dreams, had centuries before peopled my castle. But the days had grown very short in that northern region by September and evening came all too early. I did my dreaming before the mammoth fireplace where I burned great logs, but, though they blazed and crackled and sputtered merrily, I did not like being alone. There were servants, to be sure, but I could have no companionship with them.

One night a dark cloud came up over the sea and brought a shower. I was lying in bed and heard the rain come down for a few minutes, after which all was still again. I was about dropping off to sleep when my attention was arrested by what sounded exactly like the tick of a clock.

Could it be the old timepiece on the stairs?

I waited for repetition. It was not a second, but what seemed ten seconds, when it came again. My heart stood still. Was the old machine about to predict the day of my death? I poohpoohed. There it is again, a third tick coming after the same interval. I tried to recall something in the old record book mentioning that the ticks marked more than a second of time. Nothing was said about this, but since they were phantom ticks by a pendulum that was not hung and since the weights were resting quietly in the bottom of the case an interval of one second was not to be expected. The seconds of eternity are sometimes centuries in duration.

Why had I begun to count the ticks? I would cease to do so. I tried, but failed.

Four, five, six, seven, eight—I was obliged to count them. They would not permit me not to count them. Nine, ten, eleven, twelve, thirteen—it was the 13th day of the month, and I hoped there might not be another tick. Then it would be no warning to me. Warning! What warning? That I was going to die some time during the month between the 13th and 31st?

Nonsense!

But my heart didn't say nonsense at all. It beat like a trihammer.

There it is—fourteen. Now I hoped it would tick on. If I must die I would rather have time for preparation. I continued counting the ticks. I had to continue counting them—fifteen, sixteen, seventeen, eighteen, nineteen, twenty.

What was that moan?

Oh, that's the wind. I have heard that sough before. It comes from the current passing in a certain direction through openings. But how like a moan of one in suffering! It's the imagination that is working upon me. I wish morning would come. But it won't. The ticks always begin at midnight, and there has thus far been but twenty of them.

Twenty-one, twenty-two—it seems to me that there is a longer interval than at first—twenty-three, twenty-four. Surely they are coming to an end. There is now a long while between each. Like the breaths of one dying I counted twenty-seven, and there must have been half a minute before twenty-eight came. And it was the last.

Oh, heavens! I'm to die on the 28th of this month!

What a night I spent. Would that my castle had been blown up by the Norsemen centuries ago and I had never seen it. Two weeks to live? Two weeks and one day! I would telegraph my wife the first thing in the morning. Telegraph what? That I was to be ticked out of existence by a rusty clock with no pendulum? How could I do that? Doubtless when light came again I would feel better about it.

And so I did. I arose, ate a good breakfast and got on pretty well till evening was coming on, when I called my seneschal—a fat, baldheaded Swede—and told him that I would take the evening train for Berlin.
"Why, Herr, I thought you would stay with us to the end of the month!"

"The 28th? No. What am I talking about? I am going on the first train. And, Adolph, I wish you to take the old clock off the stair landing and put it down in the cellar. Bury it. No, don't do that. Don't do anything. I'll write you."

I seized my suit case and walked to the station, though it was two miles. I wished to put distance between me and that old clock. What shall I say when I reach Berlin? That I'm sick? Who'll believe me?

Nobody did. I told my wife what had scared me away from the castle, but we kept it from the others.

"Why, I always thought you had such a contempt for superstition!" she said.

"So I have, till I see a ghost myself," I replied.

I thanked heaven when the 28th of September had passed and I still lived.

There is a sequel to this story, but it didn't transpire for a long while. One night when my wife and I were at our castle it rained. I awakened her.

"What is it?" she asked.

"The clock is ticking."

She listened to the first tick, then turned over and was going to sleep.

"Well?" I observed.

"That's a dripping of water!"

This time the clock ticked all night.—

FANNY'S IMPROMPTU.

The managing partner eyed me askance across the table. She had almost succeeded in banishing every outward and visible sign of a sense of the humor of the situation. Patience, scorn, exasperation, marred the accustomed serenity of the wilyf countenance. But I wasn't noticing anything. I toyed with my breakfast with the cheerful contemplative air of a man who doesn't care how long the job takes him, and will not need to care on the following morning and a few mornings after that. The prospect of such a spell of wild license was grateful and comforting. Then the voice of the managing partner fell upon my ears.

"I should like to know what you really call yourself," said she, witheringly. "Never again will I be led this dance. Here are your holidays actually begun and you seem to have no more idea than you had three months ago as to how or when we are going to spend them!"

My composure became less abstracted. I yielded to a measure of respectful attention.

"Really my dear—just another lump, please. (The M. P. looked unutterable generosity with the sugar.) What are the facts? We were going with the Binks' to Clapperton-on-Sea, well, they had a providential visitation, the measles. Now I think I ought to be fairly exon—"

"I don't believe you wanted to go," she interrupted. Witchcraft is gone out of fashion, but I think the lady vaguely suspected that I had instigated those measles.

"Again," I protested mildly, "the Matlock woman's breach of contract was rather shabby, but you conducted that correspondence. Also you kindly put the veto on our going north to seek the bosom of our respective families, owing to, er, recent uncomplimentary exchanges between you and certain of your good relatives."

"Yes," she snapped, "and now let me tell you that you were the first cause of that bother. That day last year when mother's rheumatism had been troublesome you said it was a pity she hadn't got 'em in her tongue; and our Julia heard you!"

This was an unexpected shot, and, taking advantage of my temporary discomfiture, my M. P. proceeded to favor me with a full, frank, if somewhat biased account of my past misdeeds, concluding with most doleful prognostications as to my prospects in this world and the next. She is not philosophical, bless her! It is just Fanny's way when these little domestic crises occur.

At length I leisurely took up the main threads of discussion.

"The fates have interposed so much this year," I murmured, "that I felt it perhaps safer to submit, and wait positive instructions; a clear call," as the poet and the parson put it. 'I thought the finger of Providence might in time—.'

"Instead of which I expect I shall have to make up your mind for you, as usual," she interposed. "It would relieve my mind of a heavy responsibility."

I assented as I concluded my languid breakfast, "but, anyhow, I will look 'round and get some railway handbills. Perhaps between now and Monday we may settle on something."

"May we really?"

That the stale cast of this obvious irony was sickled o'er by the more native hue of resolution will appear in the sequel. At the moment it escaped me. I was not noticing anything in particular. The Managing Partner rose; I buried myself in the newspaper. In a few minutes I became hazily conscious of restfulness and peace. The other members of the family were apparently engaged in the upper regions; there were occasional faint trippings to and fro overhead. Anon Master Hopeful and even little Evelyn would flit through or into my apartment. Sundry drawers and cupboards would be opened. I was dimly conscious (without being actually distracted from my Redmond versus O'Brien diversions) of a bright eagerness to serve mother, combined with evident solicitude not to disturb father, highly gratifying to the parental mind. But the noises and rumblings upstairs began to be at once more persistent and more definite. They had concentrated on the landing now. Ah! the rasping of locks and fastenings, the flopping and pattering of straps. There sounded something important and challenging about them! one could, not even pretend to ignore all this clamor. Tim Healy might be very amusing, but he suddenly ceased to be topical. But now my well-beloved descended the stairs with light hurried steps. She confronted me, a not unbecoming flush of exertion on her cheek, a latent triumph in her eye. She affected, however, an air of tragic composure.

"Get ready," she said, "we're going!"

"Going!" I exclaimed, "where?"

She shrugged her shoulders impatiently. The question was evidently an irrelevance. "My holidays begin today or not at all. Men are always going out somewhere. The main attraction of a woman's holiday is the complete rest from the round of household duties, to be right away from her own four walls; and (abruptly resuming the first person), "I'll have this week-end included if you don't mind."

She was moving off. "Jacky, help Evelyn on with her shoes!"

"But," I ventured, "supposing we are outside the house in about half an hour—then what?"

"You were thinking of getting bills today," she rejoined caustically. "I will help you, and we'll decide on the spot."

It was possible to imagine drawbacks to the scheme, however.

"As you will, my dear," I concluded, "it will at least prevent us desecrating the Sabbath by lengthy discussion of plans of worldly pleasure."

But she was already busy again. I folded my newspaper. It was all very sudden, as the girls say in the novels. Still it was a solution, though Providence had chosen a very human instrument. But cheerful docility should be my only wear. It was Fanny's circus, not mine. Her splendid courage and initiative should have free play.

We arrived at the station, and very crowded and busy it was. I obtained my bills and a time-table, and then we held a meeting. We discussed the agenda under obvious difficulties. The juveniles disported themselves recklessly among portmanteaus and hat boxes, passengers jostled, and struggling porters came suddenly upon us, vanishing again in trailing clouds of genial imprecation.

"We could start for Skegness," I was saying, "in three hours time. Meanwhile —?" The Managing Partner looked at me, rather absently, I thought. It had struck me that she had not attended quite as well as she might while I was reading the various amendments. True, I had not arrived at anything very satisfying so far, but I was doing my best.

"Mrs. Jenks told me that her husband's cousins had had a very comfortable time at a farm near Cuttle Towlington," she mused. "I remember the people's name now, Fairleigh."

"Never heard of the place," I replied, "but I'm certain it'll be nicer than Blackpool." I curiously consult my time-table.

"Ila! very—modest," I gasped, for someone's bicycle handle had aimed straight for my fifth lumbar with unqualified success, "twenty-four and one-half miles, but a little tortuous, a—"

"Torture, who?" she bridled.

"You mistake, love," I replied, ruefully rubbing my vertebral column, "I said the route was a little tortuous. These are, with the best intentions, of course, rather devious ways. I mean," I hastened to conclude, "there are only three changes and we don't go outside the county."

"We shall get over that," returned Fanny briskly.

"How about the time?" I looked.

"Why, there's a train in ten minutes," I exclaimed.

"Well, that does look like Providence," and I became dreamily retrospective.

"Jacky, you'll have the umbrella in that old gentleman's eye. Well," she turns to me, "aren't you going to get the tickets?"

"For Cuttle Towlington, then?" I query.

"Of course!"

We are just in time. I satisfy the guard's curiosity (and refresh my own memory by reading him our destination), and as he slams himself off I look at the Managing Partner and laugh. She relents, and she laughs, and we all laugh long and loud. And all was calm and bright.

We find the Fairleighs. It is not exactly a "farm" perhaps, but there is a pig and an apple tree and some home cured bacon, and Mrs. F. does the thing handsomely. Managing Partners are adepts in the art of subtle revenges. Just before leaving the house I had besought Fanny to find room for a book or two. On her demurring somewhat I had reminded her that, though women may not be able to sharpen a lead pencil or hit a haystack at a dozen yards, it is the unchallenged glory of her sex that she can pack more articles into an ordinary portmanteau than a mere man can stow into a railway truck.

"Just one or two," I had pleaded, "and some poetry—something light."

She signified compliance. Unpacking at our rural lodging the first article I fish out is, ye gods, "Dante's Inferno." I stammer forth amazed protests.

"Well, I didn't think I should care for it, but it was poetry, and comedy, 'divine comedy.' I thought that sounded rather light," replied my only she, as with inscrutable countenance she platted her back hair before the mirror.

"On holiday one doesn't specially yearn to be conning over the torments of the damned," I proceeded.

"Don't begin using bad language as soon as you get into a stranger's house," she gently remonstrated. "In fact (musing) I'm not sure we are not expected to pay a deposit as it is."

I descended to view the landscape.

Cuttle Towlington proved delightful, one of those idyllic little spots out of the beaten track. Fanny forgave me, and once, I remember, as we strolled by field and hedgerow she filled full my cup of bliss by confessing that she still loved me as much as she had done in the days "before she had found out what a fool I was." There is a distinctive human attraction about your rural sojourning. Early one becomes initiated into the gossip of the countryside, the local rivalries and feuds, the sharp incompatibilities of church and dissent (now largely refined away in the towns), the history and vagaries of the local gentry. Then there are the homely amenities of the rustic inn, mention of which reminds me that I must not conclude without telling you of my "jolly" British tar. He sat smoking quietly in a corner under the proud surveillance of a couple of yokels. Four or five cyclists refreshing themselves en route, waxed merry, and by aid of a wheezy antedeluvian table-piano endeavored a little "harmony." Possibly inspired by the sailor's presence, their warbling took a decidedly patriotic turn. Jack sat, however, grim-visaged and unresponsive. At last came "Britannia rules the waves," and as the familiar accents quavered themselves into silence, my handyman quietly turned round and said: "I guess, young feller, if you was in my shoes sometimes you'd wish she'd rule 'em straight!" I filled his can and went out to laugh.—By J. W. Frost, in The Railway Review.

JOHN JONES' FIND.

JOHNNY JONES, a Maine farmer boy, went to the city to make a fortune, but, getting stranded, started to walk home, a hundred miles, usually sleeping out of doors.

One afternoon while wending his way eastward along the coast, he came to a handsome country residence standing alone. Looking about him, he could not see another house, though the coast was open in either direction for several miles. But Johnny doubted if he could get any comfort in the place, for he could see no evidence of its being occupied. The shutters were closed, not one being left open. Then, too, there was an old look about the house. The shingles on the roof were black and crumpled, the woodwork in places was rotten, and only the brick of which the house was mainly built was solid.

"If I could get inside," said John to himself, "I could at least keep warm, and the night promises to be cold."

He had on only the thinnest clothing and shivered as a chill November wind struck him. Climbing the fence—the gate was fastened with a rusty chain and padlock—he went up to the porch and began to look about him for a means of entrance. He was not long in finding a shutter with a loose fastening and a pane of broken glass behind it. Putting his hand inside, he unlocked the sash and raised it.

To his surprise, the room into which he looked was furnished. True, there was a moldy look about the furniture, but it was of a fine quality, though old-fashioned. John climbed over the window sill and inspected the furnishings at closer range. He was in the drawing room among damask covered chairs and sofas and velvet curtains to the windows. A piano stood at one end, and John struck the keys. He was startled at the breaking of the stillness. It seemed to him that the shades of those who had once inhabited this house, who had years ago locked and left it, had cried out at his intrusion.

John fell to wondering why so much valuable property was left to rot. Though young, he considered the financial feature connected with it. Had the property been sold years before it would have brought what to him would have been a fortune. There must be some reason why it had been suffered to sink to ruin.

John hesitated about spending the night in so gloomy a place, and had it not been for the cold without he would have preferred to sleep under the stars. As it was, he looked about for a bed and, though he was hungry, finally got on to one of the couches upstairs. But it seemed to him that he was lying among worms. He took hold of a coverlet to draw it over him, and it parted through decay. This was too much for him; he arose and felt his way downstairs and finding a lounge covered with leather, though it was stiff through age, stretched himself on it and fell asleep.

He was awakened during the night by voices. For a few moments he could not recall where he was. Then he listened for the direction of the sound and concluded that it came from under him. Presently a light flashed through a crack in the floor. Sliding off the lounge, he crawled to the crack and put his ear to it.

"We've got to run in some o' these goods," said one in a man's voice. "This cellar is full."

"Why not store the next lot above?"

"What rot! Don't you know we've taken every pains to keep any one from looking in here? Put goods on the floor above, and some boy or some tramp will look in, see them and report the fact."

"It's a wonder no one has got on to us as it is," remarked a third man. "They've gone around this depot often. Fact is, it's well known that Crawford owns it, and Crawford is above suspicion."

"We pay him enough rent for it."

"Rent be hanged! He's one of us."

"He tells me the place can't remain much longer as it is. A number of real estate men have been to him to buy it. They want to fix it up and make it pay."

"Crawford is making it pay well enough."
THE RAILROAD TELEGRAPHER.

This was the last heard of a dialogue between different men, none of whom John could see. He heard something fall and thought a bolt was shot, though he could not be sure of this, then all was silent again. He lay awake, thinking about what he had heard, but couldn't make out anything except that the basement was used for the storage of goods. Were they stolen articles? Were they barrels of liquor manufactured illegally? The reason for the house remaining in its present condition was apparent. This man Crawford was keeping it for a purpose. It had doubtless long been shut up and was not an object of curiosity. Turning these things over in his mind, John fell asleep again.

When he awoke in the morning the sun was shining in through a broken blind. John arose from his couch and looked about him. He was in a library. Books were on the shelves, but they were dusty and dingy. He went through a door into a pantry and through the pantry into the dining room. He opened some cupboard doors in a vain hope of finding something to eat. There was not a crust, and not a crust had been there for years. He went to the stairs leading down into the cellar, but the door separating the cellar and main floor was fastened. He tried to kick it open, but failed to make any impression on it.

Leaving the house by the window, through which he had entered, he looked about the brickwork below the first floor. There were but two small windows, over both of which boards had been placed on the inside. There was not a crack through which he could look within.

How were the goods taken in? There were no marks of wheels on the entrance road. Indeed, the grass grew on it as well as on the lawn. The chain and lock on the gate gave no evidence of having been moved in a long while. Toward the ocean a distance of several hundred yards there were no tracks of any kind. There was no opening from the cellar except within the house. This matter of the storage of goods was a mystery.

John walked out to the rocks which formed the shore. Here he was more at home, for he had been brought up near the water. Naturally his eyes fell upon the irregularity that marked the shore. There was many protuberances, many indentations. He descended to the sea level, and the tide being at ebb, noticed a place where the water washed in under the rocks. John wondered how far in it extended. He couldn't tell without going in under the rock, and this was impossible without a boat or a raft unless he swam, and the water was too cold for swimming.

The boy pondered on what he should do. Should he go on home or remain and try to solve the mystery? Curiosity held him. He would go back to the house and see if he could not look into the cellar through the crack at which he had listened. He did so, but the cellar was too dark for him to see anything. His mind reverted to the overhanging rock, and he went back to have another look at it. The rising tide had partly covered the place, and he knew that it would be nearly twelve hours before the water would give him an opportunity to examine it again.

He resolved to improve the interval by securing a boat or building a raft to use in his investigations. Going to a wood near by, he saw plenty of fallen timber, and after walking several miles to a house where he was given some breakfast, he returned and carried sufficient wood to the shore to make a float. He laced the pieces together with twigs, and when the tide subsided in the afternoon put his raft into the water and paddled to the rock in question. Lying flat, he pulled himself in under the land some twenty feet, when he came to an iron door. It was fastened with an iron latch, which, being covered by water at every tide, was so rusty that he could not move it. He scuttled out, got a stone, returned, and by hammering opened the door. There before him lay a subterranean passage leading in the direction of the house.

Not having a light, the young discoverer did not attempt to investigate any further. Besides, he had no mind to be caught in a trap by an incoming tide. He got out as quickly as possible and, sitting on a rock, bethought himself what next to do. He concluded to go on home and consult with some one about his find. He was not sure but that there was something in it for him, and he wished to find a way to get it out.

John was a secretive boy, and, though he told about his experiences in the city, he said nothing about the house by the sea. In a few days, armed with some carpenter's tools and a candle, he went back to it, and closing the shutter behind him, through which he entered, took up a part of the floor, went down into the cellar and found it full of boxes and bales.

By this time it occurred to the boy that the house was a storage depot for smugglers. He found a door in the cellar leading into the passage to the water, and presumed that the goods were carried in by that route. Replacing everything as he had left it, he made his way to the nearest port of entry and, calling for the collector, told him that he had discovered a depot for smuggled goods. He was too smart to give any clew to it till he had made terms with the government. This necessitated some correspondence between the officials and the government, and it was finally agreed that of any smuggled goods that John should point out to the revenue officers, half the amount accruing by confiscation should go to him.

These preliminaries having been settled, John led the officers to the house and showed them the goods. But, being desirous of capturing the smugglers, they placed a watch in the house and waited for them to come again. It was several weeks before the unsuspecting men fell into the trap. When they did they found both the egress by the passage to the sea and the one up into the house stopped. They were all taken just after they had deposited a new, valuable boatload of goods.

Johnny received a small fortune for his information. He decided to go to college, and is now a lawyer with a good practice. Inquiries as to the lonely house resulted in his learning that the parties owning it had gone abroad many years before and left it to be sold as it stood. It changed hands several times without being occupied, and was finally bought by the Crawford mentioned by the smugglers, as an available depot for smuggled goods. He had grown rich by this means.—By Nathan B. Townsend, in Lancaster Labor Leader.

A NECESSARY BLACKMAIL.

"SPEAKING of a woman's right to search her husband's pockets reminds me," said a traveler. "The law may be right theoretically, but it's against the rules in my house, and my wife knows it, and abides by the unwritten law.

"I never deny my wife anything in reason; and, as she is a very reasonable woman, my generosity in this regard has never been abused. One night last winter I carried home about $50, intended for the payment of household expenses coming due Saturday. It was Friday, and I drew the money then, because I always make it a point not to get into the Saturday rush at banks. She didn't need any of it till Saturday night, and I didn't hand it to her, for the good and sufficient reason that I expected to go to the Saturday ball game and spend a few on my own account. Saturday morning I got down town in a hurry; but when I walked up the street toward my office the bookkeeper was standing in the doorway, all in a flutter. He told me that he had just received a telegram from our Chicago headquarters instructing me to go at once to Topeka to attach a shaky customer who was said to be getting ready to make an assignment.

"There was yet about ten minutes left to catch the train; and as the customer in question owed my office considerably more than $2,000, it was eminently important that I land on him as quickly as possible. The bookkeeper had the account all made out, and handed it to me. I held my hand on the pocket in which I supposed the $50 was safely stowed, and ran all the way to the depot, arriving just in time to do a flying trapeze leap for the end car as it started away from the platform.

"I was sitting in the smoker, all out of breath, when the conductor, evidently a new man, as I had never seen him before, came in and cried, 'Tickets!' I made a plunge for my pocketbook, and—of course you've guessed—found it empty. I searched every pocket, and repeated the performance backward before the conductor got to me, but I had only 10 cents, my pocket-knife and a few worthless papers. My wife had been in my pocket.
“Tickets, please,” said the conductor. I looked at him a moment and saw that he was indeed ‘new,’ full of the zeal and technical asperity of his authority, and expecting trouble. I asked him to sit down, and began to explain. But he looked annoyed, and said he’d ‘be back in a minute.’ When he came back he wouldn’t sit down, but remained standing, his cold, gray eye fixed upon me as I tried to grow eloquent. I explained the suddenness of my summons and the importance of my business at Topeka, but it didn’t evoke the slightest flash of interest.

“Can’t help that,” he said at last. ‘That’s your business. My business is to collect $6.34 unless you have a pass or a ticket. I’m not allowed to let anybody ride free, and you must pay or get off the train.’

“I knew by the calm, stern way he said it that it was up to me, so I pleaded with him to give me time to look through the train. Surely I would find somebody who knew me, and who would advance me a small loan. All right. He would agree to that. I went through the train like a ferret after rats. I even peeped into sleeping berths in the Pullman, and narrowly escaped friction with some sensitive passengers, for whom I had no time for explanation. There wasn’t a soul on the train whom I knew, or who showed any evidence of recognition for me. I went back to the stoical conductor and implored him to wait till we got to Osage, the next station. I endeavored to impress upon his mind the fact that I was well-known all over Texas, Oklahoma and Kansas, and that the chances were all in favor of my meeting with somebody who knew me and would advance me the money.

“I saw him size me up, and I was aware of the suspicious little twinkle in his eye; but my fate was in his hands, and I knew it.

“I’ll give you till Arkansas City,” he said, ‘and that’s all. If you don’t pay, you’ll have to get off there.’

“I was never in such an awkward position in my life; and as I canvassed that train for the fifth time, I swore, mentally and vocally, that never, no, never, again should my wife have the right of way through my pockets. Growing desperate as the train flew onwards, I accosted a simple but prosperous-looking old gentleman in one of the sleepers, and taking him aside, explained my predicament. But he only glared at me over his glasses and growled: ‘Sir! How dare you?’ Then he rang for the porter, and I heard the whispered caution: ‘You want to watch that fellow. He’s up to some rascality.’ As I retreated toward the smoker, I was aware that the conductor, the brakeman, the porters, and even the news-agent were watching me with furtive and wholly uncomplimentary glances. I telegraphed to every agent along the route, to my bookkeeper, and to the friends I had ahead at Topeka. Then I stood on the platform, in the hope that I might see a familiar face at the stations where we hesitated or took water. But the few who boarded the cars were utter strangers; and I reflected with bitter realization that it was too early in the morning for my influential friends to respond effectively to my wild telegraph appeals for help. When we got to Valley Center, the conductor got particularly watchful of me; and as we were pulling out of that place, he came alongside of my uneasy seat and began: ‘You claim to be well acquainted along this road, don’t you?’ I said yes, with a glad note of hope in my voice; but he floored me with, ‘Well, I think you’re putting up a job on me. That’s what I think.’ I tried to look indignant; but he resumed: ‘If you’re so well known, it’s funny you don’t know your own sheriff.’

“‘Sheriff McCook,’ I said.

“‘Yes, Sheriff McCook,’ he sneered; ‘you run right into him back there at Valley Center, and he never took off his hat and saluted you. You never showed any signs of knowing him, and I’ve about made up my mind to throw you off at the next water tank.’

“‘How did you know it was Sheriff McCook?’ I asked, forgetting my pride, and certain that I should have known McCook among a thousand.

“‘I took up his ticket, didn’t I?’ grinned the conductor; ‘leastwise I seen his pass—’ “‘Pass!’ the idea struck me like a flash of light at night.

“‘Where is he? Where’s McCook?’ I snapped; and the conductor had no sooner pointed out the stranger than I was beside him. The interested conductor watched me with amused but malicious interest.

"I understand that you're Sheriff McCook, of Greer County," I said to the stranger. And as he nodded assent, I went on with my tale. I wanted the loan of $10. I was the southwestern manager for the big T. & T. Company, I became eloquent of my distress for that $10, but the stranger only laughed at me; said he had heard that "racket" before; intimated that he was 'no jay.' The insolent manner of the man, as well as our quick approach to the 'jumping-off place,' must have nerved me to say:

"See here, stranger. I do need that money, and I tried to borrow it on the word of a business man. I've got to have it. I happen to know that you're traveling to Chicago on Sheriff McCook's annual pass, and you're not McCook. He's a friend of mine; but, so help me Jehosaphat, if you don't open up a $10 bill, I'll expose you, and have that pass taken up. It'll cost you a fare to Chicago, and it'll cost McCook his pass, but—"

"I went no further with my threat. It wasn't necessary. The stranger weakened the minute I mentioned the pass, and reached down into his pocket for a $20 gold piece, which he forced me to 'borrow.' I got it just as we ran into Arkansas City; and it took that conductor all the rest of the trip to explain to me his motives, his risks, his newness, and a dozen other excuses for refusing to allow me to ride 'on my face.'

"And it was a close shave, wasn't it?" resumed the traveler, "but it taught me one lesson. My pocket has been a holy place ever since."—By David Allen, in Chicago Record-Herald.

Part of It, Anyhow.

It was on a Broadway car. A passenger stooped and picked up a coin from the floor. Three of the other passengers eyed him with envy.

He said: "Which of you people dropped a $5 gold piece?"

"I did!" yelled each of the three.

"Well," said the finder to the man nearest him, "here's a nickel of it."—New York Times.
The Railroad Telegrapher.

ORIGIN AND GROWTH OF SLEEPING CARS.

The long distances traveled by rail in the United States, requiring night as well as day for trips, suggested the idea of the sleeping car. The first one, and of course it was made rude and crude, is said to have been used in 1838 on the Cumberland Valley road. It was made transversely partitioning a car into four sections, each containing three narrow berths, one above the other. It is doubtful if occupants of the upper berths were any better off as to comfort than if they had sat up throughout the night, as it is said to have been not unusual on this road, when the train swept around a sharp curve, for a slumbering traveler to be hurled from his bed. And even later, when the berths had been reduced to two, the upper was said to have an ugly habit, like the folding bed of later years, of closing up unexpectedly and smothering the occupant, unless help was at hand.

Other experiments were the fitting up of berths like those on steamboats. The only bedding was a coarse mattress with pillows. There was nothing in this to appeal to persons of refinement and exclusive habits, so these early cars did not jump into popularity, despite this publication on October 1, 1838, in the Baltimore Chronicle, about the new sleeping cars on the line between Baltimore and Philadelphia.

"Cars intended for night traveling between this city and Philadelphia will be used for the first time tonight. They are of beautiful construction. Night traveling on a railroad is, by the introduction of these cars, relieved of all irksomeness. A ride to Philadelphia may now be made without inconvenience, discomfort or suffering from the weather. You can get into the cars at the depot, and, if you travel in the night, you go to rest in a pleasant berth, sleep as soundly as in your own bed at home, and, on awakening the next morning, find yourself at the end of your journey. Nothing seems to be wanting to make railroad travel complete except the introduction of dining cars; and these we are sure will soon be introduced."

One of the methods in those days of transforming day coaches into sleepers was by filling the space between the seat with boxes, making a platform. The back of every alternate seat was removed. A mattress was laid on this platform, and curtains hung around the bed thus rigged up to give privacy to the occupant. During the day the boxes and bedding were taken into the baggage car, or stored in one end of the coach. But the public would not put up with anything of this kind, either.

Now, when one gets on one of the regular through trains of the Pennsylvania Lines, is there any comfort or convenience that he does not find provided for him? Think of those old bunk cars, of only eighty years ago, and compare them with the upholstered seats of the Pullman of today, easily transformed into a comfortable bed, or with the compartment cars in which one actually has a bed in which to sleep, besides electric fans in summer, steam heat in winter, hot and cold water, winter and summer, and all other toilet conveniences, these cars, running smoothly on solid roadbeds, permitting a night's rest as comfortable as one may enjoy in his own home! With the electric lights in each section of cars the traveler may read comfortably in the seclusion of his berth, and be sure of illumination while preparing for retiring, something that was not possible in days not very distant in the past.

By 1859, the needs of the public for suitable sleeping car accommodations had become so manifest and so pressing that capital felt warranted in giving it some attention. A car was required that would be sanitary, respectable, commodious, pleasant by day and by night, and guarantee a reasonable degree of privacy. About this time George M. Pullman stepped into the arena. The key to the sleeping car problem, in his judgment, was to find a place for the beds and bedding, when not in use, without taking up any of the space necessary for day travel, or interfering with the comfort of passengers.

After several tentative efforts along this line, he finally built the "Pioneer," the first sleeper in which was used for upper berths the space above the windows and in these berths was stored the bedding. This car, when completed in 1865, cost $18,000. It was the finest car equipage of its day, but has since been surpassed in comfort and elegance by thousands of other sleepers, and is not to be compared with some of the newest sleepers of 1911.

The "Pioneer" was used to convey the body of President Lincoln from Washington to Springfield, Ill., for interment. It was a foot wider and two and a half feet higher than the ordinary day car, and along the line of its route some station platforms had to be curtailed in width, and bridges enlarged in breadth and height, to admit of its passage.

Some time after this the parlor car and drawing room car were introduced for the accommodation of high-class travel, especially by day, and they are as popular everywhere today as ever. It was about 1875 that dining car service first appeared. Meals were served on tables placed between two seats facing each other. Buffet cars were used to supply a field too limited for dining cars. Buffet smokers enable the enjoyment of cards, cigars, tobacco and liquor, for which there exists an undoubted taste among men.
Me Brown-Eyed Quane.
'Tis a lonesome ould loife that your laddie is ladeing,
And his heart kapes a plading for the wormth
of your arums,
Sure and it gets on me narves night and morning,
Thinking of all me fair lady's own charums.
When the bafe stake is tough wid all of me chew-

And the food is no question of choice at all,
Oi long to brake through the crust iv involvements
Or smash the whole thing wid the crack iv a maul.
'Tis a bare lonesome room which grates me at midnight
Wid no one to talk o'er the joys iv the day,
No laughing brown eyes to banter good naturally,
Or tache me to romp and give lessons in play.
Oh, come to me arums, me swate Nora, darlint,
And char me ould heart as we journey along.
Sure it's of paches and crane Oi am thinking

O Little Mother of Mine.
Sometimes in the hush of the evening hour,
When the shadows creep from the west,
I think of the twilight songs you sang
And the boy you lulled to rest;
The wee little boy with tousled head,
That long, long ago was thine;
I wonder if sometimes you long for that boy,
O little mother of mine.
And now he has come to man's estate,
Grown stalwart in body and strong.
And you'd hardly know that he was the lad
Whom you lulled with your slumber song.
The years have altered the form and the life,
But his heart is unchanged by time.
And still he is only the boy as of old,
O little mother of mine.
—By Walter H. Brown.

Say Not the Struggle.
Say not the struggle naught availeth,
The labor and the wounds are vain,
The enemy faints not, nor faileth,
And as things have been they remain.
If hopes were dupes, fears may be liars;
It may be, in yon smoke concealed,
Your comrades chase e'en now the fliers,
And, but for you, possess the field.
For while the tired waves, vainly breaking,
Seem here no painful inch to gain,
Far back, through creeks and inlets making,
Comes silent, flooding in, the main.
And not by eastern windows only,
When dayliight comes, comes in the light,
In front, the sun climbs slow, how slowly.
But westward, look, the land is bright.
Arthur Hugh Clough.

Things that Count.
Not what we have, but what we use;
Not what we see, but what we choose—
These are the things that make or break.
The sum of human happiness.
The things nearby, not things afar;
Not what we seem, but what we are—
These are the things that make or break.
That gives the heart its joy or ache.
Not what seems fair, but what is true;
Not what we dream, but the good we do—
These are the things that shine like gems.
Like the stars in Fortune's diadems.
Not as we take, but as we give;
Not as we pray, but as we live—
These are the things that make for peace.
Both now and after time shall cease.

The Man of Choice.
Agnes wants a millionaire
With coaches and a car,
Who'll take her all around with him
And travel near and far.
Mabel wants a manly man,
Broad-shouldered, strong and tall,
While Nellie wants a stylish dude,
Who'll come at beck and call.
Sarah wants a publisher,
And lots and lots of space,
And Carrie wants a handsome man,
With a happy, smiling face.
Martha's choice a preacher is,
With hair of glossy jet,
And Nancy says she'll have to take Whomever she can get.
Mary aims so very high,
She'll never be content
With any man upon this earth
Except the President.
I'm not sure I want to wed,
But if I do, I pray
I'll get a man who's wise enough
To let me have my way.

The Passing of the Ticker.

As a jolly Morse disciple,
For some twenty years or more,
I've worked throughout the country
And roamed from shore to shore;

From Manhattan Isle to Frisco,
From Port Tampa to the Soo,
From Seattle to Atlanta,
From Cheyenne to Baraboo;

I've sweltered in El Paso
And shivered in Racine;
I've worked on arid plateaus,
As well as valleys green.

Then, after quite a sojourn
On a standard eastern line,
Got a trial at dispatching,
Which I thought was pretty fine;

Till the sixteen-hour law got me
Into holes and scraps galore,
And the crews, tied up on sidings,
Yearned to wallow in my gore.

So I blew in here, a-thinking
That again I'd like to be Just a happy lightning slinger,
Just an artist of the key.

But to my intense amazement
Since connecting with the road,
I seldom hear the tickers
A-spitting out the code;

For the telephone's displaced 'em,
Like an ever-creeping vine,
As the means of getting orders
To the trains along the line.

When the present-day dispatcher
Wants to place a "31"
Or inform the switching local
How the varnished cars will run,

He adjusts his phoner harness,
With the foghorn on his chest,
Then he rings up all his stations,
And proceeds to do the rest.

With his little black selector
He is quite a man of class;
He's a bell manipulator,
Not a pounder of the brass.

And the boys out in the towers,
Who sometimes hit the hay,
Say the phone's the greatest rouser
That has ever come their way;

While the "ham" whose ivory noodle
Couldn't grasp the code of old,
Seems to think the phoning outfit
Is worth its weight in gold.

On a number of divisions
Of the good old I. C. route
We have special message circuits
Where the phone is winning out;

Though it is exasperating,
And no doubt you will admit
That it don't improve the temper
Just a tiny little bit.

When I say "Please hold a lower On tomorrow's Seminole,"
And my fair co-worker queries
"Did you say a ton of coal?"

Or if part of some rush message
Reading "Mister Jacob Rice,"
Is received at destination,
Rendered "Fifty cakes of ice."

Yes, they've put me into harness,
They've perched me on a chair,
And if they'll furnish powder,
Perhaps I'll curl my hair,

Don a hobble-skirt and shirt-waist
That'll match my girth and height;
Get a ten-cent cud of Spearmint,
And be a Lizzie right!

Perhaps this may seem funny
To those who like the phone,
But the army of old-timers
Will say I'm not alone,

In cherishing the mem'ry
Of the craft in other years,
When the clicking of the sounders
Was music to our ears.

No Unbelief.

There is no unbelief!
Whoever plants a seed beneath the sod,
And waits to see it push away the clod,
He trusts in God.

Whoever says when clouds are in the sky,
"Be patient, heart, light breaketh by and by."
Trusts the Most High.

Whoever sees, 'neath winter's field of snow,
The silent harvest of the future grow,
God's power must know.

Whoever lies down on his couch to sleep,
Content to lock each sense in slumber deep,
Knows God will keep.

Whoever says, "Tomorrow," "The unknown,"
"The future"—trusts unto that Power alone
He dares disown.

The heart that looks on when the eyelids close,
And dares to live when life has only woes,
God's comfort knows.

There is no unbelief!
And still by day and night unconsciously,
The heart lives by the faith the lips decry,
God knoweth why.

Well Taken.
"The points in Binks' speech were well taken, I thought."
"Yes; most of them from other men."

The Cause.
"You say it's environment that gives Brown such a bad disposition?"
"Yes, he lives on a cross street."

A Noise.
"Did you enjoy your trip to Greenland?"
"Oh, yes," replied Mrs. Parvenu, "it was perfectly delightful to sit on the icebergs and hear the baffins bay."

Just Hungry.
"I've tried all kinds of health foods, but none of them seem to fit my case."
"What is it you are troubled with?"
"An appetite."

Too Much Ball.
"Why did you move away from Chicago?"
"The doctor advised my husband to move to some town with only one team to worry about."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

A New "Religion."
The colored night porter at a big hotel was astonished to see the figure of a man, scantily dressed, descending the stairs in the early hours of the morning. Tapping him on the shoulder the porter said, brusquely:
"What are you doing here?"
The man turned his head in a dazed way:
"I beg your pardon. I am a somnambulist."
"Well," was the reply, "you can't walk about here like that, no matter what yo' religion is!"

Revised Law.
A man sat down to write out a deed, and began with "Know all women by these presents." "You are wrong," said a friend: "it ought to be 'Know all men.'" "Very well," answered the other: "but if all women know it, all men will surely!"

At Great Heat.
Once a visitor was narrating a case he had just heard in court. This was his way of expressing his meaning:
"At this point," said the narrator, "she broke down and wept scalding tears."
"My goodness!" exclaimed a listener. "She must have been boiling over with rage."

Was Compelled to Stay.
A good railroad story has started on its rounds, says the Kansas City Star. A man was exasperated because of the slow speed of the train. Finally he could control himself no longer, and said to the conductor: "Can't you go any faster than this?" "Yes, sir," politely replied the conductor, "but you see I have to stay with my car."

Too Much.
On the occasion of a mayoral banquet in a small provincial town one of the last guests to leave went to the cloakroom for his coat and hat. He couldn't help noticing the woe-begone look on the attendant's face. The poor man appeared worried and sad, and every little while he sighed and muttered to himself.
"You seem upset," remarked the guest, sympathetically.
"I am upset sir," said the attendant.
"What is the trouble? Haven't the guests tipped you well tonight?"
The attendant answered in excited voice: "It's not only, sir, that they have not tipped me, but they've taken the 50 cents that I put in the tray for a decoy."
No Regrets.

"Yes," said the retired insurance agent, "I once induced a man to take out a $50,000 life insurance policy, and the very day after he got the policy he dropped dead."

"I expect you wished your persuasive power had not been so successful?"

"Well, hardly. You see, I married the widow."

Just How.

It was a wizened little man who appeared before the judge and charged his wife with cruel and abusive treatment. His better half was a big, square-jawed woman, with a determined eye.

"In the first place, where did you meet this woman who has treated you so dreadfully?" asked the judge.

"Well," replied the little man, making a brave attempt to glare defiantly at his wife, "I never did meet her. She just kind of overtook me."

The Heathen.

He was very rich, a millionaire in fact. He was also a church member. But he did not approve of foreign missions. One Sunday at church, when the collection was being taken up for these missions, the collector approached the millionaire and held out the collection bag. The millionaire shook his head.

"I never give to missions," he whispered.

"Then take something out of the bag, sir," whispered the collector. "The money is for the heathen."

Absent-Minded.

The old man in the rear car seemed greatly agitated at not being able to find his ticket when the conductor came through. Finally, this official, with a hearty laugh, informed him that he had it in his mouth, which he seemed surprised to find true, and handed it over. After the conductor had passed into the next car the old fellow's companion started to make fun of him for having the ticket in his mouth and not being able to find it, whereupon he responded:

"He who laughs last, me lad, laughs best. I knew it was in my mouth the whole time, but the ticket was an old one and I was chewing the date off it." — Exchange.

From Choice.

A metropolitan matron once ventured to interrogate James Lane Allen as to the raison d'être of his state of celibacy.

"Are you a bachelor from choice?" she queried.

"Yes," came the answer with disconcerting promptness from the famous author.

"But isn't that—er—rather ungracious and ungallant?" protested the fair inquisitor.

The novelist smiled.

"You must ask the ladies," he suggested gently. "It was their choice, not mine." — Woman's Home Companion.

Pat's Mistake.

Paddy's distress on waking was very natural but amusing. He was observed in the morning to be looking unusually blank and perplexed, and his friend inquired what ailed him.

"Ah! but I have had a dream."

"Was it a good dream or a bad dream?"

"Faith," said Pat, "and it was a little of both, and I'll be after telling it t' ye. I dreamt I was with the President. He is as great a gentleman as is in the district, he is, and he asked me wud I have a drink. I said to him Wud a duck swim? He smiled like and taking the lemons and sugar and making ready for a dhrop of punch, he asked me wud I have it hot or cowld. I'll have it hot, I replied, and wid that he wint down into the kitchen for the biling water, but before he got back I woke up, and now it's distressing me, I didn't take it cowld." — Harper's Monthly.
LIFE AS IT IS YET.

NOT long ago we were told that, after a wholesale medical inspection of the school children of New York City, nearly 75 per cent were found highly defective, in a sanitary way, indicating the poverty of their home surroundings, poorly fed, housed, etc. Suppose that such an examination had been conducted as a private affair, each family being able to pay the doctor for a careful inspection of the children, the figure would then be, not only about 75 per cent of defective constitutions, but over 90 per cent. It is well known that in our modern cities not even 10 per cent of the people, children or grown up, are about fed as we all should be fed. It happens that not even among the comfortable classes, call that 5 or 6 per cent, not even there do we develop healthy bodies, by a great deal. Even the wealthy live unsanitary lives Even they are constantly in need of medicines and doctors' attentions. In certain respects, the intelligent wives and mothers can give to their husbands and children a healthier diet, on a $1,200 income, than we wealthy people can get from hired cooks on any income of $10,000 or more for each family of four or five members, besides servants.

The fact that is by far the most important element in sanitation is a peaceful mind, able to take in the sensible details of what we owe to each other, that to commence in the domestic group. Outside of that all life is chaos and discord. But we have a larger and broader chaos in the social order, taking in all the homes of the nation, all the fathers, mothers and children of the nation. Each home becomes then so insignificant face to face with the councils of each national group! And the worst is that the social compact has thus far been taken by the throat to do the will of the few, and thus sacrifice the well being and happiness of the many. And who are the few in question? The men of property and those in the professions are apt to take the control of the social group. Even when the spirit of democracy is alive, even then each nation becomes in due time the pliable tool of property and professional men.

Only the Greeks managed, centuries ago, to make an approach, in legislation, to some degree of real democracy. The same seems to have taken place in some isolated communities among the hills of Northern India. Also in spots here and there under primitive industrial conditions. No important nation has ever made much of a show in democracy as soon as the commercial spirit has evolved itself on a large scale, and hence as soon as concentration of industries has intensified the monopoly spirit and created that hunger and thirst after wealth which soon poison everything in the social order.

And what is it that we ourselves have done with our democracy? Let us have a sample of it: "Only 27½ per cent of the potential tillable area of the United States is under cultivation."—From the Department of Agriculture made public on January 18, 1914.

Our continental domain, exclusive of Alaska, is about 1,920,000,000 acres. Of that, at least 500,000,000 should be in real forests scientifically distributed through the nation, to protect us from inundations and bad cosmical ravages. We have considerably less than that and it is mostly concentrated in isolated sections. We have about 1,300,000,000 acres subject to the plow, most of that in the hands of King Monopoly. The balance, 120,000,000 acres, is mostly poor land, rivers, lakes, roads, cities, etc.

If we had only tried to learn how to somewhat scientifically develop, near the producers in cities and towns, something like 200,000,000 acres of farm land out of our 1,300,000,000 acres, we would not have on our hands a great many of the dreadful problems that pester the life of the nation.

Most of the European nations are compelled to obey the very economic problems we love to fling to the winds, and suffer from it. Their area being limited, they have to be close to each other, consumers and producers. They can not afford to evolve rings of monopolists between those two classes. We are so rich, or think so, that we imagine we can be prosperous and happy through monopoly tricks. To be good always pays better than to be bad.

To be good. That simply means that we should be sensible. It means that we should not make idiots out of ourselves. It means that we should respect the simple, natural order of the universe on which we have been placed. We often say: "I want to be myself." We imagine that should mean to follow all our fancies and conceits. How foolish! I can only be myself in so far as I respect the plain wisdom that the Creator has given me. I can only be myself when I respect the rights of all men, and therefore my own. I can only be worthy of life on earth in so far as I do deal rightly with all the forces and potentialities of the planet that has to be my abode for a while. That is what no generation has ever done. That is what we have not been taught. We have handled the planet as if it was a bundle of rags. We have ornamented our private homes with mere fancies, to the extent of our wealth at the time. But, like the planet as a whole, for our combined happiness—oh, how many crimes have we perpetrated against that planet!

Our recent scientific investigations, in connection with our national domain, tend to show that most of our best agricultural sections have been lowered nine feet, as an average. That means soil-denudation—the wealth of our lands carried into rivers and oceans. And all nations have allowed that crime to go on for centuries.

And we don't mean to be bad. It only happens as follows: Between the age of five and twenty we are given what we call education. At the age of twenty, often before, we are dumped into an industrial life which is often a species of "inferno," totally godless and unnatural. We soon find ourselves at the age of forty, fifty or sixty, some of us with a certain degree of success in wealth accumulation. Conservatism takes possession of most of us. By that we mean "to let all high ideals go by the spout." We are born and we die with the idea that life on earth is only meant to be—a string of dreams! Is that all that human life should be?

JOSÉ GROS.

MISTAKES IN RAILROAD MANAGEMENT, OR "A RUNNING SORE."

Within the past few months the newspapers have been printing and people generally talking a whole lot about railroads and their management. A striking feature affecting both is that both are talking about something upon which they appear not to be well informed, and it is a question whether a newspaper is any more competent to discuss railroad management than a railroad man the subject of newspaper management.

Another bad feature connected with the criticism we hear is that conclusions seem to be jumped at, whereas they should be the result of experience and based wholly upon facts.

To make what is commonly known as a "goat" of one man on a railroad system and charge him with being responsible for all of the mistakes and bad management is, of itself, very far fetched. He is probably no more fallible nor less infallible than the lowest employe in point of rank, working for the same corporation, and should, therefore, be considered from the standpoint of an employe with others, even though they be under him by virtue of the office he holds.

This being true, it is well to bear in mind that, like all other employes, he is receiving and carrying out such instructions as come to him from the board of directors.

Now that we have in this brief opening arrived at the top, which is the seat of the trouble, we are prepared to discuss the subject before us, viz., "Mistakes in Railroad Management" from an unbiased and just point of view.

As a rule railroad directors are good financiers. Occasionally we find some who are not, and it is this latter class who are from first to last responsible for the bad conditions which have been found to exist upon railroads where conditions are financially bad, and which are physically wrecked.

It so happens, sometimes, that if a railroad is being operated upon a 4, 6 or 8 per cent basis that the board of directors conclude that the dividend basis must be maintained, and that at any cost to the property.

It is right at this point where the trouble begins and it soon develops into what we may, for convenience sake, call a running sore, which is constantly draining the very life out of the system until finally not even a pulmotor can revive it.

If I were a physician I would diagnose the progress and effect of this so-called running sore as follows:

The board of directors having decided that the rate of dividend must be maintained and, cognizant of the fact that the same is not being earned, at once direct that expenses be cut and the number of help be reduced.

Sometimes it happens that the president of such a system can not see how he can properly and safely conduct the business of the system on such a basis and to save himself from being a party to the putting into effect of such unsound business methods, retires. Should this be a Western road, the directors come East for a new president or, if it is an Eastern road they go out on the Western plains for the man, and usually find someone ready to tackle the proposition of paying dividends out of unearned funds because of the salary inducement.

The sore is now growing worse and the bringing of a stranger who knows nothing of the system to its official head causes the sore to become inflamed. He spends a few days riding over the system in a private car and private train, and finding he has a larger proposition on his hands than it looked to him from his first viewpoint, discovers and decides he must have a general manager to help him. This man, too, is usually secured from the opposite point of the compass and his coming only tends to further inflame that which has already become a troublesome sore.

Finally the sore ripens and breaks. This naturally follows the appointment of a new general manager.

Now we have two new men on the system who know practically nothing about it.

They proceed as the managing heads to carry out the policy which you will recall originated in the board of directors' room.

Stenographers and typists are now working overtime, if necessary, getting out new instructions to the general superintendent, he to the superintendents, and so on down until it reaches even to the track walker and car knocker.

The orders have gone forth to cut right and left, irrespective of the needs of the system for best results, including consolidation of divisions, cutting out a superintendent or two, cutting out trains and train crews, cutting out men in crews that remain, cutting out stations, cutting out helpers about the stations, cutting down the force in the telegraph offices—asking two operators to do the work of four, cutting telegraph offices out of stations and adding that work onto the men in the towers who already have quite enough to do to handle trains safely; cutting out gangs of trackmen so that the roadbed is not getting the attention it should have for the safe running of trains; cutting out nearly all the car knoccers so that many cars are run over the road not in good condition and, because of which, frequently fall down out on the road.

Well, it's quite a running sore, isn't it? But it's still running.

Then other departments become affected. The motive power department also gets a copy of instructions to cut. The number of hostlers at the round houses are so reduced that engines do not get proper care and engines come out unfit for their work. They don't steam good; fires are not cleaned; they are not looked over, and out on the line a tire falls off or the ashpan drops down or the engine goes dead, the fireman being unable to make it steam. And so the leak goes on, and unless someone like Uncle Sam comes along before it's too late, this which I have pictured as a running sore, has completely killed its victim.

The process is wrong and ruinous from start to finish.

The first bad move was to plan to pay unearned dividends, and the second, quite as bad, that of calling in outside help to carry out the wrecking policy.
We must put a blunt question in here, viz., why was not someone already in the company's employ promoted to these important positions who have put the best part of a lifetime into the work and know more of what the road needs and what its patrons need and want than a new man can learn in any shorter period?

Too often new men neither care nor know what the public want, forgetting a very important and vital fact that it is the public who pay the bills. You can't get on without them, then why not keep an ear to the ground and try to get on with them?

The country is most fortunate that it does not have many such cases on its hands. Uncle Sam is now treating one such case and another seems in line for treatment later.

The present plan of amputation, the cutting off of an arm or a leg of the system to possibly save the body, may do the trick, but the trouble did not originate in these members, but at the head, and why not start there to effect the cure?

Of course, if any of these members are already dead, that is, if they are being cared for at a loss, they not only should now be cut off, but should have been amputated long ago. If, on the other hand, any of them did bring in good returns and are now showing good results, why cripple the main body further by cutting them off?

It is nourishment the patient needs and to cut off the source of this nourishment does not savor of good judgment on the part of the physician handling the case. If a tree has a lot of dead branches or non-bearing suckers in it, cut them out quickly, but don't cut out those branches which bear good fruit; and a policy something like this, if applied to those railroads now suffering from the effects of this running sore of mismanagement, we incline to the belief that speedily the irritation and ruinous discharge would cease; the property gradually recuperate and resume its normal healthy condition—that of earning first and then paying its dividends.

As matters now look the patients are very sick, yet not beyond hope. The disease is affecting everybody, the stockholders perhaps worse of all, but the public, business and the help are also great sufferers.

The old and best policy of promoting trained and competent men from any railroad to positions of management and supervision upon its system have proven to produce the best results, while the new-fangled notion that such officers must be imported from some distant point for these positions is proving a mere hallucination, and it stands to reason that if men who have grown up with a system and know its needs from A to Z are not considered competent to fill these places, surely a stranger upon the system must be considered wholly disqualified.

The policy which many railroads are pursuing, that of antagonizing its help in every conceivable manner, does not argue well for good management. Train crews are given the meaneast kind of runs. If a trainman lives in one town he is sure to have a run assigned to him that will compel him to start from some distant point, and someone else living at the point he starts from will be assigned to start from the point where the first mentioned lives. Other features quite as unjust as these are forced upon men in the train service. About the time these men get moved and settled to meet these conditions they are again given new assignments. How much better it would be to study and plan more for the comfort of these men than to pay a man, as is now the case, to work out a working schedule for these men which will probably not suit any of them.

The same is true in other departments. These employees are the men without whom the railroads could not operate. It is through them that the business of the corporation prospers and dividends are earned, and the belief is general that a more sane and human treatment of them will do much to advance the interests and make sure the success for their employers.

The plan so generally in vogue of making a man's hours just as long as possible and his position just as untenable as possible can never be productive of best results.

That other policy of thinking that by paying a man $2.00 a day for work that should pay $3.00 or $4.00 a day is only another bugaboo. Men will not long put up with such conditions and if he is only paid a half or even two-thirds of what he should get, the company can not expect he is going to earn more than he gets, and this is the more true when the employe sees no chances for promotion ahead of him, and openings higher up, which should be theirs, are given to men who come from other territory.

How decidedly better for all concerned, even the stockholders and the patrons of any railroad system, which helps its employes. Put a stop to all those things which antagonize the employes and give them something to feel disgruntled and sore over and a new and better life will immediately fill the arteries of every railroad system. Don't make sores, nor keep irritating them after they are made, and all business will take on a new impetus, the likes of which have not been seen for many a long day.

Railroad Man.

NOW AND THEN.

In the Milwaukee Employes' Magazine for February A. J. Henry, agent at Bearmouth, writes in part:

"He began his railroad career in 1869. This was in the good old days when the operator had to fill the wood rack and assist in putting it on the engine. And after the train had pulled out he had to fill the rack again and have it ready for the next engine, then fly back to find the dispatcher calling for all there was in it. When the operator got a chance to answer the dispatcher generally informed him that his absence from duty would not be tolerated, adding probably that a man would soon be there who would attend to business, etc., all of which the operator could not help but appreciate very kindly after wheeling wood in an old wheelbarrow for two hours. For these and a few other tasks that took about sixteen hours a day he got $45.00 per month as a token of faithful service.

"Some of the above were my experiences and I usually took my little stipend and strolled up one side of the main street and paid my debts as long as the money lasted, when I would slip back down the alley to work again. Not having enough to pay on both sides of the street, next pay day saw me on the opposite side, paying as far as I went."

This little tale of the actual experiences of an old-timer is self-evident. Instances where public service corporations have voluntarily granted increases in wages and improved working conditions are few and far between. There is no good argument against organized labor. Organization among wage-earners is more necessary than any other class of human endeavor for the reason that the wage-earner whose capital and all is his right to labor, is placed at a great disadvantage as regards protecting his welfare. This is especially true in these modern days of combinations in capital; you are not dealing with an individual as an employer, but instead with a representative of an aggregation of capital who is paid to create dividends for the corporation which he serves, and in order to gain this end it is reasonable to assume that he could not be expected to hesitate when it comes to getting the most for the least money out of the rank and file among the employes, and this regardless of how it affected these human beings as to their welfare, comfort, etc.

The old slogan, "In union there is strength," is recognized by practically all branches of human endeavor; all appreciate the advantage there is in concerted effort. There are associations among capital—the General Managers' Association meet to protect the interests of the railroads of the country; there are retailers' associations; wholesalers' associations, manufacturers' associations, and a great many others too numerous to mention. Then why not organization among the laboring classes? This great mass of humanity upon which capital is dependent for the perpetuation of its wealth, and whose only means of support and for obtaining the little pleasures out of life is their God-given right to work.

And yet there are a lot of bigoted nons, traitors to their fellow-craftsmen, who are enjoying the benefits which good union men secure for them in the way of salary increases and better working conditions. Ask them why they do not join, and of course in the absence of any good argument to the contrary, all they can advance is either a hard-luck story or else a time-worn stand-off.

Employers are fast becoming reconciled to the fact that a man who is ambitious enough to stand up for his own welfare, is the more conscientious workman and will in turn be wide awake to the companies' interests when met half way.

A non is a derelict in the progress of organized labor. They are invariably selfish, unconscientious, egotistic and incompetent, all of which accounts for their impudence in accepting the fruits of the tireless efforts of organized labor without having been a party toward that end either morally or financially. All matter for this department must be in the hands of the Grand Secretary and Treasurer or or before the 28th day of the month in order to insure its use in the following issue.

New Haven, Conn., Div. No. 29.

Western Division, New Haven and C. N. E. West of Danbury—

"Safety first" was the topic of a meeting held at Boston, Sunday, January 25th, attended by two thousand New England railroad men, which was addressed by Howard Elliott, chairman of the board, and J. H. Hustis, president, and other officials. Among other things, Mr. Elliott told the men that they had been accustomed to working with a list of don'ts, and that he would give them a list of "do's": "Do be careful. Do be alert and efficient. Keep always in good mental and physical health. Do be loyal." Let's all adopt the list.

The following officers were elected at the February meeting: Chief telegrapher, Judge E. C. Terry, unanimously; Bro. L. H. Dowd declining to run; first vice-chief, W. H. Gordon; second vice-chief, John Mills.

Bro. W. J. Margraf, of Clintondale, N. Y., was elected general chairman for the Central New England.

A better officer than Bro. Terry could not have been selected. He is intensely interested in all that concerns the members of the profession, and the interest of the boys of 29 is his especial care.

To Bro. Dowd, our retiring chief, is due our heartiest thanks. Our debts to him will never be paid. He has always been a hard worker and ever alert to the best interests of all concerned. The fact that he was returned to office time after time is proof of the esteem in which he was held.

The meeting was well attended, being conducted by General Chairman Leonard J. Ross. Be on hand at the March meeting; it will be a live one.

The twelfth annual ball, held at Harmonie Hall on the evening of January 28th, was a success both socially and financially. The music furnished by Bro. Platt's orchestra was of a high order, and everybody had an enjoyable time.

A new iron train order and block signal pole has been erected and placed in operation at Brewster.

Mr. Anson assigned third Mill Plain, and J. R. Franklin second Brewster temporarily on bid.

The correspondent east of Danbury is still at the same old stand, and all we ask is just a few items.

Bro. Mills relieved on second "F" Providence, W. U. a few days.

Bro. A. W. Carleen is at Barrowsville pending bid.

All are glad to learn that First Assistant Chief Telegrapher Bro. Conant is slowly but surely recovering.

At our regular meeting, February 21st, there was a good attendance despite the bad weather. There wasn't an idle moment up to 11:30 p.m. Owing to the illness of Bro. Conant, Bro. Joslin acted as first assistant chief.

Bro. Gaynor, recently elected to the State Assembly, who could not be present, called upon the chief telegrapher and requested him to thank the brothers for their loyal support during his campaign.

After the routine work was disposed of, the annual election of officers took place. General Chairman Ross presiding. Bros. Ray, Burt and Webster were appointed as tellers.

The following officers were elected for 1914: Chief telegrapher, J. D. Vanderbeck, for third term, also re-elected for division correspondent; secretary and treasurer, W. J. Smith; first assistant chief, A. L. Conant; second term; second assistant chief, J. M. Gaynor; trustee for three years, Bro. D. M. Callis.

Great interest centers in the coming session of the Grand committee, convening in Providence, March 19th for three days. By a unanimous vote Division 35 agreed to furnish the hall for this occasion, through its committee appointed at the January meeting. Bro. F. P. Brady is chairman.

Brothers, see that items of news reach your correspondent promptly. This is important, and you are urged to give it better attention.

The report of the auditing committee was duly rendered and accepted, in which they not only report the accounts accurately kept, but pay a flattering yet just compliment to Bro. W. J. Smith for the manner of their keeping.

The division is to be congratulated upon being able to retain Bro. Smith as its secretary-treasurer.

The chief telegrapher spent the first week of March with his sisters at Paterson, N. J., his old home. He wishes to thank all who by letter and in person have extended congratulations upon re-election.

J. D. V., Div. Cor.

At our regular monthly meeting, Feb. 13th, our annual election of officers for 1914 occurred. It was a very stormy night, which interfered somewhat with our attendance.

Among those present were: Bros. Ross, our general chairman; Tiger, our local chairman; Seaman, secretary-treasurer; Kenney, second vice, our old stand-by; Reif, chief telegrapher; Storm, sub-marshals; Haag, McMahon, Hopkins, Buckley, Buckby, Hannan, and others who were not afraid to brave the storm. Bro. Ross was in the chair.

After the regular routine business, we had the election of officers, which resulted as follows: Bro. T. Reif, chief telegrapher; Bro. Seaman, secretary-treasurer; Bro. Buckby, second vice-chief, and Bro. W. O'Brien, first vice-chief, all being elected unanimously.

By a majority vote it was decided to change the hour of meeting to 7:30 p.m. instead of 8 p.m., and to keep a book of registry in charge of the secretary, to be passed around by the marshal at each meeting.

Bro. L. D. Wooley is off sick with chills and fever, and Bro. P. J. Quinn is very sick and has gone up State.

Fairfield and Greens Farms towers have been taken out of service on account of automatic signals. In connection with sickness of so many of the brothers, a prize of $10 will be given to the holder of the lucky number for the sale of tickets, in small booklets, to be sold at 10 cents the chance. When all are sold this will create a fund of about $400, which will be used for the benefit of those who are unfortunate enough to be ill. After this fund has been started it will be a good plan to levy a small assessment on the members (with their consent) to keep it up, say about 15 cents per month.

Another very important matter I wish to call to your attention is the prompt payment of dues and assessments.

We hope to see a large attendance at our next monthly meeting and more pleasant weather.

CMT. 123, Div. Cor.
Despite the inclement weather, the February meeting was well attended.

The following were elected for 1914: Chief telegrapher, Thos. J. Fogarty (seventh consecutive term); first vice-chief, D. J. McDonat; second vice-chief, Thos. F. Quilly; secretary and treasurer, F. C. McGrath.

Bro. George M. Rounds has been appointed by the chief telegrapher on the board of auditors to fill the unexpired term of Bro. M. E. Dovan, deceased.

Brothers, join the sick benefit association. If not, why not? It will only cost you two cents a week. You may be sick yourself some time, and it’s worth much to think of the comfort you are helping to give someone else in time of trouble. Be a “brother” to the limit.

Vacancies have been advertised as follows: Agent and operator Rowley, Mass.; day operator at Kennebunk, Me.; and your correspondent will be pleased to know who gets these jobs. Don’t leave it for someone else to do, but do it yourself while you think of it. Let’s have a long and interesting letter each month. Div. Cos.

Fitchburg, Mass.

New York, N. Y., Div. No. 44.

L. I. R. R.—

The regular meeting for February was called to order on the 14th by Chief Van Nostrand, but, on account of the extreme weather, was not very largely attended.

Five applications were received and favorably acted upon. It is encouraging to note how the brothers keep after the nons. In a very short while we will be solid, our percentage being far ahead of any time previously, and if the brothers will give our general committee the support they should, it will not be long before we will have the best schedule yet.

Election for the ensuing year resulted as follows: Chief telegrapher, Bro. A. D. Light; first vice-chief telegrapher, Bro. A. Filby; second vice-chief telegrapher, Bro. E. E. Van Nostrand; secretary and treasurer, Bro. L. Merringer (reelected); trustee (three years), Bro. A. F. Heller.

Bro. C. B. Van Nostrand, after serving us faithfully in the chair for six years, refused another nomination, and a committee was appointed to procure a suitable token of esteem, to be presented to him at our March meeting. We hope that the brothers will all attend this meeting and make the occasion a notable one in Bro. Van Nostrand’s association with this division.

Our general chairman, Bro. Leonard, gave us a good report of the new work he is doing. It certainly is encouraging to have such sterling men at the head of our organization working for our common good, and Bro. Leonard should receive all the support, both financially and morally, that we possibly can give, for he is working day and night for our cause, and it is only a question of a short time when we will receive a big return for our investment.

Bro. W. E. Lewis, agent Brentwood, while off several days, showing the boys the joys of joy riding in his five-passenger auto, was relieved by Bro. Deitz, who also relieved Bro. E. F. Wells, agent St. James, off two weeks learning to drive his new auto.

Bro. Thos. Gaffney returned from his honeymoon, visiting southern cities, to find his job (third sheet at “J” tower) abolished, and displaced.

Bro. Frank Shields, Jr., agent Deer Park, has been off sick some time.

"MX" tower, Bushwick Jct., was abolished on account of the removal of the grade crossing there, Bro. H. Jacobs, first, going to second at "DB" Dutchkills Draw, displacing Bro. Snelling, who displaced Mr. Fryer, resigned after being bumped three times. Bro. Dryden, second "MX," took second "R" Richmond Hill.

J. Robinson, agent Centre Moriches, still "can't join just yet," but has never said "I can't take" the increase we secured for him.

We are sorry to hear of the serious illness of Bro. P. H. Hayes, one of our staunchest brothers, ever willing to do all he could for this division.

Bro. Tom Gunn has returned to Smithtown from a three weeks' enjoyable trip out in the "wild and woolly" West.

Bro. Ralph Kaiser, first "S" cabin Syosset, is at his home in Smithtown with a bad attack of la grippe.

Rumor has it that Bro. A. R. Brower, assistant at Syosset station, will soon take one of Farmingdale's belles as a life partner. Get ready for the smokes, boys.

Bro. Booker, relieving at South Hampton, has had the time of his life shoveling snow.

The new tower at Morris Park shops opened February 1st with Bro. McCargar on first and Bro. Percy Clawson second.

Bro. E. F. Webb is looking for a vacancy since cutting out of third sheet at "J." Frank now has to report at 6 a. m.

Campbellton, N. B., Div. No. 61.

Colonial Railway of Canada—

Our last regular meeting was held at Campbellton, February 24th, Murray's Hall, Bro. Routhiger in the chair. Among those present were: Bros. McMillan, Swift, Corbett. Howard, Stewes; Ward, secretary-treasurer; McMillan, chairman; Banville, Damsylvia, Ward, Barton, Woods and Archibald. Bro. G. F. Ward was re-elected secretary-treasurer, and Bro. E. T. Swift, chief telegrapher.

All the brothers of Division 61 extend their sympathy to Bro. R. A. McMillan and family in their sad bereavement.

With our new freight and passenger engines we will be all ready for business when spring opens.

Mr. "Mac," from "JR," makes so many trips to "RS" that we are inclined to think he is a strong shareholder in the grammar school there.

Boys, be ready for the opening of the Valley in the spring. There will be some fine jobs. Don't forget to send me a few notes before the 20th of each month. CERT. 93.

Boston, Mass., Div. No. 89.

At the February night meeting the following officers were elected for the present term: Chief-telegrapher, W. L. Enos; first vice-chief, D. F. Drummond; second vice-chief, J. F. Mullen; secretary and treasurer, J. H. McDermott; auditor for three years, W. D. Henderson; trustee for three years, E. A. St. Laurent.

The election for State legislative representative resulted in the choice of Bro. J. F. Mullen. This selection is a very wise one, as he has had the necessary experience, and his ready knowledge of affairs of state, by reason of his political activities and progressive and aggressive principles, should carry weight in the council of the lawmakers. The possibilities of success are without question, judging from the intricate and voluminous report submitted at the daylight meeting.

Wasn't that Rud-O-Bartlett to hit the tower-men with both eyes closed in his speech at the safety-first meeting held in the National Theater, Boston. Believe us, Rudolph is som'niloquish noc'tuary.

Division No. 89 hereby extends its sympathies to Vice-President Tom Pierson and his mother for their siege of illness and sorrow through the death of their daughter and sister; also to Bro. Dan O'Hearn and wife for the loss of their daughter, and to Bro. Crane, of Marlboro, Mass., whose family is stricken with diphtheria, and the loss of their daughter; to wife and relatives of Bro. E. E. Wright, who died at Westale, Mass.

Bro. J. M. Gaynor, Providence Division 35, was elected representative from the Fifth District, Providence, R. I., and appointed on committee on State property.

Boston Terminal—

Bro. Sargent, director in tower 1, spent a week at Dexter, Waterville and Skowhegan, Me. Spare Director Harry Lionette will do the calling out pending the return of the various directors.

Bro. Scott, Hazelton, is acting director while A. Campbell is on vacation.

Bro. Joe Andrews, while at Jacksonville, Fla., flooded the Terminal with post cards. Thanks.

Bro. Marvel and wife are back from a very pleasant trip spent in New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore. During their absence Bill kept house and ate the "billy goat."

Bro. Tuck is back from a week's vacation.

Boston Division—

Bro. Dugas, of Division 38, is back again and relieving second trick towerman at Clarenden Hills. Bro. Noss returned after a month's illness.

Agency and operator at Weymouth bid in by Bro. Gibbons.

Bro. Clark is at South Braintree tower.

Bro. Lyons, third Atlantic, has returned from two weeks spent in New York.
Division card of Bro. H. B. White has been returned to Bro. Quick for want of a better address, from P. O. Falmouth, Mass.

Midland Division—

H. Covert, second East Douglas, has signified his intention of becoming a member of Division 89.

Bro. J. Burke, Bellingham Jet., braved a long walk to be present at our last meeting. Good spirit that.

Fire destroyed the big browning union station at Hartford, Saturday, February 21st. The officials and dispatchers were the last to leave the building, and were put to a great disadvantage, but dispatching of trains was quickly resumed from tower 214.

BARDOL, COR.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish, through The Telegrapher, to extend our thanks to the members of Division 89, O. R. T., for the beautiful floral tribute sent us at the time of our deep sorrow—the passing out of our beloved husband, father and brother.

Sincerely yours,

MRS. ELMER E. WRIGHT and SONS, EVERETT S. AND WARREN J.; also his brother, COMM. EDWARD E. WRIGHT, U. S. N., retired.

Chicago, Ill., Div. No. 91.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year at the meeting Saturday night, February 7, 1914: G. Dal Jones, chief dispatcher; W. E. Carter, secretary-treasurer; W. H. DeLong, of E. J. & E. at West Chicago, Ill., first vice-chief telegrapher; T. J. Dockery, of E. J. & E. at Burlington, Ill., second vice-chief telegrapher, and G. Dal Jones delegate to the Chicago Federation of Labor.

We will continue to hold our meeting the first Saturday of each month at the same place, room 912, Masonic Temple, Chicago, Ill.; this, upon unanimous vote of those present.

We were pleased to have several of the E. J. & E. boys with us, and hope they can arrange to get in regularly hereafter. The weather was very bad, bitterly cold, which no doubt kept more of our out-of-town members from attending.

General Chairman Carder, of Burlington Div, 130, was with us and told us many things of interest pertaining to the C. B. & O. and the Order in general. We are always glad to have Bro. Carder with us. He is an earnest worker, and his remarks are timely and deeply appreciated by our members.

Bro. Andy Cook was with us after having tried the Pacific Coast for a short period. Andy says good old Chicago town is good enough for him in the future.

OLD DAL JONES.

IN MEMORIAM.

WHEREAS, Almighty God, in His infinite wisdom, has deemed it best to call to her heavenly home the beloved mother of Bro. Ed. R. Derrickson; and

WHEREAS, We bow in humble submission to Him that doeth all things well; therefore be it

Resolved, That we, the members of the Chicago O. R. T. Division 91 and the members of the C. O. R. T. Club, extend to Bro. Derrickson our sincere and heartfelt sympathy in his sad bereavement; and be it further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved brother, a copy spread upon the minutes of Division 91 and C. O. R. T. Club, and a copy sent to The Railroad Telegrapher for publication.

Meridian, Miss., Div. No. 94.

Those of you who failed to attend the banquet at Artesia on February 14th missed the biggest thing happening in some time. Everything was enjoyed to the utmost, especially the "eats."

We held a business meeting at 8 o'clock and elected the following officers: W. W. Wilkins, Brooksville, chief telegrapher; D. W. Crump, Reform, and J. T. Owen, Starkville, vice-chief telegraphers, and unanimously re-elected Bro. Henley secretary and treasurer.

I do not recall all who attended the meeting, but am sure of Bros. Wilkins, Brooksville; Henley and Holmes, Artesia; Sykes, Meridian; Bell, Ethelville; VanDeventer, Lauderdale; Crump and Rawls, Reform, and Owen, Starkville.

After the business meeting was closed we were invited into the handsomely decorated dining-room, where a most elegant luncheon of five courses was enjoyed. The menu was prepared by Mr. A. C. Pettus, the genial agent of the Southern Express Company, and carried out without a hitch. Even Tommy, the waiter, was trained for the occasion.

After luncheon a rising vote was taken (which, under the circumstances, was exceedingly laborious, considering the amount of turkey some of the Peavine boys had consumed), and thanks extended to Mr. Pettus for the delightful repast and skillful execution of all the details.

All the boys mentioned responded to toasts, and altogether a most pleasant evening was spent.

I wish to thank Bros. Crump, of Reform, and Browning, of Fletcher, for local items this month.

I had a letter from Local Chairman H. C. Gilmer, Fruitdale, stating that he had been quite ill with pneumonia, but glad to know he is convalescing, for I sure miss his newsy letters every month.

If you main line boys don't wake up the Peavine will snow you under, for nearly every mail brings in one or more locals.
Montgomery Division—

Bro. W. J. Hubbard, Elrod, who has been off for another operation on his arm, was relieved by B. B. Isbell, from the Frisco, who also relieved Bro. B. D. Burke at Duncanville agency pending bulletin, when he bid in second Vinegar Bend.

Bro. J. M. Elliott is relieving First Trick Dispatcher Devere at Tuscaloosa.

Bro. R. S. Sweetman, from Muldon, Miss., bid in third Reform, and C. E. Brown, from the main line, bid in third at Eoline, Ala. Mr. Brown has not been in the telegraph service, but we hope he will soon have one of those beautiful cards.

H. D. Ripley, extra at Reform while on bulletin, bid in third Citronelle, main line, and we must see that he gets an up-to-date.

If some of those nons over here had been at Artesia Saturday night, February 14th, and saw the O. R. T. members enjoying that grand banquet, they would have come in and asked for a new card.

Now, boys, let's all get busy and not wait for the other fellow, for those nons should not be allowed to exist in our ranks. Div. Cor.

T. H. & B. Ry. —

Our regular meeting was held on Sunday, February 8th, with thirteen present—a pretty fair turnout.

The most important business was the election of officers for the coming year, which resulted as follows: Past chief, Bro. Staniland, Grimaby, Ont.; immediate past chief, Bro. Kelley, Hamilton, Ont.; chief telegrapher, Bro. Harrington, Hamilton, Ont.; secretary-treasurer, Bro. Armstrong, Smithville; first vice-chief, Bro. Smith, Jersey- ville; second vice-chief, Bro. Campbell, Stoney Creek. The election passed off smoothly, each office being contested for with the exception of secretary-treasurer, he being elected by acclamation.

A profitable two hours was spent in discussing the various things which we are affected by.

A letter was read from Bro. S. E. Stuart, representing the C. T. U. A., which invited this lodge either as a body or as individuals to attend a meeting held on February 15th, in the interests of the Commercial Telegraphers of Hamilton.

At the present time we have lost our claim to 100 per cent, but hope again to soon hang out the sign, as Mr. Chapman, Vinemount days, has promised to come with us.

J. L. Kelly, who has worked on this line at different times, is now at Fenwick nights, owing to Bro. Burdick being transferred to Coyle days to relieve Bro. W. Malcolm, agent Coyle, resigned.

Bro. G. R. Pearce, “UK” Hamilton nights, closed the first of the year, is again quoting stocks to the unsuspecting public, and while not making a fat living, is able to exist.

Bros. Harrington, Smith, Campbell, Richards and myself attended the meeting of the Commercial Telegraphers, Sunday, February 15th. While it was not a very large gathering, it was pretty fair for a starter. They elected a very strong executive, and with a little “stick-to-liveness” will prosper.

It will soon be summer again, and all the boys, or nearly all, should be able to attend the meetings, which are improving all the time. Ena.

First District, Stratford Division—

Our third monthly meeting was held in Odd Fellows’ Hall, Stratford, on Friday, February 20th. A great many came nearly 100 miles to attend. General Chairman Eddy, General Secretary-Treasurer Shaw and Local Chairman Middleton, of Breslau, were present, and took note of the few grievances submitted.

It was generally regretted that Local Chairman McTaggart, of Blyth, was unable to be present, as there were quite a number present from his territory with suggestions to offer, etc., but we hope he will be with us next meeting.

Bro. J. D. Craig, dispatcher Stratford, acted as chairman, and advised the members that the meeting was the place to air their grievances, so that cases worthy of recognition could be investigated by Bro. Eddy.

Bro. Cober, agent New Hamburg, acted as secretary in his usual capable manner.

The seniority list for the Stratford Division was passed around for inspection, and a great many errors noted, which Bro. Eddy took up with Chief Dispatcher Culligan the next morning, and a correct list will be prepared shortly.

Mr. Merlihan, proprietor of the American Hotel, sent up a box of fine cigars (Stratford Billes) for the boys, which was much appreciated. They all smoked to his health and voted him a “jolly good fellow,” and the boys will no doubt reciprocate by putting as much business as possible in Mr. Merlihan’s way, stopping with him when in the city in future, as he provides as good service as can be had elsewhere in Stratford.

During the evening Mr. Frank Walker, chief clerk to General Yardmaster Plummer, of Stratford, played the piano very acceptably, while Bro. G. P. Knapp, of Berlin, rendered several very pleasing vocal selections, although suffering from a very bad cold. We hope to have the pleasure of hearing him again, and would also like some of the other members musically talented to volunteer their services upon future occasions.

Bro. Sol. Finch, of the O. R. C., was a welcome visitor and gave us some pointers as to how seniority rights were figured out among the trainmen. Bro. Sol. has done some good work for us among the boys on the west end, and we are always glad to see him at our meetings.

Others members present not previously named were: A. J. Simmonds, Victo; J. F. Roe, Mt Forest; A. J. Wiemert, New Hamburg; R. W. Loftus, relief agent; R. Middleton, Newton; H.
C. Elder, Goderich; George Reid, Chesley; C. E. Fleming, Fergus; C. A. Sleel, Waiarton; J. Downs, St. Marys Jct.; W. R. C. Forster, Branchton; M. A. Swift, Guelph Jct.; W. A. Crearar, Shakespeare; H. P. Ward, West Toronto; J. Buchanan, Georgetown; W. R. Russell and W. Waugh, Baden; J. Towner, Durham; W. Middleton, Forest; A. M. Cusack, Blackwell; J. S. Hill, Granton; W. J. Dore, Lucan; G. Vanhorne, Thornadale; W. B. Rife, St. Pauls; F. W. McCordic, Camlachie; I. C. Laschinger, Petersburg, and G. Hodgins, A. Webster and ex-Bro. S. D. Croft, of Stratford, now soliciting freight agent for this division. H. Bettmer, of Berlin, who came with Bro. Knapp, will be with us as soon as classed.

Bro. Eddy had a three hours' conference with Chief Dispatcher Culligan the following morning, and brought up a few matters which he considered required adjusting, and the latter agreed to do anything within reason to promote harmony. The relief agents' positions will now bebulletined.

Someone put Archie in right. He evidently thought the meeting was to be held in Ailsa Craig.

Bro. Squires, of Rockford, had transportation, but was prevented from coming to the meeting at the last minute by the serious illness of his son with pneumonia. We hope he can be with us next time.

Our sympathy is extended to Bro. Plant, of Seaforth, in the loss of his beloved wife. It is things like this which make us all think.

Remember, boys, we hold meetings in the same old spot every third Friday of each month, and it is necessary to ask for transportation a week in advance. Some of you fellows who do not take enough interest to come out to the meetings when you can easily do so will be doing the loudest "hollering" next January if things do not come your way.  Cert. 1469.

Hamilton Division, Seventeenth District—

Bro. J. Butler, Welland Canal days to Waterdown days, former office closed for the winter.

Bro. Weafer, Port Credit days to agent Winona, relieved by Bro. Littell.

Members should not allow the first month's increase to kill the enthusiasm recently displayed. Keep it up, and each one endeavor to do his part towards keeping life in our division, and furnish me with notes of changes.

London Division, Seventeenth District—

Bro. McLeod to Ingersoll nights, and Bro. Wade from Hyde Park to day position, relieved by Bro. Swales, from Dumfries, and he by Bro. Marshall pending bids. Sebringville agency, on Twentieth District, also on bid.

Mr. Hodgins, Watford nights, relieved a few days by Mr. Jamieson, from the C. N. R.

Bro. Turner, Dundas days, on holiday, relieved by Bro. Woods, and he by A. Lickorish, a new man.

With J. Irwin, agent Dundas; W. G. Hancock, days Lyndon Jct.; C. M. Wells, agent Paris Jct., and W. A. Abray, agent Beachville, falling in line this pay day will make the Seventeenth District, London to Hamilton, practically solid.

Keep after Agent Sadler, Strathroy, Agent Davis, Wyoming, and Agent Simpson, Petrolia, also Brant and Barnes, in the London office, all of whom participated in benefits through the new schedule. One of the latter has his papers ready to send in. It would be unnecessary for any organizer to spend time and money endeavoring to have them do the square thing with the Order if all get busy.

Dispatcher Bro. S. D. Bishop, second east end, on a week's trip to Boston with his family, was moved up to second trick during his absence, relieved by Bro. Vail, "W." office.

At a very enthusiastic meeting held in the City Hotel, London, the night of February 13th, Article No. 17, relative to Sunday overtime, was fully explained by General Chairman L. M. Eddy. At this meeting the matter of teaching students was discussed at length, being plainly shown that agents and operators who harbored them around their offices were utterly unable to render the company the service desired, as well as breaking the obligation they took when affiliating with the Order.

Then a discussion followed as to how to render the company good service, resulting in the following resolutions being adopted.

First—Resolved by all members present that they give the company better service and encourage other brothers next to them to "hit the ball."

Second—Inasmuch as some of our members are teaching students, and as the company, under such circumstances, can not get the best of service, and as it is our desire to improve the service as much as possible, giving strict and personal attention to the movement of trains, resolved that every member take it upon himself to do away with these things, which are a detriment to the best interests of the service, and endeavor to get other members to co-operate with him for better results.

After thoroughly discussing the matter, it was agreed that hereafter monthly meetings will be held in London on the second Friday of each month, place of meeting to be advertised later, and that each alternate month the meeting be held at 2:30 p.m., for the benefit of the night telegraphers, and that the March meeting be held in the afternoon for night men.

Under the new arrangements for holding meetings all will be able to attend, and it is hoped all concerned will do their part towards making same the success desired. Div. Cor.

Toronto Terminals and Sixteenth District—

Bro. W. Humble, Mimico, off a few nights sick, relieved by Mr. Kennedy.

Bro. W. Weafer, days Port Credit, is now agent at Winona, relieved by Bro. Latelle.

The meeting held at Labor Temple, Toronto, February 21st, was fairly well attended, although we looked for a larger turnout. However, the largely attended meeting at Stratford the evening before may account for it, as two nights in succession would be too tiresome, and relief is hard to get.

Bro. Eddy cleared up a few misunderstandings in regard to the interpretation of certain articles of the schedule which had arisen.

We were pleased to have with us Bros. McCaughrin and Brown, of the C. P. R., who each made a few appropriate remarks and expressed the desire to see the Y. T. and C. P. boys hold some joint meetings in the future, and also have some sort of entertainment, which would help to make the meetings both interesting and socially beneficial. This was discussed at length, and it was finally decided that the C. P. R. and C. N. R.
boys be given a special invitation to attend our next regular meeting in the Labor Temple, March 16th. Bros. Ward, Grainger and Tebo were appointed as a committee to furnish some entertainment for the evening, and we look for a good attendance and a most interesting and enjoyable time.

Large pay checks were in evidence on pay day, and everybody seems satisfied. Hope no one will forget the request of the general secretary and treasurer for the first month’s increase not in excess of $10. Remit same to Bro. D. L. Shaw, London. If you think you can not spare it out of January pay, send it next month. The division has been under heavy expense for the last year or more supporting the general committee, etc., and this is a special request to put the treasury in good shape again. Everybody received handsome increases, and it is only fair that we return a little thanks for the many benefits received. “BC.”

Fifteenth District—

Bro. J. J. Knight, agent Guelph, and Bro. C.
W. Noecker, agent Blair, are recent new members.

Bro. R. Knox has been off duty for a month on account of illness.

Bro. Sam Edmonds, Acton West days, on holdays recently, relieved by Bro. L. Hewitt, Acton nights, and Bro. McAllister, Sarnia Tunnel days, on holidays, relieved by Bro. Davidson, Guelph
Jct. nights, now relieving at London East nights.

Bro. “Sandy” Hamilton, formerly at Georgetown days, is now dispatcher on G. T. I’ac. at Regina.

Bro. A. J. Wienert, new Hamburg days, will return to Brampton nights. He only went to new Hamburg until a man could be got to handle it.

The Mikado 500-class engines can now be used on this district between St. Marys Jct. and Sarnia Tunnel.

We lost our genial Telephone Inspector Geo.
Murray, being transferred to St. Thomas.
George will be missed by the boys.

Train dispatcher’s phone will soon be extended from Stratford to London.

Eye and ear test car, in charge of Ex-Conductor
W. Klopshel, is now at Palmerston. The train dispatchers at Stratford had to submit to the ordeal, but glad to say all were successful.

Seventeenth District—

It is now Bro. G. W. Kinder, Strathroy days.

Twentieth District—

New members: Bro. G. G. Skelton, agent
Onondaga; Bro. R. J. Parker, Goderich; Bro. H. C.
Elder, who does not miss many meetings.

We were in error in our recent write-up, in stating that Bro. A. L. Stone, Tavistock days, was a brother of Dispatcher Stone, of Brantford.
No relation exists.

E. O. Dunn, formerly chief dispatcher at Brantford, is now working a trick at Durand, Mich.

Vacancies on London chief dispatchers’ districts are not being advertised from Brantford, and vice versa is being looked after by Bro. Eddy.

Get out to the meetings, boys, that is where things like that are remedied.

Twenty-first District—

It is now Bro. C. W. Stark, agent Pt. Dover.
When we get D. Groat, at Norwich Jct., the pile will be solid.

Bro. A. J. Simmons, of Vittoria, and Bro. Reid, of Chesley, were the two oldest members present at the meeting February 20th.

Twenty-second and Twenty-third Districts—

New members: Bro. J. H. Bone, Galt nights, and Bro. P. Quigley, Warton days.

Twenty-fourth District—

Every man right up-to-date. A district to be proud of. Some of you boys send me some news for the next write-up, or a photograph or two.

Twentieth District, B. & T.—

Crouch, at Springford, is the only non on this district. “No card, no favors.”

Grand Trunk Western R. R., Div. No. 1.
Western Division—

Twenty new members received in the last thirty days is a good showing. Keep after the few left west of the river, and we will soon be solid.

Lapeer, passenger train station, has been greatly improved. Bolan, first there was visited recently by his brother from the M. C.

The burning of the car shops at Pt. Huron has thrown a good many men out of employment.

The ice cutting is in full swing, requiring three telegraphers at Vicksburg.

Wardel, third Imlay City, resigned, relieved by Tracy. Plummer was there one night.

A new card only costs you $6.50, March 31st up to June 30th. Get one now; add 20 cents a month for $300; 30 cents for $500, and 60 cents for $1,000 insurance to protect your loved ones, and give you a decent burial.

Brothers who fail to get their TELEGRAPHER on time, should notify Bro. L. W. Quick, St.
Louis, Mo., and you will get it promptly.
The recent meetings at Durand and Battle Creek were well attended.

The funeral of Bro. Harry F. Burdick, agent Perry, son of Bro. W. Burdick, agent Shaftsbury, held at the latter point, was very largely attended, the brothers presenting a floral bank of roses with the letters O. R. T. woven across the front. Haun relieving at Shaftsbury temporarily, relieved at Haslett by Albright.

The new motor car on the C. S. & M. Division was recently derailed and overturned.

Barney, third Pt. Huron, is now at "WI," Battle Creek.

Brothers, don't allow outsiders to come in the office and handle the phones, neither conductors nor anyone else, and lay yourself liable to be discharged, and by action of the Interstate Railroad Commission, should there happen to be a wreck. The conductor is paid to run his train, and you to do the wire work. Each should tend to his own business and observe the "safety first" rule. Lock up your office when you go to meals, so no one can use the phones.

General Superintendent Gillen's rules 5 and 6 reads: No person will be permitted to use telephone instruments in offices, except by permission of train dispatcher. Operators will take down receiver, cut in transmitter and if line is not in use give name of station calling and await dispatcher's response. This makes your duty very plain.

Dumpsey, agent Ettsburg, on ninety days' vacation, relieved by Cohn.

Morrice depot has been newly painted and looks fine. Brandon, third there, recently visited his parents at Emmett.

Shaftsbury, Mich.

Prairie Division, Districts No. One, Two and Three—

A special train was run for trainmen and conductors' ball in Melville.

It's hard to keep warm with lignite and the weather below zero. We should have hard coal, same as C. P. R. & C. H.

Bro. Armstrong, first dispatcher at Melville, is now chief at Smithers, B. C. We are glad to hear it. Bro. M. A. Lutes, third dispatcher Melville, bumped by Bro. Russell, at Graham, Ont.

Bro. Harropp, east on business for the Order, was relieved by Bro. Redford.
